Management Comment

Commenting on the results, Mr. Dilip Jiwrajka, Managing Director, said, "The third quarter results are in line with our expectations, thanks to growth in Apparel Fabrics. We are heartened by these results, especially in wake of the challenging economic situation. This speaks about the diversified nature of our business model in textiles. Our focus on exiting the non-core areas and enhancing our core strengths has intensified. Our order book position continues to be encouraging, while production efficiencies are gradually attaining their peak level. "
