Subject: Clarification on Spurt in Volume

Dear Sir,

This has reference to your Mail dated June 10, 2024 the contents of which are self-explanatory.

We clarify and confirm that, the increase in volume may be attributed to several factors, including but not limited to heightened market interest and investor activities.

We categorically submit that neither there is any event/ information / announcement nor any impending event/ information / announcement which is price sensitive which has been withhold or not informed / intimated to your Stock Exchange by our Company with regard to recent significant spurt in volume of our security and the same is purely market forces driven and due to none other reason / factor whatsoever, over which the Company has no control whatsoever.

We assure that all SEBI (LODR) Regulations 2015, as amended, are thoroughly checked and complied with.

Thank you for your attention and understanding.

Thanks and Regards,

For Agarwal Industrial Corporation Limited
