An investment in equity shares involves a high degree of risk. You should carefully consider all the information in this Letter of Offer, including the risks and uncertainties described below, before making an investment in the Equity Shares. In making an investment decision, prospective investors must rely on their own examination of our Company and the terms of this issue including the merits and risks involved. Any potential investor in, and subscriber of, the Equity Shares should also pay particular attention to the fact that we are governed in India by a legal and regulatory environment in which some material respects may be different from that which prevails in other countries. The risks and uncertainties described in this section are not the only ones relevant to us or our Equity Shares, the industry in which we operate or to India. Additional risks and uncertainties, not currently known to us or that we currently do not deem material may also adversely affect our business, results of operations, cash flows and financial condition. If any of the following risks, or other risks that are not currently known or are not currently deemed material, actually occur, our business, results of operations, cash flows and financial condition could be adversely affected, the price of our Equity Shares could decline, and investors may lose all or part of their investment.

Unless otherwise stated in the relevant risk factors set forth below, we are not in a position to specify or quantify the financial or other implications of any of the risks mentioned herein. To obtain a better understanding, you should read this section in conjunction with the chapters titled “Our Business”, “Industry Overview” and “Management’s Discussion and Analysis Report” on page nos. 74, 65 and 161 respectively of this Letter of Offer as well as other financial information contained herein.

The following factors have been considered for determining the materiality of Risk Factors:

- Some risks may not be material individually but may be found material collectively;
- Some risks may have material impact qualitatively instead of quantitatively;
- Some risks may not be material at present but may have material impact in future.

The financial and other related implications of risks concerned, wherever quantifiable, have been disclosed in the risk factors mentioned below. However, there are risk factors where the impact may not be quantifiable and hence the same has not been disclosed in such risk factors. Unless otherwise stated, the financial information of our Company used in this section is derived from our Financial Information prepared in accordance with IND AS and the Companies Act. Unless otherwise stated, we are not in a position to specify or quantify the financial or other risks mentioned herein. For capitalized terms used but not defined in this chapter, refer to the chapter titled “Definitions and Abbreviations” on page no. 5 of this Letter of Offer. The numbering of the risk factors has been done to facilitate ease of reading and reference and does not in any manner indicate the importance of one risk factor over another.

The Letter of Offer also contains forward looking statements that involve risks and uncertainties. Our actual results could differ materially from those anticipated in these forward-looking statements as a result of many factors, including the considerations described below and elsewhere in the Letter of Offer.

A. INTERNAL RISK FACTORS:

- 1. *Our blending process can be dangerous and may cause injury to people or damage to property under certain circumstances. A significant disruption at any of our blending units may adversely affect our production schedules, costs, sales, and ability to meet customer demand:

Our blending operations involve handling flammable and potentially hazardous materials, and any accident at our units may cause injury, property damage, environmental harm, or disruption of production. Although we follow safety procedures and maintain insurance coverage, there can be no assurance that accidents, equipment failures, fires, explosions, or other unforeseen events will not occur.

Refrigerant gases handled in our operations are potent greenhouse gases with high global warming potential. Even small releases can have a disproportionate impact on the environment, and regulatory requirements regarding their use and handling may change over time.

Any accident or regulatory non-compliance could result in operational suspension, litigation, liabilities, or negative publicity, which may materially and adversely affect our business, financial condition, results of operations, cash flows, and prospects. Disruptions at any of our units could affect production schedules, delivery commitments, and customer satisfaction, thereby impacting our financial performance.

2. We are dependent upon few suppliers for the material requirements of our business. Further, we do not have definitive agreements or fixed terms of trade with most of our suppliers. Failure to successfully leverage our relationships with existing suppliers or to identify new suppliers could adversely affect our business operations:

While we have maintained a long-term relationship with many of our suppliers and we have been able to negotiate favourable credit terms from them due to increased order sizes and timely payments, we cannot assure you that we shall be able to maintain such favourable credit terms in future. In this regard, our top 10 suppliers contributed the bulk of our purchases. We are, to a major extent, dependent on external suppliers for our raw material requirements; we do not have any long-term supply agreements or commitments in relation to the same used in our business process. Although we have a long-term relationship with our suppliers, we do not have a formal written agreement with any of them. We get longer credit periods based on our relationship with the suppliers established over a period of time primarily because of continuity of orders placed with them, size of the order and timely payments made to suppliers.

Further, we are also exposed to fluctuations in the prices of raw materials used. Thus, we may be unable to control the factors affecting the price at which we procure our raw material. We also face the risks associated with compensating for or passing on such increase in our cost of production on account of such fluctuations in prices to our customers. Particularly, we face the risk of our products becoming unaffordable if pass on the increase in the cost of production to our customers through a corresponding increase in the price of our products in order to maintain our margins. Upward fluctuation of price of raw material may thereby affect our margins and profitability, resulting in a material adverse effect on our business, financial conditions and results of operations.

3. We do not have agreements having commitment on part of our customers to purchase or place orders with us. If our customers choose not to source their requirements from us, there may be a material adverse effect on our business, financial condition, cash flows and results of operations:

We typically rely on blanket purchase orders issued by our customers from time to time that set out the price per unit of the products that are to be supplied to/ purchased by them from us. Pursuant to the purchase order, our customers provide us the quantities of units to be supplied along with the delivery schedules specifying the details of delivery.

The Company's revenue stream is significantly dependent on a limited number of customers. In operations, a substantial portion of revenues is reliant on a select number of customers, and the potential to significantly reduce customer concentration in the future remains uncertain. As we do not have long-term agreements with our customers. Customers may choose to cease sourcing our products. We cannot assure that we will receive repeat orders from our customers in the future.

We cannot assure that we may be able to maintain the relationship in future also. Further, absence of any contractual exclusivity with respect to our business arrangements with such customers poses a threat on our ability to be able to continue to supply our products to these customers in the future. Should the customer cease to place orders in the future, our revenue might decline, potentially impacting our financial standing.

Moreover, any deterioration in the financial condition or business prospects of these key customers may adversely impact their demand for our products and their ability to fulfil payment obligations in a timely manner or at all, potentially leading to a substantial decrease in the revenues derived from these customers.

Furthermore, the potential loss of a significant customer or a reduction in the volume of business from such a customer could exert adverse effects on our business, including impacts on results of operations, cash flows, and overall financial condition.

4. Our revenues are significantly dependent on certain geographical regions, and any adverse developments in these regions could adversely impact our business, financial condition and results of operations:

We derive a substantial portion of our revenue from customers located in two States, namely Maharashtra and Delhi. For the period ended on December 31, 2025 and for the year ended March 31, 2025, March 31, 2024 and March 31, 2023, accounted for 82.08%, 77.18%, 69.81% and 63.92% of our revenue from operations, respectively, was generated from customers situated in these States.

The table sets forth below revenue earned by our Company by offering services in various states as a percentage of our revenue from operations during the period indicated:

States	Period ended on December 31, 2025 (%)	March 31, 2025 (%)	March 31, 2024 (%)	March 31, 2023 (%)
Maharashtra	67.96	65.79	54.71	49.71
Delhi	14.12	11.39	15.10	14.21
Other states	17.92	22.82	30.19	36.08
Total	100.00	100.00	100.00	100.00

The concentration of our revenue in two States (Maharashtra and Delhi) exposes us to risks arising from adverse economic, social, political, regulatory or infrastructural developments in these regions. Our business may be adversely affected if we are unable to diversify geographically or reduce such concentration risk. Any significant disruption in these regions arising from civil unrest, natural calamities, severe weather conditions, changes in laws and policies, labour issues or other unforeseen circumstances may materially impact our operations, increase costs, delay execution of orders, and reduce revenues. In such instances, we may be required to halt operations or incur additional costs, adversely affecting our business, financial condition and cash flows.

Moreover, this concentration also exposes us to (i) vulnerability to changes in the political, legal and regulatory environment of such States; (ii) the perception that we are a regional Company, which may limit our ability to compete for larger or more complex projects at a national level; and (iii) restrictions on our ability to implement strategies to cluster projects across wider geographies.

Although we do generate revenue outside of our core states (Maharashtra and Delhi), it is currently limited. As we seek to expand into other markets, we may face competition not only from national brands but also from entrenched local players with stronger relationships with authorities, financiers, and customers, and with deeper knowledge of local regulations and practices. Our experience in our current markets may not translate directly to other states, and we may not achieve comparable performance outside our existing geographies.

Although we have not faced any material adverse impact from such concentration in the past, we cannot assure you that adverse developments in these regions will not occur in the future. Any such events could materially and adversely affect our business prospects, financial condition and results of operations.

5. Risk associated with regulatory approvals relating to rights to establishment and commencement for setting up a proposed manufacturing facility at Bhilwara, Rajasthan:

The establishment and commencement of operations of our proposed manufacturing facility are subject to obtaining requisite statutory and regulatory approvals from the relevant authorities. For setting up a chemical industry, the primary regulatory approval is the Environmental Clearance (“EC”) from the Ministry of Environment, Forest and Climate Change (MoEF&CC), which the Company has received on December 28, 2025.

Pursuant to receipt of the EC, the Company had applied for Consent to Establish (CTE) with the concerned authority, made all requisite submissions, and paid the applicable application and consent fees. Under the regulatory framework prevailing at the time of such application, the CTE was deemed to be granted upon receipt of the Environmental Clearance, and only Consent to Operate (CTO) was required to be obtained prior to commencement of operations. Subsequent to the Company’s application, the regulatory process was revised, requiring CTE to be applied for and granted separately. As the Company’s application was submitted prior to such change, the same is presently under consideration by the concerned authority.

While the Company is of the view that the CTE stands deemed granted pursuant to the Environmental Clearance already received, there can be no assurance that the formal grant, confirmation, or completion of the CTE process will not be subject to additional requirements, conditions, or delays. Any delay or adverse outcome in obtaining or formalizing the CTE and/or other approvals, including the Consent to Operate, may result in delays in the establishment or commencement of operations of the proposed manufacturing facility, increase project costs, or adversely affect the Company’s business, financial condition, and results of operations.

Any adverse decision may make us liable to liabilities/ penalties and may adversely affect our reputation, business and financial status.

Our Promoters and Directors are party to certain litigation and claims. These legal proceedings are pending at different levels of adjudication before various regulatory authorities. 9. Any delay in setting up the Proposed Facilities or any cost or time overruns in relation thereto, including the purchase and installation of plant and machinery, could have a material adverse effect on our business, financial condition, results of operations, and growth:

The Company proposes to utilize the proceeds of the Rights Issue towards construction and other civil works and the purchase, installation, and commissioning of plant, machinery and equipment for setting up the unit/ plant. The Company has already executed a memorandum of understanding for acquisition of the land required for the proposed project; however, completion of construction and commencement of operations remain subject to risks relating to obtaining statutory and regulatory approvals and timely completion of civil works. The project may face delays or cost overruns due to escalation in construction and equipment costs, contractor performance issues, supply chain disruptions, or unforeseen site conditions. Further, delays in procurement, delivery, installation, or commissioning of plant and machinery, as well as dependence on third-party vendors and contractors, could adversely affect the implementation schedule. Any inability to utilize the issue proceeds as planned, or any underestimation of project costs, may require the Company to seek additional funding and could materially impact its business, financial condition, cash flows, and results of operations.

10. Risks arising from the nature of the Company's business and the refrigerants and industrial gases industry:

The Company operates in the business of selling refrigerants, industrial gases, and related products, including debulking, blending, and processing activities and the sale of pre-filled cans and small cylinders/ containers. Its operations are exposed to risks arising from fluctuations in demand from end-user industries, volatility in raw material prices, and changes in supply-demand dynamics, which may impact margins. The industry is competitive, with the presence of organized and unorganized players, leading to pricing pressure. Further, the handling, storage, and transportation of refrigerants and industrial gases are subject to stringent safety, environmental, and regulatory requirements, and any non-compliance, regulatory changes, or operational disruptions could adversely affect the Company's business, financial condition, and results of operations.

The Company would have to tie-up with OEM's for the supply of R-32 on an annual contractual basis and if the Company is unable to meet its contracted supplies it may materially affect its performance.

There would be sufficient manufacturing capacities in the country and if the Company is not able to export the surplus product it cannot sell or blend locally then it would have a material impact on the Company's financial performance.

The current projections are based on the current high prices in the market globally, in case there is any downturn or prices come down globally then it will have a material impact on the Company's financial performance.

11. The price, at which we are able to obtain the raw material for manufacture of our finished products depend largely on prevailing market prices. Increase in costs of our raw materials could have a material adverse effect on our Company's sales, profitability and results of operations:

Our operations in manufacturing and selling refrigerants and industrial gases are dependent on the availability and pricing of raw materials, which we procure primarily from third-party suppliers at prevailing market prices. We generally do not enter into long-term supply arrangements and, as a result, are exposed to price volatility, potential supply disruptions, and fluctuations in raw material costs. Inability to pass on increases in raw material costs to customers could adversely affect our margins, profitability, and results of operations.

A significant portion of our raw materials is imported, particularly from China. Any restrictions on imports, changes in duties or tariffs imposed by the Indian government or exporting countries, or disruptions in global supply chains may materially impact our ability to procure raw materials in a timely and cost-effective manner.

Raw material costs are influenced by both global demand-supply dynamics and domestic production and import volumes. Any increase in raw material prices that cannot be offset by corresponding increases in product prices could reduce our margins and adversely affect our financial condition, business performance, and results of operations. Delays or disruptions in procuring raw materials of the required quality may also disrupt operations, delay deliveries, and result in loss of customers, thereby materially affecting our business and results of operations.

The main raw material AHF may be sourced locally or from abroad and till the Company does not backward integrate and manufacture its own AHF it would be dependent on AHF suppliers and an increase in this cost would adversely affect the Company's profitability.

The Company is already in discussions with raw material suppliers to source its raw materials and in case its ability to tie-up for raw materials is impacted then it would impact it materially.

The Company would be using LPG as feedstock for its boilers (and not coal, keeping in mind environmental concerns) and any major increase in price or availability of LPG would impact the Company's performance.

12. We are subject to risks arising from foreign exchange rate movements:

We are subject to risks arising from fluctuations in foreign exchange rates. As we rely on the import of our primary raw materials, we are exposed to exchange rate risks associated with foreign currency payables and other foreign currency assets and liabilities.

For the quarter ended on 31st December, 2025, import costs accounted for approximately 62.32% of our revenue from operations. Since a major portion of our imports is from China, volatility in the exchange rate between the Indian Rupee and the Chinese Yuan poses a potential risk, and similar fluctuations may occur in the future. Consequently, changes in exchange rates could significantly affect our revenues, other income, operating costs, and net income, and may materially and adversely impact our business, operating results, and financial condition.

13. Our Company does not own the Trademark used in its business and is dependent on a license granted by our Promoter:

The trademark,  which is used in connection with our business, is registered in the name of our Promoter and Managing Director, Mr. Shazad Sheriar Rustomji, under the Trade Marks Act, 1999 (Registration No. 2125853, Class 1). Our Company does not own this trademark and is permitted to use the same pursuant to a trademark usage agreement dated 19th January, 2026, which grants us the right to use the trademark for commercial purposes for a period from 1st February, 2026, to 31st January, 2028, without payment of any royalty or consideration. There can be no assurance that this agreement will be renewed upon expiry or that the terms of any such renewal will be favourable to the Company. Any termination, non-renewal, or dispute in relation to this trademark usage arrangement, or any restriction on our right to use the trademark, may adversely affect our brand recognition, competitive position, business operations, financial condition and results of operations.

