

Heading:- Caution for Investors
Source:- Various Publications	Date:- 28 December, 2022

Business Standard

NSE cautions investors to stay clear of products offering assured returns

https://www.business-standard.com/article/markets/nse-cautions-investors-to-stay-clear-of-products-offering-assured-returns-122122900993_1.html

The National Stock Exchange (NSE) has asked investors not to put their money in any scheme promising assured returns from investments in the stock market.

29 December 2022

The National Stock Exchange (NSE) has asked investors not to put their money in any scheme promising assured returns from investments in the stock market.

The advisory comes after the bourse found that two entities -- Pruthvi Consultancy Services and KBK Advisory -- were offering such schemes and assuring guaranteed returns on stock market investments

The two entities are not registered either as members or authorised persons of any registered member of the NSE, the exchange said in a statement on Wednesday.

Cautioning the investors, NSE asked them not to subscribe to any such scheme or product offered by any entity offering indicative/assured/guaranteed returns in the stock market as the same is prohibited by law.

Further, investors have been advised not to share their trading credentials such as user ID and password, and not to trade in the markets based on the tips/ recommendations provided by unregistered investment advisers.

"Participation in such prohibited schemes is at investors' own risk, cost and consequences as such schemes are neither approved nor endorsed by the exchange," it added.

BQ Prime

NSE Cautions Investors Against Assured Returns Schemes

<https://www.bqprime.com/markets/nse-cautions-investors-against-assured-returns-schemes>

The advisory comes after two entities were found offering schemes assuring guaranteed returns on stock market investments.

29 December 2022

The National Stock Exchange has asked investors not to put their money in any scheme promising assured returns from investments in the stock market. The advisory comes after the bourse found that two entities—Pruthvi Consultancy Services and KBK Advisory—were offering such schemes and assuring guaranteed returns on stock market investments.

The two entities are not registered either as members or authorised persons of any registered member of the NSE, the exchange said in a statement on Wednesday. Cautioning the investors, NSE asked them not to subscribe to any such scheme or product offered by any entity offering indicative/assured/ guaranteed returns in the stock market as the same is prohibited by law.

Investors have also been advised not to share their trading credentials such as user ID and password, and not to trade in the markets based on the tips/recommendations provided by unregistered investment advisers. "Participation in such prohibited schemes is at investors' own risk, cost and consequences as such schemes are neither approved nor endorsed by the exchange," it said.

<https://www.financialexpress.com/market/nse-cautions-investors-against-assured-returns-schemes/2930968/>

The National Stock Exchange (NSE) has asked investors not to put their money in any scheme promising assured returns from investments in the stock market.

29 December 2022

The National Stock Exchange (NSE) has asked investors not to put their money in any scheme promising assured returns from investments in the stock market.

The advisory comes after the bourse found that two entities — Pruthvi Consultancy Services and KBK Advisory — were offering such schemes and assuring guaranteed returns on stock market investments. The two entities are not registered either as members or authorised persons of any registered member of the NSE, the exchange said in a statement on Wednesday.

Cautioning the investors, NSE asked them not to subscribe to any such scheme or product offered by any entity offering indicative/assured/guaranteed returns in the stock market as the same is prohibited by law.

Further, investors have been advised not to share their trading credentials such as user ID and password, and not to trade in the markets based on the tips/ recommendations provided by unregistered investment advisers.

“Participation in such prohibited schemes is at investors’ own risk, cost and consequences as such schemes are neither approved nor endorsed by the exchange,” it added.

Financial Express

NSE cautions against assured returns schemes

THE NSE HAS asked investors not to put their money in any scheme promising assured returns from investments in the stock market. The advisory comes after the bourse found that two entities — Pruthvi Consultancy Services and KBK Advisory— were offering such schemes and assuring guaranteed returns on stock market investments.

PTI

National Stock Exchange cautions investors against assured returns schemes

NEW DELHI: The National Stock Exchange (NSE) has asked investors not to put their money in any scheme promising assured returns from investments in the stock market.

