RISKS TO INVESTORS:

(For details, refer to section titled "Risk Factors" on page 39 of the Prospectus)

- Risk related to concentration of our revenue from our Stores in Maharashtra: A significant portion of our revenue comes from our Stores in Maharashtra, where our operations are heavily focused. In six-months period ended September 30, 2025 and Fiscal 2025, 2024, 2023, we have derived ₹1,528.70 million, ₹2,503.83 million, ₹1,692.61 million and ₹1,923.42 million contributing to 97.54%, 96.97%, 96.75% and 96.73% of our revenue from operations from our Stores in Maharashtra. If this region or these key locations face any negative developments, it could harm our business performance, growth potential, financial health, and overall profitability.
- Risk related to reliance on strength and reputation of our flagship brand, "Reva": The success of our business is closely tied to the strength and reputation of our flagship brand, "Reva". However, there is no guarantee that we will be able to effectively maintain or enhance the awareness and perception of the "Reva" brand in the market. Any reputational damage to the brand, name or logo could have an adverse effect on our financial condition, cash flows and results of operations.
- Risk related to our dependency on the brand reputation of our Corporate Promoter: We are dependent on the brand reputation of our Corporate Promoter, P. N. Gadgil & Sons Limited and any reputational damage to their brand will also have an impact on our footprint and subsequently our sales and revenue. We operate 34 Stores in 25 cities across Maharashtra, Gujarat, and Karnataka. Out of 34 existing stores, 33 stores operate under a shop-in-shop ("SIS") model within retail outlets operated by our Corporate Promoter, P. N. Gadgil & Sons Limited (PNGS) and one store is a brand-exclusive store operated under COCO model. Our Company is associated with the jewellery house P. N. Gadgil & Sons (PNGS), which has a legacy of more than 190 years in the gems and jewellery sector. (Source: CARE Report - "Competitive Landscape - Overview" on page 211) We were established to manage and expand the 'Reva' brand, a sub-brand launched by PNGS to cater to the growing demand for affordable and contemporary diamond jewellery.
- Risk related to marketing our products: Our inability to effectively market our products could affect consumer footfall and consequently adversely impact our business, financial condition, cash flows and results of operations. Building and maintaining the Reva brand depends on the successful marketing and merchandising, strong customer relationships and delivering consistently high-quality customer experience which we are able to maintain. To strengthen our brand and promote our products, we have invested in advertising and other marketing initiatives, such as outdoor advertising and we anticipate continuing these expenditures in the future. Our Company utilises WhatsApp marketing as well as social media platforms such as Instagram, Facebook, Google advertisements and digital advertisements which we broadcast on third party over-the-top (OTT) media platforms and movie theatres.
- Risks related to ease of availability and popularity of lab-grown or synthetic diamonds: Products such as lab-grown or synthetic diamonds are gaining popularity and become more easily available, which may cause a decrease in demand for natural diamonds or gemstones from customers. The lower cost and growing acceptance of these diamonds is a potential threat to the natural diamond industry, and our pricing strategies may not be successful in competing with cost-efficient synthetic alternative products. Our business operations have not been affected by any significant consequences on account of such alternatives in the past. However, while we have implemented pricing strategies to remain competitive, with our products starting at a price as low as approximately ₹20,000, there is no assurance that these strategies will be effective in mitigating the threat posed by synthetic alternatives, since we only retail natural diamond jewellery.
- Risk related to dependency on our customers: Our ability to sustain revenue growth and profitability is dependent on converting existing customers into repeat customers and acquiring new customers in a cost-effective manner. If we fail to achieve this, our business, financial condition, results of operations, and cash flows could be adversely affected. Factors such as store location, product variety, customer service quality, and seamless shopping experiences require substantial investment and effort. If these efforts fail to deliver the desired outcomes, our ability to attract new customers and drive sales could be compromised.
- Risk related to evolving customer preferences and changing trends: The jewellery industry is sensitive to shifts in customer preferences, and our sales performance is influenced by our ability to align our product offerings with market demand. Customer preferences are influenced by various factors, including fashion industry trends, perceived value, price sensitivity, and the availability of alternative materials such as cubic zirconia, moissanite, or lab-grown diamonds. Such designs can also be replicated using cheaper alternatives to gold and platinum, such as silver and alloys. Additionally, shifts in consumer attitudes toward substituting traditional jewellery with synthetic alternatives or other luxury products could further impact demand for our offerings. If we are unable to adapt to these changes by modifying existing collections or launching new products in a timely manner, we may lose customers or fail to attract new ones. This could result in obsolete inventory, necessitating the melting of gold and repurposing of precious and semi-precious stones, leading to material losses.
- Risks related to maintaining an optimal level of inventory in our Stores and dependency on third-party suppliers: Our inability to maintain an optimal level of inventory in our Stores may impact our operations adversely. Our Company's growth depends on predicting customer demand and market trends, particularly in Maharashtra, where we have a strong foothold. Misjudging demand can lead to excess inventory resulting in unsold stock or shortages, which could affect our ability to meet customer demand and loss of customers. Maintaining an optimal level of relevant inventory is important to our business as it allows us to respond to customer demand effectively. We project sales using various factors, including expected growth at Stores, seasonal trends, regional preferences, product design, size, quality, and other market dynamics. Inventory levels are adjusted based on real-time sales data, past performance, current inventory level, work-in-progress, supplier reliability, economic conditions, competition, and seasonal fluctuations and demand. If certain products underperform in specific locations, we redistribute them to Stores with higher demand.
- Risks related to successful operations of our new stores: Our inability to successfully establish and operate our New Stores may adversely affect our business, financial condition and results of operation. Our Company has established one brand-exclusive store under company owned and company operated ("COCO") model. We intend to utilise ₹2,885.84 million towards opening of the New Stores and expand our COCO model with these New Stores being brand-exclusive for Reva. Failure to effectively manage these locations could negatively impact our Company's financial health and operational performance. For successful operations of our New Stores, the following key elements will determine the success of our expansion, including but not limited to effectively identifying locations which will provide consumer demand, establishing our presence in unfamiliar markets while implementing our business model correctly, incorporating new locations into our current operations to maximize efficiency, offering product selections that align with regional tastes while maintaining competitive pricing, executing marketing and promotional strategies to generate awareness of these New Stores, recruiting, developing, and keeping qualified staff members, facing competition from both established businesses and new market entrants, potential changes to surrounding infrastructure that might affect customer accessibility or construction timelines and securing retail spaces under favourable leasing conditions.
- Risk related to dependency on our Corporate Promoter for our business operations: Majority of our business operations through a franchise agreement pursuant to which we have acquired inventory and logistical support from our Corporate Promoter, P. N. Gadgil & Sons Limited. The use of these is governed by a franchise agreement dated February 1, 2025, as amended pursuant to the amendment agreement dated June 26, 2025, which grants our Company an exclusive right over inventory and the use of logistical support and physical store infrastructure. This dependency creates potential operational risks,

