Press Release

"ANI Integrated Services Limited Delivers Six Greenfield Air Separation Units Ahead of Schedule to Prodair Air Products India Private Ltd"

Thane, 12th April 2024: ANI has effectively completed and delivered six units within a single year to Prodair Air Products India Pvt Ltd, an American multinational corporation renowned for its expertise in gases and chemicals for the Total Order Value of 6 units for Rs. 12.76 Crores.

ANI managed the supply, assembly, installation, and activation of six brand-new air separation units across various locations: Hosur, Aurangabad, Wada, Hoshangabad, Raebareli, and Barjora. These units are designed to produce liquid medical-grade oxygen as their primary output alongside other gases.

Additionally, ANI may also look for entering into additional projects with Air Products.

Commentary by Mr. Korpe: It showcases ANI's efficiency and expertise in delivering complex engineering solutions while also indicating their commitment to expanding their portfolio and partnerships in the industry. This emphasis ANI's proactive approach to meeting client demands and its potential for further growth.
