Our 'befitting response' to attacks is now part of popular culture: PM

Modi connects with BJP workers via 'the world's largest video conference'

OUR BUREAU

New Delhi, February 28

In the backdrop of escalating tension with Pakistan, Prime Minister Narendra Modi on Thursday said how India gives "befitting response" to attacks is now part of the popular culture.

The PM also stressed on the need to ensure that nothing is done to dent the morale of the security forces.

The Prime Minister was addressing BJP workers in 15,000 locations across the country, which was termed by the ruling party as the "world's largest video conference".

"Pehle filme banti thi ki bharat me kaise attack hue. Ab filme banti hain ki bharat me kaise un attacks ka muh tod jawab diya (Earlier, they made films on how India was attacked. Now, they make films on how India gives a befitting response to these attacks," said Modi.

"National sentiment is on a different scale now. Indian soldiers are showing their valour not just at the border but also across the border. The whole country is standing together behind the soldiers.

"The world is watching our collective will. We have full faith in the capability of our Armed Forces. That is why it is essential that anything that poses a danger to the morale of the forces should not be done. Our enemies should not be allowed a chance to point finger at us," said the PM.

On development

Modi also said India will fight, live, work and win as one and nobody can create hurdles in its march towards development.

"The enemy is trying to destabilise us, carry out terror strikes... they want to stop our growth," he said.

Modi said in his address that the 2014 election was a mandate for fulfilling people's necessities, and the 2019 polls will be about fulfilling people's aspirations.

Indians have to be hard-working in all spheres and should be grateful to all those who are protecting the country, the PM said.

Some people, for their selfish interests, dislike a strong government, he said. BJP workers need to tell people the benefits of a strong government, he added.

On mahagathbandhan

Dismissing the 'mahagathbandhan' of opposition parties as 'mahamilavar', the Prime Minister said the Grand Alliance will send the country to the intensive care unit (ICU).

Modi said, a loss for the party, like in 2004, will jeopardise development works and the ease of corruption will replace the ease of doing business.

'Modi betraying nation by addressing BJP cadre now'

OUR BUREAU

New Delhi, February 28

A day after the Opposition parties decided to "expose" the BJP's attempts to politicise anti-terrorist operations of the defence forces, leaders from various parties attacked Prime Minister Narendra Modi for his "mega video conference" with over one crore booth-level BJP workers.

The Opposition had earlier urged the PM to postpone it.

"At this moment, we as a nation, need to spend all our energy and time to get the IAF pilot (Abhinandan) back safely and to sternly deal with Pakistan," tweeted Delhi Chief Minister Arvind Kejriwal.

SP-BSP hit out at BJP

BSP supremo Mayawati said the PM betrayed the sentiments of the country.

"At a time when India is facing the hostility of war and the country needs firm leadership, Modi, instead of concentrating on matters of national security, is trying to serve political interest by addressing his BJP workers. This is ridiculous and a betrayal of national sentiments," she said.

"Indian forces foiled Pakistani attack yesterday. It is a matter of big relief. But an IAF pilot under Pak custody is a matter of great concern. India should ensure his safe return," she added.

Reining the motormouthis

Former Uttar Pradesh chief minister Akhilesh Yadav said even the BJP supporters are ashamed of Modi's actions.

BSP chief Mayawati

"The situation could be very bad but this suited-booted BJP will continue with its festivities... Condemnable," he said.

The Congress too condemned Modi's actions and said the conduct of the BJP is a matter of grave anguish. "Ever since the pre-emptive non-military strikes were carried by the government, the Congress postponed its Working Committee meeting and various other political programmes associated with it," said party spokesperson Manish Tewari.

"When the nation is looking towards its leadership, the Prime Minister chooses to address the booth workers of the BJP rather than addressing the nation," Tewari added.

The Congress also condemned the political statements of BJP President Amit Shah, Home Minister Rajnath Singh and senior leader BS Yeddyurappa. "They play into the hands of Pakistani propaganda. We would like to tell the BJP that they need to rein in their motormouthis," Tewari said

Yeddyurappa's comment on air strikes leaves BJP red-faced

OUR BUREAU

Bengaluru, February 28

BJP Karnataka president and former chief minister BS Yeddyurappa has embarrassed the party by stating that Wednesday's air strike would guarantee his (BJP) party 22 seats from Karnataka.

He faced severe backlash for this statement when the party is alleging the opposition parties of politicising the air strikes and has launched an attack on Prime Minister Narendra Modi over the Pulwama attack.

Karnataka Chief Minister HD Kumaraswamy said: "The entire nation is united in supporting the central govt & our armed forces to fight terrorism, while #Bjp leader @BSYBJP is busy calculating how many extra LS seats the terror attack & Pak war can bring to his party. It's shameful to exploit our jawans' sacrifice for electoral gains."

On realising his folly, Yeddyurappa tweeted: "I would like to clarify that my yesterday's statement has been completely misinterpreted. I have the highest regard for our armed forces. I salute the bravery of our men in fighting for the country's safety."

He further said "My statement is being reported out of context. I said that 'situation is favourable for the BJP', which I am saying for the last couple of months."

Siddaramaiah pitches in Former Karnataka chief minister Siddaramaiah too joined the bandwagon to condemn Yeddyurappa and said: "Shocking & disgusting to understand #BJPsPlot4Vote. It is unfortunate that @BJP4India is calculating electoral gains even before the dust has settled. No patriot shall derive such sadistic gains over soldiers' death, only an anti-nationalist can. What will the RSS say about this?"