The advisory comes after the bourse found that two entities — Pruthvi Consultancy Services and KBK Advisory — were offering such schemes and assuring guaranteed returns on stock market investments.

The two entities are not registered either as members or authorised persons of any registered member of the NSE, the exchange said in a statement on Wednesday. Cautioning the investors, NSE asked them not to subscribe to any such scheme or product offered by any entity offering indicative/assured/guaranteed returns in the stock market as the same is prohibited by law.

Further, investors have been advised not to share their trading credentials such as user ID and password, and not to trade in the markets based on the tips/ recommendations provided by unregistered investment advisers.

“Participation in such prohibited schemes is at investors’ own risk, cost and consequences as such schemes are neither approved nor endorsed by the exchange,” it added. PTI

Millennium Post

National Stock Exchange cautions investors against assured returns schemes

<https://www.pressreader.com/india/millennium-post-kolkata/20221230/282046216176526>

29 December 2022

New Delhi: The National Stock Exchange (NSE) has asked investors not to put their money in any scheme promising assured returns from investments in the stock market. The advisory comes after the bourse found that two entities — Pruthvi Consultancy Services and KBK Advisory — were offering such schemes and assuring guaranteed returns on stock market investments. The two entities are not registered either as members or authorised persons of any registered member of the NSE, the exchange said in a statement on Wednesday. Cautioning the investors, NSE asked them not to subscribe to any such scheme or product offered by any entity offering indicative/assured/guaranteed returns in the stock market as the same is prohibited by law. Further, investors have been advised not to share their trading credentials such as user ID and password, and not to trade in the markets based on the tips/ recommendations provided by unregistered investment advisers. "Participation in such prohibited schemes is at investors' own risk, cost and consequences as such schemes are neither approved nor endorsed by the exchange," it added.

<https://www.cnbctv18.com/market/stocks/nse-cautions-investors-against-assured-returns-schemes-in-stock-market-15539421.htm>

29 December 2022

The advisory comes after the bourse found that two entities — Pruthvi Consultancy Services and KBK Advisory — were offering such schemes and assuring guaranteed returns on stock market investments. The two entities are not registered either as members or authorised persons of any registered member of the NSE, the exchange said in a statement on Wednesday.

The National Stock Exchange (NSE) has asked investors not to put their money in any scheme promising assured returns from investments in the stock market.

The advisory comes after the bourse found that two entities — Pruthvi Consultancy Services and KBK Advisory — were offering such schemes and assuring guaranteed returns on stock market investments. The two entities are not registered either as members or authorised persons of any registered member of the NSE, the exchange said in a statement on Wednesday.

Cautioning the investors, NSE asked them not to subscribe to any such scheme or product offered by any entity offering indicative/assured/guaranteed returns in the stock market as the same is prohibited by law.

Further, investors have been advised not to share their trading credentials such as user ID and password, and not to trade in the markets based on the tips/ recommendations provided by unregistered investment advisers.

"Participation in such prohibited schemes is at investors' own risk, cost and consequences as such schemes are neither approved nor endorsed by the exchange," it added.

Indian News

NSE cautions investors against assured returns schemes

<https://indiannews-online.com/2022/12/29/nse-cautions-investors-against-assured-returns-schemes/>

29 December 2022

The National Stock Exchange (NSE) has requested investors to not put their cash in any scheme promising assured returns from investments within the inventory market.

The advisory comes after the bourse discovered that two entities — Pruthvi Consultancy Services and KBK Advisory — had been providing such schemes and assuring assured returns on inventory market investments.

The two entities are usually not registered both as members or authorised individuals of any registered member of the NSE, the alternate mentioned in an announcement on Wednesday.

Cautioning the investors, NSE requested them to not subscribe to any such scheme or product provided by any entity providing indicative/assured/assured returns within the inventory market as the identical is prohibited by legislation.

