J&K CRICKET SCAM: FORMER CM ACCUSED OF SIPHONING OFF ₹43.69 CR

ED Quizzes Farooq for Five Hours

Our Political Bureau

New Delhi: The Enforcement Directorate (ED) on Wednesday questioned former Jammu and Kashmir chief minister Farooq Abdullah in connection with alleged siphoning off of funds given by BCCI to Jammu and Kashmir Cricket Association. Abdullah was the then association president.

He appeared before the agency at its Chandigarh office where his statement was recorded under the Prevention of Money Laundering Act (PMLA). His interrogation continued for over five hours.

Abdullah and three others were booked by the Central Bureau of Investigation (CBI) on September 23, 2015 on the directions of Jammu and Kashmir High Court, which had transferred the investigation of the case registered on March 10, 2012 by Srinagar Police. The case was transferred to CBI on the directions of the court. ED had registered a money-laundering case after taking cognisance of a CBI FIR and its chargesheet filed in July last year.

It was alleged that Abdullah had given ₹12 crore (approx) to Jammu & Kashmir Cricket Association from the year 2002 to 2011 as grant for the promotion of game of cricket in the state of J&K, of which ₹43.69 crore (approx) was siphoned off and misappropriated by the accused. It was further alleged that during this period, Abdullah the then president of the state cricket association had connived with the treasurer of J&K-A and others in undue siphoning off the funds and its misappropriation.

Besides Abdullah, others named in the chargesheet are association general secretary Mohammed Salim Khan, treasurer Ahsan Ahmed Mirza and Jammu and Kashmir Bank executive Bashir Ahmad Mirza.

The four stand charge sheeted on charges of criminal conspiracy, criminal breach of trust of Ranbir Pental Code (R&P), Abdullah has repeatedly and strongly denied any wrongdoing.

Shiv Sena Readies Backup Plan to Contest Maha Assembly Polls Alone

Party to field Aaditya Thackeray; to become first in his family to contest an election

CLManoj@timesgroup.com

New Delhi: The Shiv Sena has decided to field Aaditya Thackeray in the forthcoming assembly polls. He will become the first member of the Thackeray family to contest an election. A cautious Sena has also put in place a backup plan if the BJP decides to go it alone, notwithstanding chief minister Devendra Fadnis's statement that the parties will fight the assembly polls together.

Sena sources said Sena chief Uddhav Thackeray's 29-year-old son Aaditya, who heads the party's youth wing is now on a state-wide Jan Ashirwad Yatra. The Sena core committee comprising nine designated senior leaders has decided that Aaditya should contest the assembly elections and be projected as the party's face. Sena stronghold of Worli has been zeroed in as his probable assembly constituency, according to Sena insiders. As Thackeray junior's yatra will inch towards the assembly polls, Shiv Saniks could begin campaign slogans hailing him as the future chief minister when Fadnis would, incidentally, be on his 'Mahajanadesh Yatra'.

The decision to field Aaditya marks a strategic shift from the tradition of Bal Thackeray and Uddhav Thackeray who have always led the Sena electoral campaigns and supervised the state government from their residence, Maharashtra. Uddhav's cousin Raj Thackeray, who heads Maharashtra Navnirman Sena, too has never contested in an election.

Sena is open to an alliance with the BJP provided the latter agrees to the pre-Lok Sabha poll understanding that the two parties will contest equal number of assembly seats, said a party insider. However, having learnt a bitter lesson in 2014, when BJP parted ways with it due to differences on seat-sharing, the Sena is cautious. It has started preparing a list of candidates for all assembly segments after inducting MLAs and corporators from NCP-Congress from traditionally Sena seats.

Despite serial bickering, BJP and Sena managed an alliance for the LS polls. However, the Sena had expressed unhappiness over a single Cabinet berth in the new Union ministry and rejection of its demand for the deputy Speaker's post.

In 2014, BJP had won over 120 assembly seats and Sena 60 before they reneged the coalition.
