SCHEME BACKGROUND

As part of its disinvestment programme, the Government of India ("GOI"), through its Cabinet Committee on Economic Affairs ("CCEA") on May 2, 2013 approved the setting up of a central public sector enterprise exchange traded fund ("ETF") comprising equity shares of central public sector enterprises ("CPSE"), which was launched as a CPSE ETF mutual fund scheme.

The Department of Investment and Public Asset Management (formerly Department of Disinvestment), Ministry of Finance, Government of India (DIPAM) had appointed Goldman Sachs Asset Management (India) Private Limited (GSAM AMC) the "erstwhile AMC", to launch and manage the Scheme in accordance with SEBI Regulations. In accordance with the decision of CCEA, the erstwhile AMC had launched the Scheme on March 28, 2014, which was initially offered to the public for Subscription by way of a New Fund Offer (NFO) in accordance with the SEBI Regulations. The proceeds of the NFO, had been utilized for the purchase of the CPSE shares as represented in the constituent companies of the Nifty CPSE Index in similar composition and weightages as they appear in the Nifty CPSE Index. The President of India ("Seller"), represented through different Departments and Ministries, had sold the shares at a discounted rate to the Scheme for the benefit of the Unit holders and the Mutual Fund had in turn created and allotted Units of the Scheme, to Unit holders. After the closing of the NFO, the Units were listed (and continue to be listed) on the Exchanges on April 4, 2014 in the form of an Exchange Traded Fund ("ETF") tracking the Nifty CPSE Index.

Further, GSAM AMC and Goldman Sachs Trustee Company (India) Private Limited (GSAM TC), the erstwhile asset management company and trustees of Goldman Sachs Mutual Fund respectively entered into an agreement with Reliance Nippon Life Asset Management Limited (now Nippon Life India Asset Management Limited and Reliance Capital Trustee Co. Limited (now Nippon Life India Trustee Limited, the asset management company and trustee company of Reliance Mutual Fund (now Nippon India Mutual Fund ("NIMF"))) respectively, pursuant to which, Reliance Capital Trustee Co. Limited (now Nippon Life India Trustee Limited) would take over the trusteeship of the Scheme from the GSAM TC and Reliance Nippon Life Asset Management Limited (now Nippon Life India Asset Management Limited) would take over the rights to manage the Scheme from GSAM AMC and become the investment manager of the Scheme. On November 05, 2016 the Scheme of Goldman Sachs Mutual Fund was transferred to the Reliance Mutual Fund (now Nippon India Mutual Fund (NIMF)).

Further in accordance with the approval received from DIPAM on August 07, 2015 for FFO, on February 20, 2017 for FFO 2, on September 20, 2018 for FFO 3, on March 11, 2019 for FFO 4 & on July 08, 2019 for FFO 5 and CCEA approval dated May 02, 2013, Nippon Life India Asset Management Limited launched the Further Fund Offer ("FFO") of the Scheme on January 17, 2017; Further Fund Offer 2 ("FFO 2") of the Scheme on March 14, 2017; Further Fund Offer 3 ("FFO 3") of the Scheme on November 27, 2018; Further Fund Offer 4 ("FFO 4") of the Scheme on March 19, 2019 and Further Fund Offer 5 ("FFO 5") of the Scheme on July 18, 2019 which was offered to the public for Subscription by way of FFOs in accordance with the SEBI Regulations. The proceeds of the FFOs, had been utilized for the purchase of the CPSE shares as represented in the constituent companies of the Nifty CPSE Index in similar composition and weightages as they appear in the Nifty CPSE Index. The President of India ("Seller"), represented through different Departments and Ministries, had sold the shares at a discounted rate to the Scheme for the benefit of the Unit holders who had participated and received allotment in the respective FFOs and the Mutual Fund had in turn created and allotted FFO Units of the Scheme, to these Unit holders. After the closing of the FFO, FFO 2, FFO 3, FFO 4 and FFO 5, the FFO, FFO 2, FFO 3, FFO 4 and FFO 5 Units were listed (and continue to be listed) on the Exchanges on January 31, 2017, March 28, 2017, December 10, 2018, April 01, 2019 and July 29, 2019 respectively.

In accordance with the letter of approval from the DIPAM (Ref.No. F.No.9/5/2009-DD-II (Pt.XIV)) dated January 16, 2020 to the AMC and the CCEA approval dated May 02, 2013, the DIPAM intends to sell further CPSE shares to the Scheme. The AMC has therefore formulated this Further Fund Offer 6 ("FFO 6") of the Scheme, which is being offered to the public for Subscription in accordance with the SEBI Regulations. As undertaken for the earlier FFOs of the Scheme, it is proposed that the Mutual Fund would, out of the proceeds of the FFO 6, purchase the CPSE shares as represented in the constituent companies of the Nifty CPSE Index in similar composition and weightages as they appear in the Nifty CPSE Index. The Seller, represented through different Departments and Ministries, will sell the shares at a discounted rate (if any) to the Scheme for the benefit of the Unit holders and the Mutual Fund will in turn create and allot Units of the Scheme to Unit holders. In case of partial purchase of the underlying Index constituents from the Seller, the Scheme shall purchase the remaining portion of the underlying Index constituents from the open market, on behalf of the investors; no discount will be offered on such purchase of index constituents from open market. Subsequently, after the closing of the FFO 6, the FFO 6 Units will also be listed on the Exchanges in the form of an ETF tracking the Nifty CPSE Index

Investors / Unit holders to note that the FFO 6 would not preclude, restrict or in any way prohibit the Seller from undertaking further divestments by selling additional CPSE shares to the Scheme through the Tap Structure mechanism, details of which are provided in Section III (B) (Tap Structure) of the SID (as amended from time to time).

Investors / Unit holders should also note that this FFO 6 would not preclude, restrict or in any way prohibit the Seller from undertaking further divestments by selling additional CPSE shares to the Scheme for any additional FFOs launched by the Mutual Fund / Trustee Company / AMC from time to time, and for such additional FFOs the Mutual Fund / Trustee Company / AMC would issue separate supplements to SID at the relevant time.

The DIPAM has appointed ICICI Securities Limited as the advisor for the FFO 6. The DIPAM has been authorized by the President of India, acting through various Departments and Ministries to sell the CPSE shares to the Mutual Fund on behalf of and for the account of the Scheme pursuant to the closing of the FFO 6.

12. UNITS OFFERED AT PREMIUM/ DISCOUNT

As the Units of the Scheme can be bought / sold directly from the Mutual Fund, this mechanism provides efficient arbitrage between the traded prices and the NAV, thereby reducing the incidence of the Units of the Scheme being traded at premium / discounts to NAV.

In the FFO 6, each FFO 6 Unit of the Scheme being offered will have a face value of ₹ 10/- (Rupees Ten) each and will be issued at a premium, if any, approximately equal to the difference between the face value and the FFO 6 Allotment Price. The FFO 6 Allotment Price would be approximately equal to 1/100th of Nifty CPSE Index and would be calculated post adjusting discount (if any) offered by GOI to FFO 6 of the Scheme for buying the underlying Nifty CPSE Index shares out of the FFO 6 Proceeds.

Please refer to Section III (A) – Allotment, for details on calculation of FFO 6 Allotment Price.

13. DISCOUNT OFFERED BY GOI TO FFO 6 OF THE SCHEME

A discount of 3% (Three percent) on the “FFO 6 Reference Market Price” of the underlying Nifty CPSE Index shares shall be offered to FFO 6 of the Scheme by GOI. The DIPAM, through its letter (Ref.No. F.No.9/5/2009-DD-II (Pt.XIV)) dated January 16, 2020 conveyed the approval granted by the Alternate Mechanism (AM) for the discount of 3% (Three percent) to be offered to the FFO 6 of the Scheme for buying the underlying Nifty CPSE Index shares from GOI. The purchase from GOI would be out of the FFO 6 Proceeds received by the Scheme towards Subscription of its FFO 6 Units by all categories of Investors. Investors should note that the above mentioned discount on the 'FFO 6 Reference Market Price' may not be a discount to the closing market price of the underlying shares of Nifty CPSE Index on the FFO 6 Allotment Date. Post closure of FFO 6, the Scheme will purchase the underlying Index constituents from GOI. In the event an index constituent is purchased fully or partially from open market to meet the Maximum Amount to be Raised as stated in Section III – Further Fund Offer 6, no discount will be offered on such purchase of index constituents from open market.

Please note that this discount offered by GOI will only be applicable to the investors investing in the Scheme through the FFO 6.

14. TAP STRUCTURE UNDER THE SID

Investors / Unit holders to note that the FFO 6 would not preclude, restrict or in any way prohibit the Seller from undertaking further divestments by selling additional CPSE shares to the Scheme through the Tap Structure mechanism, details of which are provided in Section III (B) (Tap Structure) of the SID (as amended from time to time).

15. FURTHER FUND OFFERS

Investors / Unit holders should also note that this FFO 6 would not preclude, restrict or in any way prohibit the Seller from undertaking further divestments by selling additional CPSE shares to the Scheme for any additional FFOs launched by the Mutual Fund / Trustee Company / AMC from time to time, and for such additional FFOs the Mutual Fund / Trustee Company / AMC would issue separate supplements to SID at the relevant time.

I - INTRODUCTION

A. RISK FACTORS

Standard Risk Factors:

- Investment in the Mutual Fund's Units involves investment risks such as trading volumes, settlement risk, liquidity risk, default risk including the possible loss of principal. Further, there is no assurance or guarantee that the objectives of the Scheme will be achieved.
- As the price / value / interest rates of the Securities in which the Scheme invests fluctuates, the value of your investment in the Scheme may go up or down depending on the factors and forces affecting the capital market in India.
- Past performance of the Sponsors / AMC / Mutual Fund does not guarantee the future performance of the Scheme.
- The name of the Scheme does not in any manner indicate either the quality of the Scheme or its future prospects and returns. Investors are therefore urged to study the terms of the Scheme carefully and consult their investment advisor before they invest in the Scheme.
- From time to time and subject to the SEBI Regulations, the Sponsor, their affiliates, associates, subsidiaries, the Mutual Fund and the AMC may invest directly or indirectly in the Scheme. These entities may acquire a substantial portion of the Units and collectively constitute a major Investor in the Scheme. Accordingly, Redemption of Units held by such entities may have an adverse impact on the Scheme because the timing of such Redemption may impact the ability of other Unit holders to Redeem their Units.
- The Sponsor is not responsible or liable for any loss or shortfall resulting from the operation of the Scheme beyond the initial contribution of an amount of ₹ 1,00,000/- (Rupees One Lakh only) towards setting up of the Mutual Fund. The associates of the Sponsor are not responsible or liable for any loss or shortfall resulting from operation of the Scheme.
- Different types of Securities in which the Scheme would invest, as given in this Supplement, carry different levels and types of risks. Accordingly the Scheme's risk may increase or decrease depending upon its investment pattern. For example, equity and Equity Related Securities carry a higher amount of risk than debt Securities.
- As permitted under the SEBI Regulations, the AMC will engage the services of Distributors for the distribution of Units of the Scheme and may make differential payment to the Distributors based on varying fee structures as may be agreed between the AMC and each of the Distributors, the amount of which would typically be connected to the volume of sales.
- Investment decisions made by the AMC may not always be profitable.
- The present Scheme is not a guaranteed or assured return Scheme.

