

Press Release Archives*April 5, 2000*There have been rumours in the market about payment crisis on the Exchange

There have been rumours in the market about payment crisis on the Exchange. These are unfounded. In the interest of the investors and the market, it is clarified that taking into account outstanding positions and margin/deposits available, as per our current assessment we do not envisage any settlement problems for individual trading members.