STAKEHOLDER VALUE

DEAR
SHAREHOLDERS,

I take immense pleasure in presenting the Company's Annual Report 2023-24. Despite the challenges during this period, our unwavering commitment to business expansion has yielded remarkably positive results, instilling optimism for the future.

We closed the year with an uptick across all parameters. Revenue from Operations increased by 7.322%. This number could have been considerably better had it not been for the Government regulation for payment to MSMEs, which decelerated the progress of projects in which our products are used. EBITDA for the year reduced by 1.33% over the previous year. Our Net Profit for the year stood at ₹5.83 crore. These numbers are a testament to our commitment to create value for our shareholders. Looking beyond the numbers, we have taken significant steps towards becoming growth-oriented. This approach, coupled with our strong organisational capabilities, has allowed us to make substantial progress in strengthening our core business and expanding the total addressable market.

Expanding our opportunity horizon

Product innovation is key to success. To expand our offerings, we are currently pursuing the production of large-sized valves strategically aiming to meet the diverse needs of the entire valve industry.

In keeping with this philosophy, we have created a range of products that address the plumbing, HVAC and firefighting market. These are high-value markets with relatively lesser competition owing to the complexity. To widen the awareness of our products, we have expanded our sales team and increased participation in related exhibitions. This will be an ongoing effort in the current year, too.

Additionally, we will strengthen our position in the oil and gas sector, for which we are focused on securing an API certification. We remain hopeful of securing this critical watermark in the current year, opening a new chapter in our growth story. It will allow us entry into the large domestic market and help us strengthen our footprint in the Middle East and North American regions.

We plan to start with the smaller sizes of valves, which will be progressively extended to much larger sizes over the medium term.

Towards a promising future

We will focus on growing our presence in the domestic and international markets.

In India, we aim to enhance our dealer base to 1,000 from 750 in about 3-4 years from now. We will focus on growing our export business, contributing a meager 3% to about 25% in coming years, strengthening our brand in the overseas market.

To increase our international business, we are actively pursuing opportunities in the North American market through strategic partnerships and securing approvals from key user sectors.

We are also working on increasing our presence in the United Arab Emirates, Saudi Arabia, Tanzania, Kenya and Russia.

As our strategies gain roots, our growth momentum will only accelerate, allowing us to generate more returns from our investments. We will prudently deploy these returns between future-focused investments and reward shareholders for their trust in the management.

Signing off

My sincere gratitude towards our employees, who are our most precious assets, in addition to our customers, for their undeterred trust in our brand, and all our stakeholders for their continued support and faith.

This synergy navigates us ahead, motivates us to exceed stakeholder expectations, and remain value driven.

I am certain that we will script an exciting growth journey ahead. Looking forward to our prosperous future.

Thank you.
Warm regards,

A SUNLIT FUTURE

A resilient economy

India's economic outlook remains positive, with the Reserve Bank of India (RBI) anticipating a 7% growth rate in the financial year 2024-25. This projection is backed by the ongoing solidification of macroeconomic fundamentals, the resilience demonstrated by the financial and corporate sectors, and the strength of India's external position. Over the medium term, the World Bank expects India's fiscal deficit and government debt to decline, supported by robust economic growth and ongoing government consolidation efforts.

Sectoral Opportunities

CCUS, Green Hydrogen and LNG

The future holds immense opportunities for the valve industry in areas like liquefied natural gas (LNG), carbon capture utilisation and storage (CCUS) and the burgeoning green hydrogen market.

- India's oil and gas companies widely use CCUS to capture and manage CO₂ from major sources. As more companies implement this technology to reduce carbon emissions, the need for high-quality valves to control CO₂ flow rises, boosting the valve industry
- Green hydrogen presents a domestic opportunity for India by reducing the need for costly energy imports, which exceed $230 billion annually. With a projected production capacity of 5 million metric tons per year, green hydrogen will lessen dependence on fossil fuels
- As India's domestic natural gas production rises, its reliance on imported LNG is set to decrease from 53% in 2020-21 to around 45% by 2025-26. This increase in production will require more infrastructure, driving growth in the valve industry

Oil and Gas

Investment opportunities in India's oil and gas sector, particularly in Exploration and Production (E&P) activities, are projected to reach $100 billion by 2030. Only about 10% of India's 3.36-million-square-kilometer sedimentary basin is explored, but the government aims to expand this to 16% by the end of 2024.

