Allcargo Global Limited Monthly Operational Update

LCL operations:

- LCL volume stood at 711 thousand cubic meters in August 2026, down 7% year-on-year and 2% month-on-month. The decline reflects the ongoing rationalization of loss-making trade lanes, a deliberate trade-off that has driven a corresponding improvement in yields.
- We expect peak season demand to remain resilient, which coupled with constrained capacity will keep the freight rates elevated in the near term.
- On a year-on-year basis volume declined across all major regions. On a month-on-month basis volume declined across Europe, North Asia and Indian Subcontinent and remained flat across North America, Middle East and Latin America.

Container utilization: With focus on building efficiency, container utilization has consistently improved over last few months now sitting marginally above last year, despite lower volume.

Note: The Index shows Container utilization (Cbm/TEU) levels rebased as August 2025 = 100

40 feet ratio: Continuous focus on operational cost rationalization has led to consistent increase in 40 ft container usage in recent months, now sitting well above last year.

Note: The Index shows 40 feet Container usage (number of 40 feet containers as % of total containers used) levels rebased as August 2025 = 100

FCL operations:

- FCL volume during the month of August 2026 stood at 51,023 TEUs, down 5% over last year and up 4% over last month. A part of the volume decline over last year is on account of the crisis in the Middle East.
- On a year-on-year basis volume declined across Middle East, North America and Indian Subcontinent, an increase in volume was witnessed across North Asia and Latin America. On a month-on-month basis volume increased across Indian Subcontinent, North Asia and North America and declined across Latin America, Middle East and Europe.

Air operations:

- Air volume for the month of August 2026 stood at 2,796 tons. This represents a decline of 6% over last year and a growth of 2% over last month.
