All forward-looking statements are subject to risks, uncertainties, expectations, and assumptions about us that could cause actual results to differ materially from those contemplated by the relevant forward-looking statement.

These forward-looking statements, whether made by us or a third-party, are based on our current plans, estimates, presumptions and expectations and actual results may differ materially from those suggested by forward-looking statements due to risks or uncertainties associated with expectations relating to, inter alia, regulatory changes pertaining to the industries in India in which we operate and our ability to respond to them, our ability to successfully implement our strategy, our growth and expansion, technological changes, our exposure to market risks, general economic and political conditions in India which have an impact on its business activities or investments, the monetary and fiscal policies of India, inflation, deflation, unanticipated turbulence in interest rates, foreign exchange rates, equity prices or other rates or prices, the performance of the financial markets in India and globally, changes in domestic laws, regulations and taxes and changes in competition in the industries in which we operate.

For further discussion on factors that could cause actual results to differ from expectations, see ‘Risk Factors’, ‘Our Business’ and ‘Management’s Discussion and Analysis of Financial Condition and Results of Operations’ on pages 36, 238 and 382 respectively. By their nature, certain market risk disclosures are only estimates and could be materially different from what actually occurs in the future. As a result, actual gains or losses could materially differ from those that have been estimated and are not a guarantee of future performance.

We cannot assure you that the expectations reflected in these forward-looking statements will prove to be correct. Given these uncertainties, investors are cautioned not to place undue reliance on such forward-looking statements and not to regard such statements to be a guarantee of our future performance.

The price of maize may be affected by multiple factors beyond the control of our Company and if aspects such as inconsistency in the quality of maize, high cost of cultivation and rising post-harvest losses may result in the price of the maize increasing. Further, we typically place purchase orders with our vendors and with a few vendors we enter into annual agreements, for the purchase of maize, but do not enter into long term of contracts or arrangements for procuring maize. We cannot assure you that we will be retain any of our top 10 vendors of maize or be able to place purchase orders on favourable terms with our existing top 10 vendors of maize. Further, we may not be able to find a suitable replacement for any of our existing top 10 vendors of maize. Our inability to maintain our relationship with our existing top 10 vendors of maize and/or failure to procure maize from vendors and suppliers on favourable terms may have an adverse effect on our revenue, results of operation and would have an impact on our financial condition. Further, our margins and profitability will be adversely affected if, and to the extent, we are unable to pass on the price escalation in our input materials to our customers.

For further details on the outstanding litigation matters involving our Company, our Promoters, our Directors (other than Promoters), Key Managerial Personnel and members of Senior Management and Group Companies see ‘Outstanding Litigation and Other Material Developments’ at page 420.

We may be required to devote management and financial resources in the defence or prosecution of such legal proceedings. Should any new developments arise, including a change in Indian law or rulings against us by the appellate courts or tribunals, we may face losses and have to make further provisions in our financial statements, which could increase our expenses and our liabilities. There can be no assurance that the provisions we have made for litigation will be sufficient or that further litigation will not be brought against us in the future. Decisions in such proceedings adverse to our interests may have a material adverse effect on our business, cash flows, financial condition, and results of operations.

In the event significant claims are determined against us and we are required to pay all or a portion of the disputed amounts, there could be a material adverse effect on our business and profitability. We cannot provide any assurance that these matters will be decided in our favour. Furthermore, we may not be able to quantify all the claims in which we are involved. Failure to successfully defend these or other claims or if our current provisions prove to be inadequate, our business and results of operations could be adversely affected. Even if we are successful in defending such cases, we will be subjected to legal and other costs relating to defending such litigation, and such costs could be substantial. In addition, we cannot assure that similar proceedings will not be initiated in the future. This could adversely affect our business, cash flows, financial condition, and results of operation.

6. Our Company operates from one manufacturing facility situated at Kishanganj, Bihar. The loss, shutdown or slowdown of operations at our Company’s facility could have a material adverse effect on our Company’s results of operations and financial condition.

We are a manufacturing company and operate one zero liquid discharge (ZLD) maize milling plant (Manufacturing Facility) at Kishanganj, Bihar. Our manufacturing operations are exposed to operating risks such as failure of equipment, power supply interruptions, labour disputes, natural disasters and industrial accidents. The occurrence of any of these risks could affect our Company's operations by causing production at our manufacturing unit to shut down or slowdown. Although we have installed a dual feed co-generation plant and boiler (i.e. a power plant that can utilise either coal or husk for power generation) and our Company takes reasonable precautions to minimize the risk of any significant operational problems at its facility, we cannot assure you that one or more of the factors mentioned above will not occur, which could have a material adverse effect on our Company's results of operations and financial condition.

Our Company is also reliant on continuous supply of essential utilities such water and electricity etc. which are critical to our manufacturing operations. Any shortage or non-availability of essential utilities could result in temporary shut-down of a part, or all, of our operations at the location experiencing such shortage. Such shutdowns could, particularly if they are for prolonged periods, have an adverse effect on our business, results of operations and financial condition. Moreover, if we are required to operate for extended periods of time on diesel generator sets, our cost of operations would be higher during such period which could have an adverse impact on our profitability. While there have been no such instances of shutdown or slowdown of operations, temporarily or otherwise in the past 3 financial years, we cannot assure you that such an event will not occur in the future.

7. There have been certain instances of non-compliance of certain provisions of Companies Act, in relation to certain corporate actions taken by our Company in the past. Further, there have been delays in filing certain statutory forms with ROC in the past.

There have been certain instances of non-compliance with provisions of the Companies Act by our Company in the past which includes:

Sr. No.	Particulars
1.	Delay in the appointment of Independent directors and Woman director pursuant to conversion of our Company from private to public
2.	Delay in constitution of Audit Committee and Nomination and Remuneration Committee due to non-appointment of Independent director.
3.	Filing of return of allotment (Form PAS-3) for certain allotments without the required attachments.
4.	Allotment of equity shares in physical mode instead of dematerialised mode due to delay in issuance of International Securities Identification Number (ISIN) after the conversion of Company from private to public.
5.	Discrepancies in the corporate records in relation to appointment of Karan Kishorepuria and Saikat Chatterjee as Whole Time Director, and Chief Financial Officer, respectively, of our Company.
6.	Receipt of subscription amount from one of our erstwhile shareholders which was inadvertently made from the account of an entity which is controlled by the concerned shareholders instead of his personal account.

Our Company has, therefore made 14 suo motu adjudication applications before the RoC for adjudicating the penalties for the aforesaid non-compliances. These applications are currently pending before the RoC. Further, some of our corporate filings such as Form MGT-14 in relation to shareholder resolution approving some of the issuance of shares, return of allotment (Form PAS-3) for some of the allotment of shares, and Form GNL-2 for filing of some of the private placement offer letter in relation to issuance of shares of our Company, have been filed with the ROC with delays. Our Company has paid additional fees for these delayed filings and no further action has been taken against our Company for such delay in filing the ROC forms. Additionally, in the past, our Company had inadvertently used accounting software for maintaining its books of accounts without enabling the edit log feature of audit trail during the period April 1, 2023 to May 11, 2023.

While it is unlikely to have a material financial impact on us, we cannot assure you that we will not be subject to any penalties imposed by the competent regulatory authorities. While no disputes or regulatory actions have arisen in connection with these filings till date, we cannot assure you that no such actions will be initiated in the future.

8. We have incurred negative net cash flows from operating activities in the past. Negative net cash flows in operating activities in the future could have an adverse impact on our growth prospectus.

We have incurred negative net cash flows from operating activities on a restated basis as set out below:

Particulars	Fiscal 2025 (in ₹ million)	Fiscal 2024 (in ₹ million)	Fiscal 2023 (in ₹ million)
Net cash flow from / (used in) operating activities	(112.01)	(225.14)	346.29

Fiscal 2025

The cash flow from operating activities was negative majorly due to the increase in raw material procurement resulting in higher inventory holding on account of increase in storage facilities and increase in advance to suppliers on account of raw material and consumable procurement.

Fiscal 2024

The cash flow from operating activities was negative majorly due to the increase in raw material procurement resulting in higher inventory holding on account of increase in storage facilities and increase in trade receivables which was on account of increase in revenue from operations and longer time in realization of trade receivables as compared to previous Fiscal.

For further details, see ‘Management’s Discussion and Analysis of Financial Condition and Results of Operations’ on page 382.

While these negative net cash flows are for certain periods, we cannot assure you that such negative net cash flows will not be incurred by our Company in the future. Any such negative net cash flows in future, if any, could adversely impact our operations, financial condition and the trading price of the Equity Shares.

9. While our Statutory Auditor has added an ‘emphasis on matters’ in our Restated Financial Information, there is no impact on our financial statements.

Our Statutory Auditor has added the following emphasis on matter for the period Fiscal 2023 in our Restated Financial Information.

We do not own the premises on which our Registered Office, corporate office, warehouses and other office premises are situated. For further details of our premises, see ‘Our Business - Property’ on page 267.

We cannot assure you that we will own, or have the right to occupy, these premises in the future, or that we will be able to continue with the uninterrupted use of these premises, which may impair our operations and adversely affect our financial condition. There can be no assurance that we will be able to renew the lease/ license/ rent agreements with third parties in a timely manner or at all. If we are required to vacate any of these premises for any reason whatsoever including expiry or termination of lease or leave and license agreements, we may be unable to identify suitable location immediately. For the remaining tenure of our lease deeds, see ‘Our Business - Property’ on page 267.

Identification of a new location to house our operations and relocating our business to new premises may involve us incurring additional expenditure. Any inability on our part to timely identify a suitable location for a relocated office could have an adverse impact on our business.

11. We cater to diverse set of customers, however, our top 10 customers contribute to a significant portion of our sales, and the loss of such customers or a substantial reduction in purchases by such customers will have a material adverse impact on our business, results of operations and financial condition.

Our business, results from operations, and financial condition are significantly dependent on maintaining relationship with our customers, and failure or inability to maintain relationship with all or any of our top 10 customers, for any reason (including, due to failure to negotiate acceptable terms, adverse change in the financial condition of such customers for various factors such as possible bankruptcy or liquidation or other financial hardship, merger or decline in sales from such customers, reduced or delayed customer requirements, facility shutdowns, labour strikes, geopolitical reasons and, or, other work stoppages affecting production by such customers) could have a material adverse impact on our business, results of operations, financial condition and cash flows. Further, our Company may be subject to pricing pressure from customers which could have an adverse impact on our revenue from operations and financial conditions. There can be no assurance that we will not lose all or a portion of sales to these customers or will be able to offset any reduction of prices to these customers with reductions in our costs or by obtaining new customers which could adversely affect our business, financial condition and results of operations.

12. The primary raw material required for the manufacturing our products i.e., maize, is seasonal in nature. While our Manufacturing Facility is located in the maize-growing belt, any delays, interruptions or reduction in the supply of raw material to manufacture our products and any abrupt fluctuations in the prices of our raw material may adversely affect the pricing of our products and may have an impact on our business, results of operation, financial condition and cash flows.

We are a maize based specialty products manufacturing company. In India, maize is grown in two seasons, kharif (rainy) and rabi (winter). The maize procured is stored in warehouses and our humidity controlled silos. Cultivation of maize and the extent of maize availability involves factors beyond the control of our Company, such as weather conditions, supply and demand dynamics etc. Additionally, price volatility could have an impact on the pricing of our products. In the event we are unable to procure and store maize during these seasons in a timely manner or at all and at a commercially reasonable price, we may have to incur additional procurement costs which may not be commercially favourable for us.

Further, set out below are details of the quantity of maize procured during the seasons for the years indicated.

The level of our indebtedness could have several important consequences, including but not limited to the following:

- a significant portion of our cash flow may be used towards repayment of our existing debt, which will reduce the available cash flow to fund our capital expenditures and other general corporate requirements;
- defaults of payment and other obligations under our financing arrangements may result in an event of default, acceleration of our repayment obligations and enforcement of related security interests over our assets;
- substantial portion of our long-term indebtedness is subject to floating rates of interest. Fluctuations in market interest rates may require us to pay higher rates of interest and will also affect the cost of our borrowings; and
- our ability to obtain additional financing in the future or renegotiate or refinance our existing indebtedness on terms favourable to us may be limited.

Additionally, our financing agreements contain certain conditions and restrictive covenants that require us to obtain consents from respective lenders prior to carrying out specified activities and entering into certain transactions. Our lenders require us to obtain their prior approval for certain actions, which, amongst other things, restrict our ability to undertake various actions including incur additional debt, declare dividends, amend our constitutional documents, change the ownership or control and management of our business. While our Company has received necessary approval from its lenders to undertake this Offer, we cannot assure you that we will be able to obtain approvals to undertake any other aforementioned activities as and when required or comply with such covenants or other covenants in the future.

If we are unable to comply with the covenants and conditions set forth in our financing agreements, or if we fail to obtain the necessary consents from our lenders, this could result in an event of default under such agreements. This may give our lenders the right to enforce their security, accelerate repayment, or impose additional restrictions on our operations, which could adversely impact our business, financial condition, and cash flows. Additionally, failure to comply with these covenants may restrict our ability to raise further financing, which could limit our growth prospects and operational flexibility.

For further details regarding our indebtedness, see 'Financial Indebtedness' on page 378.

14. There is a concentration of sales in certain geographies and the inability to maintain and grow our business in such geographies may have an adverse effect on our business, financial condition, result of operation, cash flows and future business prospects.

While our products are also sold overseas in countries such as Bangladesh, Nepal and Malaysia, the vast majority of our sales is within India. Loss of all or a substantial portion of sales to any of our customers from these geographies, for any reason (including due to any material adverse social, political or economic development, civil disruptions, or changes in the policies of the state government or local government in these countries) could have an adverse effect on our business results of operations, financial conditions, cash flows and future business prospects in these countries. While there has been no instance in the Fiscal 2025, Fiscal 2024, and Fiscal 2023, where there has been an adverse impact on the financial condition of our Company, we cannot assure you that such an event will not occur in the future or upon occurrence of such an event, our Company will be able to successfully venture into other geographies to mitigate the loss.

15. Our success depends on our strong relationship with our customers and majority of our customers are repeat customers. However, we do not enter into long-term contracts with our customers and loss of one or more of our customers or reduction in their demand for our products could adversely affect our business, results of operation and financial conditions.

We have established a strong and long standing relationship with customers such as Emami Paper Mills Limited, Manioca Food Products Private Limited, Century Pulp & Paper, Kush Proteins Private Limited, Shri Guru Oil Industries, Mayank Cattle Food Limited, Aarnav Sales Corporation, AMV Sales Corporation, Eco Tech Papers, Genus Paper Board Private Limited, Krishna Tissues Private Limited, Maruti Papers Private Limited, and M/s Vasu and Sons. Our business relationships with our customers have been built over time and while we, generally, do not enter into long term contracts with our customers and significant portion of our revenue is routed through short term purchase orders.

Set out in the table below are the details of our revenue from repeat customers and unique customers (i.e. customers whom we have not catered to previously) in the Fiscal 2025, Fiscal 2024, and Fiscal 2023, based on our Restated Financial Information.

We cannot assure you that we will be able to retain the business of our existing key customers or maintain the current level of business with each of our customers. Consequently, our business, results from operations, and financial condition are dependent on our maintaining our relationship with our customers, and, in particular, continuing to receive orders from such customers. Failure to receive orders from our customers or our inability to do so on commercially viable terms could have an adverse impact on our revenue and, or margin and consequently our profitability. If we are unable to continuously develop new product or optimise our processes, our ability to grow and, or, compete effectively, might be compromised, which would have an adverse impact on our business operations and financial condition. While there has been no instance in the Fiscal 2025, Fiscal 2024, and Fiscal 2023, of loss of customers which had an impact on the business of our Company, we cannot assure you that such an event will not occur in the future or our Company will be able to successfully mitigate the loss of any customer or will be able to replace them with new customers.

16. We export our products to various countries, on account of which we may be subject to significant import duties or restrictions.

While a significant proportion of our revenue from operations is generated from sales within India, we export our products to various countries such as Bangladesh, Malaysia, Nepal, etc. Set out is a geographic break-up of our sales export markets, based on our Restated Financial Information.

Particulars	Fiscal 2025		Fiscal 2024		Fiscal 2023

*Contract price represents sale of products before deducting discounts and incentives but net of returns.

[#] Includes Singapore, Sri Lanka, Vietnam, and Thailand.

These countries impose varying import duties on our products. While there have been no instances of significant increase in import duties which have had a material adverse effect on our business, in Fiscal 2025, Fiscal 2024, and Fiscal 2023, there can be no assurance that the import duties will not increase, or new restrictions will not be imposed by such countries. Any substantial increase in such duties or imposition of new restrictions may adversely affect our business, financial condition and results of operations. Export destination countries may also enter into free trade agreements or regional trade agreements with countries other than India. Such agreements and alteration of existing tax treaties may lead to increased competition or may even place us at a competitive disadvantage compared to manufacturers in other countries.

Further, our Company has received certain tax and subsidy benefits pursuant to our exports. There can be no assurance that we will be able to claim any benefits under similar government schemes in the future under any applicable government policies.

17. Health, safety and environmental matters, including compliance with environmental laws and remediation of contamination, could result in substantially increased capital requirements and operating costs.

Our Company's business and operations are subject to laws, regulations and contractual commitments relating to health, safety and the environment and our Company's operations generate large amounts of pollutants and waste, some of which are hazardous. These laws, regulations and contractual commitments concern air emissions, wastewater discharges, solid and hazardous waste material handling and disposal, worker health and safety, and the investigation and remediation of contamination or other environmental restoration. The risks of substantial costs and liabilities related to these laws and regulations are an inherent part of our Company's business, and future conditions and contamination may develop, arise or be discovered that create substantial environmental compliance, remediation or restoration liabilities and costs. For instance, in October 2023, our Company paid a compensation of ₹ 1.43 million for violation of certain conditions pertaining to our consent to operate. Other developments, such as increased requirements of environmental, health and safety laws and regulations, increasingly strict enforcement thereof by governmental authorities, and claims for damages to property or injury to persons resulting from the environmental, health or safety impacts our Company's operations or past contamination, could prevent or restrict some of our Company's operations, require the expenditure of significant funds to bring our Company into compliance, involve the imposition of clean up requirements and give rise to civil or criminal liability. While our Company has taken the necessary approvals under the applicable laws there can be no assurance that any legislation, regulation, enforcement or private claim will not be levied against our Company in the future which may have a material adverse effect on our Company's business, financial condition or results of operations. In the event that production at one of our Company's facility is partially or wholly prevented due to this type of sanction, our Company's business could suffer significantly, and its results of operations and financial condition could be materially and adversely affected. For details in relation to the applicable laws and material approvals taken by our Company in relation to its business, see 'Key Regulations and Policies' and 'Government and Other Approvals' beginning at pages 273 and 426, respectively.

18. We have dues which are outstanding to our creditors. Any failure in payment of these dues may have a material adverse effect on our reputation, business and financial condition.

As of March 31, 2025, our Company had 90 creditors and the aggregate amount due by our Company to these creditors was ₹ 480.07 million, as detailed below:

Types of Creditors	Number of Creditors	Amount involved (in ₹ million)
Micro, Small and Medium Enterprises*	12	1.59
Other creditors	78	478.48
Total	90	480.07

*As defined under the Micro, Small and Medium Enterprises Development Act, 2006, as amended
As certified by Singhi & Co., Statutory Auditors, pursuant to a certificate dated August 6, 2025.

Particulars	Outstanding as on March 31, 2025 from date of transaction
	Less than 1 year	1-2 years	2-3 years	More than 3 years	Total

Total	478.89	0.76	0.16	0.26	480.07

In terms of our Materiality Policy, the list of creditors 'material' to whom the amount due is in excess of 5% of the total outstanding dues (that is, trade payables) of our Company as on March 31, 2025 is set out below:

Particulars	Number of Creditors	Amount involved (in ₹ million)
Material Creditor	1	447.17

Any failure to make payments to our creditors in a timely manner in accordance with the terms and conditions of the agreements or purchase orders with them, or at all, may lead to our creditors not providing us with materials in future or to disassociate their relationship with us. In addition, delay or failure in payment of dues to our creditors may also result in creditors initiating legal proceedings against us. All these factors may have a material adverse effect on our reputation, business and financial condition.

19. We have received benefits pursuant to the Bihar Industrial Investment Promotion Policy, 2016. Loss of these benefits could adversely affect our business.

The Bihar Industrial Investment Promotion Policy, 2016 (which was extended upto 2020 and then 2025) (BIIPP) provides provisions for interest subvention to the eligible units with installed capacity of more than 100 TPD including units for manufacturing starch and cattle and/or poultry feed on the term loan availed by the unit from a bank/ financial institution registered by RBI/SEBI. According to F&S Report, in terms of the BIIPP, (a) the interest subvention of 10% or actual rate of interest on term loan, whichever is lower subject to maximum limit of ₹ 200 million; (b) 100% reimbursement against the admitted State GST for a period of 5 years from the date of commencement of commercial production is given to starch manufacturers. We have availed of the benefits provided by the BIIPP and continue to do so. The tables below set of the value of the benefits interest subsidy and GST subsidy benefits received by our Company pursuant to the BIIPP during Fiscal 2025, Fiscal 2024, and Fiscal 2023.

Interest subsidy benefits

Revenue from operations	9,151.61	6,000.23	4,879.55
GST subsidy as a % of revenue from operations	0.76	0.49	1.53

If we are unable to avail benefits under the BIIPP or a similar policy by the State Government of Bihar, it could adversely affect our business and financial condition.

20. A downgrade in our credit ratings, may affect our Company's ability to avail of debt and could also impact the trading price of the Equity Shares.

Our Company's borrowing costs and our access to the debt capital depend significantly on our credit rating. The current credit rating of our Company's borrowings and the credit rating for the current fiscal and the last 3 Fiscals is set out below:

Particulars	Tenure	Rating
Fiscal 2025
Fund based bank facilities	Long term	CRISIL BBB+/Positive
Fiscal 2024
Fund based bank facilities	Long term	CRISIL BBB+/Stable (Reaffirmed)
Fiscal 2023
Fund based facilities	Long term	CRISIL BBB+/Stable
Non-fund based bank facilities	Short term	CRISIL A2

Lower levels of credit rating, generally, result in a higher rate of interest and, consequently, greater cash outflows. Any downgrade of our Company's credit rating by the debt rating agencies for the debt availed by our Company may adversely impact our Company's ability to obtain further financing and, or, increase the rate of interest at which we are able to avail such borrowing and such increased cost of borrowing will adversely impact our Company's profitability. Further, any difficulty in obtaining, or failure to obtain, sufficient funding in a timely manner could result in the delay, or abandonment of our Company's growth plans and have an adverse impact on the business, cash flows and financial conditions of our Company.

21. Our cost of procurement of maize could increase if we are required to procure maize at the minimum support price (MSP) or at higher prices, which could adversely affect our profitability.

The cost of procurement of maize is the largest element of our expenses and during the Fiscals 2025, 2024, and 2023. While during Fiscal 2023 and Fiscal 2025, our average procurement price was above the Minimum Support Price (MSP), the average procurement price during Fiscal 2024, was below the MSP. The average procurement price of maize decreased by 11.61% between Fiscal 2023 and Fiscal 2024 and increased by 8.56% between Fiscal 2024 and Fiscal 2025.

If we are required to procure maize at the MSP, by applicable law, or at higher prices, our cost of procurement of maize would increase which would have an adverse impact on our profitability.

22. Our success depends on our strong relationship with our distributors and dealers. We do not, generally, enter into long-term contracts and arrangements with our distributors and dealers. Loss of one or more of our distributors and dealers could adversely affect our business, results of operation and financial condition.

We market our products directly to our end customers and also through our distributors and dealers. Set out below are details of new distributors and dealers added by our Company in the periods mentioned below:

Particulars	Fiscal 2025	Fiscal 2024	Fiscal 2023
No. of new distributors on-boarded by our Company	2	1	1
No. of new dealers on-boarded by our Company	63	36	52

Set out in the table below are details of the distributors and dealers, we catered to in Fiscal 2025, Fiscal 2024, and Fiscal 2023:

Particulars	Fiscal 2025 (₹ in million)		Fiscal 2024 (₹ in million)		Fiscal 2023 (₹ in million)
	Revenue (₹ in million)	% of Contract Price*	Revenue (₹ in million)	% of Contract Price*	Revenue (₹ in million)	% of Contract Price*

Total	9,057.60	100.00	5,980.61	100.00	4,813.96	100.00

[#] Distributors are entities which procure the product from our Company and on-sell to dealers.

^{##} Dealers are entities which procure the product from our Company and the distributors and on-sell to the customers.

We cannot assure you that we will be able to retain our existing key distributors and dealers or maintain the current level of business with each of our distributors and dealers. Consequently, our business, results from operations, and financial condition are dependent on our maintaining our relationship with our distributors and dealers. Failure to maintain an ongoing relationship with our distributors and dealers or our inability to do so on commercially viable terms could have an adverse impact on our revenue and, or margin and consequently our profitability. While there has been no instance in the Fiscal 2025, Fiscal 2024, and Fiscal 2023 where loss of distributors or dealers had an adverse impact on the business, we cannot assure you that any loss of our key distributors or dealers will not have an adverse effect on our business, results of operations or financial condition.

23. Any failure on our part to effectively manage our inventory may result in an adverse effect on our business, revenue from manufacturing operations and financial condition.

As a manufacturing entity, at all points of time, a certain portion of assets comprise inventory of raw materials and finished products which is critical for our operations to mitigate disruptions in the supply of raw materials. Any failure on our part to effectively manage our inventory of raw materials and finished products may have an adverse effect on our financial condition and may even lead to loss of materials and increase the costs of our operations. Further, set out below are certain details of our inventories as on March 31, 2025, March 31, 2024, and March 31, 2023:

Particulars	As on March 31, 2025	As on March 31, 2024	As on March 31, 2023
Inventory (₹ million)	1,183.45	570.78	305.12
As a % of the total asset	13.76	9.74	8.21
Inventory days*	65	48	32

* Inventory days are calculated as Inventory divided by cost of goods sold multiplied by 365 days for full financial year.

The increase in our inventory is primarily due to procurement and storing of maize in harvesting season, as maize is available in abundance during this period. Accordingly, our raw material inventory as at March 31, 2025 was ₹ 672.42 compared to raw material inventory as at March 31, 2024, and March 31, 2023, which was ₹ 141.99 million, and ₹ 161.52 million, respectively. The inventories we maintain are based on our forecast of demand and production capacities. If we overestimate our requirements for raw materials as compared to the demand for our finished products, it may lead to wastage and consequently increase our operating costs or affect our revenue from operations affecting profitability. Equally, if we underestimate our requirements for raw materials, it may adversely affect our ability to manufacture the required quantity of finished products in a timely and cost-efficient manner which may lead to loss of business and / or the opportunity to service our customers which could adversely affect our business, results of operations and financial condition. Further, we may also lose opportunities to procure raw materials in a cost-effective manner, thereby increasing costs of operations and adversely affecting our working capital requirements.

Additionally, if our inventory of finished products is not dispatched on time or if there is an unanticipated delay in the delivery of our finished products or if the finished products are not properly maintained or are damaged or destroyed, we could lose such inventory which could have an adverse impact on our production cycle, results of operation and financial condition. While there have been no such instances which have had a material adverse impact on our Company in Fiscal 2025, Fiscal 2024, and Fiscal 2023, we cannot assure you that occurrence of such events in the future will not have an adverse effect on the revenue from operations and financial conditions of our Company. Further, there can be no assurance that our Company will be able to successfully mitigate the occurrence of such an event in the future.

24. The manufacturing of ‘maize based speciality products’ requires controlled conditions such as certain levels of temperature, a certain standard of hygiene and calibration.

Our Company is a manufacturer of maize based specialty products. The manufacturing process of maize based products requires us to maintain certain prescribed temperature settings and hygiene. Further, the manufacturing process requires accurate calibration to ensure the standard of the end product. Moreover, we procure maize in large quantities during ‘season’ and store them in large storage silos and owned and rented warehouses. Our storage silos are temperature controlled while the storage warehouses are not. Maintaining specified temperature is an important facet of ensuring quality of the raw material, which in turn affects the quality of the end product. Maintaining the requisite temperature and hygiene depends on continuous supply of electricity and proper quality control over process. While, we have not faced any power failure issues which has had a material effect on our operations in the immediately preceding 3 Fiscals, and have a dual-feed captive power plant in our Manufacturing facility, we cannot assure you that this will not occur in future. Additionally, while we have in place the necessary quality checks and procedures, and have obtained applicable licenses including an FSSAI license, we cannot assure you that there will be no lapse in our quality procedures. If such lapses were to occur, the quality of our end product could be diminished, which could adversely affect our reputation, business and financial condition.

25. A significant portion of our revenue from operation is generated from sale of native maize starch. A general decline or disruption in the demand or pricing of native maize starch may adversely affect our business operations, results of operations and financial condition.

A significant portion of our revenue is generated from sale of native maize starch. During Fiscal 2025, Fiscal 2024, and Fiscal 2023, our revenue from operations from sale of native maize starch was as below.

Product category	Fiscal 2025		Fiscal 2024		Fiscal 2023
	Amount (in ₹ million)	% of Contract Price*	Amount (in ₹ million)	% of Contract Price*	Amount (in ₹ million)	% of Contract Price*
Native Maize Starch	5,369.87	59.29	3,552.98	59.41	2,916.53	60.58

*Contract price represents sale of products before deducting discounts and incentives but net of returns.

Any disruption in the demand or pricing of native maize starch, due to any reason including due to bad harvest, our inability to procure raw material at a commercially viable terms, fluctuation in the price of raw material, economic slowdown or decrease in demand for native maize starch, may have an adverse impact on our business operations, results of operations and financial conditions. While our dependence on native maize starch has been reducing in proportion to our Contract Price (Net of Return), with more products being added to our product basket, native maize starch continues to be a significant aspect of our business and will likely continue to be so in the foreseeable future. We cannot assure you that in an event of reduction of revenue from sale of native maize starch, our Company will be able to rely on such value added products and modified starches to make up for the deficit.

26. We cater to diverse end use industries. However, loss of customers in these end use industries may result in an adverse effect on our business, revenue from operations and financial conditions.

We cater to customers across diverse industries including food products, paper, animal feed, and adhesives i.e. end use industries. Our business model is structured around catering to 3 broad segments of customers viz.,

- i. Manufacturers of end products;
- ii. Manufacturers of intermediate products; and
- iii. Distributors / Wholesale traders.

Set out below is the breakup of our revenue from operations from our end use industries in Fiscal 2025, Fiscal 2024, and Fiscal 2023.

Industry / Sector	Fiscal 2025		Fiscal 2024		Fiscal 2023
	Amount (in ₹ million)	% of Contract Price*	Amount (in ₹ million)	% of Contract Price*	Amount (in ₹ million)	% of Contract Price*

Manufacturing – others	1,489.74	16.45	263.46	4.41	212.78	4.42
Others [#]	3,212.17	35.46	2,346.92	39.23	1,751.57	36.39
Total	9,057.60	100.00	5,980.61	100.00	4,813.96	100.00

[#]Others include sale to dealers and distributors where we have no visibility of the end customer and trading income.

Our commercial success also depends to a large extent on the success of our customers in the end use industries, therefore, our sales may be adversely affected by any downturn in the end use industries or specifically, our customers in end use industries, for any reason including macroeconomic and geopolitical factors, supply-chain issues, high interest rates and labour shortages. Therefore, our business operations, revenue from operations and financial condition may be adversely affected, as a result of, inter alia, decline in demand of our products including due to the emergence of low cost products, if entities in the end use industries move towards other customers, if there is increase in competition, pricing pressures, and change in government policies and regulatory action. While there have no loss of customers which have had a material adverse impact on our Company in Fiscal 2025, Fiscal 2024, and Fiscal 2023, any or all of these factors may have an adverse effect on our business prospects, and sales of our products could decline substantially. Further, we cannot assure you that the sales to the other end use industries will increase or be sufficient to off-set any reduction in revenue from our currently largest revenue generating end use industries.

27. We are completely reliant on third-party logistic service providers for transport of our finished products. Any failure by any of our transportation and logistics providers to deliver our products on time, or in good condition, or at all, may adversely affect our business, financial condition and results of operations.

We rely on third party transportation and logistics providers for transport of our finished products. We use third party logistics to supply our products to our customers and dealers. We also rely on such entities to transport our primary raw material maize from warehouses of our vendors. The logistic service providers are, therefore, integral to our Company's business operations. Set out in the table below are the freight and forwarding charges we incurred during the periods mentioned.

Particulars	Fiscal 2025	Fiscal 2024	Fiscal 2023
Freight and Forwarding Charges (in ₹ million)	269.29	190.18	140.95
As a % of our Contract Price*	2.97	3.18	2.93

*Contract price represents sale of products before deducting discounts and incentives but net of returns.

While we have over the years engaged the services of various logistics service providers for our business operations, we do not have, and we do not propose to enter into, contractual arrangements with such third-party logistics providers. Further, our Company uses a mobile application to book vehicle to transport our finished products to customers and dealers. While these third-party logistics service providers have generally, in the past, been reliable, we cannot assure you that they will continue to be available to us as required. If such third-party logistics service providers discontinue their services for a reasonable length of time and, if we are unable to obtain the services of other service providers, our business operations could be adversely impacted, at times, significantly. Moreover, we cannot assure you that we will not be liable for acts of negligence or other acts which may result in harm or injury to third parties. Any such acts could result in serious liability claims (for which we may not be adequately insured) which may, in addition to resulting in pecuniary liability also entail personal liability, which could significantly adversely impact our business operations and financial condition.

28. Failure to meet quality standards required by our customers for our finished products and processes may lead to cancellation of existing and future orders.

Our customers have exacting quality standards and adhering to such standards is a pre-requisite for us to be able to obtain repeat orders from our customers. Accordingly, our raw materials and finished products are subject to stringent quality control and quality checks. Our quality assurance and quality control teams are involved in every stage of the production process commencing from receipt of raw materials to final product clearance. The quality assurance team checks the raw materials against various specific pre-determined parameters to ensure that the raw materials received meet our quality benchmarks. While we have quality assurance and quality control teams, the quality of our raw material and finished products could be adversely affected due to reasons beyond the control of our Company such as spoilage, mishandling of raw materials and finished products or due to human error. While we have not had any instance of customers declining to accept or returning products due to quality related concerns, during Fiscal 2025, Fiscal 2024, and Fiscal 2023, there have been instances of customers deducting amounts from the invoiced price due to damage to the product. Set out in the table below are details of such deductions.

Particulars	Fiscal 2025	Fiscal 2024	Fiscal 2023
Aggregate amount deducted (₹ million)	8.20	3.78	5.05
As a % of our Contract Price*	0.09	0.06	0.10

*Contract price represents sale of products before deducting discounts and incentives but net of returns.

Failure to meet quality and standards of expected by client can have serious consequences including rejection of the product and loss of customer confidence which could have adverse effect on our reputation, business and our financial condition.

29. Under-utilization of our currently operational production lines at our manufacturing facility and an inability to effectively utilize our expanded manufacturing capacities could have an adverse effect on our business, future prospects, and future financial performance.

Our ability to maintain our profitability depends on our ability to optimise our process of production. In particular, the level of our capacity utilization can impact our operating results.

In the event we face disruptions at our manufacturing facility including as a result of labour unrest, unexpected events or temporary schedule maintenance or inability to procure sufficient raw materials could result in operational inefficiencies which could impact our actual production and capacity utilisation and eventually our sales. Such disruption would have a material effect on our business and financial condition. While there have been no instances of under-utilization of our capacities in the Fiscal 2025, Fiscal 2024, and Fiscal 2023, there can be no assurance that such instances will not occur in future which may have an adverse impact on our business, results of operations and financial condition. For further details in relation to capacity utilisation, see section 'Our Business' on page 238. Our Company has made an application before the Bihar State Pollution Control Board to increase our installed capacity from 750 TPD to 1,650 TPD. The success of any capacity expansion and expected return on investment on capital expenditure is subject to, among other factors, the ability to procure requisite regulatory approvals in a timely manner; recruit and ensure satisfactory performance of personnel to further grow our business; and the ability to absorb additional infrastructure costs. There can be no assurance that the proposed increase in our installed capacity to 1,650 TPD and the use of assets of our Company towards such increase will be directly proportional to the increase in revenue from operation of our Company. While our capacity utilisation has been consistently high, we cannot assure you that we will be able to maintain such a high rate of capacity utilisation. Further, under-utilisation of our existing or proposed capacities would result in lower revenues, which could affect our ability to fully absorb fixed costs and thus may adversely impact our financial performance. Set out below are the details of our installed capacity, actual production and capacity utilisation for the years indicated below.

