Circular

Department: Primary Market Segment
Download Ref No: NSE/IPO/69351	Date: July 29, 2025
Circular Ref. No: 09/2025

All Participants,

Temporary discontinuation of NSE goBID mobile application

The Reserve Bank of India (RBI) vide its notification dated November 23, 2017 had permitted stock exchanges to act as aggregators/facilitators in the facility of non-competitive bidding in government securities. The non-competitive bidding facility allows retail investors to participate on "non-competitive" basis in auction of Government of India Dated Securities (G-Sec) and Treasury Bills (T-Bills) conducted periodically by RBI. Accordingly, NSE vide circular ref no. NSE/IPO/39424 dated November 16,2018 had launched the NSE goBID platform (Government Bond Investment Destination). Vide circular ref NSE/IPO/42666 dated November 15, 2019, SDL was also offered as part of the NCB product portfolio. Subsequently vide circular ref NSE/IPO/46907 dated January 05,2021, the NSE goBID platform was also extended to Debt IPO issues

Accordingly, the NSE goBID platform offered by the Exchange is currently offering facilities through which retail investors can purchase Government Securities (G-Secs), T-Bills & SDL and Debt IPO. The platform is accessible through weblink https://eipo.nseindia.com/eipodc/rest/login and through the NSE goBID Mobile APP (Android 4.4 version and above).

In partial modification of aforementioned circulars, NSE goBID Mobile APP facility shall be temporarily discontinued w.e.f EOD July 30, 2025 until further notice. Participants may note that the NSE goBID portal shall continue to be accessible through the aforementioned weblink.

All participants are requested to take note of the change and are requested to use the NSE goBID web-based platform for undertaking their NCB and Debt IPO transactions.