14. Our proposed R-32 gas manufacturing operations are dependent on the adequate and uninterrupted supply of electrical power and water, and any disruption or increase in cost may adversely affect our business and results of operations:

The manufacturing of R-32 gas proposed to be undertaken by the Company using the proceeds of the Rights Issue is dependent on the availability of an adequate and uninterrupted supply of electrical power and water. The proposed manufacturing facility is expected to require approximately 255 KLD of water (including recycled water) and approximately 3,700 KW of electrical power for its operations.

The Company taken electricity supply with Ajmer Vidyut Vitran Nigam Limited (AVVNL) and for water supply with the Water Resources Department, Bhilwara, Rajasthan. Any disruption, inadequacy, or interruption in the supply of electrical power or water, delays in obtaining or renewing approvals or connections, failure of water recycling systems, power outages, changes in tariff structures, regulatory restrictions, or any significant increase in the cost of utilities may adversely affect our ability to operate the proposed plant at optimal capacity. Further, the Company may not be able to pass on any increase in utility costs to its customers, which could result in higher operating expenses and adversely affect our business, financial condition, results of operations, and cash flows.

15. The irreversible blending process of HCFCs, HFCs, and HFOs gases poses a risk due to the inability to separate or reverse the blended components:

The blending process of HCFCs (Hydro Chlorofluorocarbons), HFCs (Hydro Fluorocarbons) and HFOs (Hydro Fluoroolefins) gases is irreversible. Once blended, the original components cannot be separated or restored to their individual states. This irreversibility poses a risk, as any errors or deviations in the blending procedure may result in a final product that cannot be corrected or decomposed into its constituent gases.

While no such incidents have occurred in the past, the irreversible nature of the process may lead to quality control issues. Deviations from the intended blending ratios could adversely affect the performance and properties of the final product, making it challenging to maintain product quality and consistency. Such errors may result in loss of raw materials, increased time and resource consumption, and may materially affect business profitability and customer satisfaction.

16. We are dependent on third parties for the transportation and timely delivery of our products to customers. Any failure or loss of a third-party transport service provider could result in delays and increased costs, which may materially and adversely affect our business:

We depend on third parties for the transportation and timely delivery of our products to customers. Any failure, delay, or loss of a third-party transport service provider could disrupt our operations, increase costs, and adversely affect our ability to meet customer demand.

If our logistics providers are unable to deliver services for reasons beyond our control, and we are unable to secure alternative arrangements in a timely manner and at acceptable costs, our business, cash flows, financial condition, results of operations, and reputation may be materially and adversely affected.

17. Our failure to maintain required quality, purity and safety standards for our refrigerants and industrial gases could adversely affect our business, results of operations and financial condition:

Quality control and adherence to prescribed technical, safety and regulatory standards are critical to our operations involving the debulking, blending, processing and proposed manufacturing of refrigerants and industrial gases, including R-32 gas and blended refrigerants. Our products are required to meet stringent customer specifications, industry standards and applicable regulatory requirements relating to purity, composition, pressure, packaging and handling. Any deviation from such standards, including contamination, improper blending, filling defects, equipment malfunction or human error, may result in product rejection, customer claims, regulatory action, suspension of operations or reputational damage.

Although the Company has received the Environmental Clearance from the State Environment Impact Assessment Authority, Rajasthan, for its proposed R-32 manufacturing plant and intends to implement appropriate quality management systems, safety protocols and monitoring mechanisms, there can be no assurance that such measures will be sufficient to prevent quality-related issues. Any failure to comply with quality standards, environmental conditions, or safety requirements, including those relating to the handling of hazardous gases and by-products, may adversely affect our operations, financial condition and results of operations.

18. Our Promoters and members of the Promoter Group will continue jointly to retain majority control over our Company after the Issue, which will allow them to determine the outcome of matters submitted to shareholders for approval:

After completion of this Issue, our Promoters and Promoter Group will collectively own approx. 47.76% of the Equity Shares. As a result, our Promoters together with the members of the Promoter Group will be able to exercise a significant degree of influence over us and will be able to control the outcome of any proposal that can be approved by a majority shareholder vote including, the election of members to our Board, in accordance with the Companies Act, 2013 and our AOA. Such a concentration of ownership may also have the effect of delaying, preventing or deterring a change in control of our Company.

In addition, our Promoters will continue to have the ability to cause us to take actions that are not in, or may conflict with our interests or the interests of some or all of our creditors or minority shareholders, and we cannot assure you that such actions will not have an adverse effect on our future financial performance or the price of our Equity Shares.

19. Our insurance coverage may be inadequate or may not be renewed upon expiry, which could expose us to economic losses and liabilities and adversely affect our business, results of operations and financial condition:

Our Company has obtained insurance for its Manesar (Haryana) plant, covering refrigerator gases for clients including Videocon, LG, and Blue Star, as well as stocks (ISO tanks, cylinders, farms, bulk). The Company also maintains general liability insurance, directors' and officers' liability insurance, and coverage for its assets and inventories, including buildings, plant and machinery, raw materials, stock-in-process, and finished goods. Insurance coverage is based on reinstatement value, landed cost, input cost, or manufacturing/contract price, as applicable. Existing policies are valid until 14th January, 2027.

However, there is no assurance that these policies will be renewed upon expiry, on similar terms, or without exclusions, or that they will remain commercially reasonable. Insurance may not fully protect against all economic losses, including reputational harm or losses that are difficult to quantify. Even when coverage exists, claims may be denied or not paid in full. Any lapse, non-renewal, or inadequacy of insurance could result in significant losses and adversely affect our business, financial condition, and results of operations.

20. Our success depends largely upon the services of our Board of Directors and other Key Managerial Personnel(s) and our ability to retain them. Our inability to attract and retain Board of Directors, Key Managerial Personnel(s) and Senior Management Personnel(s) may adversely affect the operations of our Company:

Our success largely depends on the continued services and performance of our Board of Directors and other Key Managerial Personnel(s). The loss of service of the Board of Directors, Key Managerial Personnel(s) and other Senior Management Personnel(s) could seriously impair the ability to continue to manage and expand the business efficiently. Further, the loss of any of the Directors, Senior Management Personnel(s) or other Key Managerial Personnel(s) may adversely affect the operations, finances and profitability of our Company. Any failure or inability of our Company to efficiently retain and manage its human resources would adversely affect our ability to implement new projects and expand our business.

21. The Registered Office from which we operate is not owned by the Company:

Our Registered Office is located at 2, A Wing, Knox Plaza, Off. Link Road, Mindspace, Malad (West), Mumbai – 400064, Maharashtra, which is taken on lease from our Promoter-cum-Managing Director, Mr. Shazad Sheriar Rustomji, for a period of 11 months commencing between 1st April, 2025 and 28th February, 2026. Since the premises are not owned by the Company, any termination, non-renewal, or discontinuance of the lease arrangement may require us to relocate to alternate premises. Such relocation could disrupt our operations and may adversely affect our business, financial condition, and profitability.

22. Our manufacturing plants/ units are not owned by the Company and are taken on lease from our Promoter, which exposes us to risks relating to lease renewal and continuity of operations:

Our manufacturing plants/ units are not owned by the Company and are taken on lease from our Promoter-cum-Managing Director, Mr. Shazad Sheriar Rustomji. These manufacturing plants/ units are located at:

- i. Khalapur plant situated at Gate No. 12, Hissa No. 1, Road: Lohop–Talvali, Taluka: Khalapur, District: Raigad, Maharashtra – 410207, taken on lease for periods of 11 months commencing between 1st May, 2025 and 31st March, 2026;
- ii. Panvel plant situated at Gate No. 73, Inside Paras Warehousing Complex, Kolkhe Village, Palaspa Phatta, Panvel, District: Raigad, Maharashtra - 410221, taken on lease for periods of 24 months commencing between 1st January, 2026 and 31st December, 2027; and
- iii. Manesar plant situated at Plot No. 65, Sector 6, IMT Manesar, Gurugram, Haryana – 122005, taken on lease for periods of 24 months commencing between 1st December, 2025 and 30th November, 2027.

Since these manufacturing plants/ units are not owned by the Company, we are exposed to risks associated with termination, non-renewal, or non-extension of the lease arrangements. Any such event may require us to relocate our manufacturing operations or arrange alternative facilities, which may not be available on commercially reasonable terms or within required timelines. Relocation or disruption of operations could result in interruptions in manufacturing activities, increased operational and capital expenditure, delays in execution of customer orders, and loss of business opportunities. Consequently, any such disruption could adversely affect our business, financial condition, cash flows, and results of operations.

23. Construction and Commissioning of Manufacturing Facilities Under Development:

Our Company is currently constructing two manufacturing facilities: one at Plot No. 2, APIIC, IP Mambattu Phase II, Survey No. 176/177, Mambattu Village, Tada, District Tirupati, Andhra Pradesh, for HFC/HFO blending and debulking, and another at Survey No. 12, House No. 1, Village Lohop, Taluka Khalapur, District Raigad, Maharashtra, for the production of Helium and Semiconductor Gases. The aforementioned projects are already financed through the proceeds of the initial public offering (IPO).

The completion and commissioning of these facilities are subject to uncertainties, including construction delays, cost overruns, dependence on contractors, availability of equipment and skilled manpower, and timely receipt of statutory and regulatory approvals. Further, there is no assurance that, once commissioned, these facilities will achieve the anticipated capacity utilization, operational efficiency, or profitability. Any delay, failure, or adverse development in relation to these projects could result in increased costs, deferment of expected revenues, and may adversely affect our business, financial condition, results of operations, and future prospects.

24. We could be harmed by employee misconduct or errors that are difficult to detect and any such incidences could adversely affect our financial condition, results of operations and reputation:

Employee misconduct or errors could expose us to business risks or losses, including regulatory sanctions and serious harm to our reputation. There can be no assurance that we will be able to detect or deter such misconduct. Moreover, the precautions we take to prevent and detect such activity may not be effective in all cases. Our employees and agents may also commit errors that could subject us to claims and proceedings for alleged negligence, as well as regulatory actions on account of which our business, financial condition, results of operations and goodwill could be adversely affected.

25. Our revenues and expenses are difficult to predict and can vary significantly from period to period, which could cause our share price to decline:

The economic environment, pricing pressure and decreased employee utilization rates could negatively impact our revenues and operating results. In the event that the Government of India or the Government of another country changes its tax policies in a manner that is adverse to us, our tax expense may materially increase, reducing our profitability.

26. Regulatory Approvals and Licenses:

Our business, including both existing and proposed manufacturing facilities, requires certain approvals, licenses, and permits in the ordinary course of operations, and any failure to obtain, maintain, or renew them in a timely manner may materially affect our operations. These approvals are required at both state and central government levels and may contain conditions, some of which could be onerous.

For the proposed manufacturing facility, approvals are required from the Rajasthan Pollution Control Board, Department of Factories, Petroleum and Explosives Safety Organization, and Rajasthan State Disaster Response and Fire Services Department. While Environmental Clearance (EC), including deemed Consent to Establishment (CTE), was received on 28th December, 2025, other key approvals—including the Factory Act License, Consent to Operate (CTO), licenses for storage of compressed gases, and fire safety approvals—are yet to be obtained prior to commencement of operations.

The primary and most important approval required was the environmental clearance without which none of the other clearances can be applied for. The Company will now in the process apply for all other approvals required namely PESO, Fire NOC, Factory License, CTO, etc. If the Company is unable to obtain these approvals timely it would hamper the working and timely start of the production and impact the profitability as shown in projections for the F.Y. 2027.

There can be no assurance that such approvals and licenses will be obtained in a timely manner, or at all, or without conditions that could be onerous. Any delay, non-receipt, suspension, cancellation, or failure to renew these approvals may result in operational delays, increased compliance costs, penalties, or restrictions, and could materially and adversely affect our business, financial condition, cash flows, and results of operations.

Changes in applicable laws, regulations, government policies, or their interpretation, or any non-compliance, whether inadvertent or otherwise, may similarly result in additional obligations, liabilities, or restrictions affecting our operations.

27. We are subject to safety, health, environmental, labor, workplace, and related laws and regulations, and any failure to comply with current or future laws or regulations could have a material adverse effect on our business, financial condition, and results of operations:

We are subject to extensive safety, health, environmental, labor, workplace, and related laws and regulations in the jurisdictions where we operate. These regulations govern various aspects of our operations, including the blending, storage, and disposal of raw materials.

Our facilities involve inherent hazards due to blending processes, which may pose risks to employees and others. Non-compliance with applicable laws or unsafe working conditions could result in accidents, personal injury, loss of life, property damage, or operational disruptions. Such incidents may expose us to litigation, penalties, increased operating costs, and reputational harm.

Regulatory authorities may also mandate the shutdown of our facilities, which could lead to product shortages and hinder our ability to meet customer obligations. Any failure to maintain safe work sites or comply with applicable laws and regulations may materially and adversely affect our business, financial condition, results of operations, and reputation.

Environmental concerns like poor handling of waste stream or discharge of untreated waste or pile up of untreated waste stream may result in shut down by the RSPCB.

Government Policy pertaining to new Environmental norms in case they are changed and affect our Industry may have an adverse impact on the company's production and Financials.

Government Policy pertaining to HFC's and Quota for production may change and may adversely affect our production quota in future and also impact the company Financially in its performance shown in the projections.

The Global Kigali accord to which India is a Signatory and which governs the current Import and production quota norms may change which may adversely affect our production ability and impact us financially in case it is changed and affects us adversely.

28. We are subject to stringent labour laws and other industry standards, and any strike, work stoppage, lock-out, increased wage demand, or other disputes with our employees could adversely affect our business, financial condition, and results of operations:

Our operations are labour-intensive, and we are subject to stringent labour laws and industry standards that protect the rights of workers, including provisions for dispute resolution, retrenchment, and financial obligations on employers. While we have not experienced significant labour unrest in the past, strikes, lock-outs, work stoppages, increased wage demands, or other industrial actions could occur in the future.

Any such labour action, if not resolved promptly, may disrupt our operations, affect production schedules, increase costs, and adversely impact our business, financial condition, results of operations, and reputation. We cannot guarantee that future labour disputes or industrial actions will not occur, and any such event could have a material adverse effect on our operations.

29. We have delayed in regulatory filings to be made with the ROC:

In the past, there have been certain delays, discrepancies, and omissions in our statutory records and in the submission of returns to the Registrar of Companies (“ROC”). However, as of the date hereof, all required filings with the ROC have been duly completed, along with the payment of applicable additional fees, where necessary. There have been no instances of non-filing to date.

No show-cause notice has been issued against the Company, nor has any penalty been levied in relation to such past delays or defaults. Nevertheless, there can be no assurance that similar delays or discrepancies will not occur in the future, or that no penalties will be imposed in such eventualities.

30. Our ability to pay dividends in the future will depend upon future earnings, financial condition, cash flows, working capital requirements and capital expenditures:

Our future ability to pay dividends will depend on our future earnings, financial condition and capital requirements. Dividends may be distributed by us will attract dividend distribution tax at rates applicable from time to time. There can be no assurance that we will generate sufficient income to cover the operating expenses and pay dividends to the shareholders. Our ability to pay dividends will also depend on our expansion plans. We may be unable to pay dividends in the near or medium term, and the future dividend policy will depend on the capital requirements and financing arrangements for the business plans, financial condition and results of operations.

