| (f) | To confirm that insurance policies obtained for company's assets/ property are adequate and properly assigned in favour of Trustee.                                                                                               | We maintain/ contractually provide for insurance coverage of the type and in the amounts that we believe are commensurate with our operations. There are various types of risks and losses for which we do not maintain insurance, such as losses due to business interruption and natural disasters, because they are uninsurable. The insurance of completed roads and road under construction/maintenance, required, if any, is the responsibility of the Contractor/ Concessionaire. If the contractor/ concessionaire fails to keep in force all insurances for which it is responsible, NHAI, may at its option obtain the insurance policies to keep the policy in force and pay the insurance premium and recover it later from them. |
