Suresh Kumar R, Managing Director, Allcargo Terminals Limited, said: "We have delivered a resilient performance in Q1 FY27, with EBITDA rising 37.2% and year-on-year revenue growing 14.5%. Our continued focus on yield management and operational efficiency across our CFS and ICD operations drove this growth. Despite the Middle East conflict, we achieved a healthy 7% rise in volumes.

Our capacity expansion plan remains firmly on track. The Farukhnagar PFT-ICD project remains on course, while other capacity expansion initiatives are progressing well in line with our three-year growth plan.

As India's EXIM trade continues to gather pace, we remain committed to strengthening our infrastructure, further enhancing customer confidence, and playing an enabling role in the country's evolving logistics ecosystem."
