Joint session of Parliament to be held on Nov 26 to mark Constitution Day

New Delhi : A special joint session of Parliament will be held on November 26 as part of the year-long celebrations of the 70th anniversary of the adoption of the Indian Constitution. The Constitution was adopted by the Constituent Assembly of India on November 26, 1949, and it became into effect on January 26, 1950. An original copy of the Constitution is kept in the Parliament library. November 26 is celebrated as Constitution Day or 'Samvidhan Divas' every year.

The special session, which will be held from 10 am to 1 pm, will also be attended by President Ram Nath Kovind and Prime Minister Narendra Modi. Both President and Prime Minister are likely to address the joint sitting of MPs. Members of both the houses - Rajya Sabha and Lok Sabha - will be present along with Lok Sabha speaker Om Birla and Rajya Sabha chairman Venkaiah Naidu will also be present.

Former presidents and prime ministers are also expected to attend the event which will be held in the Central Hall of Parliament. The government is reportedly planning to organise year-long celebrations on the occasion.

'Lord Ram is ancestor of all of us': Shia Waqf Board chairman donates Rs 51,000 for Ram Temple in Ayodhya

New Delhi : In what comes as an unforeseen move, the Uttar Pradesh Shia Central Waqf Board chairman Wasim Rizvi on Thursday announced a donation of Rs 51,000 for the construction of the Ram Janmabhoomi temple in Ayodhya, adding that Lord Ram is the 'ancestor of all of us' and that the landmark Supreme Court judgment on November 9 was the 'best verdict' that could have been possible.

"Preparations are on for the construction of a grand temple at the Ram Janmabhoomi. Since Lord Ram is the ancestor of all of us, we are giving Rs 51,000 on behalf of the 'Wasim Rizvi Films' to the Ram Janambhoomi Nyas towards temple construction," he said.

He further said that the unanimous verdict of the Supreme Court on November 9 had cleared the way for the construction of a Ram temple at the disputed site in Ayodhya. The court has also directed the Centre to allot a separate five-acre plot to the Sunni Waqf Board to build a mosque.

SC Says Odd-Even Not a Solution; Summons Chief Secretaries of Delhi, Haryana, Punjab and UP

New Delhi : The Supreme Court on Friday pulled the Centre over the deteriorating air pollution in the national capital and gave the government a week's time Delhi to know about the steps taken to reduce air pollution in Delhi-NCR. A bench of Justices Arun Mishra and Deepak Gupta said effective steps must be taken and 13 pollution hot-spots in Delhi cleared of pollutants. The court also questioned the Delhi government over granting exemptions, including to two- and three-wheelers during its odd-even scheme and said pollution levels in Delhi are increasing in spite of the vehicle rotation scheme being in force. It expressed concern that despite reduction in stubble burning, pollution levels have worsened.

Meanwhile, the central government also snubbed Delhi's odd-even scheme, saying that car rationing has "hardly helped" The Aam Aadmi Party (AAP) government responded by alleging that stubble burning is the real culprit behind Delhi's worsening air quality. They also refuted the Centre's claims and said odd-even helps improving air quality. Union Environment Minister Prakash Javadekar on Friday called for "joint action" by all agencies to combat the worsening air quality. A thick layer of toxic smog engulfed the city as the pollution level continued to remain in the 'severe' category for the fourth consecutive day on Friday. Addressing a press conference here, Javadekar said it was not the time for different agencies to blame each other.

'Sabarimala Not for Activism': Minister Says No Police Protection for Women Who Attempt to Enter Temple

Thiruvananthapuram : The police will not provide security to women who attempt to enter Lord Ayyappa's shrine in Kerala, Kerala Devaswom Minister Kadakampally Surendran said on Friday, adding that women should get a "court order" for police protection if they want to enter the temple. Surendran's comments came a day after the Supreme Court transferred a bunch of pleas, seeking a review of its order allowing women entry to Sabarimala, to a larger bench. The minister said the temple is not a place for "activism" and the Left Democratic Front (LDF) government would not support those who make announcements about entering the hill shrine for the sake of publicity. "Sabarimala is not a place for activists to show their activism. There are some people who call a press meet and declare they will enter the shrine. They are doing it just for publicity. The government will not support such trends," he said.

When asked about comments from a few activists saying they will visit the shrine as there was no stay on the September 28, 2018, order of the Supreme Court allowing women of all age groups to enter, Surendran said, "They can approach the apex court, procure an order for police protection, and come. There is still some confusion regarding the order. The government will consult legal experts," he said. A five-judge bench headed by Chief Justice Ranjan Gogoi has said a larger bench will re-examine various religious issues, including the entry of women into the Sabarimala temple and mosques and the practice of female genital mutilation in the Dawoodi Bohra community.

BJP to conduct countrywide protests against Rahul Gandhi's 'false' Rafale claims on November 16

New Delhi : After the Supreme Court on Thursday dismissed Rafale review petitions against its December 14, 2018 judgement, the Bharatiya Janata Party said on Friday that it will hold protests against the Congress party, and its leader Rahul Gandhi on November 16 for making false claims about the deal. The ANI reported that the BJP leaders and functionaries will hold protests outside the Congress party offices against the party's 'false' allegation of corruption in the Rafale deal by the NDA government.

The Supreme Court on Thursday also cautioned Rahul Gandhi to be careful in the future after it closed a contempt plea filed by BJP MP Meenakshi Lekhi for Rahul Gandhi's 'chowkidar chor hai' remark against Prime Minister Narendra Modi in the Rafale case. After the Supreme Court verdict, Union Minister Ravi Shankar Prasad on Thursday lashed out at Rahul Gandhi for "lying" about the Rafale deal. "Earlier he (Rahul Gandhi) created furore saying that PM Modi gave the deal to Reliance, then Dassault said that decision is taken by them not the Indian government," Prasad said.

Defense Minister Rajnath Singh also weighed in on the issue, saying that Congress maligned PM Modi's reputation and demanded an apology. A bench comprising of Chief Justice of India Ranjan Gogoi and Justices Sanjay Kishan Kaul and KM Joseph delivered the verdict on the review petitions. Earlier on May 10, the Supreme Court had reserved its judgment on the review petitions.