Scheme Specific Risk Factors

The Scheme is subject to the principal risks described below. Some or all of these risks may adversely affect Scheme's NAV, yield, return and / or its ability to meet its objectives.

(a) Portfolio Concentration Risk

To the extent that the Scheme may concentrate its investments in the Securities of companies of certain sectors, the Scheme will therefore be subject to the risks associated with such concentration. In addition, to the extent the Scheme may invest in small capitalization and/or newly-established companies, the Scheme may be exposed to higher levels of volatility and risk than would generally be the case in a more diverse fund portfolio of equity Securities. Such risks may impact the Scheme to the extent that it invests in particular sectors even in cases where the investment objective is more generic.

(b) Risks Associated with Investing in Equities

- Subject to the stated investment objective, the Scheme proposes to primarily invest in equity and Equity Related Securities. The Scheme is intended for long-term Investors who can accept the risks associated with investing primarily in such Securities. Equity instruments by nature are volatile and subject to price fluctuations on a daily basis due to both macro and micro factors. Investors in equity and Equity Related Securities will be subject to the risks associated with equities, the values of which in general fluctuate in response to the activities of individual companies and general market and economic conditions. In particular, Investors should be aware that equity and Equity Related Securities are subordinate in the right of payment to other corporate Securities, including debt Securities. To the extent the Scheme invests in other schemes of the Mutual Fund or schemes of other mutual funds, Investors will be subject to the risks associated with such schemes and the underlying investments of such schemes. Any inability to dispose of Securities in the Scheme due to adverse market conditions or other factors could result either in losses to the Unit holders due to subsequent declines in value of such Securities.
- The Fund Manager may invest in the Securities of smaller, lesser-known companies. These investments may involve greater risk and the possibility of greater portfolio price volatility than investing in larger, more mature or better-known firms. Amongst other reasons for the greater price volatility of Securities of small companies and unseasoned stocks are the less certain growth prospects of smaller firms, the lower degree of liquidity of the markets for such stocks, and the greater sensitivity of small companies to changing economic conditions. For example, these companies are associated with higher investment risk than that normally associated with larger firms due to the greater business risks of small size and limited product lines, markets, distribution channels and financial and managerial resources. Such Securities, including those of newer or recently restructured companies or those which may have experienced financial difficulties, may be more volatile in price than larger capitalised stocks.
- Convertible Securities

The Scheme may invest in convertible Securities that are debt obligations of the issuer convertible at a stated exchange rate into equity shares of the issuer. As with all debt Securities, the market value of convertible Securities tends to decline as interest rates increase and, conversely increases as interest rates decline. Convertible Securities generally offer lower interest or dividend yields than non-convertible Securities of similar quality. However, when the market price of the equity shares underlying a convertible Security exceeds the conversion price, the price of the convertible Security tends to reflect the value of the underlying equity shares. As the market price of the underlying equity shares declines, the convertible Security tends to trade increasingly on a yield basis, and thus may not depreciate to the same extent as the underlying equity shares. Convertible Securities generally rank senior to equity shares in an issuer's capital structure and are consequently of higher quality and entail less risk than the issuer's equity shares. However, the extent to which such risk is reduced depends in large measure upon the degree to which the convertible Security sells above its value as a fixed income Security. In evaluating a convertible Security, the AMC will give primary emphasis to the attractiveness of the underlying equity shares.

- Corporate Action and Proxy Voting

From time to time, the issuer of a Security held in the Scheme may initiate a corporate action relating to that Security. Corporate actions relating to equity Securities may include, among others, an offer to purchase new shares, or to tender existing shares, of that Security at a certain price. Corporate actions relating to debt Securities may include, among others, an offer for early redemption of the debt Security, or an offer to convert the debt Security into stock. Certain corporate actions are voluntary, meaning that the Scheme may only participate in the corporate action if it elects to do so in a timely fashion. Participation in certain corporate actions may enhance the value of the Scheme.

In cases where the Fund or the Fund Manager receives sufficient advance notice of a voluntary corporate action, the Fund Manager will exercise its discretion, in good faith, to determine whether the Scheme will participate in that corporate action. If the Fund Manager does not receive sufficient advance notice of a voluntary corporate action, the Fund Manager acting on behalf of the Scheme may not be able to timely elect to participate in that corporate action. Participation or lack of participation in a voluntary corporate action may result in a negative impact on the value of the Scheme.

The AMC may, at its discretion, exercise or procure the exercise of voting or other rights which may be exercisable in relation to Securities held by the Scheme, or at its discretion, elect not to exercise or procure the exercise of such voting or other rights. In relation to the exercise of such rights the AMC has established guidelines for the exercise of voting or other rights wherein it is stated that for passive funds / ETFs, it will generally be abstaining from voting on resolutions.

- Risks relating to Investing in Indian Markets

Investments in India may be affected by political, social, and economic developments affecting India, which may include changes in exchange rates and controls, interest rates, government policies, diplomatic conditions, hostile relations with neighbouring countries, taxation policies including the possibility of expropriation or confiscatory taxation, imposition of withholding taxes on Dividend or interest payments, limitation on removal of funds or assets of the Scheme and ethnic, religious and racial disaffections or conflict.

The relative small size and inexperience of the Securities markets in India and the limited volume of trading in Securities may make the Scheme's investments illiquid and more volatile than investments in more established markets.

In addition, the settlement systems may be less developed than in more established markets, which could impede the Scheme's ability to effect portfolio transactions and may result in delayed settlement and the Scheme's investments being settled through a more limited range of counter parties with an accompanying enhanced credit risk.

To the extent the Scheme is subject to margining or pre-payment systems, whereby margin or the entire settlement proceeds for a transaction is required to be posted prior to the settlement date, this can potentially give rise to credit and operational risks as well as potentially borrowing costs for the Scheme.

- Risk relating to receiving underlying CPSE Securities from the GOI

In the event the Scheme does not receive the underlying CPSE Securities from the GOI pursuant to the FFO 6, for any reason whatsoever, including on account of GOI terminating the agreement with the AMC (for sale of the underlying CPSE Securities to the Scheme) for breach of any terms under such agreement, the Scheme will not allot FFO 6 Units to the Investor and would refund the Subscription amount to the Investor in accordance with the provisions under this Supplement. In the event the Scheme has already allotted FFO 6 Units to the Investor in anticipation of receipt of the underlying CPSE Securities from the GOI, the AMC would cancel the FFO 6 Units allotted to the Investor and refund the Subscription amount to the Investor in accordance with the provisions under this Supplement.

- Risk relating to CPSE Securities

Since the CPSE companies are substantially owned by the GOI, the agenda of the GOI may at times be focused on the social good and therefore may not always be aimed at profit maximization for the Unit holder. The interests of the GOI may be different from the interests of Unit holders and as a result, the GOI may take actions with respect to the CPSE sector that may not be in the best interests of Unit holders. There can be no assurance that such incidents would not result in a fall in price of the underlying securities constituting the Nifty CPSE Index and correspondingly the NAV of the Scheme.

- Risk of Investment Strategy

As the Scheme would be primarily investing in the stock of CPSE companies, any government policy which will have an impact on central public sector enterprises, including any change in the disinvestment policy of the government, could impact the performance of the Scheme.

- Risks relating to the proposed discount (if any) on the FFO 6 Reference Market Price

Investors should note that the FFO 6 Reference Market Price for each of the constituents of the Nifty CPSE Index would be determined based on the average of the full day volume weighted average price (VWAP) of the constituents of the Nifty CPSE Index on the NSE during the Non Anchor Investor FFO 6 Period. This price could be different from the closing market price for each of the constituents of the Nifty CPSE Index on the FFO 6 Allotment Date. Since the AMC would be applying the discount offered by the GOI to the FFO 6 of the Scheme on the FFO 6 Reference Market Price, the discounted price for each of the constituents may or may not be lower than the closing market price for each of the constituents on the FFO 6 Allotment Date. Hence, the discounted price at which the Scheme would purchase shares of each of the constituents of the Nifty CPSE Index from the GOI from the FFO 6 Proceeds might not amount to a discount against the closing market price of the constituents on the FFO 6 Allotment Date. In the event an index constituent is purchased fully or partially from open market to meet the Maximum Amount to be Raised as stated in Section III – Further Fund Offer 6, no discount will be offered on such purchase of index constituents from open market.

(c) Market Risk

The NAV of the Scheme will react to the securities market movements. The Investor may lose money over short or long periods due to fluctuation in the Scheme's NAV in response to factors such as economic, political, social instability or diplomatic developments, changes in interest rates and perceived trends in stock prices, market movements and over longer periods during market downturns. Investments may be adversely affected by the possibility of expropriation or confiscatory taxation, imposition of withholding taxes on dividend or interest payments, limitations on the removal of funds or other assets of the Scheme. The Scheme may not be able to immediately sell Securities. The purchase price and subsequent valuation of restricted and illiquid Securities may reflect a discount, which may be significant, from the market price of comparable Securities for which a liquid market exists.

(d) Market Trading Risks

(i) Absence of prior active market

Although the Units of the Scheme are listed on NSE and BSE, there can be no assurance that an active secondary market will develop or be maintained. Hence there would be time when trading in the Units of the Scheme would be infrequent.

(ii) Trading in Units may be Halted

Trading in the Units of the Scheme on NSE and BSE may be halted because of market conditions or for reasons that in view of NSE, BSE or SEBI, trading in the Units of the Scheme are not advisable. In addition, trading of the Units of the Scheme are subject to trading halts caused by extraordinary market volatility and pursuant to NSE, BSE and SEBI 'circuit filter' rules. There can be no assurance that the requirements of NSE and BSE necessary to maintain the listing of the Units of the Scheme will continue to be met or will remain unchanged.

(iii) Lack of Market Liquidity

The Scheme may not be able to immediately sell certain types of illiquid Securities. The purchase price and subsequent valuation of restricted and illiquid Securities may reflect a discount, which may be significant, from the market price of comparable Securities for which a liquid market exists.

(iv) Units of the Scheme may trade at prices other than NAV

The Units of the Scheme may trade above or below its NAV. The NAV of the Scheme will fluctuate with changes in the market value of the holdings of the Scheme. The trading prices of the Units of the Scheme will fluctuate in accordance with changes in its NAV as well as market supply and demand for the Units of the Scheme. However, given that Units of the Scheme can be created and Redeemed in Creation Units directly with the Mutual Fund, it is expected that large discounts or premiums to the NAV of Units of the Scheme will not sustain due to arbitrage opportunity available.

(v) Regulatory risk

Any changes in trading regulations by NSE, BSE or SEBI may affect the ability of market maker to arbitrage resulting into wider premium/discount to NAV.

(vi) Reinvestment Risk

This risk refers to the interest rate levels at which cash flows received from the Securities in the Scheme is reinvested. The additional income from reinvestment is the "interest on interest" component. The risk is that the rate at which interim cash flows can be reinvested may be lower than that originally assumed.