^{##} This factors in the periods for which the manufacturing facility was non-operational on account of the upgradation in capacity.

As certified by the independent chartered engineer pursuant to certificate dated August 6, 2025.

Our Company proposes to augment our manufacturing capacity by undertaking brownfield expansion to capitalise on anticipated growth in our end-user industries. There can be no assurance that the proposed expansion will result in an immediate increase in our revenue from operation or at all.

Underutilization of our manufacturing capacities over extended periods, or significant under-utilization in the short term, or an inability to fully realize the benefits of our proposed capacity expansion, could adversely impact our business, growth prospects and future financial performance.

30. Our Company's operations are subject to varied business risks and our Company's insurance cover may prove inadequate to cover the economic losses of our Company.

Our Company's operations are subject to various risks and hazards which may adversely affect revenue generation and profitability of our Company. While our Company believes that it has taken adequate safeguards to protect our Company's assets from various risks inherent in our Company's business, including by purchasing and maintaining relevant insurance cover, it is possible that our Company's insurance cover may not provide adequate coverage in certain circumstances.

While our Company believes that we maintain sufficient insurance cover by virtue of maintaining insurance policies, certain types of losses may be either uninsurable, not economically viable to insure or not offered for insurance, such as losses due to acts of terrorism or war. If any uninsured loss occurs, our Company could lose our investment in, as well as anticipated profits and cash flows from the asset. In addition, even if any such loss is insured, there may be a significant deductible on any claim for recovery prior to our insurer being obligated to reimburse us for the loss, or the amount of the loss may exceed our coverage for the loss. For instance, we have made an insurance claim for ₹ 0.31 million and against which we have received a sum of ₹ 0.31 million. Further, even in the case of an insured risk occurring there can be no assurance that our Company will be successful in claiming insurance in part or full, or that the insurance purchased by us will be sufficient to cover the loss occasioned by the risk. Any loss that is not covered by insurance, or for which our Company is unable to successfully claim insurance, or which is in excess of the insurance cover could, in addition to damaging our Company's reputation, have an adverse effect on our Company's business, cash flows, financial condition and results of operation. Further, an insurance claim once made could lead to an increase in our Company's insurance premium.

In addition, our Company's insurance coverage expires from time to time. Our Company will apply for the renewal of our insurance coverage in the normal course of its business, but our Company cannot assure you that such renewals will be granted in a timely manner, at acceptable cost or at all. To the extent that our Company suffer loss or damage for which it did not obtain or maintain insurance, and which is not covered by insurance or exceeds our Company's insurance coverage or where its insurance claims are rejected, the loss would have to be borne by our Company and its results of operations, cash flows and financial condition may be adversely affected.

Details of our total insurance coverage vis-à-vis our net assets as March 31, 2025, March 31, 2024, and March 31, 2023 is set out below:

Particulars	As at March 31, 2025	As at March 31, 2024	As at March 31, 2023
Insurance Coverage (A) (₹ million)*	4,420.99	3,118.25	2,467.76
Net assets as per Restated Financial Information (B) (₹ million)	5,260.17	3,649.70	2,230.75
Insurance coverage as percentage of the net assets (A/B)	84.05	85.44	110.62

*Insurance coverage = Total insurance coverage amount by considering insurance policies of property, equipments, vehicles, stock, erection and all risk insurance / Net assets (balance of net block of property, plant and equipments (excluding land value) + Capital Work in Progress + inventories (excluding goods in transit)).

31. Delays or defaults in customer payments and receivables may have an adversely impact our profits and cash flows.

Our operations involve the practice of extending credit to our customers. Set out below are details of our outstanding trade receivables in Fiscal 2025, Fiscal 2024, and Fiscal 2023, as a percentage of our revenue from operations:

Particulars	Fiscal 2025	Fiscal 2024	Fiscal 2023
Trade receivables (₹ million)	1,368.72	1,267.35	719.37
As a % of revenue from operations	14.96	21.12	14.74
Trade receivables (Days)*	55	77	54
Bad and doubtful debt written off (₹ million)	0.17	0.27	0.46

While except for the bad and doubtful debts written off, as set out in the table above, there have been no defaults by our customers, in Fiscal 2025, Fiscal 2024, and Fiscal 2023 we cannot assure you that we will be able to accurately assess the creditworthiness of our customers in the future. Further, financial difficulty could cause our customers to delay payments, or request for modification of their payment terms. Any default in payment may also cause us to enter into litigation for which our Company may have to bear unwarranted cost. If such customers delay or default in making payments in the future, our profit margins and cash flows may be adversely affected.

32. Our operations are dependent on research and development. If we are unable to continuously optimise our processes then our ability to grow, including by expanding our presence across different end-user industries, and, or, compete effectively, might be compromised, which would have an adverse impact on our business and financial condition.

Research and development (R&D) activities are integral to our business, and we rely on constant R&D for developing our products which ensures that we continue to evolve with the changing industry landscape. Our ability to deliver high quality products is enabled by our research and development (R&D) team. As on May 31, 2025, we have a qualified and experienced 6 member R&D team.

Set out in the table below are details of our R&D expenses in Fiscal 2025, Fiscal 2024, and Fiscal 2023, in accordance with our Restated Financial Information.

Particulars	Fiscal 2025		Fiscal 2024		Fiscal 2023
	Amount (in ₹ million)	% of Contract Price*	Amount (in ₹ million)	% of Contract Price*	Amount (in ₹ million)	% of Contract Price*
R&D expense	3.32	0.04	2.36	0.04	1.43	0.03

*Contract price represents sale of products before deducting discounts and incentives but net of returns.

Further, we believe that continuous R&D is critical to our continued growth and business prospects, and we expect to continue deploying significant resources including financial resources towards R&D. If we are unable to continuously optimise our processes, our ability to grow, including by expanding our presence across different end-user industries, and, or, compete effectively, might be compromised, which would have an adverse impact on our business and financial condition.

33. Our business operations require significant working capital. If we experience insufficient cash flows to meet required payments on our working capital requirements, there may be an adverse effect on the results of our operations.

Our business operations are subject to significant working capital requirements. Currently, we meet our working capital requirements through a mix of internal accruals and working capital facilities from lenders. Set out below is our net working capital requirements as at March 31, 2025, March 31, 2024, and March 31, 2023:

Particulars	Fiscal 2025	Fiscal 2024	Fiscal 2023
Working Capital Requirement (in ₹ million)	2,412.07	1,412.65	730.46

As on June 30, 2025, we had sanctioned working capital facilities aggregating ₹ 2,270.00 million of which we had outstanding amount of ₹ 1,821.93 million.

While we believe that our internal accruals, working capital facilities availed from our lenders and others will be sufficient to address our working capital requirements, we cannot assure you that we will continue to generate sufficient internal accruals and, or, be able to raise adequate working capital from lenders to address our future needs. Further, while there have been no instances in Fiscal 2025, Fiscal 2024, and Fiscal 2023, wherein our Company was unable to meet its working capital requirement, any inability to meet our present working capital requirements or our enhanced working capital requirements will have an adverse impact on our results of operation, business and financial condition. For further details pertaining to our present working capital position, see 'Objects of the Offer' on page 124.

In addition, our Promoters have also extended personal guarantees for some of the debt facilities availed by our Company and certain properties of one of our Promoter Group entities have also been mortgaged for our debt facilities. Any inability to continue to provide such guarantee or their inability to honour such guarantee or if the mortgage is no longer provided, it could result in an acceleration of such facilities and, or, adversely impact our ability to raise debt which could impact our cash flows, result in cash flow mismatch and adversely affect our financial condition.

34. Our Promoters, who are also the Selling Shareholders, have subscribed to, and purchased, Equity Shares, at a price which could be below the Offer Price. The average cost of acquisition of Equity Shares by our Promoters could also be lower than the Offer Price.

We have issued Equity Shares to our Promoters, who are also the Selling Shareholders, and our Promoters have acquired Equity Shares by way of transfers, at a price which could be below the Offer Price. For more details see 'Capital Structure' on page 97.

The average cost of acquisition of Equity Shares by our Promoters (Average Cost of Acquisition) is set out below:

Name	Number of Equity Shares acquired	Average Cost of Acquisition per Equity Share of face value ₹ 5 (in ₹)*
Anil Kishorepuria	28,276,536	6.66
Shruti Kishorepuria	30,441,624	6.69
BFL Private Limited	14,674,650	37.89

As certified by Singhi & Co., Statutory Auditors pursuant to a certificate dated August 6, 2025.*

The aforementioned average cost of acquisition of Equity Shares by our Promoters may be lower than the Offer Price.

35. Our operations are subject to manufacturing risk which may cause fatal injury to personnel including death and destruction of property and consequent imposition of civil and criminal penalties.

Our Manufacturing Facility is subject to operating risks and potential industrial accidents. Our manufacturing units are also subject to operating risk resulting in fatal personal injury and property damage and consequent imposition of civil and criminal penalties. While there have not been any instances, in the Fiscal 2025, Fiscal 2024, and Fiscal 2023, of any fatal injuries at our manufacturing facility as part of our operations, we cannot assure you that there will not be any such instance in the future. There have been few instances of injuries to workers such as fractures, leg injuries, hand injuries, burn to face and arms in our Manufacturing Facility during Fiscal 2025, Fiscal 2024, and Fiscal 2023. We could also face claims and litigation filed on behalf of persons alleging injury as a result of occupational exposure to hazards at our facility.

While our Company's Manufacturing Facility meets the necessary safety standards and our Company maintain insurance policies to cover accidents including bodily injuries, disability and death, accidents including human fatalities may occur, and there can be no assurance that the precautions taken by us, and our insurance cover will be completely effective or sufficient. Such accidents, irrespective of the monetary liability, may have an adverse impact on our business and reputation.

36. Our future success will depend on our ability to effectively implement our business and growth strategies. Our failure in effectively implementing our business and growth strategies may adversely affect our results of operations.

The diversification and expansion of our product portfolio is primarily driven by the needs of our customers and technological advancements in our industry. Our success will depend, in large part, on our ability to effectively implement our business and growth strategies. We cannot assure you that we will be able to execute our strategies in a timely manner or within budget estimates or that we will meet the expectations of our clients and other stakeholders. We believe that our business and growth strategies will place significant demands on our senior management and other resources and will require us to develop and improve operational, financial and other internal controls. Any inability to manage our business and growth strategies could adversely affect our business, financial condition and results of operations. Further, our business is to a large extent driven by our internal systems and control mechanism. Therefore, our continued growth is intrinsically linked to our being able to maintain adequate internal systems, processes and controls and our failure to maintain such systems could be an impediment to our growth.

In addition, we believe that our ability to implement our business and growth strategies will also depend on our ability to expand in global markets. Our inability to maintain our growth or failure to successfully implement our growth strategies within time and cost expectations could have an adverse impact on the results of our operations, our financial condition and our business prospects.

37. We are dependent on our Promoters, Key Managerial Personnel, and members of Senior Management. Failure to retain or replace them will adversely affect our business.

In order to successfully manage and expand our business, we are dependent on the experience and services of our Promoters, Key Managerial Personnel and our members of Senior Management, and their ability to attract, train, motivate and retain skilled employees and other professionals. We are also backed by experienced senior level of management team whose varied background guides and provides direction to our business operations. We also have a team of qualified professionals, who have expertise and experience in our business. Our operations are spearheaded by our Promoters who are actively engaged in the day to day operations of our Company. Anil Kishorepuria who is one of our Promoters and our Managing Director, is a second-generation entrepreneur who has significant experience in the manufacturing sector. One of our other Promoters, and executive director, Karan Kishorepuria, oversees human resources, purchase and procurement and growth initiative verticals. We also have a strong board comprising independent directors who have varied experienced and have expertise in their respective fields. Our Board of Directors is ably supported by a capable operations and management team, comprising amongst others Saikat Chatterjee – CFO, Harish Kumar Singh, DGM – Plant, Vivek Lilha, DGM – Procurement, and Rohan Kishorepuria – Vice President Sales and Services, all of whom have extensive experience in their respective fields and have been associated with entities in either in our industry or our end-user industries. For details of the profiles of our Promoters, Key Managerial Personnel and members of Senior Management, see ‘Our Promoters and Promoter Group’ and ‘Our Management’ at page 307 and 288, respectively. Therefore, the continued involvement of our Promoters, Key Managerial Personnel and Senior Management in the leadership position of our Company is critical to our success and their non-availability in a leadership role could have a deleterious impact on our business and financial conditions.

If we are unable to hire additional personnel or retain existing skilled personnel, in particular our Key Managerial Personnel and persons with requisite skills, our operations and our ability to expand our business may be impaired. Further, we may be unable to hire and retain enough skilled and experienced employees to replace those who leave or may not be able to re-deploy existing resources successfully. Failure to hire or retain Key Managerial Personnel, Senior Management and skilled and experienced employees could adversely affect our business and results of operations.

38. Our Company has in the past entered into related party transactions and may continue to do so in the future and we cannot assure you that we could not have achieved more favourable terms if such transactions had not been entered into with related parties and that such transactions will not have an adverse effect on our financial conditions and result of operations.

Our Company has engaged in the past, and may engage in the future, in transactions with related parties, inter alia, including our Promoters, Key Managerial Personnel and their relatives on an arm’s length basis. Such transactions include remuneration, advances etc.

While our Company has undertaken all such transactions have been conducted on an arm's length basis and contain commercially reasonable terms, we cannot assure you that we could not have achieved more favourable terms had such transactions been entered into with unrelated parties. Such related party transactions may potentially involve conflicts of interest which may be detrimental to our Company and which our Company will endeavour to duly address as and when they may arise. We cannot assure you that such transactions, individually or in the aggregate, will always be in the best interests of our Company and, or, that it will not have an adverse effect on our business and our results of operations.

39. Majority of our directors do not have any experience of being a director in a listed company. This may require them to divert their attention from our business concerns to understand the detailed operations of a listed company.

Our board of directors comprises 6 directors 2 of whom are promoter directors, 1 is a non-executive director and 3 independent directors. While 2 of our directors, i.e., Dinbandhu Mohapatra and Sheetal Jhunjhunwala have been directors in listed companies, the remaining 4 directors lack the experience of being directors in listed companies. Although, all our independent directors possess the required qualifications and appropriate skills, experience and knowledge required to act as independent director of our Company and are experienced in their respective fields, they may not have adequate experience in being a director of a listed company. However, they are not independent directors in any listed company. Accordingly, majority of our directors will need to familiarise themselves with the regulatory framework within which listed companies in India operate and to the extent that they are unfamiliar with such framework their ability to discharge their functions as directors could be adversely affected. As a listed company, we will be subject to increased scrutiny of our affairs by shareholders, regulators and the public at large that is associated with being a listed company and will also be subject to increased corporate governance requirements. The lack of experience of our independent directors and our promoter directors, of having been directors of a listed company, may require them to divert their attention from our business concerns to understand the detailed operations of a listed company.

40. Any failure to obtain, renew and maintain requisite statutory and regulatory permits, licenses and approvals for our operations from time to time may adversely affect our business.

In terms of applicable laws, we require various statutory and regulatory permits, licenses, registrations, certifications, consents and approvals to carry out our business and operations (cumulatively, the Approvals). A majority of these Approvals are granted for a limited duration and must be periodically renewed. Further, our Company, currently, has the requisite statutory and regulatory permits, license and approvals required to undertake its business or have applied for the Approvals, we cannot assure you that such Approvals will be issued or granted to us in a timely manner, or at all. If we do not receive these Approvals or if we are unable to renew the Approvals in a timely manner, or at all, then our business and operations may be adversely affected. For details, see ‘Government and Other Approvals’ at page 426.

Moreover, the Approvals are subject to numerous conditions and there can be no assurance that these Approvals will not be suspended or revoked in the event of non-compliance or alleged non-compliance with any terms or conditions thereof, or pursuant to any regulatory action. Suspension or revocation of the Approvals by the relevant regulatory authority, either on account of non-compliance or otherwise, would impair our Company’s operations and, consequently, have an adverse effect on our business, cash flows and financial condition. Our Company may also be liable to monetary penalties and concerned officers in default may be subject to imprisonment.

Uncertainty in the applicability, interpretation or implementation of any amendment to, or change in, governing law, regulation or policy in the jurisdictions in which we operate, including by reason of an absence, or a limited body, of administrative or judicial precedent may be time consuming as well as costly for us to resolve and may impact the viability of our current business or restrict our ability to grow our business in the future. Further, if we are affected, directly or indirectly, by the application or interpretation of any provision of such laws and regulations or any related proceedings or are required to bear any costs in order to comply with such provisions or to defend such proceedings, our business and financial performance may be adversely affected.

41. Our employee benefit expense is one of the larger components of our fixed operating costs. An increase in employee benefit expense could reduce our profitability. Further any lapse on part of our employees may lead to operational interruption, inabilities, or reputational harm.

Our pool of employees consists of employees as part of inter alia top management, sales and marketing, human resources and administration, technical support and quality assurance, and finance and legal. As of May 31, 2025, we had 491 permanent employees. Set out below are our employee benefit expenses for the years indicated.

	March 31, 2025	March 31, 2024	March 31, 2023
Employee benefit expenses (₹ million)	246.44	203.72	175.10
Total operating expenses* (₹ million)	8,164.27	5,524.85	4,548.35
Employee benefit expenses as a % of total operating expenses	3.02	3.69	3.85

*Total Operating Expenses = Total Expenses – Finance Cost

Due to economic growth in the past and the increase in competition for skilled and semi-skilled employees in India, wages in India have, in recent years been increasing at a fast rate. Our Company may need to increase our compensation levels to remain competitive in attracting and retaining the quality and number of skilled and semi-skilled employees that our business requires. Further, a shortage in the employee pool or general inflationary pressures will also increase our costs towards employee benefits. A significant long-term increase in our employee benefit expense could reduce our profitability, which could, amongst others, impact our growth prospects.

Further, our Company's attrition rate of employees during the last 3 Fiscals is set out below:

Particulars [#]	Fiscal
	2025	2024	2023
No of employees who ceased employment during the year (A)	107	112	116
Average no. of employees during the year (B)	440	391	349

[#] Excluding KMPs

Particulars	Fiscal 2025	Fiscal 2024	Fiscal 2023
No. of KMP and members of Senior Management who left during the year (A)	2	1	2

Note:

* Rounded-off to the next integer

We understand that the high attrition that we have experienced during the financial periods mentioned above was primarily due to factors such as career advancement opportunities and personal reasons. While we consider our current employee relations to be good, we cannot assure you that we will not experience any operational interruptions such as failure in our manufacturing process or liabilities or reputational harm due to lapse on part of our employees or any labour disputes which may adversely affect our ability to perform our obligations. Any disputes may also result in disruptions in our operations, which may adversely affect our business and results of operation.

42. If we are unable to attract new customers, retain customers at existing levels or sell additional products to our existing customers, our revenue growth will be adversely affected.

To continue to grow our business, it is important that we continue to acquire new customers. Our success in adding new customers depends on numerous factors, including our ability to offer various value-added products, execute our sales and marketing strategy, attract, effectively train, and retain new employees and workforce, develop or expand relationships with distributors, expand into new geographies and verticals, effectively manage and forecast our customer count, and expand our use cases for our existing customers. We added 108, 74, and 97, new customers during the during Fiscals 2025, 2024, and 2023, respectively.

Our customers have no long-term contracts or obligation to purchase our products at the same prices and terms or at all. Our customer retention may decline or fluctuate as a result of a number of factors, including our customers' satisfaction with our products, our prices, reduction in our customers' spending levels, availability of cheaper substitutes, etc. Our ability to increase revenue also depends in part on our ability to increase the number of value-added products to be offered to our existing and new customers.

43. We do not enter into hedging transactions in respect of our foreign currency exposure. Any losses, on account of foreign currency exchange rate fluctuations may adversely affect our business, results of operations and financial conditions.

We face foreign exchange rate risk to the extent that a part of our revenue, and expenses are denominated in a currency other than the Indian Rupee. We report our results of operations in Indian Rupees. Further, our capital expenditure in foreign currency in Fiscal 2025, Fiscal 2024, and Fiscal 2023, was as set out below.

Particulars	Fiscal
	2025 (in ₹ million)	2024 (in ₹ million)	2023 (in ₹ million)
Capital expenditure in foreign currency converted into Indian Rupees	3.57	53.89	1.45

We do not enter into hedging transactions in respect of our foreign currency exposure. Set out below are the details of our unhedged foreign currency exposure:

Particulars	Fiscal
	2025 (in ₹ million)	2024 (in ₹ million)	2023 (in ₹ million)

Any adverse fluctuations of the Indian Rupee vis-à-vis foreign currency to which we have an exposure cannot be accurately predicted and our attempts to mitigate the adverse effects of exchange rate fluctuations may not be successful, which may adversely affect our business, results of operations and financial condition.

44. We will not receive any proceeds from the Offer for Sale. The Selling Shareholders will receive the net proceeds from the Offer for Sale.

The Selling Shareholders will be entitled to the Net Proceeds from the Offer for Sale, which comprises proceeds from the Offer for Sale net of Offer Expenses shared by the Selling Shareholders, and we will not receive any proceeds from the Offer for Sale.

[^]Subject to finalisation of the Basis of Allotment.

45. Our Promoters and Promoter Group will, even after the completion of the Offer, continue to be our largest Shareholders and can influence the outcome of resolutions, which may potentially involve conflict of interest with the other Shareholders.

Currently, our Promoters and members of the Promoter Group hold an aggregate of 81,775,940 Equity Shares, constituting 99.56% of the Equity Share capital of our Company and they will continue to hold [●] % of the Equity Share capital after the completion of this Offer. Accordingly, our Promoters and members of the Promoter Group, collectively, will have the ability to significantly influence our corporate decision-making process. This will include the ability to appoint Directors on our Board and the right to approve significant actions at the Board and at the Shareholders' meetings, including the issue of Equity Shares and dividend payments, business plans, mergers and acquisitions, any consolidation or joint venture arrangements and any amendment to the constitutional documents. Our Company cannot assure you that the interest of the Promoters and members of the Promoter Group in any such scenario will not conflict with the interest of other Shareholders or with our Company's interests. Any such conflict may adversely affect our Company's ability to execute its business strategy or to operate our Company's business effectively or in the best interests of the other Shareholders of our Company.

46. There have been certain delays in payment of statutory dues in the past. Any delay in payment of statutory dues in future, may result in the imposition of penalties and in turn may have an adverse effect on our business, financial condition, results of operation and cash flows.

We have certain instances of delays in the payment of statutory dues in the past by our Company. The amount pertaining to such delays are set out below:

The delays in the payment of statutory dues were on the account of administrative oversight. We have strengthened our internal processes by hiring employees to dedicatedly manage GST returns and payments and oversee timely payments of statutory dues such as provident fund, ESIC, TDS, and the labour welfare fund.

While our Company has subsequently made payment of all pending dues, we cannot assure you that there will not be any delays in the future. Further, while no actions have been initiated against our Company in relation to the abovementioned non-compliances or delays, we cannot assure you that any regulatory or statutory actions will not be initiated against us in relation to the said non-compliance. Any delay in payment of statutory dues in future, may result in the imposition of penalties and in turn may have an adverse effect on our business, financial condition, results of operation and cash flows.

47. Our operations are reliant on human resources. Any disruption in steady and regular supply of workforce for our operations could have an adverse impact on our business operations and financial conditions.

We operate in a human resource intensive industry and we are reliant on availability of steady and regular supply of human resources for our business operations. As on May 31, 2025, our Company had 195 employees on contract basis. Any disruption in the availability of workforce (including due to strikes or work stoppage or labour disputes) could have an adverse impact on our business operations and financial conditions. While there have been no such instances of disruption in availability of workforce or strikes or labour disputes, we cannot assure you that such an event will not occur in the future. Further, there cannot be any assurance that occurrence of such an event will not have an adverse impact on our business operations and financial conditions.

48. Our Promoters and some of our Directors and Key Managerial Personnel have interests in our Company other than reimbursement of expenses incurred and normal remuneration or benefits.

Our Promoters, some of our Directors and Key Managerial Personnel may be regarded as having an interest in our Company other than reimbursement of expenses incurred and normal remuneration or benefits. Further, our Promoters and certain Directors and Key Managerial Personnel may be deemed to be interested to the extent of Equity Shares held by them or their members of Promoter Group as well as to the extent of bonus on such Equity Shares, and to the extent of unsecured loan advanced by our Promoters to our Company. Our Company cannot assure you that our Promoter, Directors, and our Key Managerial Personnel will exercise their rights as shareholders to the benefit and best interest of our Company. For further details, please refer to the chapters ‘Our Management’ and ‘Our Promoters and Promoter Group’ on pages 288 and 307, respectively.

49. Inability to obtain or protect our intellectual property rights may adversely affect our business.

While, as on the date of this Red Herring Prospectus, we have obtained registration of the words ‘Regaal Resources’ in respect of 2 classes of goods and services, objections have been raised with respect to a few of the trade mark applications made by our Company for the obtaining registration of the amongst others ‘Regaal Resources’ in respect of certain others classes of goods and services. In the absence of the registered trademark of our ability to protect our intellectual property may be diluted to such extent, and could adversely affect our reputation and business, which could in turn adversely affect our financial performance. We cannot assure you that the trade marks against which objections have been raised will be registered in our name, and that we will continue to enjoy uninterrupted use of the said trade marks. Additionally, one of the trademarks that we have applied for has been opposed. If we are unable to obtain registration of the said trade mark, we will not be able to use said trade mark. Any claim of intellectual property infringement from third parties, regardless of merit or resolution of such claims, could force us to incur significant costs in responding to, defending, and resolving such claims, and may divert the efforts and attention of our management and technical personnel away from our business. Our inability to obtain or maintain our trademarks in our business, could adversely affect our reputation, goodwill, business prospectus, and results of operations.

50. We operate in a competitive business environment. Competition from existing players and new entrants and consequent pricing pressures and our inability to compete effectively could have a material adverse effect on our operating margins, business growth and prospects, financial condition and results of operations and may lead to a lower market share.

We operate in a competitive industry which is highly competitive business environment. For further details, see ‘Our Business -Competition’ on page 261. Some of our key competitors include entities such as Sanstar Limited, Gujarat Ambuja Exports Limited, Gulshan Polyols Limited and Sukhjit Starch and Chemicals Limited. Some of our competitors may have certain advantages, including greater financial, technical and, or, marketing resources, which could enhance their ability to finance growth, fund future expansion, and, or, operate in more diversified geographies. As a result, to remain competitive in the market we must, in addition, continuing growth strategies, continuously strive to reduce our costs and improve our operating efficiencies. If we fail to do so, it may have an adverse effect on our market share and results of operations. We cannot assure you that we can continue to effectively compete with such competitors in the future, and failure to compete effectively may have an adverse effect on our business, financial condition, and results of operations. Moreover, the competitive nature of the industry that we operate in may result in lower commissions and decreased profit margins, which may materially adversely affect our revenue and profitability.

51. Our contingent liabilities could materially and adversely affect our business, results of operations and financial condition.

While most of these contingent liabilities and the capital commitments have been incurred in the normal course of business, if these were to fully materialize or materialize at a level higher than we expect, it may materially and adversely impact our business, results of operations and financial condition. For further details, see 'Restated Financial Information' on page 315. Further, we cannot assure you that we will not incur similar or increased levels of contingent liabilities in the future.

52. Conflicts of interest may arise out of common pursuits between our Company, and entities forming part of promoter group and our group companies.

There are common pursuits between our Company and (i) our Corporate Promoter and (ii) entities forming part of our promoter group, i.e., Contessa Commercial Company Private Limited, Jiwansagar Promoters Private Limited and SRM Private Limited by virtue of engagement in similar business activities. Further, there are common pursuits amongst our Company and our Group Companies i.e., Contessa Commercial Company Private Limited, Jiwansagar Promoters Private Limited and SRM Private Limited by virtue of engagement in similar business activities. However, the objects of the memorandum of association of the aforementioned members of Promoter Group and Group Companies permits them to undertake business activities that are similar to our Company. Whilst we cannot assure you that a conflict of interest will not arise if these entities decide to pursue such activities in future, our Company shall adopt necessary procedures and practices as permitted by law and regulatory guidelines to address any instances of conflict of interest, if and when they may arise.

53. Inability to maintain adequate internal controls may affect our ability to effectively manage our operations which may adversely affect our business operations.

As we continue to expand, our success depends on our ability to effectively utilise our resources and maintain internal controls. We may need to modify and improve our financial and management control processes, and other internal controls and compliance procedures to meet our evolving business needs. If we are unable to improve our controls, systems and procedures, they may become ineffective and adversely affect our ability to manage our operations which may adversely affect our business operations. Our efforts in improving our internal control systems may not result in eliminating all risks. While there have been no instances of failure of internal controls which have had a material adverse effect on our business, in Fiscal 2025, Fiscal 2024, and Fiscal 2023, if we are not successful in discovering and eliminating weaknesses in our internal controls, our ability to manage our business effectively may materially and adversely be affected.

54. We may not be able to secure additional funding in the future. In the event our Company is unable to obtain sufficient funding, it may delay our growth plans and have a material adverse effect on our business, cash flows and financial condition.

From time to time, our Company's plans may change due to changing circumstances, new business developments, new challenges or investment opportunities or unforeseen contingencies. If our plans change or if we are required to adapt to changing circumstances or business realities, our Company may need to obtain additional financing to meet inter alia capital expenditure. Such financing may be in the form of debt funding, which may be raised through borrowings from commercial banks, issue of debentures or other debt securities. If we raise funds in future by incurring additional debt, the interest and debt repayment obligations of our Company will increase, and we may be subject to supplementary or new covenants, which could limit our ability to access cash flow from operations and, or, other means of financing. Moreover, these additional funds could come at a higher cost which may impact our profitability. Further, we cannot assure you that we will be able to obtain adequate financing to fund future capital requirements on acceptable terms, in time.

55. Our Company has paid dividends in the past. However, there cannot be any assurance that our Company will be in a position to pay dividends in the future.

Our Company has paid dividends during Fiscal 2023. However our Company's ability to pay dividends in the future will depend upon a variety of factors, including our profitability, general financial conditions, capital requirements, results of operations, contractual obligations, financing arrangements and overall financial position, applicable Indian legal restrictions, our Company's Articles of Association, and other factors considered relevant by the Board of Directors of our Company. Further, our Promoters and Promoter Group will continue to hold a significant portion of our post-Offer paid-up Equity Share capital and may have a significant ability to control the payment and/or the rate of dividends. Therefore, our Company cannot assure you that it will be able to declare dividends, of any particular amount or with any frequency in the future. For further details, see the 'Dividend Policy' at page 314.

56. This Red Herring Prospectus contains information from an industry report prepared by F&S which we have commissioned and paid for.

This Red Herring Prospectus includes industry related information that is derived from the F&S Report titled 'Industry Report on Maize Starch and Derivative Products' dated July 21, 2025 prepared by Frost & Sullivan, a research house, pursuant to an engagement letter with our Company dated June 21, 2024. F&S has advised that while it has taken due care and caution in preparing the commissioned report, which is based on information obtained from sources that it considers reliable (Information), it does not guarantee the accuracy, adequacy or completeness of the Information and disclaims responsibility for any errors or omissions in the Information or for the results obtained from the use of the Information. The F&S Report also highlights certain industry and market data, which may be subject to estimates and, or, assumptions. There are no standard data gathering methodologies in the industry in which we conduct our business, and methodologies and assumptions vary widely among different industry sources. Further, such estimates and, or, assumptions may change based on various factors. We cannot assure you that F&S's estimates and, or, assumptions are correct or will not change and, accordingly, our position in the market may differ from that presented in this Red Herring Prospectus. Additionally, some of the data and information in the F&S Report are also based on discussions / conversations with industry sources. Industry sources and publications are also prepared based on information as of specific dates and may not be current or reflect current trends. Industry sources and publications may also base their information on estimates, projections, forecasts and assumptions that may prove to be incorrect. Further, the F&S Report is not a recommendation to invest or disinvest in our Company. F&S has disclaimed all financial liability in case of any loss suffered on account of reliance on any information contained in the F&S Report.

57. We have included certain non-GAAP financial and operational measures related to our operations and financial performance that may vary from any standard methodology that may be applicable across the industry in which we operate, and which may not be comparable with financial, operational or industry related statistical information of similar nomenclature computed and presented by similar companies.

Certain non-GAAP financial measures and certain other statistical information relating to our operations and financial performance such as Earnings before Interest, Taxes, Depreciation and Amortization Expenses (EBITDA)/ EBITDA Margin/ / profit after tax (PAT) margin / return on equity, return on capital employed, fixed asset turnover ratio and cash conversion cycle ratio have been included in this Red Herring Prospectus. These non-GAAP Measures are not a measurement of our financial performance or liquidity under Ind AS, Indian GAAP, or IFRS and should not be considered in isolation or construed as an alternative to cash flows, profit/ (loss) for the year or any other measure of financial performance or as an indicator of our operating performance, liquidity, profitability or cash flows generated by operating, investing or financing activities derived in accordance with Ind AS, Indian GAAP, or IFRS. These non-GAAP financial measures and other information relating to our operations and financial performance may not be computed on the basis of any standard methodology that is applicable across the industry and therefore may not be comparable to financial measures and statistical information of similar nomenclature that may be computed and presented by other companies and are not measures of operating performance or liquidity defined by Ind AS and may not be comparable to similarly titled measures presented by other companies.

58. There are certain risks pertaining to the industry in which we operate. If these risks materialise it could adversely affect our business, and financial condition.

We are a manufacturer of maize based specialty products, and operate in the maize starch and derivative products industry. The F&S report identifies certain specific risks pertaining to the industry in which we operate – specifically, the F&S report identifies fluctuations in procurement price of maize and change in government policies of maize prices as key risks that pertain to the industry and our Company. Further, from a global maize starch market perspective the usage of other source derived starches such as potato starch, tapioca starch and rice starch might hamper the demand for maize starch. Concerns of health-conscious consumers for the non-GMO maize starch can further dampen the growth of maize starch market. These are factors that are beyond our Company's control and we cannot assure you that our business and financial condition will not be adversely affected if these risks materialise.

EXTERNAL RISKS

59. The occurrence of natural or man-made disasters could adversely affect our results of operations, cash flows and financial condition. Hostilities, terrorist attacks, civil unrest and other acts of violence could adversely affect the financial markets and our business.

The occurrence of natural disasters, including cyclones, storms, floods, earthquakes, tsunamis, fires, explosions, pandemic disease and man-made disasters, and acts of terrorism and military actions, could adversely affect our results of operations, cash flows or financial condition. Terrorist attacks and other acts of violence or war may adversely affect the Indian securities markets. In addition, any deterioration in international relations, especially between India and its neighbouring countries, may result in investor concern regarding regional stability which could adversely affect the price of the Equity Shares.

In addition, certain regions in India have witnessed terrorist attacks and civil disturbances and it is possible that future terrorist attacks or civil unrest, as well as other adverse social, economic and political events in India could have a negative effect on us. Transportation facilities, including vehicles, may be targets of terrorist attacks, which could lead to, among other things, increased insurance and security costs. Regional and global political or military tensions, or conflicts, strained or altered foreign relations, protectionism and acts of war or the potential for war could also cause damage and disruption to our business, which could materially and adversely affect our business, financial condition, cash flows and results of operations. Such incidents could also create a greater perception that investment in Indian companies involves a higher degree of risk and could have an adverse effect on our business and the market price of the Equity Shares. We may also face difficulty in accessing certain parts of India at certain times of the year or under adverse or inclement weather conditions.

60. A slowdown in economic growth in India or any financial turmoil in other countries could adversely affect our Company's business.

The structure of the Indian economy has undergone considerable changes in the last decade. These include the increasing importance of external trade and of external capital flows. Any slowdown in the growth of the Indian economy or manufacturing sector or any future volatility in global process could adversely affect our Company's business, financial condition and results of operations. India's economy could be adversely affected by a general rise in interest rates, fluctuations in currency exchange rates, adverse conditions affecting commodity and electricity prices or various other factors.

Further, conditions outside India, such as slowdowns in the economic growth of other countries, could have an impact on the growth of the Indian economy and government policy may change in response to such conditions. The Indian economy and financial markets are also significantly influenced by worldwide economic, financial and market conditions. Any financial turmoil, especially in the United States, France, Europe or China or Asian emerging market countries, may have an impact on the Indian economy. Although economic conditions differ in each country, investors' reactions to any significant developments in one country can have adverse effects on the financial and market conditions in other countries. A loss of investor confidence in the financial systems, particularly in other emerging markets, may cause increased volatility in Indian financial markets, and could have an adverse effect on our Company's business, financial condition and results of operations and the price of the Equity Shares. There are also concerns that tightening of monetary policy in emerging markets and some developed markets may lead to a moderation in global growth. In response to such developments, legislators and financial regulators in the United States and other jurisdictions, including India, have implemented a number of policy measures designed to add stability to the financial markets. However, the overall long-term impact of these measures and other legislative and regulatory efforts on the global financial markets is uncertain, and they may not have had the intended stabilizing effects. Any significant financial disruption in the future could have an adverse effect on our cost of funding, loan portfolio, business, future financial performance, and the trading price of the Equity Shares.