31. Our actual results could differ from the estimates and projections used to prepare our financial statements:

The estimates and projections are based on and reflect our current expectations, assumptions and/ or projections as well as our perception of historical trends and current conditions, as well as other factors that we believe are appropriate and reasonable under the circumstances. There can be no assurance that our expectations, estimates, assumptions and/ or projections, including with respect to the future earnings and performance will prove to be correct or that any of our expectations, estimates or projections will be achieved.

32. Any defects in our services could make our Company liable for customer claims, which in turn could affect our Company’s results of operations:

Our Company is bound by the terms and conditions as stated in the service order placed by its customers. There are no specific regulations governing the supply of the same, other than the general law of contracts. Any claims made by these customers for negligence or lack of service, would be subject to these terms and conditions, which are in the nature of normal contractual obligations in India. Any violation of these obligations could impact our Company’s results of operations and financial conditions.

33. Statistical and industry data in this Letter of Offer may be inaccurate, incomplete or unreliable:

We have not independently verified data obtained from industry publications and other sources referred to in this Letter of Offer. This Letter of Offer includes information that is derived from relevant sources. Neither we nor any other person connected with the Issue has verified the information in the website of relevant sources. This information does not guarantee the accuracy, adequacy or completeness of the information and disclaims responsibility for any errors or omissions in the information or for the results obtained from the use of the information. There are no standard data gathering methodologies in the industry in which we conduct our business, and methodologies and assumptions vary widely among different industry sources. 34. A failure of our internal controls over financial reporting may have an adverse effect on our business and results of operations:

Our management is responsible for establishing and maintaining adequate internal control over financial reporting. Internal control over financial reporting is a process designed to provide reasonable assurance regarding the reliability of financial reporting for external purposes, including with respect to record keeping and transaction authorization. Because of our inherent limitations, internal control over financial reporting is not intended to provide absolute assurance that a misstatement of our financial statements would be prevented or detected. Any failure to maintain an effective system of internal control over financial reporting could limit our ability to report its financial results accurately and in a timely manner, or to detect and prevent fraud.

35. Our Company has in the past entered into related party transactions and may continue to do so in the future:

We have entered into and may in the ordinary course of our business continue to enter into transactions with related parties that include our Promoters, Directors and Promoter Group entities.

All the related party transactions undertaken by the Company are in compliance with the applicable provisions of the Companies Act, 2013 and all other applicable laws. While we believe that all such transactions have been conducted on an arm's length basis and in the ordinary course of business, there can be no assurance that we could not have achieved more favourable terms had such transactions not been entered into with related parties. Furthermore, it is likely that we may enter into related party transactions in the future. The Companies Act, 2013 has brought into effect significant changes to the Indian Company law framework, including specific compliance requirements such as obtaining prior approval from audit committee, the board of directors and shareholders for certain related party transactions. There can be no assurance that such transactions, individually or in the aggregate, will not have a material effect on our financial condition and results of operations.

B. EXTERNAL RISK FACTORS:

1. The Companies Act, 2013 has effected significant changes to the existing Indian Company law framework, which may subject us to higher compliance requirements and increase our compliance costs:

The Companies Act, 2013 has brought into effect significant changes to the Indian Company law framework, such as in the provisions related to issue of capital, disclosures in Letter of Offer, corporate governance norms, audit matters, related party transactions, introduction of a provision allowing the initiation of class action suits in India against Companies by shareholders or depositors, a restriction on investment by an Indian Company through more than two layers of subsidiary investment companies (subject to certain permitted exceptions), prohibitions on loans to directors and insider trading and restrictions on Director(s) and Key Managerial Personnel(s) from engaging in forward dealing. Further, Companies meeting certain financial thresholds are also required to constitute a committee of the Board of Directors for corporate social responsibility activities and ensure that at least 2% of the average net profits of the Company during three immediately preceding financial years are utilized for corporate social responsibility activities. Penalties for instances of non-compliance have been prescribed under the Companies Act, 2013, which may result in inter alia, our Company, Director(s) and Key Managerial Personnel(s) being subject to such penalties and formal actions as prescribed under the Companies Act, 2013, should we not be able to comply with the provisions of the New Companies Act within the prescribed timelines, and this could also affect our reputation.

To ensure compliance with the requirements of the Companies Act, 2013 within the prescribed timelines, we may need to allocate additional resources, which may increase our regulatory compliance costs and divert management attention. While we shall endeavour to comply with the prescribed framework and procedures, we may not be in a position to do so in a timely manner.

2. Political, economic, or other factors that are beyond our control may have adversely affect our business and results of operations:

The Indian economy is influenced by economic developments in other countries. These factors could depress economic activity which could have an adverse effect on our business, financial condition, and results of operations. Any financial disruption could have an adverse effect on our business and future financial performance.

We are dependent on domestic, regional, and global economic and market conditions. Our performance, growth and market price of our Equity Shares are and will be dependent to a large extent on the health of the economy in which we operate. There have been periods of slowdown in the economic growth of India. Demand for our services may be adversely affected by an economic downturn in domestic, regional, and global economies.

Economic growth is affected by various factors including domestic consumption and savings, balance of trade movements, namely export demand and movements in key imports, global economic uncertainty and liquidity crisis, and volatility in exchange currency rates, and annual rainfall which affects agricultural production.

Consequently, any future slowdown in the Indian economy could harm our business, results of operations and financial condition. Also, a change in the government or a change in the economic and deregulation policies could adversely affect economic conditions prevalent in the areas in which we operate in general and our business in particular and high rates of inflation in India could increase our costs without proportionately increasing our revenues, and as such decrease our operating margins.

3. Changing laws, rules and regulations and legal uncertainties, including adverse application of corporate and tax laws, may adversely affect our business, prospects, and results of operations:

The regulatory and policy environment in which we operate is evolving and subject to change. Such changes, including the instances mentioned below, may adversely affect our business, results of operations and prospects, to the extent that we are unable to suitably respond to and comply with any such changes in applicable law and policy.

In addition, unfavourable changes in or interpretations of existing, or the promulgation of new laws, rules and regulations including foreign investment laws governing our business, operations and group structure could result in us being deemed to be in contravention of such laws or may require us to apply for additional approvals. We may incur increased costs and other burdens relating to compliance with such new requirements, which may also require significant management time and other resources, and any failure to comply may adversely affect our business, results of operations and prospects. Uncertainty in the applicability, interpretation or implementation of any amendment to, or change in, governing law, regulation or policy, including by reason of an absence, or a limited body, of administrative or judicial precedent may be time consuming as well as costly for us to resolve and may affect the viability of our current business or restrict our ability to grow our business in the future.

Any increase in taxes and levies, or the imposition of new taxes and levies in the future, could increase the cost of production and operating expenses. Taxes and other levies imposed by the central or state governments in India that affect our industry include customs duties, excise duties, sales tax, income tax and other taxes, duties or surcharges introduced on a permanent or temporary basis from time to time. The central and state tax scheme in India is extensive and subject to change from time to time. Any adverse changes in any of the taxes levied by the central or state governments may adversely affect our competitive position and profitability.

4. Financial instability in both Indian and international financial markets could adversely affect our results of operations and financial condition:

The Indian financial market and the Indian economy are influenced by economic and market conditions in other countries, particularly in emerging market in Asian countries. Financial turmoil in Asia, Europe, the United States and elsewhere in the world in recent years has affected the Indian economy. Although economic conditions are different in each country, investors' reactions to developments in one country can have an adverse effect on the securities of companies in other countries. A loss in investor confidence in the financial systems of other emerging markets may cause increased volatility in the Indian economy in general. Any global financial instability, including further deterioration of credit conditions in the U.S. market, could also have a negative impact on the Indian economy. Financial disruptions may occur again and could harm our results of operations and financial condition.

The Indian economy is also influenced by economic and market conditions in other countries. This includes, but is not limited to, the conditions in the United States, Europe and certain economies in Asia. Financial turmoil in Asia and elsewhere in the world in recent years has affected the Indian economy. Any worldwide financial instability may cause increased volatility in the Indian financial markets and, directly or indirectly, adversely affect the Indian economy and financial sector and its business.

Although economic conditions vary across markets, loss of investor confidence in one emerging economy may cause increased volatility across other economies, including India. Financial instability in other parts of the world could have a global influence and thereby impact the Indian economy. Financial disruptions in the future could adversely affect our business, prospects, financial condition and results of operations. The global credit and equity markets have experienced substantial dislocations, liquidity disruptions and market corrections.

There are concerns that a tightening of monetary policy in emerging markets and some developed markets will lead to a moderation in global growth. In response to such developments, legislators and financial regulators in the United States and other jurisdictions, including India, have implemented a number of policy measures designed to add stability to the financial markets. However, the overall long-term impact of these and other legislative and regulatory efforts on the global financial markets is uncertain, and they may not have had the intended stabilizing effects. Any significant financial disruption in the future could have an adverse effect on our cost of funding, loan portfolio, business, future financial performance, and the trading price of the Equity Shares.

5. Inflation in India could have an adverse effect on our profitability and if significant, on our financial condition:

Inflation rates in India have been volatile in recent years, and such volatility may continue in the future. India has experienced high inflation in the recent past. Increased inflation can contribute to an increase in interest rates and increased costs to our business, including increased costs of salaries, and other expenses relevant to our business.

High fluctuations in inflation rates may make it more difficult for us to accurately estimate or control our costs. Any increase in inflation in India can increase our expenses, which we may not be able to pass on to our customers, whether entirely or in part, and the same may adversely affect our business and financial condition. In particular, we might not be able to reduce our costs or increase our rates to pass the increase in costs on to our customers. In such case, our business, results of operations, cash flows and financial condition may be adversely affected.

Further, the GOI has previously initiated economic measures to combat high inflation rates, and it is unclear whether these measures will remain in effect. There can be no assurance that Indian inflation levels will not worsen in the future.

6. Civil disturbances, extremities of weather, regional conflicts and other political instability may have adverse effects on our operations and financial performance:

Certain events that are beyond our control such as earthquake, fire, floods and similar natural calamities may cause interruption in the business undertaken by us. Our operations and financial results and the market price and liquidity of our equity shares may be affected by changes in Indian Government policy or taxation or social, ethnic, political, economic or other adverse developments in or affecting India.

7. Terrorist attacks, civil unrest and other acts of violence or war involving India and other countries could adversely affect the financial markets and our business:

Terrorist attacks and other acts of violence or war may negatively affect the Indian markets on which our Equity Shares will trade and also adversely affect the worldwide financial markets. These acts may also result in a loss of business confidence, impede travel and other services and ultimately adversely affect our business. In addition, any deterioration in relations between India and Pakistan might result in investor concern about stability in the region, which could adversely affect the price of our Equity Shares.

India has also witnessed civil disturbances in recent years and it is possible that future civil unrest as well as other/ adverse social, economic and political events in India could have a negative impact on the value of share prices generally as well as the price of our Equity Shares. Such incidents could also create a greater perception that investment in Indian companies involves a higher degree of risk and could have an adverse impact on our business and the price of our Equity Shares.

8. Any further downgrading of our debt ratings or of India's sovereign debt rating may adversely affect our business:

Any downgrading of our credit ratings may increase interest rates on our outstanding debt, increase interest rates for refinancing our outstanding debt, which would increase our financing costs, and materially and adversely affect our ability to raise new capital on a competitive basis, which may adversely affect our profitability and future growth. In addition, any adverse revisions to India's credit ratings for domestic and international debt by international rating agencies may adversely affect our ability to raise additional financing and the interest rates and other commercial terms at which such financing is available. This may materially and adversely affect our capital expenditure plans, business and future financial performance and our ability to fund our growth in future.

9. The ability of Indian companies to raise foreign capital may be constrained by Indian law:

As an Indian Company, we are subject to exchange controls that regulate borrowing in foreign currencies, including those specified under FEMA. Such regulatory restrictions limit our financing sources for our projects under development and hence could constrain our ability to obtain financing on competitive terms and refinance existing indebtedness. In addition, we cannot assure you that the required approvals will be granted to us without onerous conditions, or at all. Limitations on foreign debt may adversely affect our business growth, results of operations and financial condition.

10. A slowdown in economic growth in India could cause our business to suffer:

We are incorporated in India, and all of our assets and employees are located in India. As a result, we are highly dependent on prevailing economic conditions in India and our results of operations are significantly affected by factors influencing the Indian economy. A slowdown in the Indian economy could adversely affect our business, including our ability to grow our assets, the quality of our assets, and our ability to implement our strategy.

Factors that may adversely affect the Indian economy, and hence our results of operations, may include:

- i. any increase in Indian interest rates or inflation;
- ii. any scarcity of credit or other financing in India;
- iii. prevailing income conditions among Indian consumers and Indian corporations;
- iv. changes in India's tax, trade, fiscal or monetary policies;
- v. political instability, terrorism or military conflict in India or in countries in the region or globally, including in India's various neighbouring countries;
- vi. prevailing regional or global economic conditions; and
- vii. other significant regulatory or economic developments in or affecting India

Any slowdown in the Indian economy or in the growth of the sectors we participate in or future volatility in global commodity prices could adversely affect our borrowers and contractual counterparties. This in turn could adversely affect our business and financial performance and the price of our Equity Shares.

11. Global economic, political and social conditions may harm our ability to do business, increase our costs and negatively affect our stock price:

Global economic and political factors that are beyond our control, influence forecasts and directly affect performance. These factors include interest rates, rates of economic growth, fiscal and monetary policies of governments, inflation, deflation, foreign exchange fluctuations, consumer credit availability, fluctuations in commodities markets, consumer debt levels, unemployment trends and other matters that influence consumer confidence, spending and tourism. Increasing volatility in financial markets may cause these factors to change with a greater degree of frequency and magnitude, which may negatively affect our stock prices.

12. Natural calamities could have a negative impact on the Indian economy and cause our Company's business to suffer:

India has experienced natural calamities such as earthquakes, tsunami, floods etc. in recent years. The extent and severity of these natural disasters determine their impact on the Indian economy. Prolonged spells of abnormal rainfall or other natural calamities could have a negative impact on the Indian economy, which could adversely affect our business, prospects, financial condition and results of operations as well as the price of the Equity Shares.

C. RISK FACTORS RELATED TO ISSUE:

1. Our Company will not distribute this Letter of Offer, the Abridged Letter of Offer and Application Form to overseas Shareholders who have not provided an address in India for service of documents:

Our Company will dispatch this, the Abridged Letter of Offer, Rights Entitlement Letter and Application Form (the “Issuing Materials”) to such Eligible Shareholders as on Record Date to be determined by the Board of Directors whose email address are not available in record of the Depositories. The Issuing Materials shall not be distributed to addresses outside India on account of restrictions that apply to the circulation of such materials in various overseas jurisdictions.