Petrochemicals

India is advancing rapidly in the chemicals and petrochemicals sector, with investments projected to reach ₹8 trillion (approximately US$107.38 billion) by 2025. Also the "Europe+1" strategy is gaining attention due to the European Union's substantial role in chemical production and consumption. As the EU implements strict climate regulations, there is an increasing tendency to relocate some chemical manufacturing to India, where production costs are expected to be lower.

Real Estate

The current market size of Indian real estate is ₹24 lakh crore (around US$ 300 billion), split between residential and commercial segments in the ratio of 80% and 20%, respectively. According to CREDAI, Indian real estate will significantly impact the Indian economy in the coming years, with the sector projected to reach US$ 1.3 trillion (13.8% of projected GDP) by FY 2034. It has also projected that there will be 7 crore units of additional housing demand by 2030.

ECONOMY OVERVIEW

Global Economy

The global economy is in a phase of stabilization after enduring several years of negative shocks. This year, global growth is projected to remain steady at 2.6%, despite ongoing geopolitical tensions and high interest rates. The growth rate is expected to edge up slightly to 2.7% in 2025-26, supported by modest expansions in trade and investment. Global inflation is anticipated to moderate at a slower pace than previously assumed, averaging 3.5% this year. Central banks across both advanced and emerging market economies are expected to maintain cautious monetary policies, with higher interest rates persisting longer than before the pandemic. While there is some improvement, the economic outlook remains subdued, with growth over the forecast horizon expected to be nearly

In emerging market and developing economies (EMDEs), growth is projected to moderate from 4.2% in 2023 to 4% in 2024. Many vulnerable economies, especially those affected by conflict, are anticipated to remain poorer than they were on the eve of the pandemic. The risks to the global economy have become more balanced but remain tilted to the downside. Escalating geopolitical tensions could result in volatile commodity prices, while persistent inflation may lead to sustained high interest rates. Additionally, elevated trade policy uncertainty and potential further trade fragmentation pose risks to global trade networks. Other concerns include weaker-than-expected activity in key economies and the impacts of climate-related disasters.

Despite these challenges, there are signs of improvement. Trade growth, which stalled last year, is showing signs of recovery, particularly in goods trade. Commodity prices have decreased from their 2022 peaks, and supply-chain pressures have eased, contributing to a moderation in global inflation. However, the pace of disinflation has slowed, especially concerning core prices. EMDE financial conditions have become less restrictive, thanks in part to a robust risk appetite, although around 40% of these economies still face vulnerability to debt-related stress.

Global trade in goods and services was nearly flat in 2023, marking the weakest performance outside of global recessions in the past fifty years. Goods trade volumes contracted by 1.9% for the year, with regional variations—declines in advanced economies, particularly Europe, contrasted with stagnation in EMDEs. Services trade, however, grew by about 9% in 2023, driven largely by a recovery in tourism. Despite this recovery, the pace of expansion in tourism was significantly slower than in 2022, aligning more with pre-pandemic levels.

Looking ahead, global trade growth is projected to improve to 2.5% this year and further to 3.4% in 2025, though it will still be below the average rates of the two decades preceding the pandemic. Trade responsiveness to global output is likely to remain lower than before the pandemic due to muted investment growth and an increase in trade restrictions. The trade outlook is subject to various risks, including weaker-than-anticipated global demand, escalating geopolitical tensions, and potential further disruptions in maritime transport. Additionally, with numerous elections scheduled globally this year, heightened trade policy uncertainty and the potential for more inward-looking policies could impact trade prospects and overall economic activity.

Indian Economy

India's economy demonstrated a strong performance in the financial year 2023-24, with Gross Domestic Product (GDP) growing by 8.2%, up from 7% in the previous year. This robust growth is expected to moderate slightly in 2024-25, with the projection of a real GDP growth rate of 6.5%-7%. The anticipated growth will be bolstered by robust domestic investment demand, improved agricultural output, and increased exports of goods and services. However, there are also potential challenges that could impact economic growth, including geopolitical risks that may lead to supply chain disruptions, higher commodity prices, increased protectionism, and resurging inflationary pressures. Additionally, concerns over private capital formation due to fears of cheaper imports and the performance of the southwest monsoon could affect growth prospects.

Retail inflation in 2023-24 was recorded at 5.4%, the lowest level since the Covid-19 pandemic. However, food inflation rose from 6.6% in 2022-23 to 7.5% in 2023-24, driven by factors such as the Russia-Ukraine war and adverse domestic weather conditions. Core inflation, which excludes food and energy prices, moderated during the same period, influenced by lower inflation in services like housing rentals. The Reserve Bank of India forecasts retail inflation to be around 4.5% in 2024-25. While short-term inflationary trends appear manageable, maintaining long-term price stability may require additional measures, such as expanding pulse cultivation, developing modern storage facilities for vegetables, and closely monitoring price dynamics from farm to consumer.

The industrial sector experienced notable growth, expanding by 9.5% in 2023-24. The Gross Value Added (GVA) of this sector, at constant prices, is now 25% higher than pre-Covid levels in 2019-20. This growth was supported by increased credit availability, a focus on capital formation, and a favourable policy environment. The sectoral composition has evolved, with automobiles, chemicals, and pharmaceuticals gaining prominence. Electronics manufacturing, in particular, has seen significant growth since 2014, with its contribution to India's GDP reaching 4% in 2021-22. The workforce involved in mobile phone production more than tripled from 2016-17 to 2021-22. Despite these advancements, India remains reliant on imports for crucial sectors such as coal, capital goods, and chemicals. To address this dependency and enhance competitiveness, there is a need for increased research and development and improved workforce skills, requiring closer collaboration between industry and academia.

INDEPENDENT AUDITORS' REPORT

To the Members of Atam Valves Limited

Report on the Audit of the Financial Statements

Opinion

We have audited the accompanying financial statements of Atam Valves Limited ('the Company'), which comprise the Balance Sheet as at March 31, 2024, the Statement of Profit and Loss (including Other Comprehensive Income), the Statement of Changes in Equity, the Statement of Cash flows for the year then ended and notes to the financial statements, including a summary of the significant accounting policies and other explanatory information (hereinafter referred to as "the financial Statements").

In our opinion and to the best of our information and according to the explanations given to us, the financial statements give the information required by the Companies Act, 2013 ("the Act") in the manner so required and give a true and fair view in conformity with the Indian Accounting Standards prescribed under section 133 of the Act read with the Companies (Indian Accounting Standards) Rules, 2015, as amended ("Ind AS") and other accounting principles generally accepted in India, of the state of affairs of the Company as at March 31, 2024, and the Profit and total comprehensive income, changes in equity and its cash flows for the year ended on that date.

Basis for Opinion

We conducted our audit of the financial statements in accordance with the Standards on Auditing (SAs) specified under section 143(10) of the Act. Our responsibilities under those Standards are further described in the Auditor's Responsibilities for the Audit of the Financial Statements section of our report. We are independent of the Company in accordance with the Code of Ethics issued by the Institute of Chartered Accountants of India together with the ethical requirements that are relevant to our audit of the Financial statements under the provisions of the Act and the Rules made thereunder, and we have fulfilled our other ethical responsibilities in accordance with these requirements and the Code of Ethics. We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our audit opinion on the financial statements.

Key Audit Matters

Key Audit Matters are those matters that in our professional judgment were of most significance in our audit of the Financial Statements for the year ended March 31, 2024. We have determined that there are no key audit matters to communicate in our report.

Information Other than the Financial Statements and Auditor's Report Thereon

The Company's Board of Directors is responsible for the other information. The other information comprises the information included in Director's Report including annexures to the Director's Report, but does not include the financial statements and our auditor's report thereon. The Director's report is expected to be made available to us after the date of this auditor's report.

Our opinion on the financial statements does not cover the other information and we will not express any form of assurance conclusion thereon.

In connection with our audit of the financial statements, our responsibility is to read the other information identified above when it becomes available and, in doing so, consider whether the other information is materially inconsistent with the financial statements or our knowledge obtained in the audit, or otherwise appears to be materially misstated.

When we read the Director's report, if we conclude that there is a material misstatement therein, we are required to communicate the matter to those charged with governance.

Responsibilities of Management and Those Charged with Governance for the Financial Statements

The Company's Board of Directors is responsible for the matters stated in Section 134(5) of the Act with respect to the preparation of the financial statements that give a true and fair view of the financial position, financial performance, total comprehensive income, changes in equity and cash flows of the Company in accordance with the accounting principles generally accepted in India, including the Indian Accounting Standards (Ind AS) specified under section 133 of the Act. This responsibility also includes maintenance of adequate accounting records in accordance with the provisions of the Act for safeguarding the assets of the Company and for preventing and detecting frauds and other irregularities; selection and application of appropriate accounting policies; making judgments and estimates that are reasonable and prudent; and the design, implementation and maintenance of adequate internal financial controls, that were operating effectively for ensuring the accuracy and completeness of the accounting records, relevant to the preparation and presentation of the financial statements that give a true and fair view and are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

In preparing the financial statements, the management is responsible for assessing the Company's ability to continue as a going concern, disclosing, as applicable, matters related to going concern and using the going concern basis of accounting unless the management either intends to liquidate the Company or to cease operations, or has no realistic alternative but to do so.

The Board of Directors are also responsible for overseeing the Company's financial reporting process.

Auditor's Responsibilities for the Audit of the Financial Statements

Our objectives are to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements as a whole are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error, and to issue an auditor's report that includes our opinion. Reasonable assurance is a high level of assurance, but is not a guarantee that an audit conducted in accordance with SAs will always detect a material misstatement when it exists. Misstatements can arise from fraud or error and are considered material if, individually or in the aggregate, they could reasonably be expected to influence the economic decisions of users taken on the basis of these financial statements.

As part of an audit in accordance with SAs, we exercise professional judgment and maintain professional scepticism throughout the audit. We also:

- Identify and assess the risks of material misstatement of the financial statements, whether due to fraud or error, design and perform audit procedures responsive to those risks, and obtain audit evidence that is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our opinion. The risk of not detecting a material misstatement resulting from fraud is higher than for one resulting from error, as fraud may involve collusion, forgery, intentional omissions, misrepresentations, or the override of internal control.
- Obtain an understanding of internal financial controls relevant to the audit in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances. Under section 143(3)(i) of the Act, we are also responsible for expressing our opinion on whether the Company has adequate internal financial controls system in place and the operating effectiveness of such controls.
- Evaluate the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of accounting estimates and related disclosures made by management.
- Conclude on the appropriateness of management's use of the going concern basis of accounting and, based on the audit evidence obtained, whether a material uncertainty exists related to events or conditions that may cast significant doubt on the Company's ability to continue as a going concern. If we conclude that a material uncertainty exists, we are required to draw attention in our auditor's report to the related disclosures in the financial statements or, if such disclosures are inadequate, to modify our opinion. Our conclusions are based on the audit evidence obtained up to the date of our auditor's report. However, future events or conditions may cause the Company to cease to continue as a going concern.

- Evaluate the overall presentation, structure and content of the financial statements, including the disclosures, and whether the financial statements represent the underlying transactions and events in a manner that achieves fair presentation.

We communicate with those charged with governance regarding, among other matters, the planned scope and timing of the audit and significant audit findings, including any significant deficiencies in internal control that we identify during our audit.

We also provide those charged with governance with a statement that we have complied with relevant ethical requirements regarding independence, and to communicate with them all relationships and other matters that may reasonably be thought to bear on our independence, and where applicable, related safeguards.

From the matters communicated with those charged with governance, we determine those matters that were of most significance in the audit of the financial statements of the current period and are therefore the key audit matters. We describe these matters in our auditor's report unless law or regulation precludes public disclosure about the matter or when, in extremely rare circumstances, we determine that a matter should not be communicated in our report because the adverse consequences of doing so would reasonably be expected to outweigh the public interest benefits of such communication.

Annexure – “B” TO THE INDEPENDENT AUDITORS REPORT

(Referred to in paragraph 2(f) under ‘Report on Other Legal and Regulatory Requirements’ section of our report of even date)

Report on the Internal Financial Controls Over Financial Reporting under Clause (i) of Sub-section 3 of Section 143 of the Companies Act, 2013 (“the Act”)

We have audited the internal financial control over financial reporting of Atam Valves Limited (“the Company”) as of March 31, 2024 in conjunction with our audit of financial statements of company for the year ended on that date.

Management’s Responsibility for Internal Financial Controls

The Company’s management is responsible for establishing and maintaining internal financial controls based on the internal control over financial reporting criteria established by the Company considering the essential components of internal control stated in the Guidance Note on Audit of Internal Financial Controls over Financial Reporting issued by the Institute of Chartered Accountants of India. These responsibilities include the design, implementation and maintenance of adequate internal financial controls that were operating effectively for ensuring the orderly and efficient conduct of its business, including adherence to the company’s policies, the safeguarding of its assets, the prevention and detection of frauds and errors, the accuracy and completeness of the accounting records, and the timely preparation of reliable financial information, as required under the Companies Act, 2013.

Auditors’ Responsibility

Our responsibility is to express an opinion on the company’s internal financial controls over financial reporting based on our audit. We conducted our audit in accordance with the Guidance Note on Audit of Internal Financial Controls over Financial Reporting (the “Guidance Note”) and the Standards on Auditing, prescribed under section 143(10) of the Companies Act, 2013, to the extent applicable to an audit of internal financial controls, both issued by the Institute of Chartered Accountants of India. Those Standards and the Guidance Note require that we comply with ethical requirements and plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether adequate internal financial controls over financial reporting were established and maintained and if such controls operated effectively in all material respects.

Our audit involves performing procedures to obtain audit evidence about the adequacy of the internal financial controls system over financial reporting and their operating effectiveness. Our audit of internal financial controls over financial reporting included obtaining an understanding of internal financial controls over financial reporting, assessing the risk that a material weakness exists, and testing and evaluating the design and operating effectiveness of internal control based on the assessed risk. The procedures selected depend on the auditor’s judgment, including the assessment of the risks of material misstatement of the financial statements, whether due to fraud or error.

We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our audit opinion on the Company’s internal financial controls system over financial reporting.

Meaning of Internal Financial Controls over Financial Reporting

A company’s internal financial control over financial reporting is a process designed to provide reasonable assurance regarding the reliability of financial reporting and the preparation of financial statements for external purposes in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles. A company’s internal financial control over financial reporting includes those policies and procedures that:

- (1) pertain to the maintenance of records that, in reasonable detail, accurately and fairly reflect the transactions and dispositions of the assets of the company.
- (2) provide reasonable assurance that transactions are recorded as necessary to permit preparation of financial statements in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles, and that receipts and expenditures of the company are being made only in accordance with authorizations of management and directors of the company; and
- (3) provide reasonable assurance regarding prevention or timely detection of unauthorized acquisition, use, or disposition of the company’s assets that could have a material effect on the financial statements.

Inherent Limitations of Internal Financial Controls over Financial Reporting

Because of the inherent limitations of internal financial controls over financial reporting, including the possibility of collusion or improper management override of controls, material misstatements due to error or fraud may occur and not be detected.

Also, projections of any evaluation of the internal financial controls over financial reporting to future periods are subject to the risk that the internal financial control over financial reporting may become inadequate because of changes in conditions, or that the degree of compliance with the policies or procedures may deteriorate.

In our opinion, the Company has, in all material respects, an adequate internal financial controls system over financial reporting and such internal financial controls over financial reporting were operating effectively as at March 31, 2024, based on the internal control over financial reporting criteria established by the Company considering the essential components of internal control stated in the Guidance Note on Audit of Internal Financial Controls Over Financial Reporting issued by the Institute of Chartered Accountants of India.

The Company is listed on BSE Limited (BSE) and National Stock Exchange of India Limited (NSE). Note 2 Statement of Compliance with Ind AS and Basis of preparation and measurement

I. Statement of Compliance

The financial statements have been prepared in accordance with Indian Accounting Standards (hereinafter referred to as “Ind AS”) notified under Section 133 of the Companies Act, 2013 (the Act) read with Rule 3 of the Companies (Indian Accounting Standards) Rules, 2015 as amended from time to time and other relevant provisions of the Act.

II. Basis of Preparation and Measurement

(i) The financial statements have been prepared on historical cost convention on accrual basis except for certain financial instruments (including derivative instruments) which are measured at fair value at the end of each reporting period as required under Ind AS.

Historical cost is generally based on the fair value of the consideration given in exchange for goods and services.

