Change In Control

As per Regulation 9 (c) of SEBI (Stock Brokers) Regulations, 1992, one of the conditions of registration is that Members have to obtain prior approval of the SEBI for any change in control. SEBI circular CIR/MIRSD/2/2011 dated June 03, 2011, CIR/MIRSD/14/2011 dated August 02, 2011, SEBI/HO/MIRSD/ MIRSD-PoD- 2/P/CIR/2022/163 dated November 28, 2022, requires all Members of the CC to take prior approval of SEBI and CC for any change in control. Additionally, with effect from April 1, 2024, member are also required to obtain prior approval of the Clearing Corporation for any change in control.

The following scenarios will amount to change in control:

Sr. No.	Change in Control scenarios	Whether Approval required
1	Any change in the promoters/partners resulting in change in control of the member as defined in SEBI (Stockbrokers) Regulations, 1992 ² & SEBI (Substantial Acquisition of Shares & Takeovers) Regulations, 2011 (SAST) ³	NOC from, Clearing Corporation & Prior Approval of SEBI
2	Change in legal formation or ownership w.r.t Partnership/ LLP/ individual members	NOC from Clearing Corporation & Prior Approval of SEBI

² SEBI (Stock Brokers) Regulations, 1992 (“SB Regs”) defines “change in control” as under:

(ac) “change in control” –

(i) in case of a body corporate –

(A) if its shares are listed on any recognised stock exchange, shall be construed with reference to the definition of control in terms of regulations framed under clause (h) of sub-section (2) of section 11 of the Act;

(B) in any other case, shall be construed as change in the controlling interest in the body corporate;

Explanation:

For the purpose of para (B) of this sub-clause, the expression “controlling interest” means an interest, whether direct or indirect, to the extent of at least fifty-one percent of voting rights in the body corporate.

(ii) in a case other than that of a body corporate, shall be construed as any change in its legal formation or ownership.

³SEBI (Substantial Acquisition of Shares & Takeovers) Regulations, 2011 (SAST) defines “control” as under:

“Control” includes the right to appoint majority of the directors or to control the management or policy decisions exercisable by a person or persons acting individually or in concert⁴, directly or indirectly, including by virtue of their shareholding or management rights or shareholders agreements or voting agreements or in any other manner.

⁴ Persons Acting in concert shall have the same meaning as defined under 2 (q) of Chapter I of SEBI (SAST) Regulations, 2011

Exception to the aforementioned rule for change in control

In view of the SEBI circular Ref No. SEBI/HO/MIRSD/DOR/CIR/P/2021/42 dated March 25, 2021, in the following the scenarios the change in shareholding will not be construed as change in control and hence SEBI prior approval shall not be required:

- In case of unlisted body corporate
 - Transfer of shareholding among immediate relatives (as defined under Regulation 2(I) of SEBI (SAST) Regulations.
 - Transfer of shareholding by way of transmission.
- In case of partnership firm
 - Transfer of interest amongst the partners.
 - Transfer of interest by way of transmission to a legal heir of a deceased partner provided the same is mentioned in partnership deed.

Ultimate Beneficiary Owner (UBO) Identification

In accordance with the provisions of Prevention of Money Laundering Act (PMLA) and SEBI circular CIR/MIRSD/2/2013 dated January 24, 2013, the beneficial owner shall be identified as per below criteria:

- i. more than 25% of shares or capital or profits of the juridical person, where the juridical person is a company; or
- ii. more than 15% of the capital or profits of the juridical person, where the juridical person is a partnership; or
- iii. more than 15% of the property or capital or profits of the juridical person, where the juridical person is an unincorporated association or body of individuals.
- iv. In case of a trust, the identity of the settler of the trust, the trustee, the protector, the beneficiaries with 15% or more interest in the trust and any other natural person exercising ultimate effective control over the trust.
- v. In case of non-individuals except listed entities, details of the immediate promoter / partner and the Ultimate Beneficial Owner should be provided.

Exceptions where UBO is/are not to be identified:

- i. Where the client or the owner of the controlling interest is a company listed on a stock exchange or is a majority-owned subsidiary of such a company, it is not necessary to identify and verify the identity of ultimate beneficial owner of such companies.
- ii. If in the opinion of the CC, it is evident that the identification of promoters/promoter group is not practically possible in terms of the aforesaid norms, then the CC, at its sole discretion, reserves the right on deciding on identification of promoters/promoter group by adding certain conditions, if required.
- iii. Where all the promoters in a Scheduled Bank or any Financial Institution registered with or regulated by any regulatory authority such as RBI, SEBI, IRDA, PFRDA or as decided by the CC from time to time.

- In case of upgradation to corporate, the proposed corporate should have a minimum paid up capital of Rs. 30 lakhs and meet the net worth requirements of the CC from time to time.
- After the upgradation is approved, the Member will have to pay the differential deposits as applicable to corporate Members.