(vii) Risk of Substantial Redemptions

Substantial Redemptions of Units within a limited period of time could require the Scheme to liquidate positions more rapidly than would otherwise be desirable, which could adversely affect the value of both the Units being Redeemed and that of the outstanding Units of the Scheme. The risk of a substantial Redemption of the Units may be exacerbated where an investment is made in the Scheme as part of a structured product with a fixed life and where such structured products utilise hedging techniques. Please also refer to the sections on 'right to limit Redemptions' and 'suspension of Purchase / Redemption of Units' in the Statement of Additional Information.

Regardless of the period of time in which Redemptions occur, the resulting reduction in the NAV of the Scheme could also make it more difficult for the Scheme to generate profit or recover losses. The Trustee, in the general interest of the Unit holders of the Scheme offered under this Supplement and the SID and keeping in view of the unforeseen circumstances/unusual market conditions, may limit the total number of Units which can be Redeemed on any Working Day depending on the total "Saleable Underlying Stock" available with the Fund.

(e) Volatility Risk

The equity markets and Derivative markets are volatile and the value of Securities, Derivative contracts and other instruments correlated with the equity markets may fluctuate dramatically from day to day. This volatility may cause the value of investment in the Scheme to decrease.

(f) Redemption Risk

Investors may note that even though the Scheme is an open-ended Scheme, the Scheme would ordinarily repurchase Units in Creation Unit Size. Thus Unit holdings less than the Creation Unit Size can only be sold through the secondary market on the Exchange unless any of the scenarios mentioned below have occurred -:

- if the traded price of the ETF Units is at a discount of more than 3% to the NAV for continuous 30 days; or
- if discount of bid price to applicable NAV is more than 3% over a period of 7 consecutive trading days; or
- if no quotes are available on exchange for 3 consecutive trading days; or
- when the total bid size on the exchange is less than half of Creation Unit size daily, averaged over a period of 7 consecutive trading days.

(g) Asset Class Risk

The returns from the Securities comprising the Nifty CPSE Index may underperform returns of general Securities markets or different asset classes. Different types of Securities tend to go through cycles of out-performance and under-performance in comparison of Securities markets.

(h) Passive Investments

The Scheme is not actively managed. Since the Scheme is linked to index, it may be affected by a general decline in the Indian markets relating to its underlying index. The Scheme as per its investment objective invests in Securities which are constituents of its underlying index regardless of their investment merit. The AMC does not attempt to individually select stocks or to take defensive positions in declining markets.

(i) Tracking Error Risk

The Fund Manager would not be able to invest the entire corpus exactly in the same proportion as in the underlying index due to certain factors such as the fees and expenses of the Scheme, corporate actions, cash balance, smaller Creation Unit size in case of Tap Structure (details of which are provided in Section III (B) (Tap Structure) of the SID (as amended from time to time), changes to the underlying index and regulatory restrictions, which may result in Tracking Error with the underlying index of the Scheme. The Scheme's returns may therefore deviate from its underlying index. "Tracking Error" is defined as the standard deviation of the difference between daily returns of the underlying index and the NAV of the Scheme. The Fund Manager would monitor the Tracking Error of the Scheme on an ongoing basis and would seek to minimize the Tracking Error to the maximum extent possible. Under normal circumstances, the AMC shall endeavor that the Tracking Error of the Scheme shall not exceed 2% per annum. There can be no assurance or guarantee that the Scheme will achieve any particular level of Tracking Error relative to performance of the underlying Index.

Tracking Error may arise due to the following reasons: -

- i. Expenditure incurred by the Fund.
- ii. Available funds may not be invested at all times as the Scheme may keep a portion of the funds in cash to meet Redemptions, for corporate actions or otherwise.
- iii. Securities trading may halt temporarily due to circuit filters.
- iv. Corporate actions such as debenture or warrant conversion, rights issuances, mergers, change in constituents etc.
- v. Rounding-off of the quantity of shares in the underlying index.
- vi. Dividend payout.
- vii. Index providers undertake a periodical review of the scrips that comprise the underlying index and may either drop or include new scrips. In such an event, the Fund will try to reallocate its portfolio but the available investment/reinvestment opportunity may not permit absolute mirroring immediately.

SEBI regulations (if any) may impose restrictions on the investment and/or divestment activities of the Scheme. Such restrictions are typically outside the control of the AMC and may cause or exacerbate the Tracking Error.

(j) Risks relating to Investments in Derivative Instruments

- The Scheme may invest in Derivative products like stock index futures, interest rate swaps, forward rate agreements or other Derivatives in accordance with and to the extent permitted under the SEBI Regulations only for the purposes of portfolio rebalancing and not otherwise. The Scheme may use various Derivative products in an attempt to protect the value of portfolio and enhance the Unit holder interest. As and when the Scheme trades in Derivative markets, there are risk factors and issues concerning the use of Derivatives, that the Investors should understand.
- Derivative products are leveraged instruments and can provide disproportionate gains as well as disproportionate losses to the Investor. Execution of such strategies depends upon the ability of the Fund Manager to identify such opportunities. Identification and execution of the strategies to be pursued by the Fund Manager involve uncertainty and the decisions of the Fund Manager may not always be profitable. No assurance can be given that the Fund Manager will be able to identify or execute such strategies.
- The risks associated with the use of Derivatives are different from and possibly greater than, the risks associated with investing directly in Securities and other traditional investments. Therefore, Derivatives require investment techniques and risk analysis different from those associated with traditional Securities. The use of Derivatives requires an understanding not only of the underlying instrument but also of the Derivative itself. If the Fund Manager is incorrect in its forecasts of market values and currency exchange rates, the investment performance of the Scheme may be less favourable than it would have been if this investment technique were not used.
- Derivative products are specialized instruments that require investment technique and risk analysis different from those associated with stocks. The use of Derivatives requires an understanding not only of the underlying instrument but also of the Derivative itself. Derivatives require the maintenance of adequate controls to monitor the transactions entered into, the ability to assess the risk that a Derivative adds to the portfolio and the ability to forecast price. There is a possibility that loss may be sustained by the portfolio as a result of the failure of another party (usually referred as the "Counter party") to comply with the terms of the Derivative contract. Therefore a default on the contract would deprive the Scheme of unrealised profits and/ or the hedging benefits of the contract or force the Scheme to cover its purchase or sale commitments, if any, at the current market price. Other risks in using Derivatives include the risk of mispricing or improper valuation of Derivative and the inability of a Derivative to correlate perfectly with underlying assets, rates and indices. Thus, Derivatives are highly leveraged instruments. The risk of loss associated with futures contracts is potentially unlimited due to the low margin deposits required and the extremely high degree of leverage involved in futures pricing. As a result, a relatively small price movement in a futures contract may result in an immediate and substantial loss or gain. There may be a cost attached to selling or buying futures or other Derivative instrument. Further there could be an element of settlement risk, which could be different from the risk in settling underlying Securities. The possible lack of a liquid secondary market for a futures contract or listed option may result in inability to close futures or listed option positions prior to their maturity date.

- An investment in Derivatives may involve additional risks for Investors. These additional risks may arise as a result of any or all of the following: (i) the creditworthiness of the counterparties to such Derivative transactions; and/or (ii) the potential illiquidity of the markets for Derivatives. To the extent that Derivatives are utilised to seek to achieve the investment objectives of the Scheme, and for purposes other than hedging, the overall risk of loss to the Scheme may be increased. To the extent that Derivatives are utilised for hedging purposes, the risk of loss to the Scheme may be increased where the value of the Derivative instrument and the value of the Security or position which it is hedging are insufficiently correlated.
- In the event the Scheme is required to provide collateral for Derivatives which is to be transferred to another party and where additional collateral is called by such other party the Fund Manager may be required to realize assets comprised in the Scheme which it would not have sought to realize had there not been a requirement to transfer or pledge additional collateral.
- Derivatives require the maintenance of adequate controls to monitor the transactions entered into. The Scheme bears a risk that it may not be able to correctly forecast future market trends or the value of assets, indexes or other financial or economic factors in establishing derivative positions for the Scheme. Trading in Derivatives carries a high degree of risk although they are traded at a relatively small amount of margin which provides the possibility of significant profit or loss in comparison with the principal investment amount. Even a small price movement in the underlying asset could have a large impact on their value. The Scheme may find it difficult or impossible to execute Derivative transactions in certain circumstances. For example, when there are insufficient bids or suspension of trading due to price limits or circuit breakers, the Scheme may face liquidity issues. Besides the price of the underlying asset, the volatility, tenor and interest rates affect the pricing of Derivatives.
- Derivative transactions will generally require the use of a portion of the Scheme's assets, as applicable, for margin or settlement payments or other purposes. For example, the Scheme may from time to time be required to make margin, settlement or other payments in connection with the use of certain Derivative instruments. Counterparties to any Derivative contract may demand payments on short notice. As a result, the Fund Manager may liquidate the Scheme's assets sooner than it otherwise would have and/or maintain a greater portion of its assets in cash and other liquid Securities than it otherwise would have, which portion may be substantial, in order to have available cash to meet current or future margin calls, settlement or other payments, or for other purposes. The Fund Manager generally expects the Scheme to earn interest on any such amounts maintained in cash, however, such amounts will not be invested in accordance with the investment objective of the Scheme, which may materially adversely affect the performance of the Scheme. Moreover, due to volatility in the currency markets and changing market circumstances, the Fund Manager may not be able to accurately predict future margin requirements, which may result in the Scheme holding excess or insufficient cash and liquid Securities for such purposes. Where the Scheme does not have cash or assets available for such purposes, the Scheme may be unable to comply with its contractual obligations, including without limitation, failing to meet margin calls or settlement or other payment obligations. If the Scheme defaults on any of its contractual obligations, the Scheme and its Unit holders may be materially adversely affected.

- Futures and Call Options

The Scheme may invest in Derivatives such as futures and call options. The options buyer's risk is limited to the premium paid. The relevant stock exchange, if any, may impose restrictions on the exercise of options and may also restrict the exercise of options at certain times in specified circumstances.

Investments in index futures face the same risk as investments in a portfolio of shares representing an index. The extent of loss is the same as in the underlying Securities.

The risk of loss in trading futures contracts can be substantial, because of the low margin deposits required, the extremely high degree of leverage involved in futures pricing and the potential high volatility of the futures markets.

- ISDA Master Agreements

The Scheme may enter into Derivative transactions of the type governed by the ISDA Master Agreement (ISDA means International Swaps and Derivatives Association, Inc.). The ISDA Master Agreement is a standard agreement commonly used in the Derivatives market which sets forth key provisions governing the contractual relationship between the parties to such agreement, including each of their rights, liabilities and obligations.

If the Trustees / AMC enters into transactions governed by the ISDA Master Agreement, such as interest rate swaps, on the Scheme's behalf, it will also need to enter into a Credit Support Annex, which is an annex to the ISDA Master Agreement that is used to document bilateral credit support arrangements between parties for transactions governed by an ISDA Master Agreement, on such Scheme's behalf. Following agreement with a selected counterparty, upon the Trustees/ AMC entering into an initial or a further transaction governed by the ISDA Master Agreement including a foreign exchange transaction, currency option or, if relevant, interest rate swap on the Scheme's behalf, an ISDA Master Agreement, amended to reflect any negotiated commercial and/or legal points, shall be immediately deemed to be entered into between the Scheme and such counterparty and any confirmation in respect of a transaction entered into thereunder (including such initial derivatives transaction) shall supplement and form part of such ISDA Master Agreement.