2. The Rights Entitlement of Eligible Equity Shareholders holding Equity Shares in physical form (“Physical Shareholder”) may lapse in case they fail to furnish the details of their demat account to the Registrar:

Please note that in accordance with Regulation 77A of the SEBI ICDR Regulations read with the SEBI Rights Issue Circulars, the credit of Rights Entitlements and Allotment of Equity Shares shall be made in dematerialized form only. Accordingly, Eligible Equity Shareholders holding Equity Shares in physical form as on Record Date i.e. 11th February, 2026 and desirous of subscribing to Equity Shares in this Issue are advised to furnish the details of their demat account to the Registrar to the Issue or our Company in the manner provided on the website of the Registrar to the Issue at <https://www.bigshareonline.com> at least two working days prior to the Issue Closing Date i.e. 24th February, 2026, to enable the credit of their Rights Entitlements in their respective demat accounts at least one day before the Issue Closing Date i.e. 26th February, 2026. They may also communicate with the Registrar with the help of the helpline number at +91-022-62638200 and their email address at rightsissue@bigshareonline.com

Prior to the Issue Opening Date, the Rights Entitlements of those Eligible Equity Shareholders, among others, who hold Equity Shares in physical form, and whose demat account details are not available with our Company or the Registrar to the Issue, shall be credited in a demat suspense escrow account opened by our Company.

In accordance with the SEBI Rights Issue Circulars, the Eligible Equity Shareholders, who hold Equity Shares in physical form as on Record Date and who have not furnished the details of their demat account to the Registrar or our Company at least two working days prior to the Issue Closing Date, i.e. 24th February, 2026, desirous of subscribing to Rights Equity Shares may also apply in this Issue during the Issue Period. Such Eligible Equity Shareholders must check the procedure for Application by and credit of Rights Equity Shares in Section Terms of the Issue - “Procedure for Application by Eligible Equity Shareholders holding Equity Shares in physical form” and “Credit and Transfer of Rights Equity Shares in case of Shareholders holding Equity Shares in Physical Form and disposal of Rights Equity Shares for non-receipt of demat account details in a timely manner” on page nos. 189 and 208 respectively of this Letter of Offer.

3. Failure to exercise or sell the Rights Entitlements will cause the Rights Entitlements to lapse without compensation and result in a dilution of shareholding:

Rights Entitlements that are not exercised prior to the end of the Issue Closing Date will expire and become null and void, and Eligible Equity Shareholders will not receive any consideration for them. The proportionate ownership and voting interest in our Company of Eligible Equity Shareholders who fail (or are not able) to exercise their Rights Entitlements will be diluted. Even if you elect to sell your unexercised Rights Entitlements, the consideration you receive for them may not be sufficient to fully compensate you for the dilution of your percentage ownership of the equity share capital of our Company that may be caused as a result of the Issue. Renouncees may not be able to apply in case of failure in completion of renunciation through off-market transfer in such a manner that the Rights Entitlements are credited to the demat account of the Renouncees prior to the Issue Closing Date. Further, in case, the Rights Entitlements do not get credited in time, in case of On Market Renunciation, such Renouncee will not be able to apply in this Issue with respect to such Rights Entitlements. For details, please refer to “Terms of the Issue” on page no. 183 of this Letter of Offer.

4. You may be subject to Indian taxes arising out of capital gains on the sale of the Equity Shares:

Under current Indian tax laws, unless specifically exempted, capital gains arising from the sale of equity shares of an Indian Company are generally taxable in India. Accordingly, you may be subject to payment of long-term capital gains tax in India, in addition to payment of STT, on the sale of any Equity Shares held for more than 12 months. STT will be levied on and collected by a domestic stock exchange on which the Equity Shares are sold. Further, any gain realized on the sale of listed equity shares held for a period of 12 months or less will be subject to short-term capital gains tax in India. Capital gains arising from the sale of the Equity Shares may be partially or completely exempt from taxation in India in cases where such exemption is provided under a treaty between India and the country of which the seller is a resident. Generally, Indian tax treaties do not limit India's ability to impose tax on capital gains. As a result, residents of other countries may be liable for tax in India as well as in their own jurisdiction on gains made upon the sale of the Equity Shares.

5. You may not receive the Equity Shares that you subscribe into the Issue until the receipt of trading approval from the Stock Exchanges, which will subject you to market risk:

The Equity Shares that you subscribe into the Issue may not be credited to your demat account with the depository participants until the receipt of trading approval from the stock exchanges. You can start trading such Equity Shares only after receipt of the listing and trading approvals in respect thereof. There can be no assurance that the Equity Shares allocated to you will be credited to your demat account, or that trading in the Equity Shares will commence within the specified time period, subjecting you to market risk for such period.

6. There is no guarantee that our Equity Shares will be listed in a timely manner or at all, which may adversely affect the trading price of our Equity Shares:

In accordance with Indian law and practice, approvals for listing and trading of the Equity Shares will not be granted by the Stock Exchanges until after those Equity Shares have been issued and allotted. Approval will require all relevant documents authorizing the issuing of Equity Shares to be submitted. There could be a failure or delay in listing the Equity Shares on Stock Exchanges. Any failure or delay in obtaining the approval would restrict your ability to dispose of your Equity Shares. Further, historical trading prices, therefore, may not be indicative of the prices at which the Equity Shares will trade in the future which may adversely impact the ability of our shareholders to sell the Equity Shares or the price at which shareholders may be able to sell their Equity Shares at that point of time.

7. No market for the Rights Entitlements may develop and the price of the Rights Entitlements may be volatile:

No assurance can be given that an active trading market for the Rights Entitlements will develop on the Stock Exchanges during the Renunciation Period or that there will be sufficient liquidity in Rights Entitlements trading during this period. The trading price of the Rights will not only depend on supply and demand for the Rights Entitlements, which may be affected by factors unrelated to the trading in the Equity Shares, but also on the Equity Share price. Factors affecting the volatility of the Share price, as described herein, may magnify the volatility of the trading price of the Rights Entitlements, and a decline in the Equity Share price will have an adverse impact on the trading price of the Rights Entitlements. The trading price of the Rights Entitlements may be subject to greater price fluctuations than that of the Equity Shares.

8. Applicants to this Issue are not allowed to withdraw their Applications after the Issue Closing Date:

In terms of the SEBI ICDR Regulations, Applicants in this Issue are not allowed to withdraw their Applications after the Issue Closing Date. The Allotment in this Issue and the credit of such Equity Shares to the Applicant's demat account with its depository participant shall be completed within such period as prescribed under the applicable laws. There is no assurance, however, that material adverse changes in the international or national monetary, financial, political or economic conditions or other events in the nature of force majeure, material adverse changes in our business, results of operation or financial condition, or other events affecting the Applicant's decision to invest in our Equity Shares, would not arise between the Issue Closing Date and the date of Allotment in this Issue. Occurrence of any such events after the Issue Closing Date could also impact the market price of our Equity Shares. The Applicants shall not have the right to withdraw their applications in the event of any such occurrence. We cannot assure you that the market price of the Equity Shares will not decline below the Issue Price. To the extent the market price for the Equity Shares declines below the Issue Price after the Issue Closing Date, the shareholder will be required to purchase Rights Equity Shares at a price that will be higher than the actual market price for the Equity Shares at that time. Should that occur, the shareholder will suffer an immediate unrealized loss as a result. We may complete the Allotment even if such events may limit the Applicants' ability to sell our Equity Shares after this Issue or cause the trading price of our Equity Shares to decline.

9. The Rights Entitlements may not be credited into your demat account on time and you may not be able to trade such Rights Entitlements on the platform of the Stock Exchanges:

The concept of crediting Rights Entitlements into the demat accounts of the Eligible Equity Shareholders has recently been introduced by the SEBI. Accordingly, the process for such Rights Entitlements has been recently devised by capital market intermediaries. The Rights Entitlements that you may be entitled to may not be credited into your demat account in a timely manner. In relation to the SEBI Rights Issue circular, the Eligible Equity Shareholders can trade in such Rights Entitlements on the platform of the Stock Exchanges after the Issue Opening Date and such trading shall be closed at least three working days prior to the Issue Closing Date. We cannot assure that the Rights Entitlements allocated to you will be credited to your demat account in a timely manner or at all, which will impact your ability to trade in the Rights Entitlements.

10. We have evolved a mechanism for credit of the Rights Equity Shares in respect of the Eligible Equity Shareholders holding Equity Shares in physical form ("Physical Shareholder") who have not furnished the details of their demat account to the Registrar or our Company at least two working days prior to the Issue Closing Date. However, this mechanism may entail a risk that the sale of such shares by the Company on the open market subsequently may not be at a price acceptable to such shareholders. Further, the Rights Entitlement of Eligible Equity Shareholders holding Equity Shares in physical form ("Physical Shareholder") may lapse in case they fail to furnish the details of their demat account to the Registrar:

Please note that in accordance with Regulation 77A of the SEBI ICDR Regulations read with the SEBI Rights Issue Circulars, the credit of Rights Entitlements and Allotment of Equity Shares shall be made in dematerialized form only. Accordingly, Eligible Equity Shareholders holding Equity Shares in physical form as on Record Date i.e. 11th February, 2026 and desirous of subscribing to Equity Shares in this Issue are advised to furnish the details of their demat account to the Registrar to the Issue or our Company in the manner provided on the website of the Registrar to the Issue at <https://www.bigshareonline.com> at least two working days prior to the Issue Closing Date i.e. 24th February, 2026, to enable the credit of their Rights Entitlements in their respective demat accounts at least one day before the Issue Closing Date i.e. 26th February, 2026. They may also communicate with the Registrar with the help of the helpline number at +91-022-62638200 and their email address at rightsissue@bigshareonline.com

Prior to the Issue Opening Date, the Rights Entitlements of those Eligible Equity Shareholders, among others, who hold Equity Shares in physical form, and whose demat account details are not available with our Company or the Registrar to the Issue, shall be credited in a demat suspense escrow account opened by our Company.

In accordance with the SEBI Rights Issue Circulars, the Eligible Equity Shareholders, who hold Equity Shares in physical form as on Record Date and who have not furnished the details of their demat account to the Registrar or our Company at least two working days prior to the Issue Closing Date, i.e. 24th February, 2026, desirous of subscribing to Rights Equity Shares may also apply in this Issue during the Issue Period. Such Eligible Equity Shareholders must check the procedure for Application by and credit of Rights Equity Shares in Section Terms of the Issue - "Procedure for Application by Eligible Equity Shareholders holding Equity Shares in physical form" and "Credit and Transfer of Rights Equity Shares in case of Shareholders holding Equity Shares in Physical Form and disposal of Rights Equity Shares for non-receipt of demat account details in a timely manner" on page nos. 189 and 208 respectively of this Letter of Offer.

11. Investors will be subject to market risks until our Equity Shares credited to the investor's demat account are listed and permitted to trade:

Investors can start trading our Equity Shares allotted to them only after they have been credited to an investor's demat account, are listed and permitted to trade. Since our Equity Shares are currently traded on the Stock Exchange, investors will be subject to market risk from the date they pay for our Equity Shares to the date when trading approval is granted for the same. Further, there can be no assurance that our Equity Shares allocated to an investor will be credited to the investor's demat account or that trading in such Equity Shares will commence in a timely manner.

12. Rights of shareholders under Indian laws may be more limited than under the laws of other jurisdictions:

Indian legal principles related to corporate procedures, directors' fiduciary duties and liabilities, and shareholders' rights may differ from those that would apply to a Company in another jurisdiction. Shareholders' rights including in relation to class actions, under Indian law may not be as extensive as shareholders' rights under the laws of other countries or jurisdictions. Investors may have more difficulty in asserting their rights as shareholder in an Indian company than as shareholder of a corporation in another jurisdiction.

Notes:

- a. Quotation received from the vendor mentioned above is valid as on the date of this Letter of Offer. However, we have not entered into any definitive agreements with any of the vendors, and there can be no assurance that the same vendor will be engaged to eventually carry out the civil work or supply the plant, machinery, and equipment, or at the same costs. If there is any increase in the costs, the additional costs shall be paid by our Company from its internal accruals. See “Risk Factor– “Any delay in setting up the Proposed Facilities or any cost or time overruns in relation thereto, including the purchase and installation of plant and machinery, could have a material adverse effect on our business, financial condition, results of operations, and growth” on page no. 25 of this Letter of Offer.

- b. The plant, machinery, and equipment, including models and quantities to be purchased, as well as building and civil works, are based on the current estimates of our management. The management shall have the flexibility to revise such estimates (including changing the vendor or making any modification, addition, or deletion) at the time of actual placement of the order. In such a case, the management may utilize any surplus of proceeds arising at the time of actual placement of the order to meet the cost of such other machinery, equipment, or utilities, as required. Furthermore, if any surplus of proceeds remains after meeting the total cost of machinery, equipment, and utilities for the aforesaid purpose, the same will be used for our general corporate purposes, subject to a limit of 25% of the amount raised by our Company through this Issue.
- c. We are not acquiring any second-hand machinery.
- d. The quotations relied upon by us in arriving at the above cost are valid for a specific period and may lapse upon the expiry of the said period. Consequently, there could be a possible escalation in the cost of machinery proposed to be acquired by us at the actual time of purchase, resulting in an increase in the estimated cost. Further, the cost may escalate on account of freight expenses, installation charges, packaging and forwarding, exchange rate fluctuations, customs duty, etc. Any such cost escalation would be met from our internal accruals.

WORLD ECONOMIC OUTLOOKGlobal Economy: Tenuous Resilience amid Persistent Uncertainty

Global growth is projected at 3.0 percent for 2025 and 3.1 percent in 2026. The forecast for 2025 is 0.2 percentage point higher than that in the reference forecast of the April 2025 World Economic Outlook (WEO) and 0.1 percentage point higher for 2026. This reflects stronger-than-expected front-loading in anticipation of higher tariffs; lower average effective US tariff rates than announced in April; an improvement in financial conditions, including due to a weaker US dollar; and fiscal expansion in some major jurisdictions. Global headline inflation is expected to fall to 4.2 percent in 2025 and 3.6 percent in 2026, a path similar to the one projected in April. The overall picture hides notable cross-country differences, with forecasts predicting inflation will remain above target in the United States and be more subdued in other large economies.

Risks to the outlook are tilted to the downside, as they were in the April 2025 WEO. A rebound in effective tariff rates could lead to weaker growth. Elevated uncertainty could start weighing more heavily on activity, also as deadlines for additional tariffs expire without progress on substantial, permanent agreements. Geopolitical tensions could disrupt global supply chains and push commodity prices up. Larger fiscal deficits or increased risk aversion could raise long-term interest rates and tighten global financial conditions. Combined with fragmentation concerns, this could reignite volatility in financial markets. On the upside, global growth could be lifted if trade negotiations lead to a predictable framework and to a decline in tariffs. Policies need to bring confidence, predictability, and sustainability by calming tensions, preserving price and financial stability, restoring fiscal buffers, and implementing much-needed structural reforms.

So Far, So Resilient

Since the April 2025 WEO, uncertainty has remained elevated even as effective tariff rates have come down (Figure 1). Most notably, China and the United States on May 12 agreed to lower for 90 days (until August 12) tariffs that had resulted from post-April 2 escalation. The US pause on higher tariffs for most of its trading partners is now set to expire on August 1, pushing back the original deadline of July 9. Letters issued by the US administration in July to some trading partners threaten to impose tariffs even higher than those announced on April 2. Legal proceedings are currently underway in the United States concerning the use of the International Emergency Economic Powers Act as a legal basis for the imposition of tariffs. Although the passage of the One Big Beautiful Bill Act (OBBBA) in July brought clarity to the near-term path of US fiscal policy, it has added to uncertainty about longer-term fiscal sustainability.

