Press reports regarding SBI Home Finance Limited

The press had reports that State Bank of India is likely to buy out the stakes held by Financial Institutions in SBI Home Finance.

The Exchange in order to verify the accuracy or otherwise of the information reported in the press and to inform the market place so that the interest of the investors is safeguarded had written to the officials of SBI Home Finance Ltd.

SBI Home Finance Limited has vide its letter inter alia stated," In this connection, we have to inform you that SBIFHL is planning for infusion of additional capital in order to increase the networth of the Company. The shareholders in the Annual General Meeting held on 22nd September, 2001 have adopted a resolution for private placement of Equity and Preference shares to Institutional Shareholders under preferential allotment basis. As per the approval, all the Institutional Shareholders as well as the State Bank of India have been approached for subscription in the proposed capital infusion in their ratio of their existing shareholding. Most of the Institutional Shareholders have since advised that they are not in a position to subscribe to the proposed capital infusion of SBI Home Finance Limited. The State Bank of India has not conveyed its decision in this regard. One of the options that can be considered by the State Bank of India is to subscribe to the proposed Capital Infusion after taking over the existing holding from the other Institutional Shareholders. This may involve obtention of regulatory permissions from the Reserve Bank of India under the Banking Regulation Act. We are however not aware whether the State Bank of India is considering the possibility and no decision has been conveyed to us in this regard."