On each date on which a Derivatives transaction is entered into by the Trustees / AMC, on behalf of the Scheme, the Scheme will be deemed to have given certain representations and undertakings to each counterparty with whom the ISDA Master Agreement is entered into on its behalf. Such representations and undertakings include, without limitation, representations and undertakings, from and in respect of the Scheme, as to the due establishment, good standing and corporate powers of the Scheme, the obtaining of all requisite consents and compliance with applicable laws by the Scheme and the binding nature of obligations on the Scheme under the relevant ISDA Master Agreement and associated contracts and transactions. The Trustees / AMC must notify the Fund Manager if at any time it becomes aware that it is in breach of any such representations or unable to continue to comply with any such undertakings. Any such breach may, in addition to other potential consequences, lead to each relevant counterparty being able to unilaterally terminate its ISDA Master Agreement with the Trustees / AMC on behalf of the Scheme and to close out any open contracts with it.

(k) Risks Associated with Investing in Debt and Money Market Instruments

i) General Provisions

Debt Securities are subject to the risk of an issuer's inability to meet principal and interest payments on the obligation (credit risk) and may also be subject to price volatility due to such factors as interest rate sensitivity, market perception of the creditworthiness of the issuer and general market liquidity (market risk). The Fund Manager will consider both credit risk and market risk in making investment decisions for the Scheme.

The timing of transactions in debt obligations, which will often depend on the timing of the Purchases and Redemptions in the Scheme, may result in capital appreciation or depreciation because the value of debt obligations generally varies inversely with the prevailing interest rates.

ii) Interest Rate Risk

Changes in interest rates will affect the Scheme's NAV. The prices of Securities usually increase as interest rates decline and usually decrease as interest rates rise. The extent of fall or rise in the prices is guided by duration, which is a function of the existing coupon, days to maturity and increase or decrease in the level of interest rate. The new level of interest rate is determined by the rate at which the government raises new money and / or the price levels at which the market is already dealing in existing Securities. Prices of long-term Securities generally fluctuate more in response to interest rate changes than short-term Securities.

In case of Repo, the rate of interest, from time to time, depends upon the number of borrowers at that point of time and the amount to be borrowed by such borrowers.

In the case of Floating Rate Instruments, an additional risk could be due to the change in the spreads of Floating Rate Instruments. If the spreads on Floating Rate Instruments rise, then there could be a price loss on these instruments. Secondly in the case of fixed rate instruments that have been swapped for floating rates, any adverse movement in the fixed rate yields vis-à-vis swap rates could result in losses. The price risk is low in the case of the floating rate or inflation-linked bonds.

Debt markets, especially in developing markets like India, can be volatile leading to the possibility of price moving up or down in fixed income Securities and thereby to possible movements in the NAV.

iii) Prepayment Risk

A borrower may prepay a receivable prior to its due date. This may result in a change in the yield and tenor for the Scheme.

iv) Zero Coupon and Deferred Interest Bonds

The Scheme may invest in zero coupon bonds and deferred interest bonds, which are debt obligations issued at a discount to their face value. The original discount approximates the total amount of interest the bonds will accrue and compound over the period until maturity or the first interest accrual date at a rate of interest reflecting the market rate of the security at the time of issuance. Zero coupon bonds do not provide periodic interest payments and deferred interest bonds generally provide for a period of delay before the regular payment of interest begins. Such investments benefit the issuer by mitigating its initial need for cash to meet debt service and some also provide a higher rate of return to attract Investors who are willing to defer receipt of such cash. Such investments experience greater volatility in market value due to changes in interest rates than debt obligations which provide for regular payments of interest, and the Scheme may accrue income on such obligations even though it receives no cash.

v) Liquidity or Marketability Risk

This refers to the ease at which a Security can be sold at or near its true value. The primary measure of liquidity risk is the spread between the bid price and the offer price quoted by a dealer. Liquidity risk is characteristic of the Indian fixed income market. Trading volumes, settlement periods and transfer procedures may restrict the liquidity of the investments made by the Scheme. Different segments of the Indian financial markets have different settlement periods and such period may be extended significantly by unforeseen circumstances leading to delays in receipt of proceeds from sale of Securities. As liquidity of the investments made by the Scheme could, at times, be restricted by trading volumes and settlement periods, the time taken by the Fund for Redemption of Units may be significant in the event of an inordinately large number of Redemption requests or restructuring of the Scheme.

vi) Credit Risk

Credit Risk means that the issuer of a Security may default on interest payments or even paying back the principal amount on maturity (i.e. the issuer may be unable to make timely principal and interest payments on the Security). Even where no default occurs, the prices of Security may go down because the credit rating of an issuer goes down. However, it must be noted that where the Scheme have invested in Government Securities, the risk of default is lower.

vii) Risks of Investing in Unrated Debt Securities

Unrated debt Securities are more likely to react to developments affecting market and credit risk than are more highly rated Securities, which react primarily to movements in the general level of interest rates. Unrated debt Securities are more likely to react to developments affecting market and credit risk than rated debt Securities, which react primarily to movements in the general level of interest rates. Unrated debt Securities are considered predominantly speculative by traditional investment standards and may have poor prospects for reaching investment grade standing. Unrated debt Securities of comparable credit quality (commonly known as "junk bonds") are subject to the increased risk of an issuer's inability to meet principal and interest obligations and further, are usually unsecured and are often subordinated to the rights of other creditors of the issuers of such Securities. These Securities, also referred to as 'high yield Securities', may be subject to greater price volatility due to such factors as specific corporate developments, interest rate sensitivity, negative perceptions or publicity (whether or not based on fundamental analysis) of the junk bond markets generally and less secondary market liquidity.

Unrated debt Securities are issued by less established companies seeking to expand. Such issuers are often highly leveraged and generally less able than more established or less leveraged entities to make scheduled payments of principal and interest in the event of adverse developments or business conditions.

The market value of unrated debt Securities tends to reflect individual corporate developments to a greater extent than that of rated debt Securities which react primarily to fluctuations in the general level of interest rates. As a result, the ability of the Scheme if it invests in unrated debt Securities to achieve its investment objectives may depend to a greater extent on the Fund Manager's judgment concerning the creditworthiness of the issuers of such Securities than the Scheme investing in rated debt Securities. Issuers of unrated debt Securities may not be able to make use of more traditional methods of financing and their ability to service debt obligations may be more adversely affected than issuers of rated debt Securities by economic downturns, specific corporate developments or the issuer's inability to meet specific projected business forecasts.

A holder's risk of loss from default is significantly greater for unrated debt Securities than is the case for holders of other debt Securities because such unrated debt Securities are generally unsecured and are often subordinated to the rights of other creditors of the issuers of such Securities. Investments in defaulted Securities poses additional risk of loss should non-payment of principal and interest continue. Even if such Securities are held to maturity, recovery by the Scheme of its initial investment and any anticipated income or appreciation is uncertain.

The secondary market for unrated debt Securities is concentrated in relatively few market makers and is dominated by institutional investors. Accordingly, the secondary market for such Securities is typically not very, and is more volatile than, the secondary market for rated debt Securities. In addition, market trading volume for high yield fixed income Securities is generally lower and the secondary market for such Securities could contract under adverse market or economic conditions, independent of any specific adverse changes in the condition of a particular issuer. These factors may have an adverse effect on the market price and the Scheme's ability to dispose of particular portfolio investments. A less liquid secondary market also may make it more difficult for the Scheme to obtain precise valuations of the high yield Securities in its portfolio.

viii) Risks Associated with Credit Rating Agencies

Credit ratings issued by recognized credit rating agencies are designed to evaluate the safety of principal and interest payments of rated Securities. In addition, credit rating agencies may or may not make timely changes in a rating to reflect changes in the economy or in the conditions of the issuer that affect the market value and liquidity of the Security. Credit ratings are used only as a preliminary indicator of investment quality. Investments in unrated debt obligations will be more dependent on the Fund Manager's credit analysis than would be the case with investments in investment grade debt obligations.

(i) Securities Lending

Securities lending is lending of Securities through an approved intermediary to a borrower under an agreement for a specified period with the condition that the borrower will return equivalent Securities of the same type or class at the end of the specified period along with the corporate benefits accruing on the Securities borrowed.

There are risks inherent in Securities lending, including the risk of failure of the other party, in this case the approved intermediary, to comply with the terms of the agreement entered into between the lender of the Securities i.e. the Scheme and the approved intermediary. Such failure can result in the possible loss of rights to the collateral put up by the borrower of the Securities, inability of the approved intermediary to return the Securities deposited by the lender and the possible loss of any corporate benefits accruing to the lender in respect of the Securities lent. The Fund may not be able to sell such lent Securities and this can lead to temporary illiquidity.

(m) Calculation of NAV

From time to time, materiality thresholds may apply insofar as it relates to errors in the calculation of NAV in accordance with SEBI Regulations. Unit holders should note that the AMC may not pay the Unit holders or the Scheme the amount of any difference in circumstances where any such materiality thresholds provided under SEBI Regulations are not exceeded. Therefore such differences may lead to a different economic result than if such amounts were paid and such errors, which are deemed to be immaterial, will not lead to a reissued and corrected NAV.

As a result, Investors/ Unit holders who have Subscribed for or Redeemed Units of the Scheme on a day on which the materiality thresholds had been applied, the Investors / Unit holders may receive a different economic result than they would have received had the error in calculation of the NAV not happened.

(n) Investments by the Scheme in other schemes

The Scheme may invest in other scheme(s) managed by the AMC or in schemes of other mutual funds, provided such investments are in conformity with the investment objectives of the Scheme and in accordance with terms of the prevailing SEBI Regulations. Such investments in other schemes may provide the Scheme access to a specialised investment area or economic sector which can be more effectively accessed by investing in the underlying scheme(s). The Fund Manager will only make such investments if it determines in its discretion that to do so is consistent with the interests of the Unit holders of the Scheme.

The Scheme may invest in schemes operated by third parties. Considering third parties are not subject to the oversight or control of the AMC, the Fund Manager may not have the opportunity to verify the compliance of such schemes with the laws and regulations applicable to them.

It is possible that a number of underlying scheme(s) might take substantial positions in the same security at the same time. This inadvertent concentration may interfere with the Scheme's goal of diversification. The AMC would attempt to alleviate any potential inadvertent concentration as part of its regular monitoring and reallocation process. Conversely the AMC may at any given time, hold opposite positions, such position being taken by different underlying scheme(s). Each such position shall result in transaction fees for the Scheme without necessarily resulting in either a loss or a gain. Moreover, the AMC may proceed to a reallocation of assets between the underlying scheme(s) and liquidate investments made in one or several of them.

Further, many of the underlying scheme(s) in which the Scheme may invest could use special investment techniques or concentrate its investments in only one geographic area or asset investment category, which may subject the Scheme's investments to risks different from those posed by investments in equity or fixed income scheme(s) or risks of the market and of rapid changes to the relevant geographic area or investment category.

When the Scheme invests in other schemes, the Unit holders in the Scheme will also incur fees and expenses (such as, but not limited to, management fees, custody fees, registrar fees, audit fees, etc.) at the level of the underlying scheme in accordance with the offering documents of the relevant scheme(s) and the limits prescribed under the SEBI Regulations.