Sources: World Trade Organization; World Uncertainty Index (WUI) database; and IMF staff calculations.
Note: US effective tariff rates include the tariffs announced April 2, until April 9, when they were paused, and additional tariffs on China announced April 8 and afterward, until May 10, when they were paused. These effective tariff rates are based on a pre-2025 United States-Mexico-Canada Agreement compliance rate. The WUI database is constructed based on methodology in Ahir, H., N. Bloom, D. Furceri. 2022. “The World Uncertainty Index.” NBER Working Paper 29763. The WUI is calculated by counting the frequency of the word “uncertain” in Economist Intelligence Unit country reports and normalizing by the total number of words. The index is then rescaled by multiplying by 1,000,000 and weighted using the 5-year moving average of nominal GDP in US dollar.

Global financial conditions have eased (Box 1). US equity markets have largely rebounded, erasing losses from the April 2 tariff fallout and reaching new heights. Other global equity markets have also rallied, swayed by tariff-related announcements and releases of macroeconomic data that turned out to be better than expected. Notably, the US dollar has depreciated further, defying expectations that tariffs and larger fiscal deficits would cause the currency to appreciate. Implied paths for policy rates have flattened for advanced economies, while continued dollar weakness has provided some monetary policy space for emerging market and developing economies. Yield curves have steepened in the context of fiscal concerns, although the steepening thus far is not unusual by historical standards despite very high debt and deficit levels in many countries.

With these forces in place, the global economy has continued to hold steady, but the composition of activity points to distortions from tariffs, rather than underlying robustness. Global growth in the first quarter of 2025 was 0.3 percentage point above that predicted in the April WEO. International trade and investment drove activity, while private consumption was more subdued across major jurisdictions. Real GDP decreased in the United States, at an annualized rate of 0.5 percent, marking the first quarterly contraction in three years. Consumer spending rose only by 0.5 percent, but this came after remarkably fast growth of 4.0 percent in the fourth quarter of 2024. Imports and business investment surged—especially in information processing equipment. Taken together, these patterns were consistent with aggressive front-loading by US firms and households ahead of expected higher prices induced by tariffs. In the euro area, GDP accelerated to 2.5 percent, driven by investment and net exports, even as private consumption lost steam. Ireland largely led the spurt, with growth shrinking to 1.4 percent when Ireland is excluded. China’s real GDP growth, at an annualized rate of 6.0 percent, exceeded expectations. This was mainly driven by exports, propped up by a depreciating renminbi closely tracking the dollar and with declining sales to the United States more than offset by strong sales to the rest of the world (Figure 2), and, to a smaller extent, by consumption, supported by fiscal measures. Japan’s economy contracted by an annualized 0.2 percent, as soft private consumption and weak net exports weighed on growth while strong private investment helped cushion the decline. Global trade grew robustly in the first quarter, but high-frequency indicators point to an unwinding of front-loading in the second quarter.

Global inflation is showing mixed signs. The global median of sequential headline inflation has increased a notch, but core inflation has eased considerably and is now below 2 percent. Several economies, including the euro area, have seen downside surprises. In the United States, inflation has ticked up, with tentative signs of pass-through from tariffs and a weaker dollar to consumer prices in some import-sensitive categories, and intermediate goods costs for producers have risen.

INDIA ECONOMIC OUTLOOK

Introduction:

India’s economic journey over the past few years has been marked by remarkable growth and a steady rise in its position on the global stage. After overtaking the United Kingdom (UK) to become the fifth largest economy in Q1 FY23, India has continued this upward trajectory to surpass Japan in June 2025 to become the fourth largest economy in the world. With a nominal Gross Domestic Product (GDP) of Rs. 3,31,03,000 crore (US$ 3.78 trillion), India’s growth reflects a combination of strong domestic demand and policy reforms positioning the country as a key destination for global capital.

Further, India is projected to reach a GDP of Rs. 4,26,45,000 crore (US$ 5 trillion) by 2027 and is on course to surpass Germany by 2028. Rising employment and increasing private consumption, supported by rising consumer sentiment, will support GDP growth in the coming months.

Market Overview:

India's economy shows robust expansion, with real GDP for FY25 estimated at Rs. 1,87,97,000 crore (US$ 2.20 trillion), from Rs. 1,76,51,000 crore (US$ 2.06 trillion) in FY24 with a growth rate of 6.5%. This growth is driven by rising employment and stronger private consumption, supported by improving consumer sentiment, which is expected to keep the momentum going in the near future.

Trade remains a critical pillar of India's growth story with exports reaching Rs. 37,31,000 crore (US$ 436.6 billion) in FY25, led by Engineering

Goods (26.88%), Petroleum Products (13.86%) and Electronic Goods (8.89%). These exports helped the economy stay resilient during the pandemic when other sectors slowed. Union Minister of Commerce and Industry, Mr. Piyush Goyal projects exports to reach Rs. 85,44,000 crore (US$ 1 trillion) by 2030.

India's ability to attract Foreign Direct Investment (FDI) has also strengthened. The country received record FDI inflows amounting to Rs. 4,21,929 crore (US$ 49.3 billion) in FY25 a 15% increase over FY24, supported by a stable policy environment, a large domestic market and steady economic growth positioning the country as a key destination for global capital. This capital inflow also complements government plans for increased investment in infrastructure and asset-building projects to further boost economic growth.

India's external economic position is improving. The current account deficit narrowed to Rs. 1,98,726 crore (US$ 23.30 billion), or 0.6% of GDP, in FY25 from Rs. 2,21,754 crore (US$ 26.00 billion), or 0.7% of GDP, in FY24. This improvement was due to higher net receipts from services and secondary income, according to the Reserve Bank of India (RBI).

Recent Developments:

India is primarily a domestic demand-driven economy, with consumption and investments contributing to 70% of the economic activity. With India's economy showing resilient growth, supported by strong domestic demand, policy reforms, and a healthy investment pipeline, several new projects and developments are underway across key sectors. This positive development across key sectors is evident from following key economic data points.

- According to the Department for Promotion of Industry and Internal Trade (DPIIT), India's cumulative FDI inflow stood at Rs. 91,45,988 crore (US$ 1.07 trillion) between April 2000-March 2025 with major share coming from Mauritius at Rs. 15,36,849 crore (US$ 180.19 billion) with a total share of 25%, followed by Singapore at 24% with Rs. 14,91,603 crore (US$ 174.88 billion), the United States (US) at 10% with Rs. 6,02,574 crore (US$ 70.65 billion), the Netherlands at 7% with Rs. 4,54,613 crore (US$ 53.3 billion), and Japan at 6% with Rs. 3,78,653 crore (US$ 44.39 billion).
- As of July 4, 2025, India's foreign exchange reserves stood at Rs. 59,68,048 crore (US$ 699.74 billion).
- In May 2025, private equity (PE) and venture capital (VC) investments reached Rs. 20,470 crore (US$ 2.4 billion) across 97 deals.
- Foreign Institutional Investors (FII) outflows in FY25 were close to Rs. 1,27,000 crore (US$ 14.89 billion), while Domestic Institutional Investors (DII) bought in Rs. 6,00,000 crore (US$ 70.34 billion) in the same period.
- The HSBC India Manufacturing Purchasing Managers' Index (PMI) rose to a 14-month high of 58.4 in June 2025 from 57.6 in May, indicating a strong improvement in manufacturing conditions. Robust domestic and international demand drove sharp increases in output and new orders, while employment saw a record rise as firms expanded their workforce to meet rising workloads. New export orders surged, marking the third-fastest growth since the survey began in 2005. Although input cost inflation eased, producer prices increased as companies passed on higher freight and labour costs to customers.
- India saw a robust 10.35% growth in passengers carried by domestic airlines at 431.98 lakh in FY25, from 391.46 lakh in FY24, according to the Directorate General of Civil Aviation (DGCA).
- India secured 39th position out of 133 economies in the Global Innovation Index 2024. India rose from 81st position in 2015 to 39th position in 2024. India ranks third position in the global number of scientific publications.
- In FY25, the Goods and Services Tax (GST) recorded its highest-ever gross collection at Rs. 22,08,000 crore (US$ 258 billion), registering a YoY growth of 9.4%. The average monthly collection stood at Rs. 1,84,000 crore (US$ 21.57 billion).

- In May 2025, the overall Index of Industrial Production (IIP) stood at 156.6 (base 2011–12 = 100), reflecting a YoY growth of 1.2%. The mining, manufacturing and electricity sectors stood at 136.6, 154.3 and 216, respectively.
- According to data released by the Ministry of Statistics & Programme Implementation (MoSPI), India's Consumer Price Index (CPI) - Combined inflation was 3.34% in March 2025 against 4.85% in March 2024.
- India's wheat procurement for FY26 has reached 29.7 million tonnes as of May 22, 2025, the highest in four years and up 13.5% YoY. Strong production of 115.43 million tonnes, favourable weather, and bonuses above the Minimum Support Price (MSP) in key states have driven this growth. The Food Corporation of India expects procurement to hit 32.5 million tonnes by season end, raising stocks to 44 million tonnes, well above the 18.4 million tonnes needed for the Public Distribution System.

Government Initiatives:

Over the years, the Indian government has introduced many initiatives to strengthen the nation's economy. The Indian government has been effective in developing policies and programmes that are not only beneficial for citizens to improve their financial stability but also for the overall growth of the economy. Over recent decades, India's rapid economic growth has led to a substantial increase in its demand for exports. Besides this, several of the government's flagship programmes, including Make in India, Start-up India, Digital India, the Smart City Mission, and the Atal Mission for Rejuvenation and Urban Transformation, is aimed at creating immense opportunities in India. In this regard, some of the initiatives taken by the government to improve the economic condition of the country are mentioned below:

- On July 5, 2025, the Union Cabinet approved the Rs. 1,00,000 crore (US$ 11.72 billion) Research, Development and Innovation (RDI) Scheme, launching long-term, low- or zero-interest funding via a special purpose fund under the ANRF to jump-start India's R&D ecosystem and support deep-tech and startup innovation.
- On March 27, 2025, the Reserve Bank of India proposed doubling the investment cap for individual foreign investors in listed firms from 5% to 10%, with a combined foreign individual limit increasing to 24%, to counter Foreign Portfolio Investment (FPI) outflows.
- According to a report by Wood Mackenzie in January 2025, India, the US, and West Asia are expected to collectively add 100 Gigawatts (GW) of solar capacity by 2025, while China is anticipated to continue its leadership in the solar industry.
- In July 2024, the Ministry of Finance held the Union Budget and announced that for 2024-25, the total receipts other than borrowings and the total expenditure are estimated at Rs. 32,07,000 crore (US$ 375 billion) and Rs. 48,21,000 crore (US$ 564 billion), respectively.
- In February 2024, the Finance Ministry announced the total expenditure in Interim 2024-25 estimated at Rs. 47,65,768 crore (US$ 571.64 billion) of which total capital expenditure is Rs. 11,11,111 crore (US$ 133.27 billion).
- On January 22, 2024, Prime Minister Mr. Narendra Modi announced the 'Pradhan Mantri Suryodaya Yojana'. Under this scheme, one crore households will receive rooftop solar installations.
- On September 17, 2023, Prime Minister Mr. Narendra Modi launched the Central Sector Scheme PM-VISHWAKARMA in New Delhi. The new scheme aims to provide recognition and comprehensive support to traditional artisans & craftsmen who work with their hands and basic tools. This initiative is designed to enhance the quality, scale, and reach of their products, as well as to integrate them with Micro, Small and Medium Enterprises (MSME) value chains.
- On August 6, 2023, Amrit Bharat Station Scheme was launched to transform and revitalize 1,309 railway stations across the nation. This scheme envisages development of stations on a continuous basis with a long-term vision.
- On June 28, 2023, the Ministry of Environment, Forests, and Climate Change introduced the 'Draft Carbon Credit Trading Scheme, 2023'.
- From April 1, 2023, Foreign Trade Policy 2023 was unveiled to create an enabling ecosystem to support the philosophy of 'Aatmanirbhar Bharat' and 'Local goes Global'.
- To enhance India's manufacturing capabilities by increasing investment and production in the sector, the government of India has introduced the Production Linked Incentive Scheme (PLI) for Pharmaceuticals.
- Prime Minister's Development Initiative for North-East Region (PM-DevINE) was announced in the Union Budget 2022-23 with a financial outlay of Rs. 1,500 crore (US$ 182.35 million).
- Prime Minister Mr Narendra Modi has inaugurated a new food security scheme for providing free food grains to Antyodaya Ann Yojna (AAY) & Primary Household (PHH) beneficiaries, called Pradhan Mantri Garib Kalyan Ann Yojana (PMGKAY) from January 1, 2023.

Road Ahead:

India's economy grew by 6.5% in FY25. With a 7.4% growth rate in Q4 FY25, with RBI projecting a growth rate of 6.5% in FY26 as well. India's comparatively strong position in the external sector reflects the country's positive outlook for economic growth and rising employment rates. In 2024, India rose to 15th place globally in FDI rankings and retained its position as South Asia's top recipient.

In H1 FY25, India's growth-focused approach was underscored by the government's capital expenditure outlay of Rs. 15,02,000 crore (US$ 176 billion), reinforcing its commitment to infrastructure-led development.

In the Union Budget of FY26, capital expenditure took lead by steeply increasing the capital expenditure outlay by 10% to Rs. 11,21,000 crore (US$ 131 billion) over Rs. 10,18,000 crore (US$ 119 billion) in FY25. Stronger revenue generation because of improved tax compliance, increased profitability of the company, and increasing economic activity also contributed to rising capital spending levels.

India's total goods and service exports surged by 76% over the past decade, touching Rs. 70,36,425 crore (US$ 825 billion) in FY25, driven by strong performance in engineering goods, electronics, and pharmaceuticals. With a reduction in port congestion, supply networks are being restored.

With a proactive set of administrative actions by the government, flexible monetary policy, and a softening of global commodity prices and supply-chain bottlenecks, inflationary pressures in India look to be on the decline overall.

INDIA'S CHEMICAL INDUSTRY LANDSCAPE: GROWTH, GLOBAL SIGNIFICANCE, AND THE RISING ROLE OF FLUOROchemicalS & SPECIALTY GASES

India has emerged as a major global hub in the chemicals value chain, with its chemical industry ranking as the sixth-largest chemical producer worldwide and third largest in Asia, contributing approximately 7% to India's Gross Domestic Product (GDP). The Indian chemicals market was valued at around US$ 250 billion in 2024 and is projected to grow to US$ 300 billion by 2028 and further to US$ 1 trillion by 2040, reflecting strong long-term prospects and strategic policy support to capture a 5-6% share of the global chemical value chain (India Brand Equity Foundation).

The industry includes over 80,000 commercial products, spanning bulk chemicals, specialty chemicals, polymers, agrochemicals, fertilizers, and petrochemicals. India is the fourth-largest producer of agrochemicals globally, manufacturing more than 50% of technical-grade pesticides, and is a key global supplier of dyes and dye intermediates, with a share of ~16-18% of global production (India Brand Equity Foundation).

The Fluorochemicals and Specialty Gases industry represents a critical and high-growth sub-vertical within both the global and Indian chemical value chains, catering to a wide range of end-use sectors including refrigeration and air-conditioning, pharmaceuticals, agrochemicals, automotive, electronics, semiconductors, renewable energy, healthcare, and advanced manufacturing.

