State's water conservation drive gets monsoon boost

9,700 out of 12,279 ponds deepened in the last one year filled up by rain water

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
GANDHINAGAR, SEPTEMBER 1

THE SUJALAM Sufalam Jal Abhiyan (SSJA) launched by the state government in 2018 has bore fruits this year due to good monsoon, as out of the 12,279 ponds deepened under the campaign in the last two summer season, 9,700 have been completely filled up this year resulting in increase of ground water level of five to seven feet in the respective areas.

Chief Minister Vijay Rupani addressed the media on Sunday on the success of SSJA, while adding that the campaign is part of a multi-pronged effort of the state government to transform Gujarat from a water-deficit state to a water-surplus one.

Under the campaign, which was launched in 2018, the state undertook various tasks of water conservation like deepening of village ponds, desilting of check dams, cleaning of canals etc. on a public-private-partnership basis.

Addressing the mediapersons here, Rupani said due to poor monsoon, the results envisaged under the campaign could not be realised last year.

"However, this year the state has received around 95% of the season's rain. And due to the state government's prior planning, most of the ponds which were deepened and the check dams de-silted have been filled up with fresh water. Besides, the ground water level in those areas has increased by five to seven feet," said Rupani. He was accompanied by Deputy Chief Minister Nitin Patel, Chief Secretary J N Singh and other top officials of the state government.

As per the details provided, 30,416 works related to water conservation were completed in the last two years under the SSJA campaign. This increased water storage capacity in the state by 23,553 lakh cubic feet. These works included deepening of 12,279 ponds and desilting of 5,775 check dams. Out of them, 9,700 ponds and 4,600 check dams have been completely filled up with fresh water. Also, the campaign generated employment of 100 lakh man days.

So far, owing to the SSJA, Gujarat could witness additional water storage of around 18,000 lakh cubic feet.

Rupani said that Gujarat has been standing first in the Niti fruits, water scarcity for domestic purpose and for the livestock of more than 14,000 villages has been resolved at the local level. And due to the increased water level in village wells, less electricity will be consumed, he added. Moreover, the earth dug out from ponds and check dams was provided to farmers which has renewed the fields, the chief minister said.

Hailing the SSJA campaign, Rupani also said that it is part of the state government's multi-pronged efforts in the direction of sustainable development and making Gujarat a water surplus state. Rupani indicated that after attaining the goal of becoming a water surplus state, Gujarat will think about round-the-clock water supply in the state with water metres. For that Gandhinagar city has been selected as a pilot project where 24*7 water supply will be provided through water metres.

Narmada waters channelised

Chief Minister Vijay Rupani said that the flood water of Narmada is being channelised to Saurashtra and North Gujarat regions. Rupani also said that the Sardar Sarovar Dam is likely to be filled at its maximum height by September.

Jaipur couple, 5 others booked for duping 3,015 people of Rs 4 crore

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
AHMEDABAD, SEPTEMBER 1

SEVEN PERSONS, including a couple from Jaipur, were booked for allegedly duping 3,015 trainees of an institute in Palanpur of Rs 4 crore, police said.

The main accused have been identified as Bhupendra Yadav and his wife Poonam Yadav, both residents of Pratapnagar in Jaipur of Rajasthan.

"Preliminary investigations suggest that the accused duped 10,000 people from across Gujarat of Rs 13 crore. Probe is under way," A R Zankart, Deputy Superintendent of Police, Palanpur division, said.

The alleged scam was first brought to light on Friday by Pankaj Sharma, director of AS Foundation in Palanpur, who claimed that at least 3,015 trainees from his institute had been duped by Business Counselling of India (BCI). Sharma had enrolled trainees from his foundation in the BCI in 2018 for technical training in computers.

"No stipend was provided to the trainees as promised after the completion of their technical course following which a complaint was lodged. Upon probing, we found that the Jaipur-based couple has been running 48 centres in different cities of Gujarat with the same modus operandi," said A R Zankart, Deputy Superintendent of Police, Palanpur division.

"The institute under scanner - Business Counselling of India (BCI) - provides sewing, internet and beautician courses. Around 10,000 trainees from across Gujarat are enrolled in these centres where they are given training and made to work for different CSR projects for private companies. At the end of the tenure, they were promised a stipend of Rs 14,000 each. The trainees are asked to submit Rs 3,500 as training fees and Rs 4,000 as registration fees at the beginning," Zankart added.

The accused have been booked under IPC 420, 406, 465, 467, 468 and 471 for fraud, breach of trust, forgery, forgery of security, forgery for cheating and using forged documents as genuine.

"We are getting in touch with other people who are enrolled here. Arrests will be made soon," said Zankart.

22-year-old woman's body found hanging from a pole

Vadodara: The body of a 22-year-old woman was found hanging from an electric pole in Vadodara Sunday morning. The body was first spotted by a passer-by who then informed the police. A case of accidental death has been registered at the local police station. As per police, the deceased used to work as a labourer.

