NAL Academy collaborates with NTU Singapore to launch Asia Leadership Series

NAL Academy Limited (formerly known as NSE Academy Limited), a subsidiary of the National Stock Exchange of India Ltd., and Nanyang Technological University, Singapore (NTU Singapore), a globally top ranked national public research university in Singapore, today announced a strategic partnership to launch executive education programs beginning with the Asia Leadership Accelerator—a leadership development program designed for high-potential individuals and forward-looking organizations focused to develop next line of leaders across Asia.

This strategic collaboration brings together NAL Academy's strong industry orientation and executive education expertise under its commitment for workforce development with NTU's globally respected academic excellence, research-driven pedagogy, state-of-the-art green campus, leadership research, and faculty expertise. Participants will benefit from a rigorous, practice-oriented curriculum designed by NTU Nanyang Business School (NBS) Nanyang Executive Education's division covering key leadership themes such as strategic thinking, executive decision-making, leading through uncertainty, digital and business transformation, stakeholder leadership, and building high-performance teams in an Asian and global context through the lens of artificial intelligence.

The Asia Leadership Accelerator is purpose-built to support ambitious professionals seeking accelerated leadership growth as well as organizations investing in their next generation of leaders. The program enables participants to build strategic leadership capabilities required to drive Asia business growth, manage complexity, and lead transformation in a rapidly evolving economic and organizational landscape. It serves as a scalable and high-impact solution to develop leadership readiness, improve retention of high performers, and drive long-term organizational growth for organizations.

NTU NBS Dean Professor Jun Yang said: "The Asia Leadership Accelerator takes leaders beyond market understanding to forging future-ready capabilities in the age of artificial intelligence. This skills-first journey sharpens strategic judgment, strengthens governance capability, and equips leaders to drive transformation in a rapidly evolving, technology-disrupted Asia. By combining NAL Academy's industry expertise with NTU NBS's strengths in technology and business leadership, the programme sets a new benchmark for leadership development built for Asia's future growth and ambition."

NAL Academy Ltd. MD & CEO, Mr. Abhilash Misra, stated: "As organizations operate in an increasingly dynamic and uncertain global environment, leadership capability becomes a critical differentiator. We are delighted to partner with NTU Singapore to launch the Asia Leadership Series and this collaboration will offer global best practices, strategic insights, and future-focused leadership learning, helping Asia focused professionals and organizations build resilient, visionary leadership for Asia's growth story."
