FORWARD-LOOKING STATEMENTS

This Red Herring Prospectus contains certain “forward-looking statements”. These forward-looking statements generally can be identified by words or phrases such as “aim”, “anticipate”, “believe”, “can”, “could”, “continue”, “expect”, “estimate”, “goal”, “intend”, “may”, “likely”, “objective”, “plan”, “purpose”, “project”, “should”, “will”, “will continue”, “will achieve”, “shall”, “seek to”, “will pursue” or other words or phrases of similar import. Similarly, statements that describe our strategies, objectives, plans or goals are also forward- looking statements. However, these are not the exclusive means of identifying forward looking statements. All forward-looking statements are subject to risks, uncertainties and assumptions about us that could cause actual results to differ materially from those contemplated by the relevant forward-looking statement. For the reasons described below, we cannot assure investors that the expectations reflected in these forward-looking statements will prove to be correct. Therefore, investors are cautioned not to place undue reliance on such forward-looking statements and not to regard such statements as a guarantee of future performance.

These forward-looking statements, whether made by us or a third-party, are based on our current plans, estimates, presumptions and expectations and actual results may differ materially from those suggested by the forward-looking statements due to risks or uncertainties associated with the expectations with respect to, but not limited to, regulatory changes pertaining to the industry in which our Company and Subsidiaries have businesses and our ability to respond to them, our ability to successfully implement our strategy, our growth and expansion, technological changes, our exposure to market risks, general economic and political conditions in India and globally which have an impact on our business activities or investments, the monetary and fiscal policies of India, inflation, deflation, unanticipated turbulence in interest rates, foreign exchange rates, equity prices or other rates or prices, the performance of the financial markets in India and globally, changes in laws, regulations and taxes and changes in competition in our industry and incidents of any natural calamities and/or acts of violence. Important factors that could cause actual results to differ materially from our expectations include, but are not limited to, the following:

1. Our business is significantly dependent on the premix formulations segment, and any adverse impact on this segment may materially affect our financials.
2. A large portion of our revenue comes from a limited number of customers and losing them or reduced orders may harm our business.
3. Sale of expired, defective, or non-compliant products or quality failures could result in liability, reputational harm, and financial loss.
4. Lack of long-term contracts with raw material suppliers exposes us to price volatility and sourcing risks affecting profitability.
5. Dependence on R&D for new product launches makes us vulnerable to delays or failures in commercialization.
6. Counterfeit and look-alike products in the domestic market may damage our brand and hurt financial performance.
7. Concentration of revenue in select Indian states exposes us to regional risks that may impact operations and cash flows.
8. Historical capacity utilization is not indicative of future performance, and our facilities are significantly underutilized.
9. Our operations are subject to compliance with evolving health, safety, and environmental regulations.
10. Production disruptions due to reconstruction of a portion of our Nashik Facility pursuant to past regulatory actions or any other reason, shutdowns, or machinery breakdowns at our facilities could materially impact our operations and growth.

For a discussion of factors that could cause our actual results to differ from our expectations, see “Risk Factors”, “Our Business”, “Industry Overview” and “Management’s Discussion and Analysis of Financial Condition and Results of Operations” on pages 30, 270, 205 and 488 respectively. By their nature, certain market risk disclosures are only estimates and could be materially different from what actually occurs in the future. As a result, actual gains or losses could materially differ from those that have been estimated and are not a guarantee of future performance.

Forward-looking statements reflect our views as of the date of this Red Herring Prospectus and are not a guarantee of future performance. There can be no assurance to investors that the expectations reflected in these forward-looking statements will prove to be correct. Given these uncertainties, investors are cautioned not to place undue reliance on such forward-looking statements and not to regard such statements to be a guarantee of our future performance. These statements are based on our management's beliefs and assumptions, which in turn are based on the currently available information. Although we believe the assumptions upon which these forward-looking statements are based are reasonable, any of these assumptions could prove to be inaccurate, and the forward-looking statements based on these assumptions could be incorrect. None of our Company, Directors, the Selling Shareholders, and the BRLMs or their respective affiliates have any obligation to update or otherwise revise any statements reflecting circumstances arising after the date hereof or to reflect the occurrence of underlying events, even if the underlying assumptions do not come to fruition.

In accordance with regulatory requirements, our Company will ensure that investors in India are informed of material developments from the date of filing of the Red Herring Prospectus until the date of Allotment. Each of the Selling Shareholders shall, severally and not jointly, ensure that the Company is informed of material developments in relation to the statements and undertakings specifically undertaken or confirmed by them in relation to themselves and their respective portion of the Offered Shares in the Red Herring Prospectus until the date of Allotment.

Additional risks and uncertainties not currently known to us or that we currently believe to be immaterial may also have an adverse effect on our business, results of operations, cash flows and financial condition. If any of the following risks or other risks that are not currently known or are now deemed immaterial actually occur, our business, results of operations, cash flows and financial condition could be adversely affected, the trading price of the Equity Shares could decline, and investors may lose all or part of their investment. The financial and other related implications of risks concerned, wherever quantifiable, have been disclosed in the risk factors described below. However, there are certain risk factors where such implications are not quantifiable, and hence any quantification of the underlying risks has not been disclosed in such risk factors.

In making an investment decision, prospective investors must rely on their own examination of our Company and the terms of the Offer, including the merits and risks involved. Prospective investors should consult their tax, financial and legal advisors about the particular consequences they may encounter from investing in the Equity Shares.

This Red Herring Prospectus contains forward-looking statements that involve risks and uncertainties. Our actual results could differ materially from those anticipated in such forward-looking statements as a result of certain factors, including the considerations described below and elsewhere in this Red Herring Prospectus. For details, see “Forward-Looking Statements” on page 28.

INTERNAL RISK FACTORS

- 1. We are significantly dependent on the premix formulation segment for a substantial portion of our revenues. During the nine month period ended December 31, 2025, Fiscal 2025, Fiscal 2024, and Fiscal 2023, revenue from the premix formulations segment amounted to ₹ 1,377.26 million, ₹ 1,546.95 million, ₹ 1,333.13 million, and ₹ 1,527.99 million, respectively, contributing 51.47%, 47.61%, 44.78%, and 54.86% of our revenue from operations for the respective Fiscals. Any adverse development affecting this segment may have a material adverse effect on our business, financial condition, and results of operations.*

We derive revenue from operation from three business segments: (i) branded wellness nutrition products/clinical nutrition products (B2C Segment); (ii) premix formulations (B2B2C segment); and (iii) Therapeutic Nutrition - Ready-to-Use Foods (RUFs) and Micronutrient Powders (MNPs) (ESG segment). Among these, the premix formulation segment has historically contributed a dominant share of our revenues.

The following table sets forth the bifurcation of our revenue from operations by business segments for the nine month period ended December 31, 2025 and last three Fiscals, along with the percentage contribution of each segment to our total revenue:

(₹ in million except for percentage)

Note: Other Revenue include MEIS, Duty Drawback incentives, RoDTEP and Testing Charges.

For details relating to our business segments, see "Our Business – Overview" on page 270.

Our revenue from premix formulations during the reporting period demonstrates a consistent and substantial reliance on a single vertical. Under our premix formulation vertical, we serve broad base of our clients under the B2B2C segment (Business-to-Business-to-Consumer - a model where a company sells products or services to another business, which then sells/distributes them to the end consumer). Our client under the segment includes global beverage companies, dairy cooperatives, fast-moving consumer goods (FMCG) brands, nutrition and wellness product manufacturers and international development organizations. While our premix formulations cater to a wide range of applications, from dairy and beverages, snacks to health supplements, any disruption in this segment could significantly impact our performance. A few of the factors which may disrupt this vertical is set out as below;

- Regulatory changes affecting food fortification standards: The premix business is closely aligned with national and international food safety and public health regulations. Any revisions, tightening, or inconsistencies in food fortification norms, permissible limits, labelling laws, or nutrient composition requirements (either in India or globally) could require us to reformulate products, incur higher compliance costs, or lose existing contracts. This is especially relevant given our reliance on export markets and intergovernmental tenders which often carry their own regulatory frameworks.

- Volatility in prices of key inputs such as vitamins and minerals: Our premix formulations depend on the timely and cost-effective procurement of specialty raw materials, including vitamins, minerals, amino acids, and stabilizers. Many of these ingredients are imported and subject to global price fluctuations due to commodity cycles, currency volatility, supplier concentration, or trade policies. Any unexpected increase in input costs or supply-side shocks may adversely affect our margins, especially in contracts where pricing is fixed or difficult to renegotiate.
- Reduced adoption of fortified products: The demand for fortified foods is influenced by consumer awareness, public policy initiatives, and endorsements from health bodies. A decline in public or institutional interest in fortification programs, or negative media coverage regarding fortified products, could reduce demand for our offerings. This is particularly relevant in markets where fortified foods are seen as discretionary rather than essential/ mandatory.
- Loss of key customers: Our premix segment serves several institutional and multinational FMCG clients. While we have long-standing relationships, we typically operate in a supply-based environment. Non-renewal, early termination, or procurement restructuring by one or more of our key clients could have a material adverse impact on our revenue and business continuity.
- Intensifying competition from local and global premix suppliers: The premix market is evolving with the entry of new players, technological advancements, and consolidation among incumbents. Larger multinational players often possess scale advantages, integrated global supply chains, and stronger R&D capabilities. Any loss of competitive pricing, inability to match formulation innovation, or failure to differentiate our services may impact our market share.
- Supply chain disruptions or export limitations due to geopolitical issues: Our raw material sourcing and client distribution spans multiple geographies. Disruptions in global logistics, trade restrictions, currency volatility, international sanctions, or geopolitical conflicts could delay shipments, increase freight costs, or prevent us from fulfilling export obligations. This could lead to revenue loss, penalties under contracts, or damage to our customer relationships and reputation. For instance, ongoing geopolitical tensions in West Asia, including the Iran conflict, may impact global energy supply routes such as the Strait of Hormuz, potentially resulting in higher energy and transportation costs and adversely affecting the Indian consumer industry as whole.

Furthermore, given that a substantial portion of our manufacturing infrastructure, equipment layout, procurement planning, and supply chain capabilities are tailored to serve the premix formulation segment, any significant downturn in demand from this vertical could result in underutilization of production capacity and lower absorption of fixed costs.

While we have not experienced any material disruption in our premix formulations segment during the past three Fiscals and nine month period ended December 31, 2025, our continued reliance on this vertical poses potential risks to our long-term business stability. We undertake manufacturing of premix formulations at our Nashik Facility and Chennai Facility. Any disruption, whether temporary or prolonged, at either of these facilities could adversely impact our production schedules, product availability, revenue and customer relationships. For instance, our Nashik Facility is currently required to undergo structural alterations in its existing building, which may temporarily affect our production capacity. Such disruptions could delay order fulfilment, increase costs, and impair our ability to meet customer expectations. For further details, see “Risk Factor – 13 - Any disruption in production at, or shutdown of, our manufacturing facilities, or breakdown of machinery could materially and adversely affect our business operations, financial condition, and growth prospects.” on page 51.

We are also actively pursuing growth in our branded nutrition products (B2C segment) and therapeutic nutrition offerings (ESG segment) through brand expansion, product innovation, and market diversification. However, there can be no assurance that such initiatives will achieve the intended scale or pace to sufficiently offset any adverse developments or decline in revenues from the premix segment.

2. We are dependent on a limited number of customers for a significant portion of our revenue. During the nine month period ended December 31, 2025, Fiscal 2025, Fiscal 2024, and Fiscal 2023, revenue from our top 10 customers aggregated to ₹ 1,118.97 million, ₹ 1,490.49 million, ₹ 1,453.69 million, and ₹ 1,271.29 million, constituting approximately 41.82%, 45.87%, 48.83%, and 45.65% of our revenue from operations, respectively. Loss of one or more such customers or a reduction in their order volumes may adversely affect our business, financial condition, and results of operations.

Our revenues are concentrated among a limited set of institutional customers, including multinational FMCG companies, public sector agencies and global organizations and other development bodies. Set forth below is our revenue from top 1, top 3, top 5 and top 10 customers during the nine month period ended December 31, 2025, Fiscals 2025, 2024 and 2023:

*Names of the customers have not been included in the above table as this information is commercially sensitive to our business and we have not received consents from such customers.

Our significant customer concentration exposes us to the risk of revenue volatility should any of these customers reduce their business with us or terminate their contracts.

Our business with institutional customers is typically built over years through customized formulation development, quality assurance, track records, and regulatory alignment. However, all of these customers are not contractually bound to continue procuring from us, and may choose to reduce their order volumes, delay procurement, renegotiate pricing, or engage with competitors, including backward integrating their nutrition solutions.

A reduction in demand or termination of engagements by any key customer may result from; (i) changes in their procurement strategy; (ii) cost pressures; (iii) increased pricing pressure or sourcing from lower-cost competitors; (iv) disruptions in supply chain or logistics affecting delivery timelines; (v) failure to meet evolving product specifications or quality expectations (vi) entry of new competitors with better pricing or innovation; (vii) unforeseen regulatory compliance challenges affecting either party; or (viii) market contraction, economic downturns, or geopolitical instability in key markets.

Additionally, onboarding new institutional customers involves lengthy technical and regulatory diligence, including sampling and trial production. There is no assurance that we will be able to onboard such customers at the same scale or profitability margins within a short time frame.

A material decline in revenue from one or more of our top customers may significantly impact our cash flows, working capital, and overall financial condition. Further, a large portion of our top institutional customers are located in international markets, thereby exposing us to additional risks such as foreign exchange fluctuations, tariff or non-tariff barriers, changes in trade policies, and shifting global demand dynamics.

While we have not experienced the loss of any key customer in the nine month period ended December 31, 2025 and last three Fiscals and continue to diversify our customer base through new product development and geographic expansion, there is no assurance that these initiatives will be sufficient to mitigate our reliance on a concentrated customer portfolio.

3. Reconstruction of a portion of our Nashik Facility pursuant to past regulatory actions may lead to temporary production disruptions, operational inefficiencies, and potential revenue impact

Our Nashik facility operates across two adjoining land parcels: (i) Plot No. 92, Post Unandanagar, Village Lakhmapur, Dindori, Nashik, Maharashtra, used for manufacturing dry and liquid premix formulations, branded nutrition products, RUTF, MNPs and warehousing; and (ii) Plot No. 447, Post Unandanagar, Village Lakhmapur, Dindori, Nashik, Maharashtra, used for R&D and additional storage.

Over the past years, we have received certain notices from the Sub-Divisional Magistrate, Dindori (“SDM”), and Town & Planning authorities under Sections 63(4) and 84-C of the Maharashtra Tenancy and Agricultural Lands Act, 1948 and Sections 52, 53 and 143 of the Maharashtra Regional and Town Planning Act, 1966, alleging unauthorised industrial construction and commercial use of agricultural land at Plot No. 92

A summary of the notices received, and the Company’s responses is provided below:

As on date, the then submitted revised plant layout has been approved by the Town & Planning Department, all regularisation fees have been paid, and the Non-Agricultural (NA) Order for Plot No. 92 has been issued to us on 25 September 2025. However, completion of the reconstruction process may temporarily impact our production capacity unless alternative arrangements are implemented. Based on internal assessments, we believe that we may face following potential impact, if we do not adopt adequate mitigation measures.

1. Temporary unavailability of production facility for Dry Powder Premix (8.10 MT/day), Liquid Premix – (0.75 MT/day) produced at Nashik Facility
2. Estimated disruption period (period required to resume production): 9-12 months
3. Estimated capacity utilisation reduction (exact percentage dependent on reconstruction timeline)
4. Potential revenue impact depending on duration of stoppage and ability to shift volumes to alternate facilities
5. Risk of customer delays or non-fulfilment during reconstruction period

To manage operational disruption detailed above, we have proposed the following mitigation measures:

1. Dry Powder Premix: Reallocate Production Line 2 exclusively for premix manufacturing to retain 8.10 MT/day capacity.
2. Liquid Premix: Relocate equipment to a dedicated area to replicate the existing 0.75 MT/day capacity.
3. Branded Nutrition Products: Install a new Production Line 3 to compensate for the diversion of Line 2.
4. RUF Products: Temporarily shift RUF production to the Thoothukudi Facility until a new dedicated RUF plant is operational.

Although these measures are expected to provide operational flexibility, the transition may not be seamless and may involve:

1. calibration and process stabilisation downtime - newly repurposed or relocated equipment may require calibration runs and process balancing before achieving steady-state output, which may temporarily reduce throughput.
2. testing and revalidation requirements - any shift in equipment or layout may require quality testing, validation batches, and approval by internal QA teams and institutional clients, which may delay the resumption of full-scale operations.
3. temporary re-allocation of manpower – Our employees may need to be reassigned between lines or facilities, which could affect efficiency until they adapt to new workflows, roles, or operating protocols.
4. scheduling and logistical adjustments - Changing production lines or shifting manufacturing to another facility may require rescheduling customer orders, altering dispatch cycles, and reorganising inter-facility coordination.
5. constraints in fully replicating existing throughput - Even with mitigation measures, the alternate production setup may not fully match the performance, optimisation levels, or output efficiency of the existing infrastructure.

We may not always be able to quantify, eliminate, or fully mitigate these operational challenges. Any delay in reconstruction, shortfall in capacity transfer, or further regulatory intervention could materially and adversely affect our operations, financial performance, and customer fulfilment commitments.

4. Sale of expired, defective, or non-compliant products, or failure to meet applicable quality standards, could expose us to significant liability, damage our reputation, and adversely affect our business, results of operations, and financial condition.

We manufacture and distribute a wide ranging portfolio of nutrition products that address a broad spectrum of dietary and health needs, including fortification of staple foods, clinical and therapeutic nutrition, and interventions aimed at the alleviation of malnutrition. These products are offered across our three verticals i.e. branded nutrition (B2C), customized premix formulations (B2B2C), and therapeutic nutrition products (ESG segment) and are supplied both in India and to international markets.

Our business requires us to comply with a complex array of regulatory frameworks and quality standards related to food safety, labelling, shelf life, and ingredient composition, across diverse jurisdictions. As per CARE Report, the clinical and therapeutic nutrition segment operates under strict domestic and international regulations, including those from FSSAI, WHO, and country-specific drug and food authorities. Compliance with evolving labelling, safety, and quality norms, especially for micronutrient premixes, therapeutic foods, and disease-specific nutrition products, is resource-intensive and can delay time-to-market. To meet these requirements, we have instituted stringent quality assurance systems and food safety protocols that cover the entire product lifecycle, from raw material procurement to manufacturing, packaging, storage, and distribution.

Our facilities are certified by local and international agencies, including FSSC 22000 (Food Safety System Certification), Good Manufacturing Practice (GMP), ISO 9001:2015, and Halal Certification, among others. Additionally, we operate R&D Facility with in-house analytical and microbiological labs and have implemented structured handling and traceability systems. However, despite these measures, we cannot assure that expired, defective, tampered, or non-compliant products will never enter the supply chain. For details, see “Our Business – Quality Standards and Assurance” on page 325.

The CARE Report also highlights that the Indian wellness industry faces regulatory ambiguities due to overlapping jurisdictions of bodies like FSSAI, the Ministry of AYUSH, and CDSCO. This creates confusion among manufacturers and challenges in ensuring product quality and compliance. Any such instance, whether due to (i) product deterioration during storage or transit; (ii) failure in internal quality checks; (iii) human error in labelling, coding or packaging; (iv) tampering or counterfeiting; (v) mishandling by third-party distributors; (vi) supplier-side quality inconsistencies; or (vii) contamination could result in severe consequences such as product recalls, regulatory penalties, termination of supply agreements (especially with government and development agencies), and reputational damage.

For instance, (i) in July 2023, a few batches of Ready-to-Use Foods (RUFs) manufactured at our Thoothukudi Facility and supplied under long term arrangements with United Nation Agencies were found to be contaminated with Salmonella (a pathogenic bacteria). This led to suspension of supplies from the said facility and destruction of the affected batches, scrutiny of the said facility and process. The contamination, traced to externally sourced peanut paste, prompted corrective and preventive measures including process modifications, installation of heat-treatment equipment, and reinforcement of quality protocols. As a result, operations at the Thoothukudi Facility were suspended for six to seven months during Fiscal 2024, adversely impacting our production schedule, capacity utilisation, and customer delivery timelines. The total confirmed loss to the Company was ₹6,56,96,863, with the following breakdown:

- a. ₹5,51,91,169 for destruction of finished goods and raw materials (Batch Costing)
- b. ₹10,50,000 as disposal charges for contaminated inventory.
- c. ₹41,14,738 for freight and clearing charges (related to removal, transportation, and clearance of affected products).
- d. ₹53,40,956 for testing charges incurred during corrective actions.

Further, beyond the calculated ₹6,56,96,863 direct losses, further costs included:

- a. ₹1,51,48,225 stemming from ongoing employee cost and fixed-cost absorption due to under-utilization of capacity and shutdown from August to December 2023, with no production or sales in this period.
- b. ₹1,55,00,000 invested as capital expenditure in corrective actions, including heat-treatment installation, third-party audits, and reinforcement of food safety systems.

Following a successful audit, the said United Nation agencies renewed its arrangement with us; however, this incident underscores our exposure to quality-related risks in institutional supply chains. While the continuation of business with United Nation Agencies reflects confidence in our operational standards and corrective actions, this incident underscores the role of consistent quality assurance and compliance in sustaining long-term institutional partnerships;

(ii) Further in Fiscal 2026, an incident occurred at the Company’s Chennai facility involving an incorrect selenium dosage in the micronutrient powder (MNP) formulation. Three production batches were released with selenium levels exceeding the specified limit, which could have posed a potential health risk. Upon identification, the Company initiated the process for destruction of the affected batches and instructed the relevant customers to carry out such destruction. Such destruction of affected batches, resulted in a financial loss of ₹4,23,04,470 the breakup of which is detailed as below:

- Destruction cost: ₹1,69,30,990 (sum of all destruction entries)
- Clearing charges: ₹1,98,14,188 (combining clearing values).
- Transportation, warehousing, testing & scrap cost: ₹55,59,293

Pursuant to the said incident, the Company also implemented a series of preventive measures, including system-level correction of the formulation, introduction of mandatory double-verification protocols across R&D, QA and QC functions, updates to standard operating procedures and targeted training for relevant personnel on micronutrient handling and deviation management.

As of the date of this report, we have also obtained insurance coverage for contamination and product liability risks. However, any such incident could result in significant consequences, including product recalls, regulatory investigations or penalties, cancellation of supply agreements (particularly in public health or ESG programs), damage to brand equity, and loss of customer confidence. The risk is particularly pronounced in international markets where we operate under stringent import regulations and multi-agency oversight.

We have not, in the nine-month period ended December 31, 2025 and last three Fiscals, faced any regulatory penalty or punitive action for the sale of expired or defective products. However, as we expand our international footprint and scale of operations, our exposure to such compliance and product liability risks will increase.

Given our focus on wellness, clinical, and therapeutic nutrition, where efficacy and safety are paramount, any compromise in product quality, consistency, or compliance could materially and adversely affect our revenue, cash flows, operational continuity, and long-term growth prospects.

5. We do not have long-term contracts with our raw material suppliers, and volatility in raw material prices or adverse sourcing conditions may adversely impact our operations, profitability, and financial performance.

Our manufacturing operations across all three business verticals i.e. branded nutrition (B2C), premix formulations (B2B2C), and therapeutic nutrition (ESG) are critically dependent on the uninterrupted and timely availability of various raw materials, including but not limited to vitamins, minerals, whey protein, spray-dried corn fat, groundnut base powder, protein concentrate, skimmed milk powder, soya protein isolate and palm oil.

As per CARE Report, many ingredients used in clinical and functional foods, such as vitamins, whey protein, emulsifiers, and specialised amino acids, are either imported or dependent on global supply chains. Fluctuations in prices due to geopolitical factors, currency volatility, or disruptions (e.g., pandemic-related closures, freight delays) pose margin pressure and operational risks. Our supply of raw materials is subject to certain risk, the details of which are set out below;

- Absence of long-term supply contracts may disrupt operations

These raw materials are entirely sourced from third-party suppliers, both domestic and international. During the nine-month period ended December 31, 2025, Fiscals 2025, 2024, and 2023, we procured raw materials from approximately 177, 177, 158, and 164 vendors, respectively, including 15, 15, 14, and 14 overseas vendors. We do not have any long-term, fixed-volume, or price-protected agreements with our suppliers. Our procurement process relies on short-term or spot orders based on forecasted demand and internal inventory planning.

This procurement model, while operationally flexible, exposes us to several risks, including; (i) discontinuation or withdrawal of supplies by key vendors; (ii) delays in shipments, particularly imports, due to logistics or regulatory issues; (iii) quality or compliance deviations rendering raw materials unsuitable; (iv) price fluctuations due to absence of price certainty.

In the event of such disruption, alternate sourcing may be delayed due to supplier evaluation, testing, and compliance procedures. This may delay our production cycles, impact delivery schedules, and weaken client relationships.

- Exposure to Price Volatility

Raw material prices are subject to volatility driven by (i) global commodity cycles, (ii) foreign exchange fluctuations, (iii) seasonal and agricultural yield variations, (iv) extreme weather conditions, (v) policy changes, trade sanctions, and geopolitical instability, and (vi) pandemic-induced or force majeure disruptions.

The table below indicates our raw material purchase as a percentage of revenue:

Particulars	Nine month period ended December 31, 2025	Fiscal 2025	Fiscal 2024	Fiscal 2023
Expenses towards purchase of raw materials	1,624.58	1,548.34	1,382.66	1,868.53
Revenue from Operation	2,675.87	3,249.29	2,977.31	2,785.01
% of revenue from operation	60.71	47.65	46.44	67.09

- Concentration of Supplier Base

Despite our multi-supplier approach, purchases are concentrated. For example, our top 10 suppliers accounted for 53.15%, 46.19%, 48.02%, and 51.54% of total raw material purchases in nine month period ended December 31, 2025, Fiscals 2025, 2024, and 2023, respectively. This concentration heightens risk in the event of supply disruptions or adverse terms imposed by key vendors.

We also rely on a concentrated supplier base for procurement. The following table highlights our supplier concentration:

(₹ in million except otherwise specified)

Particulars	Nine month period ended December 31, 2025		Fiscal 2025		Fiscal 2024		Fiscal 2023

- Dependence on overseas sourcing

A considerable portion of raw materials is imported, exposing us to risks relating to global supply chain disruptions, currency volatility, import restrictions, and geopolitical developments. The table below indicates our domestic and overseas raw material purchases as a percentage of revenue:

Total	386.18	100.00	240.02	100.00	509.15	100.00	448.60	100.00

Our imports are concentrated in a few countries, particularly China, Malaysia, and Singapore. For the nine-month period ended December 31, 2025 and in Fiscal 2025, these three countries together accounted for nearly 76.02% and 92% respectively, of our foreign procurement. While Singapore's share has fluctuated across reporting periods, China has consistently represented a substantial portion of our imports. Such dependence on a limited number of geographies heightens our exposure to risks such as supply chain disruptions, trade restrictions, foreign exchange volatility, and geopolitical developments, which may adversely affect our raw material availability, cost structure, and production schedules.

Although we follow a multi-supplier model, and closely monitor market trends, such measures may not fully insulate us from unexpected cost hikes or supply disruptions. While we have not faced any material adverse impact on our production or fulfilment capabilities due to raw material unavailability in the nine month period ended December 31, 2025 and past three Fiscals, there can be no assurance that such risks will not materialize in the future.

If we are unable to procure critical raw materials in a timely and cost-efficient manner, or pass on cost escalations to customers, our gross margins, production schedules, customer commitments, and overall financial performance may be adversely affected.

6. Our efforts to introduce new products are dependent on the success of our research and development initiatives. Our inability to successfully develop and commercialise new products in a timely manner could adversely impact our business, growth, and financial condition.

As per CARE Report, products such as ready-to-use therapeutic foods, diabetic-specific nutrition powders, or renal-care formulations require extensive R&D. In the nutrition and wellness industry, innovation plays a critical role in maintaining competitive advantage and addressing evolving consumer and clinical needs. Our ability to sustain revenue growth and penetrate new markets depends on the development, testing, and successful commercialisation of differentiated and high-efficacy products across our verticals.

To support this, we have established dedicated in-house research and development facilities (R&D facilities) at our manufacturing units located in Nashik, Maharashtra and Chennai, Tamil Nadu. These in-house R&D facilities focus on new formulation development, clinical testing, taste and stability trials, and scaling up pilot batches.

During the nine month period ended December 31, 2025 and last three Fiscals, we developed eleven (11) new branded nutrition products across categories such as clinical nutrition, sports nutrition, and wellness nutrition. Out of these, nine (9) products have been developed and launched (sold), while two (2) products i.e. Nuevo Pedia Gold and Pentasure Reno, are developed and presently under the process of commercialization/launch. As on the date of this Red Herring Prospectus, the Company continues to focus on innovation through its in-house R&D division for further product development in the clinical and wellness nutrition segments. For details, see “Our Business – Product and Development” on page 323.

The success of our product development strategy is inherently dependent on multiple factors, including the timely identification of market trends, the successful formulation of products and completion of requisite trials, continued compliance with domestic and international regulatory standards, and the seamless scale-up of innovations from laboratory prototypes to full-scale commercial batches. As per CARE Report, many products in the wellness space lack sufficient clinical trials or research-backed efficacy claims. This undermines consumer trust, especially among the educated and urban segments, and limits market credibility. While we have not experienced any material delays, failed launches, or adverse commercial outcomes due to unsuccessful product development during the nine month period ended December 31, 2025 and last three Fiscals, there is no assurance that all future R&D initiatives will result in commercially viable products.

Product development timelines are also subject to numerous uncertainties such as ingredient availability, stability concerns, clinical validation requirements, and evolving regulatory landscapes. Furthermore, competitors may launch similar or improved products before us, limiting our market opportunity or eroding price advantage.

Investments in new products may also result in higher fixed costs, such as marketing, packaging innovation, and compliance certifications, without guaranteed revenue realization. If we are unable to convert our pipeline into viable commercial offerings, or if consumer response to our recently launched product is weak, our business performance could be adversely impacted.

Our ability to keep pace with global product trends, invest in advanced formulation technologies and respond swiftly to customer feedback will continue to be critical to our growth strategy. Any failure in this regard may lead to revenue stagnation, erosion of market share, and a weakening of our innovation-led brand positioning.

7. The presence of counterfeit and look-alike products, particularly in the domestic market, may harm our brand reputation, erode customer trust, and adversely impact our business and financial performance.

We are exposed to the risk of counterfeiting and brand imitation, especially in the Indian market, where variations in regulatory enforcement and consumer awareness create vulnerabilities. Certain unscrupulous entities may manufacture and distribute counterfeit or look-alike products that closely resemble our offerings in brand name, packaging, labelling, or overall presentation. These spurious products may be often passed off as genuine to deceive consumers and unlawfully benefit from the goodwill and market recognition that our products have built over time. Such imitation may extend across our branded nutrition products as well as institutional formulations, and in some cases, counterfeiters may even attempt to reverse-engineer or misappropriate our proprietary formulations, recipes, or ingredient blends. If such proprietary information is compromised, it could lead to unauthorised replication of our products, undermining our innovation, differentiation, and R&D investments.

The availability and circulation of counterfeit products can lead to multiple adverse outcomes such as loss of market share due to cannibalisation of genuine demand, reputational damage if counterfeit products are of inferior quality or unsafe, reduced customer confidence, particularly in price-sensitive and semi-urban markets and potential liability from consumer complaints or product-related harm. These risks are compounded in export markets where product integrity and compliance are critical for institutional orders and government-backed nutrition programs.

Although, we have instituted internal vigilance protocols, adopted authentication measures in our packaging, and regularly initiate legal action under applicable intellectual property laws, such measures may not fully prevent unauthorised use or brand dilution. Enforcement of intellectual property rights in India remains complex, time-consuming, and often inconsistent across jurisdictions, posing practical challenges to timely legal remedies. As on the date of this Red Herring Prospectus, we have 53 registered trademarks (including device and word marks) under Classes 1, 5, 16, 30, 32, 35, and 45 of the Trademarks Act, 1999. Further, we have secured 11 international trademark registrations under the World Intellectual Property Organization (WIPO), covering jurisdictions including Brazil, Chile, Colombia, Costa Rica, Peru and Malaysia. We have also entered into a trademark license agreement with Ped-Med Limited, Canada, for the use of the ‘Sprinkles’ brand in India, pertaining to a microencapsulated iron and Vitamin A supplement in the form of micronutrient powders (MNPs). For details, see “Our Business – Intellectual Property” on page 332 and “Government and Other Approvals- Intellectual Property” on page 549.

Despite these measures, identifying and prosecuting counterfeiters remains difficult, as they often operate through informal or untraceable supply chains. Litigation and enforcement can be costly and resource-intensive, potentially diverting management attention from core operations. While we have not experienced any material financial loss, reputational harm, or regulatory action due to counterfeiting during the nine month period ended December 31, 2025 and last three Fiscals, there can be no assurance that such events will not occur in the future. As our market presence expands and brand visibility increases, the risk of imitation is likely to grow. Any failure to effectively detect, prevent, or address such counterfeit activity could materially and adversely affect our business operations, customer trust, brand reputation, and overall financial condition.

8. Majority of our revenue from operations are generated from key states of India, including Maharashtra, Karnataka, Tamil Nadu and Gujarat which exposes our operations to potential geographical concentration risks arising from local and regional factors which may adversely affect our operations and in turn our business, results of operations and cash flows.

In Fiscal 2025, our revenues from operations in India were primarily derived from Maharashtra, Karnataka, Tamil Nadu, and Gujarat, which together accounted for approximately 57.51% of our domestic sales. The reliance on a few states has been a consistent trend across recent Fiscals, underscoring the geographical concentration of our business operations.

The following is the statewise revenue from operations for the nine month period ended December 31, 2025, Fiscals 2025, 2024 and 2023:

A substantial portion of our distribution network, customer relationships, and supply chain infrastructure is concentrated in these states. This makes our business particularly sensitive to region specific developments. Any disruption in these markets, whether due to changes in state level government regulations, amendments in food safety or public health policies, or shifts in tax structures, could have a disproportionate effect on our revenues. Additionally, competitive intensity in these states may affect pricing and margins more significantly than in less material markets.

Our concentration in certain geographies also heightens our exposure to localised risks such as adverse weather patterns, droughts, floods, or natural disasters that may impact agricultural output and raw material availability, thereby affecting demand for our products. Public health concerns, including outbreaks of communicable diseases, or law-and-order issues may further disrupt distribution networks, supply chains, and consumer demand in these states. Although we have not experienced any negative revenue from operations during the nine month period ended December 31, 2025 and last three Fiscals, there can be no assurance that we will not face such adverse trends in the future. Any decline or negative revenue from operations could materially and adversely affect our business, results of operations, financial condition and cash flows.

Moreover, our sales in these markets are dependent on established institutional contracts and distributor relationships. Any loss of a significant institutional client, disruption in distributor operations, or change in procurement policies in these states may adversely impact our revenues. While we have undertaken efforts to expand into other regions, including Eastern and North-Eastern India, the contribution of these markets remains relatively modest and does not presently offset the dependence on our key states.

Although we continue to focus on widening our geographic footprint through distributor expansion and institutional engagements in new states, there can be no assurance that such diversification will sufficiently reduce our reliance on Maharashtra, Karnataka, Tamil Nadu, and Gujarat. A material decline in revenues from any of these states could adversely affect our business, financial condition, results of operations, and cash flows.

9. Exposure to cross-border operational, regulatory, and macroeconomic risks across multiple jurisdictions may materially and adversely affect our business, cash flows, results of operations, and future prospects.

Our business is inherently international in nature. A significant portion of our revenue is derived from exports, and we operate across multiple jurisdictions with diverse regulatory, political, and economic frameworks. During the nine month period ended December 31, 2025 and past three Fiscals, our products were exported to over 75 countries, including key markets such as South Africa, Malaysia, Ethiopia, France, French Polynesia, Ghana, Indonesia, Kenya, Madagascar, Mozambique, Papua New Guinea, Nigeria, Philippines, Qatar, UAE, Mauritius, Brazil, Bangladesh and Rwanda.

We also maintain overseas operations, including a manufacturing facility in Uzbekistan, and commercial presence through offices in South Africa and Hong Kong, which oversee market development and operations.

Set out below is the breakdown of revenue from exports and domestic sales during the nine month period ended December 31, 2025, Fiscal 2025, 2024, and 2023:

(₹ in million, except percentages)

Our reliance on global markets and supply chains exposes us to a broad range of international risks, including but not limited to:

- Import-Export regulation and trade compliance: Changes in customs regulations, tariffs, export/import licensing, or non-tariff trade barriers in India or recipient countries could delay shipments, increase landed costs, or restrict access to certain markets.
- Foreign exchange fluctuation: Given that both import of raw materials and export of finished goods are often denominated in foreign currencies, volatility in the exchange rate can significantly affect our margins, cost structures, and financial results.
- Global supply chain disruptions: Our sourcing of raw materials and packaging materials from international suppliers subjects us to risk of logistical delays, port congestion, freight cost escalation, or regulatory bottlenecks, all of which may disrupt production schedules or increase input costs. For instance, ongoing geopolitical tensions in West Asia, including the Iran conflict, have disrupted global energy supply routes such as the Strait of Hormuz, resulting in increased energy and transportation costs and adversely affecting the Indian consumer industry as a whole.
- International regulatory risk: Our branded products are subject to approval by health and food safety regulators in each export market. The inability to obtain or retain such approvals may hinder our ability to operate or expand internationally.
- Operational complexities in new geographies: As we scale operations in foreign jurisdictions, we face challenges in managing language barriers, labour norms, taxation frameworks, and cultural differences that can impact our ability to execute efficiently.
- Intellectual property vulnerability: In some jurisdictions, enforcement of IP rights may be weak or inconsistent, increasing the risk of brand imitation, counterfeiting, or patent infringement.
- Geopolitical and macro risks: We are vulnerable to macroeconomic instability, local currency devaluation, armed conflict, political unrest, civil disturbance, import embargoes, or trade sanctions in countries where we operate or intend to expand.
- Health and Environmental Crises: Past experiences such as the COVID-19 pandemic underscore the potential for global public health emergencies to disrupt both supply and demand across key export markets.
- Compliance Burdens: Expanding into new product categories or markets could subject us to novel regulatory regimes and unfamiliar legal obligations, increasing the risk of inadvertent non-compliance or enforcement actions.

The continued success of our international operations depends on our ability to anticipate, manage, and adapt to these complex and evolving risks. Any adverse development in the countries where we operate, whether operational, regulatory, financial, or reputational, could materially impact our revenues, increase compliance and operational costs, disrupt market continuity, or delay strategic initiatives.

In the nine month period ended December 31, 2025 and past three Fiscal, we have not faced any material adverse event relating our ability to sell our product in the countries in which we exported. Although we strive to mitigate these risks through compliance systems, insurance, and diversified operations, we cannot assure that all such risks will be contained. As such, our business, cash flows, results of operations, and future growth may be materially and adversely affected.

10. Suboptimal capacity utilisation at our manufacturing facilities may limit operational efficiency and adversely affect our business and financial condition.

The installed capacities and capacity utilization levels of our manufacturing facilities presented in this Red Herring Prospectus are historical in nature and should not be considered predictive of future performance. These figures are based on two-shift operations and are impacted by multiple factors including production scheduling, order volumes, maintenance downtime, SKU changeovers, availability of raw materials, packaging capacity, requirement of keeping buffer capacity to undertake fresh order from government and development agencies and operational efficiency.

Our facilities at Nashik (Maharashtra), Chennai (Tamil Nadu), and Thoothukudi (Tamil Nadu) manufacture a range of products including dry premixes, liquid premixes, micronutrient powders (MNP), ready-to-use therapeutic foods (RUTF), and clinical nutrition formulations. While these facilities are strategically designed to address diverse market segments, we have experienced underutilisation across categories over the past three years.

The table below presents our installed capacities, actual production, and corresponding capacity utilisation across product categories during the nine month period ended December 31, 2025 and last three Fiscals:

The apparent capacity under-utilisation is primarily due to demand variability and the timing and availability of large-scale global tenders, which represent a significant share of demand in our industry. As our products are supplied to international agencies, NGOs, and government programmes, the inflow of orders depends on procurement cycles and the availability of funding from these organisations. On the operational side, the packaging line has inherent limitations, the machine cannot be run at maximum capacity because separate equipment is required for different packaging sizes. Consequently, the reported capacity appears under-utilised.

Reasons for Under-Utilisation of Capacity

During the nine month period ended December 31, 2025 and last three fiscals, the Company’s capacity utilisation across major product categories, including micronutrient premix, clinical nutrition, and ready-to-use therapeutic food (RUTF), has remained between approximately 28.76% to 31.06%. The lower utilisation levels are attributable to a combination of operational, commercial, and industry-specific factors, including:

- Nature of Demand: Project-Driven and Non-Linear

A substantial share of the Company’s revenues, particularly in ESG (RUTF, RUSF, MNP), is linked to:

- institutional procurement cycles,
- tender-based orders, and
- humanitarian and government nutrition programmes.

The demand patterns are inherently irregular, leading to high order inflows in certain quarters and lean periods in others. This naturally results in variability in both monthly and annual capacity utilisation. While monthly utilisation often rises well above the average during peak periods, the annual utilisation appears lower because it reflects the average utilisation across all months, including the lean ones

- Requirement to Maintain Buffer Capacity for Eligibility in Large Contracts

To qualify for large multi-year tenders from global agencies (such as United nation agencies), the Company is required to maintain demonstrable available capacity.

Such eligibility criteria typically mandate:

- a. capacity thresholds,
- b. the ability to scale production quickly for emergency, contingency, or surge requirements,
- c. flexibility to ensure continuous, uninterrupted, and assured supply, and
- d. maintenance of operational buffers and redundancy to manage variability in global demand.

- High SKU Diversity and Frequent Changeovers.

The Company manages a highly diverse product portfolio with more than 700 SKUs across multiple fortification applications, customized premixes, ESG Category Products, clinical nutrition formulations, and branded nutrition categories. This extensive SKU range results in frequent batch changeovers, which in turn lead to machine downtime and reduce the effective utilisation of installed capacity, even during periods of strong demand.

- Order-Driven Production Model (Make-to-Order)

The Company operates primarily on a make-to-order model, with limited production undertaken for stock due to product shelf-life and formulation-specific requirements.

This approach reduces inventory risk but naturally leads to lower capacity utilisation compared to continuous-process industries.

- Commissioning of New Lines Ahead of Demand

The Company has, over the years, invested in capacity expansion in anticipation of future growth. These capacities were fully installed and ready, but demand ramp-up across certain categories—particularly clinical nutrition and fortified premix—occurred more gradually, resulting in temporary under-utilisation.

- Raw Material Availability and Packaging Constraints

Occasional delays in:

- a. sourcing specialised micronutrients,
- b. importing critical premix components, and
- c. availability of packaging material have contributed to shorter production cycles and under-utilisation in certain periods.

As evident from the data above, our facilities have consistently operated at suboptimal levels. Factors such as demand variability, government procurement cycles, product registration timelines in international markets, and raw material sourcing constraints contribute to this underutilization.

Further, capacity utilisation calculations vary across industries and product categories and may not be comparable with peers or other benchmarks. Our product portfolio involves differing batch sizes, production cycles, and regulatory requirements which also affect throughput. While we seek to enhance facility utilisation, there can be no assurance that these initiatives will materially improve capacity utilisation in the near term.

In addition, capacity utilization is calculated differently in different countries, industries and for the kinds of products we manufacture. Accordingly, investors are advised not to place undue reliance on our historical installed capacities and utilisation figures when evaluating our future operational performance or financial prospects. For additional information, refer to the section titled “Our Business – Our Capacity” on page 493.

11. Our operations are subject to evolving health, safety and environmental laws and regulatory standards.

We are subject to laws and government regulations, including in relation to safety, health and environmental protection and hazardous waste management. These safety, health and environmental protection laws and regulations impose controls on air and water discharge, management of materials used in manufacturing activities, and other aspects of our manufacturing operations. These laws also regulate the storage, treatment and disposal of wastes, remediation of contaminated soil and groundwater, air quality standards and water pollution. The discharge or emission of chemicals, dust, contaminants or other pollutants into the air, soil or water that exceed permitted levels and cause damage to others may give rise to liabilities towards the government and third parties and may result in our incurring costs to remedy any such discharge or emissions.

Environmental laws and regulations in India and globally have become and continue to be more stringent, and the scope and extent of new environmental regulations, including their effect on our operations, cannot be predicted with any certainty. In case of any change in environmental or pollution regulations, we may be required to invest in, among other things, environmental monitoring, pollution control equipment, and emissions management and other expenditure to comply with environmental standards. Any failure on our part to comply with any existing or future regulations applicable to us may result in legal proceedings, including public interest litigation, being commenced against us, third party claims or the levy of regulatory fines. Further, any violation of the environmental laws and regulations may result in fines, criminal sanctions, revocation of operating permits, or shutdown of our manufacturing facilities.

Furthermore, our products, including the process of manufacture, storage and distribution of such products, are subject to numerous laws and regulations in relation to their quality, safety and health. For instance, the provisions of the FSSAI Act are applicable to us and our products, which sets forth requirements relating to the license and registration of food businesses and general principles for food safety standards, and manufacture, storage and distribution. The Legal Metrology Act, 2009, as amended (the “Legal Metrology Act”) regulates trade and commerce in weights, measures and other goods which are sold or distributed by weight, measure or number. For further details, see “Key Regulations and Policies” on page 337.

There is a risk that we may fail to comply with such regulations, which could lead to enforced shutdowns and other sanctions imposed by the relevant authorities, as well as the withholding or delay in receipt of regulatory approvals for our new products. We cannot assure you that we will not be involved in future litigation or other proceeding, or be held liable in any litigation or proceedings including in relation to safety, health and environmental matters, the costs of which may be significant. As a consequence of unanticipated regulatory or other developments, future environmental and regulatory expenditure may vary substantially from those currently anticipated. We cannot assure you that our costs of complying with current and future environmental laws and other regulations will not adversely affect our business, results of operations or financial condition. While we have not been subject to any violation of environmental laws and regulations framed therein in the nine month period ended December 31, 2025 and last three Fiscals, any failure on our part to comply with any existing or future regulations applicable to us may result in legal proceedings being commenced against us, third party claims or the levy of regulatory fines, which may adversely affect our reputation, business, financial condition, cash flows and results of operations.

12. We are exposed to foreign currency exchange rate fluctuations, which may adversely affect our financial condition, cash flows, and results of operations.

We import a number of raw materials from overseas and such imports are denominated in foreign currencies. During the past nine month period ended December 31, 2025 and three Fiscal, we imported raw material such as Vitamin D2 40 MIU/GM pure crystals, Vitamin A Palmitate 1.7 MIU/gm, Folic Acid (Vitamin B9) Halal, Thiamine Mononitrate Halal, Palmolein oil and whey protein hydrosolate (WPH) from 7 countries, particularly from China, Singapore, Malaysia, Poland, U.A.E, Germany and Netherlands.

Set out is the details of Country wise cost of imports in India for the reporting period.

At the same time, a significant portion of our revenue is derived from exports. During the nine month period ended December 31, 2025 and past three Fiscals, our products were exported to over 75 countries, including South Africa, Malaysia, Ethiopia, France, French Polynesia, Ghana, Indonesia, Kenya, Madagascar, Mozambique, Papua New Guinea, Nigeria, Philippines, Qatar, UAE, Mauritius, Brazil, Bangladesh and Rwanda.

Given our cross-border procurement and export activities, we are exposed to currency risk arising from fluctuations in exchange rates between the Indian Rupee (INR) and various foreign currencies. The exchange rate between the INR and USD, in particular, has fluctuated significantly in recent years and continues to be volatile. A weakening of the INR increases our cost of imports, while an appreciation adversely affects our export realizations. As a result, significant currency fluctuations can materially impact our cost structure, revenue realization, profitability, and working capital position.

Further, we were involved in a commercial dispute with Lifewin Investments Pvt. Ltd., Zimbabwe, relating to outstanding export receivables for supplies made. For details, see “Outstanding Litigation and Material Developments – Litigation involving our Subsidiaries - Material civil proceedings” on page 525. While a portion of the receivable amount was realised under our ECGC insurance policy, the remaining unrecovered balance had already been written off as bad debts in the relevant financial year.

However, since the matter continues to be under litigation, the Company is required to disclose it under the section “Outstanding Litigation and Material Developments.” on page 525. Notwithstanding the write-off, the dispute exposes the Company to country-specific and counterparty risks, including foreign exchange restrictions, regulatory challenges, and enforcement constraints in Zimbabwe, which may have an impact on our financial reporting and risk profile.

Set out below is a summary of our unrealised foreign exchange gains and losses (net) during the nine month period ended December 31, 2025 and past three Fiscals:

Particulars	Nine month period ended December 31, 2025	Fiscal 2025	Fiscal 2024	Fiscal 2023

The Company currently does undertake derivative-based hedging for foreign currency exposure as per hedging policy. It follows a natural hedging policy to the extent possible by offsetting import payables against export receivables in the same currency. The Company also periodically monitors foreign currency exposure to assess potential impact on profitability and cash flows.

The Company has adopted a risk mitigation strategy to manage exposure to foreign exchange fluctuations and receivables risk. It proposes to avail ECGC cover for export receivables to safeguard against potential customer defaults and may enter into forward contracts to hedge against adverse currency movements. The Company presently cover export credit sales through its ECGC policy. There can be no assurance that our hedging strategy will protect us from adverse currency movements or associated losses.

While we have experienced both gains and losses from currency movements in the past, we run the ongoing risk that future exchange rates may be less favourable. This could result in foreign currency translation losses or reduced margins, thereby adversely impacting our financial condition and operational performance.

13. Any disruption in production at, or shutdown of, our manufacturing facilities, or breakdown of machinery could materially and adversely affect our business operations, financial condition, and growth prospects.

Our ability to meet customer demand, honour supply commitments, and maintain consistent revenue generation is critically dependent on the uninterrupted operation of our manufacturing facilities. We currently operate three facilities in India, one in Nashik, Maharashtra, and two in Tamil Nadu (Chennai and Thoothukudi), as well as one overseas manufacturing facility in Tashkent, Uzbekistan, operated through our subsidiary, Hexagon Nutrition LLC. Any disruption, temporary or prolonged, at any of these locations could adversely impact our production schedules, product availability, and customer relationships.

Our Nashik facility is situated across two adjoining land parcels; (i) Plot No. 92, Post Unandanagar, Village - Lakhmapur, Dindori, Nashik, Maharashtra – used for manufacturing dry premix and liquid premix formulation, branded clinical nutrition product, RUF and MNP and warehousing; and (ii) Plot No. 447, Post Unandanagar, Village - Lakhmapur, Dindori, Nashik, Maharashtra – used for R&D and additional storage.

With respect of Plot No. 92, we have received notices from the authorities under Sections 63(4) and 84-C of the Maharashtra Tenancy and Agricultural Lands Act, 1948 and Sections 52, 53 and 143 of the Maharashtra Regional and Town Planning Act, 1966. These notices pertain to alleged unauthorised industrial construction on agricultural land. While the land was technically exempt from conversion requirements, we have been informed that it is still subject to the condition of obtaining a Non-Agricultural (NA) Order from the Sub-Divisional Magistrate, Dindori, Nashik.

We submitted responses indicating our willingness to comply with the instruction of such authorities and have since received certified and approved plan from the Town & Planning Department and further all regularisation fees have been paid in compliance. We have also obtained the NA order from the competent authority.

In the light of the regularisation process which would involve re-construction of a part of the facility as per certified plan from the Town & Planning Department, our current production capacities of 8.10 MT/day for Dry Powder Premix, 0.75 MT/day for liquid Premix, and 8.0 MT/day for RUF products will be unavailable unless suitable countermeasures are implemented. Therefore, to mitigate the impact on current production capacities, we have proposed to adopt the following action plan;

- For Dry Powder Premix: Allocate Production Line 2, previously used for branded nutrition products, fully to Dry Powder Premix, thereby retaining the existing 8.10 MT/day capacity;
- For Liquid Premix: Create a dedicated production space by relocating existing Liquid Premix equipment within the vacant space in the facility to replicate the current 0.75 MT/ day capacity.
- For Branded Nutrition Products: Establish a new Production Line 3 in the Brand Plant to offset the diversion of Line 2 and maintain branded product output.
- For RUF Products: Address the temporary shortfall in RUF production by transferring orders to the Thoothukudi Facility until a new dedicated RUF plant is constructed.

Although, our management believes that these measures provide sufficient operational flexibility to maintain current production levels and continue serving customers, the transition may not be seamless and could result in temporary inefficiencies. For instance, reallocating Production Line 2 from branded nutrition to Dry Powder Premix may require process recalibration and retraining of staff, while the establishment of a new Production Line 3 in the Brand Plant may initially involve ramp-up time before achieving optimal efficiency. Similarly, relocation of Liquid Premix equipment into a new space may cause short-term downtime and require validation testing before resuming full-scale operations. Further, diversion of RUF orders to the Thoothukudi Facility may result in logistical complexities and scheduling adjustments. Collectively, these transitional factors could lead to temporary fluctuations in productivity, capacity utilisation, and delivery timelines, notwithstanding the current mitigation plan.

In addition to the above, our manufacturing operations are exposed to several inherent risks, including equipment failure, utility outages (electricity or water), fire, natural disasters, industrial accidents, regulatory interventions, raw material shortages, and disruptions in local or state governance. These events can result in unplanned shutdowns or reduced capacity utilization.

We rely on specialized machinery at all our facilities. Any breakdown or obsolescence could require significant capital expenditure and delay production. While we undertake regular preventive maintenance and statutory compliance checks, scheduled shutdowns for equipment upgrades or capacity expansion may extend beyond anticipated timelines, potentially disrupting supply continuity. We did not experience any disruptions due to breakdown or obsolescence during the nine month period ended December 31, 2025 and past three Fiscals, there can be no assurance that such issues will not arise in the future.

