Centre restores all valid e-visas to 156 countries

Regular paper visas to all; 10-year nod for citizens of US, Japan

PRESS TRUST OF INDIA
New Delhi, 16 March

India has restored all currently valid five-year e-tourist visas to citizens of 156 countries and regular paper visa to nationals of all countries with immediate effect, two years after their suspension follow the Covid-19 outbreak.

Officials also said all valid old-long duration (10-year) regular tourist visas to nationals of the US and Japan have been restored.

Fresh-long duration (10-year) tourist visas will also be issued to the US and Japanese nationals.

The government has decided that currently valid e-tourist visa issued for five years, which was suspended since March 2020, shall stand restored to the nationals of 156 countries, an official told PTI.

Nationals of these 156 countries will also be eligible for issuance of fresh e-tourist visa according to the Visa Manual, 2019.

Currently valid regular (paper) tourist visa with validity of five years, issued to foreign nationals of all coun-

The foreign nationals on tourist and e-tourist visas will be able to enter India only through designated Sea Immigration Check Posts (IPs) or Airport ICPs by flights, including those under the Vande Bharat Mission or 'air bubble' scheme or by any flights as allowed by the DGCA or Ministry of Civil Aviation

The foreign nationals on tourist and e-tourist visas will be able to enter India only through designated Sea Immigration Check Posts (IPs) or Airport ICPs by flights, including those under the Vande Bharat Mission or 'air bubble' scheme or by any flights as allowed by the DGCA or Ministry of Civil Aviation.

In no case, the foreign nationals will be allowed to enter through land border or riverine routes on tourist visa or e-tourist visa.

The government instructions will not be applicable to Afghanistan nationals who will continue to be governed by the separate instructions issued by the Union Home Ministry regarding grant of e-Emergency X-Misc visa, the official said.

Social media hacking our democracy: Sonia

PRESS TRUST OF INDIA
New Delhi, 16 March

Congress President Sonia Gandhi on Wednesday said global social media companies are being abused to hack India's democracy and urged the government to put an end to their 'systematic influence and interference' in electoral politics.

Gandhi, speaking during Zero Hour in the Lok Sabha, said global companies such as Facebook and Twitter are being increasingly used "to shape political narratives by leaders, political parties and their proxies".

She described as an issue of paramount importance "the rising danger of social media being abused to hack our democracy" and added it has repeatedly come to public notice that global social media companies "are not providing a level playing field to all political parties." She also referred to a report published in the Al Jazeera and The Reporters' Collective claiming that Facebook had offered BJP cheaper deals for election advertisements as compared to other political parties.

"These reports show a growing nexus between big corporations, the ruling establishment and global social

Tharoor joins Cong rebels meet over polls drubbing

Some leaders of the Congress's 'Group of 23' met at the residence of former Leader of Opposition Ghulam Nabi Azad over dinner on Wednesday to work out the grouping's future strategy and discuss the party's poll debate in the just-concluded assembly polls. Sources said the grouping had earlier planned a dinner at Kapil Sibal's residence, but it was changed at the last minute. Among the leaders who attended the meeting included Anand Sharma, Kapil Sibal, Manish Tewari, Shashi Tharoor and Sandeep Dikshit. The ambit of the G-23 grouping increased this time as some more leaders - Patiala MP Preet Kaur, former Gujarat chief minister Shankar Singh Vaghela, former union minister Mani Shankar Aiyar and former Haryana speaker Kuldeep Sharma joined them.

media giants like Facebook," she said.

The Congress chief said young and old minds are being "filled with hate" through emotionally charged disinformation, and proxy advertising companies like

Facebook are profiting from it.

Gandhi said the "blatant manner" in which social harmony is being "disturbed" by Facebook with the "connivance of the ruling establishment is dangerous for our democracy".

One rank-one pension: SC upholds govt principle

PRESS TRUST OF INDIA
New Delhi, 16 March

The Supreme Court on Wednesday upheld the One Rank-One Pension (OROP) principle adopted by the Centre in its 2015 communication issued to the Chiefs of three defence forces saying it neither suffers from any "Constitutional infirmity" nor is it "arbitrary". The apex court said that the Bhagat Singh Koshyari committee report, tabled in the Rajya Sabha on December 10, 2011, furnishes the historical background, the reason for the demand, view of the Parliamentary Committee which proposed the adoption of OROP for personnel belonging to the armed forces and beyond this, the Report cannot be construed as embodying a statement of governmental policy.

Hijab ban row: SC to take up petitions after Holi vacation

PRESS TRUST OF INDIA
New Delhi, 16 March-

The Supreme Court on Wednesday agreed to list for hearing after Holi vacation the pleas challenging the Karnataka High Court verdict which dismissed the petitions seeking permission to wear hijab inside the classroom saying it is not a part of the essential religious practice in Islamic faith.

A bench comprising Chief Justice N V Ramana took note of the submissions of senior advocate Sanjay Hegde, appearing for some students, that urgent hearing was needed keeping in mind the upcoming examinations.

"The urgency is that there are many girls who have to appear in examinations," the senior lawyer told the bench which also comprised Justices A S Bopanna and Hima Kohli.

"Others also mentioned, let us see...we will list after the vacations. Give us time," the CJ said.

Some petitions have been filed against the full bench high court verdict on the case in which it was held that wearing hijab is not a part of essential religious practice in Islamic faith.

Won't waste a single day: Mann takes oath as CM

Punjab Governor Banwarilal Purohit with AAP leader Bhagwant Mann as he takes oath as Punjab Chief Minister, at Khatkar Kalan, the birthplace of Shaheed Bhagat Singh, in Nawanshahr near Jalandhar on Wednesday

PRESS TRUST OF INDIA
SBS Nagar, 16 March

AAP leader Bhagwant Mann took oath Wednesday as Punjab chief minister at a ceremony thronged by tens of thousands of people in freedom fighter Bhagat Singh's village, where he promised to fight unemployment and corruption in the state.

"The work will start from today itself. We will not waste even a single day. We are already late by 70 years," he said at the public meeting at Khatkar Kalan village in Shaheed Bhagat Singh Nagar district. Later in the day, he assumed charge at his office in Chandigarh.

Mann, a former comedian, advised humility to Aam Aadmi Party volunteers. "There should not be any report saying they have become arrogant," he said.

He was the only one to take the oath at the event where many people in the crowd and on the dais, sported turbans and 'dupattas' in yellow —the "Basanti" colour often associated with Bhagat Singh. "Rang de Basanti", an iconic song evoking Bhagat Singh's sacrifice, played at the venue.

Other members of the cabinet will be sworn in later as the AAP seeks to fulfil the massive mandate it got in the Punjab Assembly polls. The party, now in power in a second state —after Delhi where national convenor Arvind Kejriwal is the chief minister — won 92 of the 117 seats.

Parties like the Congress, the Shiromani Akali-Bahujan Samaj Party alliance and the combine of Amarinder Singh's Lok Congress Party and the BJP were decimated by the AAP wave. Mann is the state's 28th chief minister, counting also the multiple terms served by some.

Arvind Kejriwal and ministers from his Delhi cabinet, including Manish Sisodia and Satyendar Jain, attended the event in yellow turbans. Newly elected AAP MLAs too participated.