Fluorochemicals are specialty chemicals derived from fluorine, valued for their thermal stability, chemical resistance, and high-performance characteristics. Specialty gases comprise high-purity gases such as nitrogen, oxygen, argon, helium, hydrogen, fluorine-based gases, and electronic gases, extensively used in semiconductor fabrication, flat panel displays, solar cells, and medical applications.

India has emerged as a strategically important hub for fluorochemicals and specialty gases due to its strong manufacturing base, skilled workforce, cost competitiveness, increasing domestic consumption, and growing integration into global supply chains. The industry is also benefiting from global supply realignments, environmental regulations phasing out legacy refrigerants, and rising demand for next-generation fluorochemicals and electronic gases, positioning India as a key player in this high-value segment.

MANUFACTURING AND PROCESSING OPERATIONS

A. PROCESSING/ BLENDING OF GASES AND FILLING INTO CANS/ CYLINDERS:

The production process for debulking gas from bulk incoming ISO tanks and filling into tonners or cylinders involves the following steps:

- Upon the arrival of ISO tanks containing gases at our facilities, a preliminary step involves extracting a sample of the gas before unloading. This sample is rigorously tested in our laboratory to ensure compliance with our quality standards.
- Subsequent to clearance by our Quality Control (QC) department, the ISO tank proceeds to the unloading phase into our bulk storage tanks.
- Following the unloading process, the QC department conducts another round of testing on the material now present in our bulk storage tanks to ascertain the quality of the unloaded gas.
- The blending process starts at this stage for mixing two or more gases in a specified proportion with required pressure to deliver the desired blended gas.
- Upon receiving QC approval for quality, the material is authorized for refilling into cylinders and ton tanks within our plant. This filling process adheres strictly to orders and predetermined schedules provided to the plant.
- Each individual cylinder undergoes a comprehensive pre-filling QC process, including the opening of its valve, internal cleaning, external scraping, and painting. Internal inspections ensure the absence of rust, water, or oil. Valves are re-fitted using a valve opening/closing hydraulic machine with preset digital torque to ensure correct tightness. Cylinders that are beyond their hydro test date undergo hydro testing for extended operational approval; failing cylinders are rejected and designated for destruction.
- Following the completion of the gas-filling process into cylinders as per batch specifications, samples are extracted from the filled cylinders for further testing in our laboratory.
- The post-filling process involves subjecting each cylinder to leak testing by immersion in a water bath and conducting a soap water test on valves and welded areas.
- Once a production batch is cleared by our QC department, the cylinder's progress to the painting, branding, labeling, and sealing phase.
- A filler's certificate, detailing the batch number and all pertinent cylinder information (empty weight, net weight, gross weight), is issued for the filled cylinders.
- The laboratory issues a Batch Certificate of Analysis (COA), providing a comprehensive analysis of the contents in the filled cylinders.

- The filled cylinders are then moved to the finished goods area, now in a marketable condition. Each cylinder is affixed with a QC pass sticker, proper branding, packaging, labeling, and sealing. Our Company guarantees the weight and quality of each cylinder, as per the COA, ensuring their safety in handling and use, with the gas itself guaranteed for quality.

Example of blending of refrigerant gases:

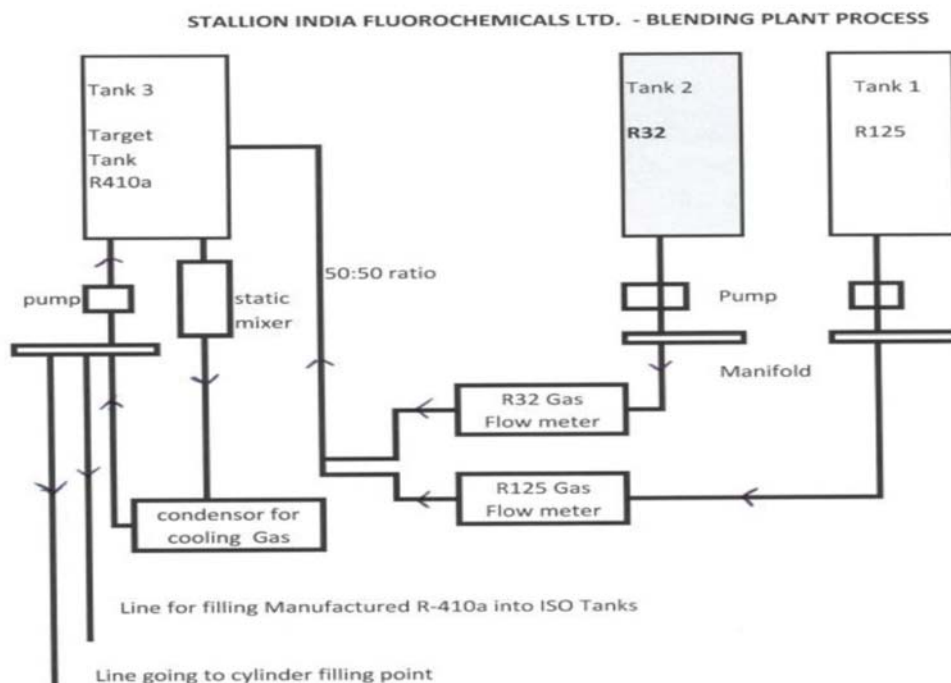

- Each refrigerant is a chemical with vastly differing properties.
- The gas is in liquid form under pressure. Each gas will have a different standing pressure.
- Each gas will have a differing specific gravity.
- Each gas will have a differing boiling point.
- Each gas will have a differing mixable characteristic and compatibility with other gases.
- Some mixtures such that one gas is in the liquid stage and other only in vapor stage, but they must be mixed in a certain ratio to ensure the final product is in gas form only, with a specific ratio of constituents.

B. PROCESS OF BLENDING/ MANUFACTURING A NEW GAS BLEND

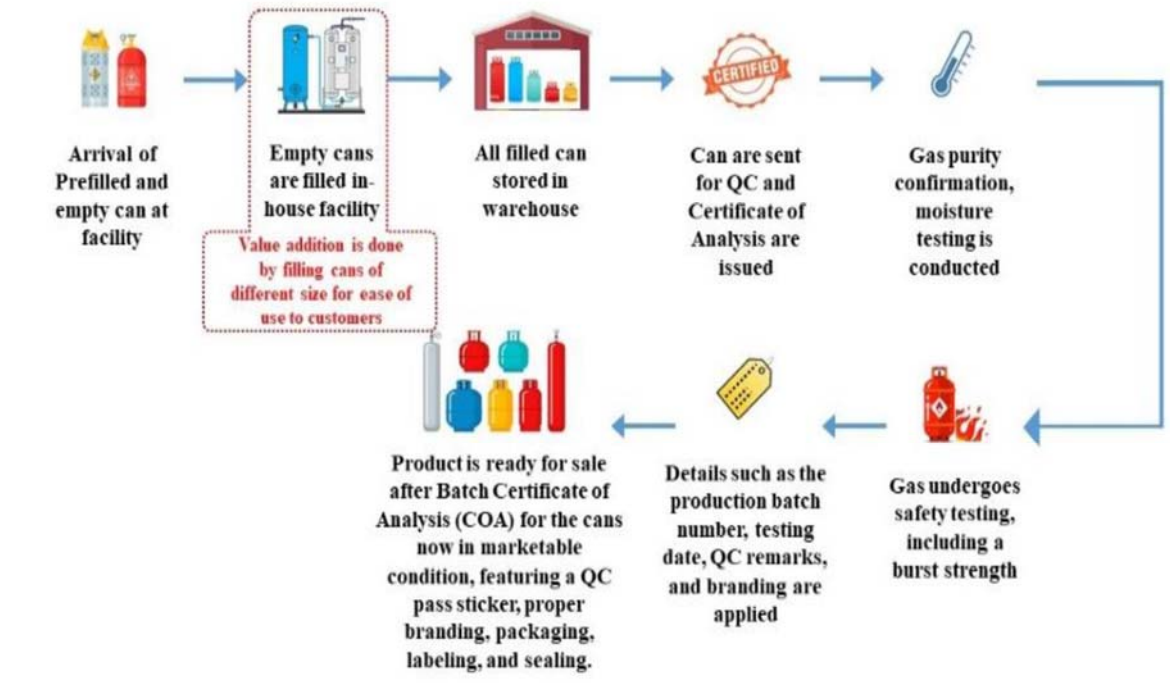

As an example, we take the Manufacture of R-410a (finished product) in the plant by using R-32 and R-125 as raw materials in our manufacture of R-410a for the blending process.

R-410a is a near-azeotropic blend (azeotropic blend means that the two gases blended will not separate again and become R32 and R125); hence, the blending process in this case is manufacturing, as we manufacture an entire new gas using R-32 and R-125 as a raw material.

For the manufacture of R-410a, the raw materials are R-125 and R-32, which are blended in a 50:50 ratio. Both these gases have differing pressure, density, and specific gravity, which means they cannot just be mixed. They have to be put in a calculated ratio using a volumetric method and at a fixed temperature, for which cooling is required, and is needed to be passed through a static mixer, which also requires cooling, as this process heats up the gas and causes a failure in the ratios (meaning the produced gas will not be R-410a if the blend is not in the correct ratio). The same process is followed for R-407C, which is a blend of R134a: R32:R125. The blending diagram below explains the process in a visual detail, which is easy to understand.

C. PRODUCTION PROCESS FOR MATERIAL IN PRE-FILLED CANS:

We, as a provider of a comprehensive range of service products, offer a diverse array of items, including high-pressure washers, accessories, portable vacuum pumps, and various pre-filled cans such as R290 (propane), R-600a, butane, hydrocarbon, spray paint, coil external foam cleaner, anti-rust coating for coils, zinc cold anodizing spray, etc. These products are assembled into kits or sold individually, meeting the diverse needs of our clientele. The production process for pre-filled cans to transform them into marketable condition follows the below mentioned approach:

- Upon the arrival of empty or pre-filled cans at our plant, they are stored in the Raw Material section. Empty cans are separated from filled cans, and if empty, they undergo in-house or third-party filling. Filled cans are brought in and stored alongside empty cans, categorized by lot and shipment.
- All filled and imported cans undergo a preliminary Quality Control (QC) visual check, including quality verification, weighing, and examination for external damages.
- Subsequently, the cans are sent to our in-house laboratory for gas purity testing to ensure compliance with our Company's standards. A Certificate of Analysis is provided, and testing records are retained for reference.
- Following gas purity confirmation, moisture testing is conducted to ensure that moisture levels fall within acceptable standards. This is critical, as high moisture levels can impact the performance of equipment using the gas.
- Upon successful completion of both tests, a Batch Certificate of Analysis is issued, detailing the production batch number and testing lot number.
- The certified gas undergoes safety testing, including a burst strength test on a random sample, to ensure the cans are free from defects and will not pose risks during use.
- Following the burst test and safety certification, a leak test is performed to guarantee the absence of any defective or leaking cans, ensuring complete safety and reliability for end customers.
- Once the production batch clears QC approval, it proceeds to labeling, where details such as the production batch number, testing date, QC remarks, and branding are applied. The product is then sold under our Company's brand, complete with safety instruction labels, and re-packaged in Company's branded cartons along with Material Safety Data Sheets (MSDS).

- After sealing the cartons, our QC department conducts a final quality check, including labeling, branding, weighment, and sealing, and affixes our Company's QC pass sticker to the cartons. Individual weighment is conducted to ensure accuracy.
- A filler's certificate is issued, containing batch details and carton information (empty weight, net weight, and gross weight). The laboratory issues a Batch Certificate of Analysis (COA) for the cans now in marketable condition, featuring a QC pass sticker, proper branding, packaging, labeling, and sealing. Each can is guaranteed for weight and quality as per our company's COA, ensuring safety and quality based on in-house checks and testing. Cans may be packed in cartons or included in complete kit offerings per sales department instructions.

This comprehensive process ensures that the raw material inputs are transformed into safe, tested, packaged, labeled, branded, and quality-certified marketable products, aligning with actual user conditions. Pre-filled cans are integral to our actual user/ production purposes, enabling the creation of branded, tested, and certified products for the service requirements of our OEM customers. We stand behind the quality, safety, and reliability of these products throughout their lifecycle.

OUR DEBULKING / BLENDING / PROCESSING & STORAGE PLANTS

Our operational footprint spans across four processing facilities, strategically located to optimize efficiency and accessibility. These facilities are situated in Khalapur (Maharashtra), Ghiloth (Rajasthan), Manesar (Haryana) and Panvel (Maharashtra).

Sr. No.	Location of Plant	Year of Commencement
1.	Khalapur, Maharashtra	2013
2.	Panvel, Maharashtra	1998
3.	Manesar, Haryana	2004
4.	Ghiloth, Rajasthan	2020

Each of these facilities is designed and equipped to store gases in a controlled environment, ensuring strict adherence to safety standards. The storage infrastructure plays a pivotal role in maintaining the integrity and quality of the gases we handle, with safety being prioritized at every stage of the blending process.

At the core of our operational excellence, we specialize in the debulking of refrigerants from tankers into our bulk storage tanks. Incoming and unloaded materials are thoroughly tested in our laboratory. Thereafter, both new and existing cylinders are filled with high-purity refrigerant gases, ensuring that no quality parameters—such as moisture levels or contamination—are altered during any stage of the process. Finally, the finished products in cylinders are tested and certified with individual Certificates of Analysis, covering all quality parameters. This integral aspect of our services ensures a seamless and reliable supply of gases across a diverse range of industries.

The filling process is conducted in strict compliance with all safety protocols. Our facilities are designed to ensure accurate filling with zero chances of contamination, thereby guaranteeing the integrity and performance of the gases at our customers' end. This commitment to precision and safety reflects our dedication to delivering high-quality products safely and reliably to meet the diverse needs of our clientele.

Our company is currently constructing two additional manufacturing facilities: one at Plot No. 2, APIIC, IP Mambattu Phase II, Survey No. 176/177, Mambattu Village, Tada, District Tirupati, Andhra Pradesh, for HFC/HFO blending and debulking; and another at Survey No. 12, House No. 1, Village Lohop, Taluka Khalapur, District Raigad, Maharashtra, for the production of Helium and Semiconductor Gases. These projects are already financed through the proceeds of the initial public offering (IPO).

Capacity Utilization

Further, the capacity utilization of our existing plant is influenced by several factors, including periodic fluctuations in the demand for refrigerant gases. The demand and sale of refrigerant gases is high during the summer season, particularly from February to May/ June, i.e., a 4-month period, leading to higher/ peak capacity utilization. A medium demand/ sales period for refrigerant gases is observed from September to November, i.e., a 3-month period, while the remaining 5-month period (i.e., December to January and June to August) experiences lower sales volumes.

Since during the high demand/ sales period of 4 months, the capacity utilization at the facilities reaches optimum levels, whereas during the medium to low demand/ sales period, i.e., roughly 8 months, the capacity utilization at the facilities tends to be at lower levels; therefore, the overall capacity utilization for the 12-month period averages out to be on the lower side.