- Risk related to seasonality of our business: Our business experiences seasonal patterns, with sales peaking during specific festivals and special occasions such as Akshay Tritiya, Dhanteras, Diwali and Valentine's Day. We also leverage regional new year celebrations in states like Maharashtra to boost sales. These periods typically see higher customer footfall and increased profit margins. In line with this trend, we tailor our marketing campaigns and promotional offers to align with occasions like weddings, anniversaries, and birthdays, when jewellery purchases are culturally significant. While we prepare for these periods by maintaining adequate inventory levels and have not been affected by any such seasonal pattern in the past, a decline in sales during these high-demand periods could have a disproportionately negative effect on our financial results for the quarter or entire fiscal year. In addition, higher seasonal fluctuations may place pressure on our cash flow and resource allocation. Due to these seasonal factors, our financial performance may vary significantly from across the Calendar Year as well as the Hindu calendar year, making it difficult to use interim results as a reliable indicator of future performance.
- Risk related to adequate working capital: As of September 30, 2025, our outstanding borrowings amounted to ₹1,302.49 million, mainly used to support working capital requirements, including our liability to P. N. Gadgil & Sons Limited arising out of the Business Transfer Agreement dated January 31, 2025. While the inventory was acquired through slump sale under the Business Transfer Agreement, the acquisition cost was not paid immediately. Hence the party from whom this inventory was acquired is the supply creditor of the Company. Such payment to the supply creditor was partly settled through payment made out of Federal Bank's sanction limit out of which ₹900.00 million was settled through amount borrowed from Federal Bank. Due to the high capital demands of our operations, a significant portion of our working capital is directed toward procurement of finished goods from our manufacturing partners. The table below outlines our working capital trends over the last three Fiscals and the six-months period ended September 30, 2025:
