Rosenbauer CEO Visits India, Strengthens Strategic Partnership with Anlon Technology Solutions

Bangalore, 1st May 2026 – Anlon Technology Solutions Limited (NSE: ANLON), a leading provider of airport infrastructure and firefighting solutions, today announced the successful visit of Mr. Robert Ottel, CEO of Rosenbauer Group, to India and at Anlon’s assembly and integration facility in Dodaballapur on April 28, 2026. This marks the first-ever visit of Rosenbauer’s top leadership to India, reinforcing the company’s long-term commitment to the region.

The visit underscores India’s growing importance in Rosenbauer’s global expansion and localization strategy. During the visit, Mr. Ottel toured Anlon’s state-of-the-art assembly and integration facility and assessed its capabilities, operational readiness, and potential to scale operations in line with global standards.

Strengthening Global Assembly & Technology Collaboration

The engagement reflects a deepening strategic partnership between Rosenbauer and Anlon, aimed at creating a robust and scalable assembly and technology ecosystem in India. This collaboration is designed to enhance localization, improve supply chain efficiencies, and enable faster response to the needs of one of the world’s fastest-growing economies. By leveraging Anlon’s assembly, integration, and operational strengths along with Rosenbauer’s global technology leadership, the partnership is positioned to deliver high-performance firefighting solutions tailored to Indian and international markets.

Advancing ‘Make in India’ Vision

The partnership aligns strongly with the Government of India’s ‘Make in India’ initiative, focusing on building indigenous capabilities while integrating global best practices. It enables both organizations to create long-term value through localized operations, talent utilization, and expanded market access.

Recognizing Milestone Achievement

The visit also marked a significant milestone for Anlon Technology Solutions, as the company recently crossed ₹100 crore in revenue in FY 2025–26. Mr. Ottel personally felicitated Anlon’s leadership team, highlighting Rosenbauer’s confidence in its Indian partner and acknowledging the company’s consistent growth and execution excellence.

A Strategic Step Forward

This landmark visit signifies a strong vote of confidence in India's industrial and technology ecosystem and Anlon's capabilities. It sets the stage for long-term collaboration, innovation, and expansion in the firefighting and emergency response solutions sector.