OUR PRODUCTS:

A. Refrigerant Gases:

Refrigerant gases play a crucial role in the functionality of cooling and air conditioning systems, which have become essential components of our daily lives. These gases serve as integral elements in the heat transfer process, enabling the fundamental refrigeration cycle that underlies air conditioning, refrigeration, and various industrial processes.

i. Composition and Types:

Refrigerant gases exhibit a diverse composition, and the common types include the following:

Sr. No.	Types of Refrigerant Gases	Composition
1.	Chlorofluorocarbons (CFC)	High Ozone depletion potential (ODP) hence phased out.
2.	Hydrochlorofluorocarbons (HCFC)	High Ozone depletion potential hence phased out.
3.	Hydrofluorocarbons (HFC)	Zero ODP hence have replaced CFC's & HCFC's but later found to have high Global Warming Potential (GWP) hence now on the global phase out list.
4.	Hydrocarbons (HC)	No ODP, No GWP, but major flammability issues, will replace HFC's in some applications.
5.	Hydrofluoroolefins (HFO)	No ODP, extremely low GWP, Will replace the HFC's.

In favor of environmental sustainability, CFCs and HCFCs, which are unfavorable for the ozone layer, have been predominantly replaced by environmentally friendly alternatives like HFCs. Now, due to high Global Warming Potential (GWP) concerns, HFCs are also due to be phased out and replaced by Hydrocarbons (HC) and Hydrofluoroolefins (HFO).

Our Company currently deals in and is involved in the blending of Hydrocarbons (HC), Hydrofluorocarbons (HFC), and Hydrofluoroolefins (HFO).

ii. Applicability of Refrigerants:

The primary function of refrigerant gases within refrigeration or air conditioning systems is to absorb heat and provide cooling. Refrigerants are used in a direct expansion system to provide cooling by absorbing heat and then releasing it in a phase-change process (from a low-pressure gas to a high-pressure liquid) in the evaporator and condenser of the cooling system.

Refrigerant gases find applications across residential, commercial, and industrial sectors. Common uses encompass air conditioning systems, refrigerators, freezers, heat pumps, and automotive air conditioning. In industrial processes, they play a vital role, such as in liquefied natural gas (LNG) production and food storage.

iii. Environmental Impact and Considerations:

Due to the adverse environmental impact of certain refrigerants, there is a concerted effort to make transition to eco-friendly options.

In the early Nineties the depletion of the Ozone layer caused global concern and a global accord was signed known as "The Montreal Protocol on substances that deplete the Ozone Layer" in which the Chlorine atom in the CFC's and HCFC's refrigerants was identified as one of the cause, in phasing out of all ozone-depleting substances, these CFC's and HCFC's were phased out.

Currently with the "The Kigali Amendment to the Montreal Protocol: HFC Phase-down", now ratified by most of the countries, HFC's have to be phased out and have to be replaced with extremely low GWP alternatives such like Hydrocarbons (HC) and Hydrofluoroolefins (HFO).

Following is the list of some Refrigerant Gases:

2. This Statement, which is the responsibility of the Company's Management and approved by the Company's Board of Directors, has been prepared in accordance with the recognition and measurement principles laid down in the Indian Accounting Standard 34 "Interim Financial Reporting" ("Ind AS 34"), prescribed under Section 133 of the Companies Act, 2013 read with relevant rules issued thereunder and other accounting principles generally accepted in India and in compliance with Regulation 33 of the Listing Regulations. We conducted our review of the Statement in accordance with the Standard on Review Engagements (SRE) 2410 'Review of Interim Financial Information Performed by the Independent Auditor of the Entity', issued by the Institute of Chartered Accountants of India (ICAI). A review of interim financial information consists of making inquiries, primarily of the Company's personnel responsible for financial and accounting matters, and applying analytical and other review procedures. A review is substantially less in scope than an audit conducted in accordance with Standards on Auditing specified under section 143(10) of the Companies Act, 2013 and consequently does not enable us to obtain assurance that we would become aware of all significant matters that might be identified in an audit. Accordingly, we do not express an audit opinion.

4. Based on our review conducted and procedures performed as stated in paragraph 3 above, nothing has come to our attention that causes us to believe that the accompanying Statement, prepared in accordance with the recognition and measurement principles laid down in the aforesaid Indian Accounting Standard and other accounting principles generally accepted in India, has not disclosed the information required to be disclosed in terms of Regulation 33 of the SEBI (Listing Obligations and Disclosure Requirements) Regulations, 2015, as amended, including the manner in which it is to be disclosed, or that it contains any material misstatement.

INDEPENDENT AUDITOR'S REPORT

To The Members of Stallion India Fluorochemicals Limited

Report on the Audit of the Financial Statements

Opinion

We have audited the accompanying Financial Statements of Stallion India Fluorochemicals Limited ("the Company"), which comprise the Balance Sheet as at 31st March, 2025, the Statement of Profit and Loss (Including other comprehensive income), Statement of change in equity and the Statement of Cash Flows for the year ended on that date, and a summary of the significant accounting policies and other explanatory information (hereinafter referred to as "the Financial Statements").

In our opinion and to the best of our information and according to the explanations given to us, the aforesaid Financial Statements give the information required by the Companies Act, 2013 ("the Act") in the manner so required and give a true and fair view in conformity with the Indian Accounting Standards prescribed (IND AS) under section 133 of the Act and other accounting principles generally accepted in India, of the state of affairs of the Company as at 31st March, 2025, and its profit and other comprehensive income and its cash flows for the year ended on that date.

Basis for opinion

We conducted our audit of the Financial Statements in accordance with the Standards on Auditing specified under section 143(10) of the Act (SAs). Our responsibilities under those Standards are further described in the Auditor's Responsibilities for the Audit of the Financial Statements section of our report. We are independent of the Company in accordance with the Code of Ethics issued by the Institute of Chartered Accountants of India (ICAI) together with the independence requirements that are relevant to our audit of the Financial Statements under the provisions of the Act and the Rules made there under, and we have fulfilled our other ethical responsibilities in accordance with these requirements and the ICAI's Code of Ethics. We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our audit opinion on the Financial Statements.

Key audit matters

Key audit matters are those matters that, in our professional judgment, were of most significance in our audit of the Financial Statements of the current period. These matters were addressed in the context of our audit of the Financial Statements as a whole, and in forming our opinion thereon, and we do not provide a separate opinion on these matters. We have nothing to communicate in our report in this regard.

Information Other than the Financial Statements and Auditor's Report Thereon

The Company's Board of Directors is responsible for the preparation of the other information. The other information comprises the information included in the Management Discussion and Analysis, Board's Report including Annexures to Board's Report, Business Responsibility Report, Corporate Governance and Shareholder's Information, but does not include the Financial Statements and our auditor's report thereon.

Our opinion on the Financial Statements does not cover the other information and we do not express any form of assurance conclusion thereon.

In connection with our audit of the Financial Statements, our responsibility is to read the other information and, in doing so, consider whether the other information is materially inconsistent with the Financial Statements or our knowledge obtained during the course of our audit or otherwise appears to be materially misstated.

If, based on the work we have performed, we conclude that there is a material misstatement of this other information, we are required to report that fact. We have nothing to report in this regard.

Management's Responsibility for the Financial Statements

The Company's Board of Directors is responsible for the matters stated in section 134(5) of the Act with respect to the preparation of these Financial Statements that give a true and fair view of the financial position, financial performance and cash flows of the Company in accordance with the Ind AS and other accounting principles generally accepted in India. This responsibility also includes maintenance of adequate accounting records in accordance with the provisions of the Act for safeguarding the assets of the Company and for preventing and detecting frauds and other irregularities; selection and application of appropriate accounting policies; making judgments and estimates that are reasonable and prudent; and design, implementation and maintenance of adequate internal financial controls, that were operating effectively for ensuring the accuracy and completeness of the accounting records, relevant to the preparation and presentation of the Financial Statements that give a true and fair view and are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

In preparing the Financial Statements, management is responsible for assessing the Company's ability to continue as a going concern, disclosing, as applicable, matters related to going concern and using the going concern basis of accounting unless management either intends to liquidate the Company or to cease operations, or has no realistic alternative but to do so.

The Board of Directors are responsible for overseeing the Company's financial reporting process.

Auditor's Responsibilities for the Audit of the Financial Statements

Our objectives are to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the Financial Statements as a whole are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error, and to issue an auditor's report that includes our opinion. Reasonable assurance is a high level of assurance, but is not a guarantee that an audit conducted in accordance with SAs will always detect material misstatement when it exists. Misstatements can arise from fraud or error and are considered material if, individually or in the aggregate, they could reasonably be expected to influence the economic decisions of users taken on the basis of these Financial Statements.

As part of an audit in accordance with SAs, we exercise professional judgment and maintain professional scepticism throughout the audit. We also:

- Identify and assess the risks of material misstatement of the Financial Statements, whether due to fraud or error, design and perform audit procedures responsive to those risks, and obtain audit evidence that is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our opinion. The risk of not detecting a material misstatement resulting from fraud is higher than for one resulting from error, as fraud may involve collusion, forgery, intentional omissions, misrepresentations, or the override of internal control.
- Obtain an understanding of internal financial controls relevant to the audit in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances. Under section 143(3)(i) of the Act, we are also responsible for expressing our opinion on whether the Company has adequate internal financial controls system in place and the operating effectiveness of such controls.
- Evaluate the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of accounting estimates and related disclosures made by management.
- Conclude on the appropriateness of management's use of the going concern basis of accounting and, based on the audit evidence obtained, whether a material uncertainty exists related to events or conditions that may cast significant doubt on the Company's ability to continue as a going concern. If we conclude that a material uncertainty exists, we are required to draw attention in our auditor's report to the related disclosures in the Financial Statements or, if such disclosures are inadequate, to modify our opinion. Our conclusions are based on the audit evidence obtained up to the date of our auditor's report. However, future events or conditions may cause the Company to cease to continue as a going concern.

- Evaluate the overall presentation, structure and content of the Financial Statements, including the disclosures, and whether the Financial Statements represent the underlying transactions and events in a manner that achieves fair presentation.

We consider quantitative materiality and qualitative factors in (i) planning the scope of our audit work and in evaluating the results of our work; and (ii) to evaluate the effect of any identified misstatements in the Financial Statements.

We communicate with those charged with governance regarding, among other matters, the planned scope and timing of the audit and significant audit findings, including any significant deficiencies in internal control that we identify during our audit.

We also provide those charged with governance with a statement that we have complied with relevant ethical requirements regarding independence, and to communicate with them all relationships and other matters that may reasonably be thought to bear on our independence, and where applicable, related safeguards.

From the matters communicated with those charged with governance, we determine those matters that were of most significance in the audit of the Financial Statements of the current period and are therefore the key audit matters. We describe these matters in our auditor's report unless law or regulation precludes public disclosure about the matter or when, in extremely rare circumstances, we determine that a matter should not be communicated in our report because the adverse consequences of doing so would reasonably be expected to outweigh the public interest benefits of such communication.

Annexure “A” to the Independent Auditor’s Report

(Referred to in paragraph 1(f) under ‘Report on Other Legal and Regulatory Requirements’ section of our report to the Members of Stallion India Fluorochemicals Limited of even date)

Report on the Internal Financial Controls Over Financial Reporting under Clause (l) of Sub-section 3 of Section 143 of the Companies Act, 2013 (“the Act”)

We have audited the internal financial controls with reference to financial statements of Stallion India Fluorochemicals Limited (“the Company”) as of 31st March 2025 in conjunction with our audit of the financial statements of the Company as at and for the year ended on that date.

In our opinion, the Company has, in all material respects, adequate internal financial controls with reference to financial statements and such internal financial controls were operating effectively as at 31st March 2025, based on the internal financial controls with reference to financial statements criteria established by the Company considering the essential components of internal control stated in the Guidance Note on Audit of Internal Financial Controls Over Financial Reporting issued by the Institute of Chartered Accountants of India.

Management’s Responsibility for Internal Financial Controls

The Board of Directors of the Company is responsible for establishing and maintaining internal financial controls based on the internal control over financial reporting criteria established by the Company considering the essential components of internal control stated in the Guidance Note on Audit of Internal Financial Controls Over Financial Reporting issued by the Institute of Chartered Accountants of India. These responsibilities include the design, implementation and maintenance of adequate internal financial controls that were operating effectively for ensuring the orderly and efficient conduct of its business, including in adherence to respective company’s policies, the safeguarding of its assets, the prevention and detection of frauds and errors, the accuracy and completeness of the accounting records, and the timely preparation of reliable financial information, as required under the Companies Act, 2013.

Auditor’s Responsibility

Our responsibility is to express an opinion on the internal financial controls over financial reporting of the Company based on our audit. We conducted our audit in accordance with the Guidance Note on Audit of Internal Financial Controls Over Financial Reporting (the “Guidance Note”) issued by the Institute of Chartered Accountants of India and the Standards on Auditing prescribed under Section 143(10) of the Companies Act, 2013, to the extent applicable to an audit of internal financial controls. Those Standards and the Guidance Note require that we comply with ethical requirements and plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether adequate internal financial controls over financial reporting was established and maintained and if such controls operated effectively in all material respects.

Our audit involves performing procedures to obtain audit evidence about the adequacy of the internal financial controls system over financial reporting and their operating effectiveness. Our audit of internal financial controls over financial reporting included obtaining an understanding of internal financial controls over financial reporting, assessing the risk that a material weakness exists, and testing and evaluating the design and operating effectiveness of internal control based on the assessed risk.

The procedures selected depend on the auditor’s judgement, including the assessment of the risks of material misstatement of the Financial Statements, whether due to fraud or error.

We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained, is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our audit opinion on the internal financial controls system over financial reporting of the Company.

Meaning of Internal Financial Controls Over Financial Reporting

A company’s internal financial control over financial reporting is a process designed to provide reasonable assurance regarding the reliability of financial reporting and the preparation of Financial Statements for external purposes in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles. A company’s internal financial control over financial reporting includes those policies and procedures that (1) pertain to the maintenance of records that, in reasonable detail, accurately and fairly reflect the transactions and dispositions of the assets of the company; (2) provide reasonable assurance that transactions are recorded as necessary to permit preparation of Financial Statements in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles, and that receipts and expenditures of the company are being made only in accordance with authorisations of management and directors of the company; and (3) provide reasonable assurance regarding prevention or timely detection of unauthorised acquisition, use, or disposition of the company’s assets that could have a material effect on the Financial Statements.

Limitations of Internal Financial Controls Over Financial Reporting

Because of the inherent limitations of internal financial controls over financial reporting, including the possibility of collusion or improper management override of controls, material misstatements due to error or fraud may occur and not be detected.

Also, projections of any evaluation of the internal financial controls over financial reporting to future periods are subject to the risk that the internal financial control over financial reporting may become inadequate because of changes in conditions, or that the degree of compliance with the policies or procedures may deteriorate.

The Company applies the expected credit loss ("ECL") model for measurement and recognition of impairment loss on trade receivables. For this purpose, the Company follows a "simplified approach" for recognition of impairment loss allowance on the trade receivable balances. As a practical expedient, the Company uses a provision matrix to determine impairment loss allowance on portfolio of its trade receivables. The provision matrix is based on its historically observed default rates over the expected life of the trade receivables and is adjusted for forwardlooking estimates. Further, need for incremental provisions have been evaluated on a case to case basis considering forward-looking information based on the financial health of a customer if available, litigations/disputes etc.