"As per preliminary reports, there are no signs of sexual assault. The cause of death was due to hanging which led to asphyxiation. However, we are not ruling out the possibility of murder. We have checked her call details and are also looking into the possibility of a failed love affair. We have not found any suicide note. We have sent a team to her village to probe the case. We are also reaching out to her friends for leads," said Deputy Commissioner of Police, Crime Branch, Jaydeepsinh Jadeja. ENS

Farmer sustains head injuries after being attacked by leopard

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
RAJKOT, SEPTEMBER 1

AN ELDERLY farmer was injured after being attacked by a leopard on Sunday, while he was asleep on his farm in Nesda village of Una taluka of Gir Somnath district. Forest officials said the area falls in Gir (east) forest division and that efforts to cage the carnivore were on.

"The person was injured by the leopard on his agricultural farmland at 4 am. He sustained minor injuries on his head," Dushyant Vasavadas, Chief Conservator of Forests, Junagadh Wildlife Circle, said.

The victim was identified as Hamir Chauhan (65). Forest officials said that the farmer was asleep in the 'osari', the living space in a traditional Gujarati rural home. "The leopard pounced on the farmer and inflicted nail injuries on the elderly man's head. However, the farmer raised an alarm and the animal escaped. He was rushed to a government hospital in Una town," said J G Pandya, Range Forest Officer (RFO) of Jasadhar, Gir (east) forest division.

Pandya further said that Chauhan was discharged from the hospital later in the day, after doctors took four stitches to sew together gashes left by the leopard's paw. "The injuries were not very serious and therefore, the farmer has been discharged from the hospital. We have placed two trap cages near the spot where the incident took place, to rescue the leopard which attacked the farmer," said the RFO.

Gir forest and other protected areas — spread across Junagadh, Gir Somnath, Amreli and Bhavnagar districts of Saurashtra region in Gujarat — are the only natural habitat of Asiatic lions in the world. The highly protected forest is also home to one of the densest populations of leopards in the state, and cases of the big cats attacking humans on the periphery of the forest are recorded occasionally.

Leopard attacks 65-yr-old villager; another cub enters forest official's house

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
AHMEDABAD, SEPTEMBER 1

TWO SEPARATE incidents of man-animal conflict with leopards occurred in Dang district on Saturday. In one, the big cat attacked a man in a village after he was rescued from a well and in the other, a cub entered the house of a forest official.

In the first incident, a four-year-old leopard fell into an algae-covered well in Wawanda village, under Ahwa Taluka of Dang on Friday night. On Saturday morning, a team of forest officials reached the spot and rescued the leopard. However, after his rescue, the leopard attacked a 65-year-old villager, Govind Jadav, and left him injured.

"The leopard ventured into the village during a hunt and accidentally fell into the well, since it was covered with algae. We rescued the animal on Saturday morning, using a rope to tie its body. After stepping out of the well, it injured a bystander, after which the animal was subdued and left in the sanctuary," said an official of the Dang Forest Department.

On the same day, another leopard cub entered the quarters of Dinesh Rabari, Assistant Conservator of Forest, Waghai, Dang.

"Around 8 am, an eight-month-old leopard cub had mistakenly ventured into the official quarters, which is situated adjacent to a road in the jungle area of Waghai. After locking the house, a team caught the cub and left it into the wild," said Rabari.

According to the last census of 2013-14, Dang has over 25 leopards spread in its two divisions - North and South.

4 arrested for selling Ganesha idols made of plaster of paris

RAJKOT, SEPTEMBER 1

THE RAJKOT city police Sunday arrested four men from Rasulpura area for allegedly selling Ganesha idols made of plaster of paris (PoP). The police action comes on the eve of Ganesh Chaturthi which will mark the beginning of the 10-day long festivities.

A team of Rajkot Taluka police spotted the four men near Sundaram School in Shaktinagar area of Rasulpura locality on Gondal Road on Sunday. Police booked each of them separately under IPS Section 188 (disobedience to order duly promulgated by a public servant) and the Gujarat Police Act for violating a notification issued on Friday by Rajkot city police commissioner Manoj Agrawal. "They were selling Ganesh idols made of PoP and thus violated the notification of the police commissioner which had prohibited use of the material," Rajkot Taluka police inspector V S Vanjara said.

The four have been identified as Manaram Charan (42) and his younger brother Babu (32), Ramesh Marwadi (34) and Anil Bhati (20). Police said that the four are residents of Shaktinagar in Rasulpura.

In his notification issued on Friday, Agrawal, referring to guidelines of the Gujarat Police Control Board and a letter sent by the Chief Fire Officer of Rajkot city, directed that Ganesh idols be made only from soft clay and prohibited use of PoP, fibre, etc.