Although labour relations across our operations are currently stable, we cannot assure against future work disruptions due to industrial disputes, strikes, wage negotiations, or other personnel-related issues. India's stringent labour regulations also pose compliance risks, where violations, whether inadvertent or otherwise, may lead to monetary penalties or even operational suspension by regulators. We did not experience any disruptions due to labour disputes during the nine month period ended December 31, 2025 and past three Fiscals, there can be no assurance that such issues will not arise in the future. Violations of India's stringent labour laws may also result in monetary penalties or suspension of operations by regulators.

Further, our overseas manufacturing facility in Uzbekistan, operated by our subsidiary, Hexagon Nutrition Limited Liability Company subjects us to risks inherent to operating in a foreign jurisdiction, including evolving regulatory frameworks, compliance with local labour, tax and industrial safety laws, currency convertibility restrictions, profit repatriation challenges, infrastructure constraints, and potential geopolitical instability in Central Asia. As this is our only overseas facility, we have limited prior operating experience in Uzbekistan, which increases our exposure to such risks. Any disruption, regulatory non-compliance, or inability to optimise production at this facility could adversely affect our operational performance, financial condition, and growth prospects.

Our international markets, served through regional offices in South Africa, Hong Kong, and Uzbekistan, are also dependent on supply support from our manufacturing base. Any disruption at our domestic or Uzbekistan facility could result in delayed exports, non-fulfilment of contractual obligations, and reputational risks in overseas markets.

If significant manufacturing interruptions occur without adequate contingency or fallback capacity, our business operations, financial condition, customer satisfaction, and overall growth trajectory could be materially and adversely affected.

14. Inability to obtain, maintain or renew requisite statutory and regulatory permits and approvals for our business operations could materially and adversely affect our business, prospects, cash flows, results of operations, and financial condition.

Our operations are subject to extensive regulatory oversight, requiring multiple statutory and regulatory approvals, consents, licenses, and registrations from various central, state, and local government authorities. These include, among others, approvals under the Food Safety and Standards Act, 2006, the Legal Metrology Act, 2009, environmental regulations, factory and labour laws, as well as tax statutes.

Many of these approvals are time-bound and require periodic renewal. While we currently possess the approvals necessary for ongoing operations

Although we have not faced any suspension of operations or material disruption due to non-compliance with regulatory requirements during the nine month period ended December 31, 2025 and past three Fiscals, there is no assurance that such events will not occur in the future. The regulatory environment in which we operate is complex and constantly evolving. Any future lapses, whether inadvertent or otherwise, could lead to regulatory action, license cancellations, or prosecution of our senior management.

The continuation of our business activities also depends on the timely renewal of these statutory approvals. Any delay, denial, or imposition of more stringent regulatory norms, or adverse interpretation by authorities, may increase our compliance burden. Our failure to obtain or renew these approvals, or to comply with evolving regulatory obligations, could result in operational disruptions, financial penalties, legal liabilities, or restrictions on manufacturing and distribution. Consequently, this could materially and adversely affect our business operations, reputation, financial condition, and future growth.

15. Our inability to collect trade receivables and default in payment from our customers could adversely affect our business, financial condition and results of operations and cash flows

Our trade receivables consist of receivables from Distributors, FMCG Sectors and Global Agencies which are in the regular course of business. Our current trade receivables are non-interest bearing and generally have credit periods of between 0 and 180 days. We provide for any outstanding receivables as doubtful based on the credit risk matrix, which takes into account the historical credit losses as well as the current economic conditions and is adjusted for forward looking information. Management also exercises judgment in specific cases and basis past experience makes additional impairment loss provisions. No assurance can be provided that our customers will not default on their payments or pay us on time. Our inability to collect trade receivables from our customers on time could adversely affect our cash flows.

The table below sets forth our trade receivables, contract assets and impairment losses on trade receivables and contract assets for the nine month period ended December 31, 2025 and last three fiscals:

In addition, if we cannot pass potential increases in customer acquisition costs, bank transaction fees payable by us to financial institution partners or payments to our partner payment gateways along to our customers, our earnings and operating margins could decline, which may have an adverse effect on our business, financial condition and results of operations.

16. There may have been certain instances of non-compliances with respect to certain corporate actions taken by our Company in the past. Consequently, we may be subject to regulatory actions and penalties

Our Company has, in the past, identified procedural non-compliances under the Companies Act, 2013 in relation to (i) private placements of equity shares and Compulsory Convertible Preference Shares ("CCPS"), and (ii) corporate actions relating to the continuation of tenure and appointment of certain Managing Directors.

In respect of private placements, the lapses primarily related to delays in receipt of subscription monies owing to intervening banking holidays and delays in filing prescribed forms, including Form PAS-3 (Return of Allotment) and Form PAS-4 (Private Placement Offer Letter), with the Registrar of Companies. These lapses were inadvertent, technical in nature, and did not prejudice the interests of shareholders, creditors, or other stakeholders

Separately, with respect to the continuation and appointment of certain Managing Directors, the Board of Directors of the Company inadvertently passed resolutions with effect from June 28, 2019, instead of the correct effective date of April 1, 2019, and did not file Form MGT-14 for the relevant resolutions within the prescribed timelines. These lapses were due to oversight and were not wilful. Necessary approvals for the appointments were subsequently obtained, and the requisite filings were made.

To address these issues, the Company, its Promoters, and Directors have voluntarily submitted suo-moto adjudication applications under Section 454 of the Companies Act, 2013 (including the applications titled Signed Adjudication Application and HNL-Signed Adjud Appln). The applications included certified copies of the relevant ROC forms (PAS-3, PAS-4, and MGT-14), board and shareholders' resolutions, challans, and other supporting documents. The Company has also strengthened its internal controls and compliance processes to ensure that all future corporate actions and statutory filings are undertaken in strict compliance with the Companies Act, 2013 and the rules framed thereunder.

While our Company believes that these defaults were unintentional, clerical or technical in nature and has taken corrective steps, there can be no assurance that penalties or regulatory actions will not be imposed. Further, there can be no assurance that future instances of delay, error or non-compliance in relation to filings or other statutory requirements will not occur, which may have an adverse effect on our business, financial condition, results of operations and reputation

17. Our failure in maintaining our quality accreditations and certifications may negatively impact materially and adversely affect our revenue generation, brand credibility, and overall business operations.

As of the date of this Red Herring Prospectus, our three manufacturing facilities located in Nashik (Maharashtra), Chennai (Tamil Nadu), and Thoothukudi (Tamil Nadu) are accredited with multiple globally recognised certifications validating their compliance with international food safety, quality management, and religious dietary standards. These certifications are essential to our credibility and eligibility for supplying to both institutional and export markets.

Our Nashik facility holds the FSSC 22000 certification (Version 6.0), which includes ISO 22000:2018, ISO/TS22002-1:2009, and additional requirements for manufacturing of micronutrient premixes (dry and liquid), dietary supplements, sweeteners (powder form), multivitamin and nutraceutical tablets. It is also certified under Good Manufacturing Practices (GMP) and HACCP (Codex Alimentarius), along with BRCGS Issue 9.0 (Grade-A). Additional accreditations include ISO 9001:2015, Halal certification from the Jamiat Ulama Halal Foundation, KOSHER certification from OK-Kosher, and an approval letter from GAIN (Global Alliance for Improved Nutrition). The Nashik R&D and testing unit is accredited with ISO/IEC 17025:2017 by NABL for chemical and biological testing of finished goods, and Lab at Chennai Facility and Thoothukudi Facility, are also NABL certified.

Our Chennai facility is certified under FSSC 22000 (Version 5.1) for the manufacturing of dry and liquid oil micronutrient premixes, and has GMP, ISO 9001:2015, Star K Kosher and Halal certification for the production of specialty micronutrient premixes, vitamins, minerals, small nutrients, amino acids, and other dietary supplements.

Our Thoothukudi facility, which focuses on nutrition solutions for humanitarian and ESG segment, is certified under FSSC 22000 (Version 6) for the manufacturing and packing of Ready-to-Use Supplementary Food (RUSF) and Ready-to-Use Therapeutic Food (RUTF). It is also certified under Good Manufacturing Practices (GMP) and ISO 9001:2015 certified for the manufacture of infant foods (RUSF and RUTF) and holds Halal certification from the Jamiat Ulama Halal Foundation, covering vitamins and mineral-based health and dietary supplements. For details, see “Our Business – Quality Standards and Assurance” on page 325.

These certifications and approvals collectively reinforce our compliance with stringent food safety, religious, and nutritional product standards across global markets. However, the validity of these certifications is subject to ongoing audits, regulatory updates, and continued adherence to best manufacturing practices. While we have not faced any instance of failure to maintain the requisite quality certifications in the nine month period ended December 31, 2025 and past three Fiscal, any failure or delay in renewing these certifications, due to audit non-compliance, procedural lapses, or regulatory changes, could render us ineligible for key customer contracts, particularly those involving public sector and global nutrition programs. This could materially and adversely affect our revenue generation, brand credibility, and overall business operations.

18. Our growth and market position depend on strengthening our brand portfolio and executing effective marketing strategies. Failure to do so may impact consumer trust and financial performance.

Our business is reliant on the strength, recall, and consumer trust associated with our in-house brands. Over the years, we have developed and nurtured a portfolio of branded nutrition products that cater to diverse demographic and therapeutic needs. Among our flagship brands are “PENTASURE,” “OBESIGO,” and “PEDIAGOLD”, which have established its presence in both domestic and select international markets.

In Fiscal 2024, we expanded our portfolio with the launch of a new brand, “NUTRONE”, aimed at the wellness and preventive nutrition segment. This brand extension is aligned with our strategy of broadening our product offerings across categories such as healthy ageing, daily nutrition, and gender-specific supplements. During the nine month period ending December 31, 2025 and Fiscal 2025 and , the combined revenue generated from our top four branded products, PENTASURE, OBESIGO, PEDIAGOLD, NUTRONE was ₹ 689.65 and ₹ 911.42 million respectively, representing approximately 25.77% and 28.05% respectively, of our revenue from operations. For details relating to our Branded Nutrition Products, see “Our Business – Product Portfolio – Branded Nutrition Products” on page 287.

As we intend to expand into newer geographies and consumer segments, we face heightened competition from both multinational and regional players. Many of these competitors enjoy higher brand recall, entrenched distribution, and larger marketing budgets. Building brand recognition in such competitive landscapes often requires substantial and sustained investments in marketing, advertising, and promotional initiatives.

Set out in the table below is a breakdown of our expenses incurred towards marketing and branding expenses for the nine month period ended December 31, 2025, Fiscal 2025, Fiscal 2024 and Fiscal 2023 respectively:

(₹ in million unless stated otherwise)

Particulars	Nine month period ended December 31, 2025		Fiscal 2025		Fiscal 2024		Fiscal 2023
	Amount	% of revenue from operations	Amount	% of revenue from operations	Amount	% of revenue from operations	Amount	% of revenue from operations
Sales Promotion, Advertising Expenses & Membership fees	77.04	2.88	65.44	2.01	50.12	1.68	34.76	1.25

This reflects our progressive focus on strengthening brand awareness and consumer engagement. However, there can be no assurance that these efforts will translate into improved consumer preference or enhanced market share.

Our marketing initiatives span both traditional and digital channels, with increasing reliance on direct marketing and influencer outreach. For details, see “Our Business - Marketing and Business Development” on page 322.

Despite our marketing efforts, there is a risk that our branding strategies may not resonate with target audiences or differentiate us adequately from competing products. Consumer perception may also be influenced by external factors such as price sensitivity, availability, perceived efficacy, and third-party reviews or endorsements.

In today’s hyper-connected world, customer sentiment is shaped not only by direct product experience but also by social media feedback, influencer opinions, and online reviews. Any misinformation, negative publicity, or criticism, whether accurate or unfounded, about our products, employees, suppliers, or practices can erode consumer trust and brand loyalty. Isolated incidents of poor customer experience or quality concerns can quickly escalate and gain widespread attention, particularly through viral content or adverse media coverage.

We also remain exposed to potential reputational damage arising from misalignment between our public messaging and evolving consumer expectations, including those related to ethics, sustainability, or corporate responsibility. Negative narratives could result in reduced brand equity, lower customer acquisition, and decreased repeat business.

Although we have not encountered any material adverse brand-related incidents in the nine month period ended December 31, 2025 and past three Fiscals, we cannot guarantee that such events will not occur in the future. Any failure to execute our branding and promotional strategies effectively, or any event that damages our brand reputation, could have a material adverse impact on our business, profitability, and long-term prospects.

Moreover, any instance of product defect, packaging error, or negative media coverage, however isolated can undermine brand equity built over years. Although we have not experienced any consumer complaints, or adverse media reports during the nine month period ended December 31, 2025 and past three Fiscals, we cannot rule out the possibility of such events occurring in the future. Such developments could significantly dilute the impact of our marketing investments and brand-building efforts.

Given the increasing importance of brand differentiation in our industry, failure to evolve our brand positioning in line with market trends, consumer expectations, or regulatory shifts could materially and adversely affect our ability to attract and retain customers, expand into new segments, and sustain profitability.

19. Our facilities are subject to client inspections and quality audits. Any failure to meet prescribed standards or customer expectations may lead to loss of business, reputational damage, and financial liabilities.

We operate in a highly regulated segment where compliance with client-specific quality protocols, hygiene norms, traceability systems, and manufacturing best practices is essential. All three our facilities undergo regular quality audits by customers as well as certifying agencies. These audits evaluate our adherence to product specifications, cleanliness standards, batch documentation, raw material traceability, and process controls. Any failure to meet client expectations or to comply with prescribed standards may result in cancellation of existing orders, loss of preferred supplier status, termination of contracts, or disqualification from government and institutional programs.

The quality of our products is directly linked to the strength of our quality control systems, which are dependent on factors such as staff training, audit preparedness, equipment calibration, supplier compliance, and effectiveness of corrective actions. Any weakness or failure in these systems could lead to manufacturing of non-conforming or substandard products. This could expose us to risks such as product recalls, rejection of shipments, penalties, or legal claims, any of which may materially impact our financial performance and customer relationships.

Additionally, we are required to obtain and maintain multiple certifications that validate our manufacturing compliance with international food safety and quality norms. As of the date of this Red Herring Prospectus, our facilities have been accredited with certifications such as FSSC 22000 (including ISO 22000:2018), ISO 9001:2015, Good Manufacturing Practice, and Halal certifications from Indian and international bodies. Our Chennai and Thoothukudi facilities have also been audited and approved by Intertek on behalf of the Global Alliance for Improved Nutrition (GAIN), a prerequisite for participating in several global public health nutrition programs. These certifications not only help assure product quality but also serve as eligibility criteria for institutional tenders and international development aid programs. For details, see “Our Business – Quality Standards and Assurance” on page 325.

For instance, in July 2023, certain batches of RUTF and MNP supplied to a United Nations agency were found to be contaminated with Salmonella, which led to suspension of operations at our Thoothukudi Facility for approximately seven months during Fiscal 2024 for audit and corrective measures. Although the arrangement was renewed following corrective actions and audit clearance, the incident underscores our vulnerability to quality-related risks in institutional supply chains. Further in Fiscal 2026, an incident occurred at the Company’s Chennai facility involving an incorrect selenium dosage in the micronutrient powder (MNP) formulation. Three production batches were released with selenium levels exceeding the specified limit, which could have posed a potential health risk. Upon identification, the Company initiated the process for destruction of the affected batches and instructed the relevant customers to carry out such destruction. The Company also implemented a series of preventive measures, including system-level correction of the formulation, introduction of mandatory double-verification protocols across R&D, QA and QC functions, updates to standard operating procedures and targeted training for relevant personnel on micronutrient handling and deviation management. While we have not experienced any termination of contracts due to audit or quality failures in the nine month period ended December 31, 2025 and past three Fiscals, there can be no assurance that similar incidents will not occur in the future. For details, see “Risk Factor- 4 - Sale of expired, defective, or non-compliant products, or failure to meet applicable quality standards, could expose us to significant liability, damage our reputation, and adversely affect our business, results of operations, and financial condition.” On page 28.

As our business scales and our exposure to international and institutional customers increases, the importance of consistently meeting these quality and compliance expectations becomes even more critical. Any future inability to successfully clear customer audits or retain essential certifications may adversely affect our operational continuity, cash flows, customer trust, and overall business reputation.

20. We have certain contingent liabilities which, if materialized, may adversely affect our financial condition.

As of nine month period ended December 31, 2025, and year ended March 31, 2025, March 31, 2024, March 31, 2023 the estimated amount of contingent liabilities are as follows:

(₹ in million)

Particulars	As on nine month period ended December 31, 2025	As a % of net worth	As on March 31, 2025	As a % of net worth	As on March 31, 2024	As a % of net worth	As on March 31, 2023	As a % of net worth
Contingent liabilities	-	-	-	-	-	-	0.24	0.01
Capital Commitments (to the extent not provided for)	3.14	0.14	6.88	0.35	29.01	1.65	40.74	2.49
Bank Guarantee	25.18	1.13	54.16	2.77	18.65	1.06	16.16	0.99
Statutory Dues	37.40	1.68	27.09	1.38	27.47	1.56	26.48	1.62
Total	65.72	2.95	88.13	4.51	75.13	4.26	83.62	5.10

Note:

1. The above table does not include corporate guarantees given holding company to its subsidiaries
2. Capital Commitments represents open capital expenditure purchase orders placed by the Company, which are yet to be executed and are not provided for in the financial statements.
3. Bank Guarantee comprises guarantees issued to customers against supply obligations, performance-related commitments, and guarantees given to statutory authorities such as the Maharashtra Pollution Control Board (MPCB).
4. Statutory Dues consists mainly of demands and notices received from government departments, including income tax, customs, and GST authorities, which are under various stages of adjudication or appeal. The amounts involved in tax litigation have not been included in the contingent liabilities because these relate to additional litigation matters that arose subsequent to the balance sheet date. Accordingly, these amounts do not form part of the books of accounts, and hence have been excluded from the contingent liability disclosures.

If at any time we are compelled to pay all or a material proportion of these contingent liabilities, it would have a material and adverse effect on our business, financial condition, cash flows and results of operations. For further details, see “Restated Consolidated Financial Information” beginning on page 403.

21. We have experienced a significant reduction in revenue contribution from repeat customers, primarily in our ESG segment, which may adversely affect our revenue visibility, profitability and financial stability.

Historically, a significant portion of our revenue has been derived from repeat customers across our B2C, B2B2C, and ESG segments. Repeat business is an important indicator of customer satisfaction, long-term engagement, and revenue predictability. However, our revenue from repeat customers has declined sharply in recent periods, particularly in Fiscal 2025 as compared to Fiscal 2024.

Set forth below is our revenue from such customers As of nine month period ended December 31, 2025 and Fiscals 2025, 2024 and 2023:

Particulars	(₹ in million unless stated otherwise)
	Nine months period ended December 31, 2025		Fiscal 2025		Fiscal 2024		Fiscal 2023
	Revenue from Operations	% of revenue from operations	Revenue from Operations	% of revenue from operations	Revenue from Operations	% of revenue from operations	Revenue from Operations	% of revenue from operations
Revenue from repeat customers in B2C segment	95.21	3.56	71.91	2.21	102.94	3.46	73.50	2.64
Revenue from repeat	1185.95	44.32	756.91	23.29	886.98	29.79	802.02	28.80

Particulars	Nine months period ended December 31, 2025		Fiscal 2025		Fiscal 2024		Fiscal 2023
	Revenue from Operations	% of revenue from operations	Revenue from Operations	% of revenue from operations	Revenue from Operations	% of revenue from operations	Revenue from Operations	% of revenue from operations
customers in B2B2C segment
Revenue from repeat customers in ESG	205.12	7.67	339.26	10.44	1089.79	36.60	717.71	25.77
Total	1,486.28	55.54	1,168.08	35.94	2,079.71	69.85	1,593.23	57.21

Revenue from repeat customers decreased significantly from ₹2,079.71 million, representing 69.85% of revenue from operations in Fiscal 2024, to ₹1,168.08 million, representing 35.94% of revenue from operations in Fiscal 2025. This represents an absolute decline of ₹911.63 million and a reduction of more than 33 % in contribution to overall revenue within a single fiscal year. The decline was particularly pronounced in the ESG segment, where repeat revenue reduced sharply from ₹1,089.79 million (36.60% of revenue from operations) in Fiscal 2024 to ₹339.26 million (10.44% of revenue from operations) in Fiscal 2025. This represents a decline of ₹750.53 million in absolute terms and a reduction of over 26% in contribution to total revenue.

The ESG segment is largely export-oriented and tender-driven and is dependent on institutional funding and government procurement cycles, which may be subject to variability and funding constraints. Reduced international funding flows, project cycle variability, geopolitical developments, foreign exchange fluctuations, changes in global trade policies and macroeconomic conditions in key export markets may continue to impact repeat revenues, particularly in the ESG and export-focused segments. In addition, the Company may choose not to participate in tenders that are commercially unviable, which may further affect repeat revenue levels.

A sustained reduction in repeat business may:

- Reduce revenue predictability and order book visibility;
- Increase dependence on acquiring new customers, which may involve higher marketing and acquisition costs;
- Lead to volatility in capacity utilization;
- Impact working capital planning and cash flow stability; and
- Adversely affect long-term customer relationships and market positioning.

There can be no assurance that repeat revenue levels will stabilise or return to historical proportions. If we are unable to maintain or rebuild repeat customer volumes, our business, results of operations and financial condition may be materially and adversely affected.

22. We depend significantly on our distribution network, including domestic and international channel partners, for the sale and delivery of our branded nutrition products.

We rely heavily on our multi-layered distribution network, both domestic and international, for the sale and delivery of our branded nutrition products. In India, we have a omnichannel presence, serving a wide and diverse consumer base through retail pharmacies, hospital networks, leading e-commerce platforms, online pharmacies, and our own branded websites such as www.pentasurenutrition.com, www.obesigo.com, and www.nutrone.fit. Our domestic network comprises over 358 non-exclusive distributors including 8 distributors who have presence in multiple states. We are also supported by a 167 member direct sales force, including field personnel and qualified nutrition science professionals. Internationally, we are supported by 20 regional non-exclusive distributors across South and North America, Southeast Asia, Africa, and the Middle East. For details, see “Our Business – Sales and Distribution” on page 319.

Our ability to scale, enter new geographies, and sustain growth is closely tied to the effectiveness of this distribution infrastructure. We also leverage digital channels, including online marketplaces and e-commerce platforms, to increase visibility and market penetration. However, expanding and managing this ecosystem brings several challenges. Appointing and retaining competent distributors is highly competitive, and we may not always secure favourable terms. Existing partners may also shift focus if offered more attractive incentives by competitors, or if locked into exclusive arrangements, reducing our market access.

In addition, operational disruptions, such as inventory mismanagement, transport delays, labour shortages, or geopolitical unrest, could interrupt product delivery and customer service. While we have formal agreements in place with a few of our channel partners, any breach or termination of these arrangements could disrupt supply continuity. Moreover, inconsistent execution of promotions, pricing, or regulatory compliance by distributors may negatively impact our brand image or lead to financial exposure.

Although we did not encounter any material disruption in distribution during the nine month period ended December 31, 2025 and last three Fiscals, we cannot assure that such disruptions will not arise going forward. Any failure to effectively manage, strengthen, or expand our distribution network could materially impact our revenue, market reach, working capital cycle, and overall business performance.

23. Improper handling, processing, or storage of our products or raw materials or any real or perceived contamination could result in regulatory action, product recalls, reputational harm, and adversely affect our business, financial condition, and results of operations.

Our products and raw materials, particularly those used in nutritional and therapeutic formulations, are subject to risks such as contamination, adulteration, spoilage, mislabelling, or tampering during manufacturing, handling, transportation, or storage. These risks may arise from negligence, human error, equipment failure, or external factors. For instance, ingredients like micronutrient premixes require strict temperature and hygiene controls to maintain stability and efficacy. Any deviation from the prescribed standards may compromise product quality or safety.

In order to avoid the risks such as contamination, adulteration, product labelling error and product tampering during manufacture, transport or storage of the products and raw materials, we follow the standard operating procedure such as good storage practises like separation of allergens and non-allergens materials. We also do regular audits of the suppliers’ facilities to understand the quality standards maintained at the supplier end. We also regularly perform quality testing at our Manufacturing Facilities for contaminants (pesticides, toxins, residues etc) and adulterants.

Although we maintain in-house quality checks and follow stringent food safety protocols, we cannot guarantee that such measures will always be sufficient. For instance, in August 2023, certain batches of RUTF and MNPs supplied by us were found to be contaminated with Salmonella (a pathogenic bacteria). The contamination, traced to externally sourced peanut paste, went undetected despite our checks and resulted in suspension of supplies from our Thoothukudi Facility, mandatory recalls, scrutiny, and financial exposure. While corrective actions were implemented and supplies resumed following audit clearance, the incident underscores that we cannot assure our ability to always detect such contamination in advance. Further in Fiscal 2026, an incident occurred at the Company’s Chennai facility involving an incorrect selenium dosage in the micronutrient powder (MNP) formulation. Three production batches were released with selenium levels exceeding the specified limit, which could have posed a potential health risk. Upon identification, the Company initiated the process for destruction of the affected batches and instructed the relevant customers to carry out such destruction. The Company also implemented a series of preventive measures, including system-level correction of the formulation, introduction of mandatory double-verification protocols across R&D, QA and QC functions, updates to standard operating procedures and targeted training for relevant personnel on micronutrient handling and deviation management. For further details see “Risk Factor – 4 - Sale of expired, defective, or non-compliant products, or failure to meet applicable quality standards, could expose us to significant liability, damage our reputation, and adversely affect our business, results of operations, and financial

Any actual or perceived contamination, or failure to meet customer specifications or regulatory standards, may lead to customer dissatisfaction, reputational damage, product returns, or even cancellation of contracts. Additionally, it may trigger regulatory scrutiny or lead to legal proceedings, including product liability claims, regardless of the factual validity of such allegations.

We have not faced any event which caused injury or illness, allegations that our products were mislabelled, were not produced in accordance with our customer’s specifications for which legal proceedings were initiated against our Company during the nine month period ended December 31, 2025 and past three Fiscal, we cannot assure that such events will not occur in the future. Even unfounded allegations related to quality lapses or contamination may result in adverse media attention, damage consumer trust, and disrupt sales.

Further, such incidents may lead to mandatory or voluntary product recalls, enforcement actions by regulatory bodies, or additional compliance requirements. We may also incur significant costs for remediation, legal defense, and insurance claims. While we maintain insurance coverage for product liability and related risks, there is no assurance that such coverage will be sufficient to cover all potential losses. Any such development could materially affect our reputation, sales performance, customer relationships, and overall financial and operational stability.

24. We have not entered into long-term or definitive agreements with our customers. The absence of committed contracts may lead to revenue volatility and could adversely affect our business, financial condition, and results of operations.

We have not entered into any long term or definitive agreements with our customers for premix formulations, except for RUFs, MNPs and with one customer for branded product in India and instead rely on purchase orders to govern the volume, pricing and other terms of sales of our products. These purchase orders typically govern the terms of volume, pricing, and delivery, but are often non-binding until finalisation and may be cancelled or modified without prior notice or recourse.

This reliance on transactional relationships creates a lack of forward visibility in our revenue pipeline and limits our ability to accurately forecast production schedules, raw material procurement, and working capital needs. Since our customers generally do not place firm orders far in advance, we do not maintain a significant order book at any given time. This may result in unpredictable revenue fluctuations from period to period, especially if there are shifts in customer sourcing preferences or procurement cycles.

Moreover, the customers we serve often impose stringent requirements with respect to product quality, quantity, delivery timelines, and regulatory compliance. Any failure to meet these expectations could lead to order cancellation, delayed payments, or termination of customer relationships. Additionally, various external factors beyond our control may result in the loss or reduction of business with a customer. These include changes in customer strategy (such as insourcing), supplier diversification, price renegotiation, set-offs, or shifts to alternative product offerings.

While we have not experienced any material cancellations or non-renewals of customer orders in our premix, or RUF/MNP segments, we cannot assure that we will not face such events in the future. Any significant reduction in customer demand, cancellation of purchase orders, or loss of a key customer could adversely impact our sales volumes, margins, and overall financial stability.

25. We do not own some of the premises from where we operate.

Our Company does not own certain properties from where we conduct operations, including (i) Plot No. A-7, Phase I, MEPZ-SEZ, Tambaram, Chennai, Tamil Nadu India (ii) Unit 2 14 on Golden 14 Golden Dawn Drive, La Mercy, KWA-ZULU Natal - 4405, South Africa and (iii) warehouse situated at Gut No. 270/5, Block Sector: Dindori, Road: Akrale, Nashik, Maharashtra India. These premises are either occupied by our Company under lease and rental agreements or are being used pursuant to informal arrangements without payment of rent.

The premises at Chennai SEZ and the warehouse at Nashik are subject to lease or rental arrangements for fixed durations. These agreements may not be renewed upon expiry or may be renewed on terms that are less favourable to our Company, including higher rental obligations or shorter tenure. In the event of termination or non-renewal of these agreements, we may be required to vacate the premises, which could result in relocation costs, operational disruptions, and time delays in setting up alternative facilities.

The above stated office premises located at South Africa are occupied by us under mutual understanding with the respective owners, without payment of rent and without execution of any formal lease documentation. Since these arrangements are not legally binding, they may be withdrawn by the respective owners at any time without prior notice. In such an event, our Company may be required to immediately vacate these premises, which could disrupt our overseas operations, impact local business activities, and require us to incur additional costs for securing alternate premises.

28. There are certain instances of delays in payment of statutory dues. Any delay in payment of statutory dues or non-payment of statutory dues in dispute may attract financial penalties from the respective government authorities, which may have an adverse impact on our financial condition and cash flows.

There have been certain instances of delay in the payment of statutory dues during the nine month period ended December 31, 2025 and last three Fiscals, including delays relating to employee state insurance contributions and professional tax, though such amounts have since been deposited with the relevant authorities. For example, there were isolated delays in payment of ESIC contributions and professional tax during the nine month period ended December 31, 2025 and last three Fiscals, as set out in the table below.

Fiscal	Return Type	Delayed filings

In the past, delays in payment or filing primarily arose due to routine administrative gaps, system-related issues during transition to updated return-filing utilities, dependency on third-party payroll and accounting service providers for data consolidation, and temporary internal resource constraints during peak operational periods.

We have implemented enhanced internal processes and reporting structures to ensure that all regulatory requirements are tracked, escalated, and fulfilled within the prescribed timelines. Where required, we have also engaged external consultants and legal advisors to review and validate compliance related workflows, strengthen documentation standards, and provide oversight during critical reporting cycles. These steps are intended to institutionalize accountability and reduce reliance on ad hoc or reactive approaches to compliance.

While we believe that these initiatives have significantly improved our internal compliance capabilities, there can be no assurance that future delays or lapses will not occur. Any failure to comply with applicable laws and regulatory filing requirements in a timely manner may subject us to warnings, penalties, or reputational risks, all of which could adversely affect our operations or delay future corporate actions.

29. Our ability to access capital at attractive costs depends on our credit ratings. Non-availability of credit ratings or a poor rating may restrict our access to capital and thereby adversely affect our business and results of operations.

The cost and availability of capital, amongst other factors, is also dependent on our credit ratings. As on September 2, 2025 we have been assigned with [ICRA]A- (Stable) for long term borrowing and [ICRA]A1 for short-term borrowing. The details of the credit rating obtained by us in past are as follows:

Agency	Instrument / Facility	Post Fiscal 2025	Fiscal 2025	Fiscal 2024	Fiscal 2023
ICRA	Long Term Borrowing	[ICRA]A- (Stable)	[ICRA]A- (Stable)	[ICRA]A- (Stable)	[ICRA]A- (Stable)
	Short Term Borrowing	[ICRA]A1	[ICRA]A2+	[ICRA]A2+	[ICRA]A2+

As on date, no new credit ratings have been assigned to us subsequent to September 2, 2025. Any adverse change in credit ratings assigned to our Company or our borrowing limits in the future may impact our ability to raise additional funds and/or the interest cost at which we borrow additional funds and this could have an adverse effect on our business and results of operations

30. Our Company's Directors or Promoters may enter into ventures that may lead to real or potential conflicts of interest with our business.

Our Company's Directors and Promoters may become involved in ventures that may potentially compete with our Company. The interests of such Directors and our Promoters may conflict with the interests of our other Shareholders, and such Directors or Promoters may, for business consideration or otherwise, cause the Company to take actions, or refrain from taking actions, in order to benefit their interests instead of the Company's interests or the interests of its other Shareholders.

Further, as we expand our business into new product categories, geographies, or facilities, the possibility of overlap with other businesses of our Promoters or Group Entities may increase. While our Company has entered into a non-compete agreement dated April 20, 2026 with certain members of its promoter and promoter group, namely Subhash Purushottam Kelkar, Nutan Subhash Kelkar and Aditya Kelkar, who are proposed selling shareholders in the Offer for Sale and collectively hold approximately 23.86% of the Company's fully diluted equity share capital. Under the agreement, these persons and their affiliates have agreed, for a period of 10 years from the effective date, not to engage in competing businesses, solicit the Company's employees, or use trademarks in a manner restricted under the agreement, subject to continuation of certain existing permitted business activities. While we believe our corporate governance framework and statutory obligations require our Directors to act in the best interest of the Company, there can be no assurance that all potential conflicts of interest will be avoided or resolved satisfactorily. Any such conflict could adversely affect our independence, operations, reputation, and the interests of our shareholders.

31. Inability to accurately forecast demand or manage inventory levels may adversely affect our operations, financial performance, and brand reputation.

Our ability to manage inventory effectively and forecast demand accurately is critical to the success of our operations across business segments. Demand estimates for our branded clinical and wellness nutrition products (B2C segment) are primarily based on sales trends and inputs from our field and marketing teams. For premix formulations (B2B2C segment) and Ready-to-Use Foods (RUFs) and Micronutrient Powders (MNPs) in the ESG segment, demand forecasting is based on historical experience, projected requirements, and expected tenders or orders.

However, these estimates are subject to variability due to shifting consumer preferences, seasonal changes, macroeconomic conditions, or disruptions in procurement cycles. Overestimating demand could lead to excess inventory, resulting in wastage or loss, especially for products with limited shelf life or those requiring controlled storage conditions. Conversely, underestimating demand or facing production delays due to raw material shortages or disruptions at our manufacturing facilities could lead to stockouts and missed opportunities, pushing customers toward competing products.

While we closely monitor inventory levels and employ systems to mitigate these risks, we remain exposed to losses arising from spoilage, damage, or obsolescence of stock.

Although we maintain insurance coverage to mitigate such risks, there is no assurance that future claims will be honoured in full, or that reimbursements will be timely. Any significant delay or denial in insurance settlements could further impact our working capital and profitability. Failure to efficiently manage inventory or respond to demand volatility may adversely affect our financial results, supply chain reliability, and customer satisfaction.

32. We rely on contract labour for carrying out certain of our operations and we may be held responsible for paying the wages of such workers, if the independent contractors through whom such workers are hired default on their obligations, and such obligations could have an adverse effect on our results of operations, cash flows and financial condition.

In order to retain flexibility and control costs, we appoint independent contractors who in turn engage on - site contract labour for performance of certain of our operations. As of December 31, 2025, 516 personnel are engaged labourers on a contractual basis and the cost of such personnel was ₹ 70.43 million (including Security Charges) for the nine month period ended December 31, 2025. Although we do not engage these labourers directly, we may be held responsible for any wage payments to be made to such labourers in the event of default by such independent contractor(s). Any requirement to fund their wage requirements may have an adverse impact on our results of operations and financial condition. In addition, under the Contract Labor (Regulation and Abolition) Act, 1970, we may be required to absorb a number of such contract labourers as permanent employees by the virtue of any order from a regulatory body or court. Thus, any such order from a regulatory body or court may have an adverse effect on our business, results of operations, cash flows and financial condition.

33. We have significant working capital requirements and our inability to meet such working capital requirements may have an adverse effect on our results of operations.

Our business demands significant working capital to fund the procurement of raw material, facilitate manufacturing processes, and maintain adequate inventory for timely customer deliveries. Furthermore, our working capital requirements is higher due to B2B customers, which requires offering extended credit terms. Increased working capital demands may also arise as we take on a larger volume of orders due to business growth.

Our working capital is funded through borrowings and internal accruals. For details, see “Financial Indebtedness” on page 482.

The table below presents our working capital requirement and its funding pattern for the indicated years:
(in ₹ million)

Particulars	Nine month period ended December 31, 2025	Fiscal 2025	Fiscal 2024	Fiscal 2023
Current assets	2,508.99	1,836.43	1,786.72	2,239.73
Less: Net Current liabilities	634.56	370.84	334.38	706.25
Less: Cash and Cash Equivalents	234.02	152.23	193.53	113.87
Less: Bank Balance other than Cash and Cash Equivalents	10.80	47.98	45.42	108.17
Net working capital requirements⁽¹⁾ (A)	1,629.61	1,265.38	1,213.39	1,311.44
Short term borrowings from banks (B)	291.33	155.80	265.35	456.50
Internal accruals and equity (A-B)	1,338.28	1,109.58	948.04	854.94

⁽²⁾ Net Current Liabilities excludes Short term borrowings less Current maturities of Long term borrowings.

We typically rely on internal accruals as well as credit facilities with banks to provide for our working capital arrangements. During the nine-month period ended December 31, 2025, Fiscal 2025, Fiscal 2024, Fiscal 2023, our days working capital was up to 149 days, 140 days, 139 days and 139 days respectively. Working capital days represent the number of days of revenue from operations funded through working capital, calculated by relating working capital to revenue from operations and expressing it in days. As we pursue our growth plan, we may be required to raise additional funds by incurring further indebtedness or issuing additional equity to meet our working capital requirements in the future. Any increase in debt financing could increase our interest costs and require us to comply with additional restrictive covenants in our financing agreements.

Additional equity financing could dilute our earnings per Equity Share and your interest in the Company and could adversely impact our Equity Share price. There can be no assurance that we will generate sufficient cash flows or be able to borrow funds in a timely basis, or at all, to meet our working capital and other requirements, or to pay our debt, which could materially and adversely affect our business and results of operations.

34. Certain of our business transactions are entered into with government or government-funded entities in India and overseas and any change in the government policies, practices or focus may adversely affect our business, cash flows and results of operations

Certain of our business transactions, particularly those under our ESG segment, including Ready-to-Use Therapeutic Foods (RUTF), micronutrient powders (MNPs), and other premix formulations, are dependent on contracts governmental authorities, medical associations and other entities funded by governments or governmental authorities in the domestic as well as overseas market.

These engagements subject us to several inherent risks. Changes in government leadership, funding priorities, or public health policy in India or countries where we operate may result in delays, reductions, or cancellations of procurement programs.

Government contracts are often project-based and do not offer long-term revenue visibility, making our sales from this segment inherently unpredictable. In many cases, these contracts contain termination for convenience clauses, allowing the government or funding entity to exit the engagement at short notice without obligation to compensate us for the loss of future revenue.

Furthermore, bidding cycles for public tenders can be lengthy and subject to regulatory scrutiny, impacting order flow and execution timelines. In the international context, changes in donor focus, geopolitical developments, or foreign exchange fluctuations may disrupt funding flows or delay project approvals. Although we have not experienced material contract cancellations or disruptions in the nine month period ended December 31, 2025 and past three Fiscals, we cannot assure that future contracts will be renewed or that new ones will be awarded. Any interruption or termination of such contracts may adversely affect our revenue, working capital, and overall business performance.

35. We rely on third-party transportation providers for inbound raw materials and outbound finished goods, and any disruption or inefficiency in such logistics arrangements may adversely affect our business, financial condition, results of operations, and cash flows.

We are dependent on third-party logistics and transportation providers for (i) the movement of inputs from our suppliers to our Manufacturing Facilities, and (ii) the delivery of our products to our customers in India and outside India. Any delay, disruption, or inefficiency in the logistics network may impair our ability to maintain smooth operations or timely order fulfilment.

Delays in transportation can arise from multiple external factors including labor strikes, fuel price volatility, adverse weather, road blockages, natural disasters, public health emergencies (such as the COVID-19 pandemic), and regulatory changes affecting freight movement. Additionally, products and raw materials in transit may be exposed to risks such as theft, mishandling, damage, or loss, which could result in quality degradation or shortfall in quantity at destination.

While we have not faced any material disruptions in transportation during the nine month period ended December 31, 2025 and past three Fiscals, we cannot assure you that such incidents will not occur in the future. Any delay or non-delivery of raw materials may impact our production schedules, while delays in customer deliveries could affect our reputation and customer retention. Furthermore, compensation from transporters or insurers may not always be adequate to cover associated losses.

The table below sets forth our transportation cost as a percentage of our revenue from operations for the years/period indicated:

Particulars	(₹ in million)
	Nine month period ended December 31, 2025		Fiscal 2025		Fiscal 2024		Fiscal 2023
	Amount	% of Revenue from Operations	Amount	% of Revenue from Operations	Amount	% of Revenue from Operations	Amount	% of Revenue from Operations
Freight & Forwarding Charges (Net)	139.80	5.22	110.00	3.39	83.16	2.79	99.16	3.56

We could be required to expend considerable resources in addressing our transportation requirements, including by way of absorbing any excess charges to maintain our selling price, which could adversely affect our results of operations, or passing these charges on to our customers, which could adversely affect demand for our products.

36. We face competition in relation to our offerings, including from competitors that may have greater financial and marketing resources. Failure to compete effectively may have an adverse impact on our business, financial condition, results of operations and prospects.

As per the CARE Report, the wellness industry in India is exposed to a number of structural and operational challenges. These challenges, if not addressed, may adversely affect the growth, consumer adoption, and overall performance of companies in this sector, including ours. Key challenges include:

- Regulatory Gaps and Lack of Standardisation

The Indian wellness industry operates under a fragmented and often ambiguous regulatory environment. Overlapping jurisdictions of bodies such as the Food Safety and Standards Authority of India (FSSAI), the Ministry of AYUSH, and the Central Drugs Standard Control Organisation (CDSCO) have led to uncertainty in classification of products as either food, nutraceutical, or drug. This lack of clarity makes compliance complex for manufacturers, delays product launches, and raises the risk of regulatory scrutiny or penalties. Furthermore, the absence of harmonised standards for labelling, permissible health claims, and safety testing creates inconsistency in product quality and consumer trust. Companies operating in the sector must devote substantial resources to compliance, while still facing the possibility of regulatory action due to interpretation gaps.

- Affordability and Price Sensitivity

The wellness industry in India remains heavily influenced by affordability and price sensitivity. While urban, higher-income consumers are adopting premium wellness products such as organic supplements, fortified foods, and imported nutraceuticals, a significant portion of the population in Tier-III towns and rural areas considers such products unaffordable. High pricing acts as a barrier to mass adoption, limiting the industry's ability to penetrate beyond affluent segments. In addition, with discretionary spending often affected by inflationary pressures or economic downturns, demand for wellness products may decline when consumers prioritise essential household expenses over health supplements.

- Low Awareness Beyond Urban Markets

Consumer awareness of wellness products remains largely concentrated in metros and Tier-I cities. In smaller towns and rural areas, consumers often lack knowledge of preventive healthcare benefits or confuse wellness products with pharmaceutical drugs, leading to hesitation in consumption. This low awareness restricts demand growth in non-urban markets, which represent a large share of India's population. Without sustained education and advocacy by healthcare professionals, the expansion of wellness products into these regions may remain limited, thereby constraining the overall market potential.

- Distribution and Infrastructure Limitations

The success of wellness products, particularly those that are perishable or require temperature-controlled handling, depends on robust logistics and distribution networks. In India, the cold-chain infrastructure remains inadequate, particularly outside Tier-I cities. This limits the ability to distribute products efficiently to Tier-II, Tier-III, and rural regions. Furthermore, offline retail penetration for wellness products is still limited in semi-urban and rural India, while e-commerce adoption, though rising, remains uneven. These infrastructural challenges affect last-mile delivery efficiency, increase costs, and restrict timely access to products.

- Lack of Clinical Backing for Products

Many wellness products, particularly in the dietary supplements and herbal formulations segment, lack robust clinical evidence or research-based efficacy claims. While anecdotal or traditional knowledge may support their use, absence of published scientific validation undermines consumer trust, especially among educated and urban populations who demand evidence-backed claims. This credibility gap not only limits market adoption but also exposes companies to reputational risks if efficacy claims are challenged by regulators, consumer groups, or competitors.

- Counterfeit and Unregulated Products

The wellness industry in India has witnessed the proliferation of counterfeit, spurious, or unregulated products, particularly in the online retail space. Such products are often sold without appropriate certifications, quality checks, or safety standards, posing risks to consumer health. The presence of counterfeit goods in the market also dilutes consumer confidence in legitimate brands and creates reputational risks for compliant manufacturers.

Intense Competition and Low Entry Barriers (Additional Risk) The wellness sector is characterised by a large number of domestic and international players, as well as start-ups, owing to relatively low entry barriers in certain product categories. This leads to intense price competition, frequent product launches, and aggressive marketing campaigns. New entrants, particularly those leveraging direct-to-consumer models and digital platforms, may capture market share quickly, intensifying competitive pressures. Sustaining differentiation in such an environment requires continuous investments in branding, innovation, and distribution.

- Dependence on Imported Ingredients

Several wellness products, particularly those containing specialised vitamins, amino acids, or botanical extracts, rely on imported raw materials. This creates dependence on international supply chains and exposure to risks such as currency fluctuations, import restrictions, or supply shortages due to geopolitical events. Any disruption in sourcing may affect product availability, increase input costs, and impact profitability.

- Changing Consumer Preferences and Trends

The wellness industry is highly consumer-driven, with preferences influenced by lifestyle trends, social media, and shifting perceptions of health. Rapid changes in consumer demand, such as preference for plant-based, “clean label,” or sustainable products, require companies to adapt quickly. Failure to anticipate or respond to these evolving trends may result in product obsolescence or loss of market relevance.

Given the above threats and challenges, there can be no assurance that our business will not be adversely impacted by these industry-wide risks, which may materially affect our operations, financial condition, and results of operations

37. We may not be able to correctly assess the demand for our products, which may adversely affect our business, financial condition, cash flows and results of operations.

Our production and distribution processes require us to anticipate the demand for our products based on the feedback received from our own marketing personnel, distributors and partners. We estimate our production volumes based on customer dialogue, purchase orders, historical production volumes by our customers, our experience and general economic and market conditions. However, the demand for our products need not necessarily develop in line with our estimates. Therefore, there can be no assurance that we will be able to plan our production schedules to meet the actual requirements.

In addition, regardless of the accuracy of such indicators, factors outside our control may require revision of our estimates. If we over-estimate the volume of products we expect to sell, we will have excess production capacity which may reduce operational efficiency and the margins on the products sold. If we underestimate the volume of products, we need to produce at any of our manufacturing facilities or fail to order a sufficient volume of supplies and input materials from our third-party suppliers, we may be unable to meet customer orders, which may affect our reputation or lead to a discontinuation of future orders from customers which could have a material adverse effect on our business, financial condition and results of operations.

38. If we fail to keep pace with the rapid changes in the industry and market, it will result in a decline in demand for our products and revenues.

The health and nutrition industry is dynamic and marked by continual shifts in consumer behaviour, rapid innovation, and the constant introduction of new products. Demand for our offerings is influenced not only by demographic trends, lifestyle shifts, and macroeconomic factors such as disposable income, but also by evolving customer expectations around health, wellness, and functional food solutions. In recent years, there has been a growing consumer preference for products that align with active lifestyles, personalized nutrition, clean labels, and preventive healthcare.

Our ability to sustain growth depends on how effectively we anticipate these trends and translate them into differentiated, accessible, and relevant products. Any delay in responding to market movements, or failure to accurately identify consumer preferences, may lead to product obsolescence or reduced competitiveness, adversely affecting our market share and revenues.

To strengthen our presence in the emerging wellness and lifestyle nutrition category, we launched our new brand, “NUTRONE”, during Fiscal 2024 and a total nine products in the nine month period ended December 31, 2025 and past three Fiscals. The “NUTRONE” brand caters to nutrition for men, women and healthy ageing. However, despite the strategic positioning and product development efforts, the commercial success of “NUTRONE” and other new formulations will ultimately depend on consumer acceptance and market response.

New product launches inherently carry execution and adoption risks. If “NUTRONE” or any of our other recently introduced or pipeline products fail to gain sufficient traction, we may be required to scale back investments or discontinue certain SKUs, despite having invested significant time and resources into their development. Such outcomes could negatively impact our brand equity, divert marketing and operational bandwidth, and dilute our financial performance.

39. Our failure to protect confidential information like our product recipes, formulations, pricing or launch information could adversely affect our competitive position.

We intend to keep the recipes and formulations of our products confidential. We also keep information in relation to our proposed pricing of any new product, any proposed variation in price or launch of any new product confidential. Any failure to protect such confidential information due to leakage of information may impact our competitive position in our product segment. The appointment letters issued to our employees who use our recipes to manufacture our products require that all information made known to them be kept strictly confidential. Although we attempt to protect our trade secrets, the appointment letters may not effectively prevent disclosure of our proprietary information and may not provide any adequate remedy in the event of unauthorised disclosure of such information to our competitors. Consequently, such events may adversely affect our competitive position.

Although we have not experienced any unauthorised disclosure or misuse of our confidential information, including our product recipes, formulations, pricing strategies or launch-related information during nine month period ended December 31, 2025 and last three Fiscals, there can be no assurance that such events will not occur in the future.

40. If we are unable to protect our intellectual property and technical know-how against third party infringement or breaches of confidentiality or are found to infringe on the intellectual property rights of others, it could have a material adverse effect on our business, results of operations and financial condition.

We have 53 registered trademarks (including device and word marks) under Classes 1, 5, 16, 30, 32, 35, and 45 of the Trademarks Act, 1999. Further, we have secured 11 international trademark registrations under the World Intellectual Property Organization (WIPO), covering jurisdictions including Brazil, Chile, Colombia, Costa Rica, Peru and Malaysia. We have also entered into a trademark license agreement with Ped-Med Limited, Canada, for the use of the ‘Sprinkles’ brand in India, pertaining to a microencapsulated iron and Vitamin A supplement in the form of micronutrient powders (MNPs). For details, see “Our Business – Intellectual Property” on page 269 and “Government and Other Approvals- Intellectual Property” on page 549.

We believe that our success depends on our ability to protect our intellectual property, which includes certain patented processes. We may not be able to prevent competitors from developing, using or commercializing products that are functionally equivalent or similar to our products since a significant portion of our processes and products are not patented. We cannot guarantee that each application filed with respect to our brand names or any new products or innovations will be approved. We cannot assure you that patents issued to us in the future will not be challenged or circumvented by competitors or that such patents will be found to be valid or sufficiently broad to protect our processes or to provide us with any competitive advantage. We may be required to negotiate licenses for patents from third parties to conduct our business, which may not be available on reasonable terms or at all.

Further, we may not always be able to safeguard our intellectual property from infringement or passing off and may not be able to respond to infringement or passing off activity occurring without our knowledge. We also rely on technical knowledge, product information, industry data, manufacturing expertise and market “know-how” that cannot be registered and is not subject to any confidentiality or nondisclosure clauses or agreements. While we have not experienced any instances of any adverse observations with respect to intellectual property rights due to which manufacture and sale of such products was restricted or prohibited, and we paid substantial damages. Further, there have been no such instances resulting in an inability to renew registration of certain trademarks in the nine month period ended December 31, 2025 and past three Fiscals which have had adversely affected our business, financial condition, results of operations and cash flows. In the event we are unable to adequately protect our confidential technical or proprietary information any advantage we may have over our competitors could be compromised.

We may face claims that we are infringing the intellectual property rights of third parties. If we are subject to any adverse rulings or decisions, our manufacture and sale of such products could be significantly restricted or prohibited and we may be required to pay substantial damages or on-going licensing fees. If we are unable to protect our intellectual property and technical know-how against third party infringement or breaches of confidentiality or are found to infringe on the intellectual property rights of others, it could have a material adverse effect on our business, results of operations and financial condition.

41. Restrictions imposed in the secured credit facilities and our other outstanding indebtedness may limit our ability to operate our business and to finance our future operations or capital needs.

As of March 31, 2026, our total outstanding borrowings on a consolidated basis (including non-fund-based facilities availed by our Company) was ₹ 223.55 million. For details, see “Financial Indebtedness” on page 482. Our indebtedness could have several important consequences, including but not limited to the following:

- a portion of our cash flow will be used towards repayment of our existing debt, which will reduce the availability of cash to fund working capital needs, capital expenditures, acquisitions and other general corporate requirements;
- our ability to obtain additional financing in the future or renegotiate or refinance our existing indebtedness on terms favourable to us may be limited
- our ability to obtain additional financing in the future at reasonable terms may be restricted;
- fluctuations in market interest rates may affect the cost of our borrowings, as some of our loans are at variable interest rates; and
- we may be more vulnerable to economic downturns, may be limited in our ability to withstand competitive pressures and may have reduced flexibility in responding to changing business, regulator and economic conditions.

Our financing agreements governing our borrowings include conditions and restrictive covenants that require us to obtain consents, no-objections or waivers from lenders prior to carrying out specified activities or entering into certain transactions. Such restrictive covenants, among other things, require our Company to obtain the approval of the relevant lender for inter alia change in capital structure, ownership, management, control or beneficial ownership, effecting any scheme of amalgamation or reconstitution, alteration to the constitutional documents of the Company, restructuring or changing the management, changing our shareholding pattern. While we have obtained necessary consents from our lenders as required under our loan/financing documentation, for undertaking the Offer and related actions, we cannot assure you that we will be able to obtain such approvals in the future to undertake such activities as and when required or to comply with such covenants or other covenants in the future.

Further, these debt obligations are typically secured by a combination of security interests. We are required to create charge over our present and future current assets and certain of our movable and immovable fixed assets and furnish guarantees from certain members of our Promoters and Promoter Group. The security allows our lenders to inter-alia sell the relevant assets in the event of our default. Further, our financing agreements also stipulate inter alia financial covenants required to be maintained by us during the duration of the facilities. There can be no assurance that our lenders will not enforce the event of default clauses forming part of our borrowing arrangements and recall the loans and/or facilities advanced to us in the future. Further, a majority of our outstanding indebtedness have floating rates of interest. Any fluctuations in the interest rates may directly impact the interest costs of such loans and could adversely affect our financial condition.

