6 die, 15 hurt in Poland firing

Krakow: Six people were killed and 15 injured when a gunman opened fire in Krakow's Main Square on Saturday, AP reported, citing Poland's regional government. The attacker, a Polish citizen wearing military-style fatigues, fired indiscriminately while driving through the tourist hotspot. Police officers were wounded.

The gunman was shot and injured during an exchange of fire with officers. Police found weapons and ammunition in his car. Police said the attacker acted alone, but his motive remains unclear.

A tram driver reported being fired upon, with a bullet shattering his cabin window. PM Donald Tusk said police were probing.

Briefs

Nepal names 2,465 missing

Nepal on Saturday released details of 2,294 nationals and 171 foreigners missing after the August 26 floods, but Indians were excluded as their details remain unconfirmed. The disaster killed at least 1,455 people and left 5,285 missing. Authorities asked families to report anyone found alive within seven days.

Thousands gather for Pope's Mass

Thousands gathered in Uruguay on Saturday for Pope Leo XIV's first Mass in South America, with over 30,000 registered attendees from Uruguay, Argentina and Brazil. The pontiff began his three-nation tour despite undergoing lung cancer surgery last month. His visit aims to revive Catholic faith in largely secular Uruguay before travelling to Argentina and Peru.

Italy blames pro-Russian hackers

Italian Premier Giorgia Meloni blamed pro-Russian hackers after Foreign Minister Antonio Tajani reported his personal data was leaked on the dark web. Tajani said cybercriminals were seeking more information about his family, exposing them to threats and intimidation. Meloni condemned attempts to sell secret information about government officials.

FRESH ESCALATION | Tehran weighs mediator's proposals but insists on lifting naval blockade, sanctions, other curbs before resuming nuclear talks; US offers $20m for Iran intelligence

America carries out new strikes on Qeshm Island

Washington: President Donald Trump said the US military carried out fresh limited strikes on Iran on Friday, targeting an air defence system, even as Tehran reviewed proposals from Qatar aimed at paving the way for nuclear negotiations.

Iranian state media reported two explosions in the Suza area of Qeshm Island, located along a crucial oil shipping route.

Trump described the strikes as "minor". He did not provide further details.

> They built a little bit of an anti-aircraft device and we knocked it out in about 15 minutes, maybe five. We are talking to Iran. We have been...

QATAR'S BRIDGE DEAL

Officials from two West Asian governments said Iran was reviewing proposals presented by Qatar to bridge differences with Washington over Tehran's nuclear programme.

However, Iran remains unwilling to negotiate with the Trump administration until its key conditions are met. These include ending the US blockade of Iranian ports, lifting sanctions, unfreezing assets, compensating for war damage and halting regional hostilities, including Israeli operations in Lebanon.

The White House declined to comment on the proposals, though Trump confirmed that talks through mediators were continuing.

Under a proposed interim arrangement, both sides would undertake confidence-building measures over two days. The US would lift its blockade and release some frozen Iranian funds, while Tehran would allow International Atomic Energy Agency inspectors access to sites bombed by the US and Israel.

On the second day, Iran would reopen the Strait of Hormuz under a modified agreement reached with Oman, pending US approval. The temporary arrangement would remain until a permanent deal involving other Gulf countries is finalised.

The measures would pave the way for broader negotiations on Iran's stockpile of highly enriched uranium and other aspects of its nuclear programme. Meanwhile, the US Central Command announced a reward of up to $20 million, along with possible relocation, for information about Iran's nuclear facilities, equipment, personnel and related movements.

DIPLOMACY INTENSIFIES

Defence Secretary Pete Hegseth discussed developments with his Qatari counterpart, Sheikh Saoud bin Abdulrahman Al Thani, while Iranian Foreign Minister Abbas Araghchi held talks with his Iraqi and Tunisian counterparts.

Egyptian Foreign Minister Badr Abdelatty urged both sides to demonstrate "flexibility" and find "compromise solutions" to prevent renewed escalation.

SCRUTINY SOUGHT

Indian-American congressman-elect Amish Shah called for Congress to reclaim its authority over the war with Iran and pledged scrutiny of the Trump administration.

"We've got to take the authority away from the president on this because Congress has the responsibility to declare war," Shah told AZFamily's Good Morning Arizona programme.