61. Adverse geopolitical conditions such as an increased tension between India and its neighbouring countries, and Russia-Ukraine conflict, could adversely affect our business, results of operations and financial condition.

Adverse geopolitical conditions such as increased tensions between India and its neighbouring countries, resulting in any military conflict in the region could adversely affect our business and operations. Such events may lead to countries including the Government of India imposing restrictions on the import or export of products or input materials, among others, and affect our ability to procure input materials required for our manufacturing operations. We could also be affected by the introduction of or increase in the levy of import tariffs in India, or in the countries to which we export our products, or changes in trade agreements between countries. For instance, the government of India imposed additional tariffs in the nature of countervailing duty and anti-dumping duty on a number of items imported from China. Any such measure which affects our input material supply or reciprocal duties imposed on Indian products by China or other countries may adversely affect our results of operations and financial condition. Such measures may also have an adverse impact on the products we export, including increasing the cost of such products, which may adversely affect our results of operations and financial condition. Further, prolonged Russia-Ukraine conflict that is currently impacting, inter alia, global trade, prices of oil and gas and could have an inflationary impact on the Indian economy.

62. Political, economic or other factors that are beyond our control may have an adverse effect on our business and results of operations.

We are incorporated in India, and our operations are located in India. As a result, we are highly dependent on prevailing economic conditions in India and other economies and our results of operations and cash flows are significantly affected by factors influencing the Indian and global economies.

Other factors that may adversely affect the economy, and hence our results of operations and cash flows, may include:

- a. high rates of inflation in India and in countries where we operate our business could increase our costs without proportionately increasing our revenue, and as such decrease our operating margins;
- b. any slowdown in economic growth or financial instability in India and in countries where we operate our business;
- c. any exchange rate fluctuations, the imposition of currency controls and restrictions on the right to convert or repatriate currency or export assets;
- d. any scarcity of credit or other financing, resulting in an adverse impact on economic conditions

- e. and scarcity of financing for our expansions;
- f. macroeconomic factors and central bank regulation, including in relation to interest rates movements which may in turn adversely impact our access to capital and increase our borrowing costs;
- g. prevailing income conditions among consumers and corporates;
- h. changes in existing laws and regulations in India and in countries where we operate our business;
- i. political instability, terrorism or military conflict in the region or globally, including in various neighbouring countries; and
- j. instability in financial markets.

63. Governmental actions and changes in policy could adversely affect our Company's business.

The Government of India and the State Governments in India have broad powers to affect the Indian economy and our business in numerous ways. Additionally, change in policies in the countries to which we export, may affect our business. Any change in the existing policies of Government of India and/or State Government, or foreign government policies, or new policies affecting the economy of India or any foreign country, where we operate our business, could adversely affect our business operations. Moreover, we also cannot assure you that the Central Government or State Governments in India, or foreign government in countries where we operate will not implement new regulations and policies which will require us to obtain additional approvals and licenses from the Government and other regulatory bodies or impose onerous requirements and conditions on our operations. We cannot predict the terms of any new policy, and we cannot assure you that such a policy will not be onerous. Such a new policy may also adversely affect our business, cash flows, financial condition and prospects.

64. Our Company may be affected by competition law in India and any adverse application or interpretation of the Competition Act could adversely affect our Company's business.

The Competition Act, 2002, of India, as amended (Competition Act) regulates practices having an appreciable adverse effect on competition (AAEC) in the relevant market in India. Under the Competition Act, any formal or informal arrangement, understanding or action in concert, which causes or is likely to cause an AAEC is considered void and results in the imposition of substantial penalties. Further, any agreement among competitors which directly or indirectly involves the determination of purchase or sale prices, limits or controls production, shares the market by way of geographical area or number of guests in the relevant market or directly or indirectly results in bid-rigging or collusive bidding is presumed to have an AAEC in the relevant market in India and is considered void. The Competition Act also prohibits abuse of a dominant position by any enterprise.

The Competition Act aims to, among others, prohibit all agreements and transactions which may have an AAEC in India. Consequently, all agreements entered into by us could be within the purview of the Competition Act. Further, the Competition Commission of India (CCI) has extra-territorial powers and can investigate any agreements, abusive conduct or combination occurring outside India if such agreement, conduct or combination has an AAEC in India. Our Company is currently not a party to an outstanding proceeding, nor has our Company received any notice in relation to non-compliance with the Competition Act and the agreements entered into by our Company. However, if our Company is affected, directly or indirectly, by the application or interpretation of any provision of the Competition Act, or any enforcement proceedings initiated by the CCI, or any adverse publicity that may be generated due to scrutiny or prosecution by the CCI or if any prohibition or substantial penalties are levied under the Competition Act, it would adversely affect the business, results of operations and prospects of our Company.

65. A downgrade in ratings of India, may affect the trading price of the Equity Shares.

Our Company's borrowing costs and our Company's access to the debt capital markets depend significantly on the credit ratings of India. India's sovereign rating is Baa3 with a "stable" outlook (Moody's), BBB- with a "positive" outlook (S&P) and BBB- with a "stable" outlook (Fitch). Any adverse revisions to India's credit ratings for domestic and international debt by international rating agencies may adversely impact our Company's ability to raise additional financing and the interest rates and other commercial terms at which such financing is available, including raising any overseas additional financing. A downgrading of India's credit ratings may occur, for example, upon a change of government tax or fiscal policy, which are outside our Company's control. This could have an adverse effect on our Company's ability to fund our Company's growth on favourable terms or at all, and consequently adversely affect our Company's business and financial performance and the price of the Equity Shares.

66. Financial instability, economic developments and volatility in securities markets in other countries may also cause the price of the Equity Shares to decline.

The Indian economy and its securities markets are influenced by economic developments and volatility in securities markets in other countries. Investors' reactions to developments in one country may have adverse effects on the market price of securities of companies located in other countries, including India. For instance, the economic downturn in the U.S. and several European countries during a part of Fiscals 2008 and 2009 adversely affected market prices in the global securities markets, including India. Following the United Kingdom's exit from the European Union (Brexit), there still remains significant uncertainty around the impact of Brexit on the general economic conditions in the United Kingdom and the European Union and any consequential impact on global financial markets. In addition, China is one of India's major trading partners and there are rising concerns of a possible slowdown in the Chinese economy as well as a strained relationship with India, which could have an adverse impact on the trade relations between the two countries. Further, the collapse of the Silicon Valley Bank during Fiscal 2023 also caused economic downturn. Negative economic developments, such as rising fiscal or trade deficits, or a default on national debt, in other emerging market countries may also affect investor confidence and cause increased volatility in Indian securities markets and indirectly affect the Indian economy in general. A loss of investor confidence in the financial systems of other emerging markets may cause increased volatility in Indian financial markets and the Indian economy in general. Any worldwide financial instability could also have a negative impact on the Indian economy, including the movement of exchange rates and interest rates in India. Any financial disruption could have an adverse effect on our business, future financial performance, shareholders' equity and the price of the Equity Shares.

67. Changing laws, rules and regulations and legal uncertainties in India and other countries may adversely affect our business and financial performance.

The regulatory and policy environment in which we operate is evolving and subject to change. Such changes may adversely affect our business, results of operations and prospects, to the extent that we are unable to suitably respond to and comply with any such changes in applicable law and policy. Our business and financial performance could be adversely affected by any unexpected or onerous requirements or regulations resulting from the introduction of any changes in laws or interpretation of existing laws, or the promulgation of new laws, rules and regulations. Unfavorable changes in or interpretations of existing, or the promulgation of new, laws, rules and regulations including foreign investment and stamp duty laws governing our business and operations could result in us being deemed to be in contravention of such laws and may require us to apply for additional approvals. For instance, the Supreme Court of India has, in a decision clarified the components of basic wages, which need to be considered by companies while making provident fund payments. Any such decisions in future or any further changes in interpretation of laws may have an impact on our results of operations.

For instance, the Government of India has recently introduced (a) the Code on Wages, 2019; (b) the Code on Social Security, 2020; (c) the Occupational Safety, Health and Working Conditions Code, 2020; and (d) the Industrial Relations Code, 2020 which consolidate, subsume and replace numerous existing central labour legislations. While the provisions of these codes have not yet been fully promulgated and notified, we are yet to determine the impact of all or some of such laws on our business and operations which may increase our expenses and affect our results of operations and financial condition. Uncertainty in the applicability, interpretation or implementation of any amendment to, or change in, governing law, regulation or policy, including by reason of an absence, or a limited body, of administrative or judicial precedent may be time consuming as well as costly for us to resolve and may impact the viability of our current businesses or restrict our ability to grow our businesses in the future.

68. Investors outside India may not be able to enforce any judgment of a foreign court against us, except by way of a suit in India.

Our Company is a limited liability company incorporated under the laws of India. All of our directors and executive officers are residents of India. Most of our Company's assets are located in India. As a result, it may be difficult for investors to effect service of process upon us or such persons in India or to enforce judgments obtained against our Company or such parties outside India. India is not a party to any international treaty in relation to the recognition or enforcement of foreign judgments. India has reciprocal recognition and enforcement of judgments in civil and commercial matters with a limited number of jurisdictions, including the United Kingdom, Singapore, UAE, and Hong Kong. A judgment from certain specified courts located in a jurisdiction with reciprocity must meet certain requirements of the Code of Civil Procedure, 1908, as amended (Civil Procedure Code). The United States has not been notified as a reciprocating territory.

In order to be enforceable, a judgment obtained in a jurisdiction which India recognizes as a reciprocating territory must meet certain requirements of the Civil Procedure Code. Section 13 of the Civil Procedure Code provides that foreign judgments shall be conclusive regarding any matter directly adjudicated on except (i) where the judgment has not been pronounced by a court of competent jurisdiction; (ii) where the judgment has not been given on the merits of the case; (iii) where it appears on the face of the proceedings that the judgment is founded on an incorrect view of international law or refusal to recognize the law of India in cases to which such law is applicable; (iv) where the proceedings in which the judgment was obtained were opposed to natural justice; (v) where the judgment has been obtained by fraud; or (vi) where the judgment sustains a claim founded on a breach of any law then in force in India. Under the Civil Procedure Code, a court in India shall, on the production of any document purporting to be a certified copy of a foreign judgment, presume that the judgment was pronounced by a court of competent jurisdiction, unless the contrary appears on record; such presumption may be displaced by proving want of jurisdiction. The Civil Procedure Code only permits the enforcement of monetary decrees, not being in the nature of any amounts payable in respect of taxes, or other charges of a like nature or in respect of a fine or other penalty and does not provide for the enforcement of arbitration awards even if such awards are enforceable as a decree or judgment. A foreign judgment rendered by a superior court (as defined under the Civil Procedure Code) in any jurisdiction outside India which the Government of India has by notification declared to be a reciprocating territory, may be enforced in India by proceedings in execution as if the judgment had been rendered by a competent court in India. Judgments or decrees from jurisdictions which do not have reciprocal recognition with India cannot be enforced by proceedings in execution in India.

Therefore, a final judgment for the payment of money rendered by any court in a non-reciprocating territory for civil liability, whether or not predicated solely upon the general laws of the non-reciprocating territory, would not be enforceable in India. Even if an investor obtained a judgment in such a jurisdiction against us, our officers or directors, it may be required to institute a new proceeding in India and obtain a decree from an Indian court. However, the party in whose favour such final judgment is rendered may bring a new suit in a competent court in India based on a final judgment that has been obtained in the United States or other such jurisdiction within 3 years of obtaining such final judgment. It is unlikely that an Indian court would award damages on the same basis as a foreign court if an action is brought in India. Moreover, it is unlikely that an Indian court would award damages to the extent awarded in a final judgment rendered outside India if it believes that the amount of damages awarded were excessive or inconsistent with public policy in Indian. In addition, any person seeking to enforce a foreign judgment in India is required to obtain the prior approval of the RBI to repatriate any amount recovered, and we cannot assure that such approval will be forthcoming within a reasonable period of time, or at all, or that conditions of such approvals would be acceptable. Such amount may also be subject to income tax in accordance with applicable law.

Consequently, it may not be possible to enforce in an Indian court any judgment obtained in a foreign court, or effect service of process outside of India, against Indian companies, entities, their directors and executive officers and any other parties resident in India. Additionally, there is no assurance that a suit brought in an Indian court in relation to a foreign judgment will be disposed of in a timely manner.

69. Investors may be subject to Indian taxes arising out of capital gains on the sale of the Equity Shares.

Under current Indian tax laws, unless specifically exempted, capital gains arising from the sale of equity shares in an Indian company are generally taxable in India. The Income Tax Act levies taxes on such long-term capital gains exceeding ₹ 125,000 arising from sale of equity shares on or after April 1, 2018, while continuing to exempt the unrealized capital gains earned up to January 31, 2018 on such equity shares subject to specific conditions. Accordingly, you may be subject to payment of long-term capital gains tax in India, in addition to payment of a securities transaction tax (STT), on the sale of any Equity Shares held for more than 12 months. STT will be levied on and collected by a domestic stock exchange on which the Equity Shares are sold. Any gain realized on the sale of Equity Shares held for more than 12 months, which are sold other than on a recognized stock exchange and on which no STT has been paid, will be subject to long term capital gains tax in India.

Further, any gain realized on the sale of listed equity shares held for a period of 12 months or less will be subject to short term capital gains tax in India. Capital gains arising from the sale of the Equity Shares will be exempted from taxation in India in cases where the exemption from taxation in India is provided under a treaty between India and the country of which the seller is resident. Generally, Indian tax treaties do not limit India's ability to impose tax on capital gains. As a result, residents of other countries may be liable for tax in India as well as in their own jurisdiction on a gain upon the sale of the Equity Shares.

70. Significant differences exist between Ind AS and other accounting principles, such as U.S. GAAP and IFRS, which may be material to the Restated Financial Information prepared and presented in accordance with SEBI ICDR Regulations contained in this Red Herring Prospectus.

We have not attempted to quantify the impact of U.S. GAAP or any other system of accounting principles on the Restated Financial Information, prepared and presented in accordance with Ind AS for Fiscals 2025, 2024, and 2023, included in this Red Prospectus, nor do we provide a reconciliation of our financial statements to those of U.S. GAAP or any other accounting principles. U.S. GAAP differs in significant respects from Ind AS. Accordingly, the degree to which the Restated Financial Information included in this Red Herring Prospectus will provide meaningful information is entirely dependent on the reader's level of familiarity with Ind AS and SEBI ICDR Regulations. Any reliance by persons not familiar with Indian accounting practices on the financial disclosures presented in this Red Herring Prospectus should accordingly be limited. Additionally, Ind AS differs in certain respects from IFRS and therefore financial statements prepared under Ind AS may be substantially different from financial statements prepared under IFRS.

71. Rights of shareholders of companies under Indian law may be more limited than under the laws of other jurisdictions.

Our Articles of Association, composition of our Board, Indian laws governing our corporate affairs, the validity of corporate procedures, directors' fiduciary duties, responsibilities and liabilities, and shareholders' rights may differ from those that would apply to a company in another jurisdiction. Shareholders' rights under Indian law may not be as extensive and wide-spread as shareholders' rights under the laws of other countries or jurisdictions. Investors may face challenges in asserting their rights as shareholder our Company than as a shareholder of an entity in another jurisdiction.

72. Foreign exchange risks could affect the proceeds received by Equity Shareholders outside India.

On listing, the Equity Shares will be quoted in Indian Rupees on the NSE and BSE. Any dividends in respect of the Equity Shares will also be paid in Indian Rupees and subsequently converted into the relevant foreign currency for repatriation, if required. Any adverse movement in currency exchange rates during the time that it takes to undertake such conversion may reduce the net dividend to foreign investors. In addition, any adverse movement in currency exchange rates during a delay in repatriating outside India the proceeds from a sale of the Equity Shares, for example, because of a delay in regulatory approvals that may be required for the sale of the Equity Shares may reduce the proceeds received by Equity Shareholders. For example, the exchange rate between the Indian Rupee and the U.S. dollar has fluctuated in recent years and may continue to fluctuate substantially in the future, which may have an adverse effect on the returns on the Equity Shares, independent of our operating results.

73. The requirements of being a listed company may strain our resources.

Our Company is not a publicly listed company and have not, historically, been subjected to the increased scrutiny of our Company's affairs by shareholders, regulators and the public at large that is associated with being a listed company. As a listed company, our Company will incur significant legal, accounting, corporate governance and other expenses that our Company did not incur as an unlisted company. Our Company will be subject to the SEBI Listing Regulations, which will require our Company to file audited annual and unaudited quarterly reports with respect to our Company's business and financial condition. If our Company experience any delays, our Company may fail to satisfy our Company's reporting obligations and / or our Company may not be able to readily determine and accordingly report any changes in our Company's results of operations as promptly as other listed companies. Further, as a publicly listed company, our Company will need to maintain and improve the effectiveness of our Company's disclosure controls and procedures and internal control over financial reporting, including keeping adequate records of daily transactions. In order to maintain and improve the effectiveness of our Company's disclosure controls and procedures and internal control over financial reporting, significant resources and management attention will be required. As a result, our Company's management's attention may be diverted from our Company's business concerns, which may adversely affect the business, prospects, results of operations and financial condition of our Company.

74. The Equity Shares have never been publicly traded and the Offer may not result in an active or liquid market for the Equity Shares. Further, the price of the Equity Shares may be volatile, and you may be unable to resell the Equity Shares at or above the Offer Price.

Prior to the Offer, there has been no public market for the Equity Shares, and an active trading market on the Indian Stock Exchanges may not develop or be sustained after the Offer. Listing and quotation do not guarantee that a market for the Equity Shares will develop, or if developed, there will be liquidity of such market for the Equity Shares. The Offer Price of the Equity Shares may bear no relationship to the market price of the Equity Shares after the Offer.

The market price of the Equity Shares after the Offer can be volatile as a result of several factors beyond our Company's control, including volatility in the Indian and global securities markets, our results of operations, the performance of our competitors, developments in the Indian and global industry in which we operate, changing perceptions in the market about investments in this sector in India, investor perceptions of our future performance, adverse media reports about us or our sector, changes in the estimates of our performance or recommendations by financial analysts, announcements by third parties or governmental entities of significant claims or proceedings against us, announcements by us or our competitors of significant acquisitions, strategic alliances, joint operations or capital commitments, significant developments in India's economic liberalisation and deregulation policies, and significant developments in India's fiscal regulations. In addition, the Stock Exchanges may experience significant price and volume fluctuations, which may have a material adverse effect on the market price of the Equity Shares.

General or industry specific market conditions or stock performance or domestic or international macroeconomic and geopolitical factors unrelated to our performance may also affect the price of the Equity Shares. In particular, the stock market as a whole in the past has experienced extreme price and volume fluctuations that have affected the market price of many companies in ways that may have been unrelated to the companies' operating performances. For these reasons, investors should not rely on recent trends to predict future share prices, results of operations or cash flow and financial condition.

75. There is no guarantee that the Equity Shares will be listed on the BSE and the NSE in a timely manner or at all.

There is no guarantee that the Equity Shares will be listed on the BSE and the NSE in a timely manner or at all. In accordance with Indian law, permission for listing and trading of the Equity Shares will not be granted until after certain actions have been completed in relation to this Offer and until Allotment of Equity Shares pursuant to this Offer. In accordance with current regulations and circulars issued by SEBI, the Equity Shares are required to be listed on the BSE and the NSE within such time as mandated under UPI Circulars, subject to any change in the prescribed timeline in this regard. However, we cannot assure you that the trading in the Equity Shares will commence in a timely manner or at all. Any failure or delay in obtaining final listing and trading approvals may restrict your ability to dispose of your Equity Shares. Further, there can be no assurance that the Equity Shares once listed will continue to remain listed on the Stock Exchanges. Indian laws permit a company to delist its equity shares on compliance with prescribed procedures including the requirement to obtain the approval of its shareholders. Further, certain instances of non-compliance with applicable laws can result in the delisting of the Equity Shares. We cannot assure you, therefore, that the Equity Shares, once listed, will continue to remain listed.

76. You may not be able to immediately sell any of the Equity Shares you subscribe to in this Offer on an Indian Stock Exchange.

The Equity Shares are proposed to be listed on the Stock Exchanges. Pursuant to Indian regulations, certain actions must be completed before the Equity Shares can be listed and commence trading, including the crediting of the investor's demat accounts within the timeline specified under applicable law. Further, in accordance with Indian law, permission for listing and trading of the Equity Shares will not be granted until after certain actions have been completed in relation to this Offer and until Allotment of Equity Shares pursuant to this Offer. The Allotment of Equity Shares in the Offer and the credit of Equity Shares to the investor's demat account with the relevant depository participant and listing is expected to be completed within the period as may be prescribed under applicable law. Any failure or delay in obtaining the approvals or otherwise commence trading in the Equity Shares would restrict investors' ability to dispose of their Equity Shares. Our Company cannot assure you that the Equity Shares will be credited to investor's demat accounts, or that trading in the Equity Shares will commence, within the prescribed time periods or at all which could restrict your ability to dispose of the Equity Shares.

77. Any further issuance of Equity Shares, or convertible securities or other equity linked instruments by us may dilute your shareholding.

Our Company may be required to finance our growth through future equity offerings. Any future equity issuances by our Company, including a primary offering of Equity Shares, convertible securities or securities linked to Equity Shares including through exercise of employee stock options, may lead to the dilution of investors' shareholdings in our Company. Any future equity issuances by us or sales of the Equity Shares by the Promoters may adversely affect the trading price of the Equity Shares, which may lead to other adverse consequences including difficulty in raising capital through offering of the Equity Shares or incurring additional debt. In addition, any perception by investors that such issuances or sales might occur may also affect the market price of the Equity Shares. There can be no assurance that we will not issue Equity Shares, convertible securities or securities linked to Equity Shares or that the Shareholders will not dispose of, pledge or encumber their Equity Shares in the future.

78. Sale of Equity Shares by our Promoters and Promoter Group in future may adversely affect the market price of the Equity Shares.

After the completion of the Offer, our Promoters and Promoter Group will own a significant percentage of our Company's issued Equity Shares. Sale of a large number of the Equity Shares by the Promoters could adversely affect the market price of the Equity Shares. Similarly, the perception that any such primary or secondary sale may occur, could adversely affect the market price of the Equity Shares. No assurance can be given that our Promoters will not dispose of, pledge or encumber their Equity Shares in the future.

79. The determination of the Price Band and Offer Price is based on various factors and assumptions and the Offer Price of the Equity Shares may not be indicative of the market price of the Equity Shares after the Offer. Further, the current market price of some securities listed pursuant to certain previous issues managed by the BRLMs is below the respective issue price.

The determination of the Price Band is based on various factors and assumptions and will be determined by our Company in consultation with the BRLMs. Furthermore, the Offer Price of the Equity Shares will be determined by our Company in consultation with the Book Running Lead Managers through the Book Building Process. These will be based on numerous factors, including factors as described under 'Basis for the Offer Price' beginning on page 137 and may not be indicative of the market price for the Equity Shares after the Offer. In addition to the above, the current market price of securities listed pursuant to certain previous initial public offerings managed by the Book Running Lead Managers is below their respective issue price. For further details, see 'Other Regulatory and Statutory Disclosures - Price information of past issues handled by the BRLMs' on page 445. The factors that could affect the market price of the Equity Shares include, among others, broad market trends, our financial performance and results post-listing, and other factors beyond our Company's control. Our Company cannot assure you that an active market will develop, or sustained trading will take place in the Equity Shares or provide any assurance regarding the price at which the Equity Shares will be traded after listing.

80. QIBs and Non-Institutional Investors are not permitted to withdraw or lower their Bids (in terms of quantity of Equity Shares or the Bid Amount) at any stage after submitting a Bid.

Pursuant to the regulations under the SEBI Act, QIBs and Non-Institutional Investors are not permitted to withdraw or lower their Bids (in terms of quantity of Equity Shares or the Bid Amount) at any stage after submitting a Bid. Retail Individual Investors can revise their Bids during the Bid/Offer Period and withdraw their Bids until Bid/Offer Closing Date. While our Company is required to complete Allotment pursuant to the Offer within 3 Working Days from the Bid/Offer Closing Date, events affecting the Bidders' decision to invest in the Equity Shares, including material adverse changes in international or national monetary policy, financial, political or economic conditions, our business, results of operation or financial condition may arise between the date of submission of the Bid and Allotment. Our Company may complete the Allotment of the Equity Shares even if such events occur, and such events limit the Bidders' ability to sell the Equity Shares Allotted pursuant to the Offer or cause the trading price of the Equity Shares to decline on listing.

81. Investors may be restricted in their ability to exercise pre-emptive rights under Indian law and thereby may suffer future dilution of their ownership position.

Under the Companies Act, a company having share capital and incorporated in India must offer its holders of equity shares pre-emptive rights to subscribe and pay for a proportionate number of shares to maintain their existing ownership percentages before the issuance of any new equity shares, unless the pre-emptive rights have been waived by adoption of a special resolution by holders of three-fourths of the equity shares voting on such resolution.

However, if the law of the jurisdiction the investors are in, does not permit them to exercise their pre-emptive rights without our Company filing an offering document or registration statement with the applicable authority in such jurisdiction, the investors will be unable to exercise their pre-emptive rights unless our Company makes such a filing. If we elect not to file a registration statement, the new securities may be issued to a custodian, who may sell the securities for the investor's benefit. The value such custodian receives on the sale of such securities and the related transaction costs cannot be predicted. In addition, to the extent that the investors are unable to exercise pre-emptive rights granted in respect of the Equity Shares held by them, their proportional interest in our Company would be reduced.

82. Under Indian law, foreign investors are subject to investment restrictions that limit our Company's ability to attract foreign investors, which may adversely impact the trading price of the Equity Shares.

Under foreign exchange regulations currently in force in India, transfer of shares between non-residents and residents are freely permitted (subject to certain exceptions) if they comply with the valuation and reporting requirements specified by the RBI. If a transfer of shares is not in compliance with such requirements and does not fall under any of the exceptions specified by the RBI, then the RBI's prior approval is required. In addition, shareholders who seek to convert Rupee proceeds from a sale of shares in India into foreign currency and repatriate that foreign currency from India require a no-objection or a tax clearance certificate from the Indian income tax authorities. Our Company cannot assure you that any required approval from the RBI or any other Government agency can be obtained on any particular terms or at all. For further details, see 'Restrictions on Foreign Ownership of Indian Securities' beginning on page 483.

Further, in accordance with Press Note No. 3 (2020 Series), dated April 17, 2020, issued by the DPIIT and the FEMA Rules, any investment, subscription, purchase or sale of equity instruments by entities, investments under the foreign direct investment route by entities of a country which shares land border with India or where the beneficial owner of an investment into India is situated in or is a citizen of any such country will require prior approval of the Government of India. Further, in the event of transfer of ownership of any existing or future foreign direct investment in an entity in India, directly or indirectly, resulting in the beneficial ownership falling within the aforesaid restriction/ purview, such subsequent change in the beneficial ownership will also require approval of the Government of India. Our Company cannot assure you that any required approval from the RBI or any other governmental agency can be obtained on any particular terms, in a timely manner or at all.

83. A third party could be prevented from acquiring control of our Company because of anti-takeover provisions under Indian law.

There are provisions in Indian law that may delay, deter or prevent a future takeover or change in control of our Company, even if a change in control would result in the purchase of your Equity Shares at a premium to the market price or would otherwise be beneficial to you. Such provisions may discourage or prevent certain types of transactions involving actual or threatened change in control of our Company. Under the SEBI Takeover Regulations, an acquirer has been defined as any person who, directly or indirectly, acquires or agrees to acquire shares or voting rights or control over a company, whether individually or acting in concert with others. Although these provisions have been formulated to ensure that interests of investors/shareholders are protected, these provisions may also discourage a third party from attempting to take control of our Company. Consequently, even if a potential takeover of our Company would result in the purchase of the Equity Shares at a premium to their market price or would otherwise be beneficial to its stakeholders, it is possible that such a takeover would not be attempted.

- 84. *There are restrictions on daily movements in the trading price of the Equity Shares, which may adversely affect a shareholder's ability to sell Equity Shares or the price at which Equity Shares can be sold at a particular point in time.

Following the listing of Equity Shares through the Offer, the Equity Shares will be subject to a daily "circuit breaker" imposed on listed companies by the Stock Exchanges, which does not allow transactions beyond certain volatility in the trading price of the Equity Shares. This circuit breaker operates independently of the index-based market-wide circuit breakers generally imposed by SEBI on Indian Stock Exchanges. The percentage limit on the Equity Shares' circuit breaker will be set by the Stock Exchanges based on historical volatility in the price and trading volume of the Equity Shares. The Stock Exchanges are not required to inform our Company of the percentage limit of the circuit breaker, and they may change the limit without our knowledge. This circuit breaker would effectively limit the upward and downward movements in the trading price of the Equity Shares beyond the circuit breaker limit set by the Stock Exchanges. As a result of this circuit breaker, there can be no assurance regarding the ability of shareholders to sell Equity Shares or the price at which shareholders may be able to sell their Equity Shares.

- 85. *The Offer Price, market capitalisation to total income multiple, market capitalisation to earnings multiple, and price to earnings ratio based on the Offer Price of our Company, may not be indicative of the market price of the Equity Shares on listing.

Our total income, and profit after tax for Fiscal 2025 was ₹ 9,175.76 million, and ₹ 476.68 million, respectively. Our market capitalisation (based on the Offer Price) to total income (Fiscal 2025) multiple is [●] times; our market capitalisation (based on the Offer Price) to earnings (Fiscal 2025) multiple is [●] times; and our price to earnings ratio (based on profit after tax for Fiscal 2025) is [●] at the upper end of the Price Band.

The Offer Price will be determined by our Company in consultation with the BRLMs based on various factors and assumptions. Furthermore, the Offer Price of the Equity Shares will be determined by our Company in consultation with the BRLMs through the Book Building Process, and will be based on numerous factors, including factors as described under 'Basis for the Offer Price' beginning on page 137 and may not be indicative of the market price for the Equity Shares after the Offer. Accordingly, the Offer Price, multiples and ratio may not be indicative of the market price of the Equity Shares on listing or thereafter. The factors that could affect the market price of the Equity Shares include, among other, broad market trends, our financial performance and results post-listing, and other factors beyond our Company's control. Our Company cannot assure you that an active market will develop, or sustained trading will take place in the Equity Shares or provide any assurance regarding the price at which the Equity Shares will be traded after listing.

- 86. *Our Company may be subject to pre-emptive surveillance measures like Additional Surveillance Measure (ASM) and Graded Surveillance Measures (GSM) by the Stock Exchanges in order to enhance market integrity and safeguard the interest of investors, once the Equity Shares of our Company are listed.

The Equity Shares of our Company may be subject to general market conditions which may include significant price and volume fluctuations, once the Equity Shares of our Company are listed. The price of the Equity Shares may fluctuate after the Offer due to several factors such as volatility in the Indian and global securities market, our performance and profitability, or any other political or economic factor. The occurrence of these factors may lead to the surveillance measures stipulated by SEBI and the Stock Exchanges for placing securities under the GSM or ASM framework being triggered in relation to the Equity Shares. If the Equity Shares are covered under such surveillance measures implemented by SEBI and the Stock Exchanges, we may be subject to certain additional restrictions in relation to trading of the Equity Shares such as limiting trading frequency (for example, trading either allowed once in a week or a month) or freezing of price on upper side of trading which may have an adverse effect on the market price of the Equity Shares or may in general cause disruptions in the development of an active trading market for the Equity Shares.

We may have to revise our funding requirements and deployment on account of a variety of factors such as financial and market conditions, macro-economic factors, change in government policy, changes in business and strategy, competition, and other external factors such as changes in the business environment and interest or exchange rate fluctuations, which may not be within the control of our management.

In the event that the estimated utilisation of the Net Proceeds in a scheduled fiscal year is not completely met, due to factors such as (i) the timing of completion of the Offer; (ii) market conditions outside the control of our Company; and (iii) any other economic, business and commercial considerations, then such unutilised amounts shall be utilised (in part or full) in the next fiscal year, as may be determined by our Company, in accordance with applicable laws. Subject to applicable law, in the event of any increase in the actual utilization of funds earmarked for the purposes set forth above, such additional funds for a particular activity will be met by way of funding means available to us, including from internal accruals and any additional equity and/or debt arrangements. Further, if the actual utilisation towards any of the Objects is lower than the proposed deployment such balance will be used towards general corporate purposes, provided that the total amount to be utilised towards general corporate purposes will not exceed 25% of the Gross Proceeds in accordance with Regulation 7(2) of the SEBI ICDR Regulations.

Further, our Company may decide to accelerate the estimated Objects ahead of the schedule specified above. However, in the event that estimated utilization out of the Net Proceeds in a scheduled Fiscal being not undertaken in its entirety, the remaining Net Proceeds shall be utilized in subsequent Fiscals, as may be decided by our Company, in accordance with applicable laws.

Means of finance

Our Company proposes to fund the requirements of the Objects of the Offer from the Net Proceeds. Accordingly, there is no requirement to make firm arrangements of finance through verifiable means towards at least 75% of the stated means of finance, excluding the amount to be raised from the Fresh Issue and existing identifiable internal accruals, as required under Regulation 7(1)(e) of the SEBI ICDR Regulations. Further, if the actual utilisation towards the Objects is lower than the proposed deployment such balance will be used towards general corporate purposes, provided that the total amount to be utilised towards general corporate purposes will not exceed 25% of the Gross Proceeds in accordance with Regulation 7(2) of the SEBI ICDR Regulations.

Details of the Objects of the Fresh Issue

Our Board at its meeting held on August 6, 2025, approved the proposed Objects and the respective amounts proposed to be utilized from the Net Proceeds for the Objects.

1. Repayment and / or pre-payment, in full or in part, of certain of our outstanding borrowings availed by our Company

Our Company has entered into various borrowing arrangements from time to time with banks and other lenders, which include term loans and working capital facilities, including fund based and non-fund based borrowings. For details of our Company's outstanding financial indebtedness, see 'Financial Indebtedness' on page 378.

As of June 30, 2025, our total sanctioned and outstanding indebtedness was ₹ 8,734.60 million and ₹ 5,611.53 million, respectively. Our Company proposes to utilise an estimated amount of ₹ 1,590.00 million from the Net Proceeds towards full or partial repayment or pre-payment of certain borrowings availed by our Company. Our Company may avail further loans after the date of this Red Herring Prospectus. Given the nature of these borrowings and the terms of repayment or pre-payment, the aggregate outstanding amounts under these borrowings may vary from time to time and our Company may, in accordance with the relevant repayment schedule, repay or refinance some of our existing borrowings or avail of additional credit facilities. In terms of our Company's borrowing arrangements, prepayment of certain indebtedness may attract prepayment charges. Such prepayment charges, as applicable, will also be funded out of the Net Proceeds. If the Net Proceeds are insufficient for payment of pre-payment penalty, interest or other related costs, as applicable, such payment shall be met through the internal accruals of our Company. If at the time of the Red Herring Prospectus, any of the below-mentioned loans are repaid in part or full or refinanced or if any additional credit facilities are availed or drawn down or if the limits under the working capital borrowings are increased, then our Company may utilise the Net Proceeds for part or full pre-payment / repayment of any such refinanced facilities or repayment of any additional facilities obtained by our Company and details of such borrowings will be included in the Red Herring Prospectus. However, the aggregate amount to be utilised from the Net Proceeds towards repayment or pre-payment of certain of our borrowings (including refinanced or additional facilities availed, if any), in part or full, would not exceed ₹ 1,590.00 million. We believe that such repayment/ pre-payment will help deleverage our Company, reduce our debt servicing costs, assist us in maintaining a favourable debt equity ratio, improve our availability to raise further resources and enable utilisation of our Company's internal accruals for further investment in our Company's business growth and expansion. Additionally, our Company believes that our capacity to leverage will improve our ability to raise further resources in the future to fund potential business development opportunities and plans to grow and expand our business.

The prevailing rate of interest on the outstanding secured borrowings of our Company, as on June 30, 2025, ranged from 7.70% p.a. to 11.00% p.a.

Out of the fresh issue of up to ₹ 2,100.00 million, up to ₹ 1,590.00 million is proposed to be utilized for the purpose of repayment of borrowings and the incremental increase of equity and securities premium to the tune of ₹ 510.00 million in the capital employed would have reduced the existing ROCE of 14.17% as on March 31, 2025.