Any failure to service our indebtedness, perform any condition or covenant or comply with the restrictive covenants could lead to a termination of one or more of our credit facilities, default, acceleration of amounts due under such facilities and cross-defaults under certain of our other financing agreements, any of which may adversely affect our ability to conduct our business and have a material adverse effect on our financial condition and results of operations.

42. Our insurance coverage may not be sufficient or adequate to protect us against all material hazards, which may adversely affect our business, results of operations, financial condition and cash flows.

Our operations are subject to various risks including defects, malfunctions and failures of manufacturing equipment, fire, riots, strikes, explosions, loss-in-transit for our products, accidents and natural disasters. Our insurance may not be adequate to completely cover any or all of our risks and liabilities. While we believe that the insurance coverage which we maintain is in keeping with industry standards and would be reasonably adequate to cover the normal risks associated with the operation of our businesses, we cannot assure you that any claim under the insurance policies maintained by us will be honoured fully, in part or on time, or that we have taken out sufficient insurance to cover all our losses.

We maintain insurance policies for our manufacturing facilities, offices, buildings, machinery, equipment, products, marine cargo or transport, interruption and damage due to fire. We typically maintain fire, burglary and marine cargo policies for our fixed assets and stock of warehouses, to cover risks such as fire and other ancillary perils. We also cover export credit sales through our ECGC policy. We have also obtained contamination and product liability insurance coverage for claims arising in relation to our products.

The table below provides details of our insurance cover for the years / period indicated:

Percentage of Insured Assets as on December 31, 2025:

Particulars	Remarks	Amount (in ₹)	% of total Assets (in %)	Percentage of insurance coverage (in %)
Insured Assets	Including Property, Plant and Equipment and Inventories	1,496.25	46.45	150.37
Uninsured Assets	Excluding Intangible assets, under development, Right of use Assets and Deferred tax Assets.	1,725.19	53.55	-
Net Total Assets		3,221.44	100.00

Period	Book value of Net Total assets* (in ₹ million)	Insurance Coverage (in ₹ million)	Percentage of insurance coverage to net value of assets (in %)
As at and for the nine month period ended December 31, 2025	3,221.44	2249.98	69.84
As at the financial year ended March 31, 2025	2,558.26	1,939.78	75.82

Period	Book value of Net Total assets* (in ₹ million)	Insurance Coverage (in ₹ million)	Percentage of insurance coverage to net value of assets (in %)
As at the financial year ended March 31, 2024	2,460.55	1,783.55	72.49
As at the financial year ended March 31, 2023	2,839.89	1,777.39	62.59

* Net Total assets refers to the sum of Insured and Uninsured Assets.

Further, our insurance coverage is subject to periodic renewal. While we apply for renewals in the ordinary course of business and have not faced material instances of non-renewal or claim rejection during the nine month period ended December 31, 2025 and last three Fiscals, there can be no assurance that such renewals will always be granted in a timely manner, on acceptable terms, or at all.

In the event that we suffer a loss or damage for which we do not have insurance coverage, or where the loss exceeds the sum insured, or where our insurance claims are rejected, such losses would have to be borne by us directly. We have not experienced any instances wherein the claims have exceeded the insurance coverage for any of the nine month period ended December 31, 2025, and past three Fiscals. The occurrence of such events could materially and adversely affect our business, financial condition, cash flows, and results of operations.

43. We may not be able to implement our business strategies or sustain and manage our growth.

Our growth strategy includes expanding our existing businesses as well as strengthening our market presence in new geographies in India. For further details, see “Business – Our Key Strategies” on page 284. Success in expanding our business or entering into new geographies will depend on various internal and external factors, many of which are beyond our control.

Our success will depend, in large part, on our ability to effectively implement our business and growth strategies. We cannot assure you that we will be able to execute our strategies in a timely manner or within budget estimates or that we will meet the expectations of our customers and other stakeholders. We believe that our business and growth strategies will place significant demands on our senior management and other resources and will require us to develop and improve operational, financial and other internal controls. Further, our business and growth strategies may require us to incur further indebtedness. Any inability to manage our business and growth strategies could adversely affect our business, financial condition and results of operations.

44. The attrition rate of our employees for the nine month period ended December 31, 2025, Fiscal 2025, Fiscal 2024 and Fiscal 2023 was 23.48%, 34.48%, 35.73% and 62.54%, respectively. High or increased attrition rate among our workforce could adversely affect our operational efficiency and business performance.

As of December 31, 2025, our workforce comprised 505 permanent employees on our pay roll. Our employee benefits expense comprising payments made to all the personnel on our payroll and engaged in our operations (apart from contract labour), for the nine month period ended December 31, 2025, Fiscals 2025, 2024 and 2023 is stated below:

45. Our manufacturing facilities in Chennai and Thoothukudi have been established on a land in special economic zone which is allotted to us on a leasehold basis. Failure to comply with the conditions of use of such land could result in an adverse impact on our business and financial condition.

Our manufacturing facilities at Chennai and Thoothukudi, have been established on a land in special economic zone which is allotted to for a period of 5 years i.e valid till December 03, 2029 and 97 i.e. valid till April 8, 2111, respectively from Madras Export Processing Zone, Chennai and CCCL Pearl City Food Port SEZ Ltd, Thoothukudi, respectively. Under the terms of the lease deed entered between Madras Export Processing Zone, Chennai and CCCL Pearl City Food Port SEZ Ltd, Thoothukudi and our Company, we are required to comply with certain ongoing conditions. If we fail to meet any such conditions, we may be required to incur liability. Cancellation of the lease deed due to, among other things, non-compliance of the conditions of the lease deed and allotment letter could have an impact on our financial condition, which could adversely impact our results of operations and financial condition.

While we have not experienced any breach or notice of non-compliance in the nine month period ended December 31, 2025 and past three Fiscals, any future failure to meet these conditions, whether due to operational lapses, regulatory changes or other unforeseen factors, may result in penalties, additional liabilities or cancellation of the relevant lease. Any such action may disrupt our manufacturing operations at these facilities and could materially and adversely affect our business, results of operations and financial condition.

46. We had negative cash flows from operations in the past, and may continue to do so in the near term as we expand our business and enhance our products and services. Failure to generate sufficient cash from operations could adversely affect our liquidity and our ability to fund our operations.

The table below summarizes the statement of cash flows, as per our Restated Consolidated Financial Information of cash flows for the periods indicated:

				(₹ in million)
Particulars				Nine month period ended December 31, 2025	For the year ended March 31, 2025	For the year ended March 31, 2024	For the year ended March 31, 2023
Net Cash from Operating Activities				(40.70)	377.94	233.80	(0.01)
Net Cash from Investing Activities				19.52	(226.85)	37.13	(187.04)
Net Cash used in Financing Activities				102.97	(192.39)	(191.27)	69.86
Net increase/ (decrease) in cash and cash equivalents				81.79	(41.30)	79.66	(117.19)
Cash and Cash Equivalents at the beginning of the period				152.23	193.53	113.87	231.06
Cash and Cash Equivalents at the end of the period				234.02	152.23	193.53	113.87

For the nine months period ended December 31, 2025, the operating cashflow of the Company was negative due to increase in trade receivables and inventories which tied up the cashflow of the Company. In Fiscal 2023, our negative operating cashflow was mainly due to one time IPO expenses which in turn reduced the PAT of the Company and the higher trade receivables and inventories during that period. The negative cashflow from investing activities in Fiscal 2025 & Fiscal 2023 was mainly due to purchase of property plant & equipment, investment in mutual fund and Fixed Deposit by the Company. The negative cashflow from financing activities in Fiscal 2025 & 2024 were due to the repayment of borrowings done by the Company and the Payment of Dividend made by the Company in Fiscal 2025.

Cash flow of a company is a key indicator to show the extent of cash generated from operations to meet its capital expenditure, pay dividends, repay loans, meet enhanced working capital requirements and make new investments without raising finance from external resources. If we are not able to generate sufficient cash flow, it may adversely affect our business and financial operations.

For further details on our cash flows, see “Management’s Discussion and Analysis of Financial Condition and Results of Operations—Cash Flows” and “Restated Consolidated Financial Information” on pages 510 and 403, respectively. While we believe that our cash flow from operations will be adequate to meet our future liquidity needs, we have substantial working capital requirements. There can be no assurance that our business will generate sufficient cash flow from operations such that our anticipated revenue growth will be realised, or that future borrowings will be available to us under credit facilities in amounts sufficient to enable us to fund our expansion efforts or fund our other liquidity needs. If we do not generate sufficient cash flow from operations to service our working capital requirements, it may have an adverse effect on our business prospects, financial condition and results of operations.

47. Our Subsidiaries have incurred losses in the past and may continue to incur losses in the future. We may be required to continue providing financial support to these subsidiaries which may adversely affect our consolidated results of operations and financial condition.

The table below represents the profits/(losses) of our Subsidiaries for the periods indicated:

(₹ in million)

Name of the Subsidiaries	Nine month period ended December 31, 2025	Fiscal 2025	Fiscal 2024	Fiscal 2023
Hexagon Nutrition Proprietary Limited	11.41	0.81	(10.54)	(16.21)
Hexagon Nutrition China Limited	2.50	12.21	(8.39)	24.52
Hexagon Nutrition Limited Liability Company	9.91	(32.15)	(52.01)	6.58

Note: The above mentioned Profit/(Loss) is on standalone basis of each foreign subsidiary. The above profit/(Loss) statement is inclusive of intercompany transaction which gets eliminated on consolidated financials.

Such losses have incurred losses in previous fiscal periods due to factors including the scale of their operations, ramp-up phases, market conditions, and the nature of their business activities. There can be no assurance that these Subsidiaries will achieve profitability within expected timelines or that their operating performance will not deteriorate further. If these Subsidiaries continue to generate operating losses or face liquidity constraints, we may be required to extend additional financial support, which may include equity infusion, inter-corporate loans, advances, guarantees, or other forms of funding to sustain their operations or meet regulatory, contractual, or working capital requirements.

Any such financial support may reduce funds available for our other business needs and may adversely affect our consolidated cash flows, results of operations, and overall financial condition. Continued underperformance by these Subsidiaries may also require us to recognise impairment losses or other accounting provisions on our investments or exposures, which could further impact our profitability. In addition, if these Subsidiaries are unable to achieve scale or operational stability, their ongoing losses and our associated support obligations may adversely affect our long-term strategic objectives and the value of our equity shares.

48. Our profitability, including PAT margins and returns on capital employed, has improved in recent years; however, such performance may not be sustained and is dependent on several factors that may materially and adversely affect our financial results.

Over Fiscals 2023–2025, our profitability improved, with Profit After Tax (“PAT”) margins increasing from 2.07% in Fiscal 2023 to 4.01% in Fiscal 2024 to 7.36% in Fiscal 2025 and 9.81% for the nine-month period ended December 31, 2025. Our Return on Capital Employed (“RoCE”) similarly improved from 5.94% in Fiscal 2023 to 11.12% in Fiscal 2024 to 17.06% in Fiscal 2025 and 14.82% for the nine-month period ended December 31, 2025.

These improvements were primarily driven by favourable product mix, higher revenue from value-added and ESG categories, improved gross margins, higher capacity utilisation, reduction in employee costs as a percentage of revenue, operational efficiencies, and the absence of one-time IPO-related expenses incurred in Fiscal 2023. In Fiscal 2025, gross margins improved due to more efficient procurement, better raw material planning, increased contribution from higher-margin product categories (including customised premix, branded disease and wellness products, and RUSF), and improved absorption of fixed overheads.

However, there can be no assurance that these trends will continue. Our profitability and returns are subject to several variables, many of which are beyond our control, including: fluctuations in raw material prices and availability (particularly imported inputs); changes in product mix or demand for high-margin categories; foreign exchange volatility; dependence on institutional and ESG order flows, which may vary significantly between years; labour cost increases; changes in utilisation levels at our manufacturing facilities; and the possibility that one-time or exceptional income items (including forex gains or investment income) may not recur.

Further, our RoCE is sensitive to both profitability and the quantum of capital employed. Any increase in capital expenditure, including reconstruction at the Nashik Facility, as well as higher working capital, increased borrowings, or decline in operating margins may adversely affect returns. In addition, any deterioration in gross margins, inability to maintain current procurement efficiency, delays in capacity ramp-up, or increase in operating expenses may negatively impact our PAT margin. For details relating to reconstruction at the Nashik Facility, please see Risk Factor 3 "Reconstruction of a portion of our Nashik Facility pursuant to past regulatory actions may lead to temporary production disruptions, operational inefficiencies, and potential revenue impact" on page 35 of the RHP

Accordingly, our historical PAT, gross margin and RoCE performance may not be indicative of our future results. Any adverse movement in these factors may materially and adversely affect our profitability, cash flows, financial condition, and overall business performance.

49. The Company had previously filed draft offer documents with the regulatory authorities; however, the proposed issue at that time Withdrawal of Previously Filed Draft Offer Documents Upon Expiry of Regulatory Validity.

The Company had previously filed draft offer documents with the regulatory authorities in connection with a proposed fund-raising initiative. However, the regulatory validity period for proceeding with the issuance expired before the Company could undertake the next steps of the IPO process. As a result, the proposed issuance could not be pursued within the prescribed regulatory timelines.

Consequently, the IPO plan was deferred, and in accordance with the applicable regulatory procedure, the earlier draft offer documents came to be classified as “withdrawn” upon expiry of the validity period. This was purely a procedural outcome arising from the lapse of the regulatory timeline.

The decision not to proceed further with the earlier IPO was based on the Company’s internal assessment of market conditions and timing considerations prevailing at that time, and not due to any refusal, objection, or adverse action by any regulatory authority. The withdrawal was therefore a voluntary, prudent business decision aligned with the Company’s strategic and financial priorities.

This matter is disclosed only as part of the regulatory history and has no bearing on the Company’s eligibility for the present Offer.

50. Our Company was incorporated in 1993 and certain documents filed by us with the RoC and certain corporate records and other documents, are not traceable. We cannot assure you that such forms or records will be available at all or any time in the future.

The secretarial records for certain past allotments of Equity Shares made by our Company and change in registered office of the Company could not be traced as the relevant information was not available in the records maintained by our Company, at the MCA Portal maintained by the Ministry of Corporate Affairs and the RoC, despite conducting internal searches and engaging an independent practicing company secretary to conduct the search. These allotments include allotment of (i) 51,300 equity shares of ₹ 10 each on June, 01, 1993; (ii) 15,000 equity shares of ₹ 10 each on March 31, 2000 for which the relevant forms were not traceable. Certain forms filed for change in registered office with the RoC were not traceable. Additionally, we have not been able to trace certain documents including resolutions of our board of directors and shareholders prior to 2012.

While certain information in relation to the allotments and transfers have been disclosed in the section “Capital Structure” beginning on page 138 and in relation to change in registered office have been disclosed in the Section “History and Certain Corporate Matters” beginning on page 347, in this Red Herring Prospectus, based on annual reports of our Company, annual returns, board resolutions and other corporate records of our Company, as available and based upon the allotment details and change in registered office provided in the search report prepared by M/s. Anu Malhotra and Associates, independent practicing company secretary, and certified by their certificate dated May 7, 2026, we may not be able to furnish any further information, other than what is already disclosed in “Capital Structure” beginning on page 138, or assure that the other records will be available in the future. Our Company has sent an intimation to the Registrar of Companies, on September 13, 2025, regarding such untraceable forms and if we could be provided copies of the same.

While no legal proceedings or regulatory action has been initiated against our Company in relation to untraceable secretarial and other corporate records and documents as of the date of this Red Herring

Prospectus, we cannot assure you that such legal proceedings or regulatory actions will not be initiated against our Company in future

51. Shortage or unavailability of electricity or fuel could affect our manufacturing operations and may have an adverse effect on our business, results of operations and financial condition.

Shortage or unavailability of electricity or fuel could affect our manufacturing operations and may have an adverse effect on our business, results of operations and financial condition. We source power from local utilities. In nine month period ended December 31, 2025 and Fiscal 2025, 2024 and 2023, our power and fuel expenses were ₹ 30.87 million, ₹ 35.85 million, ₹ 31.40 million and ₹ 26.17 million, respectively.

Any shortage or non-availability of electricity, failure of the state electricity grid, or fuel supply disruptions could impact our ability to operate our Manufacturing Facilities efficiently. Such disruptions may delay production, impact fulfilment timelines to customers, and result in increased operational costs.

While we have not experienced any material disruptions in the supply of power or fuel during the nine month period ended December 31, 2025 and past three Fiscals, there can be no assurance that such issues will not arise in the future. Any significant disruption in utility supply may have an adverse effect on our manufacturing capabilities, customer satisfaction, and ultimately, our business, financial condition, and results of operations.

52. Some of our Promoters and Promoter Group individuals have provided personal guarantees as security for certain facilities availed by our Company and our subsidiaries. If these guarantees are revoked, we may be unable to procure alternative guarantees satisfactory to our lenders, which may adversely affect our business, results of operations, cash flows and financial condition.

Our Promoters, Arun Purushottam Kelkar, Subhash Purushottam Kelkar, Vikram Arun Kelkar, Nikhil Arun Kelkar, and Aditya Subhash Kelkar have provided personal guarantees as security for certain facilities availed by our Company and subsidiaries. If any of the above mentioned guarantees are revoked, our lenders may require alternative guarantees or cancel such facilities, entailing repayment of amounts outstanding under such facilities. If we are unable to procure alternative guarantees satisfactory to our lenders, we may need to seek alternative sources of capital, which may not be available to us at commercially reasonable terms or at all, or to agree to more onerous terms under our financing agreements, which may limit our operational flexibility. Accordingly, our business, results of operations, cash flows and financial condition may be adversely affected by the revocation of all or any of the guarantees provided by our Promoters and Promoter Group, in connection with our Company's borrowing. For details, see "Financial Indebtedness" on page 482.

53. If we are unable to maintain an effective system of internal controls, we may not be able to successfully manage or accurately report, our financial risks.

Effective internal controls are necessary for us to manage our operations, prepare reliable financial reports and effectively avoid fraud. Moreover, any internal controls that we may implement, or our level of compliance with such controls, may deteriorate over time, due to evolving business conditions. There can be no assurance that deficiencies in our internal controls will not arise in the future, or that we will be able to implement, and continue to maintain, adequate measures to rectify or mitigate any such deficiencies in our internal controls. Any inability on our part to adequately detect, rectify or mitigate any such deficiencies in our internal controls may adversely impact our ability to accurately report, or successfully manage, our financial risks, and to avoid fraud.

While no material deficiencies in our internal controls have been identified in the nine month period ended December 31, 2025 and past three Fiscals, there can be no assurance that weaknesses will not emerge in the future as our business grows and evolves. Any failure to maintain effective internal controls in the future may impair our ability to accurately report financial information, manage risks, or prevent fraud, which could adversely affect our business and financial performance.

54. We currently rely extensively on our systems including information technology systems and products processing/quality assurance systems and their failure could adversely affect our manufacturing operations.

We rely extensively on the capacity and reliability of the information technology systems, processing and quality assurance systems that support our operations. The size and complexity of our computer systems make them potentially vulnerable to breakdown, malicious intrusion and computer viruses. To date, although we have not experienced a major disruption in our manufacturing operations due to failure of such systems, we cannot assure you that we will not encounter disruptions in the future, and any such disruption may adversely affect our business. Any such disruption may result in the loss of key information and disruption of production and business processes, which could adversely affect our business, financial condition, results of operations and cash flows. In addition, our systems are potentially vulnerable to data security breaches, whether by employees or others that may expose sensitive data to unauthorised persons. Such data security breaches could lead to the loss of trade secrets or other intellectual property or could lead to the public exposure of personal information (including sensitive personal information) of our employees, customers and others. Any such security breaches could have an adverse effect on our reputation, business, financial condition and results of operations.

While we have not experienced any significant disruption to our information technology, processing or quality assurance systems in the nine month period ended December 31, 2025 and past three Fiscals, there can be no assurance that such disruptions will not occur in the future. Any failure, breakdown, malware attack, intrusion, or data security breach affecting these systems could interrupt our manufacturing activities, compromise sensitive data, and adversely affect our business, financial condition, results of operations and cash flows.

56. Certain Promoters, Directors and Key Managerial Personnel are interested in the Company's performance in addition to their remuneration and reimbursement of expenses.

Certain of our Promoters, Directors and Key Managerial Personnel are interested in our Company, in addition to regular remuneration or benefits and reimbursement of expenses and such interests are to the extent of their shareholding in our Company as well as to the extent of any dividends, bonuses or other distributions on such Equity Shares and profit-based commission, amongst others. Further, our Promoters and Promoter Group will, after the Offer, continue to hold a significant stake in our Company. We cannot assure you that our Promoters, Directors and our Key Managerial Personnel will exercise their rights to the benefit and best interest of our Company. As shareholders of our Company, our Promoters or Directors or Key Managerial Personnel may take or block actions with respect to our business which may conflict with the best interests of the Company or that of minority shareholders. For further information on the interest of our Promoters and Directors of our Company, other than reimbursement of expenses incurred or normal remuneration or benefits, see “Our Management”, “Our Promoters and Promoter Group” and “Restated Consolidated Financial Statements” on pages 370, 395 and 403, respectively.

57. Any damages caused by fraud or other misconduct by our employees could adversely affect our business, results of operations and financial condition.

We are exposed to operational risk arising from inadequacy or failure of internal processes or systems or from fraud. We are also susceptible to fraud or misconduct by employees or outsiders, unauthorised transactions by employees and operational errors. Employee or executive misconduct could also involve the improper use or disclosure of confidential information or data breach, which could result in regulatory sanctions and reputational or financial harm, including harm to our brand. Further, unauthorised risks taken by our employees beyond the risk management limits, not reporting business and operational issues that may result in claims and damages far in excess of material cost. Our management information systems and internal control procedures are designed to monitor our operations and overall compliance. However, they may not be able to identify non-compliance and/or suspicious transactions in a timely manner or at all. As a result, we may suffer monetary losses, including contractual liabilities and penalties, which may not be covered by our insurance and may thereby adversely affect our business, results of operations and financial condition. Such a result may also adversely affect our reputation, business, results of operations and financial condition.

While no incidents of fraud, material employee misconduct, unauthorised transactions, or data breaches have been reported in our Company during the nine month period ended December 31, 2025 and last three Fiscals, there can be no assurance that similar events will not occur in the future. The absence of such incidents in the past does not mitigate the risks associated with potential operational lapses or misconduct, and any such occurrence could adversely affect our business, results of operations and financial condition.

58. We will not receive any proceeds from the Offer for Sale by the Selling Shareholder. The Selling Shareholder will receive the entire proceeds from the Offer for Sale.

The Offer includes an Offer for Sale of Equity Shares by the Selling Shareholders. The entire proceeds of the Offer will be respectively transferred to the Selling Shareholders and our Company will not receive any proceeds from the Offer for Sale. For further details, see “Objects of the Offer” and “Capital Structure” on pages 168 and 138, respectively.

59. Any non-compliance by our Company with the regulatory and sanction regimes of various countries could harm our reputation or result in regulatory action which could materially and adversely affect our business.

We are subject to the regulatory regimes of various countries, including applicable economic and trade sanctions programs administered by supranational organisations such as the United Nations. In addition, certain countries and markets where we may conduct business also impose economic and trade sanctions.

These sanctions are imposed in connection with doing business with, or affecting, certain countries, their citizens or entities, specially designated nationals or other persons or entities that may be doing business with targeted countries, persons or entities.

Failure to comply with these laws and regulations may expose us to risk of adverse and material financial, operational, or other adverse impacts on our business. To the best of our knowledge, neither we, nor our promoters and promoter group, are the subject, or have ever been the subject, of any sanctions or a related government investigation or enforcement action.

If either we or our affiliates are found to be in violation of sanctions laws, we or our affiliates could be subject to financial or other penalties. Even when a violation of sanctions laws cannot be established, government investigations or other actions of other related companies may result in reputational or other harm to us.

60. Some of our business operations are being conducted on leased premises. Our inability to seek renewal or extension of such leases may adversely affect our business operations.

While most of our manufacturing facilities are located on freehold property, some of our business operations are being conducted on premises leased from third parties. We have entered into lease agreements for our manufacturing facilities situated in Chennai and Thoothukudi, which is allotted to for a period of 5 years i.e valid till December 03, 2029 and 97 years i.e. valid till April 8, 2111, respectively from Madras Export Processing Zone, (MEPZ), Chennai and CCCL Pearl City Food Port SEZ Ltd, Thoothukudi. For our marketing offices, storage and warehouses, we have entered into lease agreements, the tenure of which range from one to five years, subject to renewal. While there are currently no instances of non-compliance of the terms of our lease agreements, there can be no assurance that there will be no such non-compliance leading to termination of such leases in the future. Any change in the terms and conditions of the lease agreements and any premature termination of such lease agreements may have an adverse impact on our business operations.

Any adverse impact on the title and ownership rights of the owners from whose premises we operate, breach of the contractual terms of any lease deeds, or any inability to renew such agreements on acceptable terms may also affect our business operations. In addition, the terms of certain of our leases require us to obtain the lessor's prior consent for certain actions, including making structural alterations to the leased premises, which may be required if we were to undertake an expansion in the future. There can be no assurance that we will be able to renew these leasing arrangements at commercially favourable terms, or at all. If we are unable to renew all or any of our leasing arrangements, it may cause disruptions in our business and we may incur substantial costs associated with shifting to new premises, all of which may adversely affect our business operations.

61. Rights of shareholders under Indian laws may be more limited than under the laws of other jurisdictions.

Indian legal principles related to corporate procedures, directors' fiduciary duties and liabilities, and shareholders' rights may differ from those that would apply to a company in another jurisdiction. Shareholders' rights including in relation to class actions, under Indian law may not be as extensive as shareholders' rights under the laws of other countries or jurisdictions. Investors may have more difficulty in asserting their rights as shareholder in an Indian company than as shareholder of a corporation in another jurisdiction.

62. QIB and Non-Institutional Investors are not permitted to withdraw or lower their Bids (in terms of quantity of Equity Shares or the Bid Amount) at any stage after submitting a Bid.

Pursuant to the SEBI ICDR Regulations, QIBs and Non-Institutional Bidders are not permitted to withdraw or lower their Bids (in terms of quantity of Equity Shares or the Bid Amount) at any stage after submitting a Bid. Retail Individual Bidders can revise their Bids during the Bid/ Offer Period and withdraw their Bids until Bid/ Offer Closing Date. While we are required to complete Allotment, listing and commencement of trading pursuant to the Offer within three Working Days from the Bid/ Offer Closing Date, events affecting the Bidders' decision to invest in our Equity Shares, including adverse changes in international or national monetary policy, financial, political or economic conditions, our business, results of operations, cash flows and financial condition may arise between the date of submission of the Bid and Allotment, listing and commencement of trading. We may complete the Allotment, listing and commencement of trading of our Equity Shares even if such events occur and such events may limit the Bidders' ability to sell our Equity Shares Allotted pursuant to the Offer or may cause the trading price of our Equity Shares to decline on listing.

Retail Individual Bidders can revise their Bids during the Bid/ Offer Period and withdraw their Bids until Bid/ Offer Closing Date. While our Company is required to complete all necessary formalities for listing and commencement of trading of the Equity Shares on all Stock Exchanges where such Equity Shares are proposed to be listed including Allotment pursuant to the Offer within three Working Days from the Bid/ Offer Closing Date, events affecting the Bidders' decision to invest in the Equity Shares, including material adverse changes in international or national monetary policy, financial, political or economic conditions, our business, results of operations or financial condition may arise between the date of submission of the Bid and Allotment. Our Company may complete the Allotment of the Equity Shares even if such events occur, and such events limit the Bidders' ability to sell the Equity Shares Allotted pursuant to the Offer or cause the trading price of the Equity Shares to decline on listing.

63. Our Company has declared dividends in the previous fiscals. Our ability to pay dividends in the future will depend upon our future earnings, financial condition, cash flows, working capital requirements and capital expenditures.

As certified by Statutory Auditors of our Company by way of certificate dated May 25, 2026*

We may retain all future earnings, if any, for use in the operations and expansion of the business. As a result, we may not declare dividends in the foreseeable future. Any future determination as to the declaration and payment of dividends will be at the discretion of our Board and will depend on factors that our Board deems relevant, including among others, our future earnings, financial condition, cash requirements, business prospects and any other financing arrangements. We cannot assure you that we will be able to pay dividends in the future. Accordingly, realization of a gain on Shareholders' investments will depend on the appreciation of the price of the Equity Shares. There is no guarantee that our Equity Shares will appreciate in value. For details of dividend paid by our Company in the past, see "Dividend Policy" on page 401.

64. We are dependent on our Promoters for functioning of our business and we believe that our senior management team and other key managerial personnel in our business are critical to our continued success and we may be unable to attract and retain such personnel in the future.

Our performance depends largely on the efforts and abilities of our Promoters. For details, see “Our Promoters and Promoter Group” on pages 395. We believe that the input and experience of our Promoters are valuable for the growth and development of business and operations and the strategic directions taken by our Company. Our business and operations are led by our Promoters who possess vast experience in the nutrition industry, the loss of whose services may adversely affect our business operations.

At the same time, our future success also substantially depends on the continued service and performance of the members of our senior management team and other key managerial personnel in our business for the management and running of our daily operations and the planning and execution of our business strategy.

There is intense competition for experienced senior management and other key managerial personnel with technical and industry expertise in the nutrition industry and, if we lose the services of any of our senior management and other key managerial personnel or other key individuals and are unable to find suitable replacements in a timely manner, our ability to realize our strategic objectives could be impaired. The loss of key members of our senior management or other key team members, particularly to competitors, could have an adverse effect on our business, cash flows, and results of operations.

65. Our Promoters and members of the Promoter Group will continue jointly to retain majority control over our Company after the Offer, which will allow them to determine the outcome of matters submitted to shareholders for approval.

After completion of the Offer, our Promoters and Promoter Group will collectively own a majority of the Equity Shares of our Company. As a result, our Promoters together with the members of the Promoter Group will be able to exercise a significant degree of influence over us and will be able to control the outcome of any proposal that can be approved by a majority shareholder vote, including, the election of members to our Board, in accordance with the Companies Act and our AoA. Such a concentration of ownership may also have the effect of delaying, preventing or deterring a change in control of our Company.

In addition, our Promoters will continue to have the ability to cause us to take actions that are not in, or may conflict with, our interests or the interests of some or all of our creditors or minority shareholders, and we cannot assure you that such actions will not have an adverse effect on our future financial performance or the price of our Equity Shares.

66. The Offer Price, market capitalisation to revenue multiple and price to earnings ratio based on the Offer Price of our Company, may not be indicative of the market price of the Equity Shares on listing.

Our market capitalisation (based on the Offer Price) to revenue (Fiscal 2025) multiple is [●] times; our market capitalisation (based on the Offer Price) to price to earnings ratio (based on profit after tax for Fiscal 2025) is [●] at the upper end of the Price Band.

The Offer Price will be determined by our Company in consultation with BRLM based on various factors and assumptions. Furthermore, the Offer Price of the Equity Shares will be determined by our Company in consultation with Book Running Lead Managers through the Book Building Process, and will be based on numerous factors, including factors as described under “Basis for Offer Price” beginning on page 171 and may not be indicative of the market price for the Equity Shares after the Offer. Accordingly, the Offer Price, multiples and ratio may not be indicative of the market price of the Equity Shares on listing or thereafter. The factors that could affect the market price of the Equity Shares include, among other, broad market trends, our financial performance and results post-listing, and other factors beyond our Company’s control.

Prior to the Offer, there has been no public market for our Equity Shares, and an active trading market on the Stock Exchanges may not develop or be sustained after the Offer. Listing and quotation does not guarantee that a market for the Equity Shares will develop, or if developed, the liquidity of such market for the Equity Shares. The relevant financial parameters based on which the Price Band would be determined, shall be disclosed in the advertisement that would be issued for publication of the Price Band. The market price of the Equity Shares may be subject to significant fluctuations in response to, among other factors, variations in our operating results, market conditions specific to the industry we operate in, developments relating to India, announcements by us or our competitors of significant acquisitions, strategic alliances, announcements by third parties or governmental entities of significant claims or proceedings against us, volatility in the securities markets in India and other jurisdictions, variations in the growth rate of financial indicators, variations in revenue or earnings estimates by research publications, and changes in economic, legal and other regulatory factors. As a result, the market price of the Equity Shares may decline below the Offer Price. We cannot assure you that you will be able to sell your Equity Shares at or above the Offer Price.

- 67. *We have in this Red Herring Prospectus included certain non-GAAP financial measures and certain other industry measures related to our operations and financial performance. These non-GAAP measures and industry measures may vary from any standard methodology that is applicable across the industry, and therefore may not be comparable with financial or industry related statistical information of similar nomenclature computed and presented by other companies.

Certain non-GAAP financial measures and certain other industry measures relating to our operations and financial performance have been included in this Red Herring Prospectus. We compute and disclose such non-GAAP financial measures and such other industry related statistical information relating to our operations and financial performance as we consider such information to be useful measures of our business and financial performance, and because such measures are frequently used by securities analysts, investors and others to evaluate the operational performance of Indian retailing industry, many of which provide such non-GAAP financial measures and other industry related statistical and operational information. Such supplemental financial and operational information is therefore of limited utility as an analytical tool, and investors are cautioned against considering such information either in isolation or as a substitute for an analysis of our restated financial statements as reported under applicable accounting standards disclosed elsewhere in this Prospectus. These non-GAAP financial measures and such other industry related statistical and other information relating to our operations and financial performance may not be computed on the basis of any standard methodology that is applicable across the industry and therefore may not be comparable to financial measures and industry related statistical information of similar nomenclature that may be computed and presented by other companies.

- 68. *None of the Directors of the Company have experience of being a director of a public listed company.

Except for our Independent Directors Payal Yash Gaglani and Keval M Shah, none of the other Directors of the Company have the experience of having held directorship of public listed company. Accordingly, they have limited exposure to management of affairs of the listed company which inter-alia entails several compliance requirements and scrutiny of affairs by shareholders, regulators and the public at large that is associated with being a listed company. As a listed company, the Company will require to adhere strict standards pertaining to accounting, corporate governance and reporting that it did not require as an unlisted company. The Company will also be subject to the SEBI Listing Regulations, which will require it to file audited annual and unaudited quarterly reports with respect to its business and financial condition. If the Company experiences any delays, we may fail to satisfy its reporting obligations and/or it may not be able to readily determine and accordingly report any changes in its results of operations as promptly as other listed companies.

Further, as a publicly listed company, the Company will need to maintain and improve the effectiveness of our disclosure controls and procedures and internal control over financial reporting, including keeping adequate records of daily transactions. In order to maintain and improve the effectiveness of the Company's disclosure controls and procedures and internal control over financial reporting, significant resources and management attention will be required. As a result, the Board of Directors of the Company may have to provide increased attention to such procedures and their attention may be diverted from our business concerns, which may adversely affect our business, prospects, results of operations and financial condition.

However, our Company has implemented several mitigation measures to address these risks. We have appointed qualified Key Managerial Personnel, including a Company Secretary and Compliance Officer and Chief Financial Officer, for handling compliance requirements as applicable to listed companies. We also intend to engage external legal and financial advisors with relevant expertise to assist the Board and senior management in meeting post-listing obligations and governance expectations. Further, the Board of Directors shall continue to participate in training programs focused on corporate governance, regulatory compliance, and financial reporting. In addition, we have constituted committees of the Board, including the Audit Committee and Nomination and Remuneration Committee. These committees are supported by experienced advisors to ensure effective oversight. The Company also intends to invest in systems and controls to strengthen internal audit, financial reporting, and compliance monitoring frameworks. Despite these steps, there can be no assurance that our Company will not face challenges in meeting its obligations as a listed company, and any such difficulties may have an adverse impact on our operations and reputation

69. Our estimates and forward-looking statements may prove to be inaccurate

This Red Herring Prospectus contains certain forward-looking statements and financial estimates that reflect our current expectations and projections with respect to future events, developments, and performance. These may include projections of our business, operations, revenues, profits, industry trends, market conditions, and other matters. Such statements are based on various assumptions and estimates of the management and are subject to known and unknown risks, uncertainties, and contingencies, many of which are beyond our control. Accordingly, actual outcomes may differ materially from those suggested by the forward-looking statements or estimates contained herein. There can be no assurance that our expectations, estimates, or projections will be realized, and undue reliance should not be placed on such forward-looking statements. Any failure to achieve such expectations may have a material adverse effect on our business, financial condition, results of operations, and prospects.

70. Our subsidiary, Hexagon Nutrition Proprietary Limited, has been subject to Emphasis of Matter paragraphs in its audit reports relating to material uncertainty regarding its ability to continue as a going concern.

The statutory auditor of our non-material subsidiary, Hexagon Nutrition Proprietary Limited, has included Emphasis of Matter paragraphs in its audit reports for the Fiscal 2025, 2024 and 2023, drawing attention to uncertainty that may cast significant doubt on the subsidiary's ability to continue as a going concern.

For the Fiscal 2025, 2024 and 2023, the subsidiary incurred net losses of Rand (2,252,336) and Rand (3,487,738), respectively, and as at the respective balance sheet dates, its total liabilities exceeded its total assets. For the Fiscal 2025, while the subsidiary reported a net profit of Rand 32,112, its total liabilities continued to exceed its total assets by Rand 7,244,638 for Fiscal 2025. The auditors have stated that these conditions indicate the existence of a material uncertainty that may cast significant doubt on the subsidiary's ability to continue as a going concern. The audit opinion, however, was not modified in respect of this matter. For details, see "Restated Consolidated Financial Information- Annexure VI - Statement of Restated Consolidated Adjustments to the Audited Financial Information" on page 418. Also, see "Management's Discussion and Analysis of Financial Condition and Results of Operation - Reservations, Qualifications, Adverse Remarks, Emphasis of Matters and Other Matters by Auditors" on Page 513.

The management has undertaken measures aimed at reviving and stabilising the operations of the subsidiary, including operational and financial restructuring initiatives, as may be required. However, there can be no assurance that such measures will be successful or that the subsidiary will not incur further losses.

Any continued financial underperformance or inability of the subsidiary to sustain operations may adversely affect our consolidated financial condition and results of operations.

71. Our financial statements have been restated pursuant to the Scheme of Amalgamation, and any risks arising from the implementation or integration of the amalgamated entity could adversely affect our business and financial condition.

The auditor has included an Emphasis of Matter paragraph in relation to the Scheme of Amalgamation of Hexagon Nutrition (Exports) Private Limited with our Company, which was approved by the Hon'ble National Company Law Tribunal on January 14, 2026 and filed with the Ministry of Corporate Affairs on February 4, 2026. Pursuant to the Scheme, the amalgamation has been given effect from the appointed date of April 1, 2025 and, accordingly, the comparative financial information for the year ended March 31, 2025 has been restated. While the auditor's opinion was not modified in respect of this matter, there can be no assurance that the implementation of the Scheme, integration of operations, accounting adjustments, or any future regulatory, tax, or stakeholder-related implications arising from the amalgamation will not adversely affect our business, financial condition, results of operations, cash flows, or reputation.

EXTERNAL RISK FACTORS

72. A slowdown in economic growth in India could cause our business to suffer.

Our performance and the growth of our business are dependent on the health of the overall Indian economy. Any slowdown or perceived slowdown in the Indian economy or future volatility in global commodity prices could adversely affect our business. Additionally, an increase in trade deficit, a downgrading in India's sovereign debt rating or a decline in India's foreign exchange reserves could negatively affect interest rates and liquidity, which could adversely affect the Indian economy and our business. Any downturn in the macroeconomic environment in India could also adversely affect our business, financial condition, results of operations and prospects.

India's economy could be adversely affected by a general rise in interest rates or inflation, adverse weather conditions affecting agriculture, commodity and energy prices as well as various other factors. A slowdown in the Indian economy could adversely affect the policy of the GoI towards our industry, which may in turn adversely affect our financial performance and our ability to implement our business strategy.

The Indian economy is also influenced by economic development and market conditions in other countries, particularly emerging market conditions in Asia. A decline in India's foreign exchange reserves and exchange rate fluctuations may also affect liquidity and interest rates in the Indian economy, which could adversely impact our financial condition. A loss of investor confidence in other emerging market economies or any worldwide financial instability may adversely affect the Indian economy, which could materially and adversely affect our business, financial condition, results of operations and prospects.

India has experienced instances of social, religious and civil unrest and hostilities between neighboring countries from time to time. Military activity or terrorist attacks in the future could influence the Indian economy by disrupting communications and making travel more difficult and such political tensions could create a greater perception that investments in Indian companies involve higher degrees of risk. Events of this nature in the future, as well as social and civil unrest within other countries in Asia, could influence the Indian economy negatively.

Further, other factors which may adversely affect the Indian economy are scarcity of credit or other financing in India, resulting in an adverse impact on economic conditions in India and scarcity of financing of our expansions; volatility in, and actual or perceived trends in trading activity on, India's principal stock exchanges; changes in India's tax, trade, fiscal or monetary policies, like application of GST; political instability, terrorism or military conflict in India or in countries in the region or globally, including in India's various neighboring countries; occurrence of natural or man-made disasters; infectious disease outbreaks or other serious public health concerns; prevailing regional or global economic conditions, including in India's principal export markets; and other significant regulatory or economic developments in or affecting India or its financial services sectors.

Any slowdown or perceived slowdown in the economic growth of the Indian economy, or in specific sectors of the Indian economy, could adversely affect our business, financial condition and results of operations, and the price of the Equity Shares.

73. Our business is affected by global economic conditions, which may have an adverse effect on our business, financial condition, results of operations and prospects.

Our business depends substantially on global economic conditions. Financial turmoil in Asia, U.S. and elsewhere in the world in recent years has affected the Indian economy. Although economic conditions are different in each country, investors' reactions to developments in one country can have adverse effects on the securities of companies in other countries, including India. Financial disruptions may occur and could harm our business, results of operations and financial condition.

The global credit and equity markets have experienced substantial dislocations, liquidity disruptions and market corrections in recent years. Financial markets and the supply of credit could continue to be negatively impacted by ongoing concerns surrounding the sovereign debts and/or fiscal deficits of several countries in Europe, the possibility of further downgrades of, or defaults on, sovereign debt, concerns about a slowdown in growth in certain economies and uncertainties regarding the stability and overall standing of the European Monetary Union.

A loss of investor confidence in the financial systems of other emerging markets may cause increased volatility in the Indian financial markets and indirectly in the Indian economy in general. Any worldwide financial instability could influence the Indian economy. In response to such developments, legislators and financial regulators in the United States, Africa and other jurisdictions, including India, have implemented several policy measures designed to add stability to the financial markets. In addition, any increase in interest rates by the United States Federal Reserve will lead to an increase in the borrowing costs in the United States which may in turn impact global borrowing as well. Furthermore, in several parts of the world, there are signs of increasing retreat from globalization of goods, services and people, as pressure for the introduction of a protectionist regime is building and such developments could adversely affect Indian exports. However, the overall impact of these and other legislative and regulatory efforts on the global financial markets is uncertain, and they may not have the intended stabilizing effects. In the event that the current adverse conditions in the global credit markets continue or if there is any significant financial disruption, this could have an adverse effect on our business, results of operations and financial condition. Further, geopolitical developments in other regions of the world including: (i) ongoing conflict between United States, Israel and Iran as well as broader regional tensions in the Middle East; (ii) the conflict between Ukraine and Russia; (iii) Israel-Palestine conflict may adversely affect global economic stability, commodity prices and consumer demand patterns, which in turn could have indirect negative impacts on our business and financial performance.

A prolonged war or a protracted period of hostilities may lead to global economic disturbances. If we are unable to successfully anticipate and respond to changing economic and market conditions, our business, results of operations and financial condition and prospects may be adversely affected.

74. Upon listing, we may be subject to additional costs/unanticipated expenses arising from the obligations that a listed public company has to comply with, under the applicable regulatory framework in India.

We are not a publicly listed company and have not, historically, been subjected to the increased scrutiny of our affairs by shareholders, regulators and the public at large that is associated with being a listed company. As a listed public company, we shall incur legal, accounting, insurance and other expenses that we have not incurred as an unlisted public company, including costs associated with listed company reporting and corporate governance requirements. We expect that rules and regulations shall increase our legal and financial compliance costs and make some activities more time-consuming and costly, although we are currently unable to estimate these costs with any degree of certainty. Laws and regulations could also make it more difficult or costly for us to obtain certain types of insurance, including director and officer liability insurance, and we may be forced to accept reduced policy limits and coverage or incur substantially higher costs to obtain the same or similar coverage. Laws and regulations could also make it more difficult for us to attract and retain qualified persons to serve on our board of directors, our board committees or as our senior management. Furthermore, if we are unable to satisfy our obligations as a public company, we could be subject to delisting, fines, sanctions and other regulatory action and potentially civil litigation. Any such action could adversely affect our business, financial condition and results of operations and cash flow.

For instance, we shall be subject to the Listing Regulations which shall require us to file audited annual and unaudited quarterly reports with respect to our business and financial condition. If we experience any delays, we may fail to satisfy our reporting obligations and/or we may not be able to readily determine and accordingly report any changes in our results of operations as promptly as other listed companies. Further, as a publicly listed company, we shall need to maintain and improve the effectiveness of our disclosure controls and procedures and internal control over financial reporting, including keeping adequate records of daily transactions. In order to maintain and improve the effectiveness of our disclosure controls and procedures and internal control over financial reporting, significant resources and management attention shall be required. As a result, our management's attention may be diverted from our business concerns, which may adversely affect our business, prospects, financial condition, results of operations, and cash flows. In addition, we may need to hire additional legal and accounting staff with appropriate experience and technical accounting knowledge, but there can be no assurance that we shall be able to do so in a timely and efficient manner.

75. Natural or man-made disasters, fires, epidemics, pandemics, acts of war, terrorist attacks, civil unrest and other events could materially and adversely affect our business.

Natural disasters (such as typhoons, cyclones, storms, tsunamis, fires, explosions, flooding, and/or earthquakes), epidemics, pandemics such as COVID-19, and man-made disasters, including acts of war, military actions, terrorist attacks, and other events, many of which are beyond our control, may lead to economic instability, including in India or globally, which may in turn materially and adversely affect our business, financial condition, and results of operations.

Developments in the ongoing conflict between Russia and Ukraine has resulted in and may continue to result in a period of sustained instability across global financial markets, induce volatility in commodity prices, adversely impact availability of natural gas, increase in supply chain, logistics times and costs, increase borrowing costs, cause outflow of capital from emerging markets and may lead to overall slowdown in economic activity in India.

Our operations may be adversely affected by fires, natural disasters, and/or severe weather, which can result in damage to our property or inventory and generally reduce our productivity and may require us to evacuate personnel and suspend operations.

India has experienced instances of social, religious and civil unrest and hostilities between neighbouring countries from time to time. Military activity or terrorist attacks in the future could influence the Indian economy by disrupting communications and making travel more difficult and such political tensions could create a greater perception that investments in Indian companies involve higher degrees of risk. Events of this nature in the future, as well as social and civil unrest within other countries in Asia, could influence the Indian economy negatively. Any terrorist attacks or civil unrest as well as other adverse social, economic, and political events in India could have a negative effect on us. Such incidents could also create a greater perception that investment in Indian companies involves a higher degree of risk and could have an adverse effect on our business and the price of the Equity Shares.

A number of countries in Asia, including India, as well as countries in other parts of the world, are susceptible to contagious diseases and, for example, have had confirmed cases of diseases such as the highly pathogenic H7N9, H5N1, and H1N1 strains of influenza in birds and swine and more recently, the SARS-CoV-2 virus. Any future outbreaks of SARS-CoV-2 virus or a similar contagious disease could adversely affect the global economy and economic activity in the region. As a result, any present or future outbreak of a contagious disease could have a material adverse effect on our business and the trading price of the Equity Shares.

Further, other factors which may adversely affect the Indian economy are scarcity of credit or other financing in India, resulting in an adverse impact on economic conditions in India and scarcity of financing of our expansions; volatility in, and actual or perceived trends in trading activity on, India's principal stock exchanges; changes in India's tax, trade, fiscal or monetary policies, like application of GST; political instability, terrorism or military conflict in India or in countries in the region or globally, including in India's various neighbouring countries; occurrence of natural or man-made disasters; infectious disease outbreaks or other serious public health concerns; prevailing regional or global economic conditions, including in India's principal export markets; and other significant regulatory or economic developments in or affecting India or its financial services sectors. Any slowdown or perceived slowdown in the economic growth of the Indian economy, or in specific sectors of the Indian economy, could adversely affect our business, financial condition and results of operations, and the price of the Equity Shares. Our performance and the growth of our business depend on the overall performance of the Indian economy as well as the economies of the regional markets in which we operate.

76. If inflation were to rise in India, we might not be able to increase the prices of our products at a proportional rate in order to pass costs on to our customers thereby reducing our margins.

Inflation rates in India have been volatile in recent years, and such volatility may continue in the future. India has experienced high inflation in the recent past. Increased inflation can contribute to an increase in interest rates and increased costs to our business, including increased costs of wages and other expenses relevant to our business.

High fluctuations in inflation rates may make it more difficult for us to accurately estimate or control our costs. Any increase in inflation in India can increase our expenses, which we may not be able to adequately pass on to our customers, whether entirely or in part, and may adversely affect our business and financial condition. In particular, we might not be able to reduce our costs or increase the price of our services to pass the increase in costs on to our customers. In such case, our business, results of operations, cash flows and financial condition may be adversely affected.

Further, geopolitical tensions and disruptions in global energy supply chains may exacerbate inflationary pressures in India. For instance, ongoing geopolitical tensions in West Asia, including the Iran conflict, may disrupt energy trade routes such as the Strait of Hormuz, through which a significant portion of India's crude oil and LPG imports transit. Any resulting increase in fuel, freight, logistics, packaging, transportation, or other input costs could increase our operating expenses and supply chain costs. Additionally, higher inflation and increased household expenditure on essential commodities may adversely affect consumer spending patterns and demand for our products. We may not be able to fully pass on such increased costs to our customers, which could adversely affect our margins, business, results of operations, cash flows, and financial condition.

Further, the Government of India has previously initiated economic measures to combat high inflation rates, and it is unclear whether these measures will remain in effect. There can be no assurance that Indian inflation levels will not worsen in the future.

77. Changing laws, rules and regulations and legal uncertainties, including adverse application of corporate and tax laws, may adversely affect our business, prospects and results of operations.

The regulatory and policy environment in which we operate is evolving and subject to change. Such changes, including the instances mentioned below, may adversely affect our business, results of operations, financial condition, cash flows and prospects, to the extent that we are unable to suitably respond to and comply with any such changes in applicable law and policy.

The Government of India has implemented a major reform in Indian tax laws, namely the GST. The indirect tax regime in India has undergone a complete overhaul. The indirect taxes on goods and services, such as central excise duty, service tax, central sales tax, state value added tax, surcharge and excise have been replaced by GST, with effect from July 1, 2017. The GST regime continues to be subject to amendments and its interpretation by the relevant regulatory authorities is constantly evolving. We cannot assure you that the relevant regulatory authorities will not make any material tax demands under GST on us in the future which could adversely impact our business, results of operations financial condition, cash flows and the price of the Equity Shares. Earlier, distribution of dividends by a domestic company was subject to Dividend Distribution Tax ("DDT"), in the hands of the company. However, the Government in the past had amended the Income Tax Act, 1961 ("Income Tax Act") to abolish the DDT regime. Accordingly, any dividend distribution by a domestic company is subject to tax in the hands of the investor at the applicable rate. Additionally, the domestic company is required to withhold tax on such dividends distributed at the applicable rate. However, nonresident shareholders may claim benefit of an applicable tax treaty, read with the Multilateral Convention to Implement Tax Treaty Related Measures to Prevent Base Erosion and Profit Shifting (Multilateral Instrument), if and to the extent applicable, subject to satisfaction of certain conditions. We may or may not grant the benefit of a tax treaty (where applicable) to a non-resident shareholder for the purposes of withholding tax pursuant to any corporate action including dividends.

Additionally, the Government of India has enacted the Income-tax Act, 2025, which seeks to rationalize, consolidate and modernize the direct tax framework, replacing and restructuring various provisions of the Income Tax Act, 1961. As the provisions of the new legislation are interpreted and implemented over time, uncertainties may arise in relation to their scope, applicability and transitional arrangements. Any adverse interpretation, increased tax liability or additional compliance burden arising from such changes could materially and adversely affect our business, financial condition, results of operations and cash flows.

Additionally, the Government of India has introduced (a) the Code on Wages, 2019; (b) the Code on Social Security, 2020 (“Social Security Code”); (c) the Occupational Safety, Health and Working Conditions Code, 2020; and (d) the Industrial Relations Code, 2020 (collectively, the “Labour Codes”) which consolidate, subsume and replace numerous existing central labour legislations. We have not yet fully assessed the impact that these or similar laws might have on our business operations, which could potentially limit our ability to expand in the future. For instance, the Social Security Code standardizes social security benefits for employees, which were previously divided under various acts with differing scopes and coverage. Additionally, the Wages Code restricts the portion of wages that can be excluded from calculations for employment benefits (such as gratuity and maternity benefits) to a maximum of 50% of the total wages paid to employees. The Labor Codes have come into force from November 21, 2025.

The Parliament of India has passed the Bharatiya Nyaya Sanhita Bill, 2023, the Bharatiya Nagarik Suraksha Sanhita Bill, 2023 and the Bharatiya Sakshya Bill, pursuant to which Bharatiya Nyaya Sanhita, 2023, the Bharatiya Nagarik Suraksha Sanhita, 2023, and the Bharatiya Sakshya Adhiniyam, 2023, have replaced the Indian Penal Code, 1860, the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1973 and the Indian Evidence Act, 1872, respectively, with effect from July 1, 2024. The effect of the provisions of these on us and the litigations involving us cannot be predicted with certainty at this stage.

Unfavourable changes in or interpretations of existing, or the promulgation of new laws, rules and regulations including foreign investment and stamp duty laws governing our business and operations could result in us being deemed to be in contravention of such laws and may require us to apply for additional approvals. We may incur increased costs and other burdens relating to compliance with new requirements, which may also require significant management time and other resources, and any failure to comply may adversely affect our business, results of operations, financial condition, cash flows and prospects. Uncertainty in the application, interpretation or implementation of any amendment to, or change in, governing law, regulation or policy, including by reason of an absence, or a limited body, of administrative or judicial precedent may be time consuming as well as costly for us to resolve and may affect the viability of our current business or restrict our ability to grow our businesses in the future.

