Man arrested after egg allegedly thrown at King Charles III

LONDON: A man was arrested on Tuesday on suspicion of assault after an egg was allegedly hurled towards King Charles III during a visit to a town centre. Bedfordshire Police said a man in his 20s was being questioned over an alleged common assault. Charles was meeting members of the public outside the town hall in Luton, 30 miles (46 kilometers) north of London, when the projectile was apparently thrown. He was moved to a different area by his security guards and resumed shaking hands with members of the public.

INDONESIA TO BAN SEX OUTSIDE OF MARRIAGE

Parliament amends code and expands an existing blasphemy law

AP / Jakarta

Indonesia's Parliament unanimously passed a long-awaited revision of the country's penal code on Tuesday that criminalises sex outside of marriage for citizens as well as foreigners, prohibits promotion of contraception and bans defamation of the president and state institutions.

The amended code also expands an existing blasphemy law and maintains a five-year prison term for deviations from the central tenets of Indonesia's six recognised religions: Islam, Protestantism, Catholicism, Hinduism, Buddhism and Confucianism.

Citizens can face a 10-year prison term for associating with organisations that follow Marxist-Leninist ideology and a four-year sentence for spreading communism.

The code maintains the previous criminalisation of abortion but adds exceptions for women with life-threatening medical conditions and for rape, provided that the fetus is less than 12 weeks old, in line with what is already provided in a 2004 Medical Practice Law.

Rights groups criticised some of the revisions as overly broad or vague and warned that adding them to

Activists protest against the new criminal code outside Parliament in Jakarta on Tuesday —AFP

Citizens can face a 10-year prison term for associating with organisations that follow Marxist-Leninist ideology the code could penalise normal activities and threaten freedom of expression and privacy rights.

However, some advocates hailed the passage as a victory for the country's LGBTQ community.

During fierce deliberation, lawmakers eventually agreed to remove an article proposed by Islamic groups that would have made gay sex illegal.

The revised code also preserves the death penalty within the criminal justice system despite calls from the National Commission on Human Rights and other groups to abolish capital punishment, as dozens of other countries have done.

But under the new code, the death penalty has a probationary period.

If within a period of 10 years the convict behaves well, then the death penalty will be changed to life imprisonment or 20 years' imprisonment.

Under Indonesian regulations, legislation passed by Parliament becomes law after being signed by the president.

Zelensky defiant as drone strikes hit Russia again

AP / Kyiv

In a new display of defiance from Kyiv, Ukrainian President Volodymyr Zelensky travelled to an eastern city near the front line on Tuesday, while Russia reported that strategic sites inside the country were hit by drone attacks for a second day.

A fire broke out at an airport in Russia's southern Kursk region that borders Ukraine after a drone hit the facility, the region's governor said on Tuesday. In a second incident, an industrial plant 80 kilometres (50 miles) from the Ukrainian border was also targeted by drones, Russian independent media reported, apparently missing a fuel depot at the site.

Federal authorities did not immediately blame Ukraine. But Tuesday's reported strikes were carried out a day after Moscow blamed Kyiv for unprecedented, similar attacks on two air bases deep inside Russia. The attacks on the Engels base in the Saratov region on the Volga River and the Dyagilevo base in the Ryazan region in western Russia were some of the most brazen inside Russia during the war. In the aftermath, Russian troops carried out another wave of missile strikes on Ukrainian territory struck homes and buildings and killed civilians.

Marking Ukraine's armed forces day, Zelensky travelled to the eastern Donetsk region on Tuesday and vowed to push Russian forces out of all of Ukraine's territory.

"Everyone sees your strength and your skill... I'm grateful to your parents. They raised real heroes," Zelensky said in a video address to Ukrainian forces from the city of the Slovian, a key Ukrainian stronghold in the east.

Ukrainian officials have not formally confirmed carrying out the drone attacks, maintaining their apparent policy of deliberate ambiguity as they have done in the past when it comes to high-profile attacks on Russian targets.

But presidential adviser Mikhail Podolyak taunted Moscow in comments on Twitter.

"If something is launched into other countries' airspace, sooner or later unknown flying objects will return to the point of departure," Podolyak wrote. "The earth is round." The attacks on Russian bases — more than 500 kilometres from the border with Ukraine — were deeply embarrassing and exposed the vulnerability of some of Russia's most strategic military sites, raising questions about the effectiveness of their air defenses. They also threatened a major escalation of the nine-month war: One of the airfields houses bombers capable of carrying nuclear weapons.

South Korean tanks come to Poland

Gdynia: Polish President Andrzej Duda and the country's defence minister on Tuesday took delivery of a first shipment of tanks and howitzers from South Korea, hailing the swift implementation of a deal signed in the summer in the face of the war in neighbouring Ukraine.

Duda and Mariusz Blaszczak were in the Polish Navy port of Gdynia, on the Baltic coast, to mark the arrival by sea of the first 10 Black Panther K2 tanks, along with 24 Thunder K9 howitzers, from a $5.8 bn deal with Seoul.

They stressed that South Korea responded quickly to the need by Poland, a European Union nation, to urgently increase its deterrence and defense potential as Russia is fighting a war in Ukraine, just across Poland's eastern border. More deliveries are planned through 2025.

N Korea fires artillery again over South's drills

AP / Seoul

North Korea on Tuesday fired a barrage of artillery rounds into waters near rival South Korea for the second consecutive day in a tit-for-tat for the South's live-fire drills in an inland border region.

South Korea's Joint Chiefs of Staff said it detected North Korea firing around 90 artillery rounds from the eastern coastal town of Kosong at around 10 am and another 10 rounds from the nearby town of Kumgang at around 6 pm.

It said the shells, which were likely from multiple rocket launchers, landed in the northern side of a maritime buffer zone the Korea established in 2018 to reduce border tensions.

The firings came shortly after the North Korean People's Army's General Staff said it instructed front-line units to launch artillery into the sea as a warning following South Korean artillery exercises in a region near their land border.

North Korea also on Monday fired around 130 artillery rounds into waters near the buffer zones with South Korea, while accusing the South of raising unnecessary tension in front-line areas.

The latest North Korean military action has worsened animosity between the rivals, whose relations have sharply declined amid a prolonged pause in nuclear negotiations between Washington and Pyongyang.

The South Korean army was conducting live-fire exercises involving multiple rocket launch systems and howitzers in two separate testing grounds in the Cheorwon region.