No assurance can be given that the strategies employed by other schemes in the past to achieve attractive returns will continue to be successful or that the return on the Scheme's investments will be similar to that achieved by the Scheme or other schemes in the past.

(o) Risk of Changes in Borrowing Rates

The Scheme may borrow funds on a temporary basis within the limits set forth under the SEBI Regulations. The Scheme may choose to only borrow from the Custodian of the Scheme, and the borrowing rate imposed by the Custodian of the Scheme may change due to market conditions. As a consequence thereof, the borrowing rates imposed by the Custodian may not be the most competitive.

(p) Risk Factors relating to Portfolio Rebalancing

In the event that the asset allocation of the Scheme deviates from the ranges as provided in the asset allocation table in this Supplement and/or the SID, then the Fund Manager will rebalance the portfolio of the Scheme to the position indicated in the asset allocation table within a period of 7 days from the date of said deviation. However, if market conditions do not permit the Fund Manager to rebalance the portfolio of the Scheme within the stipulated period of 7 days then the AMC would notify the Board of the Trustee Company and the Investment Committee of the AMC with appropriate justifications.

(q) Risk Factors in case of Corporate Actions

In case the Scheme invests in stocks of companies outside the Index due to corporate actions, then the Fund Manager will rebalance the portfolio of the Scheme to the position indicated in the asset allocation table within a period of 30 days from the date of said deviation. However, if market conditions do not permit exiting the corporate action within this stipulated period of 30 days then the AMC would notify the Board of the Trustee Company and the Investment Committee of the AMC with appropriate justifications.

(r) Uncertain Tax Positions

Prospective Investors should be aware that tax Laws and regulations are constantly changing and that they may be changed with retrospective effect. Moreover, the interpretation and application of tax Laws and regulations by certain tax authorities may not be clear, consistent or transparent. As a result of uncertainty relating to the Mutual Fund's potential tax liabilities, including on any historical realized or unrealized gains, as well as liabilities that may arise as a result of investments made by the Scheme which have not reflected tax liabilities in their valuation, the NAV of the Scheme on any dealing day may not accurately reflect such liabilities (including those that are imposed with retrospective effect). In addition, the NAV of the Scheme on any dealing day may reflect an accrual for potential tax liabilities that may subsequently not be paid. Accounting standards may also change, creating an obligation for the Mutual Fund to accrue for a potential tax liability that was not previously required to be accrued or in situations where the Mutual Fund does not expect to be ultimately subject to such tax liability.

In the event that the Mutual Fund subsequently determines to accrue for tax liabilities and/ or is required to pay amounts relating to tax liabilities that had not previously been accrued and / or any Scheme investments result in tax liabilities that were not reflected in their valuation (including historic investments), the amount of any such determination or payment will generally be allocated among the Unit holders of the Scheme at the time of such determination or payment, rather than when the income or transaction to which such taxes relate was earned or occurred. Moreover, in the event that the Mutual Fund subsequently determines that an accrual for potential tax liabilities exceeds or will exceed the liability for such taxes, the benefit from any such determination will generally be allocated among the Unit holders of the Scheme at the time of such determination, rather than when the income or transaction in respect of which such taxes were accrued was earned or occurred, and Unit holders who previously Redeemed Units of the Scheme will not receive additional compensation or otherwise share such benefit. Unit holders will not be notified of any of the foregoing determinations or payments.

Unit holders that invest in the Units of the Scheme at a time during which any liabilities for taxes are not accrued will invest in the Units of the Scheme at a higher NAV than such Unit holders would have invested had such liabilities been accrued at the time of the applicable investment. In addition, the returns of the Scheme may be considered to have been subject to an inadvertent leverage effect in that those additional assets would have been invested in accordance with the usual investment policy of the Scheme. On the other hand, Unit holders that Redeem Units of the Scheme at a time during which potential liabilities for taxes are accrued will Redeem Units of the Scheme at a lower NAV than if such liabilities had not been accrued at the time of the applicable Redemption. In that situation the Scheme may also be considered to have been subject to an inadvertent under investment effect if that accrual of taxes is not subsequently paid.

(s) Risks relating to withholding tax under FATCA

Pursuant to U.S. withholding provisions commonly referred to as the Foreign Account Tax Compliance Act ("FATCA"), payments of U.S. source fixed or determinable, annual or periodic income, certain payments made after December 31, 2016 of gross proceeds from the sale or other disposition of property that could produce U.S. source interest or dividends, and certain payments (or a portion thereof) made after 31 December 2016 by a foreign financial institution, to a foreign financial institution or other foreign entity will be subject to a withholding tax of thirty percent (30%) unless it is compliant with various reporting requirements under FATCA. The United States has reached an agreement in substance with respect to an intergovernmental agreement with the Government of India regarding the implementation of FATCA by Indian financial institutions (the "Indian IGA"). Under FATCA and the Indian IGA, the Scheme will be treated as a "foreign financial institution" for this purpose. As a foreign financial institution, in order to be compliant with FATCA, the Scheme will be required to, among other requirements: (i) obtain and verify information on all of its Unit holders to determine which Unit holders are "Specified U.S. Persons" (i.e., U.S. Tax Persons other than tax-exempt entities and certain other persons) and, in certain cases, non-U.S. persons whose owners are Specified U.S. Persons ("U.S. Owned Foreign Entities"); and (ii) annually report information on its Unit holders that are non-compliant with FATCA, Specified U.S. Persons and U.S. Owned Foreign Entities to the Government of India. The Government of India will exchange the information reported to it with the IRS annually on an automatic basis. No assurances can be provided that the Scheme will be exempt from this thirty percent (30%) withholding tax.

Any Unit holder that fails to produce the required information or is otherwise not compliant with FATCA may be subject to thirty percent (30%) withholding on all or a portion of any redemption or distribution payments made by the Scheme after December 31, 2016. Moreover, each Unit holder should be aware that as a result of an investment in the Scheme, the tax authorities in the Unit holder's jurisdiction of tax residence may be provided information relating to such Unit holder, pursuant to the provisions of a treaty, an intergovernmental agreement or otherwise, directly or indirectly by the Scheme. Unit holders should consult their own tax advisors regarding the potential implications of this withholding tax.

(t) Material Interests of Associates of the Sponsor, AMC and Trustee Company

Nippon India Mutual Fund is sponsored by Nippon Life Insurance Company ("NLI"). NLI is a 126 year old Global Fortune 500 company and Japan's leading private life insurer and offers a wide range of financial products, including individual and group life and annuity policies through various distribution channels, mainly using face-to-face sales channels for its traditional insurance products. It primarily operates in Japan, North America, Europe, Asia, Oceania and is headquartered in Osaka, Japan. NLI conducts asset management operations in Asia, through its subsidiary Nissay Asset Management Corporation ("Nissay"), which manages assets globally.

The following are a few examples of situations where there may be conflicts of interest between the AMC and the other related businesses. They are not, and are not intended to be, a complete enumeration or explanation of all of the material interests that may arise.

- The AMC will make investment decisions for the Scheme as it believes are in the fiduciary interests of the Scheme. Our Sponsors and their associates may also take similar investment decisions or may even take directionally opposite positions, based on their independent analysis. It has a Conflict of Interest Policy that requires it to act in a manner that does not prejudice the interests of investors in any manner vis-à-vis group or associate companies or put one set of investors to an advantage or disadvantage on account of another. This also includes restrictions on sharing of trading information.
- The AMC in its sole discretion will determine whether the Scheme will participate in investment opportunities and investors should not expect that the Scheme will participate in any particular investment opportunities.
- The directors, officers, and employees of Nippon India Mutual Fund may buy and sell securities or other investments for their own Accounts within the bounds of the Personal Securities Trading Policy (PSTP) laid down by the company.

Subject to applicable Laws, the AMC, may, from time to time, in-source or outsource certain processes or functions in connection with a variety of services that it provides to the Scheme in its administrative or other capacities.

Any investments in Group and Associate companies will be subject to SEBI Regulations in this regard.

- Valuation of the Scheme's Investments

The AMC carries out valuation of investments made by the Scheme. The AMC values Securities and assets in the Scheme according to the valuation policies described in the Statement of Additional Information.

- Proxy Voting by the AMC

The AMC has implemented processes designed to prevent conflicts of interest from influencing proxy voting decisions that it makes on behalf of the Scheme, and to help ensure that such decisions are made in accordance with its fiduciary obligations to the Scheme. Notwithstanding proxy voting processes, proxy voting decisions made by the AMC with respect to Securities held by the Scheme may benefit the interests of AMC other than the Scheme.

- Error and Error Correction

The AMC has procedures for determining when the AMC will reimburse the Scheme for losses that result from errors by the AMC. Pursuant to such procedures, an error is generally compensable from the AMC to the Scheme when it is a mistake (whether an action or inaction) in which the AMC has deviated from the applicable standard of care under the SEBI Regulations in managing the Scheme's assets, subject to certain materiality and other policies summarized below.

The Code of Conduct under the SEBI Regulations requires the AMC to render at all times high standards of service, exercise due diligence, ensure proper care and exercise independent professional judgement. Although the AMC would seek to follow such requirements, mistakes could occur, which mistakes would not be compensated by the AMC unless they are not in accordance with the requirements under the SEBI Regulations or any materiality thresholds prescribed therein. The AMC's policies do not require perfect implementation of investment management decisions, trading, processing or other functions performed by the AMC or its affiliates. Therefore, not all mistakes will be considered compensable errors. Imperfections, including without limitation, imperfection in the implementation of investment decisions, quantitative strategies, trade execution, cash movements, portfolio rebalancing, processing instructions or facilitation of securities settlement; imperfection in processing corporate actions; or imperfection in the generation of cash or holdings reports resulting in trade decisions, are generally not considered by the AMC to be violations of standards of care regardless of whether implemented through programs, models, tools or otherwise. As a result, such imperfections, including, without limitation, mistakes in amount, timing or direction of a trade, are generally not compensable errors unless such imperfections or mistakes are not in accordance with the requirements under the SEBI Regulations or any materiality thresholds prescribed therein.

Mistakes may also occur in connection with other activities that may be undertaken by the AMC and its affiliates, such as NAV calculation, transfer agent activities (i.e., processing Subscriptions and Redemptions), fund accounting, trade recording and settlement and other matters that are non-advisory in nature and may not be compensable unless they deviate from the applicable standards of care, SEBI Regulations or any materiality thresholds prescribed therein. Unit holders will generally not be notified of the occurrence of an error if such error is determined to be non compensable.

Mistakes may result in gains as well as losses. In applying its error and error correction policies, the AMC may determine that it is appropriate to reallocate or remove gains from the Scheme's account that are the result of a mistake.

The AMC makes its determinations pursuant to its error procedures on a case-by-case basis, based on the materiality of the resulting losses. For example, mistakes that result in losses below a threshold (as provided in the SEBI Mutual Fund Regulations) will not be compensable.

When the AMC determines that reimbursement by the AMC is appropriate, compensation received by the Scheme is generally expected to be limited to direct and actual losses, which may be calculated based on factors the AMC considers relevant. Compensation generally will not include any amounts or measures that the AMC determines are speculative or uncertain, including potential opportunity losses or other forms of consequential or indirect losses, and when calculating compensation, the AMC generally will not consider tax implications for, or the tax status of, the Scheme.