78. We may be affected by competition laws in India and any adverse application or interpretation of the Competition Act could in turn adversely affect our business.

The Competition Act, 2002, as amended (the “Competition Act”) was enacted for the purpose of preventing practices that have or are likely to have an adverse effect on competition in India and has mandated the Competition Commission of India to regulate such practices. Under the Competition Act, any arrangement, understanding or action, whether formal or informal, which causes or is likely to cause an appreciable adverse effect on competition is void and attracts substantial penalties.

Further, any agreement among competitors which, directly or indirectly, involves determination of purchase or sale prices, limits or controls production, or shares the market by way of geographical area or number of subscribers in the relevant market is presumed to have an appreciable adverse effect in the relevant market in India and shall be void. The Competition Act also prohibits abuse of a dominant position by any enterprise. The Competition Commission of India (Procedure in regard to the transaction of business relating to combinations) Regulations 2011 (“Combination Regulations”) require acquisitions of shares, voting rights, assets or control or mergers or amalgamations that cross the prescribed asset and turnover based thresholds to be mandatorily notified to, and pre-approved by, the Competition Commission of India.

The Competition Act aims to, among other things, prohibit all agreements and transactions which may have an appreciable adverse effect in India. Consequently, all agreements entered into by us could be within the purview of the Competition Act. Further, the Competition Commission of India has extra-territorial powers and can investigate any agreements, abusive conduct or combination occurring outside of India if such agreement, conduct or combination has an appreciable adverse effect in India. However, the impact of the provisions of the Competition Act on the agreements entered into by us cannot be predicted with certainty at this stage. We do not have any outstanding notices in relation to non-compliance with the Competition Act or the agreements entered into by us.

The Government of India has also passed the Competition (Amendment) Act, 2023 on April 11, 2023, which has made several amendments to the Competition Act. These amendments include the introduction of deal value thresholds for assessing whether a merger or acquisition qualifies as a “combination”, expedited merger review timelines, codification of the lowest standard of “control” and enhanced penalties for providing false information or a failure to provide material information. Such amendment to the Competition Act will result in additional costs for compliance, which in turn may adversely affect our business, results of operations, cash flows and prospects.

79. Significant differences exist between Ind AS used to prepare our financial information and other accounting principles, such as US GAAP and IFRS, which may affect investors’ assessments of our Company’s financial condition.

The Restated Consolidated Financial Information for the nine month period ended December 31, 2025 and Fiscal 2025, Fiscal 2024 and Fiscal 2023 included in this Red Herring Prospectus are derived from audited financial statements as of nine month period ended December 31, 2025, Fiscal 2025, Fiscal 2024 and Fiscal 2023 prepared in accordance with Ind AS, the provisions of the Companies Act, 2013 and other accounting principles generally accepted in India and restated by our Company in accordance with the requirements of Section 26 of Part I of Chapter III of the Companies Act, 2013, relevant provisions of the SEBI ICDR Regulations, and the Guidance Note on Reports on Company Prospectuses (Revised 2019) issued by the ICAI. Ind AS differs from accounting principles with which you may be familiar, such as Indian GAAP, IFRS and US GAAP.

We have not attempted to explain in a qualitative manner the impact of the IFRS or US GAAP on the financial information included in this Red Herring Prospectus, nor do we provide a reconciliation of our financial information to those of US GAAP or IFRS. US GAAP and IFRS differ in significant respects from Ind AS and Indian GAAP, which may differ from accounting principles with which you may be familiar in other countries. Accordingly, the degree to which the financial information included in this Red Herring Prospectus, which is restated as per the SEBI ICDR Regulations, will provide meaningful information is entirely dependent on the reader’s level of familiarity with Indian accounting practices, Ind AS, the Companies Act and the SEBI ICDR Regulations. Any reliance by persons not familiar with Indian accounting practices, Ind AS, the Companies Act and the SEBI ICDR Regulations, on the financial disclosures presented in this Red Herring Prospectus should accordingly be limited. You should review the accounting policies applied in the preparation of the Restated Financial Information and consult their own professional advisers for an understanding of the differences between these accounting principles and those with which they may be more familiar.

80. We may be impacted by an adverse change in India’s sovereign credit rating by a domestic or international rating agency.

Our borrowing costs and our access to the debt capital markets depend significantly on the credit ratings of India. Any adverse revisions to India’s credit ratings for domestic and international debt by international rating agencies may adversely impact our ability to raise additional financing and the interest rates and other commercial terms at which such financing is available, including raising any overseas additional financing. A downgrading of India's credit ratings may occur, for reasons beyond our control such as, upon a change of government tax or fiscal policy or a decline in India's foreign exchange reserves. This could have an adverse effect on our ability to fund our growth on favorable terms or at all, and consequently adversely affect our business and financial performance and the price of the Equity Shares.

81. Investors may not be able to immediately sell any of the Equity Shares they subscribe to in this Offer on an Indian stock exchange.

The Equity Shares will be listed on the Stock Exchanges. Pursuant to the applicable Indian laws and practice, permission for listing of the Equity Shares will not be granted till the Equity Shares in this Offer have been issued and allotted and all relevant documents are submitted to the Stock Exchanges. Further, certain actions must be completed prior to the commencement of listing and trading of the Equity Shares such as the Investor's book entry or 'demat' accounts with the depository participants in India, the Allotment of Equity Shares in the Offer and the credit of such Equity Shares to the applicant's demat account with the depository participant. Any failure or delay in obtaining the approval or otherwise commence trading in Equity Shares would restrict your ability to dispose of your Equity Shares. We cannot assure you that the Equity Shares will be credited to investors' demat accounts or that trading in the Equity Shares will commence in a timely manner (as specified herein) or at all. We could also be required to pay interest at the applicable rates if the allotment is not made, refund orders are not dispatched or demat credits are not made to investors within the prescribed time periods.

82. There is no assurance that our Equity Shares will be listed on the Stock Exchanges in a timely manner or at all or that once listed, will remain listed on the Stock Exchange.

In accordance with Indian law and practice, permission for listing and trading of our Equity Shares will not be granted until after certain actions have been completed in relation to this Offer and until Allotment of Equity Shares pursuant to this Offer. In accordance with current regulations and circulars issued by SEBI, our Equity Shares are required to be listed on the Stock Exchanges within such time as mandated under UPI Circulars, subject to any change in the prescribed timeline in this regard. However, we cannot assure you that the trading in our Equity Shares will commence in a timely manner or at all. Any failure or delay in obtaining final listing and trading approvals may restrict your ability to dispose of your Equity Shares.

Although it is currently intended that the Equity Shares will remain listed on the Stock Exchanges, there is no assurance of the continued listing of the Equity Shares. Among other factors, we may not continue to satisfy the listing requirements of the Stock Exchanges. Accordingly, Shareholders will not be able to sell their Equity Shares through trading on the Stock Exchanges if the Equity Shares are no longer listed on the Stock Exchange.

83. The Offer Price of our Equity Shares, our price-to-earnings ratio and our enterprise value to EBITDA ratio may not be indicative of the trading price of our Equity Shares upon listing on the Stock Exchanges subsequent to the Offer and, as a result, you may lose a significant part or all of your investment.

While our market capitalization is subject to the determination of the Offer Price, which will be determined by our Company, in consultation with the Book Running Lead Managers, through the book building process, our enterprise value to EBITDA ratio and Price-to-earnings ratio for the nine-month period ended September 30, 2025 and Fiscal 2025 is set out below;

Particulars	For six-month period ended September 30, 2025	Fiscal 2025
Enterprise Value to EBITDA Ratio	[●]*	[●]*
Price-to-earnings ratio	[●]	[●]^

Accordingly, the Offer Price, multiples and ratio may not be indicative of the market price of the Equity Shares on listing or thereafter. The factors that could affect the market price of the Equity Shares include, among other, broad market trends, our financial performance and results post-listing and other factors beyond our Company's control. We cannot assure you that an active market will develop, or sustained trading will take place in the Equity Shares or provide any assurance regarding the price at which the Equity Shares will be traded after listing.

84. Pursuant to listing of the Equity shares, we may be subject to pre-emptive surveillance measures like additional Surveillance Measures ("ASM") and Graded surveillance Measures ("GSM") by the Stock Exchanges in the order to enhance market integrity and safeguard the interest of the investors.

On and post the listing of equity shares, we may be subject to ASM and GSM by the Stock Exchange(s) and the Securities and Exchange Board of India. These measures have been introduced in order to enhance market integrity and safeguard the interest of investors and to alert and advise investors to be extra cautious and carry out necessary due diligence while dealing in such securities.

The criteria for shortlisting any scrip trading on the Stock Exchange(s) under the ASM is based on an objective criterion as jointly decided by SEBI and the Stock Exchange(s) which include market based dynamic parameters such as high low variations, client concentration, close to close price variation, market capitalization, volume variation, delivery percentage, number of unique PAN's and price to equity ratio. A scrip is typically subjected GSM measures where there is an abnormal price rise that is not commensurate with the financial health and fundamentals of a company which inter alia includes factors like earnings, book value, fixed assets and net worth to the equity ratio etc. The price of our equity shares may also fluctuate after the offer due to several factors such as volatility in the Indian and global securities market, our profitability and performance, the performance of our competitors, change in the estimates of our performance or any other political or economic factor. The occurrence of any of the above-mentioned factors may trigger the parameters identified by SEBI and the Stock Exchange(s) for the placing securities under the GSM and ASM framework. In the event of our Equity Shares are covered under such pre-emptive surveillance measures implemented by SEBI and the Stock Exchange(s), we may be subject to certain additional restrictions in the relation to trading of our Equity Shares such as limiting trading frequency (for example trading either allowed in a week or a month) higher margin requirements of settlement on a trade for trade basis without netting off requirement of settlement on gross basis or freezing price on upper side of trading which may have an adverse effect on the market price of our Equity Shares or may in general cause disruptions in the development of an active market for and trading and liquidity of our Equity Shares and on the reputation and conditions of our Company.

For further details in relation to the ASM and GSM Surveillance Measures, including criteria for shortlisting and review of Listed Securities, exemptions from shortlisting and frequently asked questions (FAQs), among other details, refer to the websites of the NSE and the BSE.

85. Investors may be subject to Indian taxes arising out of capital gains on the sale of the Equity Shares.

Under current Indian tax laws, unless specifically exempted, capital gains arising from the sale of equity shares in an Indian company is generally taxable in India. A securities transaction tax ("STT") is levied on and collected by an Indian stock exchange on which equity shares are sold. Any gain realized on the sale of listed equity shares held for more than 12 months may be subject to long term capital gains tax in India at the specified rates depending on certain factors, such as STT is paid, the quantum of gains and any available treaty exemptions. Accordingly, you may be subject to payment of long-term capital gains tax in India, in addition to payment of STT, on the sale of any Equity Shares held for more than 12 months. Furthermore, any gain realized on the sale of listed equity shares held for a period of 12 months or less will be subject to short term capital gains tax in India. Earlier, distribution of dividends by a domestic company was subject to Dividend Distribution Tax ("DDT"), in the hands of the company and such dividends were generally exempt from tax in the hands of the shareholders. However, the government of India has amended the Income Tax Act to abolish the DDT regime. Under the extant provisions, any dividend distributed by a domestic company is subject to tax in the hands of the concerned shareholder at the applicable rates. Additionally, the company distributing dividends is required to withhold tax on such payments at the applicable rate. However, non-resident shareholders may claim benefit of the applicable tax treaty, subject to satisfaction of certain conditions.

Furthermore, if non-resident shareholders of entities holding the Equity Shares exit by way of sale or redemption of the shares held by them abroad in such entities, such non-resident shareholders could be taxed on capital gains in India if the offshore shares derive substantial value from Indian assets, subject to certain exemptions. Capital gains arising from the sale of the Equity Shares will be exempt from taxation in India only in limited situations and generally, Indian tax treaties do not limit India's ability to impose tax on capital gains. As a result, residents of other countries may be liable for tax in India as well as in their own jurisdiction on a gain upon the sale of the Equity Shares. Similarly, any business income realized from the transfer of Equity Shares held as trading assets is taxable at the applicable tax rates subject to any treaty relief, if applicable, to a non-resident seller.

Furthermore, the Finance Act, 2019 amended the Indian Stamp Act, 1899 with effect from July 1, 2020 clarified that, in the absence of a specific provision under an agreement, the liability to pay stamp duty in case of sale of securities through stock exchanges will be on the buyer, while in other cases of transfer for consideration through a depository, the onus will be on the transferor. The stamp duty for transfer of securities other than debentures on a delivery basis is specified at 0.015% and on a non-delivery basis is specified at 0.003% of the consideration amount.

Our Company cannot predict whether any tax laws or other regulations impacting it will be enacted, or predict the nature and impact of any such laws or regulations or whether, if at all, any laws or regulations would have a material adverse effect on our Company's business, results of operations, financial condition and cash flows. Investors should consult their own tax advisors about the consequences of investing in or trading in Equity Shares.

86. QIBs and Non-Institutional Investors are not permitted to withdraw or lower their Bids (in terms of quantity of Equity Shares or the Bid Amount) at any stage after submitting a Bid, and Retail Individual Bidders are not permitted to withdraw their Bids after the Bid/Offer Closing Date.

Pursuant to the SEBI ICDR Regulations, QIBs and Non-Institutional Investors are required to pay the bid amount on submission of the bid and are not permitted to withdraw or lower their Bids (in terms of quantity of Equity Shares or the Bid Amount) at any stage after submitting a Bid. RIIs can revise or withdraw their Bids during the Bid/Offer Period and until the Bid/Offer Closing Date, but not thereafter. While our Company is required to complete Allotment pursuant to the Offer within such period as may be prescribed under applicable law, events affecting the Bidders' decision to invest in our Equity Shares, including adverse changes in international or national monetary policy, financial, political or economic conditions, our business, financial condition and results of operations may arise between the date of submission of the Bid and Allotment. Our Company may complete the Allotment of our Equity Shares even if such events occur, and such events limit the Bidders' ability to sell our Equity Shares Allotted pursuant to the Offer or cause the trading price of our Equity Shares to decline on listing. QIBs and Non-Institutional Bidders will not be able to withdraw or lower their bids following adverse developments in international or national monetary policy, financial, political or economic conditions, our business, results of operations, cash flows or otherwise, between the dates of submission of their Bids and Allotment.

87. The determination of the Price Band is based on various factors and assumptions and the Offer Price of our Equity Shares may not be indicative of the market price of our Equity Shares after the Offer.

The determination of Price Band is based on various factors and assumptions and will be determined by our Company and the Selling Shareholder in consultation with the Book Running Lead Managers. Furthermore, the Offer Price of the Equity Shares will be determined by our Company, in consultation with the Book Running Lead Managers through the book building process prescribed under the SEBI ICDR Regulations.

The Offer Price will be based on numerous factors, as described under "Basis for Offer Price" beginning on page 171 may not be indicative of the market price for our Equity Shares after the Offer. The market price of our Equity Shares could be subject to significant fluctuations after the Offer and may decline below the Offer Price. In addition, the stock market often experiences price and volume fluctuations that are unrelated or disproportionate to the operating performance of a particular company. These broad market fluctuations and industry factors may materially reduce the market price of the Equity Shares, regardless of our Company's performance. As a result of these factors, we cannot assure you that investors will be able to resell their Equity Shares at or above the Offer Price

88. Our Equity Shares have never been publicly traded, and, after the Offer, our Equity Shares may experience price and volume fluctuations, and an active trading market for our Equity Shares may not develop.

Prior to the Offer, there has been no public market for our Equity Shares, and an active trading market for our Equity Shares may not develop or be sustained after the Offer. Listing does not guarantee that a market for our Equity Shares will develop, or if developed, the liquidity of such market for our Equity Shares. Investors might not be able to rapidly sell the Equity Shares at the quoted price if there is no active trading in the Equity Shares. The Offer Price of our Equity Shares is proposed to be determined through a book-building process and shall be based on numerous factors, as described in the section “Basis for Offer Price” on page 171 and may not be indicative of the market price of our Equity Shares at the time of commencement of trading of our Equity Shares or at any time thereafter. You may not be able to re-sell your Equity Shares at or above the Offer Price and may as a result lose all or part of your investment.

Our Equity Shares are expected to trade on NSE and BSE after the Offer, but there can be no assurance that active trading in our Equity Shares shall develop after the Offer, or if such trading develops that it shall continue. The Bidders may not be able to sell our Equity Shares at the quoted price if there is no active trading in our Equity Shares.

There has been significant volatility in the Indian stock markets in the recent past, and the trading price of our Equity Shares after this Offer may be subject to significant fluctuations as a result of market volatility or due to various internal or external risks, including but not limited to those described in this Red Herring Prospectus. The market price of our Equity Shares may be subject to significant fluctuations in response to, among other factors:

- i. our financial condition, results of operations and cash flows;
- ii. prospects for our business;
- iii. quarterly variations in our results of operations;
- iv. results of operations that vary from the expectations of research analysts and investors;
- v. results of operations that vary from those of our competitors;
- vi. changes in expectations as to our future financial performance, including financial estimates by research analysts and investors;
- vii. conditions in financial markets, including those outside India;
- viii. a change in research analysts’ recommendations;
- ix. announcements by us or our competitors of new services, significant acquisitions, strategic alliances, joint operations or capital commitments;
- x. announcements by third parties or government entities of significant claims or proceedings against us;
- xi. new laws and government regulations or changes in laws and government regulations applicable to our industry;
- xii. developments relating to our peer companies in our industry;
- xiii. change in interest rates;
- xiv. additions or departures of Key Managerial Personnel or Senior Management; and
- xv. general economic and stock market conditions.

The Indian stock markets have, from time to time, experienced significant price and volume fluctuations that have affected market prices for the securities of Indian companies. As a result, investors in our Equity Shares may experience a decrease in the value of our Equity Shares regardless of our financial performance or prospects. Changes in relation to any of the factors listed above could adversely affect the price of our Equity Shares. Consequently, the price of our Equity Shares may be volatile, and you may be unable to resell your Equity Shares at or above the Offer Price, or at all, and may as a result lose all or a part of your investment.

89. Any future issuance of Equity Shares or convertible securities or other equity linked instruments by us may dilute your shareholding, and significant sales of Equity Shares by our major shareholders may adversely affect the trading price of the Equity Shares.

We may be required to finance our growth through future equity offerings. Any future equity issuances by us, including a primary offering and grants of stock options under our employee stock option plan, may lead to the dilution of investors' shareholdings in us. Any future issuances of Equity Shares or the disposal of Equity Shares by our major shareholders or the perception that such issuance or sales may occur after the completion of this Offer (subject to compliance with the lock-in provisions under the SEBI ICDR Regulations), may adversely affect the trading price of the Equity Shares, which may lead to other adverse consequences including difficulty in raising capital through offering of the Equity Shares or incurring additional debt. There can be no assurance that we will not issue further Equity Shares or that the shareholders will not dispose of the Equity Shares. Any future issuances could also dilute the value of your investment in the Equity Shares. In addition, any perception by investors that such issuances or sales might occur may also affect the market price of Equity Shares.

90. Foreign investors are subject to foreign investment restrictions under Indian law, which may adversely affect the market price of the Equity Shares.

As an Indian company, we are subject to exchange controls that regulate borrowing in foreign currencies, including those specified under FEMA and the rules thereunder. Under the foreign exchange control regulations currently in force in India, transfers of shares between non-residents and residents are freely permitted (subject to certain restrictions) if they comply with the pricing guidelines and reporting requirements specified by the RBI. If the transfer of shares is not in compliance with such requirements or falls under any of the exceptions specified by the RBI, then the approval of the RBI will be required for such transaction to be valid. Additionally, shareholders who seek to convert the Indian Rupee proceeds from a sale of shares in India into foreign currency and repatriate that foreign currency from India will require a no objection/tax clearance certificate from the Indian income tax authority. We cannot assure investors that any required approval from the RBI or any other Indian government agency can be obtained on any particular terms, or at all.

Furthermore, in accordance with Press Note No. 3 (2020 Series), dated April 17, 2020 issued by the DPIIT and the Foreign Exchange Management (Non-debt Instruments) Amendment Rules, 2020 which came into effect from April 22, 2020, any investment, subscription, purchase or sale of equity instruments by entities of a country which shares a land border with India or where the beneficial owner of an investment into India is situated in or is a citizen of any such country, will require prior approval of the GoI, as prescribed in the Consolidated FDI Policy dated October 15, 2020 and the FEMA Rules. However, pursuant to amendment on March 10, 2026, investors with non-controlling beneficial ownership of up to 10% from such jurisdictions are permitted under the automatic route, subject to applicable sectoral caps, entry routes, attendant conditions and reporting requirements. These investment restrictions shall also apply to subscribers of offshore derivative instruments. Restrictions on foreign investment activities and impact on our ability to attract foreign investors may cause uncertainty and delays in our future investment plans and initiatives. We cannot assure you that any required approval from the RBI or any other governmental agency can be obtained on any particular term or at all.

Additionally, the Indian government may impose foreign exchange restrictions in certain emergency situations, including situations where there are sudden fluctuations in interest rates or exchange rates, where the Indian government experiences extreme difficulty in stabilizing the balance of payments or where there are substantial disturbances in the financial and capital markets in India. These restrictions may require foreign investors to obtain the Indian government's approval before acquiring Indian securities or repatriating the interest or dividends from those securities or the proceeds from the sale of those securities. There can be no assurance that any approval required from the RBI, or any other government agency can be obtained on any particular terms or at all.

For further details, see "Restrictions on Foreign Ownership of Indian Securities" beginning on page 596. Our ability to raise any foreign capital under the FDI route is therefore constrained by Indian law, which may adversely affect our business, cash flows, results of operations, financial condition and prospects.

91. Foreign investors may have difficulty enforcing judgments against us or our management.

The enforcement of civil liabilities by overseas investors in our Equity Shares, including the ability to effect service of process and to enforce judgments obtained in courts outside of India may be adversely affected by the fact that we are incorporated under the laws of the Republic of India and all of our executive officers and Directors reside in India. As a result, it may be difficult to enforce the service of process upon us and any of these persons outside of India or to enforce outside of India, judgments obtained against us and these persons in courts outside of India.

Recognition and enforcement of foreign judgments is provided for under Section 13 and Section 44A of the Civil Procedure Code (“Civil Code”) on a statutory basis. Section 44A of the Civil Code provides that where a foreign judgment has been rendered by a superior court, within the meaning of that Section, in any country or territory outside India which the Government has by notification declared to be in reciprocating territory, it may be enforced in India by proceedings in execution as if the judgment had been rendered by the relevant court in India. However, Section 44A of the Civil Code is applicable only to monetary decrees not being in the same nature of amounts payable in respect of taxes, other charges of a like nature or in respect of a fine or other penalties.

The United Kingdom, Singapore and Hong Kong, among other countries, have been declared by the Government to be a reciprocating territory for the purposes of Section 44A of the Civil Procedure Code. A judgment of a court of a country which is not a reciprocating territory may be enforced in India only by a suit upon the judgment under Section 13 of the Civil Procedure Code, and not by proceedings in execution. Section 13 of the Civil Code provides that foreign judgments shall be conclusive regarding any matter directly adjudicated upon except: (i) where the judgment has not been pronounced by a court of competent jurisdiction; (ii) where the judgment has not been given on the merits of the case; (iii) where it appears on the face of the proceedings that the judgment is founded on an incorrect view of international law or refusal to recognize the law of India in cases to which such law is applicable; (iv) where the proceedings in which the judgment was obtained were opposed to natural justice; (v) where the judgment has been obtained by fraud; or (vi) where the judgment sustains a claim founded on a breach of any law then in force in India. Under the Civil Procedure Code, a court in India shall, upon the production of any document purporting to be a certified copy of a foreign judgment, presume that the judgment was pronounced by a court of competent jurisdiction, unless the contrary appears on record. The suit must be brought in India within 3 years from the date of judgment in the same manner as any other suit filed to enforce a civil liability in India.

Further, there are considerable delays in the disposal of suits by Indian courts. It may be unlikely that a court in India would award damages on the same basis as a foreign court if an action is brought in India. Furthermore, it may be unlikely that an Indian court would enforce foreign judgments if it viewed the amount of damages awarded as excessive or inconsistent with public policy in India. A party seeking to enforce a foreign judgment in India is required to obtain prior approval from the RBI under FEMA to repatriate any amount recovered pursuant to execution and any such amount may be subject to income tax in accordance with applicable laws. Any judgment or award in a foreign currency would be converted into Indian Rupees on the date of the judgment or award and not on the date of the payment.

92. Holders of Equity Shares could be restricted in their ability to exercise pre-emptive rights under Indian law and could thereby suffer future dilution of their ownership position.

Under the Companies Act, a company having share capital and incorporated in India is required to offer holders of its Equity Shares pre-emptive rights to subscribe and pay for a proportionate number of Equity Shares to maintain their existing ownership percentages prior to the issuance of any new equity shares, unless the pre-emptive rights have been waived by the adoption of a special resolution by holders of three-fourths of the Equity Shares who have voted on such resolution. However, if the laws of the jurisdiction that you are in does not permit the exercise of such pre-emptive rights without us filing an offering document or registration statement with the applicable authority in such jurisdiction, you will be unable to exercise such pre-emptive rights unless we make such a filing. We may elect not to file a registration statement in relation to pre-emptive rights otherwise available by Indian law to you. To the extent that you are unable to exercise pre-emptive rights granted in respect of the Equity Shares, you may suffer future dilution of your ownership position and your proportional interests in us would be reduced.

93. A third party could be prevented from acquiring control of our Company because of anti-takeover provisions under Indian law.

There are provisions in Indian law that may delay, deter or prevent a future takeover or change in control of our Company, even if a change in control would result in the purchase of your Equity Shares at a premium to the market price or would otherwise be beneficial to you. Such provisions may discourage or prevent certain types of transactions involving actual or threatened change in control of our Company. Under the SEBI Takeover Regulations, an acquirer been defined as any person who, directly or indirectly, acquires or agrees to acquire shares or voting rights or control over a company, whether individually or acting in has concert with others. Although these provisions have been formulated to ensure that interests of investors/shareholders are protected, these provisions may also discourage a third party from attempting to take control of our Company. Consequently, even if a potential takeover of our Company would result in the purchase of the Equity Shares at a premium to their market price or would otherwise be beneficial to its stakeholders, it is possible that such a takeover would not be attempted or consummated because of the SEBI Takeover Regulations.

94. Our ability to raise foreign capital may be constrained by Indian law.

As an Indian company, we are subject to exchange controls that regulate borrowing in foreign currencies. Such regulatory restrictions limit our financing sources and could constrain our ability to obtain financings on competitive terms and refinance existing indebtedness. In addition, we cannot assure you that any required regulatory approvals for borrowing in foreign currencies will be granted to us without onerous conditions, or at all. Limitations on foreign debt may have an adverse effect on our business growth, financial condition and results of operations.

95. Rights of shareholders of companies under Indian law may be more limited than under the laws of other jurisdictions.

Our Articles of Association, composition of our Board, Indian laws governing our corporate affairs, the validity of corporate procedures, directors' fiduciary duties, responsibilities and liabilities, and shareholders' rights may differ from those that would apply to a company in another jurisdiction. Shareholders' rights under Indian law may not be as extensive and widespread as shareholders' rights under the laws of other countries or jurisdictions. Investors may face challenges in asserting their rights as shareholder in an Indian company than as a shareholder of an entity in another jurisdiction.

96. Compliance with provisions of Foreign Account Tax Compliance Act may affect payments on the Equity Shares.

The U.S. "Foreign Account Tax Compliance Act" (or "FATCA") imposes a new reporting regime and potentially, imposes a 30% withholding tax on certain "foreign passthru payments" made by certain non-U.S. financial institutions (including intermediaries).

If payments on the Equity Shares are made by such non-U.S. financial institutions (including intermediaries), this withholding may be imposed on such payments if made to any non-U.S. financial institution (including an intermediary) that is not otherwise exempt from FATCA or other holders who do not provide sufficient identifying information to the payer, to the extent such payments are considered "foreign passthru payments". Under current guidance, the term "foreign passthru payment" is not defined and it is therefore not clear whether and to what extent payments on the Equity Shares would be considered "foreign passthru payments". The United States has entered into intergovernmental agreements with many jurisdictions (including India) that modify the FATCA withholding regime described above. It is not yet clear how the intergovernmental agreements between the United States and these jurisdictions will address "foreign passthru payments" and whether such agreements will require us or other financial institutions to withhold or report on payments on the Equity Shares to the extent they are treated as "foreign passthru payments". You should consult their tax advisors regarding the consequences of FATCA, or any intergovernmental agreement or non-U.S. legislation implementing FATCA, to their investment in Equity Shares.

97. The insolvency laws of India may differ from those of other jurisdictions with which investors are familiar.

As we are established in India under the Companies Act, any insolvency proceedings relating to us is likely to involve Indian insolvency laws (including the Insolvency and Bankruptcy Code, 2016 of India), the procedural and substantive provisions of which may differ from comparable provisions of the local insolvency laws of jurisdictions with which investors are familiar.

1. Economic Outlook

1.1. Global Economy

Global Economic Growth Expected to Sustain at ~3% in Near Term

Global economic growth is projected to moderate to around 3.1% in 2026, reflecting the impact of geopolitical tensions in energy and trade flows. The ongoing Middle East conflict poses downside risks, with prolonged disruptions potentially reducing growth further to 2.5%, or lower. However, supportive factors such as continued investment momentum and policy support are helping offset some of these pressures.

1.1.1. Iran Conflict Impacts Energy Intensive Sectors

The current geopolitical tensions surrounding Iran conflict in West Asia, are having a direct quantifiable impact on the Indian consumer industry due to its high dependence on energy imports routed through the Strait of Hormuz (presently the zone of conflict). India imports around 60% its LPG demand and nearly 90% of the imports transit through the Strait of Hormuz route. Since LPG is a primary cooking fuel for over 300 million Indian households, any disruption in supply chains, or increase in freight and insurance costs has an immediate effect on household consumption expenditure and urban demand patterns in the country.

This impact is further amplified by India's crude oil dependence, with over 85% of total crude demand being imported, a large share of which travels from West Asia and eventually moves through the Strait of Hormuz route. A significant share of India's energy cargo, approximately 40–50% of crude oil imports and most LPG imports is routed through the Strait of Hormuz too, making it a critical chokepoint for India's energy security.

This creates a structural vulnerability, where even moderate disruptions or price shocks translate into higher fuel costs. Since fuel constitutes a key component of logistics, particularly in a distribution-heavy economy like India, rising crude prices increase transportation and supply chain costs across sectors such as FMCG, retail, e-commerce, and consumer durables. This leads to cost transmission across the value chain, affecting both producers' margins and end-consumer prices.

Additionally, a significant share of India's natural gas imports is also linked to this route, impacting energy-intensive sectors such as fertilizers, packaging, and manufacturing inputs. These sectors are closely integrated with consumer industries, creating second-order effects through higher input costs and supply-side pressures. As a result, the consumer industry faces broad-based cost escalation, with companies either absorbing margin pressures or passing on selective price increases, potentially moderating demand in price-sensitive segments.

Overall, the magnitude of exposure is substantial, with a large share of India's critical energy imports concentrated through a single geopolitical chokepoint. While short-term pressures on costs and supply chains remain elevated, ongoing efforts toward diversification of energy sourcing and strengthening of supply resilience are expected to partially mitigate risks, supporting the sector's medium- to long-term stability.

1.2. Indian Economic Outlook

1.2.1. GDP Growth and Outlook

Resilience to External Shocks Remains Critical for Near-term Outlook

The Indian economy continues to show rapid growth. For FY26, GDP is expected to grow by 7.6%, supported by rising rural demand, better job opportunities, and favourable business conditions.

In FY25, provisional estimates show a growth of 7.1% (Rs 299.89 trillion), led by robust performance in manufacturing, construction, and financial services. Consumer spending rose by 7.6%, and government spending increased by 3.8%, both contributing to the overall growth of the economy. In FY23, the real GDP stood at Rs 261.18 trillion and registered Y-o-Y growth of 7.2% in FY24 (Rs 280.01 trillion).

GDP Growth Outlook (April 2026)

FY27 GDP Outlook: The Reserve Bank of India (RBI) projects real GDP growth at 6.9% for 2026–27, supported by sustained momentum in the services sector, strong reservoir levels aiding the agricultural sector, and private consumption expected to remain uplifted by discretionary spending. The Indian government is also working towards minimising supply chain disruptions in critical sectors to ensure limited interruptions.

However, elevated energy and other commodity prices, as well as the travel disruptions in the Strait of Hormuz are likely to affect the growth this year. However, the government is working towards minimising the impact of the supply chain disruptions towards critical sectors to ensure limited interruptions.

1.2.2. India's GDP Per Capita

India's per capita GDP has shown a consistent upward trend over the past decade, reflecting steady economic growth. Rising per capita income, driven by robust economic development, enhances consumer confidence and discretionary spending, reflecting a higher standard of living and overall prosperity.

From FY23 to FY25 (according to the estimates), the per capita GDP increased from Rs 1,88,862 to Rs 2,25,896, with an average growth rate of around 9.4% annually. In FY26, the growth is expected to be around 7.0% at Rs 2,43,180. Key drivers of this growth include structural reforms, digitalisation, rising domestic consumption and increased foreign investment.

1.2.3. Gross Value Added (GVA)

GVA is the measure of the value of goods and services produced in an economy. GVA gives a picture of the supply side, whereas GDP represents consumption. GVA in FY25 was powered by a broad-based rebound across sectors. The gap between GDP and GVA growth stood at 0.1 percentage point in FY25, with GDP growing at 7.2% and GVA at 7.3%, as per MoSPI's provisional estimates released in March 2026.

In FY26 (FAE), real GVA growth of 7.7% is primarily led by manufacturing, Trade, Hotels, Transport, Communication & Services related to Broadcasting, Storage. Industry is estimated at 8.8%, supported by a pickup in manufacturing and construction (11.5% and 7.1% respectively).

1.2.4. Trends in Per capita State Domestic Product (SDP)

SDP is the total value of goods and services produced, during any financial year, within the geographical boundaries of a state. The top performing states on per capita SDP include Delhi, Gujarat, Karnataka, and Tamil Nadu, due to their strong industrial and services base, higher urbanisation, better infrastructure and greater investment inflows, leading to higher income generation.

As of FY25, major states having a per capita SDP below national average include Andhra Pradesh, Rajasthan, Madhya Pradesh and Uttar Pradesh growing Y-o-Y by 8.0%, 6.9%, 4.7% and 7.9% respectively. Bihar is the poorest performing state with a per capita SDP of Rs 36,342 as on FY25. It has consistently been performing the poorest since FY18, growing merely at a CAGR of 4.5% from FY18 to FY25. Bihar's poor performance is due to factors such as a high population base, lower levels of industrialisation, infrastructure gaps, lower human capital development and higher dependence on agriculture, which together limit productivity and income growth.

1.2.5. Consumer Price Index (CPI) Records Combined Inflation Rate of 3.4% in March 2026

CPI inflation for March 2026 stood at 3.4%, reflecting a 3.2% increase compared to March 2025. Corresponding inflation rates for the rural and urban areas are 3.63% and 3.11% respectively.

Chart 4: Retail Price Inflation in Terms of Index and Y-o-Y Growth in % (Base: 2011-12=100, 2023-24=100)

Source: MOSPI; Note: year for FY26 YTD has been revised to 2024, while prior years remain on the 2012 base; the January-March 2025 and 2026 figures are also reported on the 2024 base.

The CPI is primarily factored in by RBI while preparing their bi-monthly monetary policy. At the bi-monthly meeting held in April 2026, RBI projected inflation at 4.6% for FY27 with inflation during Q1FY27 at 4.0%, Q2FY27 at 4.2%, Q3FY27 at 5.2% and Q4FY27 at 4.7%.

Considering the current inflation situation, RBI has maintained the repo rate at 5.25% in the April 2026 meeting of the Monetary Policy Committee (MPC).

Chart 5: RBI Historical Repo Rate

Source: RBI

RBI maintained a 'neutral' monetary policy stance, though, the MPC noted an increase in geopolitical tensions. The growth is expected to be supported by robust private consumption and investment demand. RBI has adopted for a non-inflationary growth with the foundations of strong demand and supply with a good macroeconomic balance. With volatile trade conditions in view, the domestic growth and inflation curve requires the policies to be supportive.

The India Meteorological Department (IMD) expects a below normal monsoon, rains in most parts of the country, except in some areas of the northeast, southern peninsula, and northwest India which is likely to affect inflation levels.

The prices of petrol and diesel remain have not increased yet as the refineries have been absorbing the shocks by reducing the excise duty, despite high global crude oil prices. However, a hike in prices remains monitorable due to high company losses. The rise in energy prices and weather disturbances affecting food prices are upside risks to inflation.

1.2.6. Household Savings' shift towards Physical Assets

Household savings are of the household sector, measured as its excess of income over consumption and invested in financial assets and physical assets. Household savings in India have grown at an 8.8% CAGR since FY18, reaching Rs 54.6 trillion in FY24, a 9.0% Y-o-Y increase. A shift toward physical assets, particularly housing and gold/silver ornaments, reflects a preference for tangible investments amid high inflation and slow growth in monetary assets. Savings in the form of gold and silver ornaments (% of Household sector savings) was reported at 1.2% in FY24.

This increasing trend towards physical assets is occurring alongside a rise in household leverage, with borrowing, especially for housing, automobiles, and personal consumption, pushing household financial liabilities to a six-year high. Mutual funds and life insurance also grew, with an 11.5% and 13.6% Y-o-Y increase, respectively, while investment in equities and capital market instruments rose as they offer higher returns than bank deposits.

Source: MOSPI

Source: MOSPI

Gross Domestic Savings (GDS) are the total savings within the economy, comprising the savings of the household, private corporate and public sectors. GDS as percentage of GDP has seen a flat growth moving within a narrow range. Within the last five years, it was highest in FY19 at 31.7%. It declined to less than 30% during FY20 and FY21 on account of COVID-19 pandemic, increasing again to 31.2% in FY22 before declining to 30.2% in FY23. The trend picked up marginally in FY24 to 30.70%.

As of FY24, Savings were Rs 92.59 trillion indicating a Y-o-Y growth of 12.3% while GDP was at Rs 301.23 trillion showing a growth of 12.0%.

1.2.7. Growth of the Middle Class in India and the Rural Economy in India

The Indian rural economy is becoming a significant driver of the Fast-Moving Consumer Goods (FMCG) sector's resurgence, signalling a promising turnaround in aggregate demand after a slow start to the FY24-25. RBI highlights that rising incomes and improved infrastructure are fuelling increased rural consumption of FMCG products. This boost is supported by a rise in rural savings, marked by growing numbers of savings bank accounts and balances, and a reduction in inflationary pressures, which has allowed rural consumption to catch up with urban areas. Additionally, favourable monsoon conditions and improved sowing data are expected to sustain this growth, complemented by increased government spending on rural development and infrastructure.

The expansion of middle-income households in rural India is transforming the country's economic landscape. This growth is driven by rising incomes, increased discretionary spending, a shift towards online and omnichannel shopping, and advancements in payment and logistics infrastructure. There is also a notable dietary shift in rural areas from carb-based foods to more protein-rich diets. India's middle class, characterised by significant income variability, exhibits diverse spending patterns. Lower-middle-class households allocate much of their income to private healthcare, education and essential consumer goods such as motorbikes and basic appliances. In contrast, the upper-middle-class invests in luxury items, entertainment, property, and personal services, with a higher propensity to own assets like cars, computers, and air conditioners. Both segments of the middle class are substantial and emerging as key drivers of consumption and economic growth in India. Recent policies, including the Mahatma Gandhi National Rural Employment Guarantee Act, have increased rural incomes, enabling more rural households to enter the middle class. The growing, more inclusive, and politically engaged middle class reflects broader economic growth, although there is a risk of social strain if growth falters and quality job creation does not keep pace.

The government's budget measures which focus on agriculture, infrastructure and rural development, aim to increase incomes and revitalise the rural sector. These measures include transforming agricultural research, introducing new crop varieties, promoting natural farming and enhancing digital infrastructure for agriculture. Successful implementation of these programs, coupled with proper fund allocation, is crucial for improving farm incomes and strengthening supply chains. A shift towards diversified, high-value agricultural production, along with marketing and trade reforms, is needed to foster more inclusive, environmentally friendly and climate-resilient agriculture.

Despite higher absolute incomes among the wealthy class, the sheer size of India's middle class indicates it will become a major force in the economy, creating one of the world's largest markets. This burgeoning middle class, with its growing discretionary spending power, is poised to drive investment, generate employment and spur further economic growth. Assuming effective reforms are implemented, and the middle class expands to over one billion people, its role will be pivotal in India's economic and social fabric, influencing a wide range of activities from consumption to employment and political change.

1.2.8. Overview on Key Demographic Parameters

- Population Growth and Urbanisation

The trajectory of economic growth of India and private consumption is driven by socio-economic factors such as demographics and urbanisation. According to the World Bank, India's population in CY22 surpassed 1.42 billion, slightly higher than China's population (1.41 billion) and became the most populous country in the world.

Age Dependency Ratio, ratio of dependents to the working age population, i.e., 15 to 64 years, wherein dependents are population younger than 15 and older than 64 is on decline. Declining dependency means the country has an improving share of working-age population generating income, which is a good sign for the economy. It was as high as 76% in 1983, which has reduced to 47% in CY23. However, this ratio is expected to rise again to 54% by CY36, driven by an increase in the elderly population as life expectancy improves.

Source: World Bank Database, MOSPI; Note; E- Estimated, F- Forecasted

Despite a projected rise in the dependency ratio to 54% by CY36, India's young and growing workforce, especially in newly urbanised towns, will continue to drive income growth and consumer demand. This presents strong opportunities for sectors like consumer electronics, transportation and railways. Rising employment, urbanisation and government investment in rural development and digital infrastructure will further boost demand, while increased tech adoption supports long-term consumption growth across both urban and rural markets.

Source: World Bank Database; Note; E- Estimated, F- Forecasted

The urban population is significantly growing in India. The urban population in India is estimated to have increased from 413 million (32% of total population) in CY13 to 519.5 million (36.4% of total population) in the year CY23. India is undergoing a significant urban transformation, with the urban population projected to rise to 40% by CY36. This shift is driven by factors such as improved living standards, increased employment opportunities in urban areas, and government initiatives aimed at urban development. This rapid urbanisation might necessitate substantial investments in infrastructure, housing, and transportation.

- ### Increasing Disposable Income and Consumer Spending

Gross National Disposable Income (GNDI) is a measure of the income available to the nation for final consumption and gross savings. Between the period FY23 to FY26, per capita GNDI at current prices registered a CAGR of 8.5%. More disposable income drives more consumption, thereby driving economic growth.

With increase in disposable income, there has been a gradual change in consumer spending behaviour as well. Per capita Private Final Consumption Expenditure (PFCE) which is measure of consumer spending has also showcased significant growth from FY23 to FY26 at a CAGR of 9.0%.

1.3. Conclusion

From a macroeconomic standpoint, India remains one of the most resilient large economies in a challenging global environment. The IMF forecasts GDP growth of 6.5% in CY26, far outpacing the estimated CY26 global average of 3.1%. This performance reflects a combination of strong domestic fundamentals, policy stability and a sustained focus on capital formation. While the global economy continues to face uncertainty from geopolitical conflicts, commodity price volatility and rising public debt, India's diversified growth drivers, stable policy framework and expanding export ecosystem position it well to navigate these headwinds.

The key sectors with potential exposure to changes in US tariff policy include engineering goods, electronics, gems and jewellery, pharmaceuticals, textiles and automobiles/auto components, given their material export linkages to the US market.

As of April 2026, the India–US interim trade agreement has not yet been finalised, and negotiations remain ongoing due to legal and policy uncertainties in the United States. In February 2026, the United States agreed to reduce reciprocal tariffs on Indian exports to 18% from 25% as part of an interim trade understanding. This reduction was intended to improve India's export competitiveness and was expected to lead to a formal agreement by April 2026.

Beyond the US, India is actively broadening its export base to reduce dependency on any single market. Strengthening trade links with the European Union, ASEAN, and African economies is helping diversify risk and stabilise export earnings. Policy initiatives supporting logistics modernisation, lower tariff barriers and industrial corridor development continue to enhance India's competitiveness as a global manufacturing hub.

The Iran conflict has led to an increase in prices of consumer products in India due to potential higher fuel, freight and input costs, which can make everyday goods like FMCG items, plastics and packaged foods more expensive. Disruptions in shipping and fertiliser supplies are also pushing up food prices, affecting imports of agricultural inputs and leading to costlier food products for consumers. Overall, delays in trade routes and rising logistics costs are reducing availability and increasing prices of imported consumer goods, especially from Gulf-linked supply chains. Overall, this is leading to supply shortages, rising costs, and production slowdowns in India's chemical and pharma sectors, with the impact likely to worsen if the conflict continues. Prolonged geopolitical tensions or conflict in the region could lead to sustained increases in crude oil and LPG prices, which may translate into higher input costs across industries and contribute to inflationary pressures in the Indian economy.

Domestically, policy momentum remains strong. The 56th meeting of the GST Council marked a major structural reform by proposing a simplified two-rate system of 5% and 18%, replacing the earlier four-slab framework, along with a 40% demerit rate for luxury and sin goods. This rationalisation aims to reduce compliance burdens, enhance efficiency, and stimulate private consumption. Together with recent revisions in personal income tax rates, these measures are projected to release savings exceeding Rs 2.5 lakh crore into the economy, supporting demand and easing inflationary pressures.

The Union Budget's allocation of Rs 12.20 lakh crore for capital expenditure in FY27 further reinforces the government's commitment to infrastructure-led growth. Public investment is expected to catalyse private sector activity, evidenced by rising project announcements and growing imports of capital goods. Improving rural demand, supported by healthy monsoon progress, favourable sowing conditions, and adequate reservoir levels, provides additional tailwinds for consumption and investment.

2. Overview of the Nutrition Industry

2.1. Global Nutrition Market

The global nutrition market shows distinct regional trends shaped by cultural preferences, demographics, and income levels. In the United States, personalised nutrition is gaining traction as consumers embrace apps and wearables to tailor their dietary choices. Germany maintains a strong focus on organic and clean-label products, reflecting consumer priorities around health and sustainability. Japan, with its ageing population, drives demand for age-specific supplements targeting bone, joint, and cognitive health. China's growing middle-class fuels rising consumption of vitamins and preventive wellness products. Meanwhile, India sees rapid expansion in Ayurvedic nutrition, supported by cultural trust in traditional systems and increasing health awareness. Together, these regional dynamics reflect a broader global shift towards customised, functional, and natural nutrition solutions across both developed and emerging markets.

Table 5: Key Global Trends Shaping the Nutrition Market

Category	Key Statistic
Aging Population (2030)	1 in 6 people globally will be over 60
German Organic Food Sales	6.4% of total food sales are organic
Japanese Elderly Population	33% of population is over 60
U.S. Healthcare Spending	17.8% of GDP allocated to healthcare

Chart 12: Global Nutrition Market Size, by Value (CY23-CY30P)

The global nutrition market is witnessing strong growth driven by rising health awareness, aging populations, and increasing demand for functional foods and supplements. Expansion of e-commerce and personalized nutrition is accelerating adoption, while chronic diseases are boosting preventive healthcare spending. Emerging markets, especially Asia-Pacific, remain key growth engines, supporting a sustained high single-digit expansion outlook through 2030.

2.2. Nutrition Disorders and Nutrition-Associated Conditions

2.2.1. Malnutrition/Undernutrition

Malnutrition, especially undernutrition, remains a critical public health challenge in India despite economic progress. It includes stunting, wasting, underweight, and micronutrient deficiencies, with India contributing to 30% of global childhood stunting and 50% of severely wasted children under five. Key drivers include poverty, food insecurity, limited dietary diversity, inadequate maternal health, and poor access to clean water, particularly in rural areas. Socioeconomic disparities hinder access to nutritious foods, while gaps in healthcare, cultural practices, and gender-based food allocation exacerbate the issue.

Undernutrition significantly impacts public health, contributing to nearly 68% of child mortality and affecting maternal health, with over 50% of pregnant women experiencing anaemia. The economic cost of malnutrition is estimated between USD 10 and USD 28 billion annually due to lost productivity and increased healthcare costs.

Clinical nutrition is crucial in combating undernutrition, utilising therapeutic foods like Ready-to-Use Therapeutic Food (RUTF) for severe cases and fortified supplements for micronutrient deficiencies. Government initiatives, such as POSHAN Abhiyaan and the Integrated Child Development Services (ICDS) scheme, aim to subsidise nutrition and improve dietary practices among vulnerable populations. These efforts work together to address undernutrition and promote healthier futures for at-risk communities in India.

2.2.1.1. Malnutrition overview in India

Malnutrition, especially undernutrition, remains a critical issue in India, affecting millions of young children. About 17% of children under six are underweight, 36% are stunted, and 6% are wasted. These issues stem mainly from poverty, limited access to nutritious food, and inadequate healthcare, particularly in rural areas.

Government initiatives like the National Nutrition Strategy and the Mid-Day Meal Scheme aim to address these challenges, but progress has been slow. The Indian nutrition industry, including brands like Amway and Dabur, is expanding to offer affordable dietary supplements and fortified foods. However, making these products accessible to low-income families is a significant challenge.

Globally, malnutrition remains a major concern, with the number of undernourished individuals rising significantly, particularly due to the COVID-19 pandemic. By 2023, around 733 million people remained undernourished. India, accounting for one-third of global undernutrition, highlights the urgent need for sustained action to combat this crisis and improve health outcomes for future generations.

Table 7: Global Population Under Malnutrition (Millions)

Year	Global Population Under Malnutrition (Millions)	Prevalence of Undernourishment (%)

2.2.1.2. Malnutrition in Male/Female/Children

Malnutrition remains a pervasive public health challenge in India, affecting over 1 billion individuals across genders, with significant variations in severity and implications. Among females, deep-rooted gender inequality, limited healthcare access, and sociocultural norms prioritising male well-being contribute to high rates of anaemia (57% in women aged 15–49) and underweight conditions (18.7%). Early childhood anaemia is most severe, affecting 67.1% of girls aged 0–5. These conditions lead to poor maternal outcomes, stunted adolescent growth, and intergenerational health issues.

Table 8: Female Malnutrition in India by Age Group (2023 Estimates)

Age Group	Female Population (Est. 2023)	Underweight Prevalence	Anaemia Prevalence
0–5 years	~61 million	32.5%	67.1%
6–14 years	~120 million	23.0%	54.0%

Source: NFHS-5, CNNS Report: UNICEF India, National Commission on Population (2021–2036)

While males are often perceived to be nutritionally advantaged, data reveals notable vulnerability: 22.7% of men aged 15–49 are anaemic and 16.2% are underweight, with rural and low-income populations most affected. Childhood malnutrition is nearly equal across genders—over 32% of boys and girls under 5 are underweight. These disparities highlight the urgent need for inclusive nutrition strategies addressing poverty, healthcare access, education, and equity to build a healthier and more productive population.

Table 9: Male Malnutrition in India by Age Group (2023 Estimates)

Source: NFHS-5, UNICEF India, National Commission on Population, CNNS Report (2016–18), CNNS Report (2016–18)

Malnutrition in children underpins India’s long-term health and development outcomes. According to NFHS-5 (2019–2021), 35.8% of children under five are stunted due to chronic undernutrition, 19.3% are wasted, and 32.1% are underweight, making them highly susceptible to infections and mortality. Anaemia affects 67.1% of this group, primarily from iron and other micronutrient deficiencies, leading to fatigue, developmental delays, and compromised immunity. Older children (ages 6–19) also face significant risks, with around 23–24% underweight and anaemia rates ranging from 24.5% to 28.4%. Poor sanitation, lack of dietary diversity, and limited access to fortified foods continue to exacerbate child malnutrition, particularly in states like Bihar and Uttar Pradesh.

2.2.2. Sarcopenia and Frailty

By 2030, 14% of Indians will be over 60, with sarcopenia affecting up to 30% and frailty up to 26% of older adults. Poor nutrition, inactivity, and chronic illnesses are key drivers, with elderly women at higher risk due to low protein and vitamin D intake. These conditions increase healthcare burden—40% of frail seniors need daily care, and sarcopenia-related hospitalisations cost USD 2.4 billion annually. The clinical nutrition market is growing with targeted supplements, supported by schemes like NPHCE to improve elderly health.

Table 11: Comparative Prevalence of Sarcopenia and Frailty-Related Conditions: India Vs Global (2015–2023)

2.2.3. Overweight and Obesity

Overweight and obesity are rising health concerns in India, affecting 24% of adults (NFHS-5) and 3.4% of children under five. India ranks third globally in obesity prevalence, with over 135 million obese adults (World Obesity Atlas, 2023). Key factors include urbanisation, sedentary lifestyles, poor diets, and genetic predisposition. Obesity is linked to rising diabetes (101 million cases in 2023) and cardiovascular mortality, accounting for 65% of obesity-related deaths. The annual economic burden is estimated at USD 8–10 billion.

Table 12: State Wise Obese Population (2021)

In response, the clinical nutrition market is growing through weight management products and diabetic nutrition. Government initiatives like FSSAI’s “Eat Right India” aim to improve dietary habits and reduce obesity risk.

2.2.4. Micronutrient Abnormalities

Micronutrient deficiencies or “hidden hunger” affects a large portion of India’s population, despite sufficient calorie intake. Anaemia impacts 57% of women and 67% of children, while nearly 70% are vitamin D deficient (ICMR, 2023). Diets low in fruits, vegetables, and proteins, along with poor healthcare access, are key contributors. These deficiencies lead to serious outcomes—anaemia causes 40% of maternal deaths, while vitamin A and iodine deficiencies impair vision, immunity, and cognition. The economic cost is estimated at USD 12–15 billion annually (World Bank, 2022).

Table 14: Major Micronutrient Deficiencies in India (2023)

Micronutrient	Prevalence	Key Affected Groups	Health Consequences
Iron	57% of women, 67% of children are anaemic	Pregnant women, children <5	Maternal mortality, cognitive deficits
Vitamin D	70–90% of urban adults are deficient	Office workers, elderly	Osteoporosis, muscle weakness
Vitamin A	22% of children <5 (subclinical deficiency)	Children 6–59 months	Blindness, immune dysfunction

2.2.5. Re-feeding Syndrome

Refeeding Syndrome (RFS) is a serious yet under-recognized metabolic complication in India, triggered by rapid nutritional reintroduction in severely malnourished patients. It affects 15–20% of ICU patients undergoing aggressive nutrition therapy and is linked to electrolyte imbalances like hypophosphatemia and hypokalemia. High rates of chronic malnutrition, alcoholism, and post-surgical recovery increase RFS risk, especially where clinical awareness is low. If untreated, RFS can cause cardiac, respiratory, and neurological complications, raising hospital costs by USD 2,000–5,000 per case.

Table 16: Key Components of Re-feeding Syndrome

Component	Prevalence in RFS Cases	Affected Groups	Clinical Consequences
Hypophosphatemia	80–90%	ICU patients, cancer survivors	Arrhythmias, respiratory failure

Component	Prevalence in RFS Cases	Affected Groups	Clinical Consequences
Hypokalemia	60–70%	Alcoholics, anorexia patients	Muscle weakness, cardiac arrest
Hypomagnesemia	40–50%	Post-bariatric surgery patients	Tetany, seizures
Thiamine Deficiency	30–40%	Chronic alcoholics, elderly	Wernicke's encephalopathy
Fluid Overload	50–60%	Malnourished children	Edema, heart failure

India's clinical nutrition sector is addressing RFS through gradual calorie reintroduction, electrolyte monitoring, and thiamine supplementation, with top hospitals aligning with global protocols such as NICE and ASPEN for better prevention and management.

2.2.6. Diabetes

India faces a growing diabetes crisis, with 101 million adults diagnosed in 2023—up from 77 million in 2019—making it the diabetes capital of the world. The rise is driven by urbanisation, sedentary lifestyles, poor diets, and genetic factors, with Type 2 diabetes accounting for 95% of cases. The disease leads to serious complications, 40% of diabetics develop cardiovascular issues, 18% retinopathy, and up to 30% nephropathy. Notably, 57% of cases go undiagnosed until advanced stages. The economic impact is significant, with an annual cost of USD 8.7 billion and a 0.5–1% GDP loss (World Bank, 2022).

Year	India (Adults, 20–79 years)	Global (Adults, 20–79 years)

Clinical nutrition interventions, such as diabetic-specific formulas and fortified foods, help manage glucose levels, while government programs like NPCDCS promote lifestyle changes to prevent and control the disease.

2.2.7. Cancer

India reported 1.4 million new cancer cases and 850,000 deaths in 2023 (ICMR), with numbers expected to reach 1.6 million by 2025 (WHO). Common cancers include breast, oral, cervical, lung, and colorectal, often diagnosed late—over 70% at advanced stages. Key drivers include tobacco use (linked to 35% of cases), poor diets, alcohol, pollution, and an ageing population. Rural areas face major diagnostic delays due to limited screening. Cachexia and treatment-related malnutrition affect 40–80% of patients, worsening outcomes.

Year	India (New Cases)	Global (New Cases)

The economic toll is high—55 million people are pushed into poverty annually due to cancer-related expenses (World Bank, 2022). In response, the clinical nutrition market offers solutions like oral supplements, enteral/parenteral nutrition, and support under NPCDCS to improve patient care and outcomes.

2.2.8. Kidney Disorders

Chronic Kidney Disease (CKD) affects 17% of Indian adults (2023) and is rising due to diabetes, hypertension, obesity, and poor dietary habits. New cases may reach 1.5 million annually by 2025, with late diagnosis—especially in rural areas, worsening outcomes. Undernutrition affects 40–70% of CKD patients due to dietary restrictions and dialysis-related nutrient loss. Common issues include protein-energy malnutrition and electrolyte imbalances. Clinical nutrition solutions include renal-specific diets, oral nutritional supplements (e.g., Nepro HP), and enteral nutrition in critical care.

2020	~15% of the adult population	~10% of the adult population

Government schemes like NPCDCS and Ayushman Bharat (PM-JAY) offer subsidised dialysis and limited nutrition support. However, high out-of-pocket costs for renal nutrition remain a challenge, highlighting the need for greater integration of clinical nutrition in nephrology care to improve patient outcomes.

2.2.9. India Nutrition Market

The India Nutrition Market is a dynamic and rapidly growing sector, driven by increasing health consciousness, rising disposable incomes, and supportive government initiatives. It encompasses a broad spectrum of products, including dietary supplements, sports nutrition, medical nutrition, and functional foods, catering to diverse demographic groups from infants to the elderly. India's population presents varied nutritional needs - urban areas in North India show strong demand for protein supplements and multivitamins, while South India leans towards supplements for diabetes and hypertension.

Around 24% of Indians are strictly vegetarian, and 9% follow a vegan diet, boosting demand for plant-based nutrition. Over 80% of the population suffers from micronutrient deficiencies, driving growth in fortified foods. Consumers are increasingly health-conscious, favouring natural, organic, and plant-based products. E-commerce has improved access to nutritional goods, supported by the rise in online shoppers. Plant-based proteins, Ayurvedic ingredients, and clean-label products are in demand.

Global trends show that consumers are willing to pay a premium, averaging 30.74%, for healthier foods. Nutrition labelling and health claims significantly influence purchasing decisions. Pharmacies dominate supplement sales, while supermarkets lead in functional food distribution. The Indian market reflects a blend of modern health needs and traditional wellness practices. Despite strong growth prospects, challenges such as affordability, misinformation, and regional disparities persist. Strategic efforts focusing on education, accessibility, and product innovation will be key to shaping the future of nutrition in India.

Year	Total Health Expenditure (Rs. Crore)	Population (Crore)	Per Capita Health Expenditure (Rs., Current Prices)
CY19	Rs. 5,80,000	136.6	Rs. 4,246
CY20	Rs. 6,40,000	138.0	Rs. 4,638
CY21	Rs. 7,30,000	139.3	Rs. 5,240
CY22	Rs. 9,04,461	140.8	Rs. 6,423
CY23	Rs. 10,20,000	141.7	Rs. 7,200

Sources: Economic Survey 2022–23, PIB, World Bank (population data); Note: 2023 figures are projected based on 12% YoY growth (aligned with increased capital expenditure and inflation).

The 74% increase in per capita health expenditure from CY19 to CY23 reflects growing health awareness and the government's prioritisation of healthcare infrastructure in India. Public spending now accounts for 48% of total health expenditure (FY22), indicating stronger primary care systems and improved access to nutrition through schemes such as POSHAN Abhiyaan. However, India's per capita health expenditure remains low at Rs. 7,200 (2023), limiting widespread out-of-pocket spending on premium nutrition products. The 12.7% capital allocation towards health infrastructure may enhance distribution networks for fortified foods and supplements in rural areas. As a result, demand is expected to rise for affordable, government-subsidised nutrition products over premium offerings, except in affluent urban centres.

India’s nutrition market has maintained a strong growth trajectory, increasing from Rs 1,183 billion in CY23 to Rs 1,528 billion in CY25, and is projected to reach Rs 2,814 billion by CY30. Growth is supported by rising demand for protein supplements, functional and immunity-focused foods, along with premiumisation and clean-label trends. Increasing lifestyle diseases and fitness awareness are driving urban consumption, while government initiatives such as POSHAN Abhiyaan and food fortification programs are improving rural access. Additionally, regulatory focus by Food Safety and Standards Authority of India is enhancing product quality and consumer trust, supporting sustained double-digit growth.

2.4. India Nutrition Market Import and Export Trends

India’s nutrition market holds a crucial position in the global health and wellness landscape, combining its rich Ayurvedic heritage with rising demand for functional foods and dietary supplements. As of 2023, India’s total nutrition trade (imports plus exports) was valued at USD 4.2 billion. Exports recorded a healthy five-year CAGR of 9.3%, fuelled by international demand for herbal supplements and plant-based proteins (DGCIS, 2023). Nonetheless, the market continues to register a trade deficit, primarily due to heavy dependence on imported vitamins, minerals, and premium sports nutrition ingredients. Key trading partners such as the United States, China, and the UAE play an instrumental role in shaping both import and export flows. This section provides a detailed overview of India’s nutrition trade patterns, regulatory hurdles, and economic implications. India imports approximately USD 1.8 billion worth of nutrition products annually, with vitamins, minerals, and nutraceutical raw materials comprising 55% of this total (DGCIS, 2024). Vitamin D and B12 are predominantly imported from Switzerland and Germany, while China supplies low-cost amino acids and collagen peptides. The United States accounts for 18% of imports, particularly high-end whey protein isolates used in fitness and bodybuilding products. Japan and South Korea supply advanced additives such as omega-3 fatty acids and probiotics, underlining India’s dependence on international biotechnology for functional foods.

In the post-pandemic period, imports expanded at a CAGR of 6.2% (2020–2024), driven by increased consumption of infant nutrition and sports supplements. However, growth has been tempered by regulatory obstacles, such as the Food Safety and Standards Authority of India’s (FSSAI) stringent approval process for novel ingredients like cannabidiol (CBD). In 2023, delays in approving imported probiotics rose by 30%, prompting some manufacturers to switch to domestic alternatives (FSSAI Annual Report, 2023). China’s significant role in raw material supply - representing 25% of import share - also exposes India to geopolitical disruptions, as witnessed during the 2022 COVID-19 lockdowns in Shanghai.

India’s exports of nutrition products reached USD 2.6 billion in 2024, led by Ayurvedic and herbal supplements, which account for ~40% of the total exports of nutrition products. The United States remains the largest export destination (30% share), importing items such as ashwagandha, turmeric, and moringa extracts. The UAE functions as a re-export hub, facilitating the movement of Ayurvedic teas and moringa powder to Africa and the Middle East. Demand for plant-based proteins, particularly pea and rice isolates, surged in Europe, where exports grew by 22% in 2023 (APEDA, 2023).

India's competitive strength lies in cost-effective Ayurvedic formulations, bolstered by certifications such as the AYUSH Premium Mark, which enhances global credibility. Southeast Asian countries, especially Singapore and Malaysia, import turmeric extracts and functional beverages due to rising preferences for natural wellness products. However, exports face non-tariff barriers, notably the EU's Novel Food Regulations, which impose expensive and time-consuming approval processes for herbal ingredients like ashwagandha. Nevertheless, nutraceutical ingredient exports recorded a five-year CAGR of 12.3% (2020–2024), supported by India's status as the world's largest producer of turmeric and ginger.

India's nutrition trade is governed by a dual regulatory regime - FSSAI for food safety and AYUSH for traditional medicine. Importers must adhere to FSSAI's labelling requirements, including detailed ingredient disclosures and health claim validations. For instance, imported vitamin supplements face an average 90-day approval cycle, compared to 45 days for domestic products (FSSAI, 2023). Meanwhile, the Ministry of AYUSH mandates certification for herbal exports to ensure compliance with traditional preparation methods.

Customs duties significantly impact trade flows: finished products like energy bars attract tariffs as high as 35%, whereas raw materials such as vitamin blends are taxed at lower rates (5–15%). Recent digital reforms - such as the implementation of the e-sanad export documentation system - have shortened processing times by 40% (Ministry of Commerce, 2023). Exporters still face challenges in meeting EU sustainability criteria, such as deforestation-free supply chain compliance for plant-based ingredients, which may inflate operational costs by 15–20% by 2025.

Imported product prices increased by 12% in 2023 due to global inflation, straining margins for domestic producers reliant on imported raw materials. In contrast, export prices rose by 8%, driven by rising international demand for organic and Ayurvedic offerings. The nutrition trade sector contributes 0.6% to India's GDP and supports an estimated 1.2 million jobs, including farmers growing medicinal crops and workers in processing centres across Himachal Pradesh and Kerala (NITI Aayog, 2023). The industry's value chain remains fragmented. While 60% of exporters source their herbs locally, dependence on imported vitamins poses systemic risks. For instance, the 2021 global shortage of vitamin B12 disrupted production for nearly 30% of Indian supplement brands (ASSOCHAM, 2022). Geographically, Gujarat and Maharashtra dominate nutraceutical exports (70% share), whereas the Northeast region focuses on exporting organic teas and spices.

To address the trade deficit, India is pursuing self-reliance initiatives such as Production-Linked Incentive (PLI) schemes for vitamin manufacturing and R&D grants for biofortified crops. The government also aims to enhance exports to Africa and Latin America, where cost-effective herbal remedies are in high demand. Nonetheless, key challenges remain. Geopolitical disruptions, such as Red Sea shipping delays, may increase logistics costs by 20% in 2024. Tighter EU regulations on herbal supplements could also slow export momentum. Domestically, ensuring consistent quality in Ayurvedic production to meet global standards remains essential.

2.5. Millennial and Gen Z Consumers vs Older Consumers: Diverging Spending Patterns

India’s nutrition market reveals a clear generational divide. Millennials (27–42) and Gen Z (18–26) are driving demand for lifestyle-based, preventative nutrition, while older consumers (45+) focus on condition-specific, necessity-driven products.

Younger Consumers prioritise wellness, spending on plant-based proteins, vitamin gummies, and functional snacks. Influenced by social media and digital platforms, they favour clean labels, sustainability, and convenience via e-commerce and quick-commerce platforms. Brand loyalty is low, and they often try new ingredients like adaptogens or collagen. Brands like Oziva and Wellbeing Nutrition cater well to this segment

Older Consumers focus on managing chronic conditions through trusted, medically backed products like Ensure or Protinex. Their purchases are guided by doctors, traditional media, and a strong preference for legacy brands. They typically shop offline, buy in bulk, and are more price sensitive. While the two groups differ, both are growing. Over time, Millennials may shift to therapeutic products, and older users may adopt tech-driven tools. Brands that combine innovation with trust, like Ayurvedic-functional blends or telehealth-linked supplements, will gain a broader consumer base.

2.6. Government regulations for the Nutrition & Wellness Industry in India

2.6.1. Regulatory Bodies Overseeing the Sector

The Indian nutrition and wellness industry are governed by a multi-tiered regulatory ecosystem involving several key authorities:

Food Safety and Standards Authority of India (FSSAI): FSSAI is the apex body under the Ministry of Health and Family Welfare responsible for regulating the manufacture, distribution, sale, and import of food products, including health supplements, nutraceuticals, functional foods, and foods for special dietary use (FSDU).

- Key regulations include the FSS (Health Supplements, Nutraceuticals, FSDU, FSMP, Functional Foods and Novel Foods) Regulations, 2016, and the FSS (Advertising and Claims) Regulations, 2018.
- FSSAI actively promotes fortification initiatives and mandates scientific validation of products.
- Continued progress on FoPL (Front-of-Pack Labelling) for high-fat, sugar, and salt (HFSS) foods, with consultations ongoing for phased implementation.
- Strengthened enforcement on misleading health claims, especially “immunity boosting” and disease-related claims (2024–2025).
- Expansion of FoSCoS for digitised licensing, compliance monitoring, and risk-based inspections.
- Strengthened e-commerce compliance norms requiring proper display of FSSAI license and product information on online platforms.

Ministry of AYUSH: Responsible for regulating traditional Indian systems of medicine - Ayurveda, Yoga & Naturopathy, Unani, Siddha, and Homoeopathy.

- The Ministry ensures herbal and Ayurvedic supplements comply with the Drugs and Cosmetics Act, 1940 (Schedule T).
- It launched AYUSH Aahar standards (2021) and announced the National Policy on Integrative Medicine (2023).
- Increasing focus on scientific validation and global standardisation of traditional formulations.
- Efforts to clarify regulatory overlap between AYUSH products and nutraceuticals.

Drug Controller General of India (DCGI): DCGI, under CDSCO, regulates nutrition-related products when they resemble pharmaceuticals (e.g. high-dose vitamins or disease management supplements).

- Products making therapeutic or disease claims require compliance with drug-like safety and labelling standards.
- Increasing role in classification of borderline products between food and drugs (2024–2025).
- Greater emphasis on clinical evidence and validation for therapeutic nutrition products.

Central Drugs Standard Control Organisation (CDSCO): India's national regulatory body for pharmaceuticals also oversees nutraceuticals and therapeutic dietary supplements.

- Collaborates with FSSAI and AYUSH for hybrid products.
- Key legislation includes the Drugs and Cosmetics Act, 1940 and the New Drugs and Clinical Trials Rules, 2019.

2.6.2. Evolving Regulatory Framework

- Implementation of FSSAI's 2016 Health Supplements & Nutraceuticals Regulations
- Strict labelling norms, particularly for health claims, allergens, and disclaimers
- Introduction of “+F” mark for fortified foods
- Greater delineation between nutraceuticals, functional foods, and medical nutrition
- Increasing regulatory focus on e-commerce platforms and D2C brands
- Rising emphasis on scientific substantiation and clinical validation of claims

2.6.3. Recent Regulatory Developments

- FSSAI's digitised licensing and registration portal (FoSCoS)
- Enhanced scrutiny of health/therapeutic claims and influencer marketing (via ASCI)
- Import surveillance and customs coordination for food product compliance
- Increasing attention to plant-based, protein-rich and alternative nutrition products
- Strengthened quality control labs and testing infrastructure
- Increased import surveillance for protein supplements and nutraceutical ingredients
- Growing regulatory attention to plant-based, protein-rich, and alternative nutrition products
- Development of standards for plant-based foods and fortified staples by BIS
- Early-stage regulatory discussions around personalised nutrition and digital health platforms
- Increasing focus on sustainability, traceability, and clean-label products

2.7. Market Trends & Challenges for the Nutrition & Wellness Industry in India

India's nutrition and wellness sector is witnessing robust growth, driven by rising health consciousness, increasing urbanisation, and supportive government initiatives. Urban consumers are leading the demand for functional foods, dietary supplements, and Ayurvedic formulations, while affordability and awareness remain key barriers in rural areas. Despite strong momentum, the sector faces regulatory fragmentation, counterfeit risks, and infrastructure limitations, presenting a dual narrative of opportunity and constraint.

2.7.1. Key Market Trends and Growth Drivers

Health Awareness: Post-COVID, consumers are prioritising immunity, mental wellbeing, and disease prevention, boosting demand for supplements and functional foods.

Preventive Healthcare Focus: Rising use of nutraceuticals and fortified foods for digestion, joint, and heart health.

Clean & Plant-Based Products: Preference for organic, vegan, and natural products like almond milk, pea protein, and additive-free foods.

Traditional Ingredients: Revival of Ayurvedic herbs like turmeric, ashwagandha, and giloy in modern formats.

Digital & D2C Access: E-commerce and health-focused D2C brands offer wide access, personalisation, and convenience.

Rising Incomes: Higher disposable income, especially in urban areas, is driving premium product consumption.

Corporate Wellness: Firms are investing in employee health through fitness, nutrition plans, and supplements.

Government Push: Initiatives like POSHAN Abhiyaan, Ayushman Bharat, and support for AYUSH and health startups are strengthening the ecosystem

2.7.2. Threats and Challenges

Regulatory Gaps and Lack of Standardisation

The Indian wellness industry faces regulatory ambiguities due to overlapping jurisdictions of bodies like FSSAI, the Ministry of AYUSH, and CDSCO. This creates confusion among manufacturers and challenges in ensuring product quality and compliance.

Affordability and Price Sensitivity

A significant portion of the population, especially in Tier-III and rural areas, finds wellness products unaffordable. High pricing of organic, fortified, or imported supplements restricts their mass adoption across lower-income groups.

Low Awareness Beyond Urban Markets

Despite rising urban demand, consumers in smaller towns often lack awareness of wellness benefits or associate supplements with pharmaceutical drugs. This limits market penetration and adoption beyond metros.

Distribution and Infrastructure Limitations

The absence of robust cold-chain infrastructure and limited offline retail presence in rural India hampers the distribution of perishable wellness products, affecting last-mile delivery efficiency.

Lack of Clinical Backing for Products

Many products in the wellness space lack sufficient clinical trials or research-backed efficacy claims. This undermines consumer trust, especially among the educated and urban segments, and limits market credibility.

2.8. Top Investment Pockets based on the Market Segmentation of the Nutrition Industry

2.8.1. Distribution Channel – Top Investment Pockets

India's nutrition market is shifting, with online D2C channels now comprising ~20% of sales, while offline channels remain dominant at 80%. The D2C segment is gaining traction due to rising smartphone use, digital payment adoption, and demand for personalised, convenient solutions. Subscription models are enabling recurring revenue and flexible delivery, while offline channels—including nutrition stores, pharmacies, and fitness centres—cater to consumers seeking immediate access and expert guidance. Investment is focusing on omnichannel strategies that blend digital scale with physical trust. Key growth areas include digital infrastructure, last-mile delivery, AI-driven personalisation, and mobile-first platforms, positioning agile players for long-term leadership.

2.8.2. End-User - Top Investment Pockets

India's nutrition industry offers diverse investment opportunities aligned with evolving health trends. Sports Nutrition leads with 26% market share, driven by rising fitness culture, gym memberships, and social media influence. High-demand products include protein powders, pre-workout drinks, and recovery supplements. Clinical Nutrition is a stable, institutional-driven segment, supported by India's ageing population and rising chronic diseases. Nutraceuticals are growing rapidly, with demand for immunity, gut health, and cognitive supplements in convenient formats. Dietary Supplements hold the largest market share due to their role in general wellness, while weight management and meal replacements are gaining traction among urban consumers. The most promising opportunities lie in hybrid products—e.g., sports nutrition with immunity benefits or daily-use clinical formulations—reflecting demand for holistic, multi-benefit solutions.

2.9. Insights on Emerging Innovation (Personalised Nutrition)

India's nutrition and wellness industry is undergoing a transformative shift, driven by heightened health consciousness, technological advancements, and the increasing burden of lifestyle-related diseases. Among the most disruptive trends is personalised nutrition, which involves tailoring dietary recommendations based on individual genetic makeup, lifestyle, and health conditions. This shift is supported by cutting-edge innovation in food science, data analytics, and digital platforms, with growing consumer preference for sustainable, plant-based solutions. The surge is underscored by pressing public health concerns, with over 135 million obese and 101 million diabetic individuals, and accelerated by the digital boom, marked by 750 million smartphone users facilitating real-time wellness monitoring. Importantly, India's rich cultural and dietary diversity, along with the resurgence of Ayurveda and traditional diets, is fostering a uniquely localised approach to personalised nutrition.

2.9.1. Key Emerging Innovations

Nutrigenomics and DNA-Based Diets

Nutrigenomics, studying the interaction between genes and nutrition, is gaining traction in India, with companies offering DNA-based diet plans tailored to individual health profiles. Firms like MapMyGenome and Xcode Life lead the space. MapMyGenome's flagship offering, GenomePatri, provides comprehensive genetic insights on predispositions to lifestyle diseases, food intolerances, and nutritional deficiencies. Based on the results, individuals receive bespoke diet and lifestyle guidance for managing conditions such as obesity, diabetes, and high cholesterol. Likewise, Xcode Life's products like NutriFit and Gene Nutrition assess genes linked to metabolism, vitamin absorption, and intolerances (e.g., lactose, gluten). These services are increasingly popular among health-conscious urban Indians seeking preventative and precision-based nutrition. As awareness and affordability grow, these tools are expected to become mainstream in India's wellness space.

Plant-Based and Fermented Proteins

Plant-based and fermented proteins are emerging as sustainable and nutritious alternatives to animal-based sources. Evo Foods offers a plant-based egg made from mung beans and lentils, appealing to vegans and vegetarians alike. Bengaluru-based String Bio, on the other hand, is pioneering fermentation-based proteins by converting methane into single-cell protein, providing a highly sustainable and scalable source of nutrition. These innovations align with the dietary preferences of India's large vegetarian population and the growing eco-conscious urban consumer base.

Microbiome Testing for Gut Health

Microbiome testing is becoming a cornerstone of personalised nutrition, focusing on the gut's role in overall health. Global companies like Viome and Indian firms like Leucine Rich Bio are leading this trend with home-based gut microbiota tests. Viome's Health Intelligence Test utilises RNA sequencing to analyse gut, cellular, and immune health, offering tailored recommendations for diet, prebiotics, and probiotics. In India, Leucine Rich Bio's BugSpeaks evaluates microbial imbalances and provides India-specific dietary and supplement advice. These innovations help users manage conditions such as IBS, diabetes, and weakened immunity by understanding their gut flora and making informed nutritional choices.

Continuous Glucose Monitoring (CGM) Devices

CGM devices are revolutionising diabetes management in India, making personalised dietary adjustments more effective. Home-grown companies like Ultrahuman and BeatO offer CGM wearables that provide real-time feedback on how foods impact blood glucose levels. Ultrahuman's M1 pairs with a mobile app to deliver insights on glucose fluctuations due to food, stress, and activity. BeatO offers an affordable CGM solution with app connectivity, personalised advice, and coaching, specifically tailored to the Indian diabetic population. These platforms enable users to optimise carbohydrate intake, prevent sugar spikes, and enhance metabolic health, critical in a country with over 100 million diabetics.

3d Food Printing for Customised Nutrition

3d food printing offers promising applications in personalised and therapeutic nutrition, particularly in clinical and eldercare settings. International companies like Natural Machines (Spain) and SavorEat (Israel) are leading in this space. Their devices can print soft-textured, nutrient-dense meals tailored to specific needs, such as those of the elderly or patients with swallowing difficulties. In India, the technology is still emerging, with research institutes and startups beginning to explore applications for low-sugar or protein-rich diets. As costs decline and awareness increases, 3d printing could significantly impact specialised meal planning in Indian hospitals and healthcare facilities.

Ayurvedic Superfoods and Herbs

Ayurveda is being reimagined through modern formats to support personalised wellness. Companies like Organic India and Himalaya Wellness are offering herbal blends customised for various health goals. Organic India's Turmeric Fusions (with black pepper for enhanced absorption) and Himalaya's Ashwagandha Gummies are examples of traditional adaptogens adapted for modern lifestyles. These products resonate with urban consumers seeking natural, side-effect-free supplements. Online quizzes and AI-based consultations are also being used to personalise herbal regimens. As Ayurveda gains global acceptance, it is expected to play a foundational role in India's personalised nutrition revolution.

Precision Farming for Nutrient-Rich Crops

Precision farming is being harnessed to grow biofortified crops aimed at alleviating micronutrient deficiencies. Indian agri-tech companies like CropIn use AI, IoT, and remote sensing to help farmers monitor soil health and weather conditions, ensuring better crop outcomes. Crops such as zinc-rich rice and iron-fortified millets are being cultivated to tackle widespread issues like anaemia and stunted growth. CropIn's SmartFarm platform helps optimise water use, fertilisers, and pest control, aligning with initiatives like POSHAN Abhiyaan. This innovation supports both sustainable agriculture and national nutrition goals.

2.10. Government Initiatives in India

2.10.1. Integrated Child Development Services (ICDS)

Launched in 1975, ICDS is India's largest community-based nutrition programme, targeting children (0–6 years), pregnant women, and lactating mothers. Operated by the Ministry of Women and Child Development through 1.4 million Anganwadi Centres (AWCs), it delivers six key services: supplementary nutrition, preschool education, health check-ups, immunisation, nutrition counselling, and referrals.

Table 29: ICDS Coverage and Beneficiary Demographics (2023)

Parameter	Statistics	Source
Total Beneficiaries	~88 million (including 74 million children + 14 million pregnant/lactating women)
Age-wise Coverage (Children)	- 0–3 years: ~50 million - 3–6 years: ~38 million
Eligible Population Coverage	~65% (urban) and ~75% (rural)

Source: MWCD Annual Report (2022–23), NFHS-5 (2019–21), NITI Aayog (2021)

Nutritional Products Supplied

- Take-Home Rations (THR): Fortified cereals, pulses, oil (450–500 kcal/day per child)
- Ready-to-Eat (RTE) Foods: Energy-dense snacks for 3–6-year-olds
- RUTF: For treating severely malnourished children (since 2022)
- Micronutrient Supplements: IFA tablets, vitamin A, deworming tablets

Procurement is both centralised (e.g., Maharashtra, Tamil Nadu) and decentralised (e.g., Kerala, Odisha via SHGs). Public-private partnerships with players like Tata Trusts, Nestlé, and GAIN are driving product innovation. ICDS contributes to 60% of India's fortified food demand, supporting a Rs 12,000 crore market. Emerging startups (e.g., EatFit, Sattviko) and tools like POSHAN Tracker are enhancing delivery and oversight.

Despite wide coverage, nutritional adequacy is low (only ~20% of THR meets standards in some states). Issues include poor quality, urban access gaps, and a lack of standardisation. Strengthening PPP models, ensuring FSSAI compliance, and tech-driven monitoring are vital for improving outcomes and unlocking private sector potential.

2.10.2. Anganwadi Services

Launched in 1975 under the ICDS framework, Anganwadi Services constitute one of the largest community-based child nutrition and development initiatives globally. Operated by the Ministry of Women and Child Development (MWCD), the scheme targets children aged 0–6 years, pregnant and lactating women, and adolescent girls through a widespread network of more than 1.39 million Anganwadi Centres (AWCs) nationwide. These centres serve as grassroots hubs offering supplementary nutrition, immunisation linkages, health check-ups, referral services, and early childhood education, making them integral to both India's public health strategy and its nutrition market ecosystem.

A critical function of Anganwadi Services is the generation of demand for fortified nutrition products. AWCs distribute THR, hot meals, and micronutrient-fortified goods sourced from both public and private entities. Centralised procurement models, such as those in Maharashtra and Tamil Nadu, rely on large players like ITC and HUL, while decentralised models in states like Odisha and Kerala empower SHGs and local women's cooperatives, fostering rural livelihoods while addressing food security.

Public-Private Partnerships (PPPs) have played a significant role in enhancing programme efficacy and innovation. Noteworthy collaborations with entities such as Akshaya Patra Foundation, PepsiCo India, and Britannia have facilitated the distribution of RUTF, fortified biscuits, and other nutrient-rich alternatives. International organisations, including GAIN and the Tata Trusts, have supported supply chain strengthening and capacity-building initiatives in low-income areas.

Nonetheless, Anganwadi Services have made meaningful contributions to reducing malnutrition, stunting, and anaemia. Equally important, they have created avenues for private sector engagement in a domain previously dominated by government. With enhanced public-private collaboration, India can transform its Anganwadi system into a scalable, technology-driven nutrition platform. Emerging trends such as decentralised fortified food production, personalised nutrition, and predictive analytics offer promising pathways to improved outcomes.

In conclusion, Anganwadi Services act as both demand generators and delivery platforms within India's Rs 20,000+ crore nutrition industry. Their strategic significance lies in their ability to advance public health goals while simultaneously fostering private-sector participation. Strengthening these services through policy reform, innovation, and integrated delivery models will be critical to the future of India's nutrition ecosystem.

2.11. POSHAN Abhiyaan

Launched in 2018, POSHAN Abhiyaan is India's flagship nutrition mission aiming to reduce stunting, anaemia, and low birth weight through a technology-enabled, community-driven approach. Now extended to 2026, it aligns with schemes like ICDS, NHM, and Swachh Bharat Abhiyan, targeting maternal and child malnutrition across 18 ministries. The programme has boosted demand for fortified foods (e.g., rice, wheat, oils), RUTFs, and Take-Home Rations, creating strong growth avenues for start-ups and FMCG players. Over 15 states have adopted rice fortification, supported by partnerships with Tata Trusts, GAIN, and private firms.

Table 31: State-Wise POSHAN Abhiyaan Coverage, Beneficiaries, and Outcomes (2022–23)

Despite its scale, implementation challenges persist—such as fund delays, uneven state adoption, and low digital readiness among frontline workers. High-burden states like Uttar Pradesh and Bihar show low fund utilisation (57–68%), while Tamil Nadu and Karnataka exceed 85%, driven by better use of tools like the POSHAN Tracker. Market opportunities are rising in fortified foods, maternal supplements, nutrition tech, and AI-based growth monitoring, especially in high-need states. POSHAN Abhiyaan remains a catalyst for public-private innovation, offering a USD 3–5 billion opportunity in India's nutrition economy.

National Nutrition Mission (NNM)

Launched in 2017, the National Nutrition Mission (NNM), also referred to as POSHAN Abhiyaan, focuses on tackling malnutrition, specifically targeting stunting, undernutrition, anaemia, and low birth weight among children. The initiative places significant emphasis on inter-ministerial convergence, real-time monitoring, and community mobilisation. It laid the foundation for POSHAN 2.0, which incorporates advanced technology and data-driven solutions to effectively address malnutrition across India.

Mother and Child Protection (MCP) Card

The MCP Card is a collaborative initiative between the Ministry of Health and Family Welfare and the Ministry of Women and Child Development. It functions as a comprehensive health record, tracking both the child's growth and immunisation schedule, as well as the mother's antenatal and postnatal care. The card plays a pivotal role in ensuring timely health interventions and equipping mothers with crucial information about nutrition and healthcare for better health outcomes.

Jan Andolan (People's Movement) under POSHAN Abhiyaan

The Jan Andolan (People's Movement) is a key component under POSHAN Abhiyaan aimed at promoting community-driven nutrition initiatives. Through awareness campaigns, community meetings, and local events, Jan Andolan engages communities in adopting practices that improve nutrition and health outcomes. This community-centric approach focuses on driving behavioural change to ensure widespread participation in nutrition-related activities.

Nutrition Rehabilitation Centres (NRCs)

NRCs are specialised units providing medical and nutritional care to children suffering from Severe Acute Malnutrition (SAM). These centres offer therapeutic feeding, medical treatment, and caregiver education, all of which are essential in reducing child mortality and improving the nutritional status of vulnerable children in high-risk regions.

Partnership with State Schemes

Several states have developed complementary schemes to enhance the outcomes of ICDS and other nutrition initiatives. For example, Gujarat's 'Mamta Abhiyan' focuses on maternal and child health through community engagement, while Tamil Nadu's 'Puratchi Thalaivi Amma Baby Care Kit' provides essential items for newborns and mothers, encouraging institutional deliveries and postnatal care.

Source: NFHS-5 prevalence rates (2019–21), Census; Note: Census 2011 data, adjusted to 2023 using a 1.1% annual growth rate, and estimates for women aged 15–49 using projected Census data

Uttar Pradesh registers the highest malnutrition burden across all three indicators, accounting for nearly 7 million stunted children and over 26 million anaemic women, followed closely by Bihar and Maharashtra. These figures reflect both the large populations and persistently poor nutrition outcomes in these states. A clear regional pattern emerges, with northern and eastern states such as Uttar Pradesh, Bihar, Madhya Pradesh, and Jharkhand facing more severe malnutrition challenges. In contrast, southern states like Kerala and Tamil Nadu show significantly better outcomes, likely due to stronger public health systems, better female education levels, and higher health spending. Kerala stands out with the lowest levels of child malnutrition and anaemia, underscoring the impact of sustained investments in health and nutrition.

2.13. Urban vs Rural Disparities

India's nutrition landscape is deeply marked by persistent urban-rural disparities, reflecting long-standing differences in income, education, infrastructure, and access to healthcare. While urban areas benefit from superior healthcare infrastructure, higher nutritional awareness, and greater dietary choices, rural regions often struggle with limited healthcare access, poverty, food insecurity, and a lack of dietary diversity.

One of the most visible outcomes of this divide is in child malnutrition. According to NFHS-5 (2019–21), the stunting rate among children under five stands at 37.3% in rural areas, significantly higher than the 30.1% recorded in urban areas. Similarly, wasting, a key indicator of acute undernutrition, affects 19.3% of rural children versus 16.3% of urban children. These figures reflect the greater vulnerability of rural children due to lower household incomes, poor feeding practices, and limited access to nutritious food.

Micronutrient deficiencies further highlight this gap. NFHS-5 shows that anaemia affects 67.1% of rural children and 57.2% of rural women aged 15–49, compared to 64.2% and 54.2%, respectively, in urban areas. These deficiencies can impair cognitive and physical development and contribute to poor health outcomes over the long term.

Table 33: Trends in Key Nutrition Indicators Across Urban and Rural India (2015–2021)

Indicator	Rural (2015)	Urban (2015)	Rural (2021)	Urban (2021)
Stunting (Children <5)	41.2%	31.0%	37.3%	30.1%
Wasting (Children <5)	21.5%	17.1%	19.3%	16.3%
Anaemia (Women 15–49)	53.1%	48.6%	57.2%	54.2%
Obesity (Women 15–49)	18.7%	26.5%	24.6%	31.7%
Household Dietary Diversity	35%	48%	40%	55%

Source: NFHS-4 (2015–16), NFHS-5, NFHS-4, FAO 2015 & 2023

Interestingly, India faces a "double burden" of malnutrition, where undernutrition in rural populations coexists with rising obesity and diet-related non-communicable diseases in urban centres. NFHS-5 data shows that 31.7% of urban women and 28.4% of urban men are obese, compared to 24.6% and 22.1%, respectively, in rural India. This surge in obesity is driven by sedentary lifestyles, increased intake of processed foods, and Westernised dietary patterns in urban areas.

Dietary diversity, a critical measure of nutrition adequacy, remains low in rural India. FAO data from 2023 shows that only 40% of rural households meet the minimum dietary diversity standard, versus 55% of urban households. Contributing factors include poor access to diverse food markets, low agricultural diversity for self-consumption, and restricted purchasing power in rural areas. These disparities translate into distinct market demands. In rural India, the focus is on affordable, accessible nutrition solutions such as fortified staple foods (e.g., iodised salt, fortified rice and wheat), and community-based interventions that emphasise nutrition education and maternal-child health. Addressing micronutrient deficiencies through mass supplementation and food fortification remains a priority.

Conversely, the urban nutrition market is witnessing increased demand for premium wellness products, such as protein supplements, functional foods, and products targeting lifestyle-related conditions like obesity, diabetes, and cardiovascular diseases. This shift is supported by higher disposable incomes and increased health consciousness.

Table 34: Socioeconomic and Health Disparities Between Urban and Rural India (2015–2023)

Indicator	Rural (2015)	Urban (2015)	Rural (2021)	Urban (2021)
Access to Improved Sanitation	32%	72%	58.6%	80.7%
Exclusive Breastfeeding (0–6 months)	48%	42%	55.8%	48.6%

Per Capita Monthly Income (Rs)	Rs 1,430	Rs 3,498	Rs 2,845	Rs 6,459
Health Infrastructure (PHCs per 100,000 population)	2.1	1.8	2.5	1.8

The urban-rural divide in India’s nutrition sector is deep-rooted and multifaceted, with significant implications for public policy and private sector strategies. While rural India requires low-cost, large-scale nutrition interventions, urban markets are increasingly driven by preventive health and lifestyle-oriented consumption. Addressing this dual challenge calls for differentiated policies, targeted product development, and innovative delivery models that are sensitive to local contexts.

3. Indian Clinical Nutrition Market

3.1. Overview of Clinical Nutrition Market

The Indian Clinical Nutrition Market focuses on specialised nutritional products for individuals with medical conditions affecting food intake or nutrient absorption, including oral supplements, enteral feeding solutions, and parenteral nutrition. The market is rapidly expanding due to demographic shifts like an ageing population, urbanisation, and increasing chronic diseases such as diabetes and cancer. By 2031, India's elderly population is expected to reach 194 million, sustaining demand for age-specific nutrition.

Health consciousness is rising, with 70% of consumers relying on doctors' recommendations, although price sensitivity remains a challenge, particularly in rural areas. Trends include protein fortification, micronutrient-enriched products, and the integration of Ayurvedic ingredients. Government initiatives like Poshan Abhiyaan combat malnutrition, which affects 35% of children under five, driving demand for pediatric nutrition.

Online platforms like Practo and PharmEasy are influencing consumer behaviour, with e-commerce seeing significant growth, particularly post-COVID-19. Pharmacies account for nearly 50% of sales, and government programs provide subsidized nutrition products through Anganwadi centres in rural areas.

States like Maharashtra, Tamil Nadu, and Delhi are poised to drive growth in the clinical nutrition market due to their significant healthcare investment. Maharashtra's urbanisation, expected to reach 53% by 2030, fuels demand in cities like Mumbai and Pune, where disposable incomes support premium products. Tamil Nadu's high burden of non-communicable diseases (NCDs) and robust hospital infrastructure boost demand for enteral and parenteral nutrition. In Delhi, high spending on preventive healthcare and supplements is notable. Kerala's health-literate and ageing population increases geriatric nutrition demand, while rising NCD rates in Punjab and Haryana lead to state-led nutrition initiatives. Telangana's pharma hubs enhance access to nutrition products, and West Bengal's improvements in rural healthcare align with national malnutrition reduction goals. Overall, urbanisation, particularly in states with rates above 40% like Gujarat and Karnataka, is a critical driver for increased healthcare access and awareness of clinical nutrition solutions. By 2030, urban populations in high-spending states are projected to exceed 45%, heightening demand for tailored nutrition products.

India's clinical nutrition market is expanding steadily, supported by a high and persistent disease-linked nutrition burden. As per NFHS-5, ~35.5% of children are stunted, ~19.3% wasted, and ~32.1% underweight, indicating a large base requiring therapeutic nutrition interventions. At the same time, India is witnessing a rising prevalence of lifestyle diseases such as diabetes (~9–10% of adults), increasing the need for disease-specific nutrition support.

Additionally, institutionalisation of nutrition delivery is strengthening demand, over 8.5 crore children are monitored through Anganwadi/Poshan systems, improving diagnosis and treatment of malnutrition. Expansion of hospital infrastructure, greater clinical adoption of enteral/parenteral nutrition, and growing awareness of medical nutrition therapy in recovery and critical care are further supporting market growth.

Overall, the market is structurally driven by the dual burden of undernutrition and rising non-communicable diseases, ensuring sustained growth over the medium term.

3.3. Technological Advancement in the Clinical Nutrition Market

Personalised Nutrition Platforms

Advances in genomics, metabolomics, and AI-driven analytics are enabling highly individualised nutrition plans tailored to a patient's genetic makeup, microbiome composition, and health conditions. Personalised nutrition platforms assess biomarkers and lifestyle factors to create targeted dietary interventions, helping to manage chronic diseases, malnutrition, and post-surgical recovery more effectively. Companies are also integrating machine learning models that continuously refine recommendations based on patient progress.

Novel Delivery Systems

New delivery technologies are improving the bioavailability, stability, and patient acceptability of clinical nutrition products. Innovations include lipid-based carriers, nano emulsions, microencapsulation, and sustained-release formulations, allowing for better absorption of essential nutrients. These novel systems are especially critical for vulnerable populations such as neonates, geriatric patients, and individuals with gastrointestinal complications, ensuring that therapeutic nutrition is more effective and easier to administer.

Digital Health Integration

The inclusion of digital health tools - such as mobile apps, wearable devices, and telehealth platforms - is transforming the delivery and monitoring of clinical nutrition. Real-time tracking of dietary intake, nutrient levels, and health status enables clinicians to provide adaptive and responsive interventions. AI-powered platforms further enhance remote monitoring, compliance tracking, and predictive analysis, making clinical nutrition management more efficient and accessible.

Plant-Based and Alternative Ingredient Technologies

The growing demand for sustainable and allergen-friendly nutrition solutions is driving the adoption of plant-based and alternative ingredients in clinical nutrition. Technological advancements allow for the development of high-protein, nutrient-dense formulations using sources such as soy, pea, algae, and fermented proteins. These innovations cater to patients with specific dietary restrictions, support environmental sustainability goals, and expand therapeutic options in clinical settings.

3.4. Regulatory Landscape in the Clinical Nutrition Market

The regulatory landscape for clinical nutrition products is shaped by a complex framework of global and regional authorities ensuring safety, efficacy, and quality. Key regulatory bodies enforce stringent guidelines to govern product development, labelling, and distribution, with variations in classification and compliance requirements across regions.

In the United States, the Food and Drug Administration (FDA) oversees clinical nutrition products under the Federal Food, Drug, and Cosmetic Act. Products such as medical foods and dietary supplements are regulated under 21 CFR Parts 101 (labelling) and 107 (infant formula), requiring adherence to Good Manufacturing Practices (GMP) and pre-market notifications for infant formulas. The FDA's 2018 Nutrition Innovation Strategy emphasises modernisation of standards to address evolving nutritional science.

In Europe, the European Medicines Agency (EMA) and the European Commission regulate clinical nutrition through directives like 2002/46/EC (food supplements) and 2016/128/EU (Food for Special Medical Purposes, FSMP). FSMPs require evidence of nutritional efficacy and clinical safety, with labelling guided by Regulation (EU) No. 1169/2011. The EMA mandates post-market surveillance to monitor adverse effects.

India's regulatory framework involves the Central Drugs Standard Control Organisation (CDSCO) under the Drugs and Cosmetics Act, 1940, which classifies certain clinical nutrition products as drugs, requiring compliance with Schedule Y (clinical trial guidelines) and Medical Devices Rules (2017). The Food Safety and Standards Authority of India (FSSAI), under the Food Safety and Standards Act, 2006, regulates products categorised as foods, including the 2021 Food Safety and Standards (Medical Foods) Regulations for FSMPs, emphasising labelling and nutrient composition.

Other regions include Japan's Pharmaceuticals and Medical Devices Agency (PMDA), which enforces the Foods for Special Health Uses (FOSHU) system under the Health Promotion Act, and Australia's Therapeutic Goods Administration (TGA), regulating clinical nutrition as listed or registered medicines under the Therapeutic Goods Act, 1989. Brazil's National Health Surveillance Agency (ANVISA) oversees products under RDC No. 243/2018 for dietary supplements, while the Gulf Cooperation Council (GCC) countries adhere to the GCC Standardisation Organisation (GSO) guidelines for product registration and labelling.

Compliance requirements universally include rigorous pre-market approvals, particularly for infant formulas and FSMPs, involving clinical trials and safety assessments. Labelling must align with regional standards, such as the FDA's Nutrition Facts panel or the EU's allergen declarations. Post-market surveillance, including adverse event reporting and periodic audits, is critical. Facility inspections are required by some regions in addition to GMP certifications and quality control measures.

India-specific regulations reflect a dual oversight system. The CDSCO mandates drug-like approvals for certain clinical nutrition products, including clinical trials under the New Drugs and Clinical Trials Rules (2019), while the FSSAI focuses on food-based products, enforcing standards for contaminants and labelling. Recent updates, such as the 2021 FSMP regulations, aim to harmonise Indian standards with global practices, though challenges persist in navigating overlapping jurisdictions between the CDSCO and FSSAI.

Globally, harmonisation efforts like the Codex Alimentarius aim to streamline standards, yet disparities in product classification (e.g., drug vs. food) complicate market entry. Companies must adopt agile strategies to address evolving regulations, such as the EU's farm-to-fork initiative or India's emphasis on local clinical data. Understanding these dynamics is crucial for stakeholders to ensure compliance and leverage growth in the expanding clinical nutrition market.

3.5. Consumer Behaviour Insights for India Clinical Nutrition Market

India's clinical nutrition market is experiencing significant growth, propelled by increasing health awareness and evolving consumer preferences. A key driver is the rising burden of chronic diseases such as diabetes and cardiovascular disorders, which has shifted consumer focus toward preventive healthcare. Urban populations, in particular, are becoming more health-conscious, with 42% actively seeking personalised nutrition products aimed at managing lifestyle-related ailments. This trend is further encouraged by government-led health initiatives and the expansion of digital health platforms, both of which are enhancing public understanding of nutritional well-being.

Demographic factors also play a crucial role in shaping market demand. India's ageing population, projected to comprise 14% of the total population by 2030, represents a major segment requiring targeted nutritional support. Simultaneously, malnutrition among children remains a pressing concern, with 35% of children under five experiencing stunting. While urban areas dominate in terms of product adoption due to better healthcare infrastructure and higher awareness, rural regions face barriers such as limited affordability and lower health literacy, which restrict broader access to clinical nutrition solutions. The rise of e-commerce has significantly transformed accessibility, with online sales of clinical nutrition products witnessing a 25% year-on-year growth between 2022 and 2023. Digital platforms such as PharmEasy and Netmeds are particularly popular among urban millennials, who value convenience, transparency, and access to product information.

Healthcare professionals (HCPs) also exert substantial influence on purchasing decisions, especially in the paediatric and geriatric nutrition segments, guiding nearly 55% of all consumer choices. However, price sensitivity remains a critical challenge, particularly in rural markets, where 70% of consumers prioritise affordability over premium, science-backed formulations. This underscores the need for cost-effective yet high-quality products to ensure broader reach.

In terms of emerging trends, plant-based and organic clinical nutrition products are rapidly gaining popularity. The sector saw a notable 30% growth between 2021 and 2023, fueled by a rising preference for sustainable and clean-label ingredients. Urban millennials are also increasingly drawn to innovative products containing bioactive ingredients such as probiotics and omega-3 fatty acids, reflecting a shift towards more functional and science-driven formulations. These developments signal a dynamic and evolving market landscape where consumer expectations are continually reshaped by health trends, technology, and increased access to nutritional information.

4. Fortified Foods Market

4.1. Overview of Global Fortified Foods Market

The global fortified foods market is growing steadily, supported by rising awareness of micronutrient deficiencies and collaborative efforts from governments, multilateral organisations, and non-profits. Fortified foods, enhanced with essential vitamins, minerals, and functional nutrients, are increasingly regarded as a cost-effective tool to tackle public health issues related to iron, vitamin A, iodine, and zinc deficiencies. According to the World Health Organization (WHO), over 2 billion people globally are affected by micronutrient deficiencies. Iron deficiency anaemia alone impacts 42% of children under five and 40% of pregnant women, underlining the urgent need for nutritional interventions.

Staple food fortification is being prioritised in many low- and middle-income countries, where limited dietary diversity persists. Products such as wheat flour, rice, maize flour, salt, and edible oils are being fortified at scale. Regulatory support has played a central role. As of 2023, more than 140 countries had mandated the fortification of at least one staple food, according to the Food Fortification Initiative (FFI). For instance, more than 94 countries across the world have mandatory fortification programs for at least one major cereal, 17 countries mandate fortification for at least two, and two countries (the USA and Costa Rica) mandate that rice, wheat, and maize flours need to be fortified.

International trade of fortified foods and premixes has been growing steadily, driven by demand from government procurement programmes, humanitarian aid, and private sector initiatives. Key export hubs include the European Union, the United States, and China, which supply fortified cereals, dairy products, edible oils, and premixes to various regions. Asia-Pacific and Africa are among the major import destinations, supported by nutrition-focused development programmes and shifting urban dietary patterns. Fortified foods are increasingly being included in food assistance schemes and retail channels across developing markets, enhancing trade flows.

The premix segment forms the backbone of the fortified foods ecosystem. Premixes, custom blends of micronutrients, are added during processing and tailored to regional nutritional needs and regulatory requirements. The Global Alliance for Improved Nutrition (GAIN) has supported the procurement of over 35,000 metric tons of premix across 30 countries via its Premix Facility since 2019. In Sub-Saharan Africa, fortified edible oil and wheat flour now reach 70% and 65% of urban households, respectively. Global suppliers such as DSM and BASF have contributed to scaling operations and improving premix accessibility in these regions.

Technological advances in premix formulation are enhancing the stability, shelf life, and bioavailability of nutrients. Microencapsulation, for example, helps protect sensitive vitamins during processing and storage. A 2022 study by the International Food Policy Research Institute (IFPRI) found that premix stability improvements extended the shelf life of fortified rice in Bangladesh by 25%, reducing wastage and lowering operational costs. In Indonesia, a partnership between the Ministry of Health and Tetra Pak has led to the development and distribution of ultra-high-temperature (UHT) fortified milk, reaching 1.2 million schoolchildren annually and helping address calcium and vitamin D deficiencies.

However, key challenges persist. The Codex Alimentarius Commission (a joint initiative of FAO and WHO) continues to advocate for harmonised fortification standards, highlighting risks associated with both under- and over-fortification. Small-scale producers in rural areas often lack access to affordable premix and technical expertise. Organisations such as PATH and Helen Keller International have responded with capacity-building initiatives in Kenya and Nepal, training local millers to incorporate fortification practices. In addition, consumer awareness remains a barrier. A 2023 GAIN survey found that 30% of Nigerian consumers were unaware of the health benefits of fortified foods, indicating the need for targeted education campaigns.

The fortified foods market is expanding on the back of public health priorities, regulatory mandates, and technological innovations in premix formulation. As distribution models scale and partnerships deepen, the role of premix will remain integral to achieving nutrition security. Continued investment in supply chains, public awareness, and regulatory alignment will be essential in addressing global micronutrient deficiencies and ensuring long-term market sustainability.

4.2. Overview of India Fortified Foods Market

India's fortified foods market plays a critical role in addressing widespread micronutrient deficiencies, with concerted efforts from the government, non-profits, and private sector stakeholders. Micronutrient deficiencies, particularly among women and children, remain a pressing public health challenge. Over 50% of women and children suffer from anaemia, while 35% of the population is vitamin A deficient. Fortified staples such as rice, wheat flour, oil, and salt have thus become key to public health interventions.

The Food Safety and Standards Authority of India (FSSAI) has spearheaded fortification initiatives, including the introduction of the +F logo to standardise fortification and build consumer trust. Programs like the Integrated Child Development Services (ICDS) and the Public Distribution System (PDS) have scaled access to nutrient-enriched foods. However, the market is shaped by a complex mix of policy mandates, regional awareness gaps, evolving consumer behaviour, and persistent supply chain challenges.

Key Drivers and Government Efforts

India's fortified foods market is driven by alarming rates of malnutrition. According to the National Family Health Survey-5 (NFHS-5, 2021):

- 57% of women aged 15–49 suffer from anaemia.
- 67% of children under five are affected by anaemia.
- Iodine deficiency disorders (IDD) impact 13% of the population.

These statistics have accelerated the prioritisation of food fortification as a scalable, cost-effective solution. The National Nutrition Mission (POSHAN Abhiyaan), launched in 2018, integrates fortification to reduce stunting, wasting, and anaemia by 2025. The Anaemia Mukt Bharat program mandates the fortification of wheat flour with iron in 21 states, focusing on high-risk groups like pregnant women and adolescents.

The FSSAI's 2018 Food Safety and Standards (Fortification) Regulations set mandatory standards for five staples—wheat flour, rice, oil, milk, and salt—and introduced the +F logo. By 2023, over 92% of iodised salt in India complied with these standards. Regional examples include Odisha's fortified rice distribution through PDS in 15 districts, and Rajasthan's partnership with GAIN (Global Alliance for Improved Nutrition) to train local millers in fortification techniques.

Role of Non-Profits and International Agencies

Non-profits and international agencies play a significant role in amplifying these efforts. Tata Trusts collaborate with state governments to fortify milk with vitamins A and D, reaching 2.5 million households in Maharashtra and Andhra Pradesh. UNICEF also supports Vitamin A supplementation programs for children, complementing dietary fortification and bridging gaps in technical expertise and funding, especially in rural and tribal areas.

Consumer Awareness and Regional Disparities

Consumer awareness of fortified foods varies significantly across India's regions and socio-economic classes. In southern states like Kerala and Tamil Nadu, 62% of consumers recognise fortified staples, driven by state-led campaigns and higher literacy rates. Kerala's "Suposhit Kerala" initiative promotes fortified rice and wheat flour through grassroots workshops, achieving 70% awareness in urban areas. In contrast, north-eastern states like Assam and Manipur show a much lower awareness rate of 29%, due to fragmented supply chains and limited exposure to mass media campaigns.

The urban-rural divide is pronounced, with urban centres like Delhi and Mumbai reporting 58% adoption of fortified foods, aided by branded products in retail chains and digital marketing. In rural India, however, adoption drops to 32%, as fortified products remain largely confined to government distribution channels like PDS and ICDS. A GAIN survey (2023) highlighted that only 18% of rural households in Uttar Pradesh can identify fortified rice, compared to 45% in urban Tamil Nadu.

Efforts to bridge this gap include vernacular campaigns. The FSSAI's "Sahi Bhojan, Behtar Jeevan" initiative, utilising regional radio, street plays, and Anganwadi workers, educates rural communities. Digital kiosks at PDS outlets in Odisha have increased recognition rates by 20% in pilot districts.

Nutritional Impact and Product Performance

Fortification programs have shown measurable improvements in deficiency rates. In Tamil Nadu, where fortified rice has been distributed through PDS since 2021, anaemia among women decreased by 18% over three years, according to the State Health Department. Similarly, Maharashtra's fortified edible oil program led to a 22% reduction in vitamin A deficiency among children (Tata-Cornell Institute, 2023). The Universal Salt Iodization (USI) program, operational since 1983, has reduced iodine deficiency rates from 54% in the 1990s to 13% in 2022, as per the National Iodine Deficiency Disorders Survey.

Despite this progress, challenges remain. Iron deficiency anaemia continues to affect women, particularly in Bihar and Jharkhand, where fortified wheat flour penetration is below 40%. Vitamin D fortification is emerging, with the National Dairy Development Board (NDDB) reporting that 18% of processed milk is now fortified, focusing on urban populations facing rising osteoporosis cases.

Industry Participation and Supply Chain

India's fortification landscape is dominated by staple foods. Iodized salt achieves 92% compliance, thanks to long-standing policy enforcement, while fortified wheat flour reaches 65% of households, according to GAIN's 2023 dashboard. Edible oil fortification with vitamins A and D now covers 55% of the market, driven by collaborations between the Solvent Extractors' Association and state governments.

Fortified rice adoption remains low at 28%, despite its inclusion in PDS. The PM POSHAN scheme, which provides fortified rice to 120 million schoolchildren, faces logistical challenges, including supply chain leaks and inconsistent premix quality. Fortified milk, though expanding in cities like Bengaluru and Pune, struggles with affordability. NDDB data shows that fortified milk is priced 12–15% higher than regular milk, limiting rural uptake.

Distribution Channels and Government Programs

The PDS accounts for 60% of fortified food distribution, primarily reaching low-income groups. Retail chains like Reliance Fresh and Big Bazaar contribute 25%, targeting the middle class, while e-commerce platforms such as BigBasket and Blinkit account for 10%, catering to health-conscious urban consumers.

The remaining 5% comes from direct-to-consumer channels.

Government programs form the backbone of the fortified foods ecosystem. The PM POSHAN scheme, covering 120 million schoolchildren, and ICDS, serving 82 million women and children, prioritise fortified staples. The rollout of fortified rice, targeting 300 million people through PDS by 2024, stands as India's largest nutrition initiative. States like Chhattisgarh and Kerala have excelled in implementation, with 95% and 88% of PDS outlets, respectively, distributing fortified rice.

However, enforcement and funding gaps still exist. In Uttar Pradesh, only 68% of PDS outlets distribute fortified staples, largely due to bureaucratic delays. Small-scale millers, who produce 40% of India's wheat flour, often lack access to premix or technical training. NGOs like PATH and Sight and Life are addressing this by subsidising premix costs and offering workshops.

Industry Participation

The industry has seen significant participation, with over 1,200 manufacturers complying with mandatory fortification regulations. However, voluntary fortification remains restricted to premium brands like Nestlé’s fortified cereals and HUL’s Kissan jams, targeting urban elites. Continued focus on smaller manufacturers and rural areas is essential to ensure widespread access to fortified foods.

4.2.1. India Fortified Foods Market Size

Chart 22: India Fortified Foods Market Size, by Value (CY20-CY30P)

Source: Custom Market Insights, CareEdge Research; P- Projection

India’s fortified foods market is expanding steadily, primarily driven by large-scale government-led fortification programs and persistent micronutrient deficiencies. Food fortification has been institutionalised through regulations by Food Safety and Standards Authority of India, covering staples such as rice, wheat flour, milk, oil, and salt to address “hidden hunger” across the population.

A key growth driver has been the integration of fortified foods into public distribution systems (PDS), mid-day meals, and ICDS, ensuring large-scale demand from government channels. Staples like rice, consumed by ~65% of the population, have particularly high fortification potential, driving volume expansion.

At the same time, rising health awareness, increasing urbanisation, and demand for preventive nutrition are supporting private consumption of fortified staples and packaged foods. However, recent implementation challenges (e.g., logistical and quality issues in fortified rice rollout) indicate that growth, while steady, may remain policy-dependent and execution-sensitive in the near term.

4.3. Major key players of the fortified food sector in India

Tata Chemicals Limited

Tata Chemicals Limited, a flagship enterprise of the Tata Group, has been a pioneer in India's fortified food sector since its establishment in 1939. Headquartered in Mumbai, the company operates at the intersection of nutrition and sustainability, addressing micronutrient deficiencies through science-led innovation.

Its landmark product, Tata Salt Plus, launched in 2016, was India's first iodised salt fortified with iron and now reaches over 100 million households. In 2021, the company expanded its fortified product portfolio with Tata NutriGrain, a wheat flour enriched with iron, folic acid, and vitamin B12, designed to help combat anaemia, particularly among women and children in both rural and urban areas.

Tata Chemicals' R&D centres in Pune and Hyderabad are focused on biofortification and sustainable packaging, leveraging nanotechnology to enhance nutrient retention in essential staples. In collaboration with the Food Safety and Standards Authority of India (FSSAI), the company has fortified over 500,000 metric tonnes of rice and edible oils for public distribution systems. Additionally, its 2020 partnership with the Global Alliance for Improved Nutrition (GAIN) aims to fortify 1 million metric tonnes of food by 2025, aligning with the United Nations Sustainable Development Goal 2: Zero Hunger.

In 2023, Tata Chemicals reported revenue of Rs 14,200 crore, with fortified foods accounting for 18% of its consumer products segment. Its CSR initiative, Project Aahar, delivers fortified meals to 200,000 schoolchildren annually across Maharashtra and Gujarat.

With a workforce exceeding 3,500 employees and operations spanning 12 countries, Tata Chemicals remains steadfast in its mission to bridge India's nutrition gap through scalable, research-driven solutions.

Nestlé India

Nestlé India, a subsidiary of Swiss multinational Nestlé S.A., has played a pivotal role in India's fortified food sector since 1959. Its flagship product, Cerelac—a baby cereal fortified with iron and essential vitamins—has been instrumental in addressing malnutrition among children under the age of five, reaching approximately 15 million households annually.

In 2022, the company launched MAGGI Masala-ae-Magic, a spice blend fortified with iron and iodine, specifically developed for low-income rural communities. Nestlé's R&D facility in Manesar employs advanced technologies such as micronutrient encapsulation to enhance the bioavailability of nutrients in its fortified dairy offerings, including Nestlé a+ Milk, which is enriched with vitamins A and D. The company's "Healthy Kids" programme, initiated in 2020, partners with over 50,000 schools to distribute fortified snacks to 1.5 million children, contributing to a 12% reduction in anaemia rates across targeted regions. In 2023, Nestlé India reported revenue of Rs 16,800 crore, with fortified products comprising 30% of its portfolio.

Nestlé's collaboration with PATH (Programme for Appropriate Technology in Health) has enabled the distribution of iron-fortified bouillon cubes in tribal regions of Odisha and Chhattisgarh. Reflecting its commitment to Sustainable Development Goal 3 (Good Health and Well-being), the company invested Rs 210 crore in R&D in 2023, with a focus on delivering affordable nutrition to marginalised populations.

ITC Limited

Founded in 1910, ITC Limited is a diversified Indian conglomerate with a growing fortified food portfolio under its Aashirvaad brand. Aashirvaad Atta, enriched with iron, folic acid, and vitamin B12, is consumed by over 20 million households and has contributed to a 15% reduction in anaemia among women in Karnataka and Tamil Nadu.

In 2021, the company launched Mission Millets, a national initiative aimed at promoting the consumption of nutrient-dense millet-based products. Among these is Aashirvaad Soul Creations, a range of snacks made from ragi, jowar, and quinoa, targeting health-conscious urban consumers.

ITC reported revenue of Rs 60,000 crore in 2023, with fortified foods accounting for 15% of its overall food business. The company collaborates with the National Institute of Nutrition (NIN) to fortify 10,000 metric tonnes of staple products annually, in line with Food Safety and Standards Authority of India (FSSAI) guidelines.

Through its CSR programme, Wellness for All, ITC provides fortified meals to 500,000 schoolchildren across Andhra Pradesh and West Bengal. Its sustainable agri-value chain initiative engages over 40,000 farmers in the production of biofortified crops, ensuring traceability and quality from farm to fork. With an R&D investment of Rs 180 crore in 2023, the company has developed cost-effective extrusion technologies for millet processing. Employing over 25,000 individuals, ITC's fortified nutrition strategy is aligned with India's National Nutrition Mission and supports Sustainable Development Goal 12 (Responsible Consumption and Production).

AMUL (GCMMF)

Established in 1946, Amul (Gujarat Cooperative Milk Marketing Federation) is India's largest dairy cooperative, representing 3.6 million farmer-members across the country. Its fortified dairy portfolio includes Shakti Milk, enriched with vitamins A and D, and Amul ProLife Probiotic Dahi, which contains 1 billion CFU of live cultures to support gut health.

In 2019, Amul launched Project Double Fortification, incorporating iron into select dairy products to combat anaemia among 2 million women in Gujarat and Rajasthan. In 2021, the cooperative expanded its functional offerings with the launch of ProLife Lassi, a probiotic drink designed for health-conscious urban millennials.

Amul reported revenue of Rs 55,000 crore in 2023, with fortified products contributing 12% to its portfolio. Its R&D centre in Anand focuses on cold-chain optimisation and nutrient retention technologies, successfully reducing post-fortification vitamin loss by 20%.

Amul collaborates with the National Dairy Development Board (NDDB) to distribute fortified milk through 10,000 village-level cooperatives, enhancing rural access to affordable nutrition. Its Amul Green initiative, launched in 2020, has led to a 30% reduction in plastic usage across packaging lines, reinforcing the cooperative's commitment to sustainability.

With a workforce exceeding 10,000, Amul continues to lead India's fortified dairy segment by combining grassroots reach, science-backed innovation, and environmentally responsible practices.

Britannia Industries

Founded in 1892, Britannia Industries is a prominent player in India's fortified food landscape, recognised for its innovative bakery and snack products. Its NutriChoice Digestive Zero biscuits, fortified with dietary fibre and iron, cater to health-conscious urban consumers, while the Iron-Enriched Marie Gold biscuits, launched in 2020, specifically address anaemia prevention among women and children.

In 2022, the company launched the Fortify Bharat initiative, aimed at distributing 10 million fortified food packs annually to low-income households across rural Uttar Pradesh and Bihar. Britannia reported revenue of Rs 14,000 crore in 2023, with fortified products contributing 20% to its overall portfolio. The company partners with the Indian Council of Medical Research (ICMR) to develop nutrient-rich innovations, such as zinc-fortified bread and vitamin D-enriched cookies. Its R&D centre in Bengaluru leverages advanced extrusion technology to improve nutrient retention in baked goods, ensuring both efficacy and shelf stability.

Aligned with Sustainable Development Goal 2 (Zero Hunger), Britannia's CSR programme Nutrition for All delivers fortified mid-day meals to 750,000 schoolchildren through a collaboration with the Akshaya Patra Foundation. With a workforce of over 4,000 employees, Britannia is committed to reducing India's anaemia burden by 15% by 2025 through inclusive and scalable fortification strategies.

4.4. Insights on Sustainability Trends

The global food system faces a dual imperative: ensuring access to nutritious food for a growing population while mitigating the environmental and socio-economic impacts of production. Within this context, fortified foods have emerged as a sustainable and scalable solution to combat malnutrition, reduce healthcare burdens, and accelerate progress towards the United Nations Sustainable Development Goals (SDGs). By enriching everyday staples with essential vitamins, minerals, and bioactive compounds, fortification addresses critical nutrient deficiencies, particularly in low- and middle-income countries (LMICs) such as India. This approach aligns with sustainability principles by promoting health equity, reducing food waste, and fostering economic resilience.

4.4.1. Reducing Healthcare Burdens Through Preventive Nutrition

Micronutrient deficiencies affect over two billion people globally and contribute to conditions such as anaemia, stunting, and impaired cognitive development. These deficiencies place considerable strain on healthcare systems by increasing vulnerability to infections, chronic illnesses, and maternal mortality. For example, iron-deficiency anaemia costs India an estimated 1.2% of its GDP annually through lost productivity and increased healthcare expenditure. Fortified foods act as a preventive measure by delivering essential nutrients through daily diets.

A case in point is iron-fortified rice distributed through India's Public Distribution System (PDS). Studies indicate that regular consumption can reduce anaemia rates by up to 20% among women and children, leading to lower hospital admissions and improved workforce participation. Similarly, vitamin D-fortified dairy products help reduce the risk of osteoporosis, thereby alleviating the burden on elderly care services. By addressing deficiencies at the source, fortified foods reduce reliance on costly medical interventions and free up resources for broader public health programmes.

4.4.2. Improving Global Nutrition Indices

Fortification plays a vital role in advancing global nutrition objectives such as the World Health Organization's Global Nutrition Targets and the Global Hunger Index (GHI). In regions where dietary diversity is constrained by poverty or climatic challenges, fortified staples such as wheat flour (with folic acid), iodised salt, and vitamin A-enriched cooking oils serve as critical nutritional lifelines. Iodised salt programmes have nearly eradicated goitre in over 120 countries, while vitamin A fortification has prevented childhood blindness across sub-Saharan Africa.

In India, fortified foods are instrumental in improving indicators such as stunting (affecting 35% of children under five) and wasting. The Food Safety and Standards Authority of India (FSSAI) mandates fortification of staples such as milk, oil, and rice in social welfare schemes. Early results from states like Gujarat and Maharashtra demonstrate improved haemoglobin levels and cognitive scores among schoolchildren receiving fortified mid-day meals. These improvements support long-term economic growth by enhancing productivity and enabling communities to break the cycle of poverty.

4.4.3. Accelerating Progress Towards UN SDGs

Fortified foods contribute to several SDGs, creating a multiplier effect across health, economy, and sustainability:

- SDG 2 (Zero Hunger): Fortification improves the nutritional quality of food without requiring significant behavioural changes. For example, zinc-fortified wheat in Ethiopia improved child survival rates by 18%, supporting efforts to end hunger and malnutrition.
- SDG 3 (Good Health and Well-being): By preventing deficiency-related conditions, fortification reduces child mortality (SDG 3.2) and supports safer pregnancies and maternal health (SDG 3.1).
- SDG 12 (Responsible Consumption and Production): Fortification enhances the value of existing food supply chains, minimising waste and optimising resource use. Companies such as Nestlé and Tata Consumer Products incorporate fortification into sustainable sourcing practices consistent with circular economy models.
- SDG 17 (Partnerships for the Goals): Fortification efforts are driven by strong public-private partnerships. Programmes led by the Global Alliance for Improved Nutrition (GAIN) and UNICEF's Scaling Up Nutrition (SUN) bring together governments, NGOs, and industry stakeholders to scale nutritional interventions.

4.4.4. Challenges and Considerations for Sustainable Impact

Despite its advantages, fortification faces several implementation challenges. Distribution inequalities persist, with fortified products often reaching urban and affluent populations first, leaving rural and marginalised groups underserved. For instance, probiotic beverages and protein-enriched snacks in India tend to cater to metropolitan consumers, underscoring the need for inclusive pricing and rural outreach strategies.

Cultural acceptance and consumer preferences also influence adoption. In Rajasthan, zinc-fortified lentils initially met resistance until local campaigns raised awareness of their health benefits. Furthermore, harmonising food standards across jurisdictions, such as between FSSAI guidelines and European Union regulations, is essential for trade and compliance.

Over-fortification can also pose health risks. Excessive vitamin A intake, for example, may lead to toxicity. Additionally, the environmental impact of energy-intensive production must be considered. Nevertheless, innovations such as biofortification offer promising, climate-resilient alternatives. Iron-rich pearl millet, developed for India's arid regions, exemplifies how nutrition and sustainability can be effectively integrated.

4.4.5. Fortified Foods as a Pillar of Sustainable Development

Fortified foods represent more than a nutritional intervention. They signify a structural shift towards preventive healthcare, efficient resource utilisation, and inclusive development. Integrating fortification into national food policies can help countries reduce healthcare burdens, improve nutrition indicators, and accelerate progress towards the SDGs. For India, scaling initiatives such as fortified rice distribution and micronutrient-enriched snacks could significantly improve public health outcomes while supporting climate goals through more sustainable food systems.

As climate change and population pressures intensify, the relevance of fortified foods will continue to grow. Strategic collaboration between governments, private sector players, and communities will be critical to ensuring these interventions reach the populations that need them most, laying the foundation for a healthier and more sustainable future.

4.4.6. Micronutrient deficiency and need for food fortification

Micronutrient deficiencies, often referred to as "hidden hunger", continue to pose a significant public health challenge in India. These deficiencies hinder physical and cognitive development, reduce economic productivity, and diminish overall quality of life. Although progress has been made, deficiencies in iron, vitamin A, iodine, zinc, folate, and vitamin B12 remain prevalent, particularly among children, pregnant women, and rural communities. These deficiencies contribute to a wide range of adverse health outcomes, including anaemia, compromised immunity, birth defects, and irreversible developmental delays.

Food fortification, which involves enhancing staple foods with essential vitamins and minerals, has emerged as a cost-effective and scalable intervention to address these nutrient gaps, particularly in low-income and resource-constrained settings.

Prevalence of Key Micronutrient Deficiencies

The burden of micronutrient deficiencies differs considerably across age groups, gender, and regions (Table 87). Iron-deficiency anaemia, for instance, affects 40% of children under five and 52% of pregnant women, with rural populations experiencing significantly higher rates due to limited dietary diversity and inadequate healthcare access. Vitamin A deficiency, a major cause of childhood blindness and increased mortality, affects 22% of preschool children. Iodine deficiency persists among 13% of the general population despite widespread salt iodisation efforts. Zinc and folate deficiencies, at 30% and 28% respectively, among women of reproductive age, elevate the risks of complications during pregnancy and neonatal health issues.

Table 41: Prevalence of Micronutrient Deficiencies in India (%)

Micronutrient	Children <5 (%)	Pregnant Women (%)	Adolescents (%)	General Population (%)	Rural vs. Urban Gap (%)
Iron	40	52	35	25	Rural +15%
Vitamin A	22	18	12	10	Rural +10%

Economic and Health Burden

Micronutrient deficiencies impose substantial economic and health costs on India. They account for an estimated 1.2% of annual GDP losses, driven by reduced productivity and increased healthcare expenditure. Iron deficiency alone results in economic losses of approximately Rs 1.8 lakh crore per year. In total, deficiencies in iron, vitamin A, iodine, and zinc contribute to the loss of over 10 million Disability-Adjusted Life Years (DALYs) annually. The healthcare system allocates between Rs 12,000 crore and Rs 15,000 crore per year to treat related conditions such as anaemia, goitre, and neural tube defects, diverting vital resources from broader public health initiatives.

Table 42: Economic and Health Impact of Deficiencies

Deficiency	GDP Loss (Annual)	DALYs Lost (Millions)	Healthcare Costs (Rs Crore/Year)
Iron	Rs 1.8 lakh crore	6.5	8,000
Vitamin A	Rs 0.5 lakh crore	2.2	2,500
Iodine	Rs 0.3 lakh crore	1.3	1,200
Zinc	Rs 0.4 lakh crore	1.8	1,800

India has implemented several national-level food fortification programmes to combat micronutrient deficiencies. The salt iodisation initiative, launched in 1983, now reaches 92% of the population and has significantly reduced goitre incidence. In 2018, iron-fortified wheat was introduced and now covers 15% of the population through the Mid-Day Meal Scheme and the Public Distribution System (PDS). Vitamin A-fortified edible oil, primarily available in urban areas, reaches around 30% of the population. Fortified rice, which was piloted in 2021, currently reaches 8% of the population through government-run schemes.

However, regional disparities persist. Southern states tend to show higher adoption and distribution levels, while northern and rural regions continue to face inconsistencies in supply and access, particularly in public procurement systems.

Food fortification offers several advantages, particularly in combating micronutrient deficiencies and enhancing public health. Here's a breakdown of its benefits:

4.4.7. Benefits of Food Fortification

Scalability and Cost-effectiveness:

- Adding essential vitamins and minerals to staple foods is an affordable and efficient method to address "hidden hunger."
- For example, iodizing salt costs less than Rs 0.50 per person annually, significantly reducing iodine deficiency disorders (IDD), including goiter, by over 70% since 1983.
- Iron-fortified rice, distributed via India's Public Distribution System (PDS), targets anemia among 50 million people, offering a much cheaper solution compared to clinical treatments.

Economic Returns:

- Fortification yields a high economic return: every Rs 1 invested in fortification can result in Rs 9–12 in economic gains through improved productivity and reduced healthcare costs.

Equity in Nutritional Access:

- Unlike dietary supplements or specific programs, fortified foods are widely consumed across all socioeconomic groups. This ensures equitable distribution, particularly for marginalised groups.
- Examples include Tata Salt Plus (iron-fortified iodised salt) reaching 100 million households and fortified oils ensuring better nutrition across both urban and rural sectors.

Protection Against Intergenerational Malnutrition:

- Fortification helps prevent maternal and child health issues. For instance, folic acid-fortified wheat reduces neural tube defects by 30%, and vitamin A-fortified oil prevents blindness and reduces child mortality rates.

Alignment with Sustainable Development Goals (SDGs):

- Fortification directly contributes to SDG 3 (Good Health), SDG 4 (Quality Education), and SDG 2 (Zero Hunger) by improving health outcomes, cognitive development, and reducing anaemia.

Challenges and Policy Support:

- While fortification is an effective strategy, it depends on regulatory frameworks, such as the Food Safety and Standards Authority of India (FSSAI) guidelines, and strong public-private partnerships to ensure success and consistency.

Table 43: Economic and Health Impact of Deficiencies

Fortification Type	Target Nutrient	Coverage	Key Outcomes	Cost-Effectiveness	Challenges
Salt Iodization	Iodine	92% of households	Goiter reduced from 70% (1983) to 13% (2023).	Rs 0.50/person/year	Rural-urban gaps (65% vs. 95%).
Iron-Fortified Wheat	Iron, Folic Acid	15 states (PDS/MDM)	Anemia dropped 12% in Gujarat (2018–2022).	Rs 9 return per Rs 1 invested	Stability issues in storage.
Vitamin A-Fortified Oil	Vitamin A	30% urban markets	Child mortality fell 24% in fortified regions.	Rs 5 return per Rs 1 invested	Limited rural penetration.
Double-Fortified Salt	Iron + Iodine	Pilot in 5 states	Anemia reduced 8% in Tamil Nadu (2020–2023).	Rs 7 return per Rs 1 invested	Technical hurdles in production.
Fortified Rice (FRK)	Iron, B12, Folate	8% population	Hemoglobin levels rose 1.2 g/dL in Bihar (2022).	Rs 12 return per Rs 1 invested	Supply chain inefficiencies.

4.4.8. Premixes for Fortification

Premixes are specialised nutrient blends that enable the large-scale fortification of food products like salt, wheat, and rice. They play a critical role in India's food fortification initiatives by ensuring uniform and efficient nutrient addition.

Role in Government Programs:

Premixes are used in key fortification schemes such as:

- Salt iodisation
- Double-fortified salt
- Iron-fortified wheat via the PDS
- Fortified rice in mid-day meal schemes.

Key Players in the Premix Market:

Leading companies, including DSM, Hexagon Nutrition, and SternVitamin, supply high-quality premixes in compliance with FSSAI guidelines for food fortification.

Challenges:

Despite the benefits, premix application faces challenges such as:

- Last-mile delivery issues in rural areas
- Stability concerns during transport and storage
- The need for customisation based on regional dietary patterns.

Premixes represent a backbone in fortification programs, ensuring cost-effective and reliable delivery of micronutrients to the population.

4.4.9. Multiple Micronutrient Powder for Fortification

Multiple Micronutrient Powder (MNP) is a significant innovation in India's fortified food sector, designed to tackle hidden hunger by addressing multiple nutrient deficiencies at once. MNP is a dry powder blend of essential vitamins and minerals, typically including iron, vitamin A, zinc, folic acid, and others. It can be easily sprinkled onto semi-solid or cooked foods without affecting their taste, colour, or texture. In India, MNPs are primarily targeted at vulnerable groups such as children under five and pregnant or lactating women, who are most affected by malnutrition.

MNPs have gained widespread adoption through government-backed health and nutrition programs, such as the Integrated Child Development Services (ICDS), POSHAN Abhiyaan, and collaborations with international organisations like UNICEF, WHO, and the Global Alliance for Improved Nutrition (GAIN). These powders are often distributed through Anganwadi centres, particularly in regions with high rates of anaemia and stunting. They are also ideal for home fortification, making them an effective solution in rural and low-resource areas where access to packaged fortified foods is limited.

In addition to government programmes, there has been growing demand for MNPs in the private sector. Health-focused brands are offering sachets for home use, particularly aimed at health-conscious parents. The ease of use, affordability, and ability to deliver up to 15 nutrients in a single dose make MNPs an effective tool in improving health outcomes. Research in India has shown that regular use of MNPs can significantly reduce anaemia, boost cognitive development, and strengthen immunity among children.

Despite their potential, challenges remain. These include issues around adherence to usage guidelines, supply chain management, and raising community awareness to ensure maximum impact. As India continues to scale up its fortified food programmes, MNPs offer a scalable and practical solution to improve nutritional security at the household level, especially for underserved populations.

5. Threats and Challenges

Stringent Regulatory Frameworks

The clinical and therapeutic nutrition segment operates under strict domestic and international regulations, including those from FSSAI, WHO, and country-specific drug and food authorities. Compliance with evolving labelling, safety, and quality norms, especially for micronutrient premixes, therapeutic foods, and disease-specific nutrition products, is resource-intensive and can delay time-to-market.

Volatile Raw Material Prices and Supply Chain Disruptions

Many ingredients used in clinical and functional foods, such as vitamins, whey protein, emulsifiers, and specialised amino acids, are either imported or dependent on global supply chains. Fluctuations in prices due to geopolitical factors, currency volatility, or disruptions (e.g., pandemic-related closures, freight delays) pose margin pressure and operational risks.

High R&D and Innovation Costs

Products such as ready-to-use therapeutic foods (RUTF), diabetic-specific nutrition powders, or renal-care formulations require extensive R&D, clinical validations, and product trials. The high cost of innovation, coupled with the long product development cycle, increases capital requirements and market entry risks.

Consumer Awareness and Acceptance

Although awareness of clinical and functional nutrition is growing, it remains limited in Tier II and Tier III cities. Moreover, product categories like peptide-based nutrition, renal/hepatic care nutrition, and micronutrient sachets often face resistance due to a lack of awareness, taste concerns, or limited healthcare provider advocacy.

OUR KEY STRATEGIES

Our strategies are focused on the following elements:

Growth through entry into new categories of products

As part of our long-term strategic vision, we intend to pursue growth by expanding our product portfolio through the introduction of new categories within the broader nutrition and wellness space. This strategy is aimed at addressing evolving consumer health trends, diversifying revenue streams, and strengthening our presence across both B2B2C and B2C segments.

We aim to capitalise on our core strengths of scientific formulation expertise, R&D infrastructure, and regulatory compliance capabilities to develop and launch products that cater to emerging health and nutrition requirements. This includes entry into adjacent categories such as functional foods, dietary supplements, plant-based nutritional alternatives, specialised maternal and geriatric nutrition products, and condition-specific formulations aimed at managing lifestyle disorders such as diabetes, cardiovascular health, and obesity.

Our expansion into new categories will also be driven by the increasing demand for personalised nutrition and immunity-boosting solutions, which gained significant momentum post the COVID-19 pandemic. Through strategic collaborations and leveraging our in-house development capabilities, we intend to create differentiated offerings that cater to both institutional and retail customers.

Additionally, our entry into new categories is expected to enhance our participation in public health and social welfare programs implemented by government agencies and international organisations. These programs often require tailored, affordable, and high-quality nutritional products, an area where we have an established track record, particularly in micronutrient premixes and fortified foods.

By entering new product segments, we seek to achieve the following:

- Increase wallet share within our existing customer base and open new customer segments;
- Mitigate concentration risk by reducing reliance on a limited range of offerings;
- Build cross-category synergies in distribution, marketing, and manufacturing; and
- Strengthen our brand positioning as a comprehensive and science-backed nutrition solutions provider.

Pursuing this approach is expected to enable us to tap into newer high-growth segments and strengthen our position as an integrated nutrition company with diversified offerings across therapeutic, clinical, and wellness-oriented categories.

Strengthen our domestic footprint and broaden our customer base across India

Predominantly, majority of our business has been derived from our exports. For the nine month period ended December 31, 2025, and in Fiscal 2025, 2024 and 2023, our export sales were ₹ 1,493.64 million and ₹ 1,990.06 million, ₹ 1,878.06 million and ₹ 1,777.37 million and represented 55.82% and 61.25%, 63.08% and 63.82% of the Revenue from Operations. Our revenues from exports also increased at a CAGR of 3.84% from ₹ 1,777.37 million in Fiscal 2023 to ₹ 1,990.06 million in Fiscal 2025. However, we aim to expand and deepen our presence in the domestic market by leveraging our existing technical know-how of sourcing, product development, quality control and distribution network.

Currently, our domestic sales are primarily focused on our core segments of clinical nutrition, fortified foods, and micronutrient premixes. In the near future, we intend to expand our product portfolio within the Indian market by introducing new offerings in the functional and therapeutic nutrition segments, while deepening our presence in our existing product categories. We aim to leverage the technical expertise and market insights gained through our international operations and export experience to strengthen our domestic footprint and broaden our customer base across India. As part of this strategy, we plan to increase brand visibility, enhance consumer awareness of our products, and position ourselves as a science-driven, value-oriented nutrition brand in the Indian market.

Further enhance emphasis on branded nutrition product segment

Our PENTASURE brand caters to adult wellness and clinical nutrition, OBESIGO brand caters to weight management, PEDIAGOLD brand caters to paediatric nutrition management and NUTRONE brand caters to nutrition for men, women and healthy ageing. We believe that our expertise in demonstrating our product and brand differentiation vis-a-vis our competitors through our marketing activities is an important factor in attracting consumers. We intend to grow our current branded segments by augmenting our online sales through enhanced digital marketing and exploring newer online platforms. We intend to increase our national footprint by expanding to TIER 2 and TIER 3 cities over the period of next 3-5 years. The market is driven by increasing health awareness, rising disposable incomes, and the growing popularity of functional foods and dietary supplements. By CY25, the market will surpass Rs 1,525 billion and continue expanding steadily, reaching Rs 2,453 billion by CY29 (Source: CARE Report). We intend to double our sales field force to increase our reach to all major cities and towns in next 5 years. To this end, we intend to continue augmenting our brand visibility through focused marketing strategy, including attractively designed packaging. We intend to deepen our penetration in the geographies wherein our brands are already present. This strategy will enable us to strengthen market share in our existing markets and increase market share in other geographies.

Capitalising on growing nutritional awareness and requirements post Covid-19

Fortification of foods is a global phenomenon and governments around the world are recognising the benefits of fortifying foods. More than 94 countries across the world have mandatory fortification programs for at least one major cereal, 17 countries mandate for at least two, and two countries (USA and Costa Rica) mandate that rice, wheat and maize flours need to be fortified. Covid-19 has exacerbated nutritional deficiencies in low and middle-income countries among vulnerable demographics, increasing the need for fortified and therapeutic foods. (Source: CARE Report)

We plan to cater to the growing consumer requirements for immunity building and nutritional food including fortified foods by offering new products to the end users. We are already acting on this intent and we already commenced export of fortified rice kernels (“FRK”) to our existing clients.

To further strengthen this strategy, we intend to:

- Expand our product portfolio to include a wider range of clinically backed nutritional and fortified offerings tailored to address specific deficiencies and health needs;
- Deepen our market reach through collaborations with domestic and international partners in both the public and private sectors;
- Leverage our research and development capabilities to create innovative and scalable solutions for therapeutic and preventive nutrition; and
- Participate in government-led or multilateral nutritional programs in target geographies, especially in regions where malnutrition remains prevalent.

This approach aligns with our long-term vision to address evolving nutritional needs, build consumer trust, and establish leadership in the fortified and clinical nutrition segments.

International expansion by creating geographical footprints

We continue to strengthen our international presence by providing customised fortification solutions to populations across global markets. Having established a strong foundation in the Indian market, we are now strategically expanding our geographical footprint to diversify our customer base and capture emerging demand for clinical and preventive nutrition solutions.

To facilitate this international expansion, we incorporated three wholly owned subsidiaries, Hexagon Nutrition Limited Liability Company (“HNLLC”) in Uzbekistan in Fiscal 2020, Hexagon Nutrition Proprietary Limited (“HNPTY”) in South Africa and Hexagon Nutrition China Limited, Hong Kong (“HNCL”) in Fiscal 2019. These subsidiaries serve as regional hubs to penetrate high-potential markets and deliver fortification products with improved logistical efficiency. In particular, our presence in Uzbekistan through Hexagon Uzbekistan provides direct access to surrounding CIS (Commonwealth of Independent States) countries, enabling faster turnaround times, cost-effective logistics, and reduced import duties. Similarly, Hexagon South Africa is positioned to cater to the demand across sub-Saharan Africa, offering enhanced reach and lower transit lead times, while our Hong Kong entities facilitate efficient access to Asian markets.

We have already established a manufacturing facility in Uzbekistan, which enables us to better serve the regional demand and strengthens our supply capabilities across CIS markets. The facility supports our objective of reducing transit lead times, lowering freight costs, and eliminating import duties for customers in the region. This regional manufacturing presence allows us to operate with greater responsiveness and efficiency in key international markets.

Looking ahead, we intend to scale our international operations by increasing volumes in existing markets across Asia, Africa, and the Middle East, while also entering new, high-growth geographies such as Latin America, Eastern Europe, and Southeast Asia. Our strategy includes building deeper relationships with local distributors, participating in international trade shows and nutrition forums, and implementing a structured logistics and compliance framework to support sustainable global operations.

Through this multi-pronged approach, we aim to diversify our revenue base, enhance operational efficiency, and improve our ability to respond to regional demands effectively. Our balanced focus on domestic and export markets positions us to achieve long-term profitability while improving supply chain resilience and expanding our role in global health and nutrition ecosystems.

Launch products in new therapy areas/ new delivery systems

We intend to strengthen our position in the clinical and wellness nutrition segments by broadening our product offerings across new therapy areas and adopting innovative delivery formats, in line with evolving consumer preferences and medical needs.

Presently, we offer more than 20 differentiated products under our consumer brands in the B2C space, catering to a wide spectrum of health, wellness and clinical nutrition needs. These include products targeted at diabetic, renal, hepatic, bariatric, and other specialised therapeutic conditions. We aim to extend this portfolio to address emerging nutritional requirements in underserved and growing therapy segments such as gynaecology, fertility, sexual wellness, healthy ageing, and related preventive health categories. These areas represent significant market opportunities driven by increased awareness, lifestyle-related health challenges, and shifting demographic trends.

In line with this objective, we have initiated pilot launches of fertility-focused nutritional products in select international markets under the brand names Fertox, Fertomen, Fertova, and Fertonisa. These products have been designed to address specific nutritional requirements related to male and female fertility. The initial response from these pilot markets is being monitored and assessed to help guide further development and geographic expansion.

We also plan to diversify our product offerings by investing in new delivery formats that are gaining popularity for their ease of consumption, compliance, and consumer appeal. These include formats such as nutritional gummies, diskettes, chewable tablets, and nutrition bars. We believe that these formats can significantly enhance product differentiation, particularly in the wellness and preventive healthcare segments, and will allow us to serve a wider consumer base, including children and elderly populations.

To support this initiative, we are evaluating investment in formulation R&D capabilities, pilot-scale infrastructure, and regulatory readiness for these novel formats. We are also exploring strategic partnerships for contract manufacturing and technology transfer to accelerate time-to-market and ensure compliance with the applicable domestic and international regulatory standards.

Our strategy also includes conducting market research, clinical validation, and consumer studies to ensure that our offerings are aligned with both scientific rigour and consumer expectations. We believe that launching products in newer therapy areas and delivery formats will enable us to enhance brand recall, expand our consumer base, diversify our revenue mix, and strengthen our competitive positioning in the domestic and global nutraceutical and clinical nutrition space.

Raw Materials

The raw materials we use in the manufacturing of our products include vitamins, whey protein, spray dried corn fat and groundnut base powder, protein concentrate, sunflower oil, maize starch, lactose monohydrate and cocoa powder. Further, packaging materials include preform, laminates, poly packs, labels, plastic caps cardboard, cups and plastic film, among other things.

We source our raw materials from vendors in India as well as overseas. We believe that this helps us reduce our dependence on a few large vendors and thereby minimize risks of supply disruption and cost increases.

The Company procures raw materials from both domestic and international suppliers. The bifurcation of raw material sourcing for the nine month period ended December 31, 2025 and past three Fiscals is as follows:

Particulars	Nine month period ended December 31, 2025		Fiscal 2025		Fiscal 2024		Fiscal 2023
	Amount	% of Total Purchase	Amount	% of Total Purchase	Amount	% of Total Purchase	Amount	% of Total Purchase
Raw Material procured from domestic suppliers	1,240.95	76.27	1,382.80	85.21	1,207.85	70.35	1,501.59	77.00
Raw Material procured from foreign suppliers	386.18	23.73	240.02	14.79	509.15	29.65	448.60	23.00
Total	1,627.13	100.00	1,622.82	100.00	1,717.00	100.00	1,950.18	100.00

For details, see “Risk Factor 5 - We do not have long-term contracts with our raw material suppliers, and volatility in raw material prices or adverse sourcing conditions may adversely impact our operations, profitability, and financial performance” on page 42.

Set out below is our procurement process;

- Procurement Planning

The Planning/Supply Chain team prepares a procurement plan based on current orders and projected requirements. It considers past consumption trends, forecasted demand, and inventory levels. The objective is to ensure timely availability of materials without overstocking. This plan is reviewed and approved before initiating procurement.

- Vendor Site Visit and Evaluation

Before onboarding any new vendor into the approved vendor database, a cross-functional team conducts a site visit to assess the vendor's infrastructure, manufacturing capability, quality systems, regulatory compliance, and financial stability. Only vendors meeting the company's standards are approved and added to the vendor database.

- Request for Quotation (RFQ) and Vendor Evaluation

RFQs are sent to approved vendors listed in the company's vendor database. Received quotations are compared based on pricing, delivery terms, and compliance. Market intelligence and vendor performance history are also considered. The best vendor is selected following a commercial and technical evaluation.

- Purchase Order (PO) Issuance and Order Follow-Up

A PO is issued to the selected vendor, stating all key terms and specifications. It includes item details, quantity, pricing, delivery dates, and payment terms. Procurement or planning teams follow up to ensure timely dispatch of goods. Any potential delays are addressed through direct communication with the supplier.

- Material Receipt and Preliminary Inspection

Upon delivery, warehouse staff checks quantity, physical condition, and packaging. Documents such as Invoice, COA, and LR are verified against the PO. Discrepancies or damages are recorded and escalated immediately.

A Goods Receipt Note (GRN) is generated to document material receipt.

- Quality Control (QC) Inspection and Approval

QC team collects samples as per SOP and conducts required tests. Test results are compared with product specifications and quality standards. If compliant, material is approved and moved to usable inventory. Rejected materials are held in a separate area pending further action.

- Inventory Update and Payment Processing

Upon approval, the validated GRN is shared with the finance team. Finance matches PO, GRN, and Invoice before processing payment. Approved materials are updated in the inventory system as good stock.

Payment is released as per agreed terms mentioned in the PO.

- Handling of Rejected Material

QC team prepares a rejection report and shares it with the supplier. The rejected material is returned with a debit note, if applicable. Inventory is updated to reflect the rejection and removal from stock. Further procurement action may be taken based on urgency and need.

Inventory management and Information Technology

To ensure uninterrupted production and timely delivery of products to our customers, it is critical for us to maintain optimal inventory levels of both raw materials and finished goods. As a nutrition company with a diverse portfolio spanning clinical, wellness, and therapeutic segments, our product development and delivery timelines demand careful coordination of inputs, especially micronutrients, proteins, emulsifiers, flavoring agents, packaging materials, and other key ingredients.

Our raw materials and finished goods are stored both on-site at our manufacturing facility as well as at dedicated warehousing facilities strategically positioned for efficient dispatch. Inventory levels are meticulously planned based on rolling forecasts, historical demand trends, and incoming purchase orders. This helps us to maintain supply continuity while minimizing excess inventory or stockouts.

We use a lead-time-based Material Requirements Planning (MRP) system to determine procurement timelines and batch-wise production schedules. This ensures that our inputs are available in alignment with manufacturing cycles and that safety stock is maintained for critical SKUs. Additionally, we utilize real-time inventory management software to track movement, shelf life, and stock levels across raw materials, work-in-progress, and finished goods. This system enables traceability, facilitates batch-level quality control, and helps avoid obsolescence, especially important in nutrition products with sensitive shelf-life considerations.

Our inventory control mechanisms are also aligned with our compliance standards, particularly for segments such as Ready-to-Use Therapeutic Foods (RUTF) and Micronutrient Powders (MNP), which require strict adherence to formulation and storage conditions. We conduct periodic audits, follow FIFO (First-In-First-Out) protocols, and maintain documentation for traceability as per international food safety standards such as FSSC 22000 and ISO 9001:2015.

By integrating demand forecasting, digital inventory monitoring, and automated alerts for reorder points, we are able to enhance procurement efficiency, reduce working capital lock-in, and respond swiftly to spikes in customer demand across domestic and export markets. This robust inventory planning and control framework supports our operational resilience, customer satisfaction, and scalable growth.

D. Laws Relating to Employment

The Industrial Relations Code, 2020

The Industrial Relations Code, 2020, with effect from November 21, 2025, streamlines Indian labour law by consolidating three key statutes to enhance the ease of doing business. It significantly increases operational flexibility for companies by raising the employee threshold from 100 to 300 for requiring prior government permission for layoffs, retrenchment, and closure, and for mandating formal standing orders. While providing this flexibility, the Code also introduces several worker-centric provisions, including an expanded definition of 'worker,' the formal recognition of fixed-term employment with pro-rata benefits, and the establishment of a 'Reskilling Fund' for retrenched employees. Furthermore, it establishes a clear framework for recognizing a sole negotiating union to streamline collective bargaining and imposes stricter conditions, such as a mandatory notice period, for strikes and lock-outs, aiming to balance employer flexibility with industrial harmony.

Industries (Development and Regulation) Act, 1951

The Industries (Development and Regulation) Act, 1951 (the "Act") governs the development and regulation of industries in India, and its main objective is to empower the Government to: (i) take necessary steps for the development of industries; (ii) regulate the pattern and direction of industrial development; and (iii) control the activities, performance and results of industrial undertakings in public interest. The Act is applicable to the 'Scheduled Industries' which have been listed down in the first schedule of the Act and small-scale industrial undertakings and ancillary units are exempted from the provisions of the Act.

The Act regulated the industries by requiring them to obtain industrial licensing by filing an Industrial Entrepreneur Memoranda with the Secretariat of Industrial Assistance, Department of Industrial Policy and Promotion. This Act is administered by the Ministry of Industries and Commerce through its Department of Industrial Policy & Promotion. This department is responsible for the formulation and implementation of promotional and developmental measures for growth of the industrial sector and also monitors the industrial growth and production, in general, and selected industrial sectors.

Code on Wages, 2019

The Code on Wages regulates and amalgamates wage and bonus payments and subsumes four existing laws namely –the Payment of Wages Act, 1936, the Minimum Wages Act, 1948, the Payment of Bonus Act, 1965 and the Equal Remuneration Act, 1976. It regulates, inter alia, the minimum wages payable to employees, the manner of payment and calculation of wages and the payment of bonus to employee. The Central Government has notified certain provisions of the Code on Wages, mainly in relation to the constitution of the central advisory board. Its primary objective is to create a uniform and streamlined framework for wage-related regulations across all sectors of employment. A key feature of the Code is the universalization of minimum wage and timely wage payment provisions, making them applicable to all employees, including those in the unorganized sector, thereby removing previous wage ceilings and employment-specific limitations. The Code introduces the concept of a national "floor wage" to be determined by the Central Government, which will serve as a baseline that state-level minimum wages cannot fall below. Furthermore, it prohibits gender discrimination in matters of wages and recruitment for the same or similar nature of work, codifies the rules for annual bonus payments, and specifies clear timelines for wage payments and permissible deductions. The enforcement mechanism is also revamped, introducing the role of an "Inspector-cum-Facilitator" to advise employers and employees, alongside traditional inspection functions, aiming for a more transparent and less adversarial compliance system.

Code on Social Security, 2020

The Code on Social Security amends and consolidates laws relating to social security, and subsumes various social security related legislations, inter alia including the Employee's State Insurance Act, 1948, the Employees' Provident Funds and Miscellaneous Provisions Act, 1952, the Maternity Benefit Act, 1961, Building and Other Construction Worker's Welfare Cess Act, 1996 and the Payment of Gratuity Act, 1972. It governs the constitution and functioning of social security organizations such as the Employee's Provident Fund Organisation and the Employee's State Insurance Corporation, regulates the payment of gratuity, the provision of maternity benefits and compensation in the event of accidents that employees may suffer, among others. The Code establishes a framework for this expansion through the mandatory registration of all workers on a national portal and the creation of a dedicated Social Security Fund to finance schemes for them. While streamlining the administration of existing statutory schemes like the EPF and ESI, the Code's core purpose is to create a single, unified structure to provide a social security umbrella for the entire Indian workforce, adapting to the changing nature of work in the modern economy. The Code simplifies compliance for employers by introducing a single registration and license system and clearly defines the duties of both employers and employees regarding workplace safety. Furthermore, it establishes advisory boards, introduces specific welfare provisions for contract and migrant workers, and permits women to work at night with their consent and adequate safety. By shifting the enforcement mechanism towards an "Inspector-cum-Facilitator" model, the Code aims to foster a more proactive and advisory approach to ensuring safe and humane working conditions.

The Occupational Safety, Health and Working Conditions Code, 2020

The Occupational Safety, Health and Working Conditions Code consolidates and amends the laws regulating the occupational safety and health and working conditions of the persons employed in an establishment. It replaces 13 old central labour laws including the Factories Act, 1948, Contract Labour (Regulation and Abolition) Act, 1970, the Building and Other Construction Workers (Regulation of Employment and Conditions of Service) Act, 1996 and the Inter-State Migrant Workmen (Regulation of Employment and Conditions of Service) Act, 1979.

In India, trademarks enjoy protection under both statutory and common law. Registration of a trade mark grants the owner a right to exclusively use the trade mark as a mark of goods and services and prevents the fraudulent use of marks in India.

The Trade Marks Act permits the registration of trade marks for goods and services. Certification trademarks and collective marks can also be registered under the Trade Marks Act. The Registrar of Trade Marks is the authority responsible for, among other things, registration of trademarks, settling opposition proceedings and rectification of the register of trade marks. The Trade Marks (Amendment) Act, 2010, has been enacted to cover Indian nationals as well as foreign nationals to secure simultaneous protection of trade marks in other countries. The FTDRA provides for the development and regulation of foreign trade by facilitating imports into, and augmenting exports from, India. The FTDRA empowers the Central Government to formulate and amend the foreign trade policy. The FTDRA prohibits any person from making an import or export except under an Importer-exporter Code Number ("IEC") granted by the director general or any other authorised person in accordance with the specified procedure. The IEC may be suspended or cancelled if the person who has been granted such IEC contravenes, amongst others, any of the provisions of the FTDRA, or any rules or orders made thereunder, or the foreign policy or any other law pertaining to central excise or customs or foreign exchange. The FTDRA also prescribes the imposition of penalties on any person violating its provisions. The FTRR prescribes the procedure to make an application for grant of a license to import or export goods in accordance with the foreign trade policy, the conditions of such license, and the grounds for refusal of a license. The FTDRA empowers the Central Government to, from time to time, formulate and announce the foreign trade policy. The Foreign Trade Policy came into effect in 2017 and requires all importers and exporters to obtain an IEC. Further, pursuant to the policy, the Director General of Foreign Trade may impose prohibitions or restrictions on the import or export of certain goods, for reasons including the protection of public morals, protection of human, animal or plant life or health, and the conservation of national resources. The Foreign Trade Policy also prescribes restrictions on imports or exports in relation to specific countries, organisations, groups, individuals or products. The policy also seeks to enhance India's global trade competitiveness by streamlining export promotion schemes, encouraging collaboration with states and districts, and targeting overall exports of USD 2 trillion by 2030.

In respect of all industries not specified as FDI under the automatic route, and in respect of investment in excess of the specified sectoral limits under the automatic route, approval may be required from the RBI. A) Exemptions and exceptions availed

1. Ind-AS optional exemptions:

Ind AS 101 allows first time adopters certain exemptions from the retrospective application of certain requirements under Ind AS. The Group has applied the following exemptions:

a) Deemed cost

As per Ind AS 101 an entity may elect to:

Annexure V - Material Accounting Policies and Other Explanatory Notes to Restated Consolidated Financial Information

- (i) measure an item of property, plant and equipment at the date of transition at its fair value and use that fair value as its deemed cost at that date
- (ii) use a previous GAAP revaluation of an item of property, plant and equipment at or before the date of transition as deemed cost at the date of the revaluation, provided the revaluation was, at the date of the revaluation, broadly comparable to:
 - fair value;
 - or cost or depreciated cost under Ind AS adjusted to reflect, for example, changes in a general or specific price index.
- (iii) use carrying values of property, plant and equipment and intangible assets as on the date of transition to Ind AS (which are measured in accordance with previous GAAP and after making adjustments relating to decommissioning liabilities prescribed under Ind AS 101) if there has been no change in its functional currency on the date of transition.

This exemption can also be used for intangible assets covered by Ind AS 38 Intangible Assets. As permitted by Ind AS 101, the Group has elected to measure all of its property, plant and equipment and investment property at their previous GAAP carrying value.

- b) For financial instruments, wherein fair market values are not available (viz. interest free and below market rate security deposits or loans) the Group has elected to adopt fair value recognition prospectively to transactions entered after the date of transition.

2. Ind AS mandatory exceptions:

- a) An entity estimates in accordance with Ind AS at the date of transition to Ind AS shall be consistent with estimates made for the same date in accordance with previous GAAP (after adjustments to reflect any difference in accounting policies), unless there is objective evidence that those estimates were in error. Ind AS estimates at 01 April 2020 are consistent with the estimates as at the same date made in conformity with previous GAAP apart from the following items where application of Indian GAAP did not require estimation:

- FVTOCI – unquoted equity shares, compulsorily convertible preference shares and debt securities.
- FVTPL – investment in mutual funds
- Determination of the discounted value for financial instruments carried at amortised cost.
- Impairment of financial assets based on expected credit loss model

The estimates used by the Group to present these amounts in accordance with Ind AS reflect conditions at April 01, 2020, the date of transition to Ind AS and as of March 31, 2021.

b) Impairment of financial assets

Ind AS 101 requires an entity to assess and determine the impairment allowance on financial assets as per Ind AS 109 using the reasonable and supportable information that is available without undue cost or effort to determine the credit risk at the date that financial instruments which were initially recognised and compare that to the credit risk at the date of transition to Ind AS. The Group has applied this exception prospectively.

c) Classification of financial assets and liabilities

Ind AS 101 requires an entity to assess classification and measurement of financial assets on the basis of facts and circumstances that exist on the date of transition to Ind AS.

2.2 Basis of measurement

The Restated Consolidated Financial Information have been prepared on a historical cost basis, except for the following:

06	Hexagon Nutrition China Ltd.	March 19, 2020	Hong Kong	Subsidiary	100%	100%	100%	100%

Control is achieved when the group is exposed, or has rights, to variable returns from its involvement with the investee and has the ability to affect those returns through its power over the investee. Specifically, the group controls an investee if and only if the group has:

- Power over the investee (i.e. existing rights that give it the current ability to direct the relevant activities of the investee)
- Exposure, or rights, to variable returns from its involvement with the investee, and
- The ability to use its power over the investee to affect its returns

Generally, there is a presumption that a majority of voting rights result in control. To support this presumption and when the group has less than a majority of the voting or similar rights of an investee, the group considers all relevant facts and circumstances in assessing whether it has power over an investee, including:

- The contractual arrangement with the other vote holders of the investee
- Rights arising from other contractual arrangements
- The group's voting rights and potential voting rights
- The size of the group's holding of voting rights relative to the size and dispersion of the holdings of the other voting rights holders

Annexure V - Material Accounting Policies and Other Explanatory Notes to Restated Consolidated Financial Information

The group re-assesses whether or not it controls an investee if facts and circumstances indicate that there are changes to one or more of the three elements of control. Consolidation of a subsidiary begins when the group obtains control over the subsidiary and ceases when the group loses control of the subsidiary. Assets, liabilities, income and expenses of a subsidiary acquired or disposed of during the year are included in the Restated Consolidated Financial Information from the date the group gains control until the date the group ceases to control the subsidiary.