G. APPOINTMENT OF COMPLIANCE OFFICER

As per Regulation 18A of Chapter IV of SEBI (Stock-Broker) regulation, 1992 all Members are required to appoint a Compliance Officer. Members are required to submit the details of appointment/change in Compliance officer to the CC

GUIDELINES ON COMPLIANCE OFFICERS

As per Regulation 18A of SEBI (Stockbroker) Regulation, 1992, all registered Members of the CC are required to appoint a Compliance Officer who shall be responsible for monitoring the compliance of the Act, rules and regulations, notifications, guidelines, instructions, etc., issued by SEBI or Central Government or CCs for redressal of investors' grievances. The Compliance Officer is required to immediately and independently report to SEBI/CCs any non-compliance observed by him.

Further, as per the current regulatory requirement, compliance officers are required to clear the NISM-Series-III A: Securities Intermediaries Compliance (Non-Fund) Certification Examination, within one year from the date of their employment, in terms of Gazette of India notification dated March 11, 2013, issued by SEBI. The certification is valid for a period of 3 years. The recertification can be undertaken either by clearing the NISM exam or attending the CPE program of NISM. Currently there are no guidelines prescribed by SEBI/CC w.r.t the eligibility of compliance officers, tenure, and their continued suitability on an ongoing basis.

In order to have a robust compliance system, Members should have an effective compliance culture and a strong compliance risk management programme. The Compliance Officer plays an important role in facilitating compliance by promoting strong regulatory practices that ensure risk management, investor protection and market integrity. Hence, the Compliance Officer should be selected through a suitable process with an appropriate 'fit and proper' evaluation/selection criteria to manage the compliance risk effectively. In this regard, the following guidelines are proposed:

Applicability:

The below mentioned guidelines are applicable to the employee designated as Compliance officer:

- Eligibility criteria for appointment of Compliance Officers:

Educational qualification: An individual shall be eligible to be appointed as Compliance Officer if he/she has passed graduation or an equivalent examination from a Government recognized institution. All the existing Compliance Officer of Members on record of the CC having experience of 2 years or more shall be exempted from the above- mentioned criteria for educational qualification.

- a) Experience: At the time of appointment, the candidate should at least have 2 years of prior work experience in banking or financial services, handling Audit/Finance/Compliance/ Legal/Operations/Risk Management functions.
- b) Skills: The eligible candidate should have good understanding of securities market industry, risk management, knowledge of regulations, legal framework and regulatory expectations.

- Certification Requirement:

- a) Compliance officers shall be required to pass the NISM-Series-III A: Securities Intermediaries Compliance (Non-Fund) Certification Examination within 1 year from the date of employment in terms of SEBI notification dated March 11, 2013. The Compliance Officer shall ensure that the certification is renewed before the completion of its validity, as per the procedure specified by NISM, from time to time.

- b) In order to ensure that the Compliance Officer is well informed of all relevant laws and amendments thereof, it is essential that there should be a continuing education program for him/her. In this regard, Members shall impart half-yearly training to their compliance officers which will cover subject-wise key regulatory requirements and regulatory changes made in the last six months.

- Tenure: Members shall ensure that any transfer / removal of Compliance Officer is done with explicit prior approval of the Board/ Partners as the case may be and, after following a well-defined and transparent internal administrative procedure and reasons be recorded in writing. In case of any change in Compliance Officer due to any reasons beyond the control of the Member such as death, resignation etc., Members are required to intimate the CC within 7 working days of such a change. In case of such unforeseen change, the Compliance Officer should be appointed within three months from the date of death/resignation of the erstwhile Compliance Officer and confirm the same to the CC. Notwithstanding the above, the office of the Compliance Officer shall not remain vacant for more than 15 calendar days. In the event of resignation/demise etc. Member should appoint an interim Compliance Officer till such time a regular Compliance Officer is appointed within 3 months from the date of vacation of office.

- Due diligence requirements: Members shall ensure that the person appointed as Compliance Officer is “fit and proper” in terms of Schedule II of SEBI Intermediaries Regulations, 2008.
- Familiarization program: Members shall provide half yearly compliance training program to all the compliance officers including newly appointed officials. It will be mandatory to attend the said program. Individuals who have served as compliance officers for more than a year and have joined another Member in the same capacity, shall be excluded from the aforesaid program. The training content will include all compliance requirements with respect to trading, Clearing/settlement, inspections, Membership compliance, investor grievance redressal mechanism, surveillance related compliance requirements.
- Authority: The Compliance Officer shall have the ability to independently exercise judgement in all matters of compliance and regulations. The Compliance Officer should have the freedom and sufficient authority to interact with regulators/supervisors directly and ensure compliance. In addition, he/she shall have the necessary authority to communicate with any staff member and have access to all records or files that are necessary to carry out entrusted responsibilities in respect of the compliance issues. It should be ensured that the Compliance Officer or any staff of his office is not assigned any responsibility which brings elements of conflict of interest, especially any role relating to business development/sales. The Compliance Officer shall under no circumstances act in such a dual capacity.
- Action by CC: The CC shall also reserve the right to seek necessary explanations from the Compliance Officer or record his/her statements in terms of the relevant rules/regulations of the CC and initiate suitable disciplinary action against him/her including debarment or directing the Member for removal, if he/she is found to have failed to carry out his/her responsibilities in a reasonable manner. All actions shall be initiated by the CC, after following due process and providing an opportunity of hearing to the Member /Compliance officer.