Macroeconomic Overview – Global

Real GDP growth and forecasts – Global and Key Regions

After growing by 6.6% in 2021, global economic expansion decelerated to 3.6% in 2022 amid the Russo-Ukrainian war and further eased to 3.5% in 2023. Stabilizing inflation and the initial phase of monetary easing helped sustain a 3.3% growth rate in 2024. However, escalating trade tensions are expected to further slow growth, with global GDP projected to rise by just 2.8% in 2025. Despite ongoing geopolitical challenges, emerging markets are projected to outperform advanced economies through 2029, fuelled by technological progress and favourable demographic trends. In contrast, developed nations continue to grapple with supply chain disruptions, persistent inflation, and the complexities of energy transition, underscoring the importance for investors to focus on long-term opportunities.

In the Middle East, Saudi Arabia and the United Arab Emirates will face near-term growth headwinds amidst volatile oil prices, however, long-term growth momentum will remain steady as oil revenues get redirected to non-oil sectors. As these nations prioritize economic diversification, growth of their manufacturing and services industries will drive their investment attractiveness over the long-term.

In Africa, short-term growth outlook is vulnerable to risks such as geopolitical instability, extreme climate events, and growing debt servicing costs. However, over long run, abundant natural resources trade, demographic dividend, and improving fiscal health will foster growth.

With a 6.2% growth forecast for FY2026, India continues to be a global growth frontrunner. While global tariff war tensions are a key downside, steady government spending and buoyant domestic demand will be the key growth drivers.

During the FY2023- FY2029 period, India's real GDP growth is likely to average at 7.0% per annum stemming from factors such as demographic dividend, steadily rising urban household income levels, technological advancements, and climate change mitigation policies. By 2030, a strong growth outlook will see India overtaking Germany and Japan to become the 3rd largest economy globally.

Overview of Agriculture Statistics and Performance

As per the Statistical Report on Value of Output from Agriculture and Allied Sectors 2011-12 to 2023-24, the FY2023 total crop production increased by 9.1% as compared to the previous year (at current price levels) rising from INR 30.8 lakh crore to INR 33.6 lakh crore, whereas at constant 2011-12 prices it rose by 1.3% from INR 15.7 lakh crore to INR 15.9 lakh crore. Similarly, in FY2024, the value of India's maize production rose by 1.1% at current prices compared to FY2023.

In FY2023, production in agriculture and allied sectors witnessed a record jump. While population growth and rising exports were the key demand-side drivers; factors such as good climate conditions, improving quality of irrigation infrastructure, the Green Revolution in Eastern India were the supply-side drivers. In recent years, India's expanding policy and infrastructure support through "Krishi Nivesh" portal, Paramparagat Krishi Vikas Yojana, Pradhan Mantri Gram Sinchai Yojana, and Sansad Adarsh Gram Yojana, as well as the Krishi Udaan Scheme have played an essential role in boosting agriculture sector growth. In FY2024, production of agricultural commodities as well as maize slowed due to delayed and poor monsoon conditions. In FY2025, however, strong monsoons ensured that overall agricultural production maintained a steady upward climb.

Maize production in India rose by 12.2% in FY2025, owing to improved seed availability, expansion of storage and marketing infrastructure, rising public-private partnerships, and conducive agricultural subsidies. The index number for maize production crossed 200 in FY2022 and also recorded a consistent rise between FY2020 and FY2023.

Maize is an important crop in India responsible for the employment of over 650 million farmers. As of Local Marketing Year 2022/23 (November 2022 to October 2023), India is the sixth¹ largest maize producer globally. India's maize production grew at a CAGR of 7.3% between FY2020 and FY2025, rising from 28.8 million tonnes to 42.3 million tonnes.

The annual increase in production in FY2025 stood at 12.2%, primarily driven by a significant number of farmers choosing to plant maize instead of pulses and cotton, in response to a delayed and slow-progressing monsoon. In order to meet the country's domestic demand, India will need to increase its maize production by 10 million tonnes over the next five years compared to FY2023's 38.1 million tonnes. To meet this target, India must systematically channel investments into its national maize supply chains and distribution networks.

However, India witnessed below average rainfall in 2023 due to the El Nino adversely impacting maize output. As a result, FY2024 maize production fell to 37.7 million tonnes, posting a 1.1% annual contraction. Climatic phenomenon such as El Nino are likely to impact India's kharif season agricultural production. Erratic monsoons are likely to have a significant impact on country's rice, moong, urad, soybean, and sugarcane production.

¹ According to Grain: World Markets and Trade April 2023, United States Department of Agriculture

Consequently, a drop in kharif production could push up food inflation and increase dependency on agricultural imports

India's contribution to global maize production rose from 2.6% in FY2020 to 3.5% in FY2025 and fell slightly to 3.0% in FY2024 (Exhibit 6) owing to increased output coming from countries like Brazil and Argentina. India has the potential to increase its maize production from the current levels of ~38 million tons to 50 million tons by raising yield to 5 tons/ha over the next five years. Appropriate policy measures and steps to strengthen post-harvest infrastructure, improve storage facilities, implement price stabilization mechanisms, and development of an integrated value chain plan will bolster overall productivity and farmers' income.

Market overview

Introduction to maize starch and its application

Starch, α -D glucan polymer (glucan polymers building up the starch granules are amylose and amylopectin) is an edible and most abundantly found carbohydrate stored in plants. It is one of the most important polymers being used extensively in both food and non-food applications. Starch is derived from natural polymer sources such as cereal grain seeds, tubers, roots, legume seeds, fruits, and leaves. Maize, potato, rice, wheat, and tapioca are the major source of commercially manufactured starches in the market.

Starch is manufactured by the combination of grinding the starch-rich crop followed by wet separation techniques. Starch can be modified using physical or chemical methods and hence is considered as a versatile source. The three main classes of starch-based products are unmodified or native starch, modified starch (dextrin, pre-gelatinized starch, oxidized starches) and derivatives (high fructose maize syrup, glucose).

Starch is used for various industrial applications such as viscosifiers, for encapsulation, emulsifiers, defoaming agents, and as sizing agents. Starches are used majorly for their ability to impart textural characteristics and supporting in gelling and/or film formation.

Maize starch is a white, odourless and tasteless powder which has wide application in food processing, papermaking, and production of industrial adhesives. One of the many applications is in cosmetics and oral pharmaceutical products.

Industrial Applications of Maize Starch

FOOD & BEVERAGE

As a food ingredient, to thicken the food such as in gravies, sauces, puddings, in bakery industry for improve the texture and tenderness of cakes.

PAPER

Used as a key agent to enhance the bonding strength of paper as well as corrugated boxes by providing dry strength to surfaces. It acts as an adhesive for the paper industry.

TEXTILE

To soften fabric and to provide the required stiffness. Starch allows the strength of the warp yarn to be easily increased.

PHARMACEUTICAL

Maize Starch is used as filler, binder diluents, humectant, and disintegrant. The function of maize starch as a disintegrant is to enable capsules and tablets to break down into smaller fragments. This helps to dissolve the drug so it can be released for absorption by the body.

BIOPLASTICS

Bioplastics or PLA (polylactic acid) is made from the sugars in maize starch. It is biodegradable, carbon-neutral and edible.

CHEMICAL

Used as an economical feedstock, to manufacture organic chemicals such as ethanol.

Overview of Maize consumption trend – Global

Global maize consumption is projected to grow at a slower rate than in previous years, with animal feed demand and population-driven food consumption as the primary drivers. According to the OECD report for 2024-2033, the annual growth rate is expected to be around 1.2%, compared to 2.1% over the last decade.

The main driver behind this growth is increasing demand for animal feed, which constitutes 56% of total maize utilization. By 2033, global feed consumption is predicted to rise by 99 million tons, with major contributions from China, the US, Brazil, Argentina, Mexico, India, and Southeast Asia. China's rapidly expanding livestock sector will account for a significant portion of this increase, as will the poultry sector in Southeast Asia.

Maize consumption as food is also expected to rise, particularly in Sub-Saharan Africa, where population growth is high, and white maize remains a dietary staple. The average growth rate of food-based maize consumption in African countries is forecast at 2.5% annually.

While biofuel use of maize is still growing, the pace has slowed significantly due to changes in national biofuel policies, particularly in the US and Brazil, which account for the majority of biofuel-related maize demand. Despite this, the global trade in maize is expected to expand, driven by higher exports from Brazil and stronger import demand from the European Union, which is facing reduced domestic production due to unfavourable weather conditions.

Overview of Maize consumption trend – India

Source: OECD Outlook 2023-32 & Frost & Sullivan Analysis

In the coming years, it is expected that the India's growing feed and silage sectors will lead to a continuous increase in the demand for maize. The OECD 2023-32 report states that feed consumption in India is expected to increase from the present (2023-24) 54% to approximately 58 in 2032-33. India has made major progress in producing more maize than ever before. However, productivity needs to be prioritized because of the effects of climate change, which are lowering the amount of arable land available and increasing demand rapidly. Mechanized maize farming and the adoption of single cross hybrids have the potential to boost output and profitability. Creating a competitive maize supply chain is as crucial in the current climate as focusing on output and productivity.

Key Trends and Growth Drivers for End use Industries for Maize Consumption

Accelerating Urbanization & Nuclearization of Families: According to last census of 2011, India has experienced steady urban growth from 216 million in 1991 to 377 million in 2011. Growing urbanization is driving up demand for processed foods like bakery products, ready to eat and cook items and maize flakes. In the processed food industry, the need for convenient and simple-to-prepare food items has led to an increase in the demand for maize and maize-based flour. Numerous food items, such as baked goods, snacks, soups, sausages and breakfast cereals, contain maize flour. Furthermore, factors including population increase, shifting food choices, and economic situations all have an impact on the growth. Many of the urban households are offshoots of rural extended or joint families and according to census – 2011, of all households, nuclear family constitutes 70%. This has led to increased demand of processed food.

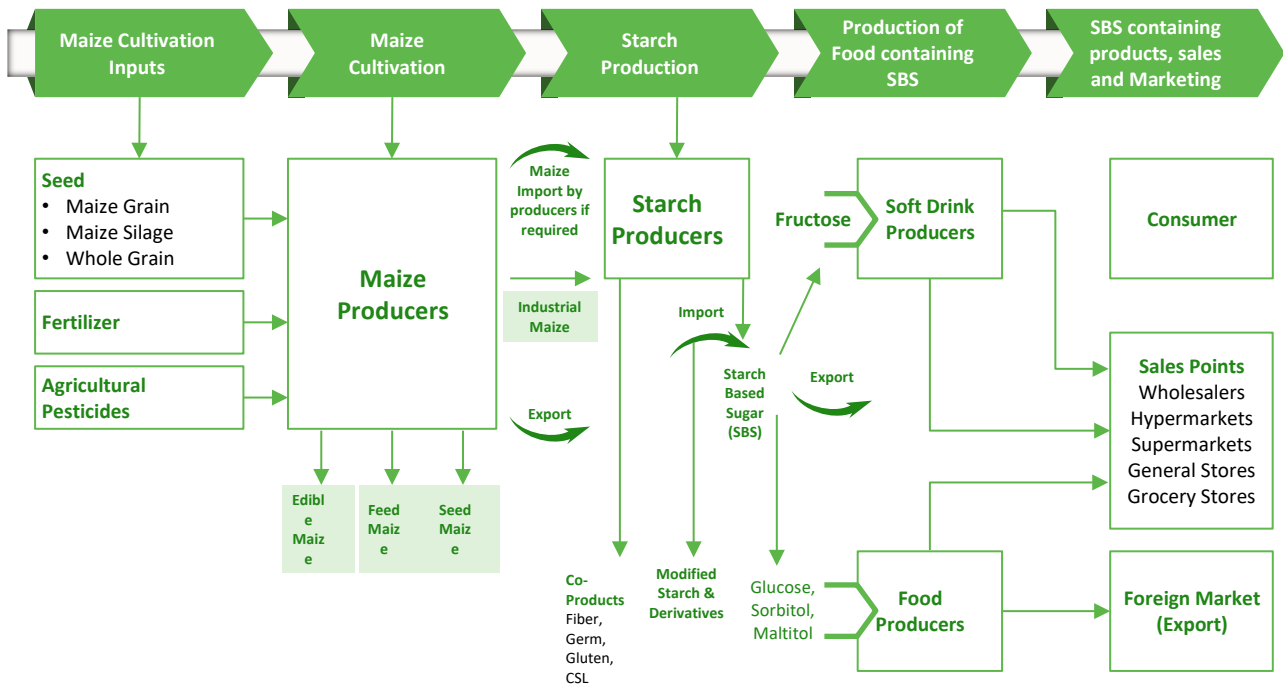

Growing processed Food Industry: India's food processing sector is expected to grow from US$ 866 billion in 2022 to US$ 1,274 billion in 2027, driven by shifting dietary and lifestyle patterns brought on by urbanization, nuclearization of families, and increased disposable income. In 2020–21, the food processing industry accounted for 10.54% of the manufacturing sector's gross value added (GVA) and 11.57% of the agriculture sector's GVA. In order to provide financial, technical, and business assistance for the establishment of food processing enterprises, the Ministry of Food Processing Industries (MoFPI) has put in place programs such as the Pradhan Mantri Kisan SAMPADA Yojana (PMKSY), the PM Formalization of Micro Food Processing Enterprises (PMFME) Scheme, and the Production Linked Incentive Scheme for Food Processing Industry (PLISFPI).

Growing Organized Dairy sector: The organized dairy sector requires more of Fine Cereals or Maize-based concentrates: The dairy sector in India, largely backyard & small-scale operations (2-3 animals), consumes limited amounts of compound feed and depends on home-made feed mixes - oil cakes, household food waste, spoiled/broken wheat and rice, and other cheap grain mixes – to feed to lactating cows/buffaloes while in milk. There is a growing trend among dairy farmers to replace low-yielding local dairy cattle breeds with higher-yielding crossbred cows and buffaloes, which require higher-energy feeds including maize based feed concentrates, driving a 10- 12 percent per annum growth in demand for commercial dairy feed. Further, India's dairy industry is expected to see healthy revenue growth of 11-13% this financial year 2025-26, as strong consumer demand continues along with an improved supply of raw milk.

Demand from Feed Industry: Increasing demand from the aquafeed and poultry industries, which account for almost half of domestic production. The poultry and aqua feed industries' steady demand helped to sustain maize consumption in 2022–2023. India's poultry and aquaculture feed sector has expanded after the COVID-19 epidemic has ended due to increased consumer demand for poultry products and export demand for aqua goods, especially shrimp.

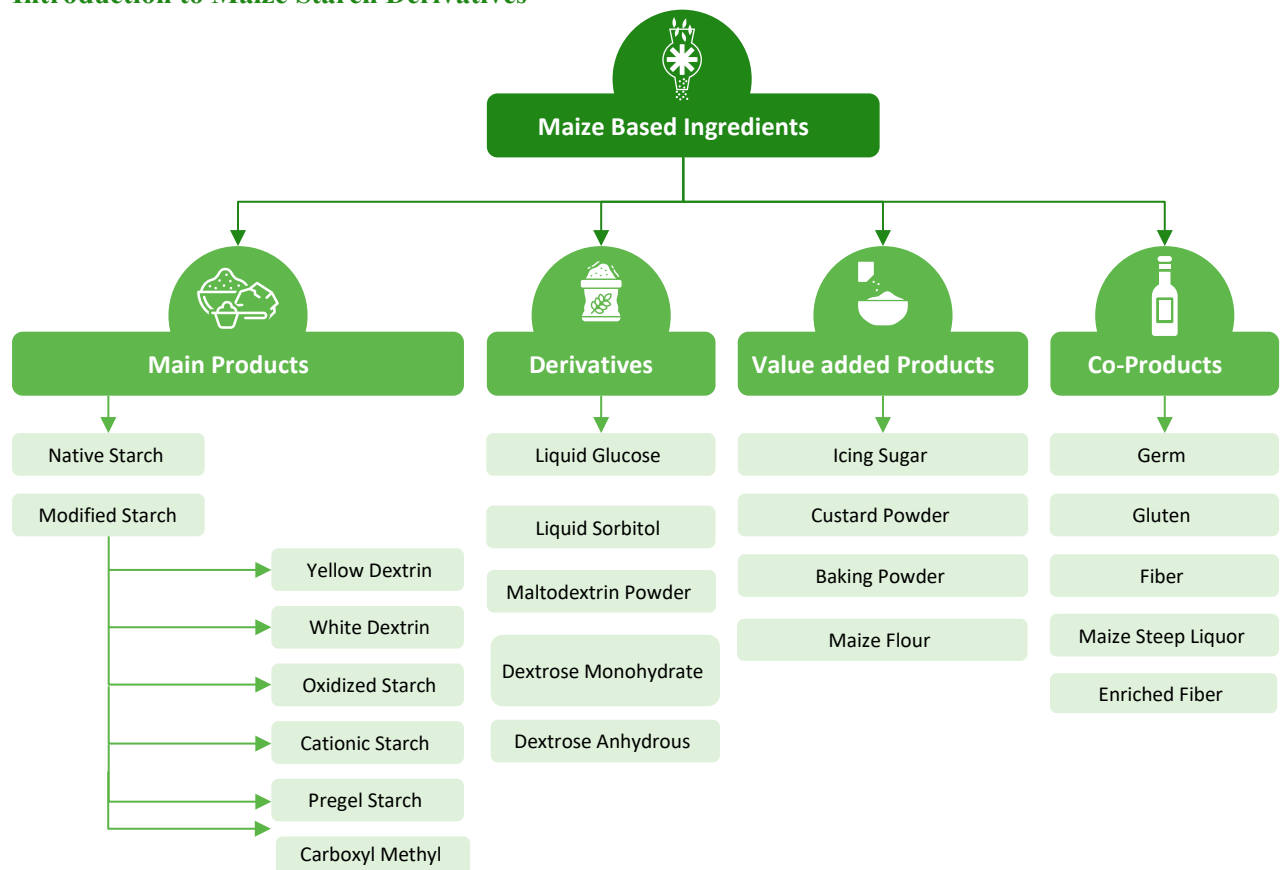

Along with the above factors rising use of maize in Biofuel, supportive government policies for maize cultivation and growing industrial application are driving the demand and consumption of maize.

Introduction to Maize Starch Derivatives

A. Main Products- Starches

- i. Native Starch- Maize is used to make native starch &S hence it is a plant-based food ingredient. Starch slurry is often just dried to create Native Starch. The resultant powder is a natural starch that can be used in a variety of food preparations and industrial applications.
- ii. Modified Starch- Modified starch, also called starch derivatives, is prepared by physically, enzymatically, or chemically treating native starch to change its properties.

A (ii) Modified Starch

- i. Dextrin - Dry heating, roasting unmodified starch with or without an acid or alkaline catalyst (pyrolysis or roasting) produces Dextrin. Dextrin produced by heat are also known as Pyrodextrin. The major difference between Dextrin and other modified starches is that Dextrin is reduced in viscosity, they have better cold-water solubility, increased reducing power and reduced tendency to gel. The three major types of Dextrin include white dextrin, yellow dextrin, and British gums.

White Dextrin- White Dextrin are partially water-soluble and yields optically active solutions of low viscosity. The white colour of this Dextrin is similar to original Maize Starch with cold water solubilities ranging from 5 to ~90%. The White Dextrin that exhibits higher solubility (40-90%) could be used at much higher concentrations to yield very soft gels.

Industrial Applications: Textile finishing and coating agent, thickening, and binding agent in pharmaceuticals and paper coatings, stabilizing agent for certain explosive metal azides.

Yellow Dextrin- Yellow Dextrin or Canary Dextrin are water-soluble Maize derivative used in adhesives, gums, and pastes. These are produced using less acid, higher temperatures for a long time-period. The Yellow Dextrin is used to produce high solids pastes (40-60%). These dry rapidly when applied in thin films. The major application of Yellow Dextrin is as adhesives, majorly in the paper industry.

Industrial Applications: Derivatives are used as binder in adhesive applications, widely used as extenders in dyes and as a binder in abrasive industry, adhesive for envelopes, corrugation, gummed labels, and tapes along with others.

British Gums- British gums are impure form of dextrin. These are produced by roasting white and yellow dextrin with little or no acid. The high temperature roasting produces a dark coloured dextrin that is used in industry as a paper adhesive. British gum is soluble in warm water, and it is used in concentrations of 10-35%.

Industrial Applications: British gums are used as carriers for colourant, spices, flavouring agent.

- ii. Oxidized starches: Oxidized starch having a range of viscosity and fluidity to suit the requirement of different applications. It is used mainly in paper processing for surface sizing.

Industrial Applications: Used for coating applications for their adhesion ability. It is used in fabric and textile industry for yarn smoothing and flattering.

- iii. Pre-gelatinized starch- Modified starch is processed using the standard drum drying process followed by slightly cross linking the granules to form pregelatinized starch. Pregelatinized starch is soluble in cold water as it easily takes up the water and swells at room temperature. It forms paste when mixed with cold water.

Industrial Applications: Used in cream fillings, canned, sauces, soup mixes, gravies, tomato ketchup, pasty creams, dairy desserts, and other food product industries.

- iv. Cationic starch- Cationic starch is a modified starch used in wet-end starches. Wet-end starches can be made from native starch, however cationic starches are better. The negatively charged cellulose fiber and fillers readily attract the positively charged cationic starches.

Industrial Applications: Used in textile, paper, chemicals, agricultural, construction engineering, and healthcare industries. Also used as an additive in papermaking, e.g. in the wet end of papermaking, among other things to improve retention, water permeability, strength of the produced paper and to remove anionic impurities.

- v. Carboxyl Methyl Starch- The water-soluble polysaccharide carboxymethyl starch (CMS) is used extensively as an additive; its non-toxic and biodegradable derivatives are finding more and more uses.

Industrial Applications: Used mainly as adhesive sizing material for warp sizing, to size cotton yarn of small and medium size, linen yarn and blended yarn. Used as a printing thickener. CMS can be used in Adhesives, paints, water treatment, Mining Industries.

B. Value added Products

- i. Maize Flour- Maize Flour is a fine powder produced by grinding dried maize kernels (maize). During harvest, millers remove the tough outer hull and nutritious germ from whole maize kernels, then use metal rollers to grind the kernels into a fine powder. Maize Flour is a gluten-free ingredient (due to the production process it undergoes) which contains nutrients and fiber.

Industrial Applications: Derivatives are used in bakery industry to produce breads, muffins, pancake mixes, infant foods, biscuits, wafers, doughnuts, breakfast cereals along others. It is also used as filler, binder and carrier in meat products.

- ii. Baking Powder- Baking powder is a white solid composed typically of three components, including an acid, a base, and a filler. These materials have a significant impact on the taste and texture of the finished product. The dry base used in baking powder is sodium bicarbonate or baking soda. The four major acids that are used typically include monocalcium phosphate (CaH_2PO_4), sodium acid pyrophosphate ($\text{H}_2\text{Na}_2\text{O}_7\text{P}_2$) sodium aluminium phosphate ($\text{H}_3\text{O}_4\text{P}$), and sodium aluminium sulphate (NaAlO_8S_2). The inert filler used commonly in the production is maize starch.

The maize starch used in the baking powder helps to keep the product dry and easy flowing. It also keeps the acid and bases separated which further prevents them from reacting while in storage.

Industrial Applications: Baking Powder is used in various industrial applications including baking and cooking, metal polishing, water treatment, meat curing, personal care products and pharmaceuticals.

- iii. Custard Powder- Custard is composed of a mixture of maize starch, milk and eggs which is thickened by heat. Maize-starch is the commonly used thickener which make up the bulk of custard powder. Maize-starch is effective at thickening liquids; it dissolves quickly and hence is majorly used in custard powder. Vanilla is the flavouring which is generally used in custard powder in a very subtle amount.

Industrial Applications: The sauce produced using custard powder is used for the preparation of cakes, puddings, ice-creams, sweet pies among other deserts. It finds major application in making cookies and instant puddings.

- vi. Icing sugar – Icing sugar is also known as powdered sugar or confectioner's sugar. It is made by grinding granulated sugar into a very fine powder and produced industrially using a small amount of anticaking agent, such as maize- starch or tricalcium phosphate (E341). These are added to absorb moisture and supports the free flowing of the powder by preventing sticking together in clumps.

Industrial Applications: Icing sugar is used in preparation of bakery and confectionery products such as cakes, chocolates, fudge among other desserts. It is also used in frostings and coatings as it does not produce a grainy texture.

C. Derivatives

- i. Liquid glucose- Liquid glucose or maize syrup is produced by the process of partial hydrolysis of the starch slurry using enzyme or acid. Liquid glucose is a clear, viscous, colourless solution. The functional properties of liquid glucose include viscosity, humectancy, high fermentability, colligative properties, along with imparting sweetness.

Industrial Applications: Liquid Glucose is an ideal additive for sweets, confectionary, biscuits, Ice creams, Jams, Jellies, preserves pastries & liquors. It also forms the base of artificial honey.

- ii. Maltodextrin Powder- Maltodextrin is a polysaccharide with major application as a thickener and a food additive. Partial hydrolysis is used to produce it from starch. Maltodextrin occurs as a white hygroscopic spray-dried powder.

Industrial Applications: It is used in Food, Pharmaceutical, agriculture, and healthcare industries to improve as it improves texture, solubility, flavour, and shelf life of the product. Maltodextrin is used as a food additive, anti-caking agent, bulking agent, and food flavour carrier. It is also used in artificial sweeteners.

- iii. Dextrose Monohydrate - Dextrose Monohydrate is the Monohydrate form of D-glucose which is a natural Monosaccharide and Carbohydrate. Dextrose Monohydrate has a sweet taste and is used as a sweetener and texturizing agent. It is also used as a fermentation substrate.

Industrial Applications: Dextrose Monohydrate can be used as nutritional supplement and sweetener in food such as in confectioneries, jams, jellies; bakery such as cakes, biscuits, cookies; beverages, and honey products. Dextrose Monohydrate is also used as nutritional supplement in pharmaceutical industry. It could also be used in Agriculture/Animal Feed/Poultry feed industry as well as in pet foods.

- iv. Dextrose Anhydrous- Dextrose Anhydrous is also known as “Maize Sugar Anhydrous” or “Anhydrous Dextrose” or “Anhydrous Sugar”. It is purified and crystallized D-glucose with the total solids content not less than 98.0% m/m. It is a colourless, odourless white powder with less sweetness than cane sugar.

Industrial Applications: Dextrose Anhydrous has wide application in industries including food & beverage, pharmaceutical, agriculture/animal feed, among others. It could be used as a nutritional supplement and sweetener in baked goods, candy, and gum, jarred and canned foods, creams and frozen dairy products (like some ice-creams and frozen yogurts), and cured meats.

- v. Liquid Sorbitol – Sorbitol is a polyol or sugar alcohol. It is a bulk sweetener that is found in numerous food products. It is an excellent humectant and texturizing agent. Sorbitol is about 60% as sweet as sucrose offering one-third fewer calories.

Industrial applications: Sorbitol is non-cariogenic sweetener. It has been safely used in processed foods along with applications in pharmaceuticals and cosmetics. Sorbitol offers functional properties in bakery, confectionery, and seafood (cryoprotectant qualities).

D. Co Products

- i. Germ - The endosperm of maize, or maize germ, is a yellow seed which is rich oil content.

Industrial Application: Used in the production of feed supplements and the extraction of maize oil.

- ii. Gluten- Maize gluten is mostly derived from maize bran and steep liquor, though it can also include some germs and broken maize kernels. Typically, 90% of dry matter, including a significant amount of crude protein, is present in dry maize gluten.

Industrial Application: Used as feed additive in cattle diets as a source of energy and protein

- iii. Fiber- After removing the starch, gluten, and germ, the seed coat and leftover endosperm are combined to form maize fiber. Fiber is an excellent ingredient for animal feed because it is made up of protein, starch, and fiber.

Industrial Application: Used to prepare ethanol, sweeteners, animal feed.

- iv. Maize Steep Liquor- A co-product of maize milling is Maize Steep Liquor. An essential component of various growth media, it is a viscous concentrate of maize soluble that includes vitamins, minerals, and amino acids.

Industrial Application: Used as a feed additive for livestock. Used in food production of yeasts, leavened dough products, and beer.

- v. Enriched maize fiber- The pericarp of the maize grain is known as maize enhanced fiber; it is light brown to yellow in color, odorless, and free of rancidity and other substances.

Industrial Application: Because maize fiber includes vital vitamins and amino acids, it is a valuable source of energy for cattle and poultry.

Overview of maize cultivation in India

Maize (Zea mays L) is one of the most versatile crops in cereals which has wider adaptability under wide range of agro-climatic conditions. It is also known as queen of cereals globally because it has the highest genetic yield potential among all the cereals. It is cultivated in about 160 countries having wider diversity of soil, climate, biodiversity and management practices across globe.

In India, maize is grown & harvested in two seasons, kharif (rainy) and rabi (winter). Around 80-83% of Maize in India is cultivated in Kharif and remaining 17-20% is grown in Rabi.

Maize is also the third most important food crop in India, after rice and wheat. Maize serves as staple food for human consumption and quality feed for animals. Maize is also used as basic raw material as an ingredient to thousands of industrial products that includes starch, protein, oil, beverages, food sweeteners, pharmaceutical, cosmetic, film, textile, adhesives-gum, package and paper industries etc.

Overview of prices for maize in India

Maize is the largest crop in the Feed grain segment in India. Maize prices were below Rs. 2,000 per quintal in commercial markets till 2022-23 but have crossed Rs 2,000 / quintal mark in 2023-24. For 2025-26 the minimum support price for maize is Rs 2,400/quintal which is Rs 175 more than the last year price.

Karnataka, Maharashtra, Madhya Pradesh, Uttar Pradesh & Rajasthan are some of the key Maize producing states. Bihar is key maize producing state in country. Seemanchal and Koshi regions have become major hubs for maize farming in recent years owing to abundant rainfall they receive. Maize has replaced other crops as the main cash crop for farmers in the Seemanchal districts of Bihar such as Purnea, Kishanganj, Araria, and Katihar. The same effects can be seen in Saharsa, Madhepura, Supaul, and Khagaria districts of Koshi. Farmers in the districts of Bhagalpur and Samastipur are also growing maize intensively. For poultry and cattle feed, Uttar Pradesh, Maharashtra, Madhya Pradesh, and Tamil Nadu procure maize from Bihar. In Indore, Madhya Pradesh, purchasers were paying between Rs. 2,300 - 2,400 per quintal for new maize that was sourced from Bihar.

Assessment of State-wise Production, Yield & Acreages of Maize and Groundwater Level

State-wise Production, Yield & Acreages of Maize

In 2024-25, the predominant maize growing states that contribute more than 80% of the total maize production are Madhya Pradesh (15.87%), Karnataka (14.57%), Bihar (11.58%), Maharashtra (11.52%), Telangana (7.12%), West Bengal (6.57%), Rajasthan (6.36%), Tamil Nadu (6.24%), Andhra Pradesh (4.66%) and Uttar Pradesh (4.02%). Apart from these states maize is also cultivated in Jammu and Kashmir, Himachal Pradesh and North-

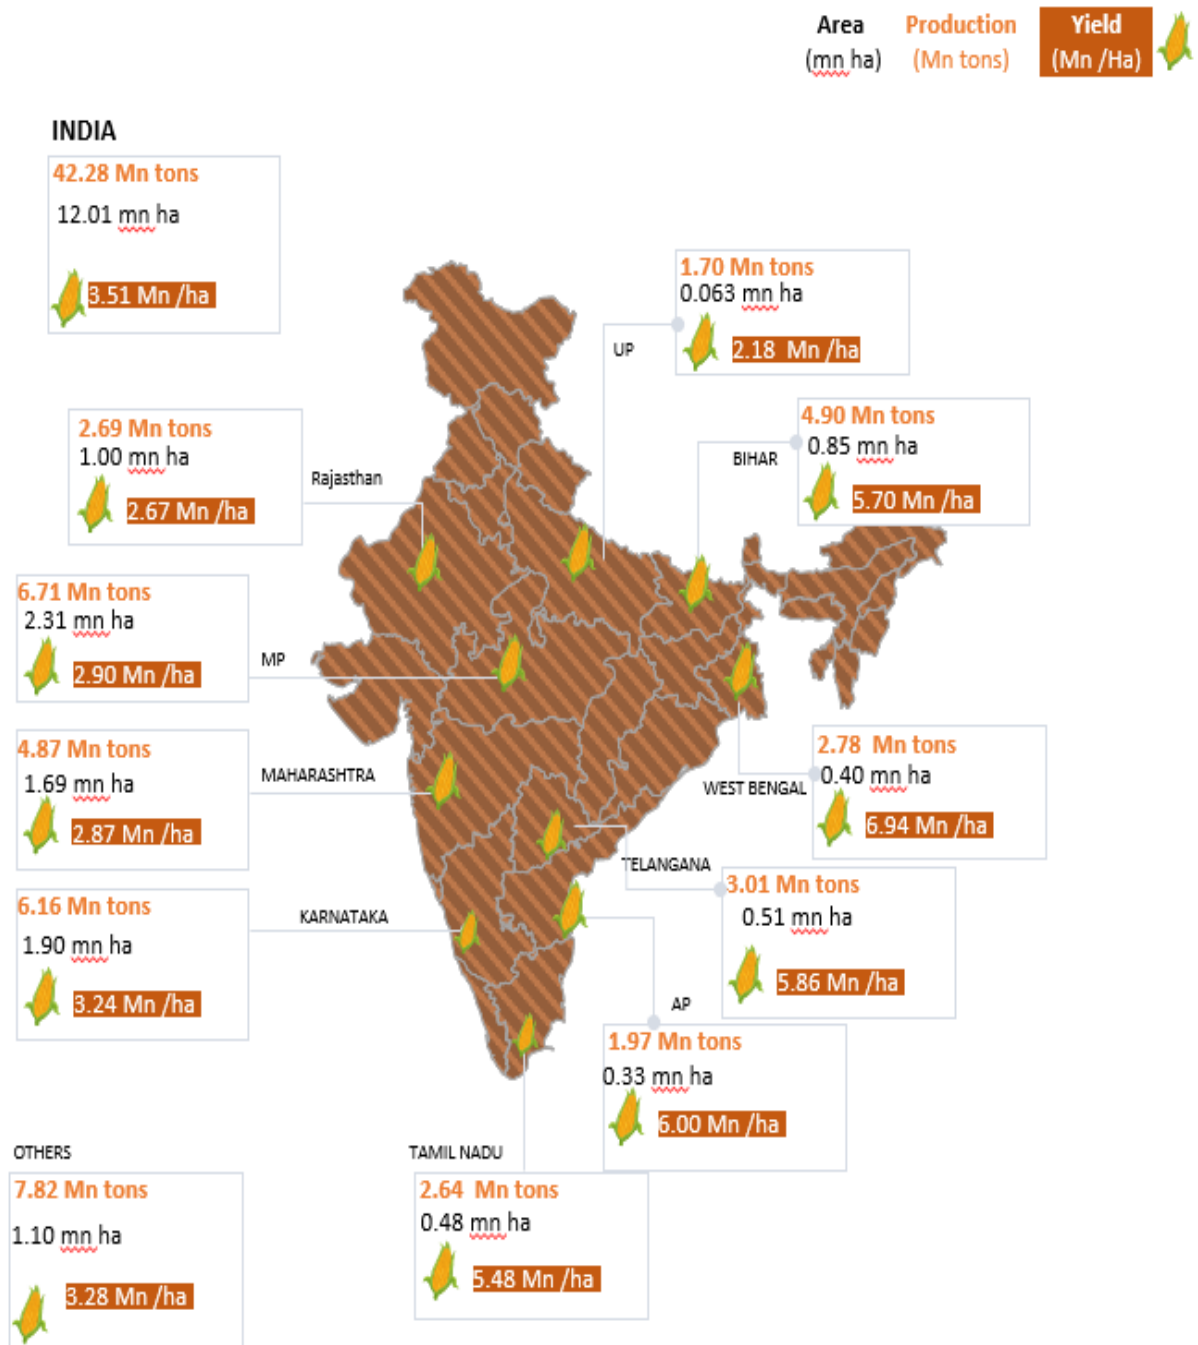

Eastern states of Chhattisgarh and Jharkhand. Maize is also cultivated in Assam in rainfed hilly upland conditions. Andhra Pradesh, Tamil Nadu, Bihar, West Bengal, Karnataka and some parts of Maharashtra harvest maize in rabi season.