Trump lights up Diwali with Indian-American leaders

Top CEOs, entrepreneurs, officials join Oval Office celebrations; GOQii founder gifts President a copy of Hanuman Chalisa

Washington: US President Trump celebrated Diwali at the Oval Office on Friday, lighting a diya in the presence of Indian-American CEOs, entrepreneurs and senior administration officials.

Among those attending were India's Ambassador to the US Vinay Mohan Kwatra, Micron Technology CEO Sanjay Mehrotra, IBM CEO Arvind Krishna, FBI Director Kash Patel, US National Institutes of Health Director Jay Bhattacharya and celebrity chef Vikas Khanna.

Secretary of State Marco Rubio, Deputy Commissioner of Social Security Administration Arjun Mody, Ruby Dhalla, President and CEO of Dhalla Group of Companies, Rajiv Sharma, founder and CEO of Knack Systems, Viswajith Mallampati, President, Keshavam DC, and Hetalkumar Patel, a guest of the President, also attended.

White House Events Usher Arvind Chadha was present.

"A moment of shared light in the Oval Office," said Vishal Gondal, founder and CEO of GOQii Technologies, on X.

"Honoured to celebrate Diwali with President Trump and proud to gift him with a copy of the Hanuman Chalisa, Tulsidas's hymn to Lord Hanuman that millions of us recite for courage, devotion and strength," he said.

DON OPEN TO WORK WITH DEMOCRATS

Trump expressed willingness to work with Democrats on immigration, taxation and economic development following Republican midterm losses. "Immigration's one, tax cuts, or maybe certain things having to do with taxes to make it more convenient and better. A lot of economic development initiatives we can do together."

Trump said newly elected leaders wanted to meet him over issues affecting states, mentioning Texas and South Carolina without identifying them. —PTI/IANS

US Secret Service arrested Venezuela's Ronny Yordrix Guanipa Chrinos near White House with multiple guns.

Man arrested after claiming voices told him to kill Trump

Washington: The US Secret Service arrested a Venezuelan national near the White House on Thursday night after he allegedly claimed to hear voices telling him to kill President Donald Trump.

Officers approached Ronny Yordrix Guanipa Chrinos, who was behaving suspiciously inside a parked car, as per Dept of Homeland Security.

Chrinos allegedly told officers that voices in his head had directed him to Washington to kill Trump. A search revealed three firearms and dozens of rounds of ammunition. The vehicle was also reported stolen. DHS said Chrinos had entered the US illegally through Texas in March 2024. He has been charged and remains in US Marshals Service custody.

Homeland Security Secretary Markwayne Mullin praised the officers for arresting the accused before he could harm anyone. The arrest follows a series of cases involving threats against Trump and his family since his return to office last year. —AP

Tagore mural defaced in B'desh

Dhaka: A mural of Nobel laureate Rabindranath Tagore was defaced with black ink by unidentified persons in Bangladesh's Khulna, sparking outrage. The mural, painted on Khulna Railway Station's boundary wall alongside portraits of prominent cultural figures, was found defaced on Friday morning. Other murals, including those of Kazi Nazrul Islam, Fakir Lalon Shah and former PM Khaleda Zia, remained untouched.

Stephen Miller replaces Susie Wiles as WH chief of staff

Washington: US President Donald Trump has hinted at further Cabinet changes following the Republicans' midterm rout, even as he denied that his decision to replace White House chief of staff Susie Wiles with longtime loyalist Stephen Miller was linked to the election setback.

"I'll be doing maybe a few changes. I don't want to mention who," Trump told CBS News in an interview scheduled to air on Sunday.

If he expected to fire more officials, Trump replied, "I do," but added he was largely satisfied with his Cabinet.

He expressed confidence in Defence Secretary Pete Hegseth, whom some Republicans have blamed for the party's electoral losses.

Trump announced Miller, currently Deputy Chief of Staff and a key architect of his immigration agenda, would replace Wiles on November 9.

Wiles, who helped lead Trump's 2024 presidential campaign and became the first woman to serve as White House chief of staff, will move to his political operation. Denying her departure was election-related, Trump said: "It's just time. Sometimes you change." He praised Miller as "a great fighter", dubbing him loyal, smart and effective.

The appointment drew flak from Democrats. House Minority Leader Hakeem Jeffries urged Trump to "Fire him today", while Senate Minority Leader Chuck Schumer vowed to fight Miller "every step of the way". —Agencies