Further, investors have been suggested to not share their buying and selling credentials equivalent to consumer ID and password, and to not commerce within the markets primarily based on the information/ suggestions supplied by unregistered funding advisers.

"Participation in such prohibited schemes is at investors' personal threat, value and penalties as such schemes are neither authorized nor endorsed by the alternate," it added.

British Mail

NSE cautions investors against assured returns schemes

<https://thebritishmail.com/nse-cautions-investors-to-stay-clear-of-products-offering-assured-returns/>

29 December 2022

The National Stock Exchange (NSE) has requested investors to not put their cash in any scheme promising assured returns from investments within the inventory market.

The advisory comes after the bourse discovered that two entities — Pruthvi Consultancy Services and KBK Advisory — had been providing such schemes and assuring assured returns on inventory market investments.

The two entities are usually not registered both as members or authorised individuals of any registered member of the NSE, the alternate mentioned in an announcement on Wednesday.

Cautioning the investors, NSE requested them to not subscribe to any such scheme or product provided by any entity providing indicative/assured/assured returns within the inventory market as the identical is prohibited by legislation. Further, investors have been suggested to not share their buying and selling credentials equivalent to consumer ID and password, and to not commerce within the markets primarily based on the information/ suggestions supplied by unregistered funding advisers.

"Participation in such prohibited schemes is at investors' personal threat, value and penalties as such schemes are neither authorized nor endorsed by the alternate," it added.

Buzz Inshort

NSE Cautions Investors Against Assured Returns Schemes In Stock Market

<https://buzzinshort.com/n/221229-nse-cautions-investors-assured-returns-schemes-stock-63adb6d0d347381384f0aa86/>

29 December 2022

The advisory comes after the bourse found that two entities — Pruthvi Consultancy Services and KBK Advisory — were offering such schemes and assuring guaranteed returns on stock market investments. The two entities are not registered either as members or authorised persons of any registered member of the NSE, the exchange said in a statement on Wednesday. The National Stock Exchange (NSE) has asked investors not to put their money in any scheme promising assured returns from investments in the stock market.

The advisory comes after the bourse found that two entities — Pruthvi Consultancy Services and KBK Advisory — were offering such schemes and assuring guaranteed returns on stock market investments. The two entities are not registered either as members or authorised persons of any registered member of the NSE, the exchange said in a statement on Wednesday.

Cautioning the investors, NSE asked them not to subscribe to any such scheme or product offered by any entity offering indicative/assured/guaranteed returns in the stock market as the same is prohibited by law.

Further, investors have been advised not to share their trading credentials such as user ID and password, and not to trade in the markets based on the tips/ recommendations provided by unregistered investment advisers.

"Participation in such prohibited schemes is at investors' own risk, cost and consequences as such schemes are neither approved nor endorsed by the exchange," it added.

<https://www.ibc24.in/business/nse-cautions-investors-against-plans-for-assured-returns-1071828.html>

29 December 2022

नयी दिल्ली, 29 दिसंबर (भाषा) नेशनल स्टॉक एक्सचेंज (एनएसई) ने निवेशकों से कहा है कि वे शेयर बाजार में निवेश से सुनिश्चित प्रतिफल का दावा करने वाली किसी भी योजना में अपना पैसा न लगाएं।

एनएसई ने बुधवार को बयान में कहा कि एक्सचेंज ने पाया कि दो इकाइयां – पृथ्वी कंसल्टेंसी सर्विसेज और केबीके एडवाइजरी – ऐसी योजनाओं की पेशकश कर रही थीं और शेयर बाजार के निवेश पर सुनिश्चित लाभ की गारंटी का आश्वासन दे रही थीं।

निवेशकों को आगाह करते हुए एनएसई ने उन्हें ऐसी किसी भी योजना या उत्पाद की सदस्यता नहीं लेने के लिए कहा, जो शेयर बाजार में सांकेतिक / सुनिश्चित / गारंटीशुदा लाभ की पेशकश करती है, क्योंकि यह कानून द्वारा निषिद्ध है।