Maize has emerged as important crop in the non-traditional regions i.e., peninsular India. State like Madhya Pradesh which ranks 1st in both area (2.31 Mn ha) and production (6.71 Mn tons) has much lower productivity (2.9 Mn/Ha) compared to states of, Tamil Nadu (5.48 Mn/ha) and West Bengal (6.94 Mn/ha). Bihar and West Bengal is amongst one of the traditional maize producing state.

According to third advance estimates published in May 2025 by Department of Agriculture & Farmers Welfare, Madhya Pradesh is the largest producer of Maize in India. It contributed 14.83% of the total Maize production in India. The other top 3 maize producing states of India are Bihar, Madhya Pradesh and Tamil Nadu. In Bihar, districts of Saran, Siwan, Gopalganj, East Champaran, West Champaran, Sheohar, Sitamarhi, Madhubani, Darbhanga, Muzaffarpur, Vaishali, Samastipur and Begusarai are majorly the maize growing districts. High seed replacement rates for Rabi Maize in Bihar helps in above average productivity of state in maize cultivation.

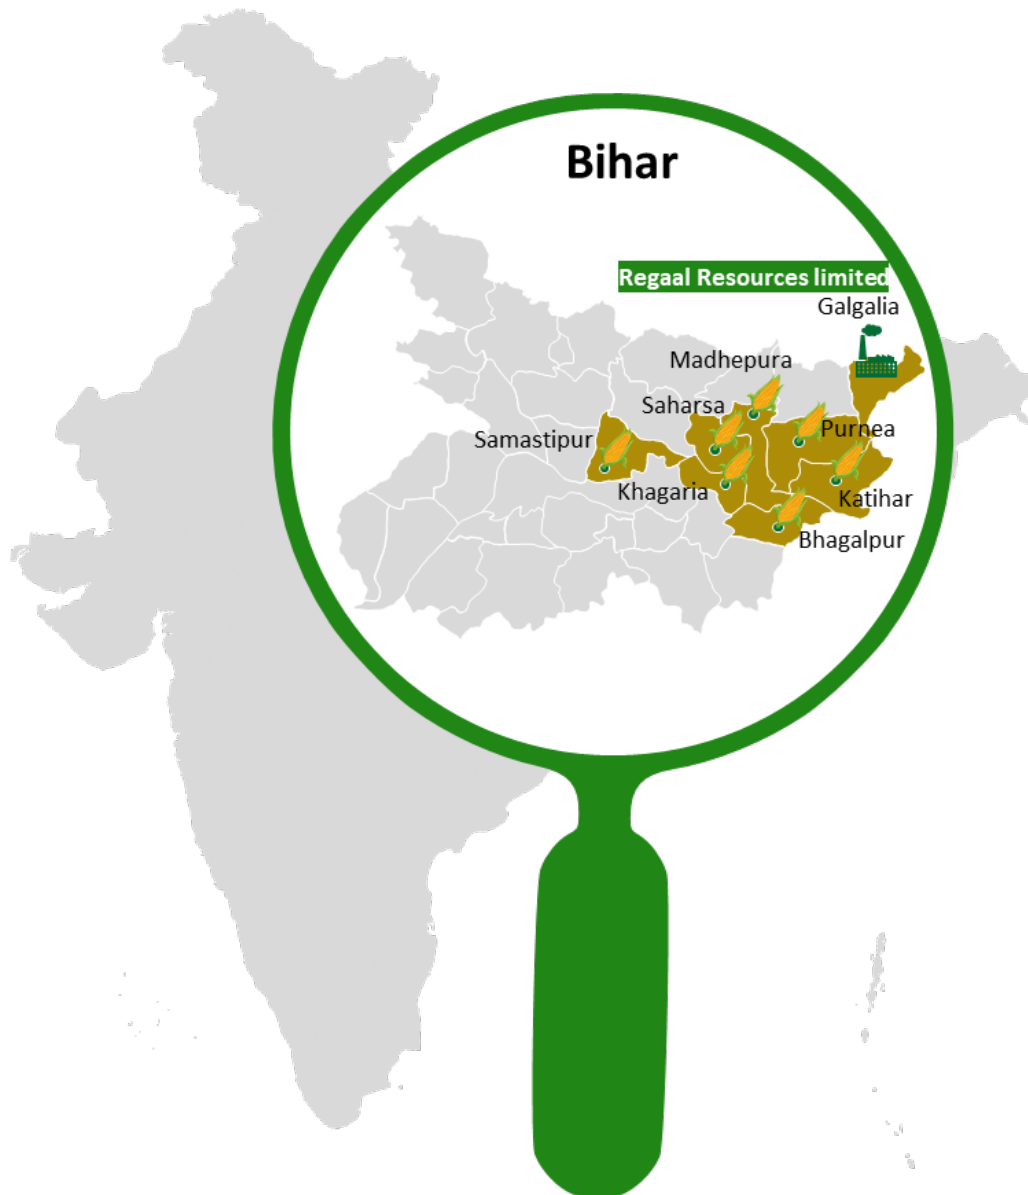

Harvesting window of Rabi Maize in Bihar & West Bengal is unique as it does not overlap with harvesting of Maize in any other maize producing states hence it provides for an 'Exclusive Availability Window' of Maize crop. Maize milling yields multiple products which are used in Food & Beverage, Paper, Textile, Pharmaceutical, Cattle & Poultry Feed Industry. These industries together account for consumption of over 90% of maize milled products. Hence, domestic demand, supply dynamics and pricing trends of maize are linked to performance of these industrial segments. Due to limited presence of industrial segments in Bihar, the downstream processing of Maize is negligible within the state, leading to export of most of the harvest to other states such as Maharashtra, Gujarat, Tamil Nadu, Haryana, Karnataka, Andhra Pradesh and Punjab.

Entry and Exit Barriers for Maize Starch Industry in India

Entry Barriers-

1. Capital Investment: Entering the maize-based speciality products and ingredient solutions market demands significant capital expenditure. The required machinery—elevators, destoners, blowers, tanks, dryers, and more—comes with substantial costs. Additionally, land acquisition, especially in prime industrial areas, can pose a challenge due to high prices and regulatory hurdles.
2. Established Competition: The industry is dominated by large, well-established players like GAEL, Sukhjit Starch, and Sanstar Limited., who have strong domestic and export markets. New entrants face intense competition, not only in terms of market share but also in gaining credibility and trust within the supply chains.
3. B2B Market Dynamics: The primary consumers of maize-based speciality products are well-established firms in industries such as Food & Beverage, Pharmaceuticals, Textiles, and Paper. These industries typically have long-standing relationships with their suppliers, making it difficult for new entrants to break into the market and build trust with key customers.
4. Economies of Scale: Achieving viable production volumes is crucial for profitability in this industry. A maize milling plant needs to operate at a capacity of 500-600 Tons per Day to be financially sustainable. New entrants must invest in large-scale production to achieve lower unit costs, or risk operating at a loss.
5. Raw Material Availability: Although maize is widely grown in India, the supply available for milling is limited due to its traditional use in animal feed and growing demand from ethanol producers. Securing high-quality maize at competitive prices may be challenging for new entrants, especially during peak demand periods.

These barriers make the maize starch industry highly competitive, requiring not only financial investment but also strong strategic planning to overcome market entry challenges.

Exit Barriers-

Investment in specialist equipment – Investment in specialised equipment makes it difficult to use it in other industries is typically a barrier to exiting the industry.

High fixed costs- High levels of dedicated fixed costs tend to be an impediment to leaving an industry.

Maize being the biggest produced crop globally has given boost to its use for starch production and its demand in high animal feed industry as well. Maize starch industry is driven by growing application of Native Maize Starch in the food industry as it is widely used as thickener in food items like gravies, soups, and sauce along with coating for deep-fried food to give them a crispy texture, and in baked goods to provide them with moisture and fullness. Approximately 70% of native maize starch is used in food and beverage applications across the globe. It is followed by textile, pharmaceuticals, and paper applications. Maize starch is also used as a warp size to strengthen warp yarns and improve their resistance to abrasion during weaving in textile applications. It is also used for the finishing of fabrics, in printing, and as components in finishes for glazing sewing thread. It is used as flocculant and retention aid in paper making industry.

Global Maize Starch Co- Products Market

Co- Products account for 30–35% of the total product yield, from Maize milling process. A wide variety of products are made from milled Maize starch Co- Products. Use of Co- Products in human food is very limited with refined maize oil used in some food applications. Germ, Gluten, Fiber and Maize Steep Liquor are the major co- products derived from maize milling process.

Steep soluble i.e., Maize Steep Liquor which is high protein ingredient is used as a nutrient-rich medium for antibiotic production (e.g., Penicillin) and as a feed additive for livestock, aquaculture, and poultry. It is often used as a Maize Gluten feed constituent for cattle feeds or as a pellet binder.

Maize germ is used directly into feed for ruminants. Also, Maize germ yields oil which can be refined and used as Maize oil in salad dressings, margarines or simply can be used for cooking.

Maize Gluten makes for excellent feed for poultry, fish, and other animal feed to achieve good weight for these animals. Maize fiber is also used as poultry feed.

Currently in 2024, the Global Co- Products market accounted for USD 7,903.5 million with 27.9 million tons in volume. It is expected to reach USD 9,512.2 million by 2029 growing at CAGR of 3.77%.

Indian Maize Starch Co- Products Market

Maize starch Co- Products market in India was around 1.31 million tons in 2024 which is valued up to USD 570 Million. Demand for products, especially Maize Gluten and Maize Fiber is increasing in India owing to growing Poultry industry. Animal Feed industry which uses Maize Gluten and Oil Cake has experienced a significant growth in the recent past. Maize Fiber is odourless yellow fibrous matter with maximum of 12% moisture content. Its main component is pericarp which consists of 10-13% protein, 33-42% hemicelluloses, 15-18% cellulose, 3-6% oil, 2-25% starch, and 1-2% other components, making it nutrient rich Co- Products of Maize Milling process. It is considered as an essential component to ensure safe, ample, and affordable animal proteins. When mixed in Animal Feed, it helps increasing the cattle's' milk yield. It is also used as feedstock for the Ethanol production. Enriched fiber is also produced by adding Maize Steep Liquor to dry fiber.

Maize Gluten is produced by centrifugation, filtering, and drying of the slurry obtained from the first and secondary phases of maize refining. It is used as an animal feed because of its high protein content. It is palatable, readily digested by ruminant animals and is one of the best sources of energy. Demand for dry maize gluten is increasing because it is more palatable and readily digested by animals. Companies such as Godrej Agrovet, Venky's, Avanti foods, IB group, Suguna foods, Altech biotechnology are the major end use consumers for maize fiber and gluten.

Maize Steep Liquor is high energy, high protein liquid made from the soluble parts of the maize kernel through a steeping process. It is widely used in feed additive for livestock specially for the ruminants. It is used as binding or pelleting agent in animal feeds. It is also very useful for the pharmaceutical, enzyme industry because of its high nutritional value (rich in Vitamins, Lactic acid, and Proteins). Many of the small maize milling players in India discard or use it as fuel. But high concentration of Maize Steep Liquor discarded might lead to exceeding the permissible limit for discharging effluent. Companies such as Gulshan Polyols Limited, Sayaji Maize Products are currently concentrating Maize Steep Liquor and selling it in 250kgs HDPE drums or tankers.

Rising demand for Maize oil has led to doubling of India's Maize oil production in last 4-5 years. Maize oil is a strong antioxidant and a good source of beneficial fats that helps in maintaining a healthy lifestyle. It also helps in reducing blood cholesterol levels as 60% of the fats are polyunsaturated, 25%–30% are monounsaturated, and 10%–15% are saturated. Additionally, the high concentration of polyunsaturated fatty acids helps to decrease high blood pressure. States like Maharashtra and Gujarat are the major consumers of maize oil in India. Oil refineries in Gujarat purchase germ form maize mills and further extract oil to sell it as refined maize oil. Major manufacturers of products such as snacks and sweets, which used soy oil earlier, are now using maize refined oil due to risings prices and limited supply of oilseed oil.

Maize milling companies sell these Co- Products directly to the end use consumers or to the traders. Trend in industry is towards directly selling these Co- Products to end consumer as these are not very high margin products.

Thus, the maize starch Co- Products market is expected to reach 1.65 million tons by 2029 growing at CAGR of 4.72% from 2024.

Market Drivers, Restraints, and Opportunities Influencing the growth of Indian Maize Starch Market

DRIVERS - OPPORTUNITIES

- Huge population base (1.42 Bn) in India with a relatively young demographic, accelerating urbanisation and nuclearization of families, rising disposable incomes, shifting consumption pattern towards health and convenience offers excellent opportunity for maize starch market.
- Change in Consumer behaviour with respect to habits & patterns of food consumption with rising focus on organic, gluten free food, ready to eat food is driving the maize starch industry in India. Packaged ready-to-eat food is the order of the day due to ready OTC availability which in turn boosts maize starch market.
- The rising demand for organic and clean-label products represents one of the primary drivers of the maize starch market.
- Focus on eco-friendly and readily bio-degradable packaging / products intended to replace single use plastics will spur the demand of starch & starch-based biopolymers.
- The growing consumer preference toward organic maize starch products that are free from chemical modifications is offering a favourable market outlook. Consumers consider chemical products as undesirable and want to consume products with healthy ingredients.
- Beverages & Pharmaceutical manufacturers are using Liquid Glucose, High Maltose Maize Syrup (HMCS), Sorbitol, Fructose, Dextrose and other derivatives which are derived from Maize Starch as sweeteners.
- Additionally, because maize starch-based foam is compostable and has thermal insulation qualities, it is becoming more and more popular for shipping temperature-sensitive goods, which is opening attractive growth potential for industry players.
- Maize starch combined with polymers creates a super absorbent used in sanitary napkins, bandages, disposable diapers, and baby powders, and can also be used to remove water from fuels and to clean up pesticide spills.
- Abundant availability of maize in India coupled with promotion of exports of value-added products will further boost the maize starch industry.

RESTRAINTS

- Industry suffers from rising prices of raw material – maize which has increasing demand from animal feed and ethanol manufacturing companies.
- Post-harvest losses due to manual handling further led to losses and shortage in availability of maize for maize starch industry.

Key Players in the Indian Maize Starch Industry

Maize Processing industry in India used to be highly labour intensive. Consolidation of industry, technological advancement and labour migration has decreased labour intensity. Currently, Maize processing industry is running at high-capacity utilization of 85-90% with competitors trying to achieve maximum efficiency owing to increasing demand. The credit duration, which pre covid ranged from 30-45 days has now been extended to 45-90 days in case of some end users of maize starch & derivatives product. This has an impact on the cash flow since the maize millers also need to stock raw materials—maize—for the plant to run efficiently.

Industry is dominated by large players who have large capital to set-up modern plant and machinery like Gujarat Ambuja Exports Limited (GAEL), Roquette, Sukhjit Starch and Chemicals Limited, Bluecraft Agro Private Limited and medium sized players like Sayaji Maize Products, Gulshan Polyols Limited, Sahayadri Starch & Industries Private Limited, Regaal Resources Limited, Paramesu Biotech Limited etc.

- According to FSSAI, Modified Maize starch may be used in confectionery, flavours, dairy products (where use of emulsifier/stabiliser is allowed per regulations) glazes, icings, gravies, sauces, soups, coatings up to a maximum concentration of 0.5 per cent by weight.
- Modified food starches may be used in snacks, frozen potato products, baked foods, and salad dressing/mayonnaise, up to a maximum concentration of 5 per cent by weight.
- Acid treated starch may be used in sugar confectionery on GMP basis.
- To mitigate the hazardous pollutants, an Effluent Treatment Plant (ETP) is made mandatory for maize processing industry by the Government of India. The treated water can be utilised for agricultural purposes within the permitted BOD (Biochemical oxygen demand) level of 30 PPM (Parts per million). Financial support in the form of capital subsidy is also available from Ministry of Environment and Forests, Government of India for the purpose.
- In some products, the statutory permissible limit of usage of starch is still very low in India compared to the permissible limits in other American and European countries. Government may consider and thereby make necessary amendments in the permissible limits.
- While agricultural policy changes and shifting barriers to trade are often perceived to be factors of change in the business, they tend to be of secondary importance since they are often an attempt to protect local interests from the pressures in supply/demand that is brought about by these differences in growth patterns.
- Bihar Industrial Investment Promotion Policy, 2016

Priority sectors in the food processing sector- Maize processing units with installed capacity of more than 100 TPD including units for manufacturing starch and cattle and/or poultry feed.

Growth Drivers, Opportunities & Restraints of Indian Modified Starches Industry

Growth Driver & Opportunities-

- Growing demand for convenience food and processed food on account of the rising trend of on-the-go food and changing lifestyles.

- Multiple functional properties offered by modified starch make them suitable to be used in different industries. Novel applications like biomaterials, bio polymers, bioethanol mock meats also boost the demand for starch.
- Increasing use of starches in the textile industry for applications like sizing which helps in improving strength, smoothness and weaving efficiency. According to IBEF (Indian Brand Equity Foundation), the market for Indian textiles and apparel is projected to grow at a 10% CAGR to reach US$ 350 billion by 2030, with exports expected to reach US$100 billion.
- Use of modified starch in personal care and cosmetics industry is also rising.
- Modified starches are used as disintegrants, binders, and controlled-release agents in pharmaceutical formulations. The market is driven by increasing population and rising healthcare expenditure especially for preventive healthcare.

Restraints-

- Raw Material availability i.e., Maize has become a crucial commodity in India with growing demand from ethanol and Animal feed industries.
- The lack of adequate infrastructure and capacity to dry maize to the optimal level of 14% moisture is causing significant wastage and losses for farmers. According to industry sources, there is a shortage of farm-level infrastructure, such as maize dryers, and quality storage facilities, which leads to the degradation of maize quality. Inadequate drying contributes to post-harvest losses. A 2022 NABCONS study found that post-harvest losses for cereals range from 3.89% to 5.92% at various stages, including harvesting, collection, grading, drying, packaging, transportation, and storage. According to the U.S. Grains Council, maize stored long-term should have a moisture content below 14%. This lack of infrastructure not only results in post-harvest losses but also drives up the cost of maize, which is a key raw material for the maize-based speciality product industry.
- Price Volatility and Shortages: The production and availability of maize can be impacted by changes in agricultural yields, weather patterns, which could result in price volatility and shortages.
- Legal restriction related to the use of modified starches in the country: Government regulations in India are limiting the usage of starch in products in India compared to the permissible limits in other American and European countries

Competitive Landscape

Indian Maize milling industry- Competitive landscape

Indian Maize starch market is expected to reach a volume of 9.62 million tons by 2029 and is expected to grow at a CAGR of 4.77 % during 2024-2029. The major drivers for growth in the sector includes abundant availability of the raw material in India (domestic production of 42.28 Million Tons in 2024-25, and end use industries including food and beverage, pharmaceutical, animal feed, textile, and paper industries with the Food & Beverage category being the largest end use industry.

The Indian maize starch market has expanded significantly in the last decade due to rapid industrialization, growing population, relatively young demographic, urbanisation and rising disposable incomes. The supply and demand of maize from different end use industries has a significant impact on the Indian maize processing business. The consumption of maize is expected to exceed its supply due to its growing usage in the manufacturing of ethanol. India's push to increase the ethanol content in gasoline 20% by 2025-26 has driven up the demand for maize-based ethanol. According to India's Department of Agriculture, maize prices are expected to increase in the near future. The growth of the maize processing sector in India is largely driven by the growing demand for maize for industrial purposes. Concurrently, the cost of downstream products like maize starch & its derivative products is also rising. Long-term investment in a maize processing facility is profitable when the manufacturers target domestic as well as export market. In addition, presence of processing facility near the cultivation belts in India will be added advantage for the manufacturer.

Maize starch industry is highly competitive, with large number of players in organized (20-25 players) as well as unorganized sector. Medium to Large players is present in starch, derivatives, and other value-added segments.

Indian maize starch manufacturing companies are currently investing in state of the art manufacturing facilities and charting out expansion plans to cater domestic as well as global demand. Maize milling plants of Regaal Resources Limited (1), Cargill (1), Gujarat Ambuja Exports Limited (2) and Roquette (3) have zero liquid discharge, wherein the plant discharges no liquid effluent into surface waters, in effect eliminating the environmental pollution associated with treatment and making it more ESG friendly.

Company is also exploring new opportunities vertical and horizontal integration. Also, Regaal Resources Limited is working on improving buying and selling efficiency by procuring maize directly from farmers and selling its products directly to the companies bypassing traders.

c) Experienced Promoters with a Team of Industry Veterans

Maize Starch industry is thriving currently based on Experienced Promoters with capable technical team that is driving the Organised players to continue their growth trajectory.

Promoter Dr CK Jain of Gulshan Polyols have close to four decades experience in maize milling industry. Kasyap Family of Kashyap Sweetener's is in maize milling business since 1986 giving company leverage of experience. Promoter of Rajaram Maize Products - Gupta Family is in business from 1966. The market position of Sukhjit Starch and Chemicals Limited is supported by extensive industry experience of key promoters, Sardana family, and the company's vintage in the industry.

Regaal Resources Limited's promoters, Mr Anil Kishorepuria and Mr Karan Kishorepuria combined have close to three decades of experience in the manufacturing, retail, real estate, and trading industry giving them the understanding of market dynamics. Also, this has helped them to establish working relationships with suppliers and customers. Managing Director, Mr Anil Kishorepuria has 25+ years of experience in manufacturing, real estate, retail and trading industry and has been instrumental in setting up the first & only maize milling unit in Bihar. Regaal Resources Limited have a competent and resourceful team which comprises of Mr Karan Kishorepuria- Director, Saikat Chatterjee - Chief Financial Officer and Rohan Kishorepuria - Vice President, Sales. Regaal Resources Limited had set up its Starch Manufacturing plant in 2017 and the Commercial Production commenced in September 2018. But because of Promoters' business acumen they were able to do quickly ramp up the plant operations.

d) Proximity to Raw Material Catchment and First Mover Advantage

Entire business for Maize milling is based on efficient procurement of maize in terms of price and quality. Availability of maize is a challenge, as maize has other uses such as Ethanol production and Animal Feed. As maize is a seasonal crop, it needs to be stocked to ensure continuous supply to maize milling units for entire year. Located in close proximity to maize growing regions would help companies to procure maize more efficiently. Companies can also buy directly from farmers thereby saving on the commissions given to middlemen.

GAEL has strong in-house purchase and procurement system. Raw material price fluctuations are mitigated through timely procurements which is in commensurate with Export orders of the company. Company has strategically located plant in Gujarat, Uttarakhand, Karnataka, Maharashtra and West Bengal which are in close proximity to maize growing clusters.

Maize milling facilities for Sukhjit Starch and Chemical products are strategically located across North, South and East regions of India which are in proximity to source the key raw material. Further, different weather conditions in stated regions allow steady procurement of maize throughout the year at competitive prices, providing additional edge to company.

Regaal Resources Limited 's maize milling unit is strategically located in Kishanganj, Bihar which is maize growing belt of the region thus ensuring good supply of the key raw material to the company. The company also benefits from lower raw material procurement costs by directly purchasing maize from farmers thereby eliminating middlemen (wholesale traders). Regaal Resources Limited also procures maize from the Gulabbagh 'mandi', one of India's largest maize markets. Gulabbagh 'mandi' is in Purnia district of Bihar and is located a distance of 110 km from Regaal Resources Limited's manufacturing facility. Thus, logistics cost is also reduced, and company has access to abundant quantities of high-quality maize at competitive prices.

Company also procures a significant percentage of maize from wholesale traders and agri-distribution companies thus diversifying source of maize ensuring that company is not overly dependent on any one source and we are able to negotiate the best available rates.

It is also the closest located unit in north-eastern states, giving a geographical edge over others in the market. Regaal's Manufacturing Facility is also strategically located 21 Km from the Bengal border which is also a key area for maize cultivation and 209 Km from Assam border.

Regaal Resources Limited is the only company to have maize milling plant located in Bihar and thus it reaps benefit of increased customer loyalty within north-eastern belt. It also receives 100% Interest subsidy (up to 20Cr) and interest capping of 10% on every subsequent expansion and 100% exemption on State GST by Bihar government. Also, Bihar's labour rate is one of the lowest in country.

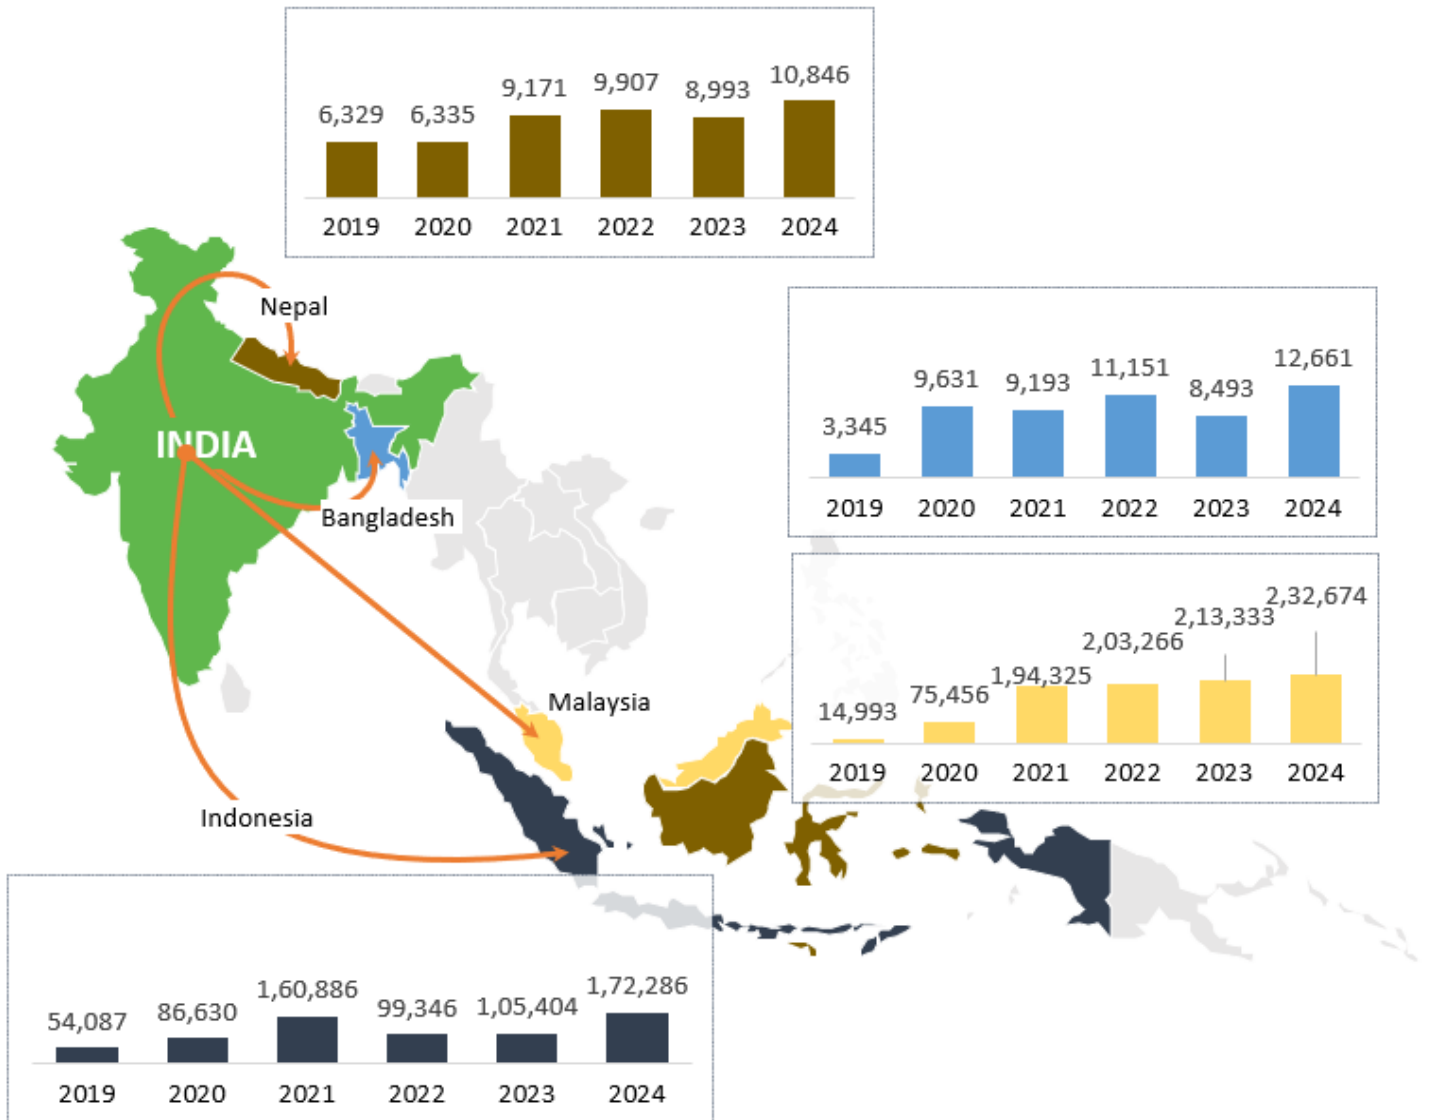

At present Gujarat Ambuja Exports Limited has largest maize milling capacity ~1,200 TPD setup in Malda, West Bengal which got operational from April 2023. Regaal Resources Limited is the second largest player in east region with maize milling capacity of ~750 TPD and amongst the top 10 largest maize milling companies in terms of capacity in India. Sukhjit Starch and Chemicals Limited has the third largest capacities (~450 TPD) in eastern zone.

e) Proximity to Major Maize Starch Importing Countries

Proximity to Export destinations and ports is added advantage to maize starch and derivatives producing companies as it saves transportation cost to company. GAEL has strategic advantage as its plants are close to ports which aid in exporting.

Regaal Resources Limited's plant in Bihar is in close proximity to countries like Nepal and Bangladesh which are the major importers for starch. Maize milling plant of Regaal Resources Limited is 235 kms from Bangladesh border, & only 24 kms from Nepal border (Kakarbhitta).

Companies in the East zone will also reap the benefits of the newly developed Inland Container Depot (ICD) developed in Siliguri, which is a first of its kind facility for domestic and international cargo movement in the region. This ICD is only 45-50 kms from Regaal Resources Limited's plant location which will help exports to Nepal and Bhutan.

Raw Material Assessment

Raw Material- Maize

Maize is one of the major cereal crops grown in India. Production has increased at CAGR 7.2% from 2019 to 2025. Rising domestic demand for industrial usage and poultry feed may outstrip the domestic maize cultivation in the near future.

Maize is crucial to India's agribusiness value chain. Along with its importance as a foodgrain, maize is also important for biofuel as well as animal feed industry. Due to demand from multiple end industries, supply-demand dynamics plays a major role. The sowing and harvesting seasons have a significant impact on supply and demand for maize. During the months of March to May and September to December, maize harvesting in India is at its peak and purchase of maize usually takes place during such months for stocking purposes.

Feed mills and Poultry farms often hold stock for 30 to 60 days, depending on their mill capacities, financial stability, and receivables cycle. Maize starch millers stock maize for 3- 5 months. Purchase of maize usually happens during peak arrival season at low prices for stocking purposes. The inventory is maintained to tide over the peak price months, and buying for regular requirement continues in parallel. Trading companies normally enter into forward trade agreements with consumers (mills, poultry farms) and purchase the grain during peak arrival season. These holding patterns, along with the seasonality of planting and harvesting, have a significant impact on the supply-demand dynamics of maize.

Furthermore, maize prices are volatile, which leaves the manufacturer for Maize Starch with limited pricing power in maize-based commodity products like starch powder.

Due to rising consumer demand and limited domestic supply, India is likely to continue importing smaller quantities of food grade maize for the food processing industry.

Nutritional Value and Quality of maize - Maize quality standards and specifications are important because they safeguard safety, nutritional value, and the worth of maize in the market. The general appearance of maize serves as a gauge of its quality. If some of the grains are compromised by insects or rodents, are stained, mouldy, fractured, or contaminated by non-grain material of either organic or inorganic origin, the quality of the crop declines.

The starch in most maize hybrids is composed of about 70–80% amylopectin and 20–30% amylose. Understanding the hardness and texture of maize is crucial for commercial milling processes as starch is the most prevalent component in maize. Maize kernel contains roughly 65-75% starch (dry basis). In addition to providing energy, starch acts as a source of sugar for the developing germ during germination. Maize can be prepared in a variety of ways for use as an energy source for animals (including humans), including cracking or milling it before cooking it into a variety of food dishes.

Starch in Maize has amylopectin up to 75% as its major component. It varies between 70% and 80% in normal maize, but a genetic variation in the starch synthesis can have starch composed of 100% amylopectin, sometimes called waxy maize. Another 25% of starch is made of amylose.

Currently Indian Maize millers are facing challenge of procuring good quality maize at competitive price. One aspect of this is export of good quality maize and other is trader's urgency to procure maize from farmers which may lead to negligence in post-harvest activities particularly drying.

Also, the boost given by the Government for Ethanol production may lead to further challenges in procuring Maize for Starch manufacturing.

Fuel and other consumables used in Maize processing industry

Coal is used as primary source of fuel for maize milling plants. It is traditionally purchased from traders. According to industry sources, 1 MT of Indian coal can generate 4-4.5 MT of steam whereas 1 MT of imported coal generates 5-6 MT of steam. Prices for high calorific value coal ranged between Rs 8-15/kg. Low calorific value is priced at Rs 3.7- 7/ kg.

As an alternative to coal, use of husk is also increasing in Maize milling plants. It is one of the most abundant and affordable renewable sources for producing starch and derivatives. According to industry sources, 1 MT of husk would produce 3-3.5 MT of steam. There are various husks available in market – Soya husk, Groundnut husk, Rice husk, and Mustard husk. Husk prices normally range from Rs 3-10/kg. Rice husk costs range between Rs 6-10/Kg. Rice husk is preferred as fuel because of its abundant availability, and it contains up to 30-50% of organic carbon which has high calorific value of 13-16 MJ per kg. Rice husk is purchased from miller or traders with the moisture content of 13-15%. Husk can be used after size reduction in the form of pellets and briquettes.

Companies are shifting towards green energy, and the use of husk has been increasing as it is environmentally friendly and cost-effective.

OUR COMPETITIVE STRENGTHS

We operate in a competitive industry and we rely on a number of factors to distinguish ourselves from our peers and competitors. Some of the salient aspect of our competitive strengths are set out below.

Strategic locational advantage of our Manufacturing Facility close to raw material and end consumption markets

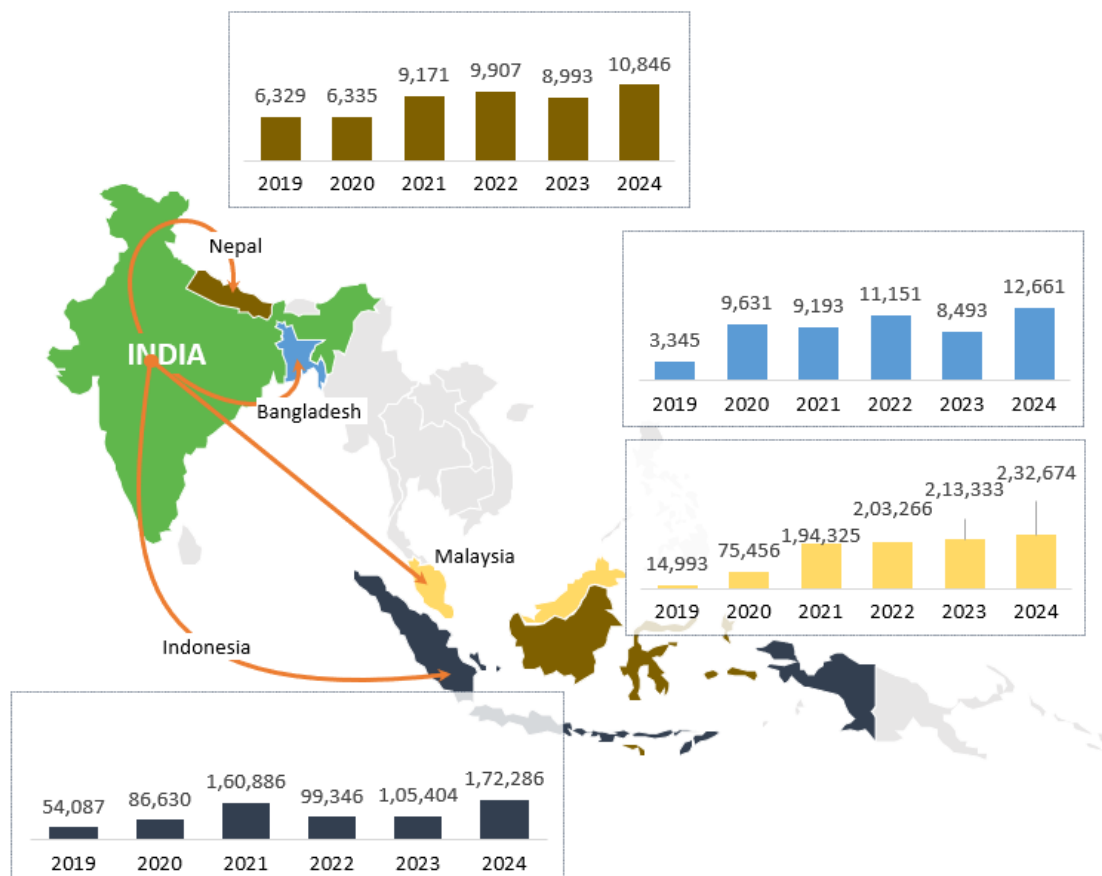

We are strategically located in the heart of one of India's largest maize growing hubs i.e. in Kishanganj district in Bihar, which is one of the top 3 maize cultivating states in India. Our Manufacturing Facility is also strategically located 21 Km from the West Bengal border which is also a key area for maize cultivation and 209 Km from Assam border. According to F&S Report, in 2024-2025, the predominant maize growing states that contributed more than 80% of the total maize production are Madhya Pradesh (15.87%), Karnataka (14.57%), Bihar (11.58%), Maharashtra (11.52%), Telangana (7.12%), West Bengal (6.57%), Rajasthan (6.36%), Tamil Nadu (6.24%), Andhra Pradesh (4.66%) and Uttar Pradesh (4.02%). According to F&S Report, Bihar and West Bengal are traditional maize producing states in the country. The Seemanchal and Koshi regions of Bihar have become major hubs for maize farming in recent years. Maize has replaced other crops as the main cash crop for farmers in the Seemanchal districts of Bihar such as Purnea, Kishanganj, Araria, and Katihar.