28 Contingent Liability

Contingencies:

In the ordinary course of business, the Company faces claims and assertions by various parties. The Company assesses such claims and assertions and monitors the legal environment on an ongoing basis with the assistance of external legal counsel, wherever necessary. The Company records a liability for any claims where a potential loss is probable and capable of being estimated and discloses such matters in its financial statements if material. For potential losses that are considered possible, but not probable, the Company provides disclosure in the financial statements but does not record a liability in its accounts unless the loss becomes probable.

The following are the description of claims and assertions where a potential loss is possible, but not probable.

Particulars	As at March 31, 2025	As at March 31, 2024
Matters with Income Tax Authorities (refer note (i))	56.25	56.25
Claims not acknowledged as debt (refer note (ii))	-	1,043.25

Bills Discounting Facility (refer note (iv))
- Sanctioned	380.00	-
- Utilized	78.85	-

- i) Matters with Income Tax Authorities include demand from tax authorities. The Company has preferred appeal on these matters and the same are pending with various appellate authorities.
- ii) The Company and Zhejiang Sanmei Chemical Industry Co., Ltd ("Sanmei" / "Supplier"), a Chinese firm, have had multiple contracts in the past for supplying gases. In the fiscal year 2021, the Company entered into additional contracts with Sanmei, for the supply of various refrigerants, including R410a, R32, and R407C, to be filled and delivered in returnable ISO-Tanks.

However, there's was a dispute between the company and Sanmei. Therefore, legal representatives of Sanmei escalated the issue by sending a demand notice on December 02, 2021, under the Insolvency and Bankruptcy Code, 2016, demanding $12,51,290.00 (equivalent to INR 1,048.44 Lakhs revalued using exchange rate prevailing as at December 31, 2024) for the disputed amount allegedly owned by the Company.

In preparing the financial statements, management has re-evaluated contingent liability related Sanmei claim previously disclosed. In accordance with Ind AS 37 Provisions, Contingent Liabilities, and Contingent Assets, a provision has been recognized for disputed trade payables due to an ongoing dispute with a supplier regarding outstanding payments for goods purchased in prior years. This provision represents the estimated outflow of resources that may be required to settle the liability, which is probable and can be reliably estimated based on the best available information.

This provision, grouped under Provision on the Balance Sheet, is distinct from trade payables and is classified as Provisions for Disputed Trade Payables. A potential liability adjustment or reversal may be required based on future developments in the dispute.

Given the ongoing nature of the dispute, the settlement amount is subject to change based on future developments and reassessment of the facts. Management will continue to evaluate the provision periodically, making adjustments as new information becomes available. If circumstances lead to a resolution in favor of the Company - whether through mutual agreement, a binding court or regulatory order, or any other event confirming the liability is not payable - the provision may be revisited and reversed where appropriate, in accordance with applicable Indian Accounting Standards. Such adjustments will be disclosed in the financial statements for the relevant reporting period.

- iii) The Company has been sanctioned non-fund based Performance Bank Guarantee limit of INR 225 lakhs. The said facility is 100% secured against term deposit of Mr. Shazad Rustomji. Above outstanding bank guarantees are performance bank guarantees issued by Central Bank of India to customs against the import transactions carried out by the company.

32 Financial Instruments

This section gives an overview of the significance of financial instruments for the Company and provides additional information on balance sheet items that contain financial instruments.

The details of significant accounting policies, including the criteria for recognition, the basis of measurement and the basis on which income and expenses are recognised in respect of each class of financial asset, financial liability and equity instrument are disclosed in Note 1 Basis of Preparation, Significant Accounting Policies.

a) Category-wise classification of Financial instruments

The carrying value and fair values of financial instruments by class are as follows:

Particulars	As at March 31, 2025	As at March 31, 2024
FINANCIAL ASSETS
Financial assets measured at cost
Cash and bank balances	5,893.83	1,613.63
Bank balances other than above	1,607.13	93.39
Trade receivables	10,553.84	7,103.62
Other financial assets	6.48	3.98
	18,061.27	8,814.62
FINANCIAL LIABILITIES
Financial liabilities measured at cost
Borrowings	243.46	6,534.54
Trade payables	2,130.12	374.15
	2,373.59	6,908.69

b) Fair value measurements

The fair value of financial instruments as referred to in note above have been classified into three categories depending on the inputs used in the valuation technique. The hierarchy gives the highest priority to quoted prices in active markets for identical assets or liabilities (Level 1 measurements) and lowest priority to unobservable inputs (Level 3 measurements).

The categories used are as follows:

a) Level 1: Quoted prices for identical instruments in an active market -

This level of hierarchy includes financial assets that are measured by reference to quoted prices (unadjusted) in active markets for identical assets or liabilities. This category consists of investment in quoted equity shares.

b) Level 2: Directly or indirectly observable market inputs, other than Level 1 inputs -

This level of hierarchy includes financial assets and liabilities, measured using inputs other than the quoted prices included within level 1 that are observables for the asset or liability, either directly (i.e., as prices) or indirectly (i.e., derived from prices). This level of hierarchy includes Company's derivative contracts.

c) Level 3: Inputs which are not based on observable market data -

This level of hierarchy includes financial assets and liabilities measured using inputs that are not based on observable market data (unobservable inputs). Fair values are determined in whole or in part, using a valuation model based on assumptions that are neither supported by prices from observable current market transactions in the same instrument nor they are based on available market data.

For assets and liabilities which are measured at fair value as at Balance Sheet date, the classification of fair value calculations by category is summarized below:

Particulars	Fair value through profit or loss
	Level 1	Level 2	Level 3
As at March 31, 2025
Financial Assets	-	-	-
Financial Liabilities	-	-	-
As at March 31, 2024
Financial Assets	-	-	-
Financial Liabilities	-	-	-

i) The Company has assessed that cash and bank balances, trade receivables, trade payables, and other financial assets and liabilities approximate their carrying amounts largely due to the short-term maturities of these instruments.

ii) Management uses its best judgement in estimating the fair value of its financial instruments. However, there are inherent limitations in any estimation technique. Therefore, for substantially all financial instruments, the fair value estimates presented above are not necessarily indicative of the amounts that the Company could have realised or paid in sale transactions as of respective dates. As such, fair value of financial instruments subsequent to the reporting dates may be different from the amounts reported at each reporting date.

iii) There have been no transfers between Level 1, level 2 and Level 3 for the period ended March 31, 2025 and for the year ended March 31, 2024.

33 Financial Risk Management

The Company's principal financial liabilities comprise borrowings, trade and other payables. The main purpose of these financial liabilities is to finance and support Company's operations. The Company's principal financial assets include trade and other receivables and cash and cash equivalents that derive directly from its operations.

The Company is exposed to market risk, credit risk and liquidity risk. The Company's senior management oversees the management of these risks. The Company's financial risk activities are governed by appropriate policies and procedures and financial risks are identified, measured and managed in accordance with the Company's policies and risk objectives. The Board of Directors reviews and agrees policies for managing each of these risks. The risk management framework aims to:

- (i) create a stable business planning environment by reducing the impact of currency and interest rate fluctuations on the Company's business plan.
- (ii) achieve greater predictability to earnings by determining the financial value of the expected earnings in advance.

I Market risk:

Market risk is the risk of any loss in future earnings, in realisable fair values or in future cash flows that may result from a change in the price of a financial instrument. The value of a financial instrument may change as a result of changes in interest rates, foreign currency exchange rates, equity price fluctuations, liquidity and other market changes. Future specific market movements cannot be normally predicted with reasonable accuracy.

- a) Market risk - Foreign currency exchange rate risk: The Company enter into sale and purchase transactions denominated in foreign currencies; consequently, exposures to exchange rate fluctuations arise. Management monitors the movement in foreign currency and the Company's exposure in each of the foreign currency. Based on the analysis and study of movement in foreign currency, the Company takes remedial measures to hedge foreign currency risk through various measures like derivative instruments etc.

The carrying amounts of the Company's foreign currency denominated monetary assets and monetary liabilities at the end of the reporting year, not hedged by derivative instruments, are as follows:

Particulars	As at March 31, 2025	As at March 31, 2024
Monetary Assets
US Dollar in India	-	411.92
Monetary Liabilities
US Dollar in India	2,007.68	326.99

A 10% appreciation/depreciation of the foreign currencies with respect to functional currency of the Company would result in an decrease/ increase (net) in the Company's net profit before tax by approximately:

INR 24.95 lacs - March 31, 2025

INR 8.49 lacs - March 31, 2024

- b) Market risk - Interest rate risk: Interest rate risk is the risk that the fair value or future cashflow of a financial instrument will fluctuate because of change in market interest rate. The company does not have any borrowings, hence there is no exposure to interest rate risk.

II Credit risk:

Credit risk is the risk of financial loss to the Company if a customer or counter-party fails to meet its contractual obligations. Credit risk encompasses both the direct risk of default and the risk of deterioration of creditworthiness as well as concentration risks. Financial instruments that are subject to concentrations of credit risk, principally consist of Cash & bank balances, trade receivables, finance receivables and loans and advances. Company regularly reviews the credit limits of the customers and takes action to reduce the risk. Further diverse and large customer bases also reduces the risk. All trade receivables are reviewed and assessed for default on quarterly basis.

The credit risk on bank balances and derivative financial instruments is limited because the counterparties are banks with high credit ratings.

II Liquidity risk:

Liquidity risk refers to the risk that the Company cannot meet its financial obligations. The objective of liquidity risk management is to maintain sufficient liquidity and ensure that funds are available for use as per requirements. The Company has obtained fund and non-fund based working capital lines from various banks. The Company invests its surplus funds in bank fixed deposits, which carry no or low market risk. The Company's liquidity position remains strong at:

INR 2,283.28 lacs as at March 31, 2025

INR 1,707.02 lacs as at March 31, 2024

comprising of cash and cash equivalents and other balances with banks.

The following table shows the maturity analysis of the company's financial liabilities based on contractually agreed undiscounted cash flows along with its carrying value as at the Balance Sheet date.

MANAGEMENT DISCUSSION AND ANALYSIS REPORT

The global economic landscape in 2025 remains complex and uneven, shaped by a mix of robust performance in select economies and persistent challenges elsewhere. According to the IMF's January 2025 World Economic Outlook, global GDP growth is projected to remain steady at 3.3% in both 2025 and 2026, below the historical average of 3.7% (2000–2019). This stability masks considerable divergences between advanced and emerging markets.

Advanced Economies

Growth across advanced economies is forecast at 1.9% in 2025, with significant variation. The United States economy continues to outperform, supported by strong consumption and favorable financial conditions, with growth estimated at 2.7% — a 50-basis point upgrade from previous projections. By contrast, the Euro Area faces a more subdued recovery, with growth expected at 1.0%, reflecting manufacturing weakness and elevated policy and geopolitical uncertainty.

Emerging Markets and Developing Economies

Growth in emerging and developing economies is projected at 4.2% in 2025, broadly unchanged from 2024. India remains a standout performer, with a growth forecast of 6.5%, underpinned by robust domestic demand and structural reform momentum. China is expected to grow at 4.6%, as fiscal support partly offsets continued softness in the property sector and sluggish consumer confidence.

Inflation and Monetary Policy

Headline global inflation is projected to decline to 4.2% in 2025 and 3.5% in 2026, converging more quickly to central bank targets in advanced economies. While core goods price inflation has eased, services inflation remains elevated, particularly in the U.S. and Eurozone. Central banks are proceeding cautiously on monetary easing, balancing inflation control with the need to support economic recovery.

Trade and Financial Conditions

World trade volume growth has been revised downward to 3.2% for 2025, impacted by increased trade policy uncertainty and geopolitical tensions. Meanwhile, global financial conditions remain broadly accommodative, though tightening is evident in emerging markets due to currency pressures, rising risk premiums, and a stronger U.S. dollar. Markets are particularly sensitive to developments related to tariffs and fiscal policy outlooks in key economies.

Risks to the Outlook

The IMF underscores that medium-term risks remain tilted to the downside. Potential triggers include:

- Escalation in protectionist policies, such as new tariffs.
- Volatile commodity prices stemming from geopolitical conflicts, notably in the Middle East and Eastern Europe.
- Renewed inflationary pressures that could prompt central banks to delay rate cuts or tighten further.
- Rising fiscal vulnerabilities, particularly in economies with high public debt.

That said, upside potential exists. Cooperative trade agreements, policy clarity, and structural reforms aimed at enhancing productivity and investment could lift confidence and support medium-term global growth.

While the Industrial Policy, 1991, of the Government of India, prescribes the limits and the conditions subject to which foreign investment can be made in different sectors of the Indian economy, FEMA regulates the precise manner in which such investment may be made. The Union Cabinet, as provided in the Cabinet Press Release dated May 24, 2017, has given its approval for phasing out the FIPB. Under the Industrial Policy, 1991, unless specifically restricted, foreign investment is freely permitted in all sectors of the Indian economy upto any extent and without any prior approvals, but the foreign investor is required to follow certain prescribed procedures for making such investment. Accordingly, the process for foreign direct investment (“FDI”) and approval from the Government of India will now be handled by the concerned ministries or departments, in consultation with the Department for Promotion of Industry and Internal Trade, Ministry of Commerce and Industry, Government of India (formerly known as the Department of Industrial Policy and Promotion) (“DPIIT”), Ministry of Finance, Department of Economic Affairs, FIPB section, through a memorandum dated June 5, 2017, has notified the specific ministries handling relevant sectors.

The Government has, from time to time, made policy pronouncements on FDI through press notes and press releases. The DPIIT issued the Consolidated FDI Policy Circular of 2020 (“FDI Circular 2020”), which, with effect from October 15, 2020, consolidated and superseded all previous press notes, press releases and clarifications on FDI issued by the DPIIT that were in force and effect as on October 15, 2020. The Government proposes to update the consolidated circular on FDI policy once every year and therefore, FDI Circular 2020 will be valid until the DPIIT issues an updated circular.

The Government of India has from time to time made policy pronouncements on FDI through press notes and press releases which are notified by RBI as amendments to FEMA. In case of any conflict, the relevant notification under Foreign Exchange Management (Non-Debt Instruments) Rules, 2019 will prevail. The payment of inward remittance and reporting requirements are stipulated under the Foreign Exchange Management (Mode of Payment and Reporting of Non-Debt Instruments) Regulations, 2019 issued by RBI. The FDI Circular 2020, issued by the DPIIT, consolidates the policy framework in place as on October 15, 2020, and supersedes all previous press notes, press releases and clarifications on FDI issued by the DPIIT that were in force and effect as on October 15, 2020.

The transfer of shares between an Indian resident and a non-resident does not require the prior approval of RBI, provided that (i) the activities of the investee company falls under the automatic route as provided in the FDI Policy and FEMA and transfer does not attract the provisions of the Takeover Regulations; (ii) the non-resident shareholding is within the sectorial limits under the FDI Policy; and (iii) the pricing is in accordance with the guidelines prescribed by SEBI and RBI.

No investment under the FDI route (i.e. any investment which would result in the investor holding 10.00% or more of the fully diluted paid-up equity share capital of the Company or any FDI investment for which an approval from the government was taken in the past) will be allowed in the Issue unless such application is accompanied with necessary approval or covered under a pre-existing approval from the government. It will be the sole responsibility of the investors to ensure that the necessary approval or the pre-existing approval from the government is valid in order to make any investment in the Issue.