The AMC will consider any errors in the calculation of the Net Asset Value of the Scheme in order to determine whether corrective action is necessary or compensation is payable to the Scheme or the Unit holders.

The AMC, may, in their sole discretion, authorise the correction of errors, which may impact the processing of Subscriptions for and Redemptions of Shares. The AMC may follow materiality policies with respect to the resolution of errors that may limit or restrict when corrective action would be taken or when compensation to the Scheme or Unit holders will be paid. In addition, subject to policies approved by the AMC consistent with applicable Law, not all mistakes will result in compensable errors.

Unit holders may not be notified of the occurrence of any error or the resolution thereof unless the materiality thresholds provided under SEBI Regulations are exceeded and the correction of the error requires a payment/ recovery of any amounts to/from the Unit holders.

(u) Risks associated with investing in Tri Party Repo through CCIL (TREPS):

The mutual fund is a member of securities segment and Tri-party Repo trade settlement of the Clearing Corporation of India (CCIL). All transactions of the mutual fund in government securities and in Tri-party Repo trades are settled centrally through the infrastructure and settlement systems provided by CCIL; thus reducing the settlement and counterparty risks considerably for transactions in the said segments.

CCIL maintains prefunded resources in all the clearing segments to cover potential losses arising from the default member. In the event of a clearing member failing to honour his settlement obligations, the default Fund is utilized to complete the settlement. The sequence in which the above resources are used is known as the "Default Waterfall".

As per the waterfall mechanism, after the defaulter's margins and the defaulter's contribution to the default fund have been appropriated, CCIL's contribution is used to meet the losses. Post utilization of CCIL's contribution if there is a residual loss, it is appropriated from the default fund contributions of the non-defaulting members.

Thus the scheme is subject to risk of the initial margin and default fund contribution being invoked in the event of failure of any settlement obligations. In addition, the fund contribution is allowed to be used to meet the residual loss in case of default by the other clearing member (the defaulting member).

However, it may be noted that a member shall have the right to submit resignation from the membership of the Security segment if it has taken a loss through replenishment of its contribution to the default fund for the segments and a loss threshold as notified have been reached. The maximum contribution of a member towards replenishment of its contribution to the default fund in the 7 days (30 days in case of securities segment) period immediately after the afore-mentioned loss threshold having been reached shall not exceed 5 times of its contribution to the Default Fund based on the last re-computation of the Default Fund or specified amount, whichever is lower.

Further, it may be noted that, CCIL periodically prescribes a list of securities eligible for contributions as collateral by members. Presently, all Central Government securities and Treasury bills are accepted as collateral by CCIL. The risk factors may undergo change in case the CCIL notifies securities other than Government of India securities as eligible for contribution as collateral.

B. INVESTMENT OBJECTIVE OF THE SCHEME?

The investment objective of the Scheme is to provide returns that, before expenses, closely correspond to the total returns of the Securities as represented by the Nifty CPSE Index, by investing in the Securities which are constituents of the Nifty CPSE Index in the same proportion as in the index.

However the performance of the Scheme may differ from that of the underlying index due to tracking error. There can be no assurance or guarantee that the investment objective of the Scheme would be achieved.

C. ASSET ALLOCATION

The investment policies of the Scheme shall be as per SEBI Regulations, and within the following guidelines. Under normal market circumstances, the asset allocation of the Scheme will be as follows:

Instruments	Indicative Allocation (% of net assets)		Risk Profile
	Minimum	Maximum
Securities covered by Nifty CPSE Index	95%	100%	Medium to High
Money Market Instruments (with maturity not exceeding 91 days), including Tri-party Repo, cash & cash equivalents.	0%	5%	Low to Medium

The above stated percentages are indicative and not absolute.

The Scheme will not invest in securitized debt, ADR, GDR, foreign Securities, nor will it engage in short selling and Repo in corporate debt.

As the Nifty CPSE Index is an Equity index, the constituents of the index do not include debt Securities.

Cash and cash equivalents will include Cash Component of the Portfolio Deposit received for Subscription and payable on Redemptions, Dividend received by the Scheme which is pending deployment, etc.

The Fund Manager would monitor the Tracking Error of the Scheme on an ongoing basis and would seek to minimize the Tracking Error to the maximum extent possible. Under normal circumstances, the AMC shall endeavor that the Tracking Error of the Scheme shall not exceed 2% per annum. There can be no assurance or guarantee that the Scheme will achieve any particular level of Tracking Error relative to performance of the underlying Index.

For the time duration of change in the index constituents, the Scheme may have to invest in Derivatives to maintain the respective weightages for the companies, constituting the index. Other than for purposes of portfolio rebalancing, the Scheme will not invest in Derivatives. These investments would be for a short period of time. The notional exposure of the Scheme in Derivative instruments shall be restricted to 10% of the net assets of the Scheme. The combined exposure of equity shares, debt Securities and gross notional exposure of Derivatives instruments shall not exceed 100% of the net assets of the Scheme.

Subject to the SEBI Regulations as applicable from time to time, the Scheme may, if the Trustees permit, participate in securities lending. The maximum exposure of the Scheme to a single intermediary in the stock lending programme at any point of time would be limited to 5% of the market value of its equity portfolio or up to such limits as may be specified by SEBI. The Scheme will not lend more than 20% of its corpus.

Change in Asset Allocation Pattern

Subject to the SEBI Regulations, the asset allocation pattern indicated above for the Scheme may change from time to time, keeping in view market conditions, market opportunities, applicable regulations and political and economic factors. In the event that the asset allocation of the Scheme should deviate from the ranges as noted in the asset allocation table above, then the Fund Manager will rebalance the portfolio of the Scheme to the position indicated in the asset allocation table above within a period of 7 days (30 days in case of corporate actions) from the date of said deviation. Such changes in the asset allocation will be for short term and defensive considerations.

Provided further and subject to the above, any change in the asset allocation affecting the investment profile of the Scheme shall be effected only in accordance with the provisions of sub regulation (15A) of Regulation 18 of the SEBI Regulations, as detailed in Section II (F) 'Fundamental Attributes' of this Supplement.

D. WHERE WILL THE SCHEME INVEST?

I. Investment in equity and equity related instruments

The Scheme will invest in securities which are constituents of Nifty CPSE Index. The investment restrictions and limits are specified in Schedule VII of SEBI Regulations which are mentioned under the heading 'Investment Restrictions'.

The investment restrictions and the limits as applicable to Debt Instruments, as specified in Schedule VII of the SEBI Regulations are mentioned in the section 'Investment Restrictions'.

Tri- Party Repo

Tri-party repo is a type of repo contract where a third entity (apart from the borrower and lender), called a Tri-Party Agent, acts as an intermediary between the two parties to the repo to facilitate services like collateral selection, payment and settlement, custody and management during the life of the transaction.

As part of the Fund Management process, only for the purposes of portfolio rebalancing, the Scheme, may use Derivative instruments such as index futures and options, stock futures and options contracts, warrants, convertible Securities, swap agreements or any other Derivative instruments that are permissible or may be permissible in future under applicable regulations and such investments shall be in accordance with the investment objectives of the Scheme.

Index futures/options are meant to be an efficient way of buying/selling an index compared to buying/selling a portfolio of physical shares representing an index for ease of execution and settlement. Index futures/options can be an efficient way of achieving the Scheme's investment objective. Notwithstanding the pricing, they can help in reducing the Tracking Error in the Scheme. Index futures/options may avoid the need for trading in individual components of the index, which may not be possible at times, keeping in mind the circuit filter system and the liquidity in some of the individual stocks. Index futures/options can also be helpful in reducing the transaction costs and the processing costs on account of ease of execution of one trade compared to several trades of shares comprising the underlying index and will be easy to settle compared to physical portfolio of shares representing the underlying index.

In case of investments in index futures/options, the risk/reward would be the same as investments in portfolio of shares representing an index. However, there may be a cost attached to buying an index future/option. The Scheme will not maintain any leveraged or trading positions

Purpose of investment in Derivatives Instruments

- (i) The Scheme shall fully cover its positions in the Derivatives market by holding underlying Securities/cash or cash equivalents/option and/or obligation for acquiring underlying assets to honour the obligations contracted in the Derivatives market.

The cumulative gross exposure through equity, debt and Derivative positions shall not exceed 100% of the net assets of the Scheme. The Fund shall not write options or purchase instruments with embedded written options. The total exposure related to option premium paid must not exceed 20% of the net assets of the scheme. Cash or cash equivalents with residual maturity of less than 91 days may be treated as not creating any exposure.

Exposure due to hedging positions may not be included in the above mentioned limits subject to the following

- a. Hedging positions are the Derivative positions that reduce possible losses on an existing position in Securities and till the existing position remains.
- b. Hedging positions cannot be taken for existing Derivative positions. Exposure due to such positions shall have to be added and treated under limits mentioned above.
- c. Any Derivative instrument used to hedge has the same underlying security as the existing position being hedged.
- d. The quantity of underlying associated with the Derivative position taken for hedging purposes does not exceed the quantity of the existing position against which hedge has been taken.

The Scheme may enter into plain vanilla interest rate swaps for hedging purposes. The counter party in such transactions has to be an entity recognized as a market maker by RBI. Further, the value of the notional principal in such cases must not exceed the value of respective existing assets being hedged by the Scheme. Exposure to a single counterparty in such transactions should not exceed 10% of the net assets of the Scheme.

However, exposure due to Derivative positions taken for hedging purposes in excess of the underlying position against which the hedging position has been taken shall be treated under the limits mentioned above.

Definition of Exposure in case of Derivative Positions

Each position taken in Derivatives shall have an associated exposure as defined under. Exposure is the maximum possible loss that may occur on a position. However, certain Derivative positions may theoretically have unlimited possible loss. Exposure in Derivative positions shall be computed as follows:

Position	Exposure
Long Future	Futures Price * Lot Size * Number of Contracts
Short Future	Futures Price * Lot Size * Number of Contracts
Option bought	Option Premium Paid * Lot Size * Number of Contracts

Examples of certain Derivative transactions

Please note that the following descriptions and examples included in this section are not intended to be exhaustive and are included for illustrative purposes only.

Index Futures

A futures contract is an agreement between the buyer and the seller for the purchase and sale of a particular asset at a specific price on a specific future date. The price at which the underlying asset would change hands in the future is agreed upon at the time of entering into the contract. The actual purchase or sale of the underlying asset involving payment of cash and delivery of the instrument does not take place until the contracted date of delivery. A futures contract involves an obligation on both the parties to fulfill the terms of the contract.

Stock index futures are instruments which are designed to provide exposure to the movement of a particular equity market index.

The BSE and the NSE have started trading in index futures of 1, 2 and 3 month maturities. The pricing of an index future is the function of the underlying index and interest rates.

- Investment in stock index futures can give exposure to the index without directly buying the individual stocks.
- The Scheme can sell futures to hedge against market movements effectively without actually selling the stocks it holds.

Illustration

1 month nifty future price on day 1: 1075.

Assume Scheme buys 100 futures contracts at this level of 1075.

