Gunman kills 3 people, then himself at Michigan University

AP | East Lansing (US)

A gunman opened fire on Monday night at Michigan State University, killing three people and wounding five more, before fatally shooting himself off campus amid an hours-long manhunt during which frightened students hid in the dark.

Police reported the man's death early Tuesday, four hours after shootings broke out, first at Berkeley Hall, an academic building located nearby at the MSU Union, a popular hub to eat or study.

"This truly has been a nightmare we're living tonight," said Chris Rozman, interim deputy chief of the campus police department. Hundreds of officers had Rozman said it was too early to know a motive and whether the man had some type of affiliation with the university. His name was not immediately released.

"There's a lot that we don't know at this point," Rozman said.

Saudi woman set to break barrier with space mission

AGENCIES | Riyadh

Saudi Arabia will send its first ever woman astronaut on a space mission later this year, according to a state media report.

Rayana Barnawi will join fellow Saudi male astronaut Ali Al-Qarni on a mission to the International Space Station (ISS) during the second quarter of 2023, the official Saudi Press Agency said on Sunday.

"They'll become the first Saudi Arabians to travel to the ISS and just the second and third people from the kingdom ever to reach space. And Barnawi will be the first Saudi woman to make it to the final frontier."

"Human spaceflight is a symbol of countries' sovereignty and global competitiveness in many fields such as technology, engineering, research and innovation," a press release from the state-run Saudi Press Agency reads.

"This mission is also historic, as it will make the Kingdom one of the few countries in the world that

The fourth crew member is investor John Shofner, a paying customer who will serve as Ax-2's pilot. Barnawi and Ali Al-Qarni will be mission specialists.

Space shooting spree targets were not aliens or ETs: US

IANS | Washington

The US does not quite know what it has shot off the skies in the last three instances, but officials assure Americans on Monday that they were not alien airships.

The first object downed was a Chinese spy balloon on February 4. But officials have acknowledged they know little or nothing about the last three objects - two by the US acting alone and one in a joint operation with bordering Canada; not their origin, owner or purpose.

"I know there have been questions and concerns about this, but there is no - again, no indication of aliens or extraterrestrial activity - with these recent take-downs," Karine Jean-Pierre, the White House press secretary said to reporters.

She added: "Again, there is no indication of aliens or extraterrestrial activity with these recent take-downs. Wanted to make sure that the American people knew that, all of you knew that. And it was important for us to say that from here because we've been hearing a lot about it."

US fighter jets blew up an airframe object over Alaska on Friday then one over Canada on Saturday and a third over Michigan state on Sunday.