According to F&S Report, harvesting window of Rabi maize in Bihar and West Bengal is unique as it does not overlap with harvesting of maize in any other maize producing states hence it provides for an 'Exclusive Availability Window' of maize crop.

This unique advantage is afforded to us due to the strategic location of our unit in Bihar is accentuated by the fact that we are the only maize milling plant in Bihar, according to F&S Report. This ensures us a consistent supply of our key raw material. According to F&S Report, we also benefit from lower logistics cost owing to the proximity of our maize milling facility to the Gulabghat 'mandi', one of India's largest maize markets. Gulabghat 'mandi' is located in Purnia district of Bihar and is located a distance of 110 km from our maize milling facility. We, therefore, have access to abundant quantities of high quality maize at competitive prices.

A further advantage of having a Manufacturing Facility in Bihar is the easy access to our key domestic and export markets. Our Manufacturing Facility is located in East India, giving us a geographical edge over others in the market. In addition, according to F&S Report, our Manufacturing Facility is in close proximity to countries like Nepal and Bangladesh which are the major importers for starch. Set out below is a pictorial representation of the maize starch exported by India.

The Bihar Industrial Investment Promotion Policy, 2016 (which was extended upto 2020 and then 2025) (BIIPP) provides provisions for interest subvention to the eligible units with installed capacity of more than 100 TPD including units for manufacturing starch and cattle and/or poultry feed on the term loan availed by the unit from a bank/ financial institution registered by RBI/SEBI. According to F&S Report, under the BIIPP, (a) the interest subvention of 10% or actual rate of interest on term loan, whichever is lower subject to maximum limit of ₹ 200 million; (b) 100% reimbursement against the admitted State GST for a period of 5 years from the date of commencement of commercial production is given to starch manufacturers.

According to F&S Report, we also have abundant ground water for our manufacturing operations since our Manufacturing Facility is located 5.2 Km from the Mechi River. This provides us with a reliable and sustainable water source, which is a critical asset for maintaining continuous operations. Having plentiful groundwater onsite reduces our reliance on external water supply systems, ensuring we can meet our water needs independently even during periods of drought or municipal restrictions. This self-sufficiency is particularly advantageous for industrial processes that require large volumes of water for cooling, cleaning, or production, as it helps to avoid costly downtime and production delays caused by water shortages. Additionally, the availability of groundwater on our property reduces operational costs associated with purchasing water and helps to mitigate risks related to rising water prices or supply disruptions. It offers a strategic advantage in maintaining business continuity while supporting responsible water management practices.

Our Manufacturing Facility is located near National Highway 327E and is very well connected, with Bagdogra airport at 35.7 Km and Thakurganj Railway Station at 9.6 Km from the facility. This enables easy connectivity for people, supplies and end produce to and from the Manufacturing Facility. Moreover, according to F&S Report, companies in East zone will also reap the benefits of newly developed Inland Container Depot (ICD) developed in Siliguri, West Bengal, which is the first of its kind facility for domestic and international cargo movement in the region. According to F&S Report, this ICD is only 45-50 kms from our Manufacturing Facility which will help exports to Nepal and Bhutan.

Efficient procurement strategy aided by multifaceted raw material sourcing avenues

We have over the years honed our procurement strategy and managed to diversify our sourcing of our key raw material i.e. maize from multiple sources. Our raw material sourcing strategy entails us procuring maize primarily from the following sources:

1. Farmers / cultivators through aggregators;
2. Traders in Bihar and West Bengal; and
3. Agri-distribution companies.

Diversifying our sources of maize ensures that we are not overly dependent on any one source, we are able to negotiate competitive rates and have steady supply of raw material. Set out in the table below is a break-up of our maize procurement from different sources in Fiscal 2025, Fiscal 2024, and Fiscal 2023, based on our Restated Financial Information:

Particulars	Fiscal 2025		Fiscal 2024		Fiscal 2023
	Amount (in ₹ million)	% of total maize procured	Amount (in ₹ million)	% of total maize procured	Amount (in ₹ million)	% of total maize procured
Traders	5,802.59	80.80	3,864.64	84.88	2,090.89	65.68
Farmers / cultivators through aggregators	365.51	5.09	103.92	2.28	214.38	6.73
Agri-distribution companies	1,013.08	14.11	584.58	12.84	878.10	27.59
Total	7,181.18	100.00	4,553.14	100.00	3,183.37	100.00

We primarily source our maize requirements from traders, the majority of whom are based in Bihar and West Bengal. In addition to traders, we also procure maize from agri-distribution companies and directly from farmers or cultivators through aggregators.

Around 5.09% of our total maize requirement was sourced directly from farmers / cultivators through aggregators for the Fiscal 2025. We have succeeded in establishing a strong relationship with the farmers/ cultivators in the vicinity of our Manufacturing Facility. We also have an initiative viz., Regaal Kissan Maitri, to ensure better brand recall. Through this initiative we organise awareness visits in neighbouring villages, hold annual interactions with the farmers at our Manufacturing Facility etc. We have created an animation information video to popularise the Regaal Kissan Maitri initiative amongst farmers. The direct raw material procurement model through aggregators also aids in lowering our procurement cost and gives us access to good quality raw material. We procure maize from a farmers / cultivators – for instance, in the Fiscal 2025, we procured 17,431.44 tonnes of maize from farmers/cultivators through aggregators who are responsible for coordinating with the farmers on our behalf. We have long-standing relationships with our aggregators.

A crucial aspect of manufacturing process is the storage of maize. Adequate storage facilities and maintaining inventory is imperative for our business. Our storage infrastructure plays a pivotal role in ensuring seamless operations. Our storage facilities which include warehouses and humidity controlled silos, prioritize the safe and efficient storage of our raw material and finished products. We have built 4 silos each with a total storage capacity of 10,000 MT i.e. an aggregate of 40,000 MT. Additionally, we have also built a 138,747 square feet raw material warehouses which is capable of storing 25,000 tonnes of maize which along with our storage silos enable us to store an aggregate of 65,000 MT of maize.

We have developed a specialised team for the procurement of maize, and we spend significant time and resources in ensuring that we procure maize of appropriate quality. To ensure quality procurement at low prices and to establish strong linkage with suppliers, we have also set up office in Gulabghat, one of India's largest maize markets. Gulabghat 'mandi' is located in Purnia district of Bihar and is located a distance of 110 km from our Manufacturing Facility. As on May 31, 2025, the maize procurement team of our Company comprised 36 permanent employees led by Vivek Lilha, Deputy General Manager –Procurement, who has 15 years of experience across various organisations.

Sustainability driven Manufacturing Facility with high levels of utilization

One of the key areas of our focus since inception has been our Manufacturing Facility and wet milling process. We have continuously improved and upgraded our Manufacturing Facility and enhanced and streamlined our wet milling processes which is also reflected in our high levels of capacity utilization.

Our installed capacity, actual production, capacity utilisation and captive power usage as on May 31, 2025, and in Fiscal 2025, Fiscal 2024, and Fiscal 2023, is set out below:

As certified by the independent chartered engineer dated August 6, 2025.

Our Manufacturing Facility has dedicated storage spaces and an automated packing unit with weather proof loading docks and specialized flooring for finished goods handling with a total capacity of 5,000 MT, ensuring smooth operations and optimal material handling throughout the production process.

Our Manufacturing Facility also has a total installed co-generation power plant of 7.1 MW which allows us to be self-sufficient to a large extent for our power needs. Our co-generation boiler and power plant (Power Plant) is a dual feed plant (i.e. a Power Plant that can utilise either coal or husk for power generation) for captive power generation and utilisation. This co-generation plant not only ensures a steady power supply, reducing dependence on external sources, but also enhances operational efficiency by utilizing the pressure and temperature differential between steam production and steam utilisation points. This process optimizes resource use, lowers production costs, and minimizes environmental impact by allowing use of sustainable fuel sources like husk. By generating electricity and thermal energy simultaneously, the cogeneration plant supports our commitment to sustainability.

In line with our commitment to sustainable business practices our Manufacturing Facility, according to F&S Report, is one of the few maize wet milling facilities in India with a ZLD unit. ZLD systems prevent liquid waste from contaminating water sources. In furtherance of our effort to ensure sustainable growth, we recycle water through our effluent treatment facility, ZLD unit, and reverse osmosis facility.

A further reflection of our commitment towards quality control and quality assurance is the fact that our Manufacturing Facility is accredited with ISO 9001:2015 (Quality Management System), ISO 14001:2015 (Environmental Management Systems), ISO 22000: 2018 (Food Safety Management System), ISO 45001:2018 (Operational Health and Safety Management) and is HALAL certified.

Diversified portfolio of products catering to wide range of industries and well positioned to take advantage of growing industry trends

According to F&S Report, we are amongst the top 10 largest maize milling companies in India, in terms of crushing capacity with a total installed crushing capacity of 750 TPD. With our revenue growing at a CAGR of 36.95% between Fiscal 2023 and Fiscal 2025, we are one of the fastest growing maize based specialty products manufacturers in India among our identified peers. We commenced our operations with a key product viz., native maize starch and certain co-products viz., gluten, germ, enriched fiber etc. Over the years, we have diversified our product range and manufacture an assorted range of maize based speciality products. We continually diversify our product bouquet, and from Fiscal 2022 have added the following to product portfolio:

- Modified starches viz., white dextrin, yellow dextrin, oxidized starch and edible starch.
- Value added products such as maize flour, icing sugar, custard powder and baking powder; and
- A co-product viz., maize steep liquor.

Our diversified product bouquet i.e. native maize starch finds application across varied industries such as food & beverage, textile, paper, adhesive sectors. According to F&S Report, starch is used as a binder and filler for tablets and capsules, as well as to strengthen ice cream cones, give cloth weight, and increase the quality of paper for writing and printing.

The expansion of our business is driven by the growth of end-user industries such as animal nutrition, snacks, confectionary, convenience foods, sauces & spices, spreads, pharmaceuticals, paper and apparel.

As part of our strategic initiatives, we intend to deleverage our Company and pare our outstanding debt to enable us to inter alia reduce our finance costs and improve our cash flows, which will in turn allow us to utilise such cash flows and funds towards business operations and to execute our other strategies. We propose to utilise a sum of ₹ 1,590.00 million from the Fresh Issue Proceeds towards paring our outstanding debt obligations. For further details, see ‘Objects of the Offer’ on page 124.

Commence manufacturing derivative products and further broad-basing our product range of modified starches

We have in a short span of 6 years progressed significantly and developed a large product bouquet. As on May 31, 2025, our product basket consists of 14 products native maize starch, germ, gluten, fiber, maize steep liquor, enrich fiber, icing sugar, custard powder, baking powder, maize flour, yellow dextrin, white dextrin, oxidized starch and edible starch.

Our diverse range of products has been one of the key factors for our consistent growth and we believe that to sustain or better our rate of growth we will need to continually work on broadening our product range.

We propose to diversify our offerings with a particular focus on the following 2 aspects:

Commencing production of derivative products

We propose to venture into manufacturing derivative products such as maltodextrin powder and liquid glucose.

Maltodextrin powder – It is used as thickener, food additive, anti-caking agent, bulking agent and food flavour carrier. It can be found as an ingredient in a variety of processed foods. Maltodextrin powder finds application in the F&B, pharmaceuticals, agriculture and healthcare industries. According to F&S Report, global market for maltodextrin is valued at USD 2,046 million in 2024 and is expected to grow at CAGR 5.48 % on account of increasing demand from food industry and the maltodextrin market in India was valued at USD 151.5 million in 2024 and is expected to reach USD 210.8 million at growth rate of 6.84% by 2029. Companies provide customised maltodextrin powder based on variations in Dextrose equivalent (DE) values. The graphs below depict the global and Indian market size details of maltodextrin powder.

Liquid glucose – Liquid glucose also known as maize syrup acts as a flavour enhancer, stabilizer, texture enhancer, humectants, adjuncts, preservative, and coating and bulking agent. It finds application in F&B, pharmaceutical, cosmetics and personal care and pulp paper industries. According to F&S Report, the Indian market for liquid glucose was valued at USD 195.2 million in 2024 and is expected to grow at rate of 3.90% till 2029 to reach valuation of USD 236.4 million, whereas the global glucose market size was valued at USD 2,360.8 million in 2024 and is expected to expand at CAGR of 4.12% from 2024 to 2029 and is forecasted to reach 2,888.9 million.

Our Company further proposes to manufacture of Dextrose Monohydrate and Dextrose Anhydrous as well. As per F&S Report, Dextrose Monohydrate is used as nutritional supplement and sweetener in food such as in confectioneries, jams, jellies; bakery such as cakes, biscuits, cookies; beverages, and honey products and Dextrose Anhydrous is used in industries including food & beverage, pharmaceutical, agriculture/animal feed, among others.

Expanding our basket of modified starch product

Currently, we manufacture variety of modified starch products such as white dextrin and yellow dextrin, oxidized starch and edible starch. We propose to add modified starch products such as cationic starch, carboxyl methyl starch, Indian Pharmacopoeia grade starch and pregel starch. Modified starch is a crucial and useful ingredient found in manufacturing ready-to-eat food products. According to F&S Report, the growth of modified starch market is anticipated due to rising consumer demand for processed foods, paper, textile and chemicals industry over the coming years. Along with ready to eat products, modified starch is utilized in a wide range of industries, including pharmaceuticals, paper, cosmetics, personal care, and textiles due to its varied technical properties. According to F&S Report, the personal care and cosmetics industries use modified starch as a versatile additive. Manufacturers are investing in technology and research for use of organic ingredients like modified starch, as the demand for natural products has grown over the past few years, which is expected to fuel product demand in the coming years.

According to F&S Report, the global modified starch market size was valued at USD 16,392 million in 2024 and is anticipated to expand at a CAGR of 5.23% from 2024 to 2029. Also, the modified starch market in India is expected to grow at a CAGR of 5.87% between 2024 and 2029.

Increasing domestic reach and international footprint

Our Company is currently catering to a few customers in South Indian states such as Andhra Pradesh and Telangana.

In Fiscal 2025, Fiscal 2024, and Fiscal 2023, our revenue from operations, based on our Restated Financial Information, generated from South India is as below.

 South India includes Karnataka, Kerala, Tamil Nadu, Andhra Pradesh, and Telangana

We propose to expand our domestic reach and expand our presence in South India. As a part of business strategy, our Company proposes to increase its presence in South India by further expanding in Andhra Pradesh and Telangana, initially, and gradually in other states viz. Tamil Nadu and Karnataka.

The key end-user industries for our maize based specialty products in India are paper, textile, pharmaceutical, F&B and adhesive. The South Indian states of Andhra Pradesh, Karnataka, Tamil Nadu and Telangana are home to a large number of companies which operate in quite a few of the aforementioned industries.

The map below outlines the potential in South India.

Note: This map is not to scale and is only a representation.

We believe there is significant scope to expand our domestic reach given the opportunities available in South India. We believe that the proposed expansion of our capacity will enable us to further scale up our operations, garner new customers and enable us to be successfully expand our operations into South India. To enable us to increase our penetration in the South Indian market, one of our existing members of Senior Management has been designated to focus on building our customer network.

Further, we have, thus far, concentrated on building capacity and expanding our product portfolio. Our Company now intends to focus more on export markets too. With the proposed increase our capacity, we propose to expand our geographic presence overseas.

Developing our white labelling business

In Fiscal 2025, we undertook manufacturing of certain products such as maize flour, baking powder, custard powder and icing sugar. The specifications for the manufacturing were provided by the customer which also provided the necessary artwork for white labelling. With the proposed expansion of our Manufacturing Facility, our continuous focus on quality and standardized processes we anticipate that we will be able to cater to this aspect of the business on an increasing scale.

Manufacturing process

Set out below is a snapshot of our manufacturing process.

- Maize Cleaning

The maize procured is cleaned in 3 stages to remove impurities like cobs, broken maize, stones, sand and any other material. After cleaning the maize is either stored and given to process for crushing.

- Steeping

Steeping is a process where maize is mixed with Sulphur-di-oxide water and boiled. This enables to loosen bond of different products (gluten, fiber, germ and starch) in maize for separation and processing. Incorrect steeping can cause decrease in recovery and quality of the final products.

- Corn steep liquor (CSL) evaporation

The steeped liquor from the steeping process is evaporated. The process is called CSL evaporation and multi-effect evaporators are used for the same. Such steeped liquor is then mixed with fiber to increase its protein which is further sold to the market.

- 1st grinding

The first grinding process in corn wet milling is called 'first germ break' or 'first grind'. This step is crucial in separating the germ from the rest of the kernel while minimizing damage to the starch.

- 2nd grinding

The second grinding process in corn wet milling is called the 'second grind' or 'fine grinding'. It follows the first germ break and is aimed at further separating starch, fiber, and protein.

- Germ washing

Germ washing is a key step in the corn wet milling process that occurs after the first grind and germ separation. The purpose is to clean the germ by removing any attached starch and protein before it goes to oil extraction. The washing water helps remove any remaining starch and gluten from the germ. This step improves germ purity, which is crucial for higher oil yield and quality.

- Germ dewatering and Drying

Germ is dewatered to reduce moisture in mechanical way before steam drying. This helps to save steam in the dryers. After dewatering, the germ still contains moisture which is then steam dried. This germ with moisture is then steam dried to attain the desired moisture which is in germs to sell in the market.

- Fine grinding

Fine grinding is a critical step in starch extraction during the corn wet milling process. The goal is to completely release the starch granules from the remaining protein and fiber matrix.

- Fiber dewatering

Fiber dewatering is the process of removing excess water from the fiber fraction after fine grinding and separation. This step is crucial for reducing moisture content, making fiber easier to handle, dry, and use as a byproduct (e.g., in animal feed). The moisture of fiber after dewatering is reduced.

- Fiber drying

This fiber with moisture is then steam dried to attain the desired moisture in fiber to sell in the market.

- Enrich fiber drying

The fiber after drying is mixed with steeped liquor coming from CSL evaporator and then further dried to make enrich fiber and be sold in the market.

- Starch and Gluten Separation:

Starch and gluten separation is a process where starch is separated from gluten in liquid form. This process uses a centrifugal machine.

- Gluten Concentration

Gluten is further concentrated in centrifugal machines to remove water from the gluten. This water is further recycled with the help of ETP and RO. The concentrated gluten is then dewatered by the help of rotary vacuum drum filter which converts the concentrated glute into cake form which is further steam dried and packed.

- Starch Slurry

After starch is separated from the primary separator, it is further washed in hydrocyclones to remove excess protein and to increase the purity of starch after which is dewatered with the help of centrifugal machines. After this process the starch is steam dried and packed.

- Storage/ Packing

All finished goods are packed in polypropylene bags and stored in godowns with free ventilation. These bags are of 3 sizes, 25 Kg, 50 Kg and 900 Kg (used for exports and supply to customers in paper industry). Generally goods are packed in 50 KG bags. If there is an exception of 25 kg and 900 kg, a schedule of the same is given to production 3 days before so that proper scheduling can happen in packing.

- Logistics

Finished goods loaded in trucks and sold as per dispatch schedule given by the sales team. Dispatch schedule is given by the sales team every day. Our logistic team arranges truck from the market. The dispatch manager at the factory organises the loading schedule as per dispatch given. The goods are loaded with the help of forklift and labours and shipped after proper documentation

2.2 Basis of measurement

The Company maintains accounts on accrual basis following the historical cost convention, except for the followings:

- Certain Financial Assets and Liabilities are measured at Fair value/ Amortized cost (refer accounting policy regarding financial instruments);
- Freehold Land – Fair value considered on transition to Ind AS.

2.3 Functional and Presentation Currency

The Restated Financial Statements are presented in Indian Rupee (INR), which is the functional currency of the Company and the currency of the primary economic environment in which the Company operates. All amounts disclosed in restated financial statements and notes have been rounded off to the nearest million (with two places of decimal) unless otherwise stated.

2.4 Use of Estimates and Critical Accounting Judgements

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with Ind AS requires judgements, estimates and assumptions to be made that affect the reported amount of assets and liabilities, disclosure of contingent liabilities on the date of the financial statements and the reported amount of revenues and expenses during the reporting period. Difference between the actual results and estimates are recognized in the period in which the results are known/ materialized.

2.5 Operating Cycle for current and non-current classification

All assets and liabilities have been classified as current or non-current as per the Company's normal operating cycle and other criteria set out in the Schedule III to the Companies Act, 2013 and Ind AS 1. The Company has ascertained its operating cycle as twelve months for the purpose of current and non-current classification of assets and liabilities.

An asset is classified as current when it is:

- Expected to be realized or intended to sold or consumed in normal operating cycle;
- Held primarily for the purpose of trading;
- Expected to be realized within twelve months after the reporting period; or
- Cash or cash equivalent unless restricted from being exchanged or used to settle a liability for at least twelve months after the reporting period.

All the other assets are classified as non-current.

A liability is current when:

- It is expected to be settled in normal operating cycle;
- It is held primarily for the purpose of trading;
- It is due to be settled within twelve months after the reporting period; or
- There is no unconditional right to defer the settlement of the liability for at least twelve months after the reporting period.

The Company classifies all other liabilities as non-current. Deferred Tax Assets and Liabilities are classified as non-current assets and liabilities respectively.

2.6 Measurement of Fair Values

A number of the Company's accounting policies and disclosures require the measurement of fair values, for both financial and non-financial assets and liabilities.

Fair value is the price that would be received to sell an asset or paid to transfer a liability in an orderly transaction between market participants at the measurement date. The fair value measurement is based on the presumption that the transaction to sell the asset or transfer the liability takes place either:

- In the principal market for the asset or liability, or
- In the absence of a principal market, in the most advantageous market for the asset or liability.

The principal or the most advantageous market must be accessible by the Company. The fair value of an asset or a liability is measured using the assumptions that market participants would use when pricing the asset or liability, assuming that market participants act in their economic best interest. A fair value measurement of a non-financial asset takes into account a market participant's ability to generate economic benefits by using the asset in its highest and best use or by selling it to another market participant that would use the asset in its highest and best use.

The Company uses valuation techniques that are appropriate in the circumstances and for which sufficient data are available to measure fair value, maximizing the use of relevant observable inputs and minimizing the use of unobservable inputs.

All assets and liabilities for which fair value is measured or disclosed in the special purpose financial statements are categorised within the fair value hierarchy, described as follows, based on the input that is significant to the fair value measurement as a whole:

- Level 1 – Quoted (unadjusted) market prices in active markets for identical assets or liabilities
- Level 2 – Valuation techniques for which the lowest level input that is significant to the fair value measurement is directly or indirectly observable and
- Level 3 – Valuation techniques for which the lowest level input that is significant to the fair value measurement is unobservable.

External valuers are involved for valuation of significant assets & liabilities. Involvement of external valuers is decided by the management of the company considering the requirements of Ind AS and selection criteria include market knowledge, reputation, independence and whether professional standards are maintained.

3 SUMMARY OF MATERIAL ACCOUNTING POLICIES

3.1 INVENTORIES

Raw materials, packaging materials and stores and spare parts are valued at lower of cost and net realizable value. However, material and other items held for use in production of inventories are not written down below cost if the finished products in which they will be incorporated are expected to be sold at or above cost.

Cost includes purchase price, (excluding those subsequently recoverable by the enterprise from the concerned revenue authorities), freight inwards and other expenditure incurred in bringing such inventories to their present location and condition.

Finished Goods are valued at lower of cost and net realisable value. Cost includes cost of direct materials and direct labour and a proportion of manufacturing overhead based on the normal operating capacity. Cost is determined on weighted average basis.

Scrap and other items are valued at net realisable value.

Net realizable value is the estimated selling price in the ordinary course of business, less the estimated cost of completion and the estimated costs necessary to make the sale.

3.2 CASH AND CASH EQUIVALENTS

Cash and cash equivalent in the balance sheet comprise cash at banks and on hand and short term deposits with an original maturity of three months or less, which are subject to an insignificant risk of change in value.

For the purpose of the statement of cash flows, cash and cash equivalents includes cash on hand, term deposits and other short-term highly liquid investments, net of bank overdrafts as they are considered an integral part of the Company's cash management. Bank overdrafts are shown within short term borrowings in the balance sheet.

3.3 INCOME TAX

The income tax expense or credit for the period is the tax payable on the current period's taxable income based on the applicable income tax rate for each jurisdiction adjusted by changes in deferred tax assets and liabilities attributable to temporary differences and to unused tax losses. Current and deferred tax is recognized in the statement of profit & loss, except to the extent that it relates to items recognized in other comprehensive income or directly in equity. In this case, the tax is also recognized in other comprehensive income or directly in equity, respectively.

3.3.1 Current Tax:

Current tax liabilities (or assets) for the current and prior periods are measured at the amount expected to be paid to (recovered from) the taxation authorities using the tax rates (and tax laws) that have been enacted or substantively enacted, at the end of the reporting period.

3.3.2 Deferred Tax

- Deferred Tax assets and liabilities is measured at the tax rates that are expected to apply to the period when the asset is realized or the liability is settled based on tax rates (and tax laws) that have been enacted or substantively enacted by the end of the reporting period.
- Deferred tax is recognized in respect of temporary differences between the carrying amounts of assets and liabilities for financial reporting purposes and the corresponding amounts used for taxation purposes (i.e., tax base). Deferred tax is also recognized for carry forward of unused tax losses and unused tax credits.

- Deferred tax assets are recognized to the extent that it is probable that taxable profit will be available against which the deductible temporary differences, and the carry forward of unused tax credits and unused tax losses can be utilized.
- The carrying amount of deferred tax assets is reviewed at the end of each reporting period. The Company reduces the carrying amount of a deferred tax asset to the extent that it is no longer probable that sufficient taxable profit will be available to allow the benefit of part or that entire deferred tax asset to be utilized. Any such reduction is reversed to the extent that it becomes probable that sufficient taxable profit will be available.
- Deferred tax relating to items recognized outside the Statement of Profit and Loss is recognized either in other comprehensive income or in equity. Deferred tax items are recognized in correlation to the underlying transaction either in OCI or directly in equity.
- Deferred tax assets and liabilities are offset when there is a legally enforceable right to set off current tax assets against current tax liabilities and when they relate to income taxes levied by the same taxation authority and the Company intends to settle its current tax assets and liabilities on a net basis.

3.4 PROPERTY, PLANT AND EQUIPMENT

3.4.1 Tangible Assets

3.4.1.1 Recognition and Measurement:

- Property, plant and equipment held for use in the production or/and supply of goods or services, or for administrative purposes, are stated in the balance sheet at cost, less any accumulated depreciation and accumulated impairment losses (if any), except for freehold land which are carried at fair value on transition date as deemed cost.
- Cost of an item of property, plant and equipment acquired comprises its purchase price, including import duties and non-refundable purchase taxes, after deducting any trade discounts and rebates, any directly attributable costs of bringing the assets to its working condition and location for its intended use and present value of any estimated cost of dismantling and removing the item and restoring the site on which it is located.
- If significant parts of an item of property, plant and equipment have different useful lives, then they are accounted for as separate items (major components) of property, plant and equipment.
- Profit or loss arising on the disposal of property, plant and equipment are recognized in the Statement of Profit and Loss.
- On transition to Ind AS, the Company has elected to measure its freehold land at fair value and use that fair value as deemed cost of such freehold land.

3.4.1.2 Subsequent Measurement:

- Subsequent costs are included in the asset's carrying amount, only when it is probable that future economic benefits associated with the cost incurred will flow to the Company and the cost of the item can be measured reliably. The carrying amount of any component accounted for as a separate asset is derecognized when replaced.

- Major Inspection/ Repairs/ Overhauling expenses are recognized in the carrying amount of the item of property, plant and equipment as a replacement if the recognition criteria are satisfied. Any Unamortized part of the previously recognized expenses of similar nature is derecognized.

3.4.1.3 Depreciation and Amortization:

- Depreciation on Property, Plant & Equipment is provided on straight line method in terms of life span of assets prescribed in Schedule II of the Companies Act, 2013 or as reassessed by the Company based on the technical evaluation.
- Depreciation on additions (disposals) during the year is provided on a pro-rata basis i.e., from (up to) the date on which asset is ready for use (disposed of).
- Depreciation method, useful lives and residual values are reviewed at each financial year-end and adjusted if appropriate.

3.4.1.4 Derecognition of Assets

An item of property, plant and equipment is derecognized upon disposal or when no future economic benefits are expected to arise from the continued use of the asset. Any gain or loss arising on the disposal or retirement of an item of property, plant and equipment is determined as the difference between net disposal proceeds and the carrying amount of the asset and is recognized in the statement of profit and loss.

3.4.1.5 Capital Work in Progress

Capital work-in-progress is stated at cost which includes expenses incurred during construction period, interest on amount borrowed for acquisition of qualifying assets and other expenses incurred in connection with project implementation in so far as such expenses relate to the period prior to the commencement of commercial production.

3.5 LEASES

3.5.1 Determining whether an arrangement contains a lease

The determination of whether an arrangement is (or contains) a lease is based on the substance of the arrangement at the inception of the lease. The arrangement is, or contains, a lease if fulfilment of the arrangement is dependent on the use of a specific asset or assets and the arrangement conveys a right to use the asset or assets, even if that right is not explicitly specified in an arrangement.

3.5.2 Company as lessor

➤ Finance Lease

Leases which effectively transfer to the lessee substantially all the risks and benefits incidental to ownership of the leased item are classified and accounted for as finance lease. Lease rental receipts are apportioned between the finance income and capital repayment based on the implicit rate of return. Contingent rents are recognized as revenue in the period in which they are earned.

➤ Operating Lease

Leases in which the Company does not transfer substantially all the risks and rewards of ownership of an asset are classified as operating leases. Rental income from operating leases is recognized on a straight-line basis over the term of the relevant lease except where scheduled increase in rent compensates the Company with expected inflationary costs.

3.5.3 Company as lessee

The Company's lease asset classes primarily consist of leases for Buildings and Plant & Machinery. The Company assesses whether a contract is or contains a lease, at inception of a contract. A contract is, or contains, a lease if the contract conveys the right to control the use of an identified asset for a period of time in exchange for consideration. To assess whether a contract conveys the right to control the use of an identified asset, the Company assesses whether:

- (i) the contract involves the use of an identified asset;
- (ii) the Company has substantially all of the economic benefits from use of the asset through the period of the lease and;
- (iii) the Company has the right to direct the use of the asset.

At the date of commencement of the lease, the Company recognises a right-of-use asset ("ROU") and a corresponding lease liability for all lease arrangements in which it is a lessee, except for leases with a term of twelve months or less (short term leases) and leases of low value assets. For these short term and leases of low value assets, the Company recognises the lease payments as an operating expense on a straight line basis over the term of the lease.

The lease liability is initially measured at the present value of the future lease payments. The lease payments are discounted using the interest rate implicit in the lease or, if not readily determinable, using the incremental borrowing rates. The lease liability is subsequently re-measured by increasing the carrying amount to reflect interest on the lease liability, reducing the carrying amount to reflect the lease payments made.

A lease liability is re-measured upon the occurrence of certain events such as a change in the lease term or a change in an index or rate used to determine lease payments. The re-measurement normally also adjusts the leased assets.

Lease liability and ROU asset have been separately presented in the Balance Sheet and lease payments have been classified as financing cash flows.

The right-of-use assets are initially recognised at cost, which comprises the initial amount of the lease liability adjusted for any lease payments made at or prior to the commencement date of the lease plus any initial direct costs less any lease incentives. They are subsequently measured at cost less accumulated depreciation and impairment losses, if any. Right-of-use assets are depreciated from the commencement date on a straight-line basis over the shorter of the lease term and useful life of the underlying asset.

3.6 REVENUE RECOGNITION

Revenue from contracts with customers is recognized on transfer of control of promised goods or services to a customer at an amount that reflects the consideration to which the Company is expected to be entitled to in exchange for those goods or services.

Revenue towards satisfaction of a performance obligation is measured at the amount of transaction price (net of variable consideration) allocated to that performance obligation. The transaction price of goods sold and services rendered is net of variable consideration on account of various discounts and schemes offered by the Company as part of the contract. This variable consideration is estimated based on the expected value of outflow. Revenue (net of variable consideration) is recognized only to the extent that it is highly probable that the amount will not be subject to significant reversal when uncertainty relating to its recognition is resolved.

3.7 Other Income

Interest Income

Interest income is recognized on time proportion basis taking into account the amount outstanding and the rate applicable.

Rental Income

Rental income is accounted on straight line basis over the lease term and is included in revenue in the statement of profit and loss. The company has determined that it does not need criteria for recognition of lease rental income on a basis other than straight line basis.

Export incentives

Export entitlements is recognized when the right to receive credit as per the terms of schemes is established in respect of the exports made by the company and when there is no significant uncertainty regarding the ultimate collection of the relevant export proceeds.

Insurance claim receivable

Insurance and other claims are accounted on the basis of claims admitted/ expected to be admitted and to the extent that there is no uncertainty in receiving the claims.

3.8 EMPLOYEE BENEFITS

3.8.1 Short Term Benefits

Short term employee benefit obligations are measured on an undiscounted basis and are expensed as the related services are provided. Liabilities for wages and salaries, including non-monetary benefits that are expected to be settled wholly within twelve months after the end of the period in which the employees render the related service are recognized in respect of employees' services up to the end of the reporting period.

3.8.2 Other Long Term Employee Benefits

The liabilities for leave that are not expected to be settled wholly within twelve months are measured as the present value of the expected future payments to be made in respect of services provided by employees up to the end of the reporting period using the projected unit credit method. The benefits are discounted using the government securities (G-Sec) at the end of the reporting period that have terms approximating to the terms of related obligation. Remeasurements as the result of experience adjustment and changes in actuarial assumptions are recognized in statement of profit and loss.

3.8.3 Post-Employment Benefits

The Company operates the following post-employment schemes:

➤ Defined Contribution Plan

Defined contribution plans such as Provident Fund etc. are charged to the statement of profit and loss as and when incurred and paid to Authority.

➤ Defined Benefit Plans

The liability or asset recognized in the Balance Sheet in respect of defined benefit plans is the present value of the defined benefit obligation at the end of the reporting period less the fair value of plan assets. The Company's net obligation in respect of defined benefit plans is calculated separately for each plan by estimating the amount of future benefit that employees have earned in the current and prior periods. The defined benefit obligation is calculated annually by Actuaries using the projected unit credit method.

The liability recognized for defined benefit plans is the present value of the defined benefit obligation at the reporting date less the fair value of plan assets, together with adjustments for unrecognized actuarial gains or losses and past service costs. The net interest cost is calculated by applying the discount rate to the net balance of the defined benefit obligation and the fair value of plan assets. The benefits are discounted using the government securities (G-Sec) at the end of the reporting period that have terms approximating to the terms of related obligation.

Remeasurements of the net defined benefit obligation, which comprise actuarial gains and losses, the return on plan assets (excluding interest) and the effect of the asset ceiling, are recognized in other comprehensive income. Remeasurements recognized in other comprehensive income are reflected immediately in retained earnings and will not be reclassified to the statement of profit and loss.

3.9 BORROWING COSTS

- Borrowing Costs consists of interest and other costs that an entity incurs in connection with the borrowings of funds. Borrowing costs also includes foreign exchange difference to the extent regarded as an adjustment to the borrowing costs.
- Borrowing costs directly attributable to the acquisition or construction of a qualifying asset are capitalized as a part of the cost of that asset that necessarily takes a substantial period of time to complete and prepare the asset for its intended use or sale.
- Transaction costs in respect of long term borrowing are amortized over the tenure of respective loans using Effective Interest Rate (EIR) method. All other borrowing costs are recognized in the statement of profit and loss in the period in which they are incurred.

3.10 GOVERNMENT GRANTS

Government grants are recognized at their fair value, where there is reasonable assurance that the grant will be received and all attached conditions will be complied with. When the grant relates to an expense item, it is recognized as income on a systematic basis over the periods that the related costs, for which it is intended to compensate, are expensed.

The grant relating to the acquisition/ construction of an item of property, plant and equipment, the same is presented by deducting the grant from the carrying amount of the asset.

3.11 FINANCIAL INSTRUMENTS

A financial instrument is any contract that gives rise to a financial asset of one entity and a financial liability or equity instrument of another entity.

3.11.1 Financial Assets

➤ Recognition and Initial Measurement:

All financial assets are initially recognized when the company becomes a party to the contractual provisions of the instruments. A financial asset is initially measured at fair value plus, in the case of financial assets not recorded at fair value through profit or loss, transaction costs that are attributable to the acquisition of the financial asset.

➤ Classification and Subsequent Measurement:

For purposes of subsequent measurement, financial assets are classified in four categories:

- Measured at Amortized Cost;
- Measured at Fair Value Through Other Comprehensive Income (FVTOCI);
- Measured at Fair Value Through Profit or Loss (FVTPL); and
- Equity Instruments designated at Fair Value through Other Comprehensive Income (FVTOCI).

Financial assets are not reclassified subsequent to their initial recognition, except if and in the period the Company changes its business model for managing financial assets.

- Measured at Amortized Cost: A debt instrument is measured at the amortized cost if both the following conditions are met:
 - The asset is held within a business model whose objective is achieved by both collecting contractual cash flows; and
 - The contractual terms of the financial asset give rise on specified dates to cash flows that are solely payments of principal and interest (SPPI) on the principal amount outstanding.

After initial measurement, such financial assets are subsequently measured at amortized cost using the effective interest rate (EIR) method. Amortized cost is calculated by taking into account any discount or premium on acquisition and fees or costs that are an integral part of the EIR. The EIR amortization is included in finance income in the statement of profit or loss. The losses arising from impairment are recognized in the profit or loss. This category generally applies to trade receivables, cash and bank balances, loans and other financial assets of the company.

- Measured at FVTOCI: A debt instrument is measured at the FVTOCI if both the following conditions are met:
 - The objective of the business model is achieved by both collecting contractual cash flows and selling the financial assets; and
 - The asset's contractual cash flows represent SPPI.

Debt instruments meeting these criteria are measured initially at fair value plus transaction costs. They are subsequently measured at fair value with any gains or losses arising on remeasurement recognized in other comprehensive income, except for impairment gains or losses and foreign exchange gains or losses. Interest calculated using the effective interest method is recognized in the statement of profit and loss in investment income.

- Measured at FVTPL: FVTPL is a residual category for debt instruments. Any debt instrument, which does not meet the criteria for categorization as at amortized cost or as FVTOCI, is classified as FVTPL. In addition, the company may elect to designate a debt instrument, which otherwise meets amortized cost or FVTOCI criteria, as at FVTPL. Debt instruments included within the FVTPL category are measured at fair value with all changes recognized in the statement of profit and loss. Equity instruments which are, held for trading are classified as at FVTPL.
- Equity Instruments designated at FVTOCI: For equity instruments, which has not been classified as FVTPL as above, the company may make an irrevocable election to present in other comprehensive income subsequent changes in the fair value. The company makes such election on an instrument-by-instrument basis. The classification is made on initial recognition and is irrevocable. In case the company decides to classify an equity instrument as at FVTOCI, then all fair value changes on the instrument, excluding dividends, are recognized in the OCI. There is no recycling of the amounts from OCI to P&L, even on sale of investment.

➤ Derecognition:

The Company derecognizes a financial asset on trade date only when the contractual rights to the cash flows from the asset expire, or when it transfers the financial asset and substantially all the risks and rewards of ownership of the asset to another entity.

➤ Impairment of Financial Assets:

The Company assesses at each date of balance sheet whether a financial asset or a group of financial assets is impaired. Ind AS - 109 requires expected credit losses to be measured through a loss allowance. The company recognizes impairment loss for trade receivables that do not constitute a financing transaction using expected credit loss model, which involves use of a provision matrix constructed on the basis of historical credit loss experience. For all other financial assets, expected credit losses are measured at an amount equal to the 12 month expected credit losses or at an amount equal to the life time expected credit losses if the credit risk on the financial asset has increased significantly since initial recognition.

3.11.2 Financial Liabilities

➤ Recognition and Initial Measurement:

Financial liabilities are classified, at initial recognition, as at fair value through profit or loss, loans and borrowings, payables or as derivatives, as appropriate. All financial liabilities are recognized initially at fair value and, in the case of loans and borrowings and payables, net of directly attributable transaction costs.

➤ Subsequent Measurement:

Financial liabilities are measured subsequently at amortized cost or FVTPL. A financial liability is classified as FVTPL if it is classified as held-for-trading, or it is a derivative or it is designated as such on initial recognition. Financial liabilities at FVTPL are measured at fair value and net gains and losses, including any interest expense, are recognized in profit or loss. Other financial liabilities are subsequently measured at amortized cost using the effective interest rate method. Interest expense and foreign exchange gains and losses are recognized in profit or loss. Any gain or loss on derecognition is also recognized in profit or loss.

➤ Financial Guarantee Contracts:

Financial guarantee contracts issued by the company are those contracts that require a payment to be made to reimburse the holder for a loss it incurs because the specified debtor fails to make a payment when due in accordance with the terms of a debt instrument. Financial guarantee contracts are recognized initially as a liability at fair value, adjusted for transaction costs that are directly attributable to the issuance of the guarantee. Subsequently, the liability is measured at the higher of the amount of loss allowance determined as per impairment requirement of Ind AS 109 and the amount recognized less cumulative amortization.

➤ Derecognition:

A financial liability is derecognized when the obligation under the liability is discharged or cancelled or expires.

3.11.3 Foreign Currency transactions

Foreign currency (other than the functional currency) transactions are translated into the functional currency using the prevailing rate of exchanges at the dates of transactions. Monetary assets and liabilities denominated in foreign currencies are translated into the functional currency at the rate of exchanges prevailing at the reporting date.

Foreign exchange gains and losses resulting from the settlement of such transactions and from the translation of monetary assets and liabilities are generally recognize in the statement of profit and loss in which they arise except for exchange differences on foreign currency borrowing relating to assets under construction for future productive use, which are included in the cost of those qualifying assets when they are regarded as adjustment to interest cost on those foreign currency borrowing, the balance is presented in the statement of profit and loss within finance costs.

3.11.4 Offsetting financial instruments

Financial assets and liabilities are offset and the net amount is reported in the balance sheet when there is a legally enforceable right to offset the recognized amounts and there is an intention to settle on a net basis or realize the asset and settle the liability simultaneously. The legally enforceable right must not be contingent on future events and must be enforceable in the normal course of business and in the event of default, insolvency or bankruptcy of the counterparty.

3.12 Earnings Per Share

Basic Earnings per share (EPS) amounts are calculated by dividing the profit for the year attributable to equity holders by the weighted average number of equity shares outstanding during the year. Diluted EPS amounts are calculated by dividing the profit attributable to equity holders adjusted for the effects of potential equity shares by the weighted average number of equity shares outstanding during the year plus the weighted average number of equity shares that would be issued on conversion of all the dilutive potential equity shares into equity shares.

3.13 Impairment of Non-Financial Assets

The Company assesses, at each reporting date, whether there is an indication that an asset may be impaired. An asset is treated as impaired when the carrying cost of the asset exceeds its recoverable value being higher of value in use and net selling price. Value in use is computed at net present value of cash flow expected over the balance useful lives of the assets. For the purpose of assessing impairment, assets are grouped at the lowest levels for which there are separately identifiable cash inflows which are largely independent of the cash inflows from other assets or group of assets (Cash Generating Units – CGU).

An impairment loss is recognized as an expense in the Statement of Profit and Loss in the year in which an asset is identified as impaired. The impairment loss recognized in earlier accounting period is reversed if there has been an improvement in recoverable amount.

3.14 Provisions, Contingent Liabilities and Contingent Assets

3.14.1 Provisions

Provisions are recognized when there is a present obligation (legal or constructive) as a result of a past event and it is probable that an outflow of resources embodying economic benefits will be required to settle the obligation and a reliable estimate can be made of the amount of the obligation. Provisions are determined by discounting the expected future cash flows (representing the best estimate of the expenditure required to settle the present obligation at the balance sheet date) at a pre-tax rate that reflects current market assessments of the time value of money and the risks specific to the liability. The unwinding of the discount is recognized as finance cost.

3.14.2 Contingent Liabilities

Contingent liability is a possible obligation arising from past events and the existence of which will be confirmed only by the occurrence or non-occurrence of one or more uncertain future events not wholly within the control of the Company or a present obligation that arises from past events but is not recognized because it is not possible that an outflow of resources embodying economic benefit will be required to settle the obligations or reliable estimate of the amount of the obligations cannot be made. The Company discloses the existence of contingent liabilities in Other Notes to Special Purpose Financial Statements.

3.14.3 Contingent Assets

Contingent assets usually arise from unplanned or other unexpected events that give rise to the possibility of an inflow of economic benefits. Contingent Assets are not recognized though are disclosed, where an inflow of economic benefits is probable.

3.15 Intangible Assets

3.15.1 Recognition and Measurement

Intangible asset are stated at cost on initial recognition and subsequently measured at cost less accumulated amortization and accumulated impairment loss, if any.

3.15.2 Amortization

- Software's are amortized over a period of three years.

- The amortization period and the amortization method are reviewed at least at the end of each financial year. If the expected useful life of the assets is significantly different from previous estimates, the amortization period is changed accordingly.

3.16 Operating Segment

Operating segments are reported in a manner consistent with the internal reporting provided to the chief operating decision maker. The chief operating decision maker of the Company is responsible for allocating resources and assessing performance of the operating segments and accordingly is identified as the chief operating decision maker.

The Company has identified one reportable segment i.e., Manufacturing of Starch and its derivatives based on the information reviewed by the CODM.

3.17 Recent accounting pronouncement

Ministry of Corporate Affairs ("MCA") notifies new standard or amendments to the existing standards. The Company has assessed that there is no significant impact on its financial statements. On 9th May 2025, MCA notifies the amendments to Ind AS 21 - Effects of Changes in Foreign Exchange Rates. These amendments aim to provide clearer guidance on assessing currency exchangeability and estimating exchange rates when currencies are not readily exchangeable. The amendments are effective for annual periods beginning on or after 1st April 2025. The Company is currently assessing the probable impact of these amendments on its financial statements.

4 SIGNIFICANT JUDGEMENTS AND KEY SOURCES OF ESTIMATION IN APPLYING ACCOUNTING POLICIES

Estimates and judgments are continually evaluated. They are based on historical experience and other factors, including expectations of future events that may have a financial impact on the Company and that are believed to be reasonable under the circumstances. Information about Significant judgements and Key sources of estimation made in applying accounting policies that have the most significant effects on the amounts recognized in the special purpose financial statements is included in the following notes:

- Recognition of Deferred Tax Assets: The extent to which deferred tax assets can be recognized is based on an assessment of the probability of the Company's future taxable income against which the deferred tax assets can be utilized. In addition, significant judgement is required in assessing the impact of any legal or economic limits.
- Right-of-use assets and lease liability: The Company has exercised judgement in determining the lease term as the non-cancellable term of the lease, together with the impact of options to extend or terminate the lease if it is reasonably certain to be exercised. Where the rate implicit in the lease is not readily available, an incremental borrowing rate is applied. This incremental borrowing rate reflects the rate of interest that the lessee would have to pay to borrow over a similar term, with a similar security, the funds necessary to obtain an asset of a similar nature and value to the right of-use asset in a similar economic environment. Determination of the incremental borrowing rate requires estimation.

- Defined Benefit Obligation (DBO): Employee benefit obligations are measured on the basis of actuarial assumptions which include mortality and withdrawal rates as well as assumptions concerning future developments in discount rates, medical cost trends, anticipation of future salary increases and the inflation rate. The Company considers that the assumptions used to measure its obligations are appropriate. However, any changes in these assumptions may have a material impact on the resulting calculations.
- Provisions and Contingencies: The assessments undertaken in recognising provisions and contingencies have been made in accordance with Indian Accounting Standards (Ind AS) 37, 'Provisions, Contingent Liabilities and Contingent Assets'. The evaluation of the likelihood of the contingent events is applied best judgement by management regarding the probability of exposure to potential loss.
- Impairment of Financial Assets: The Company reviews its carrying value of investments carried at amortized cost annually, or more frequently when there is indication of impairment. If recoverable amount is less than its carrying amount, the impairment loss is accounted for.
- Allowances for Doubtful Debts: The Company makes allowances for doubtful debts through appropriate estimations of irrecoverable amount. The identification of doubtful debts requires use of judgment and estimates. Where the expectation is different from the original estimate, such difference will impact the carrying value of the trade and other receivables and doubtful debts expenses in the period in which such estimate has been changed.
- Fair value measurement of financial Instruments: When the fair values of financial assets and financial liabilities recorded in the balance sheet cannot be measured based on quoted prices in active markets, their fair value is measured using valuation techniques. The input to these models are taken from observable markets where possible, but where this not feasible, a degree of judgement is required in establishing fair values. Judgements include considerations of inputs such as liquidity risk, credit risk and volatility.

The Company has a defined benefit gratuity plan. Every employee who has completed five years or more of service is entitled to Gratuity as per the provisions of the Payment of Gratuity Act, 1972. Interest Rate Risk	The Defined Benefit Obligation calculation uses a discount rate based on government bonds. If bonds yield fall, the defined benefit obligation will increase.
Salary Growth Risk	The present value of defined benefit plan liability is calculated by reference to the future salaries of plan participants. An increase in the salary of plan participants will increase the plan liabilities.
Demographic Risk	This is the risk of variability of results due to unsystematic nature of variables that include mortality, withdrawal, disability and retirement. The effect of these variables on the defined benefit obligation is not straight forward and depend upon the combination of factors drawing weightage from salary increase, discount rate and vesting criteria.

47 Financial Risk Management

Financial management of the Company has been receiving attention of the top management of the Company. The management considers finance as the lifeline of the business and therefore, financial management is carried out meticulously on the basis of detailed management information systems and reports at periodical intervals extending from daily reports to long-term plans. Importance is laid on liquidity and working capital management with a view to reduce over-dependence on borrowings and reduction in interest cost. Various kinds of financial risks and their mitigation plans are as follows:

A) Credit Risk

Credit risk is the risk that counterparty will not meet its obligations under a financial instrument or customer contract, leading to a financial loss. The Company is exposed to credit risk from its operating activities (primarily trade receivables). On account of adoption of Ind AS 109, the Company uses an expected credit loss model to assess the impairment loss.

a Trade Receivables

Customer credit risk is managed by the Company's established policy, procedures and control relating to customer credit risk management. Outstanding customer receivables are regularly monitored and reconciled. Based on historical trend, industry practice and the business environment in which the company operates, an impairment analysis is performed at each reporting date for trade receivables. Based on above, the management assessment for the allowance for expected credit loss (including credit impaired) is considered adequate (Refer Note 12 for amount of trade receivable and allowance for expected credit loss including credit impaired in respective years).

b Other Financial Assets

Credit Risk on cash and cash equivalent, deposits with the banks/financial institutions is generally low as the said deposits have been made with the banks/financial institutions who have been assigned high credit rating by international and domestic rating agencies.

B) Liquidity Risk

The Company's objective is to maintain optimum levels of liquidity to meet its cash and collateral requirements at all times. The Company relies on a mix of borrowings and excess operating cash flows to meet its needs for funds. The current committed lines of credit are sufficient to meet its short to medium/ long term expansion needs. The Company monitors rolling forecasts of its liquidity requirements to ensure it has sufficient cash to meet operational needs.

Accordingly, the Company has prepared its first financial statements in accordance with Ind AS for the financial year 2022-23

In preparing its opening Ind AS balance sheet as on April 01, 2021, the Company has adjusted amounts reported previously in the financial statements prepared in accordance with the Indian GAAP. An explanation of how the transition from Indian GAAP to Ind AS has affected the Company's financial position, financial performance and cash flows is set out in the following tables and the notes that accompany the tables and notes:

B. Exemption and exception applied

In preparing these financial statements, the Company has applied the below optional exemptions and mandatory exceptions in line with principles of Ind AS 101.

Optional exemptionsI. Property, Plant and Equipment (PPE)

Ind AS 101 provides the below options with respect to the items of PPE:

- Carry forward the previous GAAP carrying values as at the transition date as "deemed cost" under Ind AS, provided there is no change in functional currency.
- Fair value the items of PPE as at the transition date and use this as the "deemed cost" under Ind AS.
- Restate the carrying values of PPE retrospectively as at the transition date based on Ind AS 16.

The above options are available for intangible assets and investment property as well except fair value option not permitted for investment property. The Company has opted to measure Freehold Land at fair value as at the transition date and has restated the carrying values of other items of PPE retrospectively as at the transition date based on Ind AS 16.

C. Mandatory exceptions

Below are the key mandatory exceptions used in preparation of these financial statements:

I. Estimates

Under Ind AS 101, an entity's estimates in accordance with Ind AS at 'the date of transition to Ind AS' or 'the end of the comparative period presented in the entity's first Ind AS financial statements', as the case may be, should be consistent with estimates made for the same date in accordance with previous GAAP unless there is objective evidence that those estimates were in error. However, the estimates should be adjusted to reflect any differences in accounting policies.

The Company's Ind AS estimates as on the transition date are consistent with the estimates made under previous GAAP as on this date. Key estimates considered in preparation of these financial statements that were not required under the previous GAAP are listed below:

- Fair valuation of financial instruments carried at FVTPL.
- Impairment of financial assets based on the expected credit loss model.
- Determination of the discounted value for financial instruments carried at amortized cost.

II. De-recognition of financial assets and liabilities

As per para B2 of Ind AS 101, an entity should apply the derecognition requirements in Ind AS 109, "Financial Instruments", prospectively for transactions occurring on or after the date of transition to Ind AS. However, para B3 gives an option to the entity to apply the derecognition requirements from a date of its choice if the information required to apply Ind AS 109 to financial assets and financial liabilities derecognized as a result of past transactions was obtained at the initially accounting for those transactions. The company has elected to apply the de-recognition provisions of Ind AS 109 prospectively from the date of transition to Ind AS.

III. Classification and measurement of financial assets

Ind AS 101 provides exemptions to certain classification and measurement requirements of financial assets under Ind AS 109, where these are impracticable to implement. Classification and measurement is done on the basis of facts and circumstances existing as on the transition date.

Accordingly, the Company has determined the classification of financial assets based on facts and circumstances that exist on the transition date.

Impact of Total Adjustments (C)		80.34	74.66
Other Equity as per Ind AS (D) = (B) + (C)		853.85	592.49

53.1 Fair Valuation of Land

The Company has considered fair value of property, viz land admeasuring over 21.54 acres, situated in India, as its deemed cost on the transition date with impact of Rs. 80.98 Millions in accordance with Ind AS 101 with the resultant impact being accounted for in the retained earnings.

53.2 Application of effective interest on Borrowing Cost

Under previous GAAP, the transaction costs on borrowing were charged off to statement of profit and loss or capitalized with the qualifying asset as per the application of the corresponding borrowings. Ind AS 109 requires transaction costs incurred towards origination of borrowings to be deducted from the carrying amount of borrowings on initial recognition. These costs are recognised in the statement of profit and loss over the tenure of the borrowing as part of the interest expense by applying the effective interest rate method.

53.3 Right-of-use Asset Accounting

Under previous GAAP, the lease payments were charged off as an operating expense on a straight line basis over the term of the lease to statement of profit and loss. Ind AS 116 requires the Company to recognise a right-of-use asset ("ROU") and a corresponding lease liability for all lease arrangements in which it is a lessee, except for leases with a term of twelve months or less (short term leases) and leases of low value assets. For the short term and leases of low value assets, the Company recognises the lease payments as an operating expense on a straight line basis over the term of the lease.

53.4 Fair valuation of Investments

Under previous GAAP, payment made towards keyman insurance policy were charged as insurance expenses to statement of profit and loss. Ind AS 109 requires to recognise Financial Asset if it meets the definition of Financial Asset and initially measured at Fair Value.

53.5 Application of ECL Model on Trade Receivables

Under previous GAAP, the Company had created provision for doubtful debts based on specific amount for incurred losses. Under Ind AS, the allowance for doubtful debts has been determined based on expected credit loss model.

53.6 Deferred Tax

Under previous GAAP, Deferred Taxes were recognised based on Profit & Loss approach i.e. tax impact on difference between the accounting income and taxable income. Under Ind AS, Deferred Tax is recognised by following Balance Sheet approach i.e. tax impact on temporary difference between the carrying value of assets and liabilities in the books and their respective tax base.

53.7 Remeasurements of post-employment benefit obligations

Under the previous GAAP, these remeasurements were forming part of the profit or loss for the year. Under Ind AS, remeasurements i.e. actuarial gains and losses on the net defined benefit liability are recognised in other comprehensive income instead of profit or loss.

53.8 Prior period Adjustments

Prior period errors, on account of the following errors, pertaining to the period prior to 1st April, 2021 have been adjusted with opening equity as on 1st April, 2021 and opening balances of respective assets/liabilities have been reinstated and for errors pertaining to financial year 2021-22 have been adjusted against the relevant heads, as stated in the above reconciliation, in terms of Ind AS -8, "Accounting Policies, Changes in Accounting Estimates and Errors".

- i Measurment and recording of Stores and Spares inventory.
- ii Revenue recognition for export benefits and GST reimbursement subsidy on accrual basis.
- iii Irrecoverable Cess written off.
- iv Adjustment on account of income tax.

We commenced our operations in 2018 with an installed capacity of 180 TPD. We have over the years augmented our operations and undertaken multiple capacity expansions. In Fiscal 2025, we increased our capacity further with the installation of a starch dryer. As on May 31, 2025, our installed crushing capacity was 750 TPD.

Our Manufacturing Facility also comprises large warehouses and 4 humidity-controlled storage silos of 10,000 MT each for storage of maize. As on May 31, 2025, we had an aggregate storage capacity of 65,000 tonnes of maize. According to F&S Report, our Manufacturing Facility is one of the few maize wet milling facilities with a Zero Liquid Discharge (ZLD) plants in India. For further details of our Manufacturing Facility and manufacturing capacity, see 'Strengths – Strategic locational advantage of our Manufacturing Facility close to raw material and end consumption markets' and 'Sustainability driven Manufacturing Facility with high levels of utilization', on pages 243 and 246.

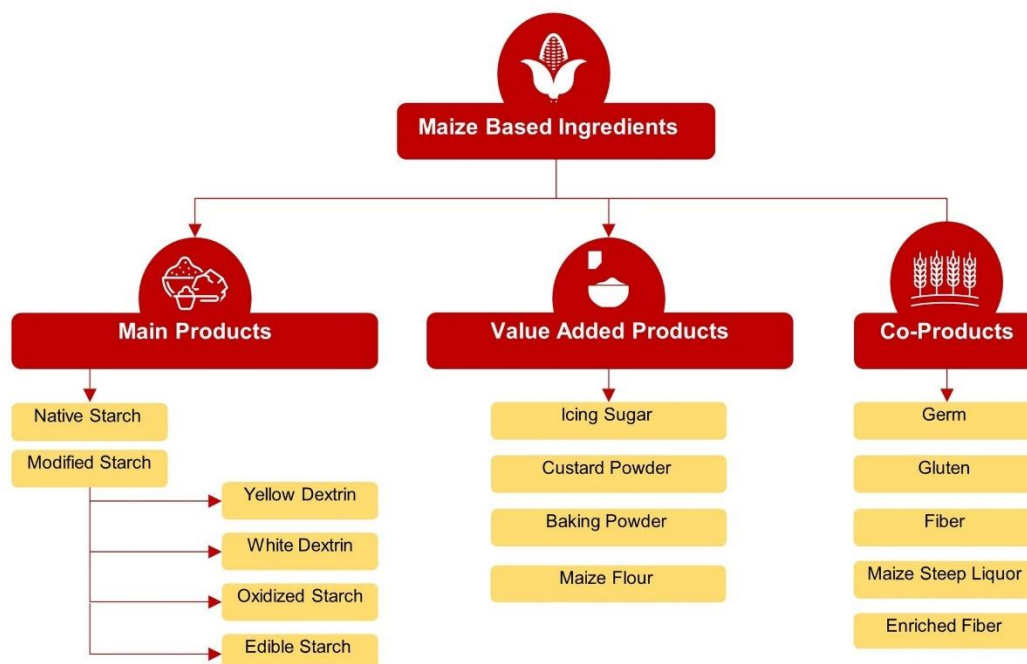

Set out below are details of our raw material storage capacity (in metric ton):

We source maize directly from the cultivators, through aggregators, with whom we have long-standing relationships and from traders in Bihar and West Bengal amongst other sources. According to F&S Report, we are the only maize milling plant in Bihar. This gives us a significant competitive advantage. Establishing direct relation with farmers ensures smooth supply of raw material and this direct procurement strategy also aids in lowering procurement cost and getting access to good quality material. Diversifying our sources of maize ensures that we are not overly dependent on any one source, we are able to negotiate the best available rates and have access to an uninterrupted supply of raw material thereby enabling us to de-risk our supply chain.

SIGNIFICANT FACTORS AFFECTING OUR FINANCIAL CONDITION AND RESULT OF OPERATIONS

Cost and availability of our key raw material

We are a maize based specialty products manufacturer. We are amongst the top 10 largest maize milling companies in terms of capacity and the second largest in Eastern India. According to F&S Report, we have strategically situated our plant in Bihar since it is one of India's major hubs for maize cultivation. Our ability to utilise our manufacturing capacity is dependent on our ability to source our key raw materials i.e. Maize, in required quantities and ensure a consistent supply of the same at commercially acceptable prices. We procure maize through various sources including directly from farmers through aggregators and from traders. The sowing and harvesting seasons have a significant impact on supply and demand of maize. Maize is supplied from March to May and harvested from September to December. Demand spikes normally from January to March. Maize starch millers stock maize for 3- 5 months. Purchase of maize usually happens during peak arrival season at low prices for stocking purpose. According to F&S Report, the inventory is maintained to tide over the peak price months, and buying for regular requirement continues in parallel. Accordingly, if we are unable to procure and store maize during the peak arrival season in a timely manner or at all which could have an adverse impact on our manufacturing capacity and output. Further, we do not enter into any forward contracts or other derivative arrangements in this respect. Accordingly, if we are not able to procure maize at the appropriate times at commercially acceptable prices, we may have to incur additional procurement costs which would increase our manufacturing costs and adversely impact our profitability.

Set out in the table below is our cost of materials consumed in the immediately preceding 3 Fiscals, based on our Restated Financial Information.

Particulars	Fiscal 2025		Fiscal 2024		Fiscal 2023
	Amount (in ₹ million)	% of Revenue from operations	Amount (in ₹ million)	% of Revenue from operations	Amount (in ₹ million)	% of Revenue from operations
Cost of Goods Sold (COGS)	6,646.01	72.62	4,321.23	72.02	3,480.96	71.34

COGS is calculated as sum of cost of materials consumed, purchases of stock-in-trade and changes in inventories.

According to F&S Report, our ability to procure maize is affected by a number of factors including external factors such as demand from other industries such as ethanol and animal feed industries and the production and availability of maize can be impacted by changes in agricultural yields, weather patterns, which could result in price volatility and shortages. Therefore, any inability to procure sufficient quantities of quality maize at acceptable prices will have an adverse impact on our financial condition and profitability.

We depend on few Customer Industries for majority of our revenue from operations and our continued success will depend on our ability to retain and augment our customer base

We cater to customers across diverse industries including food products, paper, animal feed, and manufacturing (Customer Industries).

Set out below is the breakup of our revenue from operations from food products, paper, animal feed, oil extraction and manufacturing industries during Fiscal 2025, Fiscal 2024, and Fiscal 2023, based on our Restated Financial Information.

Our business model is structured around catering to 3 broad segments of customers viz.,

- (i) Manufacturers of end products;
- (ii) Manufacturers of intermediate products; and
- (iii) Distributors / Wholesale traders.

Our commercial success also depends to a large extent on the success of our customers and continued growth of the industries in which they operate. Therefore, our revenues and financial condition may be adversely affected, as a result of, inter alia, decline in demand of our products including due to the emergence of low cost products and, or, if entities in the Customer Industries move towards other customers, macro-economic conditions affecting these Customer Industries, increase in competition, pricing pressures, and change in government policies and regulatory action. Any or all of these factors may have an adverse effect on our business prospects, and sales of our solution offerings could decline substantially. Further, we cannot assure you that the sales to the other Customer Industries will increase or be sufficient to off-set any reduction in revenue from our currently largest revenue generating Customer Industries.

While we have consistently maintained our relationship with our existing customers, we have also consistently increased our customer base. Set out in the table below are the details of our revenue from repeat customers and unique customers (i.e. customers whom we have not catered to previously) in Fiscal 2025, Fiscal 2024, and Fiscal 2023, based on our Restated Financial Information.

Accordingly, our continued success will depend on our ability to consistently retain and continually augment our customer base.

Augmenting our manufacturing capacity and maintaining operating efficiencies

A significant factor that affects and will continue to affect our revenues and results from operations is the capacity and utilisation of our manufacturing facility. Our Manufacturing Facility is spread across an area of 54.03 Acres are located at Galgalia in the state of Bihar. Our Manufacturing Facility is strategically located with regards to both its proximity to our primary sources of raw materials, such as maize harvesting regions, thus giving us an edge in our business operations.

Our business is dependent upon our ability to effectively manage our Manufacturing Facility, which is subject to various operating risks, including those beyond our control, such as the breakdown, failure of equipment or industrial accidents, severe weather conditions, fire, power interruption and natural disasters, however our Company maintains comprehensive insurance coverage to mitigate the risk arising out of such event. While there have been no such instances during Fiscals 2025, 2024, and 2023, any significant malfunction or breakdown of our machinery, equipment, automation systems, IT systems or any other part of our manufacturing processes or systems may entail significant repair and maintenance costs and cause delays in our operations. If we are unable to repair or properly maintain manufacturing assets in a timely manner or at all, our operations may need to be suspended until we repair or procure the appropriate manufacturing assets to replace them and there can be no assurance that the new manufacturing assets will be procured and/or integrated in a timely manner. In addition, we may be required to carry out planned shutdowns of our Manufacturing Facility for maintenance, statutory inspections, customer audits and testing if any, or we may shut down one or more of our Manufacturing Facility for capacity expansion and equipment upgrades.

We commenced our operations in 2018 with an installed capacity of 180 TPD. We have over the years augmented our operations and undertaken multiple capacity expansions. In Fiscal 2025, we increased our capacity further with the installation of a starch dryer. As on May 31, 2025, our installed crushing capacity was 750 TPD. Our continual effort towards augmenting our process efficiencies is reflected in our high levels of capacity utilisation. Further, we have set up a dual feed co-generation power plant for captive power generation and utilisation. Our captive plant has the dual feed plant and is able to switch between coal and husk.

Time weighted average

This also factors in the periods for which the manufacturing facility was non-operational on account of the upgradation in capacity.

As certified by the Independent Chartered Engineer, pursuant to a certificate dated August 6, 2025.

We have over the years adopted various techniques that we have developed to streamline and maximise the efficiency of our production processes. Our Company proposes to augment our manufacturing capacity by undertaking brownfield expansion to capitalise on anticipated growth in our end-user industries. Therefore, our ability to grow our business and strengthen our financial position and our competitiveness, will depend on our ability to augment our manufacturing capabilities and maintain our operating efficiencies.

Delays or defaults in customer payments and receivables may have an adversely impact our profits and cash flows.

Our operations involve the practice of extending credit to our customers. Set out below is our outstanding trade receivables in Fiscal 2025, Fiscal 2024, and Fiscal 2023:

Particulars	As at March 31, 2025	As at March 31, 2024	As at March 31, 2023
Trade Receivables (in ₹ million)	1,368.72	1,267.35	719.37
Trade Receivable Days*	55	77	54

* Trade receivable days are calculated as Trade receivables divided by Revenue from operations multiplied by 365 days

As certified by, Independent Chartered Accounts, pursuant to a certificate dated August 6, 2025.

During Fiscal 2025, Fiscal 2024, and Fiscal 2023, there have been bad and doubtful debts written off amounting to ₹ 0.17 million, ₹ 0.27 million, and ₹ 0.46 million, respectively. Our ability to accurately assess the creditworthiness of our customers in the future and consistency of our recovery of payments in the future, would have a significant aspect of our profit margins and cash flows.

Maintaining our relationship with our key maize suppliers

Our principle raw material i.e. maize is a seasonal crop. Sowing and harvesting seasons have a significant impact on supply and demand of maize. Maize is supplied from March to May and harvested from September to December. Demand spikes normally from January to March. Accordingly, we are heavily reliant on key suppliers for a vast majority of our maize supply. Set out in the table below are details of our concentration of our top 3, top 5 and top 10 vendors for the years indicated:

Particulars	Fiscal 2025		Fiscal 2024		Fiscal 2023
	Amount (in ₹ million)	% of cost of purchase of maize	Amount (in ₹ million)	% of cost of purchase of maize	Amount (in ₹ million)	% of cost of purchase of maize
Top 3 vendors	5,178.25	72.11	3,112.59	68.36	1,484.44	46.63
Top 5 vendors	5,973.27	83.18	3,696.13	81.18	1,922.80	60.40
Top 10 vendors	6,788.11	94.53	4,266.23	93.70	2,656.00	83.43

Government subsidies

Our manufacturing unit is situated in Kishanganj district of Bihar. Bihar Industrial Investment Promotion Policy, 2016 (which was extended upto 2020 and then 2025) (BIIPP) provides provisions for interest subvention to the eligible units with installed capacity of more than 100 TPD including units for manufacturing starch and cattle and/or poultry feed on the term loan availed by the unit from a bank/ financial institution registered by RBI/SEBI. According to F&S Report, under the BIIPP, (a) the interest subvention of 10% or actual rate of interest on term loan, whichever is lower subject to maximum limit of ₹ 200 million; (b) 100% reimbursement against the admitted State GST for a period of 5 years from the date of commencement of commercial production is given to starch manufacturers. The benefits provided under the BIIPP is one of the reasons for us having established our manufacturing operations in Bihar. The continuance of the benefits under the BIIPP is a key aspect of business.

The prevailing rate of interest on the outstanding secured borrowings of our Company, as on June 30, 2025, ranged from 7.70% p.a. to 11.00% p.a. In terms of BIIPP, though, our Company is entitled to interest subvention on 'term loans' of 10% or the actual rate of the loan, subject to a maximum of ₹ 200 million. The policy is valid till 2025.

Further, based on our Restated Financial Information, the subsidy received from the government in terms of the BIIPP as a percentage of our total finance cost was as follows:

(₹ in million, unless otherwise stated)

Particulars	For the financial year ended
	March 31, 2025	March 31, 2024	March 31, 2023
Interest subsidy from the Government (₹ million)	38.86	37.94	67.28
Interest on borrowings (₹ million)	451.43	294.44	165.86
Interest subsidy as a % of interest on borrowings (%)	8.61	12.89	40.56

As can be noticed above, the interest subsidy available to our Company has reduced in Fiscal 2024 as compared to Fiscal 2023. Additionally, a significant number of loans identified by our Company to repay from the Net Proceeds are working capital loans which are not eligible for the interest subsidy.

Out of the fresh issue of up to ₹ 2,100.00 million, up to ₹ 1,590.00 million is proposed to be utilized for the purpose of repayment of borrowings and the incremental increase of equity and securities premium to the tune of ₹ 510.00 million in the capital employed would have reduced the existing ROCE of 14.17% as on March 31, 2025.

The Company maintains accounts on accrual basis following the historical cost convention, except for the followings:

- Certain Financial Assets and Liabilities are measured at Fair value/ Amortized cost (refer accounting policy regarding financial instruments);
- Freehold Land – Fair value considered on transition to Ind AS.