Restated Consolidated Financial Information are prepared using uniform accounting policies for like transactions and other events in similar circumstances. If a member of the group uses accounting policies other than those adopted in the Restated Consolidated Financial Information for like transactions and events in similar circumstances, appropriate adjustments are made to that group member's financial statements in preparing the Restated Consolidated Financial Information to ensure conformity with the group's accounting policies.

The financial statements of all entities used for the purpose of consolidation are drawn up to same reporting date as that of the parent company, i.e., period ended on December 31 and year ended on March 31. When the end of the reporting period of the parent company is different from that of a subsidiary, the subsidiary prepares, for consolidation purposes, additional financial information as of the same date as the financial statements of the parent company to enable the parent company to consolidate the financial information of the subsidiary, unless it is impracticable to do so.

Consolidation procedure:

- a) Combine like items of assets, liabilities, equity, income, expenses and cash flows of the parent company with those of its subsidiaries. For this purpose, income and expenses of the subsidiary are based on the amounts of the assets and liabilities recognised in the Restated Consolidated Financial Information at the acquisition date.
- b) Offset (eliminate) the carrying amount of the parent company's investment in each subsidiary and the parent company's portion of equity of each subsidiary. Business combinations policy explains how to account for any related goodwill, if any.
- c) Eliminate in full intragroup assets and liabilities, equity, income, expenses and cash flows relating to transactions between entities of the group (profits or losses resulting from intragroup transactions that are recognised in assets, such as inventory and property, plant and equipment, are eliminated in full).

Intragroup losses may indicate an impairment that requires recognition in the Restated Consolidated Financial Information. Ind AS 12 Income Taxes applies to temporary differences that arise from the elimination of profits and losses resulting from intragroup transactions.

Profit or loss and each component of other comprehensive income (OCI) are attributed to the equity holders of the parent of the Group and to the non-controlling interests, even if this results in the non-controlling interests having a deficit balance. When necessary, adjustments are made to the financial statements of subsidiaries to bring their accounting policies into line with the Group's accounting policies. All intra-group assets and liabilities, equity, income, expenses and cash flows relating to transactions between members of the Group are eliminated in full on consolidation.

Put options held by non-controlling interests in the Group's subsidiaries entitle the non-controlling interest to sell its interest in the subsidiary to the Group at pre-determined values and on contracted dates. In such cases the Group consolidates the non-controlling interest's share of the equity in the subsidiary and recognises the fair value of the non-controlling interest's put option, being the present value of the estimated future purchase price, as a financial liability in the Restated Consolidated Financial Information. In raising this liability, the non-controlling interest is derecognised, and any excess or shortfall is charged or realised directly in retained earnings in the statement of changes in equity.

A change in the ownership interest of a subsidiary, without a loss of control, is accounted for as an equity transaction. If the group loses control over a subsidiary, it:

- Derecognises the assets (including goodwill) and liabilities of the subsidiary
- Derecognises the carrying amount of any non—controlling interests
- Derecognises the cumulative translation differences recorded in equity
- Recognises the fair value of the consideration received
- Recognises the fair value of any investment retained

Annexure V - Material Accounting Policies and Other Explanatory Notes to Restated Consolidated Financial Information

- Recognises any surplus or deficit in profit or loss
- Reclassifies the parent company's share of components previously recognised in OCI to profit or loss or retained earnings, as appropriate, as would be required if the group had directly disposed of the related assets or liabilities

2.4 Summary of material accounting policies

a. Business combinations and goodwill

Business combinations are accounted for using the acquisition method. The cost of an acquisition is measured as the aggregate of the consideration transferred measured at acquisition date fair value and the amount of any non-controlling interests in the acquiree. For each business combination, the Group elects whether to measure the non-controlling interests in the acquiree at fair value or at the proportionate share of the acquiree's identifiable net assets. Acquisition-related costs are expensed as incurred.

At the acquisition date, the identifiable assets acquired and the liabilities assumed are recognised at their acquisition date fair values. For this purpose, the liabilities assumed include contingent liabilities representing present obligation and they are measured at their acquisition fair values irrespective of the fact that outflow of resources embodying economic benefits is not probable. However, the following assets and liabilities acquired in a business combination are measured at the basis indicated below:

- Deferred tax assets or liabilities, and the assets or liabilities related to employee benefit arrangements are recognised and measured in accordance with Ind AS 12 Income Tax and Ind AS 19 Employee Benefits respectively.
- Potential tax effects of temporary differences and carry forwards of an acquiree that exist at the acquisition date or arise as a result of the acquisition are accounted in accordance with Ind AS 12.
- Liabilities or equity instruments related to share based payment arrangements of the acquiree or share – based payments arrangements of the Group entered into to replace share-based payment arrangements of the acquiree are measured in accordance with Ind AS 102 Share-based Payments at the acquisition date.
- Assets (or disposal groups) that are classified as held for sale in accordance with Ind AS 105 Noncurrent Assets Held for Sale and Discontinued Operations are measured in accordance with that standard.
- Reacquired rights are measured at a value determined on the basis of the remaining contractual term of the related contract. Such valuation does not consider potential renewal of the reacquired right.

Business combinations under common control are accounted in accordance with Appendix C of IND AS 103 as per the pooling of interest method and the Ind AS Transition Facilitation Group Clarification Bulletin 9 (ITFG 9). ITFG 9 clarifies that, the carrying values of assets and liabilities as appearing in the standalone financial statements of the entities being combined shall be recognised by the combined entity.

As per Appendix C, Business Combinations of Entities under Common Control of Ind AS 103, Business Combinations, in case of common control business combinations, the assets and liabilities of the combining entities are reflected at their carrying amounts.

When the Group acquires a business, it assesses the financial assets and liabilities assumed for appropriate classification and designation in accordance with the contractual terms, economic circumstances and pertinent conditions as at the acquisition date. This includes the separation of embedded derivatives in host contracts by the acquiree.

If the business combination is achieved in stages, any previously held equity interest is re-measured at its acquisition date fair value and any resulting gain or loss is recognised in profit or loss or OCI, as appropriate.

Any contingent consideration to be transferred by the acquirer is recognised at fair value at the acquisition date. Contingent consideration classified as an asset or liability that is a financial instrument and within the scope of Ind AS 109 Financial Instruments, is measured at fair value with changes in fair value recognised in profit or loss. If the contingent consideration is not within the scope of Ind AS 109, it is measured in accordance with the appropriate Ind AS. Contingent consideration that is classified as equity is not re-measured at subsequent reporting dates and its subsequent settlement is accounted for within equity.

Goodwill is initially measured at cost, being the excess of the aggregate of the consideration transferred and the amount recognised for non-controlling interests, and any previous interest held, over the net identifiable assets acquired and liabilities assumed. If the fair value of the net assets acquired is in excess of the aggregate consideration transferred, the Group re-assesses whether it has correctly identified all of the assets acquired and all of the liabilities assumed and reviews the procedures used to measure the amounts to be recognised at the acquisition date. If the reassessment still results in an excess of the fair value of net assets acquired over the aggregate consideration transferred, then the gain is recognised in OCI and accumulated in equity as capital reserve. However, if there is no clear evidence of bargain purchase, the entity recognises the gain directly in equity as capital reserve, without routing the same through OCI.

After initial recognition, goodwill is measured at cost less any accumulated impairment losses. For the purpose of impairment testing, goodwill acquired in a business combination is, from the acquisition date, allocated to each of the Group's cash-generating units that are expected to benefit from the combination, irrespective of whether other assets or liabilities of the acquiree are assigned to those units.

A cash generating unit to which goodwill has been allocated is tested for impairment annually, or more frequently when there is an indication that the unit may be impaired. If the recoverable amount of the cash generating unit is less than its carrying amount, the impairment loss is allocated first to reduce the carrying amount of any goodwill allocated to the unit and then to the other assets of the unit pro rata based on the carrying amount of each asset in the unit. Any impairment loss for goodwill is recognised in profit or loss. An impairment loss recognised for goodwill is not reversed in subsequent periods.

Where goodwill has been allocated to a cash-generating unit and part of the operation within that unit is disposed of, the goodwill associated with the disposed operation is included in the carrying amount of the operation when determining the gain or loss on disposal. Goodwill disposed in these circumstances is measured based on the relative values of the disposed operation and the portion of the cash-generating unit retained.

If the initial accounting for a business combination is incomplete by the end of the reporting period in which the combination occurs, the Group reports provisional amounts for the items for which the accounting is incomplete. Those provisional amounts are adjusted through goodwill during the measurement period, or additional assets or liabilities are recognised, to reflect new information obtained about facts and circumstances that existed at the acquisition date that, if known, would have affected the amounts recognized at that date. These adjustments are called as measurement period adjustments. The measurement period does not exceed one year from the acquisition date.

b. Current versus non-current classification

The Group presents assets and liabilities in the Restated Consolidated Statement of Assets and Liabilities based on current/non-current classification. An asset is treated as current when it is:

- Expected to be realised or intended to be sold or consumed in normal operating cycle
- Held primarily for the purpose of trading
- Expected to be realised within twelve months after the reporting period, or
- Cash or cash equivalent unless restricted from being exchanged or used to settle a liability for at least twelve months after the reporting period

All other assets are classified as non-current.

A liability is current when:

- It is expected to be settled in normal operating cycle

Annexure V - Material Accounting Policies and Other Explanatory Notes to Restated Consolidated Financial Information

- It is held primarily for the purpose of trading
- It is due to be settled within twelve months after the reporting period, or
- There is no unconditional right to defer the settlement of the liability for at least twelve months after the reporting period

The Group classifies all other liabilities as non-current.

Deferred tax assets and liabilities are classified as non-current assets and liabilities.

The operating cycle is the time between the acquisition of assets for processing and their realisation in cash and cash equivalents. Based on the nature of products and the time between acquisition of assets for processing and their realization in cash and cash equivalents, the Group has identified twelve months as its operating cycle for the purpose of current/ non-current classification of assets and liabilities.

The Group's Restated Consolidated Financial Information are presented in INR, which is also the parent company's functional currency.

Transactions and balances

Transactions in foreign currencies are initially recorded by the Group's entities at their respective functional currency spot rates at the date the transaction first qualifies for recognition. However, for practical reasons, the Group uses average rate if the average approximates the actual rate at the date of the transaction.

Monetary assets and liabilities denominated in a foreign currency outstanding at the year end are restated at the year end exchange rates.

Exchange difference arising on the settlement of monetary items at rates different from those at which they were initially recorded during the year, or reported in previous financial statements, are recognized as income or expense in the year in which they arise except for the following:

- Exchange differences arising on monetary items that forms part of a reporting entity's net investment in a foreign operation are recognised in profit or loss in the separate financial statements of the reporting entity or the individual financial statements of the foreign operation, as appropriate. In the financial statements that include the foreign operation and the reporting, such exchange differences are recognised initially in OCI. These exchange differences are reclassified from equity to profit or loss on disposal of the net investment.
- Exchange differences arising on monetary items that are designated as part of the hedge of the Group's net investment of a foreign operation. These are recognised in OCI until the net investment is disposed of, at which time, the cumulative amount is reclassified to profit or loss.
- Tax charges and credits attributable to exchange differences on those monetary items are also recorded in OCI.

Non-monetary items that are measured in terms of historical cost in a foreign currency are translated using the exchange rates at the dates of the initial transactions. Non-monetary items measured at fair value in a foreign currency are translated using the exchange rates at the date when the fair value is determined. The gain or loss arising on translation of non-monetary items measured at fair value is treated in line with the recognition of the gain or loss on the change in fair value of the item (i.e., translation differences on items whose fair value gain or loss is recognised in OCI or profit or loss are also recognised in OCI or profit or loss, respectively).

Annexure V - Material Accounting Policies and Other Explanatory Notes to Restated Consolidated Financial Information

In determining the spot exchange rate to use on initial recognition of the related asset, expense or income (or part of it) on the derecognition of a non-monetary asset or non-monetary liability relating to advance consideration, the date of the transaction is the date on which the Group initially recognises the non-monetary asset or non-monetary liability arising from the advance consideration. If there are multiple payments or receipts in advance, the Group determines the transaction date for each payment or receipt of advance consideration.

On consolidation, The financial statements of the foreign subsidiaries and the joint venture company are translated into Indian Rupees as follows:

Income and expense items except opening and closing inventories are translated at the average exchange rate for the year.

All assets and liabilities are translated using the closing exchange rate

The differences on translation including those arising on elimination of non-monetary intra-group balances and transactions are taken to Foreign currency translation reserve (FCTR).

On disposal of a foreign operation, the component of FCTR relating to that particular foreign operation is recognized in the Restated Consolidated Statement of Profit & Loss (including other comprehensive income).

Any goodwill arising in the acquisition/ business combination of a foreign operation on or after April 01, 2016 and any fair value adjustments to the carrying amounts of assets and liabilities arising on the acquisition are treated as assets and liabilities of the foreign operation and translated at the spot rate of exchange at the reporting date.

Any goodwill or fair value adjustments arising in business combinations/ acquisitions, which occurred before the date of transition to Ind AS (April 01, 2016), are treated as assets and liabilities of the entity rather than as assets and liabilities of the foreign operation. Therefore, those assets and liabilities are non-monetary items already expressed in the functional currency of the parent company and no further translation differences occur.

Gain or loss on a subsequent disposal of any foreign operation excludes translation differences that arose before the date of transition but includes only translation differences arising after the transition date.

d. Financial instruments

A financial instrument is any contract that gives rise to a financial asset of one entity and a financial liability or equity instrument of another entity.

- Financial assets include cash and cash equivalents, trade receivables, unbilled revenues, finance lease receivables, security deposits, investments in equity and debt securities;
- Financial liabilities include long-term and short-term loans and borrowings, lease liabilities, derivative financial liabilities, bank overdrafts and trade payables

Financial assets:

Initial recognition and measurement

Financial assets are classified, at initial recognition, and subsequently measured at amortised cost, fair value through OCI, or fair value through profit or loss.

Initially, a financial instrument is recognized at its fair value. Transaction costs directly attributable to the acquisition or issue of financial instruments are recognized in determining the carrying amount, if it is not classified as at fair value through profit or loss and transactions costs of financial assets carried at fair value through profit or loss are expensed in profit or loss. Subsequently, financial instruments are measured according to the category in which they are classified.

The Group's business model for managing financial assets refers to how it manages its financial assets in order to generate cash flows. The business model determines whether cash flows will result from collecting contractual cash flows, selling the financial assets, or both. Financial assets classified and measured at amortised cost are held within a business model with the objective to hold financial assets in order to collect contractual cash flows while financial assets classified and measured at fair value through OCI are held within a business model with the objective of both holding to collect contractual cash flows and selling.

Subsequent measurement

The subsequent measurement of financial assets depends on their classification as follows:

i) Financial assets at amortised cost:

A financial asset is classified as "financial asset at amortised cost" (amortised cost) under IND AS 109 Financial Instruments if it meets both the following criteria:

- (1) The asset is held within a business model whose objective is to hold the financial asset in order to collect contractual cash flows, and
- (2) The contractual terms of the financial asset give rise to cash flows that are solely payments of principal and interest on the principal amount outstanding on specified date (the 'SPPI' contractual cash flow characteristics test).

This category is the most relevant to the Group. After initial measurement, such financial assets are subsequently measured at amortised cost using the effective interest rate (EIR) method. Amortised cost is calculated by taking into account any discount or premium on acquisition and fees or costs that are an integral part of the EIR. The EIR amortisation is included in other income in the profit or loss. The losses arising from impairment are recognised in the profit or loss. This category generally applies to trade and other receivables.

ii) Financial assets at fair value through other comprehensive income (FVTOCI):

All equity investment in scope of IND AS 109 Financial Instruments are measured at fair value. Equity instruments which are held for trading and contingent consideration recognised by an acquirer in a business combination to which IND AS 103 Business Combinations applies are classified as fair value through profit or loss. For all other equity instruments, the Group may make irrevocable election to present in other comprehensive income subsequent changes in the fair value. The Group makes such election on an instrument-to-instrument basis. The classification is made on initial recognition and is irrevocable.

If the Group decides to classify an equity instrument through fair value through other comprehensive income (FVTOCI), then all fair value changes in the instruments excluding dividends, are recognised in OCI and is never recycled to Restated Consolidated Statement of Profit & Loss (including other comprehensive income), even on sale of the instrument.

Dividends are recognised as other income in the Restated Consolidated Statement of Profit & Loss (including other comprehensive income) when the right of payment has been established, except when the Group benefits from such proceeds as a recovery of part of the cost of the financial asset, in which case, such gains are recorded in OCI

iii) Financial assets at fair value through profit or loss (FVTPL)

Financial assets at fair value through profit or loss include financial assets held for trading, e.g., derivative instruments, financial assets designated upon initial recognition at fair value through profit or loss, e.g., debt or equity instruments, or financial assets mandatorily required to be measured at fair value, i.e., where they fail the SPPI test. Financial assets are classified as held for trading if they are acquired for the purpose of selling or repurchasing in the near term. Financial assets with cash flows that do not pass the SPPI test are required to be classified and measured at fair value through profit or loss, irrespective of the business model. Notwithstanding the criteria for debt instruments to be classified at amortised cost or at fair value through OCI, as described above, debt instruments may be designated at fair value through profit or loss on initial recognition if doing so eliminates, or significantly reduces, an accounting mismatch.

Annexure V - Material Accounting Policies and Other Explanatory Notes to Restated Consolidated Financial Information

Financial assets at fair value through profit or loss are carried in the statement of financial position at fair value with net changes in fair value recognised in profit or loss.

De-recognition of financial assets

A financial asset (or, where applicable, a part of a financial asset or part of a group of similar financial assets) is primarily derecognised (i.e., removed from the Group's consolidated statement of financial position) when:

- The rights to receive cash flows from the asset have expired, or
- The Group has transferred its rights to receive cash flows from the asset or has assumed an obligation to pay the received cash flows in full without material delay to a third party under a 'pass-through' arrangement; and either (a) the Group has transferred substantially all the risks and rewards of the asset, or (b) the Group has neither transferred nor retained substantially all the risks and rewards of the asset, but has transferred control of the asset

When the Group has transferred its rights to receive cash flows from an asset or has entered into a pass-through arrangement, it evaluates if, and to what extent, it has retained the risks and rewards of ownership. When it has neither transferred nor retained substantially all of the risks and rewards of the asset, nor transferred control of the asset, the Group continues to recognise the transferred asset to the extent of its continuing involvement. In that case, the Group also recognises an associated liability. The transferred asset and the associated liability are measured on a basis that reflects the rights and obligations that the Group has retained.

Financial liabilities and equity instruments:

a) Classification as debt or equity

Debt and equity instruments issued by a Group are classified as either financial liabilities or as equity in accordance with the substance of the contractual arrangements and the definitions of a financial liability and an equity instrument.

b) Equity instruments

An equity instrument is any contract that evidences a residual interest in the assets of an entity after deducting all of its liabilities. Equity instruments issued by the Group are recognised at the proceeds received, net of direct issue costs.

c) Financial liabilities

Financial liabilities are classified as either financial liabilities at 'FVTPL' or 'other financial liabilities'.

Initial recognition and measurement

Financial liabilities are classified, at initial recognition, as financial liabilities at fair value through profit or loss, loans and borrowings or payables, as appropriate. All financial liabilities are recognised initially at fair value and, in the case of loans and borrowings and payables, net of directly attributable transaction costs.

Subsequent measurement

The subsequent measurement of financial liabilities depends on their classification as follows:

i) Financial liabilities measured at amortized cost

After initial recognition, financial liabilities are subsequently measured at amortized cost using the effective interest method. Amortised cost is calculated by taking into account any discount or premium on acquisition and fees or costs that are an integral part of the EIR. The EIR amortisation is included as finance costs in the Restated Consolidated Statement of Profit & Loss (including other comprehensive income).

ii) Financial liabilities at fair value through profit or loss (FVTPL)

Financial liabilities at fair value through profit or loss include financial liabilities held for trading. Gains or losses on liabilities held for trading are recognized in Restated Consolidated Statement of Profit & Loss (including other comprehensive income).

Annexure V - Material Accounting Policies and Other Explanatory Notes to Restated Consolidated Financial Information

Financial liabilities designated upon initial recognition at fair value through profit or loss are designated as such at the initial date of recognition, and only if the criteria in Ind AS 109 are satisfied. For liabilities designated as FVTPL, fair value gains/ losses attributable to changes in own credit risk are recognized in OCI. These gains/ losses are not subsequently transferred to P&L. However, the group may transfer the cumulative gain or loss within equity. All other changes in fair value of such liability are recognised in the Restated Consolidated Statement of Profit & Loss (including other comprehensive income).

De-recognition of financial liabilities

A financial liability is derecognised when the obligation under the liability is discharged or cancelled or expires. When an existing financial liability is replaced by another from the same lender on substantially different terms, or the terms of an existing liability are substantially modified, such an exchange or modification is treated as the derecognition of the original liability and the recognition of a new liability. The difference in the respective carrying amounts is recognised in the Restated Consolidated Statement of Profit & Loss (including other comprehensive income).

Offsetting of financial instruments

Financial assets and financial liabilities are offset with the net amount reported in the Restated Consolidated Statement of Assets and Liabilities only if there is a current enforceable legal right to offset the recognised amounts and there is an intent to settle on a net basis, or to realise the assets and settle the liabilities simultaneously.

Impairment of financial assets

The group recognises an allowance for expected credit losses (ECLs) for all debt instruments not held at fair value through profit or loss. ECLs are based on the difference between the contractual cash flows due in accordance with the contract and all the cash flows that the group expects to receive, discounted at an approximation of the original effective interest rate. The expected cash flows will include cash flows from the sale of collateral held or other credit enhancements that are integral to the contractual terms.

For trade receivables, deposits and contract assets, the group applies a simplified approach in calculating ECLs. Therefore, the group does not track changes in credit risk but instead recognises a loss allowance based on lifetime ECLs at each reporting date. The group has established a provision matrix that is based on its historical credit loss experience, adjusted for forward-looking factors specific to the debtors and the economic environment.

e. Revenue recognition

Revenue from sale of goods is recognized at point in time when control is transferred to the customer and it is probable that consideration will be collected. Control of goods is transferred upon the shipment of the goods to the customer or when goods is made available to the customer. Revenue is measured based on the transaction price, which is the consideration, adjusted for variable consideration such as volume discounts, cash discounts etc. as specified in the contract with the customer. The Company collects Goods and Services Tax on behalf of the government and therefore, these are not economic benefits flowing to the Company. Hence, these are excluded from the revenue. The Group has concluded that it is the principal in all of its revenue arrangements since it is the primary obligor in all the revenue arrangements as it has pricing latitude and is also exposed to inventory and credit risks.

No element of financing is deemed present as the majority of sales are on cash basis and credit sales are made with normal credit period consistent with market practice.

Income from trading sales

Revenue from sale of goods is recognised when the goods are delivered to customers, all significant contractual obligations have been satisfied and the collection of the resulting receivable is reasonably expected. Revenue is measured at the fair value of the consideration received or receivable. Amounts disclosed as revenue are net of customer returns, trade allowance, rebates, goods and services tax and amount collected on behalf of third parties.

Annexure V - Material Accounting Policies and Other Explanatory Notes to Restated Consolidated Financial Information

Income from sale of service

Revenue from sale of services is recognized in accordance with the terms of the relevant agreements and is net of goods and service tax (GST), where applicable as accepted and agreed with the customers.

Interest income

Interest income on financial assets at amortised cost is recognised using the effective interest method. Effective interest is the rate that exactly discounts the estimated future cash receipts over the expected life of the financial instrument or a shorter period, where appropriate, to the net carrying amount of the financial asset. Interest income is included in other income in the Restated Consolidated Statement of Profit & Loss (including other comprehensive income).

Dividend income

Dividend income is recognised when the Group's right to receive the payment is established by the reporting date.

Contract balances-

Trade receivables

A receivable is recognised if an amount of consideration that is unconditional (i.e., only the passage of time is required before payment of the consideration is due). Refer to accounting policies of financial assets in point (d) above.

Contract liabilities

A contract liability is recognised if a payment is received or a payment is due (whichever is earlier) from a customer before the group transfers the related goods or services. Contract liabilities are recognised as revenue when the group performs under the contract (i.e., transfers control of the related goods or services to the customer).

f. Taxes

Tax expense comprises of current tax and deferred tax.

Current income tax

Current income tax is measured at the amount expected to be paid to or recovered from the tax authorities in accordance with the Income-tax Act, 1961. using the tax rates and tax laws that have been enacted during the relevant period. The income tax expense or credit for the period is the tax payable on the current period's taxable income based on the applicable income tax rate adjusted by changes in deferred tax assets and liabilities attributable to temporary differences and to unused tax losses. The current income tax charge is calculated on the basis of the tax laws enacted or substantively enacted at the end of reporting period in India where the Company operates and generates taxable income.

Current income tax relating to items recognised outside profit or loss is recognised outside profit or loss (either in other comprehensive income or in equity). Current tax items are recognised in correlation to the underlying transaction either in OCI or directly in equity.

Deferred tax

Deferred tax is provided using the Restated Consolidated Statement of Assets and Liabilities approach on temporary differences between the tax bases of assets and liabilities and their carrying amounts for financial reporting purposes at the reporting date using the tax rates and the tax laws enacted or substantively enacted at the reporting date.

Deferred tax liabilities are recognised for all taxable temporary differences, except:

- When the deferred tax liability arises from the initial recognition of goodwill or an asset or liability in a transaction that is not a business combination and, at the time of the transaction, affects neither the accounting profit nor taxable profit or loss

Annexure V - Material Accounting Policies and Other Explanatory Notes to Restated Consolidated Financial Information

- In respect of taxable temporary differences associated with investments in subsidiaries, when the timing of the reversal of the temporary differences can be controlled and it is probable that the temporary differences will not reverse in the foreseeable future

Deferred tax assets are recognised for all deductible temporary differences, the carry forward of unused tax credits and any unused tax losses. Deferred tax assets are recognised to the extent that it is probable that taxable profit will be available against which the deductible temporary differences, and the carry forward of unused tax credits and unused tax losses can be utilised, except:

- When the deferred tax asset relating to the deductible temporary difference arises from the initial recognition of an asset or liability in a transaction that is not a business combination and, at the time of the transaction, affects neither the accounting profit nor taxable profit or loss
- In respect of deductible temporary differences associated with investments in subsidiaries, deferred tax assets are recognised only to the extent that it is probable that the temporary differences will reverse in the foreseeable future and taxable profit will be available against which the temporary differences can be utilised

Deferred tax assets and liabilities are measured at the tax rates that are expected to apply in the year when the asset is realised, or the liability is settled, based on tax rates (and tax laws) that have been enacted or substantively enacted at the reporting date.

Deferred tax relating to items recognised outside profit or loss is recognised outside profit or loss (either in other comprehensive income or in equity). Deferred tax items are recognised in correlation to the underlying transaction either in OCI or directly in equity.

The carrying amount of deferred tax assets is reviewed at each reporting date and reduced to the extent that it is no longer probable that sufficient taxable profit will be available to allow all or part of the deferred tax asset to be utilised. Unrecognised deferred tax assets are re-assessed at each reporting date and are recognised to the extent that it has become probable that future taxable profits will allow the deferred tax asset to be recovered.

Deferred tax assets and deferred tax liabilities are offset if a legally enforceable right exists to set off current tax assets against current tax liabilities and the deferred taxes relate to the same taxable entity and the same taxation authority.

g. Property, plant and equipment

Recognition and measurement

All items of property, plant and equipment except Freehold Land are initially measured at cost and subsequently it is measured at cost less accumulated depreciation and impairment losses, if any. Freehold Land Cost is carried at cost, net of accumulated impairment loss, if any. Cost comprises the purchase price, taxes, duties, freight, and any attributable cost of bringing the asset to its working condition for its intended use. When significant parts of property, plant and equipment are required to be replaced at intervals, the Group recognises such parts as individual assets with specific useful lives and depreciates them accordingly Any subsequent cost incurred is recognised in the carrying amount of the plant and equipment as a replacement if the recognition criteria are satisfied. All other repair and maintenance costs are recognised in Restated Consolidated Statement of Profit & Loss (including other comprehensive income) as incurred.

Capital work in progress comprises cost of property, plant and equipment (including related expenses), that are not yet ready for their intended use at the reporting date and it is carried at cost less accumulated impairment losses

Gains or losses arising from de-recognition of property, plant and equipment are measured as the difference between the net disposal proceeds and carrying amount of the assets and are recognised in the Restated Consolidated Statement of Profit & Loss (including other comprehensive income) when the asset is derecognised.

Annexure V - Material Accounting Policies and Other Explanatory Notes to Restated Consolidated Financial Information

On transition to IND AS, the group has elected to continue with the carrying value of all its property, plant and equipment measured as per the previous GAAP and use that carrying value as the deemed cost of the property, plant and equipment.

Depreciation on Property, plant and equipment

Depreciation is calculated on the straight line basis over the estimated useful lives of the assets. The management believes that these estimated useful lives are realistic and reflect fair approximation of the period over which the assets are likely to be used. The Group has used the following life to provide depreciation on its property, plant and equipment.

The rates of depreciation are equal to the corresponding rates prescribed in Schedule II to the Companies Act, 2013. Depreciation on addition / disposals during the year has been provided on pro rata.

An item of property, plant and equipment and any significant part initially recognised is derecognised upon disposal or when no future economic benefits are expected from its use or disposal. Any gain or loss arising on de-recognition of the asset (calculated as the difference between the net disposal proceeds and the carrying amount of the asset) is included in the income statement when the asset is derecognised.

The residual values, useful lives and methods of depreciation of property, plant and equipment are reviewed at each financial year end and adjusted prospectively, if appropriate.

h. Intangible Assets

Intangible assets acquired separately are measured on initial recognition at cost. The cost of intangible assets acquired in a business combination is their fair value at the date of acquisition. Following initial recognition, intangible assets are carried at cost less any accumulated amortisation and accumulated impairment losses. Internally generated intangibles, excluding capitalised development costs, are not capitalised and the related expenditure is reflected in profit or loss in the period in which the expenditure is incurred.

The useful lives of intangible assets are assessed as either finite or indefinite.

On transition to IND AS, the group has elected to continue with the carrying value of all its Intangible Assets measured as per the previous GAAP and use that carrying value as the deemed cost of the Intangible Assets.

Intangible assets with finite lives are amortised over the useful economic life and assessed for impairment whenever there is an indication that the intangible asset may be impaired. The amortisation period and the amortisation method for an intangible asset with a finite useful life are reviewed at least at the end of each reporting period. Changes in the expected useful life or the expected pattern of consumption of future economic benefits embodied in the asset are considered to modify the amortisation period or method, as appropriate, and are treated as changes in accounting estimates. The amortisation expense on intangible assets with finite lives is recognised in the Restated Consolidated Statement of Profit & Loss (including other comprehensive income) unless such expenditure forms part of carrying value of another asset.

Intangible assets with indefinite useful lives are not amortised, but are tested for impairment annually, either individually or at the cash-generating unit level. The assessment of indefinite life is reviewed annually to determine whether the indefinite life continues to be supportable. If not, the change in useful life from indefinite to finite is made on a prospective basis.

An intangible asset is derecognised upon disposal (i.e., at the date the recipient obtains control) or when no future economic benefits are expected from its use or disposal. Gains or losses arising from derecognition of an intangible asset are measured as the difference between the net disposal proceeds and the carrying amount of the asset and are recognised in the statement of profit or loss when the asset is derecognised.

Annexure V - Material Accounting Policies and Other Explanatory Notes to Restated Consolidated Financial Information

Amortisation of intangible assets

Amortisation is calculated on the straight-line basis over the estimated useful lives of the assets. The management believes that these estimated useful lives are realistic and reflect fair approximation of the period over which the assets are likely to be used. The Group has used the following life to provide amortisation on its intangible assets.

Class of asset	Useful lives estimated by the management (years)
Software	3 - 6 years
Product Development Cost	5 years

There are no intangible assets with indefinite useful lives.

i. Leases

The group assesses at contract inception whether a contract is, or contains, a lease. That is, if the contract conveys the right to control the use of an identified asset for a period of time in exchange for consideration.

Group as a lessee

The Group's lease asset classes primarily consist of leases for Land & buildings, Plant and Equipment and Computers. The group applies a single recognition and measurement approach for all leases, except for short-term leases and leases of low-value assets.

Right-of-use assets

The group recognises right-of-use assets at the commencement date of the lease (i.e., the date the underlying asset is available for use). Right-of-use assets are measured at cost, less any accumulated depreciation and impairment losses, and adjusted for any remeasurement of lease liabilities. The cost of right-of-use assets includes the amount of lease liabilities recognised, initial direct costs incurred, and lease payments made at or before the commencement date less any lease incentives received. Right-of-use assets are depreciated on a straight-line basis over the shorter of the lease term and the estimated useful lives of the assets, as follows:

- Leasehold land - Over the shorter of the lease term and the estimated useful lives of the assets

Lease Liabilities

At the commencement date of the lease, the group recognises lease liabilities measured at the present value of the future lease payments. The lease payments include fixed payments (including in-substance fixed payments) less any lease incentives receivable, variable lease payments that depend on an index or a rate, and amounts expected to be paid under residual value guarantees.

In calculating the present value of lease payments, the Company uses the incremental borrowing rate at the lease commencement date if the interest rate implicit in the lease is not readily determinable. After the commencement date, the amount of lease liabilities is increased to reflect the accretion of interest and reduced for the lease payments made. In addition, the carrying amount of lease liabilities is remeasured if there is a modification, a change in the lease term, a change in the in-substance fixed lease payments or a change in the assessment to purchase the underlying asset.

After the commencement date, the amount of lease liabilities is increased to reflect the accretion of interest and reduced for the lease payments made. In addition, the carrying amount of lease liabilities is remeasured if there is a modification, a change in the lease term, a change in the lease payments.

Lease liability and ROU asset have been separately presented in the Restated Consolidated Statement of Assets and Liabilities and lease payments have been classified as financing cash flows.

The right-of-use assets are also subject to impairment. Refer to the accounting policies in Note k Impairment of non-financial assets.

Annexure V - Material Accounting Policies and Other Explanatory Notes to Restated Consolidated Financial Information

Short-term leases and leases of low-value assets

The group applies the short-term lease recognition exemption to its short-term leases (i.e., those leases that have a lease term of 12 months or less from the commencement date and do not contain a purchase option). It also applies the lease of low-value assets recognition exemption to leases of office equipment that are considered to be low value. Lease payments on short-term leases and leases of low-value assets are recognised as an operating expense in the Restated Consolidated Statement of Profit & Loss (including other comprehensive income).

j. Inventories

Basis of valuation

Inventories other than scrap materials are valued at lower of cost and net realizable value. The comparison of cost and net realizable value is made on an item-by-item basis.

Method of valuation

Cost of raw materials, packing materials and traded goods are determined by using weighted average method and comprises all costs of purchase, duties, taxes (other than those subsequently recoverable from tax authorities) and all other costs incurred in bringing the inventories to their present location and condition.

Net realisable value is the estimated selling price in the ordinary course of business, less estimated costs of completion and the estimated costs necessary to make the sale.

k. Impairment of Non-financial assets

The Group assesses, at each reporting date, whether there is an indication that an asset or a group of assets may be impaired. If any indication exists, or when annual impairment testing for an asset is required, the Group estimates the asset's recoverable amount. An asset's recoverable amount is the higher of an asset's or cash generating unit's (CGU) fair value less costs of disposal and its value in use. Recoverable amount is determined for an individual asset, unless the asset does not generate cash inflows that are largely independent of those from other assets or groups of assets. When the carrying amount of an asset or CGU exceeds its recoverable amount, the asset is considered impaired and is written down to its recoverable amount.

In assessing value in use, the estimated future cash flows are discounted to their present value using a pre-tax discount rate that reflects current market assessments of the time value of money and the risks specific to the asset. In determining fair value less costs of disposal, recent market transactions are taken into account if available. If no such transactions can be identified, an appropriate valuation model is used. These calculations are corroborated by valuation multiples, quoted share prices for publicly traded companies or other available fair value indicators.

The Group bases its impairment calculation on detailed budgets and forecast calculations, which are prepared separately for each of the Group's CGUs to which the individual assets are allocated. These budgets and forecast calculations generally cover a period of five years. For longer periods, a long-term growth rate is calculated and applied to project future cash flows after the fifth year. To estimate cash flow projections beyond periods covered by the most recent budgets/forecasts, the Group extrapolates cash flow projections in the budget using a steady or declining growth rate for subsequent years, unless an increasing rate can be justified. In any case, this growth rate does not exceed the long-term average growth rate for the products, industries, or country or countries in which the entity operates, or for the market in which the asset is used.

Impairment losses of continuing operations, including impairment on inventories, are recognised in the Restated Consolidated Statement of Profit & Loss (including other comprehensive income).

For assets excluding goodwill, an assessment is made at each reporting date to determine whether there is an indication that previously recognised impairment losses no longer exist or have decreased. If such indication exists, the Group estimates the asset's or CGU's recoverable amount. A previously recognised impairment loss is reversed only if there has been a change in the assumptions used to determine the asset's recoverable amount since the last impairment loss was recognised. The reversal is limited so that the carrying amount of the asset does not exceed its recoverable amount, nor exceed the carrying amount that would have been determined, net of depreciation, had no impairment loss been recognised for the asset in prior years. Such reversal is recognised in the statement of profit or loss unless the asset is carried at a revalued amount, in which case, the reversal is treated as a revaluation increase.

l. Cumulative Compulsorily Convertible Preference Shares (CCPSs)

Cumulative Compulsorily Convertible Preference Shares is equity components based on the terms of the contract. On issuance of the convertible preference shares, the proceeds is allocated to the conversion option that is recognised and included in equity since conversion option meets Ind AS 32 criteria for fixed to fixed classification.

m. Provisions

Provisions are recognised when the Group has a present obligation (legal or constructive) as a result of a past event, it is probable that an outflow of resources embodying economic benefits will be required to settle the obligation and the amount of the obligation can be estimated reliably.

The amount recognized as a provision is the best estimate of the consideration required to settle the present obligation at the end of the reporting period, taking into account the risks and uncertainties surrounding the obligation. The expense relating to a provision is presented in the Restated Consolidated Statement of Profit & Loss (including other comprehensive income) net of any reimbursement.

If the effect of the time value of money is material, provisions are discounted using a current pre-tax rate that reflects, when appropriate, the risks specific to the liability. When discounting is used, the increase in the provision due to the passage of time is recognised as a finance cost.

When some or all of the economic benefits required to settle a provision are expected to be recovered from a third party, the receivable is recognized as an asset, if it is virtually certain that reimbursement will be received and the amount of the receivable can be measured reliably. Provisions are reviewed at relevant period and adjusted to reflect the current best estimates. If it is no longer probable that the outflow of resources would be required to settle the obligation, the provision is reversed

n. Retirement and other employee benefits

Defined benefit plan

In accordance with applicable laws in India, the Group provides for gratuity, a defined benefit retirement plan ("the Gratuity Plan") for every employee who has completed 5 years or more of service on departure at 15 days salary (last drawn salary) for each completed year of service. The Gratuity Plan provides for a lump sum payment to eligible employees at retirement, death, incapacitation or termination of employment based on last drawn salary and tenure of employment with the Group. Liabilities with regard to the Gratuity Plan are determined by actuarial valuation on the reporting date using projected unit credit method.

Past service costs are recognised in profit or loss on the earlier of:

- The date of the plan amendment or curtailment, and
- The date that the group recognises related restructuring costs

Net interest is calculated by applying the discount rate to the net defined benefit liability or asset. The group recognises the following changes in the net defined benefit obligation as an expense in the Restated Consolidated Statement of Profit & Loss (including other comprehensive income):

Annexure V - Material Accounting Policies and Other Explanatory Notes to Restated Consolidated Financial Information

- Service costs comprising current service costs, past-service costs, gains and losses on curtailments and non-routine settlements; and
- Net interest expense or income

Re-measurements, of the net defined liability comprising of actuarial gains and losses, the effect of the asset ceiling, excluding amounts included in net interest on the net defined benefit liability and the return on plan assets (excluding amounts included in net interest on the net defined benefit liability), are recognised immediately in the Restated Consolidated Statement of Assets and Liabilities with a corresponding debit or credit to retained earnings through OCI in the period in which they occur. Re-measurements are not reclassified to profit or loss in subsequent periods.

Defined contribution plan

The Group makes contributions to the recognized Provident Fund scheme, a defined contribution benefit scheme. These contributions are deposited with Government administered fund and recognised as an expense in the period in which the related service is performed. There is no further obligation on the Group on this defined contribution plan.

Compensated absences

Accumulated leave, is expected to be utilized within the next 12 months, and are treated as short-term employee benefit. The Company treats the entire leave as current liability in the Restated Consolidated Statement of Assets and Liabilities, since it does not have an unconditional right to defer its settlement for 12 months after the reporting date. It is measured on the basis of an actuarial valuation done by an independent actuary on the projected unit credit method at the end of each financial year.

o. Share-based payments

Employees (including senior executives) of the Group receive remuneration in the form of share-based payments, whereby employees render services as consideration for equity instruments (equity-settled transactions).

Equity-settled transactions

The cost of equity-settled transactions is determined by the fair value at the date when the grant is made using an appropriate valuation model. That cost is recognised in employee benefit expenses, together with a corresponding increase in retained earnings in equity, over the period in which the service conditions and, where applicable, the performance conditions are fulfilled (the vesting period). The cumulative expense recognised for equity-settled transactions at each reporting date until the vesting date reflects the extent to which the vesting period has expired and the Group's best estimate of the number of equity instruments that will ultimately vest. The expense or credit in the statement of profit or loss for a period represents the movement in cumulative expense recognised as at the beginning and end of that period

Service and non-market performance conditions are not taken into account when determining the grant date fair value of awards, but the likelihood of the conditions being met is assessed as part of the Group's best estimate of the number of equity instruments that will ultimately vest. Market performance conditions are reflected within the grant date fair value. Any other conditions attached to an award, but without an associated service requirement, are considered to be non-vesting conditions. Non-vesting conditions are reflected in the fair value of an award and lead to an immediate expensing of an award unless there are also service and/or performance conditions. No expense is recognised for awards that do not ultimately vest because non-market performance and/or service conditions have not been met. Where awards include a market or non-vesting condition, the transactions are treated as vested irrespective of whether the market or non-vesting condition is satisfied, provided that all other performance and/or service conditions are satisfied.

When an award is modified, at minimum the cost of the original award is recognised as if it had not been modified (i.e. at the original grant date fair value, spread over the original vesting period, and subject to the original vesting conditions). This applies unless the award does not vest because of failure to satisfy a vesting condition (other than a market condition) that was specified at grant date.

Annexure V - Material Accounting Policies and Other Explanatory Notes to Restated Consolidated Financial Information

When the terms of an equity-settled award are modified, the minimum expense recognised is the grant date fair value of the unmodified award, provided the original vesting terms of the award are met. An additional expense, measured as at the date of modification, is recognised for any modification that increases the total fair value of the share-based payment transaction, or is otherwise beneficial to the employee. Where a modification is made after the original vesting period has expired, and is subject to no further vesting conditions, any incremental fair value is recognised immediately.

If the modification decreases the fair value of the equity instruments granted (e.g. by increasing the exercise price or reducing the exercise period), the decrease in value is effectively ignored and the entity continues to recognise a cost for services as if the awards had not been modified. Where an award is cancelled by the entity or by the counterparty, any remaining element of the fair value of the award is expensed immediately through profit or loss.

The dilutive effect of outstanding options is reflected as additional share dilution in the computation of diluted earnings per share.

Cash-settled transactions

A liability is recognised for the fair value of cash-settled transactions. The fair value is measured initially and at each reporting date up to and including the settlement date, with changes in fair value recognised in employee benefit expenses (see Note 32). The fair value is expensed over the period until the vesting date with recognition of a corresponding liability. The fair value is determined using a binomial model, further details of which are given in Note 40. The approach used to account for vesting conditions when measuring equity-settled transactions also applies to cash-settled transactions.

p. Cash and cash equivalents

Cash and cash equivalent in the Restated Consolidated Statement of Assets and Liabilities comprise cash at banks and on hand and short-term deposits with an original maturity of three months or less, which are subject to an insignificant risk of changes in value.

For the purpose of the statement of cash flows, cash and cash equivalents consist of cash and short-term deposits, as defined above, net of outstanding bank overdrafts as they are considered an integral part of the Group's cash management.

q. Contingencies

A contingent liability is:

A possible obligation that arises from past events and whose existence will be confirmed only by the occurrence or non-occurrence of one or more uncertain future events not wholly within the control of the Group; or a present obligation that arises from past events but is not recognised because:

- (i) It is not probable that an outflow of resources embodying economic benefits will be required to settle the obligation; or
- (ii) The amount of the obligation cannot be measured with sufficient reliability.

Contingent liabilities are recognised when virtually certain on the Restated Consolidated Statement of Assets and Liabilities of the Group, except for contingent liabilities assumed in a business combination that are present obligations arising from past events and which the fair values can be reliably determined.

Contingent liabilities recognised in a business combination

A contingent liability recognised in a business combination is initially measured at its fair value. Subsequently, it is measured at the higher of the amount that would be recognised in accordance with the requirements for provisions or the amount initially recognised less, when appropriate, cumulative amortisation recognised in accordance with the requirements for revenue recognition.

Annexure V - Material Accounting Policies and Other Explanatory Notes to Restated Consolidated Financial Information

r. Earnings per share

Basic earnings per share is computed by dividing the net profit after tax attributable to equity shareholders of the parent company for the year by the weighted average number of equity shares outstanding during the period. Diluted earnings per share is computed by dividing the net profit after tax attributable to ordinary equity holders of the parent company using the weighted-average number of equity shares considered for deriving basic earnings per share and weighted average number of dilutive equivalent shares outstanding during the period, except where the results would be anti-dilutive. Dilutive potential shares are deemed converted at the beginning of the period, unless issued at later date.

Ordinary shares that will be issued upon the conversion of mandatorily convertible instruments are included in the calculation of basic earnings per share from the date the contract is entered into.

s. Fair value measurement

The fair value of the financial instruments is included at the price that would be received to sell an asset or paid to transfer a liability in an orderly transaction between market participants at the measurement date. Management of the Group have assessed that the fair values of cash and cash equivalents, restricted cash, trade receivables (not subject to provisional pricing), trade payables, bank overdrafts and other current liabilities approximate their carrying amounts largely due to the short-term maturities of these instruments.

The Group uses the following hierarchy for determining and disclosing the fair value of financial instruments by valuation technique:

Level 1: quoted (unadjusted) prices in active markets for identical assets or liabilities.

Level 2: other techniques for which all inputs which have a significant effect on the recorded fair value are observable, either directly or indirectly.

Level 3: techniques which use inputs that have a significant effect on the recorded fair value that are not based on observable market data.

There have been no transfers between fair value levels during the reporting period.

t. Segment reporting

Operating segments are reported in a manner consistent with the internal reporting provided to the chief operating decision maker being Chief Financial Officer. The Managing Director assesses the financial performance and position of the Group as a whole, and makes strategic decisions.

u. Cash Flow

Ind AS 7 requires to exclude non-cash transaction relating to investing and financing activities from the statement of cash flow. However, such transactions should be disclosed elsewhere in the financial statements.

Cash and cash equivalents consist of cash on hand and balances with banks which are unrestricted for withdrawal and usage.

v. Exceptional Items

Exceptional items are those items that management considers, by virtue of their size or incidence (including but not limited to impairment charges and acquisition and restructuring related costs), should be disclosed separately to ensure that the financial information allows an understanding of the underlying performance of the business in the year, so as to facilitate comparison with prior periods. Such items are material by nature or amount to the year's result and require separate disclosure in accordance with Ind AS.

Note 42 : Leases

Effective April 1, 2019, the group has adopted Ind AS 116, Leases, using modified retrospective approach. On adoption of the new standard IND AS 116 resulted in recognition of 'Right of Use' assets and a lease liability. The cumulative effect of applying the standard was debited to retained earnings. The effect of this adoption is insignificant on the profit before tax, profit for the period and earnings per share. Ind AS 116 will result in an increase in cash inflows from operating activities and an increase in cash outflows from financing activities on account of lease payments.

B) Measurement of fair values

Valuation techniques and significant unobservable inputs

The following table shows the valuation techniques used in measuring Level 2 and Level 3 fair values for financial instruments measured at fair value in the balance sheet, as well as the significant unobservable inputs used.

Financial instruments measured at fair value through profit or loss

Type	Valuation technique	Significant unobservable inputs	Inter-relationship between significant unobservable inputs and fair value measurement
Investment in mutual funds	The fair values of investments in mutual fund units is based on the net asset value ("NAV") as stated by the issuer of these mutual fund units in the published statements as at Balance Sheet date. NAV represents the price at which the issuer will issue further units of mutual fund and the price at which the issuers will redeem such units from the investor.	Not applicable	Not applicable

43 B) Financial risk management

The Group has exposure to the following risks arising from financial instruments:

- a. credit risk ;
- b. liquidity risk ; and
- c. market risk

Risk management framework

The Group's board of directors has overall responsibility for the establishment and oversight of the Group's risk management framework. The Group manages market risk through a treasury department, which evaluates and exercises independent control over the entire process of market risk management. The treasury department recommends risk management objectives and policies, which are approved by Board of Directors. The activities of this department include management of cash resources, borrowing strategies, and ensuring compliance with market risk limits and policies.

The Group's risk management policies are established to identify and analyze the risks faced by the Group, to set appropriate risk limits and controls and to monitor risks and adherence to limits. Risk management policies and systems are reviewed regularly to reflect changes in market conditions and the Group's activities. The Group, through its training and management standards and procedures, aims to maintain a disciplined and constructive control environment.

The audit committee oversees how management monitors compliance with the Group's risk management policies and procedures, and reviews the adequacy of the risk management framework in relation to the risks faced by the Group. The audit committee is assisted in its oversight role by internal audit. Internal audit undertakes both regular and ad hoc reviews of risk management controls and procedures, the results of which are reported to the audit committee.

a. Credit risk

Credit risk is the risk of financial loss to the Group if a customer or counterparty to a financial instrument fails to meet its contractual obligations, and arises principally from the Group's receivables from customers and investment securities. The carrying amounts of financial assets represent the maximum credit exposure.

Trade receivables

The Group extends credit to customers in normal course of business. The Group considers factors such as credit track record in the market and past dealings for extension of credit to customers. To manage credit risk, the Group periodically assesses the financial reliability of the customer, taking into account the financial condition, current economic trends, and analysis of historical bad debts and ageing of accounts receivables. Outstanding customer receivables are regularly monitored to make an assessment of recoverability. Receivables are provided as doubtful / written off, when there is no reasonable expectation of recovery. Where receivables have been provided / written off, the Group continues regular follow up, engage with the customers, legal options / any other remedies available with the objective of recovering these outstandings. The Group is not exposed to concentration of credit risk to any one single customer since services are provided to vast spectrum. The Group also takes security deposits, advances , post dated cheques etc from its customers, which mitigate the credit risk to an extent.

Investments in companies

The Group has made investments in subsidiaries. The Group does not perceive any credit risk pertaining to investments made in such related entities.

Cash and cash equivalents

The Group held cash and cash equivalents with credit worthy banks of Rs. 234.02 mn as at 31 December 2025 (Rs. 152.23 mn as at 31 March 2025 Rs 193.53 mn as at 31 March 2024, Rs. 113.87 mn as at 31 March 2023). The credit worthiness of such banks and financial institutions is evaluated by the management on an ongoing basis and is considered to be good.

Exposure to credit risk

The allowance for impairment in respect of trade receivables during the year was (Rs. 0.96 mn) as at 31 December 2025 (Rs. 4.37 mn as at 31 March 2025 (Rs. 1.32 mn) as at 31 March 2024, Rs. 2.15mn as at 31 March 2023);

The movement in the allowance for impairment in respect of trade and other receivables during the year was as follows.

Impairment loss recognised	4.37
As at March 31, 2025	13.55

ANNEXURE VII - NOTES TO THE RESTATED CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL INFORMATION

(All amounts in Rupees millions, unless otherwise stated)

b. Liquidity risk

Liquidity risk is the risk that the Group will encounter difficulty in meeting the obligations associated with its financial liabilities that are settled by delivering cash or another financial asset. The Group's approach to managing liquidity is to ensure, as far as possible, that it will have sufficient liquidity to meet its liabilities when they are due, under both normal and stressed conditions, without incurring unacceptable losses or risking damage to the Group's reputation.

Exposure to liquidity risk

	1,009.85	57.97	-	1,067.82

c. Market risk

Market risk is the risk that the fair value or future cash flows of a financial instrument will fluctuate because of changes in market prices. Market risk comprises three types of risk: interest rate risk, currency risk and other price risk, such as equity price risk and commodity risk. Financial instruments affected by market risk include borrowings and bank deposits. The objective of market risk management is to manage and control market risk exposures within acceptable parameters, while optimising the return.

Interest rate risk

Interest rate risk is the risk that the value of a financial instrument will fluctuate because of changes in market interest rates.

Exposure to interest rate risk:

The Group's exposure to market risk for changes in interest rates relates to fixed deposits and borrowings from banks.

The interest rate profile of the Group's interest-bearing financial instruments as reported to the management of the Group is as follows:

Particulars	As at December 31, 2025	As at March 31, 2025	As at March 31, 2024	As at March 31, 2023
Fixed-rate instruments:
Financial asset (Bank deposits)	(14.43)	(57.93)	(56.26)	(113.39)
Financial liabilities (Borrowings)	100.00	-	-
	85.57	(57.93)	(56.26)	(113.39)
Variable-rate instruments:
Financial liabilities (Borrowings)	297.90	266.00	368.93	518.73
	297.90	266.00	368.93	518.73

Fair value sensitivity analysis for fixed-rate instruments

The Group's fixed rate borrowings are carried at amortised cost. They are therefore not subject to interest rate risk as defined in IND AS 107, since neither the carrying amount nor the future cash flow will fluctuate because of a change in market interest rates.

