Dear Sir/Madam,

Pursuant to Regulation 30 of the SEBI (Listing Obligations and Disclosure Requirements) Regulations, 2015, and based on the materiality threshold prescribed under the applicable regulations, we wish to inform the following:

1. Agreement Details

Software Technology Parks of India (STPI), Bhubaneswar has accepted the request of the Company and has provided its consent to allow the use of selected STPI distributed locations in the State of Odisha for developing Distributed Micro Data Centers with Private AI infrastructure under the initiative named “Konark Cloud.”

2. Objective and Contribution

The Company is focusing on the development of Distributed Micro Data Centers and AI-enabled computing infrastructure. As an initial step, the Company approached STPI Bhubaneswar to collaborate with Akanksha Power & Infrastructure Limited (APIL) to establish a distributed digital infrastructure platform incorporating Sovereign Cloud and AI-enabled computing capabilities.

This initiative represents a forward-looking approach toward strengthening regional digital infrastructure and enabling advanced computing capabilities for institutions, industries, and emerging technology ecosystems.

Distributed sovereign micro data centers in India present significant business opportunities by enabling secure, localized AI computing for industries and government entities. With increasing data localization requirements, growing edge AI demand, and accelerating digital transformation, such infrastructure can support institutions, MSME manufacturing industries, healthcare organizations, and local utility bodies while improving low-latency processing, data security, and resilient regional digital infrastructure.
