

Accelya voted as winner 'Information Technology for the Air Cargo Industry 2014'

Accelya wins second 'IT Company of the Year' title in 2014

Barcelona, Mumbai, 25th June, 2014: Accelya, the leading provider of financial and business intelligence solutions to the Airline industry, has won the 'Information Technology for the Air Cargo Industry 2014' at the ACW World Air Cargo Awards 2014 ceremony hosted in Shanghai on 18th June 2014.

The Award was based on votes casted by airline executives on parameters including; understanding the needs of the market, making IT easier for the airfreight community, innovation and new product development.

World Air Cargo Awards are conducted annually and are hosted by Air Cargo Week, the world's only weekly newspaper published for the airfreight professional.

ACW World Air Cargo Award is the second award in 2014 in which Accelya has been voted by airline community as winner in the Information Technology category. In March 2014, Accelya was voted as the IT Company of the Year 2014 at the Air Transport News Awards.

Speaking on the occasion, Mr. Philippe Lesueur, Chairman, Accelya Group said, "We are delighted to be acknowledged for the second time this year as the IT Company of the Year by Air Cargo Week and other leading industry publications. I would like to congratulate all employees of Accelya for the value delivered to our customers and the airline industry."
