The Exchange, with an objective to assist promotion / development of options, with effect from March 01, 2005, decided to reckon the Premium price (Traded price) as the basis instead of Strike price for computing the transaction charges in respect of options. Recognizing the need to have a uniform practice adopted by the members of the Exchange, it is expected that members will pass on the benefits of transaction charges to their clients and reckon the premium price (traded price) while charging the brokerage in respect of the options contracts to their clients