All amounts disclosed in restated financial statements and notes have been rounded off to the nearest million (with two places of decimal) unless otherwise stated.

2.4. Use of Estimates and Critical Accounting Judgements

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with Ind AS requires judgements, estimates and assumptions to be made that affect the reported amount of assets and liabilities, disclosure of contingent liabilities on the date of the financial statements and the reported amount of revenues and expenses during the reporting period. Difference between the actual results and estimates are recognized in the period in which the results are known/ materialized.

2.5. Operating Cycle for current and non-current classification

All assets and liabilities have been classified as current or non-current as per the Company's normal operating cycle and other criteria set out in the Schedule III to the Companies Act, 2013 and Ind AS 1. The Company has ascertained its operating cycle as twelve months for the purpose of current and non-current classification of assets and liabilities.

An asset is classified as current when it is:

- Expected to be realized or intended to sold or consumed in normal operating cycle;
- Held primarily for the purpose of trading;
- Expected to be realized within twelve months after the reporting period; or
- Cash or cash equivalent unless restricted from being exchanged or used to settle a liability for at least twelve months after the reporting period.

All the other assets are classified as non-current.

A liability is current when:

- It is expected to be settled in normal operating cycle;
- It is held primarily for the purpose of trading;
- It is due to be settled within twelve months after the reporting period; or
- There is no unconditional right to defer the settlement of the liability for at least twelve months after the reporting period.

The Company classifies all other liabilities as non-current. Deferred Tax Assets and Liabilities are classified as non-current assets and liabilities respectively.

2.6. Measurement of Fair Values

A number of the Company's accounting policies and disclosures require the measurement of fair values, for both financial and non-financial assets and liabilities.

Fair value is the price that would be received to sell an asset or paid to transfer a liability in an orderly transaction between market participants at the measurement date. The fair value measurement is based on the presumption that the transaction to sell the asset or transfer the liability takes place either:

- In the principal market for the asset or liability, or
- In the absence of a principal market, in the most advantageous market for the asset or liability.

The principal or the most advantageous market must be accessible by the Company. The fair value of an asset or a liability is measured using the assumptions that market participants would use when pricing the asset or liability, assuming that market participants act in their economic best interest. A fair value measurement of a non-financial asset takes into account a market participant's ability to generate economic benefits by using the asset in its highest and best use or by selling it to another market participant that would use the asset in its highest and best use.

The Company uses valuation techniques that are appropriate in the circumstances and for which sufficient data are available to measure fair value, maximizing the use of relevant observable inputs and minimizing the use of unobservable inputs.

All assets and liabilities for which fair value is measured or disclosed in the special purpose financial statements are categorised within the fair value hierarchy, described as follows, based on the input that is significant to the fair value measurement as a whole:

- Level 1 — Quoted (unadjusted) market prices in active markets for identical assets or liabilities
- Level 2 — Valuation techniques for which the lowest level input that is significant to the fair value measurement is directly or indirectly observable and
- Level 3 — Valuation techniques for which the lowest level input that is significant to the fair value measurement is unobservable.

External valuers are involved for valuation of significant assets & liabilities. Involvement of external valuers is decided by the management of the company considering the requirements of Ind AS and selection criteria include market knowledge, reputation, independence and whether professional standards are maintained.

3. SUMMARY OF MATERIAL ACCOUNTING POLICIES

3.1 INVENTORIES

Raw materials, packaging materials and stores and spare parts are valued at lower of cost and net realizable value. However, material and other items held for use in production of inventories are not written down below cost if the finished products in which they will be incorporated are expected to be sold at or above cost.

Cost includes purchase price, (excluding those subsequently recoverable by the enterprise from the concerned revenue authorities), freight inwards and other expenditure incurred in bringing such inventories to their present location and condition.

Finished Goods are valued at lower of cost and net realisable value. Cost includes cost of direct materials and direct labour and a proportion of manufacturing overhead based on the normal operating capacity. Cost is determined on weighted average basis.

Scrap and other items are valued at net realisable value.

Net realizable value is the estimated selling price in the ordinary course of business, less the estimated cost of completion and the estimated costs necessary to make the sale.

3.2 CASH AND CASH EQUIVALENTS

Cash and cash equivalent in the balance sheet comprise cash at banks and on hand and short term deposits with an original maturity of three months or less, which are subject to an insignificant risk of change in value.

For the purpose of the statement of cash flows, cash and cash equivalents includes cash on hand, term deposits and other short-term highly liquid investments, net of bank overdrafts as they are considered an integral part of the Company's cash management. Bank overdrafts are shown within short term borrowings in the balance sheet.

3.3 INCOME TAX

The income tax expense or credit for the period is the tax payable on the current period's taxable income based on the applicable income tax rate for each jurisdiction adjusted by changes in deferred tax assets and liabilities attributable to temporary differences and to unused tax losses. Current and deferred tax is recognized in the statement of profit & loss, except to the extent that it relates to items recognized in other comprehensive income or directly in equity. In this case, the tax is also recognized in other comprehensive income or directly in equity, respectively.

3.3.1 Current Tax:

Current tax liabilities (or assets) for the current and prior periods are measured at the amount expected to be paid to (recovered from) the taxation authorities using the tax rates (and tax laws) that have been enacted or substantively enacted, at the end of the reporting period.

3.3.2 Deferred Tax

- Deferred Tax assets and liabilities is measured at the tax rates that are expected to apply to the period when the asset is realized or the liability is settled based on tax rates (and tax laws) that have been enacted or substantively enacted by the end of the reporting period.
- Deferred tax is recognized in respect of temporary differences between the carrying amounts of assets and liabilities for financial reporting purposes and the corresponding amounts used for taxation purposes (i.e., tax base). Deferred tax is also recognized for carry forward of unused tax losses and unused tax credits.
- Deferred tax assets are recognized to the extent that it is probable that taxable profit will be available against which the deductible temporary differences, and the carry forward of unused tax credits and unused tax losses can be utilized.
- The carrying amount of deferred tax assets is reviewed at the end of each reporting period. The Company reduces the carrying amount of a deferred tax asset to the extent that it is no longer probable that sufficient taxable profit will be available to allow the benefit of part or that entire deferred tax asset to be utilized. Any such reduction is reversed to the extent that it becomes probable that sufficient taxable profit will be available.
- Deferred tax relating to items recognized outside the Statement of Profit and Loss is recognized either in other comprehensive income or in equity. Deferred tax items are recognized in correlation to the underlying transaction either in OCI or directly in equity.
- Deferred tax assets and liabilities are offset when there is a legally enforceable right to set off current tax assets against current tax liabilities and when they relate to income taxes levied by the same taxation authority and the Company intends to settle its current tax assets and liabilities on a net basis.

3.4 PROPERTY, PLANT AND EQUIPMENT

3.4.1 Tangible Assets

3.4.1.1 Recognition and Measurement:

- Property, plant and equipment held for use in the production or/and supply of goods or services, or for administrative purposes, are stated in the balance sheet at cost, less any accumulated depreciation and accumulated impairment losses (if any), except for freehold land which are carried at fair value on transition date as deemed cost.
- Cost of an item of property, plant and equipment acquired comprises its purchase price, including import duties and non-refundable purchase taxes, after deducting any trade discounts and rebates, any directly attributable costs of bringing the assets to its working condition and location for its intended use and present value of any estimated cost of dismantling and removing the item and restoring the site on which it is located.

- If significant parts of an item of property, plant and equipment have different useful lives, then they are accounted for as separate items (major components) of property, plant and equipment.
- Profit or loss arising on the disposal of property, plant and equipment are recognized in the Statement of Profit and Loss.
- On transition to Ind AS, the Company has elected to measure its freehold land at fair value and use that fair value as deemed cost of such freehold land.

3.4.1.2 Subsequent Measurement:

- Subsequent costs are included in the asset's carrying amount, only when it is probable that future economic benefits associated with the cost incurred will flow to the Company and the cost of the item can be measured reliably. The carrying amount of any component accounted for as a separate asset is derecognized when replaced.
- Major Inspection/ Repairs/ Overhauling expenses are recognized in the carrying amount of the item of property, plant and equipment as a replacement if the recognition criteria are satisfied. Any Unamortized part of the previously recognized expenses of similar nature is derecognized.

3.4.1.3 Depreciation and Amortization:

- Depreciation on Property, Plant & Equipment is provided on straight line method in terms of life span of assets prescribed in Schedule II of the Companies Act, 2013 or as reassessed by the Company based on the technical evaluation.
- Depreciation on additions (disposals) during the year is provided on a pro-rata basis i.e., from (up to) the date on which asset is ready for use (disposed of).
- Depreciation method, useful lives and residual values are reviewed at each financial year-end and adjusted if appropriate.

3.4.1.4 Derecognition of Assets

An item of property, plant and equipment is derecognized upon disposal or when no future economic benefits are expected to arise from the continued use of the asset. Any gain or loss arising on the disposal or retirement of an item of property, plant and equipment is determined as the difference between net disposal proceeds and the carrying amount of the asset and is recognized in the statement of profit and loss.

3.4.1.5 Capital Work in Progress

Capital work-in-progress is stated at cost which includes expenses incurred during construction period, interest on amount borrowed for acquisition of qualifying assets and other expenses incurred in connection with project implementation in so far as such expenses relate to the period prior to the commencement of commercial production.

3.5 LEASES

3.5.1 Determining whether an arrangement contains a lease

The determination of whether an arrangement is (or contains) a lease is based on the substance of the arrangement at the inception of the lease. The arrangement is, or contains, a lease if fulfilment of the arrangement is dependent on the use of a specific asset or assets and the arrangement conveys a right to use the asset or assets, even if that right is not explicitly specified in an arrangement.

3.5.2 Company as lessor

➤ Finance Lease

Leases which effectively transfer to the lessee substantially all the risks and benefits incidental to ownership of the leased item are classified and accounted for as finance lease. Lease rental receipts are apportioned between the finance income and capital repayment based on the implicit rate of return. Contingent rents are recognized as revenue in the period in which they are earned.

➤ Operating Lease

Leases in which the Company does not transfer substantially all the risks and rewards of ownership of an asset are classified as operating leases. Rental income from operating leases is recognized on a straight-line basis over the term of the relevant lease except where scheduled increase in rent compensates the Company with expected inflationary costs.

3.5.3 Company as lessee

The Company's lease asset classes primarily consist of leases for Buildings and Plant & Machinery. The Company assesses whether a contract is or contains a lease, at inception of a contract. A contract is, or contains, a lease if the contract conveys the right to control the use of an identified asset for a period of time in exchange for consideration. To assess whether a contract conveys the right to control the use of an identified asset, the Company assesses whether:

- (i) the contract involves the use of an identified asset;
- (ii) the Company has substantially all of the economic benefits from use of the asset through the period of the lease and;
- (iii) the Company has the right to direct the use of the asset.

At the date of commencement of the lease, the Company recognises a right-of-use asset ("ROU") and a corresponding lease liability for all lease arrangements in which it is a lessee, except for leases with a term of twelve months or less (short term leases) and leases of low value assets. For these short term and leases of low value assets, the Company recognises the lease payments as an operating expense on a straight line basis over the term of the lease.

The lease liability is initially measured at the present value of the future lease payments. The lease payments are discounted using the interest rate implicit in the lease or, if not readily determinable, using the incremental borrowing rates. The lease liability is subsequently re-measured by increasing the carrying amount to reflect interest on the lease liability, reducing the carrying amount to reflect the lease payments made.

A lease liability is re-measured upon the occurrence of certain events such as a change in the lease term or a change in an index or rate used to determine lease payments. The re-measurement normally also adjusts the leased assets.

Lease liability and ROU asset have been separately presented in the Balance Sheet and lease payments have been classified as financing cash flows.

The right-of-use assets are initially recognised at cost, which comprises the initial amount of the lease liability adjusted for any lease payments made at or prior to the commencement date of the lease plus any initial direct costs less any lease incentives. They are subsequently measured at cost less accumulated depreciation and impairment losses, if any. Right-of-use assets are depreciated from the commencement date on a straight-line basis over the shorter of the lease term and useful life of the underlying asset.

3.6 REVENUE RECOGNITION

Revenue from contracts with customers is recognized on transfer of control of promised goods or services to a customer at an amount that reflects the consideration to which the Company is expected to be entitled to in exchange for those goods or services.

Revenue towards satisfaction of a performance obligation is measured at the amount of transaction price (net of variable consideration) allocated to that performance obligation. The transaction price of goods sold and services rendered is net of variable consideration on account of various discounts and schemes offered by the Company as part of the contract. This variable consideration is estimated based on the expected value of outflow. Revenue (net of variable consideration) is recognized only to the extent that it is highly probable that the amount will not be subject to significant reversal when uncertainty relating to its recognition is resolved.

3.7 Other Income

Interest Income

Interest income is recognized on time proportion basis taking into account the amount outstanding and the rate applicable.

Rental Income

Rental income is accounted on straight line basis over the lease term and is included in revenue in the statement of profit and loss. The company has determined that it does not need criteria for recognition of lease rental income on a basis other than straight line basis.

Export incentives

Export entitlements is recognized when the right to receive credit as per the terms of schemes is established in respect of the exports made by the company and when there is no significant uncertainty regarding the ultimate collection of the relevant export proceeds.

Insurance claim receivable

Insurance and other claims are accounted on the basis of claims admitted/ expected to be admitted and to the extent that there is no uncertainty in receiving the claims.

3.8 EMPLOYEE BENEFITS

3.8.1 Short Term Benefits

Short term employee benefit obligations are measured on an undiscounted basis and are expensed as the related services are provided. Liabilities for wages and salaries, including non-monetary benefits that are expected to be settled wholly within twelve months after the end of the period in which the employees render the related service are recognized in respect of employees' services up to the end of the reporting period.

3.8.2 Other Long Term Employee Benefits

The liabilities for leave that are not expected to be settled wholly within twelve months are measured as the present value of the expected future payments to be made in respect of services provided by employees up to the end of the reporting period using the projected unit credit method. The benefits are discounted using the government securities (G-Sec) at the end of the reporting period that have terms approximating to the terms of related obligation. Remeasurements as the result of experience adjustment and changes in actuarial assumptions are recognized in statement of profit and loss.

3.8.3 Post-Employment Benefits

The Company operates the following post-employment schemes:

➤ Defined Contribution Plan

Defined contribution plans such as Provident Fund etc. are charged to the statement of profit and loss as and when incurred and paid to Authority.

➤ Defined Benefit Plans

The liability or asset recognized in the Balance Sheet in respect of defined benefit plans is the present value of the defined benefit obligation at the end of the reporting period less the fair value of plan assets. The Company's net obligation in respect of defined benefit plans is calculated separately for each plan by estimating the amount of future benefit that employees have earned in the current and prior periods. The defined benefit obligation is calculated annually by Actuaries using the projected unit credit method.

The liability recognized for defined benefit plans is the present value of the defined benefit obligation at the reporting date less the fair value of plan assets, together with adjustments for unrecognized actuarial gains or losses and past service costs. The net interest cost is calculated by applying the discount rate to the net balance of the defined benefit obligation and the fair value of plan assets. The benefits are discounted using the government securities (G-Sec) at the end of the reporting period that have terms approximating to the terms of related obligation.

Remeasurements of the net defined benefit obligation, which comprise actuarial gains and losses, the return on plan assets (excluding interest) and the effect of the asset ceiling, are recognized in other comprehensive income. Remeasurements recognized in other comprehensive income are reflected immediately in retained earnings and will not be reclassified to the statement of profit and loss.

3.9 BORROWING COSTS

- Borrowing Costs consists of interest and other costs that an entity incurs in connection with the borrowings of funds. Borrowing costs also includes foreign exchange difference to the extent regarded as an adjustment to the borrowing costs.
- Borrowing costs directly attributable to the acquisition or construction of a qualifying asset are capitalized as a part of the cost of that asset that necessarily takes a substantial period of time to complete and prepare the asset for its intended use or sale.
- Transaction costs in respect of long term borrowing are amortized over the tenure of respective loans using Effective Interest Rate (EIR) method. All other borrowing costs are recognized in the statement of profit and loss in the period in which they are incurred.

3.10 GOVERNMENT GRANTS

Government grants are recognized at their fair value, where there is reasonable assurance that the grant will be received and all attached conditions will be complied with. When the grant relates to an expense item, it is recognized as income on a systematic basis over the periods that the related costs, for which it is intended to compensate, are expensed.

The grant relating to the acquisition/ construction of an item of property, plant and equipment, the same is presented by deducting the grant from the carrying amount of the asset.

3.11 FINANCIAL INSTRUMENTS

A financial instrument is any contract that gives rise to a financial asset of one entity and a financial liability or equity instrument of another entity.

3.11.1 Financial Assets

➤ Recognition and Initial Measurement:

All financial assets are initially recognized when the company becomes a party to the contractual provisions of the instruments. A financial asset is initially measured at fair value plus, in the case of financial assets not recorded at fair value through profit or loss, transaction costs that are attributable to the acquisition of the financial asset.

➤ Classification and Subsequent Measurement:

For purposes of subsequent measurement, financial assets are classified in four categories:

- Measured at Amortized Cost;
- Measured at Fair Value Through Other Comprehensive Income (FVTOCI);
- Measured at Fair Value Through Profit or Loss (FVTPL); and
- Equity Instruments designated at Fair Value through Other Comprehensive Income (FVTOCI).

Financial assets are not reclassified subsequent to their initial recognition, except if and in the period the Company changes its business model for managing financial assets.

- Measured at Amortized Cost: A debt instrument is measured at the amortized cost if both the following conditions are met:
 - The asset is held within a business model whose objective is achieved by both collecting contractual cash flows; and
 - The contractual terms of the financial asset give rise on specified dates to cash flows that are solely payments of principal and interest (SPPI) on the principal amount outstanding.

After initial measurement, such financial assets are subsequently measured at amortized cost using the effective interest rate (EIR) method. Amortized cost is calculated by taking into account any discount or premium on acquisition and fees or costs that are an integral part of the EIR. The EIR amortization is included in finance income in the statement of profit or loss. The losses arising from impairment are recognized in the profit or loss. This category generally applies to trade receivables, cash and bank balances, loans and other financial assets of the company.

- Measured at FVTOCI: A debt instrument is measured at the FVTOCI if both the following conditions are met:
 - The objective of the business model is achieved by both collecting contractual cash flows and selling the financial assets; and
 - The asset's contractual cash flows represent SPPI.

Debt instruments meeting these criteria are measured initially at fair value plus transaction costs. They are subsequently measured at fair value with any gains or losses arising on remeasurement recognized in other comprehensive income, except for impairment gains or losses and foreign exchange gains or losses. Interest calculated using the effective interest method is recognized in the statement of profit and loss in investment income.

- Measured at FVTPL: FVTPL is a residual category for debt instruments. Any debt instrument, which does not meet the criteria for categorization as at amortized cost or as FVTOCI, is classified as FVTPL. In addition, the company may elect to designate a debt instrument, which otherwise meets amortized cost or FVTOCI criteria, as at FVTPL. Debt instruments included within the FVTPL category are measured at fair value with all changes recognized in the statement of profit and loss. Equity instruments which are, held for trading are classified as at FVTPL.

- Equity Instruments designated at FVTOCI: For equity instruments, which has not been classified as FVTPL as above, the company may make an irrevocable election to present in other comprehensive income subsequent changes in the fair value. The company makes such election on an instrument-by-instrument basis. The classification is made on initial recognition and is irrevocable. In case the company decides to classify an equity instrument as at FVTOCI, then all fair value changes on the instrument, excluding dividends, are recognized in the OCI. There is no recycling of the amounts from OCI to P&L, even on sale of investment.

➤ Derecognition:

The Company derecognizes a financial asset on trade date only when the contractual rights to the cash flows from the asset expire, or when it transfers the financial asset and substantially all the risks and rewards of ownership of the asset to another entity.

➤ Impairment of Financial Assets:

The Company assesses at each date of balance sheet whether a financial asset or a group of financial assets is impaired. Ind AS – 109 requires expected credit losses to be measured through a loss allowance. The company recognizes impairment loss for trade receivables that do not constitute a financing transaction using expected credit loss model, which involves use of a provision matrix constructed on the basis of historical credit loss experience. For all other financial assets, expected credit losses are measured at an amount equal to the 12 month expected credit losses or at an amount equal to the life time expected credit losses if the credit risk on the financial asset has increased significantly since initial recognition.

3.11.2 Financial Liabilities

➤ Recognition and Initial Measurement:

Financial liabilities are classified, at initial recognition, as at fair value through profit or loss, loans and borrowings, payables or as derivatives, as appropriate. All financial liabilities are recognized initially at fair value and, in the case of loans and borrowings and payables, net of directly attributable transaction costs.

➤ Subsequent Measurement:

Financial liabilities are measured subsequently at amortized cost or FVTPL. A financial liability is classified as FVTPL if it is classified as held-for-trading, or it is a derivative or it is designated as such on initial recognition. Financial liabilities at FVTPL are measured at fair value and net gains and losses, including any interest expense, are recognized in profit or loss. Other financial liabilities are subsequently measured at amortized cost using the effective interest rate method. Interest expense and foreign exchange gains and losses are recognized in profit or loss. Any gain or loss on derecognition is also recognized in profit or loss.

➤ Financial Guarantee Contracts:

Financial guarantee contracts issued by the company are those contracts that require a payment to be made to reimburse the holder for a loss it incurs because the specified debtor fails to make a payment when due in accordance with the terms of a debt instrument. Financial guarantee contracts are recognized initially as a liability at fair value, adjusted for transaction costs that are directly attributable to the issuance of the guarantee. Subsequently, the liability is measured at the higher of the amount of loss allowance determined as per impairment requirement of Ind AS 109 and the amount recognized less cumulative amortization.

➤ Derecognition:

A financial liability is derecognized when the obligation under the liability is discharged or cancelled or expires.

3.11.3 Foreign Currency transactions

Foreign currency (other than the functional currency) transactions are translated into the functional currency using the prevailing rate of exchanges at the dates of transactions. Monetary assets and liabilities denominated in foreign currencies are translated into the functional currency at the rate of exchanges prevailing at the reporting date.

Foreign exchange gains and losses resulting from the settlement of such transactions and from the translation of monetary assets and liabilities are generally recognize in the statement of profit and loss in which they arise except for exchange differences on foreign currency borrowing relating to assets under construction for future productive use, which are included in the cost of those qualifying assets when they are regarded as adjustment to interest cost on those foreign currency borrowing, the balance is presented in the statement of profit and loss within finance costs.

Non-monetary items are not retranslated at period end and are measured at historical cost (translated using the exchange rate at the transaction date).

3.11.4 Offsetting financial instruments

Financial assets and liabilities are offset and the net amount is reported in the balance sheet when there is a legally enforceable right to offset the recognized amounts and there is an intention to settle on a net basis or realize the asset and settle the liability simultaneously. The legally enforceable right must not be contingent on future events and must be enforceable in the normal course of business and in the event of default, insolvency or bankruptcy of the counterparty.

3.12 Earnings Per Share

Basic Earnings per share (EPS) amounts are calculated by dividing the profit for the year attributable to equity holders by the weighted average number of equity shares outstanding during the year. Diluted EPS amounts are calculated by dividing the profit attributable to equity holders adjusted for the effects of potential equity shares by the weighted average number of equity shares outstanding during the year plus the weighted average number of equity shares that would be issued on conversion of all the dilutive potential equity shares into equity shares.

3.13 Impairment of Non-Financial Assets

The Company assesses, at each reporting date, whether there is an indication that an asset may be impaired. An asset is treated as impaired when the carrying cost of the asset exceeds its recoverable value being higher of value in use and net selling price. Value in use is computed at net present value of cash flow expected over the balance useful lives of the assets. For the purpose of assessing impairment, assets are grouped at the lowest levels for which there are separately identifiable cash inflows which are largely independent of the cash inflows from other assets or group of assets (Cash Generating Units – CGU).

An impairment loss is recognized as an expense in the Statement of Profit and Loss in the year in which an asset is identified as impaired. The impairment loss recognized in earlier accounting period is reversed if there has been an improvement in recoverable amount.

3.14 Provisions, Contingent Liabilities and Contingent Assets

3.14.1 Provisions

Provisions are recognized when there is a present obligation (legal or constructive) as a result of a past event and it is probable that an outflow of resources embodying economic benefits will be required to settle the obligation and a reliable estimate can be made of the amount of the obligation. Provisions are determined by discounting the expected future cash flows (representing the best estimate of the expenditure required to settle the present obligation at the balance sheet date) at a pre-tax rate that reflects current market assessments of the time value of money and the risks specific to the liability. The unwinding of the discount is recognized as finance cost.

3.14.2 Contingent Liabilities

Contingent liability is a possible obligation arising from past events and the existence of which will be confirmed only by the occurrence or non-occurrence of one or more uncertain future events not wholly within the control of the Company or a present obligation that arises from past events but is not recognized because it is not possible that an outflow of resources embodying economic benefit will be required to settle the obligations or reliable estimate of the amount of the obligations cannot be made. The Company discloses the existence of contingent liabilities in Other Notes to Special Purpose Financial Statements.

3.14.3 Contingent Assets

Contingent assets usually arise from unplanned or other unexpected events that give rise to the possibility of an inflow of economic benefits. Contingent Assets are not recognized though are disclosed, where an inflow of economic benefits is probable.

3.15 Intangible Assets

3.15.1 Recognition and Measurement

Intangible asset are stated at cost on initial recognition and subsequently measured at cost less accumulated amortization and accumulated impairment loss, if any.

3.15.2 Amortization

- Software's are amortized over a period of three years.
- The amortization period and the amortization method are reviewed at least at the end of each financial year. If the expected useful life of the assets is significantly different from previous estimates, the amortization period is changed accordingly.

3.16 Operating Segment

Operating segments are reported in a manner consistent with the internal reporting provided to the chief operating decision maker. The chief operating decision maker of the Company is responsible for allocating resources and assessing performance of the operating segments and accordingly is identified as the chief operating decision maker.

The Company has identified one reportable segment i.e., Manufacturing of Starch and its derivatives based on the information reviewed by the CODM.

3.17 Recent accounting pronouncement

Ministry of Corporate Affairs ("MCA") notifies new standard or amendments to the existing standards. The Company has assessed that there is no significant impact on its financial statements. On 9th May 2025, MCA notifies the amendments to Ind AS 21 - Effects of Changes in Foreign Exchange Rates. These amendments aim to provide clearer guidance on assessing currency exchangeability and estimating exchange rates when currencies are not readily exchangeable. The amendments are effective for annual periods beginning on or after 1st April 2025. The Company is currently assessing the probable impact of these amendments on its financial statements.

4. SIGNIFICANT JUDGEMENTS AND KEY SOURCES OF ESTIMATION IN APPLYING ACCOUNTING POLICIES

Estimates and judgments are continually evaluated. They are based on historical experience and other factors, including expectations of future events that may have a financial impact on the Company and that are believed to be reasonable under the circumstances. Information about Significant judgments and Key sources of estimation made in applying accounting policies that have the most significant effects on the amounts recognized in the special purpose financial statements is included in the following notes:

- Recognition of Deferred Tax Assets: The extent to which deferred tax assets can be recognized is based on an assessment of the probability of the Company's future taxable income against which the deferred tax assets can be utilized. In addition, significant judgement is required in assessing the impact of any legal or economic limits.
- Right-of-use assets and lease liability: The Company has exercised judgement in determining the lease term as the non-cancellable term of the lease, together with the impact of options to extend or terminate the lease if it is reasonably certain to be exercised. Where the rate implicit in the lease is not readily available, an incremental borrowing rate is applied. This incremental borrowing rate reflects the rate of interest that the lessee would have to pay to borrow over a similar term, with a similar security, the funds necessary to obtain an asset of a similar nature and value to the right of-use asset in a similar economic environment. Determination of the incremental borrowing rate requires estimation.
- Defined Benefit Obligation (DBO): Employee benefit obligations are measured on the basis of actuarial assumptions which include mortality and withdrawal rates as well as assumptions concerning future developments in discount rates, medical cost trends, anticipation of future salary increases and the inflation rate. The Company considers that the assumptions used to measure its obligations are appropriate. However, any changes in these assumptions may have a material impact on the resulting calculations.
- Provisions and Contingencies: The assessments undertaken in recognising provisions and contingencies have been made in accordance with Indian Accounting Standards (Ind AS) 37, 'Provisions, Contingent Liabilities and Contingent Assets'. The evaluation of the likelihood of the contingent events is applied best judgement by management regarding the probability of exposure to potential loss.
- Impairment of Financial Assets: The Company reviews its carrying value of investments carried at amortized cost annually, or more frequently when there is indication of impairment. If recoverable amount is less than its carrying amount, the impairment loss is accounted for.
- Allowances for Doubtful Debts: The Company makes allowances for doubtful debts through appropriate estimations of irrecoverable amount. The identification of doubtful debts requires use of judgment and estimates. Where the expectation is different from the original estimate, such difference will impact the carrying value of the trade and other receivables and doubtful debts expenses in the period in which such estimate has been changed.
- Fair value measurement of financial Instruments: When the fair values of financial assets and financial liabilities recorded in the balance sheet cannot be measured based on quoted prices in active markets, their fair value is measured using valuation techniques. The input to these models are taken from observable markets where possible, but where this not feasible, a degree of judgement is required in establishing fair values. Judgements include considerations of inputs such as liquidity risk, credit risk and volatility.

17. No. of employees is the aggregate number of employees employed during the year by our Company.

Our average procurement price of maize decreased by 11.61% between Fiscal 2023 and Fiscal 2024 and increased by 8.56% between Fiscal 2024 and Fiscal 2025 which impacted the cost of procurement.

Further, our Company's outstanding borrowings increased from ₹ 1,889.32 million as on March 31, 2023, to ₹ 5,070.48 million as on March 31, 2025, which resulted in an increase in finance cost from ₹ 112.45 million to ₹ 373.50 million. Further, our employee benefits expense increased from ₹ 175.10 million during Fiscal 2023 to ₹ 246.44 million during Fiscal 2025 due to an increase in the number of employees from 372 to 469. Due to aforementioned reasons our total expenses increased at a CAGR of 35.34%. During the same period, the revenue from operations increased at a CAGR of 36.95%.

Accordingly, the expenditure increase was disproportionate to the revenue increase, which has resulted in lower profitability.

Our ROCE marginally decreased from 10.99% in Fiscal 2023 to 10.07% in Fiscal 2024. The reasons observed for ebbs in ROCE (%) is due to the increase in our total borrowings by 89.07% from ₹ 1,889.32 million in Fiscal 2023 to ₹ 3,572.13 million in Fiscal 2024.

Mechanism for redressal of Investor Grievances

SEBI, by way of its Master Circular no. Per the Master Circular no. SEBI/HO/MIRSD/POD-1/P/CIR/2023/70 dated May 17, 2023 (to the extent applicable), SEBI has prescribed certain mechanisms to ensure proper management of investor issues arising out of the UPI Mechanism, including: (i) identification of a nodal officer by SCSBs for the UPI Mechanism; (ii) delivery of SMS alerts by SCSBs for blocking and unblocking of UPI Mandate Requests; (iii) hosting of a web portal by the Sponsor Banks containing statistical details of mandate blocks/unblocks; (iv) limiting the facility of reinitiating UPI Bids to Syndicate Member to once per Bid; and (v) mandating SCSBs to ensure that the unblock process for non-allotted/partially allotted applications is completed by the closing hours of 1 Working Day subsequent to the finalisation of the Basis of Allotment.

SCSBs are required to resolve these complaints within 15 days, failing which the concerned SCSB would have to pay interest at the rate of 15% p.a. for any delay beyond this period of 15 days. Further, the investors shall be compensated by the SCSBs in accordance with SEBI Master Circular (to the extent applicable), in the events of delayed unblock for cancelled/withdrawn/deleted applications, blocking of multiple amounts for the same UPI application, blocking of more amount than the application amount, delayed unblocking of amounts for non-allotted/partially-allotted applications, for the stipulated period. Further, in terms of SEBI Master Circular (to the extent applicable), the payment of processing fees to the SCSBs shall be undertaken pursuant to an application made by the SCSBs to the BRLMs, and such application shall be made only after (i) unblocking of application amounts for each application received by the SCSB has been fully completed, and (ii) applicable compensation relating to investor complaints has been paid by the SCSB.

Phased implementation of UPI

SEBI has issued UPI Circulars in relation to streamlining the process of public issue of equity shares and convertibles by introducing an alternate payment mechanism using UPI. Pursuant to the UPI Circulars, UPI has been introduced in a phased manner as a payment mechanism (in addition to mechanism of blocking funds in the account maintained with SCSBs under the ASBA) for applications by UPI Bidders through intermediaries with the objective to reduce the time duration from public issue closure to listing from 6 Working Days to up to 3 Working Days. Considering the time required for making necessary changes to the systems and to ensure complete and smooth transition to the UPI payment mechanism, the UPI Circulars have introduced and implemented the UPI payment mechanism in 3 phases in the following manner:

- a) Phase I: This phase was applicable from January 1, 2019 until March 31, 2019 or floating of 5 main board public issues, whichever was later. Subsequently, the timeline for implementation of Phase I was extended until June 30, 2019. Under this phase, an RII also had the option to submit the ASBA Form with any of the intermediary and use his / her UPI ID for the purpose of blocking of funds. The time duration from public issue closure to listing would continue to be 6 Working Days.
- b) Phase II: This phase has become applicable from July 1, 2019. SEBI through its Circular no. SEBI/HO/CFD/DCR2/CIR/P/2019/133 dated November 08, 2019 decided to extend the timeline for implementation of UPI Phase II until March 31, 2020. Further, SEBI through its Circular no. SEBI/HO/CFD/DIL2/CIR/P/2020/50 dated March 30, 2020 decided to continue Phase II of UPI with ASBA until further notice. Under this phase, submission of the physical ASBA Form by an RII through Designated Intermediaries (other than SCSBs) to SCSBs for blocking of funds has been discontinued and is replaced by the UPI payment mechanism. However, the time duration from public issue closure to listing continues to be 6 Working Days during this phase.
- c) Phase III: Pursuant to SEBI circular no. SEBI/HO/CFD/TPD1/CIR/P/2023/140 dated August 9, 2023, Phase III has been notified, and accordingly the revised timeline of T+3 days (i.e., the time duration from public issue closure to listing of be 3 Working Days) has been made applicable in two phases i.e., (i) voluntary for all public issues opening on or after September 1, 2023; and (ii) mandatory on or after December 1, 2023 (T+3 Circular). The Offer shall be undertaken pursuant to the processes and procedures as notified in the T+3 Circular as applicable, subject to any circulars, clarification or notification issued by SEBI from time to time, including any circular, clarification or notification which may be issued by SEBI.

Pursuant to the SEBI ICDR Master Circular (to the extent that such circulars pertain to the UPI Mechanism) which has consolidated and rescinded the above-mentioned circulars (UPI Streamlining Circular), SEBI has set out specific requirements for redressal of investor grievances for applications that have been made through the UPI Mechanism. The requirements of the UPI Streamlining Circular include, appointment of a nodal officer by the SCSB and submission of their details to SEBI, the requirement for SCSBs to send SMS alerts for the blocking and unblocking of UPI mandates, the requirement for the Registrar to submit details of cancelled, withdrawn or deleted applications, and the requirement for the bank accounts of unsuccessful Bidders to be unblocked no later than one Working Day from the date on which the Basis of Allotment is finalised. Failure to unblock the accounts within the timeline would result in the SCSBs being penalised under the applicable law. Additionally, if there is any delay in the redressal of investors' complaints, the relevant SCSB as well as the post-Offer BRLMs will be required to compensate the concerned investor.

Further, in terms of the UPI Circulars, the payment of processing fees to the SCSBs shall be undertaken pursuant to an application made by the SCSBs to the BRLMs, and such application shall be made only after (i) unblocking of application amounts for each application received by the SCSB has been fully completed, and (ii) applicable compensation relating to investor complaints has been paid by the SCSB.

The Offer will be made under UPI Phase III of the UPI Circular.

All SCSBs offering facility of making application in public issues shall also provide facility to make application using UPI. Our Company will be required to appoint one of the SCSBs as a sponsor bank to act as a conduit between the Stock Exchanges and NPCI in order to facilitate collection of requests and / or payment instructions of the UPI Bidders using the UPI.

Further, pursuant to SEBI circular no. SEBI/HO/CFD/DIL2/CIR/P/2022/45 dated April 5, 2022, all UPI Bidders applying in public issues where the application amount is up to ₹ 0.50 million shall use the UPI Mechanism and shall also provide their UPI ID in the Bid cum Application Form submitted with any of the entities mentioned herein below:
