Dear Sir/Madam,

Sub: Disclosure under regulation 30 of SEBI (Listing Obligations and Disclosure Requirements), 2015 – Interim stay order on demand notice for payment of Differential Wheeling/Transmission charges between the tariffs and wheeling agreements of Rs.16,71,96,831/- (Rupees Sixteen Crore Seventy One Lakh Ninety Six Thousand Eight Hundred and Thirty One Only) and disconnection of power supply notices received from Southern Power Distribution Company of Telangana Limited:

This is further to our letter dated 5th December, 2021, we wish to inform you that the Company has challenged the demand notice of the Southern Power Distribution Company of Telangana Limited dated 20th November, 2021, raising demand of sum of Rs.16,71,96,831 on account of differential wheeling/transmission charges between the tariffs and wheeling agreements before the Hon'ble Telangana High Court.

The Company has submitted that the demand notice raised by the Southern Power Distribution Company of Telangana Limited is incorrect, unlawful and not tenable as the Company was not party to any wheeling agreement entered into with transmission/distribution licensee. In this regard, the Company has received order dated 10th December, 2021, received by us on 14th December, 2021 from the Hon'ble Telangana High Court. The Hon'ble Telangana High Court has granted stay against taking any coercive steps including that of disconnection of power supply to the Company.

Further, the Hon'ble Telangana High Court has also granted stay order on the ground that there is no privity of contract between the Company and the respondent, and there is no adjudication of the differential wheeling charges by any authority, and therefore, there shall be interim direction as prayed for.

This is for your information and record.

Thanking you.

Yours faithfully,
For Anjani Portland Cement Limited