Each lot has a nominal value equivalent to 200 units of the underlying index

Scenario 1

On the date of settlement, the future price = closing spot price of the index = 1085

The profits for the Scheme as a result of this transaction = $(1085-1075) \times 100 \text{ lots} \times 200 = ₹ 2,00,000$

Scenario 2

On the date of settlement, the future price = closing spot price of the index = 1070

The loss for the Scheme as a result of this transaction = $(1070-1075) \times 100 \text{ lots} \times 200 = (₹ 1,00,000)$

As illustrated by the above scenarios, in simple terms (not taking in to account any margin that may be payable to the Scheme's counterparty as a result of entering in to the futures transaction) the net impact for the Scheme will be a function of the closing spot price of the underlying index on the date of settlement relative to the original purchase price at the outset.

Buying Options

An option is a contract which provides the buyer of the option (also called the holder) the right, without the obligation, to buy or sell a specified asset at an agreed price on or up to a particular date. For acquiring this right the buyer has to pay a premium to the seller. The seller on the other hand has the obligation to buy or sell that specified asset at the agreed price. The premium is determined considering number of factors such as the underlying asset's market price, the number of days to expiration, strike price of the option, the volatility of the underlying asset and the risk less rate of return. The strike price, the expiration date and the market lots are specified by the exchanges.

Buying a call option

Buying a call option on a stock or index gives the owner the right, but not the obligation, to buy the underlying stock / index at the designated strike price. The downside risks of this type of transaction are limited to the premium paid to purchase the option.

Illustration

Assume the Scheme buys a 1 month call option on Company 'X' at a strike of ₹ 190, and the current market price is ₹ 191.

Assume the Scheme will have to pay a premium of say ₹ 15 to buy this call.

If the stock price goes below ₹ 190 during the tenure of the call, the Scheme avoids the loss it would have incurred had it bought the stock instead of the call option. However, the Scheme gives up the premium of ₹ 15 that has to be paid in order to protect the Scheme from this probable downside.

If the stock goes above ₹ 190, the Scheme is able to exercise its right and own Company 'X' at a cost price of ₹ 190, thereby participating in the upside of the stock.

Buying a put option

Buying a put option on a stock originally held by the buyer gives him / her the right, but not the obligation, to sell the underlying stock at the designated strike price. Here the downside risks are limited to the premium paid to purchase the option.

Illustration

Assume the Scheme owns Company 'X' and also buys a three-month put option on Company 'X' at a strike of ₹ 190, and the current market price being say ₹ 191.

Assume the Scheme will have to pay a premium of say ₹ 12 to buy this put.

If the stock price goes below ₹ 190 during the tenure of the put, the Scheme can still exercise the put and sell the stock at ₹ 190, avoiding therefore any downside on the stock below ₹ 190. However, the Scheme gives up the fixed premium of ₹ 12 that has to be paid in order to protect the Scheme from this probable downside.

If the stock goes above ₹ 190, say to ₹ 220, it will not exercise its option. The Scheme will participate in the upside of the stock, since it can now sell the stock at the prevailing market price of ₹ 220.

IV. Lending of Securities

The Scheme may lend Securities from its portfolio in accordance with the SEBI Regulations and the applicable SEBI guidelines. Securities lending shall enable the Scheme to earn income that may partially offset its expenses and thereby reduce the effect these expenses have on the Scheme's ability to provide investment returns that correspond generally to the price and yield performance of its index. The Scheme will pay reasonable administrative and custodial fees in connection with the lending of Securities. The Scheme will be exposed to the risk of loss should a borrower default on its obligation to return the borrowed Securities. The Scheme's share of income from the lending collateral will be included in the Scheme's gross income. The Fund will comply with the conditions for Securities lending specified by SEBI Regulations and circulars.

The maximum exposure of the Scheme to a single intermediary in the stock lending programme at any point of time would be limited to 5% of the market value of its equity portfolio or upto such limits as may be specified by SEBI. The Scheme will not lend more than 20% of its corpus.

V. Investments in Short Term Fixed Deposits / units of liquid schemes

Pending deployment of funds as per the investment objective of the Scheme, the funds may be invested in short term deposits of scheduled commercial banks as permitted under the SEBI Regulations from time to time or liquid scheme(s) managed by the AMC or in liquid schemes of any other mutual fund.

VI. Investment in other schemes

The Scheme may invest in other Scheme(s) managed by the AMC or in the schemes of any other mutual fund, provided it is in conformity with the investment objectives of the Scheme and in terms of the prevailing SEBI Regulations. As per the SEBI Regulations, the AMC will not charge investment management fees for such investments.

VII. Investments by the AMC, the Sponsor, the Trustee Company and /or their associates in the Scheme

Subject to the SEBI Regulations and other applicable laws, the AMC, the Sponsor, the Trustee Company and/or their associates or affiliates, may invest in the Scheme during the FFO 6 Period and/or the Ongoing Offer Period. The percentage of such investment to the total NAV may vary from time to time. The AMC shall not charge any investment management and advisory fees on investment by the AMC in the Units of the Scheme in accordance with sub-regulation 17 of Regulation 25 of the SEBI Regulations.

VIII. Investment of FFO 6 Subscription Money

The AMC may deploy the FFO 6 proceeds in Tri-party Repo before the closure of FFO 6 period. However, AMCs shall not charge any investment management and advisory fees on funds deployed in Tri-party Repo during the FFO 6 period. The appreciation earned from investment in Tri-party Repo will be passed on to the Investor.

E. INVESTMENT STRATEGY

Investment Approach

The AMC uses a “passive” or indexing approach to try and achieve Scheme’s investment objective. Unlike other Funds, the Scheme does not try to “beat” the markets they track and do not seek temporary defensive positions when markets decline or appear over valued. The AMC does not make any judgments about the investment merit of a particular stock or a particular industry segment or the underlying nor will it attempt to apply any economic, financial or market analysis. Indexing eliminates active management risks with regard to over/ underperformance vis-à-vis a benchmark. The Scheme shall invest all of its funds as per its investment objective and asset allocation pattern, except to meet its liquidity requirements. Passive approach eliminates active management risks pertaining to over/underperformance vis-à-vis a benchmark.

The Scheme will invest at least 95% of its total assets in the stocks of the Nifty CPSE Index. Due to corporate action in companies comprising the index, the Scheme may be allocated/allotted Securities which are not part of its underlying index. Hence, the Scheme may hold upto 5% of their total assets in stocks not included in the corresponding underlying index. For example, the AMC may invest in stocks not included in the relevant underlying index in order to reflect various corporate actions (such as mergers) and other changes in the relevant underlying index (such as reconstitutions, additions, deletions and these holdings will be in anticipation and in the direction of impending changes in the underlying index). In case the Scheme invests in stocks of companies outside the Index due to corporate actions, then the Fund Manager will rebalance the portfolio of the Scheme to the position indicated in the asset allocation table above within a period of 30 days from the date of said deviation. However, if market conditions do not permit exiting the corporate action within this stipulated period of 30 days then the AMC would notify the Board of the Trustee Company and the Investment Committee of the AMC with appropriate justifications.

The Scheme shall also invest upto 5% in Money Market Instruments (with maturity not exceeding 91 days), including Tri-party Repo, cash and cash equivalents, as per its investment allocation pattern.

Risk Control

Risk	Risk mitigation strategy
Market Risk The Scheme is vulnerable to movements in the prices of securities invested by the scheme, which could have a material bearing on the overall returns from the scheme. The value of the Scheme’s investments, may be affected generally by factors affecting securities markets, such as price and volume, volatility in the capital markets, interest rates, currency exchange rates, changes in policies of the Government, taxation laws or any other appropriate authority policies and other political and economic developments which may have an adverse bearing on individual securities, a specific sector or all sectors including equity and debt markets.	Market risk is a risk which is inherent to an equity scheme. With the Scheme following a passive investment strategy, the Scheme will invest in Securities in accordance with the weightage in the underlying Nifty CPSE Index and will typically not seek to take any active risk relative to such index. As a passive scheme is designed to track an index, the Scheme aims to track Nifty CPSE Index, and aims to purchase Securities of the constituent companies as per the composition and weightages provided in the Nifty CPSE Index. Therefore, the specific market risk associated with the Nifty CPSE Index is inherent to this Scheme. Investors should however note the section on Tracking Error Risk set out below.
Liquidity Risk The liquidity of the Scheme’s investments is inherently restricted by trading volumes in the securities in which it invests.	The underlying index will have constituents which have high level of liquidity. Hence liquidity issues in the scheme related to underlying constituents is not envisaged.
Tracking Error Risk The performance of the Scheme may not be commensurate with the performance of Nifty CPSE Index on any given day or over any given period.	The objective of the Scheme is that the NAV should closely track the performance of Nifty CPSE Index over the same period subject to tracking error. The Scheme would endeavor to maintain a low tracking error by actively aligning the portfolio in line with the index.

Investment Policy

The Scheme, in general, seeks to hold all the Securities that comprise the underlying index in the same proportion as the underlying index. The income received by way of Dividend shall be used for recurring expenses and Redemption requirements or shall be accumulated and invested as per the investment objective of the Scheme. There is a risk of higher Tracking Error due to the income received by way of Dividend till it is reinvested. The Scheme seeks to keep the Tracking Error of the Scheme relative to the performance of the underlying index relatively low.

The Investment Manager would monitor the Tracking Error of the Scheme on an ongoing basis and would seek to minimize Tracking Error to the maximum extent possible. Under normal circumstances, the AMC shall endeavor that the Tracking Error of the Scheme shall not exceed 2% per annum. There can be no assurance or guarantee that the Scheme will achieve any particular level of Tracking Error relative to performance of the underlying index. The investment decisions will be determined as per the benchmark index.

Change in Investment Pattern

As the Scheme is an index Scheme, the policy is passive management. However the investment pattern is indicative and may change for short duration. In the event the underlying index, as the case may be, is dissolved or is withdrawn or is not published due to any reason whatsoever, subject to necessary prior approvals, including prior written approval from the DIPAM, the Trustees reserve the right to modify such Scheme so as to track different and suitable index or to suspend tracking the benchmark index and appropriate intimation will be sent to the Unit holders of the Scheme. In such a case, investment pattern will be modified suitably to match the composition of the Securities that are included in the new index to be tracked and will be subject to Tracking Errors during the intervening period. It must be clearly understood that the percentage stated in the asset allocation table are only indicative and not absolute.

Rebalance for the Scheme shall also be carried out whenever there is a change in the underlying index or any change due to corporate action with respect to the constituents of the underlying index.

Any change in the asset allocation affecting the investment profile of the Scheme will be affected only in accordance with the provisions of Sub regulation (15A) of Regulation 18 of SEBI Regulations.

Portfolio Turnover

Portfolio turnover is the term used by the Fund for measuring the amount of trading that occurs in a Scheme's portfolio during a specified period of time of typically 1 year. The Scheme is an open-ended Scheme. It is therefore expected that there would be a number of Subscriptions and Redemptions on a daily basis. There may be frequent transactions to buy and sell the Securities resulting in increase in transaction cost. At the same time frequent transactions may increase the profits and which can offset the increase in cost. Consequently, it is difficult to estimate with any reasonable measure of accuracy, the likely turnover in the portfolio. However, the Fund Manager will endeavor to optimize the portfolio turnover to minimize risk and maximize gains while keeping in mind the cost associated with such transactions.

