Subject: Disclosure under Regulation 50(1) of SEBI (LODR) Regulations, 2015.

Dear Sir/Madam,

This is to submit that the National Highways Authority of India (NHAI) was constituted under an Act of Parliament, namely the National Highways Authority of India Act, 1988, and is not registered as a company under the Companies Act, 2013. The Members of the NHAI Board are senior functionaries of the Government of India at the level of Secretary to the Government of India and are generally engaged in significant official responsibilities. Accordingly, approvals of financial statements are, mostly obtained through circulation.

2. As per the established practice, whenever an agenda, seeking approval of the Board by circulation is initiated, an intimation is submitted to the Stock Exchanges. The same has been considered as compliance under the said Regulation 50 (1).

3. The financial results for the financial year ended on 31 March 2026 has been submitted to the board for approval through circulation on 31st July 2026, and the requisite intimation is being duly submitted to the Stock Exchanges.

6. Therefore, we kindly request you to take the above submission on record under Regulation 50(1) of the SEBI (LODR) Regulations, 2015.

Thanking you.

Yours Sincerely,

(Chandan Kumar)
Company Secretary & Compliance Officer