ANNEXURE VII - NOTES TO THE RESTATED CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL INFORMATION
(All amounts in Rupees millions, unless otherwise stated)

The following table demonstrates the sensitivity to a reasonably possible change in interest rates on that portion of borrowings affected. With all other variables held constant, the Group's loss before tax is affected through the impact on floating rate borrowings, as follows:

Particulars	As at December 31, 2025	As at March 31, 2025	As at March 31, 2024	As at March 31, 2023
Increase in basis points	50 basis points	50 basis points	50 basis points	50 basis points
Effect on profit before tax	(1.49)	(1.33)	(1.84)	(2.59)
Decrease in basis points	50 basis points	50 basis points	50 basis points	50 basis points
Effect on profit before tax	1.49	1.33	1.84	2.59

The assumed movement in basis points for the interest rate sensitivity analysis is based on the currently observable market environment, showing a significantly higher volatility than in prior years.

Foreign currency risk

The Group is exposed to currency risk on account of its operating and financing activities. The functional currency of the Group is Indian Rupee. Our exposure are mainly denominated in U.S. dollars. The USD exchange rate has changed substantially in recent periods and may continue to fluctuate substantially in the future. The Group's business model incorporates assumptions on currency risks and ensures any exposure is covered through the normal business operations. This intent has been achieved in all years presented. The Group has put in place a Financial Risk Management Policy to Identify the most effective and efficient ways of managing the currency risks.

FACTORS AFFECTING OUR RESULTS OF OPERATIONS AND FINANCIAL CONDITION

Our business, results of operations and financial condition are affected by a number of factors, some of which are beyond our control. This section sets out certain key factors that we believe have affected our business, results of operations and financial condition in the past or which we expect will affect our business, results of operations or financial condition in the future. For a detailed discussion of certain factors that may adversely affect our business, results of operations and financial conditions, see “Risk factors” beginning on page 30.

Implementation of multi-stage inspection, testing, and validation procedures throughout the production cycle;

Our results of operations and financial condition are influenced by the implementation of multi-stage inspection, testing, and validation procedures across our production cycle. We undertake quality control measures at multiple levels, including raw material inspection, in-process testing, and final product validation, which typically cover all critical production batches and a substantial portion of finished goods prior to dispatch. These processes have historically supported the maintenance of controlled rejection levels and minimized customer returns.

However, such stringent quality assurance mechanisms also result in incremental costs, including expenditure on testing and analysis charges, which form a meaningful part of our operating expenses. Any further strengthening of these procedures, whether due to internal initiatives or evolving regulatory and customer requirements, may increase our operating costs and impact margins. Conversely, any deficiencies in these processes could lead to higher rejection rates, increased rework costs, potential product recalls, and reputational risks, which may materially and adversely affect our business, results of operations, and financial condition.

Regular internal and third-party audits of manufacturing processes and facilities;

The Company follows a robust quality assurance and compliance framework, which includes the regular conduct of both internal and independent third-party audits of its manufacturing processes and facilities. These audits are undertaken to ensure adherence to applicable regulatory requirements, industry standards, and internal quality protocols, and to identify opportunities for continuous improvement in operational efficiency and product quality. In addition to internal assessments, periodic audits by accredited external agencies and customer-appointed auditors are conducted, reflecting the critical nature of the Company's products and their end-use applications. Such third-party validations are often a prerequisite for empanelment and order allocation by customers, particularly in regulated and quality-sensitive segments. The Company believes that maintaining a consistent audit mechanism not only strengthens customer confidence and supports long-term business relationships but also enhances its ability to secure and retain orders from both domestic and international clients.

Vendor qualification and raw material quality control mechanisms; and

The Company has established a comprehensive vendor qualification and raw material quality control framework to ensure consistency, reliability, and adherence to defined quality standards. The vendor onboarding process involves a detailed evaluation of suppliers across multiple parameters, including their capability to consistently supply raw materials as per the Company's specifications, compliance with prescribed quality standards, production capacity, reliability of supply, and track record in meeting delivery timelines. The Company also assesses vendors' quality control systems, certifications, and adherence to applicable regulatory requirements. Post qualification, approved vendors are subject to periodic performance reviews and re-evaluations to ensure continued compliance with the Company's standards. Further, all incoming raw materials undergo stringent quality checks and testing procedures at the Company's facilities to verify conformity with specified parameters before being accepted for use in production. This structured approach enables the Company to mitigate supply chain risks, maintain product quality, and meet customer expectations consistently.

Ongoing monitoring and review mechanisms to ensure adherence to domestic and export market specifications.

The Company has implemented ongoing monitoring and review mechanisms to ensure continuous adherence to applicable domestic and export market specifications. These mechanisms include regular evaluation of product quality parameters, process controls, and compliance with relevant regulatory and customer-specific requirements across different geographies. The Company maintains defined standard operating procedures and quality benchmarks aligned with applicable Indian and international standards, and periodically reviews them to incorporate changes in regulatory frameworks or customer expectations. Products are subject to routine testing and validation at various stages of production to ensure conformity with prescribed specifications. Additionally, the Company undertakes periodic internal reviews and, where applicable, external validations to assess compliance with export norms, including packaging, labelling, and documentation requirements. This continuous oversight framework enables the Company to consistently meet diverse market requirements, minimize non-compliance risks, and maintain its credibility with customers in both domestic and international markets.

Cost and availability of raw materials.

We are focused on holistic nutritional products like branded nutrition products (B2C), premix formulation (B2B2C), ready to use foods and micro-nutrient powder with in-house manufacturing and research and development. Some of the raw materials we require for production of our products includes but are not limited to Vitamin D2 40 MIU/GM pure crystals, Vitamin A Palmitate 1.7 MIU/gm, Folic Acid (Vitamin B9) Halal, Thiamine Mononitrate Halal, Palmolein oil and whey protein hydrolysate (WPH). During the nine months period ended December 31, 2025, Fiscals 2025, 2024 and 2023, the cost of materials consumed, purchase of stock-in-trade and changes in inventories of finished goods and stock-in-progress aggregated to ₹ 1,349.62 million, ₹ 1,805.29 million, ₹ 1,799.04 million and ₹ 1,681.56 million respectively and accounted for 48.98%, 54.49%, 59.06% and 59.70% of our total income, respectively.

The availability and price of raw materials is subject to a number of factors beyond our control including overall climatic and economic conditions, production levels, supply demand and competition for such materials, production and transportation cost, taxes and duties, international relations between India and nations from which we source raw materials, labour costs, labour unrest and natural disasters. Interruption, or a prolonged shortage, in the supply of raw materials may result in our inability to operate our production facilities at optimal or required capacities, leading to a decline in production and sales. In addition, while competition for procuring raw material may result in an increase in raw material prices, our ability to pass on such increases in overall operational costs may be limited. Furthermore, any increase in the cost of raw materials which results in an increase in prices of our products, may reduce demand for our products and thereby affect our margins and profitability. Additionally, considering the shelf life of some of our raw materials, we are required to procure and warehouse such raw materials. However, if such warehoused raw materials get spoilt, and if we are unable to procure the required quantities in time, it will affect production levels, consequently impacting our results of operations and financial conditions.

Product mix

Our revenue and profit margins vary depending on our product mix. Our product offerings include a wide variety of products categorised under our 3 (three) segments i.e., branded nutrition products, premix formulations and ESG segment. The success of our business depends upon our ability to identify emerging market trends and offer differentiated product offerings to our customers. If we are unable to correctly identify market trends or if we are unable to increase production to the required levels, we may lose ground to our competitors, which could adversely affect our financial condition. As we continue to increase our focus on growing our business in India and globally, we expect the relative proportion of revenue contribution from sales of our high margin products to increase in the future. While we believe that we are well placed to capitalize on the growing consumer demand for health and wellness nutrition, if we are unable to maintain and/or expand our premium product range, in keeping with market trends and demands, we may lose market share to our competitors and that may adversely impact our results of operations.

Operating costs and efficiencies

Given the nature of our business, operating costs and efficiencies are critical to maintaining our competitiveness and profitability. Our profitability is partially dependent on our ability to spread fixed production costs over higher production volumes. We continually undertake efforts to reduce our costs, such as negotiating volume discounts, outsourcing non-critical processes like blending of lower margin premix formulations and rationalising our labour. Our ability to reduce our operating costs in line with customer demand is subject to risks and uncertainties, as our costs depend, in part, on external factors beyond our control. We also incur certain costs in order to ensure that the products that we supply to our customers are of high quality. Such costs relate to matters such as capital expenditure, testing and validation, systems deployment and rejection and re-working of products. Quality control is critical to our operations and a failure to adhere and maintain, our stringent quality standards, could result in us incurring significant liability.

The table summarizing the operating cost in absolute value and percentage, with a break-up of Raw Material, Labour, Power & Fuel are mentioned below:

Capacity Utilization

Our capacity utilization is dependent upon our ability to optimally manage our manufacturing facilities, which are subject to various operating risks, including those beyond our control, such as the breakdown and failure of equipment or industrial accidents, severe weather conditions and natural disasters. We have been working towards optimum capacity utilization and increasing operational efficiencies for our business. Further, we continuously strive to attain cost efficiency, enhanced productivity and product excellence through technological innovation and optimum deployment of resources. Strengthening internal processes, work flow and optimizing manpower utilization through multi-skills training are the key focus areas for us. For instance, our installed production capacity per month in two shift operation for premix including dry and oil premix, clinical nutrition and RUF/MNP are 877.50 MT, 110 MT and 739.65 MT, respectively at consolidated level. Our capacity utilisation in financial years ended March 31, 2025, March 31, 2024 and March 31, 2023 is set out below.

Any significant malfunction or breakdown of our machinery may entail repair and maintenance costs and cause delays in our operations. If we are unable to repair malfunctioning machinery in a timely manner or at all, our facilities may not be able to operate at desired utilization levels or our operations may be suspended until we procure machinery to replace the same. Moreover, 18 employees are affiliated with trade unions and any disruptions in work due to disputes with our work force could have a significant impact on our results of operation and financial condition.

Reasons for Under-Utilisation of Capacity

During the nine months period ended December 31, 2025 and last three fiscals, the Company's average capacity utilisation across major product categories, including micronutrient premix, clinical nutrition, and ready-to-use therapeutic food (RUTF), has remained between approximately 28.76% to 31.06%. The lower utilisation levels are attributable to a combination of operational, commercial, and industry-specific factors, including:

1. Nature of Demand: Project-Driven and Non-Linear

A substantial share of the Company's revenues, particularly in ESG (RUTF, RUSF, MNP), is linked to:

- a. institutional procurement cycles,
- b. tender-based orders, and

- c. humanitarian and government nutrition programmes.

The demand patterns are inherently irregular, leading to high order inflows in certain quarters and lean periods in others. This naturally results in variability in both monthly and annual capacity utilisation. While monthly utilisation often rises well above the average during peak periods, the annual utilisation appears lower because it reflects the average utilisation across all months, including the lean ones

2. Requirement to Maintain Buffer Capacity for Eligibility in Large Contracts

To qualify for large multi-year tenders from global agencies (such as United nation agencies), the Company is required to maintain demonstrable available capacity.

Such eligibility criteria typically mandate:

- a. capacity thresholds,
- b. the ability to scale production quickly for emergency, contingency, or surge requirements,
- c. flexibility to ensure continuous, uninterrupted, and assured supply, and
- d. maintenance of operational buffers and redundancy to manage variability in global demand.

3. High SKU Diversity and Frequent Changeovers.

The Company manages a highly diverse product portfolio with more than 700 SKUs across multiple fortification applications, customized premixes, ESG Category Products, clinical nutrition formulations, and branded nutrition categories. This extensive SKU range results in frequent batch changeovers, which in turn lead to machine downtime and reduce the effective utilisation of installed capacity, even during periods of strong demand.

4. Order-Driven Production Model (Make-to-Order)

The Company operates primarily on a make-to-order model, with limited production undertaken for stock due to product shelf-life and formulation-specific requirements.

This approach reduces inventory risk but naturally leads to lower capacity utilisation compared to continuous-process industries.

5. Commissioning of New Lines Ahead of Demand

The Company has, over the years, invested in capacity expansion in anticipation of future growth. These capacities were fully installed and ready, but demand ramp-up across certain categories—particularly clinical nutrition and fortified premix—occurred more gradually, resulting in temporary under-utilisation.

6. Raw Material Availability and Packaging Constraints

Occasional delays in:

- a. sourcing specialised micronutrients,
- b. importing critical premix components, and
- c. availability of packaging material have contributed to shorter production cycles and under-utilisation in certain periods.

Measures Undertaken to Improve Capacity Utilisation

The Company has already initiated and implemented multiple operational and commercial measures aimed at improving utilisation levels. These include:

1. Strengthening Order Book Visibility Through Long-Term Contracts

The Company is actively pursuing and securing:

- a. multi-year framework contracts,
- b. rate agreements with international agencies, and
- c. annual procurement commitments from institutional customers

The objective is to reduce order volatility and ensure more predictable utilisation.

2. Expansion of Domestic Branded Nutrition Portfolio

The Disease and Wellness categories have grown to 30.34% in sub period as compared to 22.51% in Fiscal 2023.

These categories operate on a more predictable demand cycle and provide continuous production loads, improving utilisation of blending and packaging lines.

3. Product Portfolio Diversification

New product introductions in:

- a. fortified food ingredients,
- b. high-value customised premix,
- c. clinical and therapeutic nutrition, and
- d. functional nutrients have expanded addressable demand and improved line loading.

4. Operational Efficiency Improvements

Several operational measures have been implemented:

- a. optimisation of SKU scheduling to reduce batch changeover time;
- b. automation and digitisation of planning systems;
- c. stronger maintenance planning to minimise downtime;
- d. enhancement of packaging line capacity (a recurring bottleneck).

These improvements have contributed to better throughput and higher effective utilisation.

5. Enhanced Capacity to Serve Sudden Scale-Up Requirements

The Company has kept key manufacturing sections, particularly for Dry Premix and Clinical Nutrition production-ready for large tenders. This preparedness has already contributed to higher utilisation in Fiscal 2025, with:

- a. Dry Premix production increasing from 193.75 MT to 259.20 MT, and
- b. Clinical Nutrition increasing from 38.34 MT to 51.71 MT.

6. Improved Raw Material Sourcing

The Company has diversified sources for critical micronutrients and packaging materials, resulting in fewer supply-chain interruptions and more consistent run-times on production lines.

Competition

International and domestic competition may adversely affect our business and results of operations. Some of our competitors may have greater financial, technical and managerial resources, greater access to raw materials and customers, better know-how and superior manufacturing facilities than we have. We are a pure-play research-oriented nutrition company and the only company that offers products across fortification, therapeutic and clinical nutrition products under one roof. We do not have a direct comparable, however, we do face competition from various domestic and multi-national companies across our Branded Nutrition Products (B2C) and Premix Formulations (B2B2C). Our competition is summarized below:

FISCAL 2025 COMPARED TO FISCAL 2024

Total Income

Our total income increased by 8.75% from ₹ 3,046.21 million in Fiscal 2024 to ₹ 3,312.87 million in Fiscal 2025, primarily due to an increase in our revenue from operations.

Revenue from operations

Our Revenue from operations increased by 9.14% from ₹ 2,977.31 million in Fiscal 2024 to ₹ 3,249.29 million in Fiscal 2025. This growth was primarily attributable to the following factors:

- (i) An increase in domestic sale of products by 14.58% from ₹ 1,096.46 million in Fiscal 2024 to ₹ 1,256.28 million in Fiscal 2025 primarily due to improved demand in the domestic market driven by enhanced brand visibility, deeper market penetration, expansion in distribution channels and increase in reach through e-commerce platforms;
- (ii) An increase in export sale of products by 5.96% from ₹ 1,878.06 million in Fiscal 2024 to ₹ 1,990.06 million in Fiscal 2025 primarily on account of sustained demand from our international customers and continued focus on strengthening our global presence; and
- (iii) An increase in Export Benefits and Other Incentives from ₹ 2.79 million in Fiscal 2024 to ₹ 2.95 million in Fiscal 2025 primarily as a result of higher export turnover during the year, making us eligible for increased benefits under applicable government incentive schemes.

Other income

Our other income decreased by 7.72% from ₹ 68.90 million in Fiscal 2024 to ₹ 63.58 million in Fiscal 2025, primarily due to decrease in interest income from ₹ 7.25 million in Fiscal 2024 to ₹ 4.79 million in Fiscal 2025 primarily due to lower surplus funds kept in fixed deposits, consequent to deployment of funds towards operational and business requirements, decrease in miscellaneous income from ₹ 15.95 million in Fiscal 2024 to ₹ 12.09 million in Fiscal 2025 on account of reduced non-recurring income streams and decrease in Applicable Net Gain/(Loss) on Foreign Exchange from ₹ 29.96 million in Fiscal 2024 to ₹ 21.31 million in Fiscal 2025 due to reduced volatility in currency exchange rates and lesser favorable movement in exchange rates. These declines were partially offset by an increase in profit on sale of investments, which increased by ₹ 9.70 million in Fiscal 2025, due to optimized timing of liquidation of short-term investments in mutual funds and other marketable securities.

Cost of material consumed

The cost of material consumed increased by 14.58% from ₹ 1,378.99 million in Fiscal 2024 to ₹ 1,580.03 million in Fiscal 2025, and as a percentage of total income, it increased from 45.27% to 47.69%. This increase was primarily attributable to change in product mix, increase in input prices of certain key ingredients and an adverse currency movements which led to an overall increase in cost of material consumption as a percentage of total income.

Purchases of stock-in-trade

Purchases of stock-in-trade decreased significantly by 77.72% from ₹ 334.34 million in Fiscal 2024 to ₹ 74.48 million in Fiscal 2025, and as a percentage of total income, declined from 10.98% to 2.25%. This decrease was primarily due to reduction in high sea sales and purchase of raw material products and rationalization of low-margin traded product portfolio.

Changes in inventories of Finished Goods and work -in- progress

Changes in inventories of finished goods and work-in-progress increased from ₹ 85.71 million in Fiscal 2024 to ₹ 150.78 million in Fiscal 2025, and as a percentage of total income, from 2.81% to 4.55%. This represents a reduction in inventory levels of finished goods and work in progress on account of execution of higher dispatches & order fulfilment and optimised inventory management.

Employee Benefits Expenses

Employee benefit expenses increased by 5.58% from ₹ 396.91 million in Fiscal 2024 to ₹ 419.07 million in Fiscal 2025. The increase was primarily due to higher salaries, wages, and allowances, which rose from ₹ 362.02 million in Fiscal 2024 to ₹ 384.82 million in Fiscal 2025, on account of annual salary revisions, performance-based incentives, and an increase in headcount to support business expansion. Contributions towards Provident Fund and ESIC also increased from ₹ 11.47 million in Fiscal 2024 to ₹ 12.15 million in Fiscal 2025, in line with the rise in overall compensation costs. Further, there was a reversal of provision for leave encashment amounting to ₹ 0.86 million in Fiscal 2025 as compared to an expense of ₹ 3.65 million in Fiscal 2024, this was due to lower encashment claims, as the exit of high-value employees resulted in a reduced actuarial valuation for leave encashment. Additionally, expenses related to employee welfare, training, and other amenities, including food and beverages increased, reflecting the Company's continued focus on employee engagement and workplace benefits.

Finance Cost

Finance cost decreased marginally by 4.86% from ₹ 41.47 million in Fiscal 2024 to ₹ 39.46 million in Fiscal 2025. This reduction was primarily due to a decrease in interest on working capital borrowings, which declined from ₹ 18.68 million in Fiscal 2024 to ₹ 14.86 million in Fiscal 2025, as a result of better working capital management and lower average utilization of credit limits. Interest on term loans increased from ₹ 8.51 million in Fiscal 2024 to ₹ 10.73 million in Fiscal 2025, reflecting drawdown of additional long-term borrowings during the year. Interest on lease obligations remained relatively stable, decreasing slightly from ₹ 1.78 million in Fiscal 2024 to ₹ 1.72 million in Fiscal 2025. Other financial charges decreased marginally from ₹ 12.50 million in Fiscal 2024 to ₹ 12.15 million in Fiscal 2025, in line with lower bank and processing charges. The overall decline in finance costs is reflective of improved capital efficiency and disciplined financial management.

Depreciation and Amortisation Cost

Depreciation and amortisation expense increased by 8.01% from ₹ 81.18 million in Fiscal 2024 to ₹ 87.68 million in Fiscal 2025. This increase was primarily driven by a higher depreciation charge on property, plant, and equipment, which rose from ₹ 77.86 million in Fiscal 2024 to ₹ 86.07 million in Fiscal 2025, due to capitalisation of new assets during the year in connection with capacity expansion and upgradation of manufacturing facilities. Amortisation of right-of-use assets decreased from ₹ 2.70 million in Fiscal 2024 to ₹ 1.24 million in Fiscal 2025. Amortisation of intangible assets decreased marginally from ₹ 0.62 million in Fiscal 2024 to ₹ 0.37 million in Fiscal 2025, owing to reduced carrying value of intangible assets. The overall increase in depreciation expense reflects continued investment in infrastructure to support operational growth.

Other Expenses

Other expenses increased by 14.93% from ₹ 536.22 million in Fiscal 2024 to ₹ 616.26 million in Fiscal 2025, primarily due to an increase across manufacturing, administrative and selling & distribution cost components in line with expanded operations.

Manufacturing expenses increased from ₹ 147.72 million in Fiscal 2024 to ₹ 153.83 million in Fiscal 2025, primarily on account of higher power and fuel expenses, which rose from ₹ 31.40 million in Fiscal 2024 to ₹ 35.85 million in Fiscal 2025, due to increased production activity. Labour charges also increased from ₹ 55.64 million in Fiscal 2024 to ₹ 64.42 million in Fiscal 2025, reflecting higher manpower deployment and wage adjustments in line with the scale of operations. Additionally, there was an increase in repairs and maintenance costs and other factory-related overheads, driven by routine upkeep and operational expansion.

Administrative and general expenses increased from ₹ 192.46 million in Fiscal 2024 to ₹ 211.58 million in Fiscal 2025, primarily due to a rise in consultancy charges, which grew from ₹ 32.86 million in Fiscal 2024 to ₹ 54.31 million in Fiscal 2025, owing to higher engagement of professional advisors and strategic consultants during the year. Travelling and conveyance expenses also increased from ₹ 44.25 million in Fiscal 2024 to ₹ 50.77 million in Fiscal 2025, in line with expanded business operations and greater employee mobility. The overall increase was further supported by higher electricity charges, increased spending on software, IT maintenance, and other general administrative expenses.

Selling and distribution expenses increased from ₹ 196.04 million in Fiscal 2024 to ₹250.85 million in Fiscal 2025, primarily due to a rise in freight and forwarding charges from ₹ 83.16 million in Fiscal 2024 to ₹110.00 million in Fiscal 2025, reflecting higher sales volumes and increased dispatches. Expenditure on sales promotion, advertising, and brand visibility also rose from ₹50.12 million in Fiscal 2024 to ₹65.44 million in Fiscal 2025, in line with the Company's continued focus on market expansion and brand-building initiatives. Tax Expense

Total tax expense increased by ₹20.51 million, or 28.14%, from ₹ 72.88 million in Fiscal 2024 to ₹93.39 million in Fiscal 2025. The increase was due to an increase in current tax by ₹ 24.26 million.

For the various reasons discussed above, profit for the year increased by ₹ 121.63 million, or 99.58%, from ₹122.14 million in Fiscal 2024 to ₹243.77 million in Fiscal 2025. Profit after tax as a percentage of total income stood at 7.36% for Fiscal 2025, compared to 4.01% for Fiscal 2024. The increase in PAT margin can be attributed to the growth in business operations, while fixed costs remained constant. The following are the key factors for the rise in Profit:

a. Significant improvement in gross margins

COGS reduced from 60.43% to 55.56%, driven by:

- a) improved procurement efficiency,

- a) Dry Premix utilisation: 259.20 MT (vs. 193.75 MT)
- b) Clinical Nutrition: 51.71 MT (vs. 38.34 MT)

Cost optimisation included:

- a) employee cost reduction to 12.88% of revenue,

FISCAL 2024 COMPARED TO FISCAL 2023

Total Income

Our total income increased by 8.16% from ₹ 2,816.46 million in Fiscal 2023 to ₹ 3,046.21 million in Fiscal 2024, due to an increase in our Revenue from operations and Other income.

Revenue from operations

Our Revenue from operations increased by 6.90% from ₹ 2,785.01 million in Fiscal 2023 to ₹ 2,977.31 million in Fiscal 2024. This growth was primarily attributable to the following factors:

- (i) Decrease in domestic sale of products by 9.05% from ₹ 1,005.44 million in Fiscal 2023 to ₹ 1,096.46 million in Fiscal 2024 primarily due to sluggish market demand;
- (ii) An increase in export sale of products by 5.67% from ₹ 1,777.37 million in Fiscal 2023 to ₹ 1,878.06 million in Fiscal 2024 primarily on account of expansion into new international markets and increased demand from existing overseas customers; and
- (iii) An increase in Export Benefits and Other Incentives from ₹ 2.20 million in Fiscal 2023 to ₹ 2.79 million in Fiscal 2024 primarily as a result of higher export turnover during the year, making us eligible for increased benefits under applicable government incentive schemes.

Other income

Our other income increased by 119.08 % from ₹ 31.45 million in Fiscal 2023 to ₹ 68.90 million in Fiscal 2024, primarily due to increase in interest income from ₹ 4.91 million in Fiscal 2023 to ₹ 7.25 million in Fiscal 2024 primarily due to higher surplus funds , increase in miscellaneous income from ₹ 4.72 million in Fiscal 2023 to ₹ 15.95 million in Fiscal 2024 on account of increased non-recurring income streams, increase in Applicable Net Gain/(Loss) on Foreign Exchange from ₹ 12.52 million in Fiscal 2023 to ₹ 29.96 million in Fiscal 2024 due to favorable movement in exchange rates, increase in profit on sale of investments, which increased by ₹ 1.80 million in Fiscal 2024, due to optimized timing of liquidation of short-term investments in mutual funds and other marketable securities and increase in Fair Value of Investments Through P&L by ₹ 4.64 million in Fiscal 2024.

Cost of material consumed

The cost of material consumed decreased by 23.97% from ₹ 1,813.85 million in Fiscal 2023 to ₹ 1,378.99 million in Fiscal 2024, and as a percentage of total income, it decreased from 64.40% to 45.27%. This decrease was primarily attributable to change in product mix and decrease in purchase as a result of higher inventory at closing of Fiscal FY 2023.

Purchases of stock-in-trade

Purchases of stock-in-trade increased significantly by 309.48% from ₹ 81.65 million in Fiscal 2023 to ₹ 334.34 million in Fiscal 2024, and as a percentage of total income, increased from 2.90% to 10.98%. This increase was primarily due to procurement directly done on high seas basis for better margins.

Changes in inventories of Finished Goods and work -in- progress

Changes in inventories of finished goods and work-in-progress increased from ₹ (213.94) million in Fiscal 2023 to ₹ 85.71 million in Fiscal 2024, and as a percentage of total income, from (7.60) % to 2.81%. This represents a significant reduction in inventory levels on account of execution of higher dispatches & order fulfilment and optimised inventory management in Fiscal 2024.

Employee Benefits Expenses

Employee benefit expenses decreased by 3.54% from ₹ 411.46 million in Fiscal 2023 to ₹ 396.91 million in Fiscal 2024. The decrease was primarily due to decrease in salaries, wages, and allowances, which decreased from ₹ 373.40 million in Fiscal 2023 to ₹ 362.02 million in Fiscal 2024, on account of decrease in headcount. Contributions towards Provident Fund and ESIC also decreased from ₹ 13.37 million in Fiscal 2023 to ₹ 11.47 million in Fiscal 2024, in line with the decrease in salary expenses. Gratuity expenses increased marginally from ₹ 9.45 million in Fiscal 2023 to ₹ 10.34 million in Fiscal 2024, reflecting actuarial valuation adjustments. Further, leave encashment increased marginally from ₹ 3.14 million in Fiscal 2023 to an expense of ₹ 3.65 million in Fiscal 2024, due to increased encashment claims. Additionally, expenses related to employee welfare, training, and other amenities, including food and beverages, decreased, due to cost optimization measures undertaken by the Company.

Finance Cost

Finance cost increased by 24.01% from ₹ 33.44 million in Fiscal 2023 to ₹ 41.47 million in Fiscal 2024. This was primarily due to a increase in interest on working capital borrowings, which increased from ₹ 15.15 million in Fiscal 2023 to ₹ 18.68 million in Fiscal 2024, as a result of higher working capital and average utilization of credit limits. Interest on term loans increased from ₹ 4.78 million in Fiscal 2023 to ₹ 8.51 million in Fiscal 2024, reflecting drawdown of additional long-term borrowings during the year. Interest on lease obligations remained relatively stable, increasing slightly from ₹ 1.73 million in Fiscal 2023 to ₹ 1.78 million in Fiscal 2024. Other financial charges increased marginally from ₹ 11.78 million in Fiscal 2023 to ₹ 12.50 million in Fiscal 2024, in line with higher bank and processing charges.

Depreciation and Amortisation Cost

Depreciation and amortisation expense increased by 7.51% from ₹ 75.51 million in Fiscal 2023 to ₹ 81.18 million in Fiscal 2024. This increase was primarily driven by a higher depreciation charge on property, plant, and equipment, which rose from ₹ 72.99 million in Fiscal 2023 to ₹ 77.86 million in Fiscal 2024, due to capitalisation of new assets during the year in connection with capacity expansion and upgradation of manufacturing facilities. Amortisation of right-of-use assets increased from ₹ 1.93 million in Fiscal 2023 to ₹ 2.70 million in Fiscal 2024, primarily due to additions in right-of-use assets. Amortisation of intangible assets increased marginally from ₹ 0.59 million to ₹ 0.62 million, owing to increased carrying value of intangible assets. The overall increase in depreciation expense reflects continued investment in infrastructure to support operational growth.

Other Expenses

Other expenses increased by 14.52% from ₹ 468.23 million in Fiscal 2023 to ₹ 536.22 million in Fiscal 2024, primarily due to an increase across manufacturing, administrative and selling & distribution cost components in line with expanded operations.

Manufacturing expenses increased from ₹ 131.32 million in Fiscal 2023 to ₹ 147.72 million in Fiscal 2024, primarily on account of higher power and fuel expenses, which rose from ₹ 26.17 million to ₹ 31.40 million, due to increased production activity. Additionally, there was an increase in Repairs to Plant and Machinery by ₹ 7.05 million and an increase of ₹ 8.84 million in Testing & Analysis charges. Other factory-related overheads also increased, driven by routine upkeep and operational expansion.

Administrative and general expenses increased from ₹ 157.09 million in Fiscal 2023 to ₹ 192.46 million in Fiscal 2024, primarily due to a rise in consultancy charges, which grew from ₹ 16.17 million in Fiscal 2023 to ₹ 32.86 million in Fiscal 2024, owing to higher engagement of professional advisors and strategic consultants during the year. Legal & professional charges also increased from ₹ 19.39 million in Fiscal 2023 to ₹ 29.33 million in Fiscal 2024, in line with expanded business operations. The overall increase was further supported by increased spending on software, IT maintenance, increase in Bad debts and other general administrative expenses.

Selling & distribution expenses increased from ₹ 179.82 million in Fiscal 2023 to ₹ 196.04 million in Fiscal 2024, primarily due to a rise in sales promotion, advertising expenses & membership fees from ₹ 34.76 million in Fiscal 2023 to ₹ 50.12 million in Fiscal 2024, reflecting the Company's continued focus on market expansion and brand-building initiatives. Additionally, brokerage and commission expenses increased from ₹ 24.19 million in Fiscal 2023 to ₹ 38.14 million in Fiscal 2024, corresponding with broader distribution reach and growth in sales turnover.

Profit Before Exceptional Items and Tax

Profit before exceptional items and tax increased by ₹ 45.13 million, or 30.86%, from ₹146.26 million in Fiscal 2023 to ₹191.39 million in Fiscal 2024. This was mainly due to higher revenue and controlled expenses.

Profit Before Tax

The exceptional items for Fiscal 2024 was ₹ (3.63) million as against ₹ 52.02 million in Fiscal 2023. As a result the PBT for Fiscal 2023 reduced to ₹ 94.24 million in Fiscal 2023 and increased to ₹ 195.02 million in Fiscal 2024.

Tax Expense

Total tax expense increased by ₹ 36.88 million, or 102.44%, from ₹ 36.00 million in Fiscal 2023 to ₹72.88 million in Fiscal 2024. The increase was due to an increase in current tax by ₹ 27.23 million and increase in deferred tax expense/(credit) by ₹ 9.65 million.

Profit (Loss) for the Year

For the various reasons discussed above, profit for the year increased by ₹ 63.90 million, or 109.72%, from ₹58.24 million in Fiscal 2023 to ₹122.14 million in Fiscal 2024. Profit after tax as a percentage of total income stood at 4.01% for Fiscal 2024, compared to 2.07% for Fiscal 2023. The increase in PAT margin can be attributed to the growth in business operations, while fixed costs remained constant. The following are the key factors for the rise in Profit:

a. Shift toward value-added and branded categories

Higher revenue contribution from ESG product categories (RUTF, RUSF and ESG premixes) and branded nutrition (Disease & Wellness), which have structurally higher margins.

b. Absence of one-time IPO expenses

Fiscal 2023 included one-time IPO-related expenses of ₹35.93 million that did not recur in Fiscal 2024, directly improving net profitability.

c. Operational efficiency and stability in COGS

COGS remained stable at 60.43% despite ongoing input cost pressures, supported by:

- a) better utilisation of RUF, Dry Premix, Liquid Premix and Clinical Nutrition capacities,
- b) improved production planning,
- c) stronger supply chain management.

d. Reduction in manpower costs

Employee expenses reduced from 14.77% to 13.33% of revenue, driven by manpower optimisation and productivity improvement.

e. Increase in other income

Other income increased from ₹31.45 million to ₹68.90 million, mainly on account of:

- a) forex gains, and
- b) gains from sale of investments.

Particulars	Fiscal 2023	Fiscal 2024	Change
PAT (₹ million)	58.24	122.14	+109.72%

Analysis of Profit After Tax (PAT) Margin Trend — Fiscal 2023 to Fiscal 2025

The Company's PAT margin improved steadily from 2.07% in Fiscal 2023 to 4.01% in Fiscal 2024, and further to 7.36% in Fiscal 2025, representing an increase of 5.29% over the three-year period. The improvement is driven by product mix optimisation, operational efficiencies, improved capacity utilisation, better cost management and the absence of one-time items.

Summary of PAT Margin Improvement Across Three Fiscal Years:

Fiscal Year	PAT (₹ million)	PAT Margin	Key Drivers
2023	58.24	2.07%	One-time costs; lower utilisation; weaker product mix
2024	122.14	4.01%	Value-added mix, removal of one-time costs, efficiency gains
2025	243.77	7.36%	Higher margins, improved mix, cost optimisation, higher utilisation

Across three years, PAT margin improved by 5.29%, driven by:

- a) product mix shift toward value-added and branded nutrition,
- b) operational efficiencies,
- c) cost optimisation,
- d) improved capacity utilisation,
- e) higher other income, and
- f) absence of non-recurring expenses.

Justification for Improvement in PBT & PAT:

The increase in PBT and PAT margins across Fiscal 2023 to Fiscal 2025 is supported by identifiable and measurable business factors. After adjusting for one-time items such as the Tuticorin plant Salmonella-related COGS loss of ₹55.19 million in Fiscal 2024 and IPO expenses of ₹35.93 million in Fiscal 2023, the adjusted PBT shows a consistent upward trend. Over 80% to 89% of the incremental PBT in each year is justified by operational improvements including savings in raw material consumption, optimization of procurement, favourable product mix shifts, lower wastage, improved capacity utilisation and strong growth in high-margin branded clinical nutrition and ESG categories. The continuous decline in consumption ratio from 60.38% in Fiscal 2023 to 55.54% in Fiscal 2025 further validates structural efficiency improvements. Accordingly, the rise in PBT, PAT and related profitability margins is fully justified, operationally grounded and reflective of sustainable business performance.

- PBT Reconciliation Demonstrating Underlying Operational Profitability

Particulars	FY 2025	FY 2024	FY 2023
Profit Before Tax (Reported)	337.16	195.02	94.24
Add: One-time COGS loss – Salmonella incident	–	55.19	–
Add: One-time IPO expenses	–	–	35.93
Adjusted PBT	337.16	250.21	130.17
Incremental PBT YoY	87.04	119.95	–

Note:

After removing the impact of one-time items, the underlying profitability shows a consistent and structural improvement year-on-year. The margin enhancement is therefore operational in nature.

- Justification for Rise in PBT Through Measurable Drivers

Particulars	FY 2025	FY 2024
Employee Cost – Increase / (Reduction)	(22.16)	14.55
Other Income – Increase / (Decrease)	(5.32)	37.45
Reduction in COGS due to improved consumption efficiency (Working-B)	98.05	54.42
Total Identified Operational Impact on PBT	70.57	106.42
Incremental PBT	87.04	119.95
% of Incremental PBT Justified by Operational Factors	81.08%	88.72%

Note:

Over 80%–89% of the yearly PBT increase is fully supported by quantifiable operational factors, confirming that the improvement is structural and sustainable, not driven by exceptional items.

- COGS Reduction and Consumption Efficiency (Working-B)

Particulars	FY 2025	FY 2024	FY 2023
COGS	1,805.29	1,799.04	1,681.56
Less: One-time COGS loss – Salmonella incident	–	(55.19)	–
Adjusted COGS	1,805.29	1,743.85	1,681.56
Revenue from Operations	3,249.29	2,977.31	2,785.01
Consumption %	55.56%	58.57%	60.38%
YoY Savings (%)	3.01%	1.81%	–
Value of Savings (Mn)	97.86	53.82	–

Note:

The decline in consumption ratio from 60.38% → 58.57% → 55.56% reflects improvement in:

- raw material planning and procurement terms,
- lower wastage and optimized batch yields,
- better inventory management, and
- improved overhead absorption due to higher scale.

This directly explains the majority of the improvement in PBT.

- Product Mix Improvement – Key Contributor to Margin Expansion

A significant portion of revenue growth has come from high-margin segments, thereby strengthening gross margins and profitability.

A. ESG & B2B/B2B2C Segment Growth

Category	FY 2025 Growth	FY 2024 Growth
ESG – RUSF	146.88%	5707.61%
Vitamin A Palmitate	233.37%	(30.10%)
Fortivit	27.26%	(27.08%)

B. Branded B2C Clinical Nutrition (High Margin Portfolio)

Brand	FY 2025 Growth	FY 2024 Growth
Product 1	17.93%	8.37%
Product 2	18.01%	22.79%
Product 3	30.66%	2.29%
Product 4	37.03%	(4.00%)
Product 5	71.68%	18.21%
Product 6	57.19%	35.25%

Note:

The branded clinical nutrition segment carries superior gross margins, and its consistent double-digit growth has materially contributed to EBITDA and PBT improvements.

Similarly, the ESG segment, especially RUSF and premixes, has scaled rapidly, supporting both margin and volume growth.

QUANTITATIVE AND QUALITATIVE DISCLOSURES ABOUT MARKET RISK

The Group's board of directors has overall responsibility for the establishment and oversight of the Group's risk management framework. The Group manages market risk through a treasury department, which evaluates and exercises independent control over the entire process of market risk management. The treasury department recommends risk management objectives and policies, which are approved by Board of Directors. The activities of this department include management of cash resources, borrowing strategies, and ensuring compliance with market risk limits and policies.

The Group's risk management policies are established to identify and analyze the risks faced by the Group, to set appropriate risk limits and controls and to monitor risks and adherence to limits. Risk management policies and systems are reviewed regularly to reflect changes in market conditions and the Group's activities. The Group, through its training and management standards and procedures, aims to maintain a disciplined and constructive control environment.

The audit committee oversees how management monitors compliance with the Group's risk management policies and procedures and reviews the adequacy of the risk management framework in relation to the risks faced by the Group. The audit committee assists in its oversight role by internal audit. Internal audit undertakes both regular and ad hoc reviews of risk management controls and procedures, the results of which are reported to the audit committee.

The Group has exposure to the following risks arising from financial instruments:

- a. Credit Risk;
- b. Liquidity Risk; and
- c. Market Risk

Credit Risk

Credit risk is the risk of financial loss to the Group if a customer or counterparty to a financial instrument fails to meet its contractual obligations and arises principally from the Group's receivables from customers and investment securities. The carrying amounts of financial assets represent the maximum credit exposure.

Trade Receivables

The Group extends credit to customers in normal course of business. The Group considers factors such as credit track record in the market and past dealings for extension of credit to customers. To manage credit risk, the Group periodically assesses the financial reliability of the customer, taking into account the financial condition, current economic trends, and analysis of historical bad debts and ageing of accounts receivables. Outstanding customer receivables are regularly monitored to make an assessment of recoverability. Receivables are provided as doubtful / written off, when there is no reasonable expectation of recovery. Where receivables have been provided / written off, the Group continues regular follow up, engage with the customers, legal options / any other remedies available with the objective of recovering these outstandings. The Group is not exposed to concentration of credit risk to any one single customer since services are provided to vast spectrum. The Group also takes security deposits, advances, post dated cheques etc from its customers, which mitigate the credit risk to an extent.

Investments in companies

The Group has made investments in subsidiaries. The Group does not perceive any credit risk pertaining to investments made in such related entities.

Cash and cash equivalents

The Group held cash and cash equivalents with credit worthy banks of ₹ 234.02 million as at December 31, 2025, ₹ 152.23 million as at 31 March 2025 ₹ 193.53 million as at 31 March 2024, ₹ 113.87 million as at 31 March 2023. The credit worthiness of such banks and financial institutions is evaluated by the management on an ongoing basis and is considered to be good.

Exposure to credit risk

The allowance for impairment in respect of trade receivables during the period/year was ₹(0.96) million as at December 31, 2025, ₹ 4.37 million as at 31 March 2025, (₹ 1.32 million) as at 31 March 2024, ₹ 2.15 million as at 31 March 2023.

The movement in the allowance for impairment in respect of trade and other receivables during the year was as follows:

Particulars	Amount (₹ in million)
As at March 31, 2023	10.50
Impairment loss recognised	(1.32)
As at March 31, 2024	9.18
Impairment loss recognised	4.37
As at March 31, 2025	13.55
Impairment loss recognised	(0.96)
As at December 31, 2025	12.59

The Group has no other financial assets that are past due but not impaired.

Liquidity Risk

Liquidity risk is the risk that the Group will encounter difficulty in meeting the obligations associated with its financial liabilities that are settled by delivering cash or another financial asset. The Group's approach to managing liquidity is to ensure, as far as possible, that it will have sufficient liquidity to meet its liabilities when they are due, under both normal and stressed conditions, without incurring unacceptable losses or risking damage to the Group's reputation.

Exposure to liquidity risk

Market Risk

Market risk is the risk that the fair value or future cash flows of a financial instrument will fluctuate because of changes in market prices. Market risk comprises three types of risk: interest rate risk, currency risk and other price risk, such as equity price risk and commodity risk. Financial instruments affected by market risk include borrowings and bank deposits. The objective of market risk management is to manage and control market risk exposures within acceptable parameters, while optimizing the return.

Interest rate risk

Interest rate risk is the risk that the value of a financial instrument will fluctuate because of changes in market interest rates.

Exposure to interest rate risk:

The Group's exposure to market risk for changes in interest rates relates to fixed deposits and borrowings from banks.

The interest rate profile of the Group's interest-bearing financial instruments as reported to the management of the Group is as follows:

(₹ in million)
Particulars	As at December 31, 2025	As at March 31, 2025	As at March 31, 2024	As at March 31, 2023
Fixed-rate instruments:
Financial asset (Bank deposits)	(14.43)	(57.93)	(56.26)	(113.39)
Financial liabilities (Borrowings)	100.00	-	-
	85.57	(57.93)	(56.26)	(113.39)
Variable-rate instruments:
Financial liabilities (Borrowings)	297.90	266.00	368.93	518.73
	297.90	266.00	368.93	518.73

Fair value sensitivity analysis for fixed-rate instruments

The Group's fixed rate borrowings are carried at amortised cost. They are therefore not subject to interest rate risk as defined in IND AS 107, since neither the carrying amount nor the future cash flow will fluctuate because of a change in market interest rates.

The following table demonstrates the sensitivity to a reasonably possible change in interest rates on that portion of borrowings affected. With all other variables held constant, the Group's loss before tax is affected through the impact on floating rate borrowings, as follows:

Particulars	As at December 31, 2025	As at March 31, 2025	As at March 31, 2024	As at March 31, 2023
Increase in basis points	50 basis points	50 basis points	50 basis points	50 basis points
Effect on profit before tax	(1.49)	(1.33)	(1.84)	(2.59)
Decrease in basis points	50 basis points	50 basis points	50 basis points	50 basis points
Effect on profit before tax	1.49	1.33	1.84	2.59

The assumed movement in basis points for the interest rate sensitivity analysis is based on the currently observable market environment, showing a significantly higher volatility than in prior years.

Foreign currency risk

The Group is exposed to currency risk on account of its operating and financing activities. The functional currency of the Group is Indian Rupee. Our exposure are mainly denominated in U.S. dollars. The USD exchange rate has changed substantially in recent periods and may continue to fluctuate substantially in the future. The Group's business model incorporates assumptions on currency risks and ensures any exposure is covered through the normal business operations. This intent has been achieved in all years presented. The Group has put in place a Financial Risk Management Policy to Identify the most effective and efficient ways of managing the currency risks.

Sensitivity analysis

A reasonably possible strengthening / (weakening) of the Indians Rupee against US dollars at 31st December & 31st March, would have affected the measurement of financial instruments denominated in US dollars and affected profit or loss by the amounts shown below. This analysis assumes that all other variables, in particular interest rates, remain constant and ignores any impact of forecast sales and purchases. In cases where the related foreign exchange fluctuation is capitalised to fixed assets, the impact indicated below may affect the Group's income statement over the remaining life of the related fixed assets or the remaining tenure of the borrowing respectively.

RESTRICTIONS ON FOREIGN OWNERSHIP OF INDIAN SECURITIES

Foreign investment in Indian securities is regulated through the Industrial Policy, 1991 of the Government of India and FEMA. While the Industrial Policy, 1991 prescribes the limits and the conditions subject to which foreign investment can be made in different sectors of the Indian economy, FEMA regulates the precise manner in which such investment may be made. Under the Industrial Policy, unless specifically restricted, foreign investment is freely permitted in all sectors of the Indian economy up to any extent and without any prior approvals, but the foreign investor is required to follow certain prescribed procedures for making such investment. The RBI and the concerned ministries/departments are responsible for granting approval for foreign investment.

The Government of India has from time to time made policy pronouncements on foreign direct investment (“FDI”) through press notes and press releases. The Department for Promotion of Industry and Internal Trade, Ministry of Commerce and Industry, Government of India (earlier known as the Department of Industrial Policy and Promotion) (“DPIIT”), issued the FDI Policy, which, with effect from October 15, 2020 consolidated, subsumed and superseded all previous press notes, press releases and clarifications on FDI issued by the DPIIT that were in force and effect as at and prior to October 15, 2020. The FDI Policy will be valid until the DPIIT issues an updated circular.

The transfer of shares between an Indian resident and a non-resident does not require the prior approval of the RBI, provided that: (i) the activities of the investee company are under the automatic route under the FDI Policy and transfer does not attract the provisions of the SEBI Takeover Regulations; (ii) the non-resident shareholding is within the sectoral limits under the FDI Policy; and (iii) the pricing is in accordance with the guidelines prescribed by the SEBI/RBI. For details of the aggregate limit for investments by NRIs and FPIs in our Company, see “Offer Procedure—Bids by Eligible NRIs” and “Offer Procedure—Bids by FPIs” each on page 582 and 583 respectively.

In accordance with existing regulations issued by the RBI, OCBs cannot participate in this Offer.

Further, in accordance with Press Note No. 3 (2020 Series), dated April 17, 2020 issued by the DPIIT and the Foreign Exchange Management (Non-debt Instruments) Amendment Rules, 2020 which came into effect from April 22, 2020, any investment, subscription, purchase or sale of equity instruments by entities of a country which shares land border with India or where the beneficial owner of an investment into India is situated in or is a citizen of any such country (“Restricted Investors”), will require prior approval of the Government, as prescribed in the FDI Policy and the FEMA Rules. However, pursuant to amendment on March 10, 2026, investors with non-controlling beneficial ownership of up to 10% from such jurisdictions are permitted under the automatic route, subject to applicable sectoral caps, entry routes, attendant conditions and reporting requirements.

Further, in the event of transfer of ownership of any existing or future foreign direct investment in an entity in India, directly or indirectly, resulting in the beneficial ownership falling within the aforesaid restriction/ purview, such subsequent change in the beneficial ownership will also require approval of the Government. Furthermore, on April 22, 2020, the Ministry of Finance, Government of India has also made a similar amendment to the FEMA Rules. Pursuant to the Foreign Exchange Management (Non-debt Instruments) (Fourth Amendment) Rules, 2020, a multilateral bank or fund, of which India is a member, shall not be treated as an entity of a particular country nor shall any country be treated as the beneficial owner of the investments of such bank or fund in India.

Each Bidder should seek independent legal advice about its ability to participate in the Offer. In the event such prior approval of the Government of India is required, and such approval has been obtained, the Bidder shall intimate our Company and the Registrar to the Offer in writing about such approval along with a copy thereof within the Bid/Offer Period.

For further details, see “Offer Procedure” on page 577.

ANNEXURE III
ANTI-DILUTION FORMULA

PART A

FORMULA FOR FULL RATCHET ANTI-DILUTION

The Investor has a ‘full ratchet’ differential right protection and anti-dilution (adjusted for stock splits, bonus or other restructuring) for all further issuances which are done at better terms and/or a lower price/ pre money valuation of the Company than that for the Investor (Relevant Investor) under the terms of the Agreement, on an As Converted Basis applicable to the entire capital structure prior to such an issuance.

By way of illustration, application of the full ratchet anti-dilution is illustrated below –

Suppose at the time of the new issue, the existing equity shares of the Company were 122,093,116. The Investor A had invested ₹ 250,000,000/- at a blended post money valuation of ₹ 2,500,000,000/-.

The pre-issue cap table is as follows:

Shareholder	Shares	%
Promoters	109,883,804	90%
Investor A	12,209,312	10.00%
Total	122,093,116	100.00%

In a subsequent round of investment by a new investor, Investor B (“NI”), due to reduction in the Company’s valuation, the NI invests ₹ 250,000,000/- in exchange for a 40% (forty percent) stake in the Company on an As Converted Basis. Thus, the new post money value of the Company is ₹ 625,000,000/-.

Since this round is being done at a lower price and the pre money valuation of the Company is lower than at the time of the relevant investment, the Investor A will be non-dilutive to this round and the Relevant Investor’s stake will change as follows:

Anti-Dilution Conversion Factor (X) = Old Post Money Valuation / New Post Money Valuation
= 2,500,000,000 / 625,000,000
= 4.0

Revised Stake = X * Old Relevant Investor Stake
= 4.0 * 10%
= 40%

Since the NI will get a 40% stake and Investor A’s stake will get revised to 40%, the Promoters will together have a residual stake of 20% equity ownership in the Company. This is illustrated as below:

Existing Promoters pre issue shares on an As Converted Basis = P = 109,883,804

Existing Investor A’s pre issue shares on an As Converted Basis = M = 12,209,312

Promoters new stake after Dilutive Issuance = P1 = 20%

Total Investor A’s Shares after Dilutive Issuance = M1

Total Investor B’s Shares after Dilutive Issuance = NI1

Total New Shares after Dilutive Issuance = Z – P – M

Total New Capital base (Z) = P/P1
= 109,883,804/ 20%

$$= 549,419,020$$

Therefore M1

$$\begin{aligned} &= Z * \text{New Relevant Investor Ownership} \\ &= 549,419,020 * 40\% \\ &= 219,767,608 \end{aligned}$$

Therefore NI1

$$\begin{aligned} &= Z * \text{New Investor Ownership} \\ &= 549,419,020 * 40\% \\ &= 219,767,608 \end{aligned}$$

Shareholders	Shares	%
Promoters	109,883,804	20%
Investor A	219,767,608	40%
Investor B	219,767,608	40%
Total	549,419,020	100.00%

Total New Shares to be issued by Company

$$\begin{aligned} &= Z - P - M \\ &= 549,419,020 - 109,883,804 - 12,209,312 \\ &= 427,325,904 \end{aligned}$$

Incremental New shares to be issued by Company to Investor A

In the event of anti-dilution, if shares need to be transferred by the Promoters to Investor A, assuming the same post money valuation for the dilutive round of ₹ 625,000,000/-, NI gets 40% (forty percent) stake in the Company for ₹ 250,000,000/-. Investor A's stake gets revised to 40% (forty percent) as per the above mentioned conversion ratio.

Therefore,

Current Company Capital Base (C) = 122,093,116

Revised Capital Base (Z1)

$$\begin{aligned} &= C / (1 - \text{NI Ownership}) \\ &= 122,093,116 / (1 - 40\%) \\ &= 203,488,527 \end{aligned}$$

NI shares

$$\begin{aligned} &= Z1 * 40\% \\ &= 203,488,527 * 40\% \\ &= 81,395,411 \end{aligned}$$

Total Investor A's Shares after dilutive issuance.
Therefore M2.

$$\begin{aligned} &= M2 \\ &= Z1 * \text{New Investor A's Ownership} \\ &= 203,488,527 * 40\% \\ &= 81,395,411 \end{aligned}$$

to Relevant Investor (T)

New Promoter Shares (P1)

$$\begin{aligned} &= P - T \\ &= 109,883,804 - 69,186,099 \\ &= 40,697,705 \end{aligned}$$

Thus, the new Cap table post issue of shares to the new investor and application of the full ratchet anti-dilution after transfer of shares by promoter to the Relevant Investor will be as follows:

Shareholders	Shares	%
Promoters	40,697,705	20%
Investor A	81,395,411	40%
Investor B	81,395,411	40%
Total	203,488,527	100.00%