Portfolio Turnover Ratio of the Scheme

Portfolio Turnover Ratio of the Scheme is 2.14 as on December 31, 2019.

Procedure followed for Investment Decisions

The Fund Manager of the Scheme is responsible for making buy / sell decisions for the Scheme's portfolio. The investment decisions will be taken by the Scheme keeping in view the investment objective of the Scheme and all the relevant aspects. The AMC will review all the investments made by the Scheme. The investment decisions of the Scheme will be carried out by the designated Fund Manager under the supervision of Chief Investment Officer – Equities.

It is the responsibility of the AMC to seek to ensure that the investments are made as per the Regulatory guidelines, the investment objectives of the Scheme and in the interest of the Unit holders of the Scheme.

In terms of SEBI Circular No. MFD/CIR/16/400/02 dated March 26, 2002 the performance of the Scheme will be benchmarked against Nifty CPSE TRI. The same has been chosen as the benchmark for the Scheme as the composition of the aforesaid index is such that it is most suited for comparing performance of the Scheme.

The Fund Manager will bring to the notice of the Board of the AMC, specific factors if any, which are impacting the performance of the Scheme. The Board of the AMC on consideration of all relevant factors may, if necessary, give appropriate directions to the AMC. Similarly, the performance of the Scheme will be submitted to the Trustees. J. SCHEME'S PERFORMANCE

(a) Absolute Returns for each financial year for last 5 years

(b) Compounded Annualised Returns (%) as on December 31, 2019

Period	CPSE ETF	Nifty CPSE Index	Nifty CPSE Total Returns Index
Returns for the last 1 year	-3.88	-6.25	-3.52
Returns for the last 3 years	-2.41	-6.20	-2.26
Returns for the last 5 years	-1.32	-5.02	-1.28
Returns since inception	5.32	-0.43	3.11

Returns since inception are calculated from the date of allotment i.e. March 28, 2014. Dividends (if any) are assumed to be reinvested at the prevailing NAV. Distribution taxes (if any) are excluded while calculating the returns. After payment of Dividend, NAV will fall to the extent of the payout and statutory levy (if applicable). Past performance may or may not be sustained in future and should not be used as a basis for comparison with other investments.

Note : TRI - Total Returns Index reflects the returns on the index arising from (a) constituent stock price movements and (b) dividend receipts from constituent index stocks.

(c) Illustration of impact of the Scheme expense ratio on the returns of the Scheme

An Investor invests ₹ 10,000 in the Scheme at a NAV of ₹ 10. There is a gain of 10% on the NAV after one year before charging any expenses to the Scheme. Hence the value of the investment (i.e. ₹ 10,000) has, before charging of any expenses, gone up to ₹ 11,000 after one year and the return to the Investor before expenses is ₹ 1,000. The expense ratio charged to the Scheme is 1.50% per annum. For sake of simplicity, after deduction of 1.50% expense ratio on such return*, the value of the investment of the Investor is reduced to ₹ 10,850. This means that ₹ 150 is deducted on the return as the expense of the Scheme and the net returns to the Investor after deducting the expense ratio of 1.50% is 8.50%. Therefore in this illustration, the Scheme's returns before expenses would be 10% and the Scheme's returns post expenses would be 8.50%.

Below is the tabular representation of the illustration:

Investment done by the Investor in the Scheme	₹ 10,000
10% gain after 1 year	₹ 1,000
Value of investment after 1 Year before charging expense	₹ 11,000
Annual Expense Ratio charged at 1.50%	₹ 150
Value of Investment after 1 Year post charging expense	₹ 10,850
Returns before expenses (₹)	₹ 1,000
Returns post expenses (₹)	₹ 850
Returns before expenses (%)	10.00%
Returns post expenses (%)*	8.50%

(*Please note that for sake of simplicity in this illustration, the expense ratio is deducted from the gross return on the investment and not the final market value of the investment)

K. INTRODUCTION TO EXCHANGE TRADED FUNDS

ETFs are innovative products that provide exposure to an index or a basket of securities that trade on the exchange like a single stock. ETFs have a number of advantages over traditional open-ended index funds as they can be bought and sold on the Exchange at prices that are usually close to the actual intra-day net asset value of the scheme. ETFs are an innovation to traditional mutual funds as ETFs provide investors a fund that closely tracks the performance of an index with the ability to buy / sell on an intra-day basis. Unlike listed close ended funds, which trade at substantial premiums or more frequently at discounts to net asset value, ETFs are structured in a manner which allows to create new units and redeem outstanding units directly with the fund, thereby ensuring that ETFs trade close to their actual net asset values.

ETFs are usually passively managed funds wherein subscription / redemption of units work on the concept of exchange with underlying securities. In other words, large investors / institutions can purchase units by depositing the underlying securities with the mutual fund / asset management company and can redeem by receiving the underlying shares in exchange of units. Units can also be bought and sold directly on the exchange.

ETFs have all the benefits of indexing such as diversification, low cost and transparency. As ETFs are listed on the exchange, costs of distribution are much lower and the reach is wider. These savings in cost are passed on to the investors in the form of lower costs. Further more, exchange traded mechanism helps reduce minimal collection, disbursement and other processing charges.

The structure of ETFs is such that it protects long-term investors from inflows and outflows of short-term Investor. This is because the mutual fund does not bear extra transaction cost when buying / selling due to frequent subscriptions and redemptions.

Due to the creation / redemption of units through the in-kind mechanism the fund can keep lesser funds in cash. Also, time lag between buying / selling units and the underlying shares is much lower.

ETFs are highly flexible and can be used as a tool for gaining instant exposure to the equity markets, equitizing cash or for arbitraging between the cash and futures market.

Benefits of ETFs

- (i) Can be easily bought / sold like any other stock on the exchange through terminals spread across the country.
- (ii) Can be bought / sold anytime during market hours at prices that are expected to be close to actual net asset value of the scheme. Thus, investor invests at real-time prices as opposed to end of day prices.
- (iii) No separate form filling for buying / selling units. It is just a phone call to your broker or a click on the internet.
- (iv) Ability to put limit orders.
- (v) Minimum investment for an ETF is one unit.
- (vi) Protects long-term investors from the inflows and outflows of short-term investors.
- (vii) Flexible, as it can be used as a tool for gaining instant exposure to the equity markets, equitizing cash, hedging or for arbitraging between the cash and futures market.
- (viii) Helps in increasing liquidity of underlying cash market.
- (ix) Aids low cost arbitrage between futures and cash market.

Uses of ETFs

(i) Investors with a long-term horizon

Allows diversification of portfolio at one shot thereby reducing scrip specific risk at a low cost.

(ii) FPIs, Institutions and Mutual Funds

Allows easy asset allocation, hedging and equitizing cash at a low cost.

(iii) Arbitrageurs

Low impact cost to carry out arbitrage between the cash and the futures market.

(iv) Investors with a shorter term horizon

Allows liquidity due to ability to trade during the day and expected to have quotes near net asset value during the course of trading day.

Risks of ETFs

1. Absence of Prior Active Market: Although the units of ETFs are listed on the exchange for trading, there can be no assurance that an active secondary market will develop or be maintained.
2. Lack of Market Liquidity: Trading in units of ETFs on the exchange on which it is listed may be halted because of market conditions or for reasons that, in the view of the concerned stock exchange or market regulator, trading in the ETF units is inadvisable. In addition, trading in the units of ETFs is subject to trading halts caused by extraordinary market volatility pursuant to 'circuit filter' rules. There can be no assurance that the requirements of the concerned Stock Exchange necessary to maintain the listing of the units of ETFs will continue to be met or will remain unchanged.
3. Units of Exchange Traded Funds May Trade at Prices Other than Net Asset Value: Units of ETFs may trade above or below their net asset value. The net asset value of units of ETFs may fluctuate with changes in the market value of the scheme's holdings. The trading prices of units of ETF will fluctuate in accordance with changes in their net asset values as well as market supply and demand. However, given that ETFs can be created / redeemed in creation units, directly with the fund, large discounts or premiums to the net asset values will not sustain due to arbitrage possibility available.

Comparison of ETFs v/s Open Ended Funds v/s Close Ended Funds:

	Open Ended Fund	Closed Ended Fund	Exchange Traded Fund
Fund Size	flexible	fixed	flexible
NAV	daily	Daily	real time (indicative net asset value)
Liquidity Provider	mutual fund itself	stock market	stock market / mutual fund itself
Sale Price	At net asset value plus load, if any	significant premium / discount to net asset value	very close to actual net asset value of scheme
Availability	mutual fund itself	through exchange where listed	through exchange where listed/ mutual fund itself.
Portfolio Disclosure	disclosed monthly	disclosed monthly	daily
Intra-Day Trading	not possible	expensive	possible at low cost

The Portfolio Deposit will be determined by the Mutual Fund as per the weightages of each security in the underlying index. The value of this Portfolio Deposit will change due to change in prices during the day. The number of shares of each Security that constitute the Portfolio Deposit will remain constant unless there is any corporate action in the underlying Nifty CPSE Index.

The constituents of the Nifty CPSE Index and an example of Creation Unit of the Scheme as on December 31, 2019 linked to Nifty CPSE Index is as follows:

Name of Security	Quantity
Bharat Electronics Ltd.	1486
Coal India Ltd.	2320
Indian Oil Corp Ltd.	3523
NBCC (India) Ltd.	848
NLC India Ltd.	307
NTPC Ltd.	4006
Oil India Ltd.	466
Oil & Natural Gas Corporation Ltd.	3635
Power Finance Corporation Ltd	1610
SJVN Ltd.	654

Value of Portfolio Deposit - ₹ 2,321,625

Value of Cash Component - ₹ 1,545

The Cash Component will be arrived in the following manner:

Number of Units comprising one Creation Unit	100,000
NAV Per Unit	₹ 23.2317
Value of one Creation Unit	₹ 2,323,170
Value of Portfolio Deposit (pre defined basket of Security)	₹ 2,321,625
Cash Component #	₹ 1,545

The above is just an example to illustrate the calculation of Cash Component. As can be seen from the above example, for Subscription of 1 Creation Unit, Portfolio Deposit consisting the pre defined basket of securities of the Underlying Index is ₹ 2,321,625 and ₹ 1,545 would be the Cash Component

In terms of the SEBI (Mutual Fund) Regulations, 1996 (as amended from time to time), the mutual fund schemes are permitted to invest in securitized debt. Accordingly, investments in certain Pass Through Certificates (“PTCs”) of a securitization trust (the “Trust”) were made through some of schemes of Nippon India Mutual Fund (the “Fund”). The returns filed by few of these securitisation Trusts whose PTCs were held by the Fund were taken up for scrutiny by the Income Tax Authorities which raised demand initially on the Trusts. However, on failure to recover, the Income Tax Authorities sent the demand notices to the Fund for Assessment Years 2009-10 and 2010-11. The Fund in consultation with its tax and legal advisors has contested the applicability of such demand and proceedings there on are still pending. It may be noted that this is a matter, which is not restricted only to the Fund but is an Industry issue. Accordingly, through the Association of Mutual Funds in India (AMFI), the matter has also been appropriately escalated to the Ministry of Finance, in order to seek necessary clarifications, reliefs and if required, to carry out necessary amendments to the relevant provisions of the Income Tax Act, 1961.
