Financial Express - Glimpse - Ahmedabad 31-7-25 Page-10

JAMMU & KASHMIR Chief Minister Omar Abdullah arrived in Ahmedabad on Tuesday for his two-day visit to the state. On his arrival, Abdullah said that he has come to Gujarat to take part in a tourism event with a hope that a big proportion of tourists from Gujarat will start visiting J&K again.

Abdullah's visit comes months after at least 26 people were killed, including tourists from Gujarat, and several others injured in a terrorist attack in south Kashmir's Pahalgam in April. Interacting with media persons, Abdullah said, "If you look at the past 30-35 years since tourism restarted in J&K, there are three most important places from where people prefer to visit Kashmir; Gujarat, Maharashtra and West Bengal. There is a two-day event of tourism in Gandhinagar and me and my fellows have come to speak on behalf of J&K with a hope that the big proportion of visitors from Gujarat restart coming (to J&K)."

In reply to a question on Operation Sindoor, Abdullah said, "There are many things regarding which the Union government will have to give answers. A few days back Lieutenant Governor of J&K (Manoj Sinha) accepted that there was both intelligence and security failure in Pahalgam. If there is intelligence and security failure, then somebody is guilty for that. On the one hand, we have taken the action that was to be taken against terrorists. The three terrorists who are responsible for the Pahalgam incident have been eliminated. But, so far, there is no action taken for the intelligence and security failure there. People would like to hear about that."

In reply to another question on elimination of two more terrorists in J&K on Wednesday, the J&K CM said, "This will go on. But you have to ask those who told you in 2019 that after abrogation of (Article) 370, terrorism will end in J&K. Today, almost six years have passed since (Article) 370 was abrogated. Even today, terrorists are being eliminated. So, there is a difference between the time when it was said then and current reality."

After his arrival, Abdullah also paid a courtesy visit to Gujarat CM Bhupendra Patel. During his stay in Gujarat, as per an official release from Gujarat government, Abdullah is also scheduled to visit the Statue of Unity.

ciate them for their service and sacrifices" for the nation. "I was inspired to start this initiative during a trek to the Himalayas three years ago, when I saw soldiers doing their duty while posted in hostile terrains. I began small, at the school level first. Over time, it has grown, and I'm committed to taking it forward. I hope to build a community now, to give it (initiative) more strength and reach", she told this paper.

Vaidya also visits nearby schools, gives presentations and shares moving stories about the sacrifices the Indian soldiers make, especially those serving in harsh climates, like the Siachen Glacier. Her sessions are aimed at inspiring other students and foster a deeper appreciation for the military's relentless dedication. Ritaben Patel, Principal of Gnanyagna Vidyalaya, lauded the campaign and called it "a remarkable step towards fostering patriotism among young minds". "When we first heard about it, we genuinely appreciated the intent," she said, adding that the school actively supports the effort by helping organise sessions across various schools to spread awareness.

As part of the initiative, students make rakhis, cards with messages, and small yet meaningful tokens. The initiative has been seeing growing participation each year, with children from multiple schools joining it. It is aimed at ensuring that the festival brings joy to even the remotest military posts in the country.
