Members can login to member portal and access the module on path: ENIT-NEW-TRADE > Trade > Pro Trading. Through this facility the member activates / deactivates the facility of placing "PRO" orders through the user ids which are allotted by the Exchange for trading.

Based on member feedback and in our continuous endeavour to provide new facilities and more user-friendly system, the Exchange is pleased to introduce a facility where the member can now place requests to activate / deactivate the facility of placing "only PRO" orders as well as "PRO and CLI" orders through the above mentioned Pro Trading module available on ENIT.

- Member desirous to activate proprietary trading facility on user ids which are not PRO enabled shall now select from the below options in PRO Enablement form:
 - Only PRO option (i.e. upon successful processing of member's request, only PRO orders shall be allowed; CLI orders if entered shall be rejected by Exchange with rejection message and error code)
 - PRO and CLI option (i.e. upon successful processing of member's request, both PRO and CLI orders shall be allowed)
- By default, the Exchange allotted user ids are enabled for "Only CLI" orders. Hence there is no change for members desirous to enter only CLI orders.

 - Members can track the request status for "Pro Status Modification" request under PRO TRADING ACTIVITY REPORT available on ENIT under PRO trading module along with PRO enablement and PRO disablement request status.
- Members can view the status of their user ids for all requests sent through PRO Trading module, in "PRO TRADING STATUS REPORT" on ENIT.