Akali Dal, BJP join hands for LS polls

PRESS TRUST OF INDIA

New Delhi, February 28

BJP President Amit Shah on Thursday announced that his party and its old ally, the Akali Dal, will fight the Lok Sabha poll together and contest on the same number of seats in Punjab as in the 2014 general elections.

The SAD will fight on 10 and the BJP on three seats, he said.

Seat-sharing

"The SAD-BJP alliance with fight the 2019 Lok Sabha elections together. Their seats will remain the same as they were in 2014. SAD will contest on 10 seats and the BJP on three," Shah tweeted.

He made the announcement after a meeting with Shiromani Akali Dal President Sukhbir Singh Badal.

Delhi court to hear JNU sedition case

PRESS TRUST OF INDIA

New Delhi, February 28

A Delhi court on Thursday said it will go ahead with the hearing of the 2016 sedition case against former JNU Students Union president Kanhaiya Kumar and others even if the Delhi government doesn't give its sanction to prosecute them.

The investigating officer told Chief Metropolitan Magistrate Deepak Sherawat that the State government has not yet granted the required sanctions to the Delhi Police and has not replied either.

Voters can use any of the 12 approved IDs: EC

OUR BUREAU

New Delhi, February 28

Voters can now use any of the 12 approved ID cards for casting their votes, the Election Commission said on Thursday.

Till now, a photo voter slip was the only identification document that was allowed for casting one's vote.

In a statement, the Commission said this step is being taken to ensure that no voter is left behind. On earlier occasions, the Commission had allowed photo voter slips as identification document. However, there were representations against their use as a standalone identification on grounds of misuse as these are printed after the electoral rolls are finalised and distributed close to the day of the polls.

"To ensure that no voter is left behind, henceforth, the EC has directed that anybody with the photo voter slip shall bring any of twelve approved ID cards to the polling station for his/her identification," the Commission said in a statement.

The approved ID cards include passport, driving licence, service identity card with photograph issued to the employees of central or State governments, public sector undertakings and public limited companies, MNREGA job cards, pension documents with photograph and Aadhar card among others.

The statement adds that minor discrepancies in the entries should be ignored, provided the identity of an elector can be established by the Electronic Privacy Information Centre (EPIC). "If an elector produces an EPIC, which has been issued by the Electoral Registration Officer of another Assembly constituency, such card shall be accepted for identification, provided the name of that elector finds place in the electoral roll pertaining to the polling station where the elector has turned up for voting," the statement says.

It is estimated that over 80 crore electors will be eligible to vote for the forthcoming Lok Sabha elections.

If elections to some State Assemblies are held along with the Lok Sabha elections, then the number of eligible electors will increase manifold.

Dhinakaran's challenge over 'two leaves' dismissed

PRESS TRUST OF INDIA

New Delhi, February 28

The Delhi High Court on Thursday dismissed TTV Dhinakaran and VK Sasikala's plea challenging the Election Commission's order granting the AIADMK name and two leaves symbol to the faction led by Tamil Nadu Chief Minister EK Palaniswami.

A Bench of Justices GS Sistani and Sangita Dhingra Sehgal upheld the EC's decision of November 23, 2017, saying none of the grounds of challenge stated by Dhinakaran and Sasikala were sufficient to set aside the poll panel's order.

The court said there was no infirmity in the poll panel's decision to allot the AIADMK name and two leaves symbol to the faction headed by Palaniswami and his Deputy O Panneerselvam.

Court rejects Jairam Ramesh's plea on PMLA amendments

PRESS TRUST OF INDIA

New Delhi, February 28

The Delhi High Court on Thursday dismissed a plea by Congress MP Jairam Ramesh challenging amendments made to the money laundering law since 2015, saying he has not been able to justify the delay in filing the petition.

The Congress leader had contended that amendments to the Prevention of Money Laundering Act (PMLA) were made in violation of the Constitution as they were enacted as Money Bills and he had come to know about it recently.

A Bench of Chief Justice Rajendra Menon and Justice VK Rao refused to accept the contention, saying that merely because he came to know recently about the manner in which the amendments were made "will not justify the delay" in approaching the court.

National Herald case: Court rebuffs AJL's plea against eviction

PRESS TRUST OF INDIA

New Delhi, February 28

The Delhi High Court on Thursday dismissed National Herald publisher AJL's plea challenging a single-judge order to vacate its premises at ITO here.

A Bench of Chief Justice Rajendra Menon and Justice VK Rao rejected the appeal of Associated Journals Ltd (AJL), in which, it had challenged the Centre's order asking it to vacate the ITO premises.

"We have dismissed the appeal," the Bench said. It also rejected the oral request of AJL's counsel that they be granted two week's time to vacate the premises.

AJL had appealed against the single judge's December 21, 2018, order that directed it to vacate the premises at ITO within two weeks, after which, eviction proceedings under the Public Premises (Eviction of Unauthorised Occupants) Act, 1971, would be initiated.

The single judge had also said, by transfer of AJL's 99 per cent shares to Young India (YI), the beneficial interest of AJL's property worth ₹413.40 crore stands "clandestinely" transferred to YI.

In its order, the single judge had said AJL has been "hijacked" by YI, in which the Gandhis are shareholders. The December order had come on AJL's plea challenging the Centre's order to vacate the building.
