Dear Sir / Madam,

Sub: Intimation under Regulation 30 of SEBI (Listing Obligations and Disclosure Requirements) Regulations, 2015

With reference to our earlier intimation dated 31st January, 2023, regarding fire at one of the manufacturing unit of Amara Raja Batteries Limited, located in Nunegundlapalli village, Chittoor District of Andhra Pradesh, we wish to further inform as follows:

1. The said fire broke out in the tubular battery manufacturing unit which predominantly makes batteries for inverter application.
2. Management basis the initial estimates believes that the said unit has suffered major damages. The Company is assessing the possible options and timelines for reinstatement of the affected unit and all efforts to renew the activities are in progress, however there will be impact on production and supplies from the said unit in the interim period. The revenue from this unit in FY 22 was around Rs 700 crore.
3. The property damaged is covered under the Mega All Risk Insurance Policy and the Company has already informed the Insurance Company and sought for detailed insurance survey and assessment of all losses to Property, Inventory and Fixed Assets.

This is for your information and record.

With regards,

For Amara Raja Batteries Limited