Fair value is the price that would be received to sell an asset or paid to transfer a liability in an orderly transaction between market participants at the measurement date, regardless of whether that price is directly observable or estimated using another valuation technique. In estimating the fair value of an asset or a liability, the Company takes into account the characteristics of the asset or liability if market participants would take those characteristics into account when pricing the asset or liability at the measurement date. Fair value for measurement and/ or disclosure purposes in the financial statements is determined on such a basis, except for measurements that have some similarities to fair value but are not fair value, such as net realisable value in Ind AS 2.

In addition, for financial reporting purposes, fair value measurements are categorised into Level 1, 2, or 3 based on the degree to which the inputs to the fair value measurements are observable and the significance of the inputs to the fair value measurement in its entirety, which are described as follows:

- Level 1 inputs are quoted prices (unadjusted) in active markets for identical assets or liabilities that the entity can access at the measurement date;
 - Level 2 inputs are inputs, other than quoted prices included within Level 1, that are observable for the asset or liability, either directly or indirectly; and
 - Level 3 inputs are unobservable inputs for the asset or liability.
- (ii) Accounting policies have been consistently applied except where a newly issued accounting standard is initially adopted or a revision to an existing accounting standard requires a change in the accounting policy hitherto in use.
- (iii) The functional and presentation currency of the Company is Indian rupees (₹) and all values are rounded to the nearest lakhs and two decimals thereof, unless otherwise stated.

Note 3 Material Accounting Policy Information, Significant Accounting Estimates, Judgements and Assumptions and Applicability of New and Revised Ind AS

I. Material Accounting Policy Information

A. Revenue Recognition

(i) Sale of goods

Revenue from sale of goods is recognised as and when the company satisfies performance obligation by transfer of control of goods.

Generally control is transferred upon shipment of goods to the customer or when the goods is made available to the customer, provided transfer of title to the customer occurs and the company has not retained any significant risk of ownership or future obligations with respect to the goods shipped.

Revenue is measured at the amount of consideration which the company expects to be entitled in exchange for transferring promised goods to a customer as specified in the contract, after deduction of any trade discounts, volume rebates and any taxes or duties collected on behalf of the Government such as goods and services tax, etc. Consideration is generally due upon satisfaction of performance obligation and receivable is recognized when it becomes unconditional and only passage of time is required before the payment is due. No element of financing is deemed present as the sales are made with the short term credit period generally consistent with market practices.

If the Company receives consideration before transfer of goods to the customer, such amount is presented as a contract liability. The company does not adjust such liability for the effects of significant financing component if it is expected that the promised goods will be transferred to the customer within a period of one year. Contract liabilities are recognised as revenue when the Company satisfies performance obligation as per the contract.

(ii) Interest Income

Interest Income from financial assets is recognized when it is probable that economic benefits will flow to the company and amount of income can be measured reliably. Interest income is accrued on time basis, by reference to principal outstanding and at effective interest rate applicable, which is the rate that exactly discounts estimated future cash receipts through the expected life of financial asset to that asset's net carrying amount on initial recognition.

(iii) Insurance and other claims

Insurance and other claims are recognized when no significant uncertainty exists with regard to the amount to be realized and the ultimate collection thereof.

(iv) Other Income

Other income is recognized when no significant uncertainty exists with regard to the amount to be realized and the ultimate collection thereof.

B. Employee Benefits

(i) Short term Employee Benefits:

Employee benefits payable wholly within twelve months of receiving employee services are classified as short-term employee benefits. The amount of short term employee benefits are recognized as an expense on an undiscounted basis in the statement of profit and loss of the year in which the related service is rendered.

(ii) Post-Employment benefit plans

(a) Defined Contribution Plan:

Provident fund is a defined contribution scheme. The Company has no obligation, other than the contribution payable to the provident fund. The Company recognizes contribution payable to the provident fund scheme as an expense, when an employee renders the related service.

(b) Defined Benefit Plan:

Gratuity

The Company provides for gratuity, a defined benefit retirement plan covering eligible employees of the Company. The Gratuity Plan provides a lump-sum payment to vested employees at retirement, death, incapacitation or termination of employment, of an amount based on the respective employee's salary and the tenure of employment with the Company.

Liability with regard to the defined benefit plan is determined by actuarial valuation, performed by an independent actuary, at each balance sheet date using the projected unit credit method.

The Company recognizes the obligation of the defined benefit plan in its balance sheet as a liability. Re-measurements comprising of actuarial gains and losses, and the return on plan assets (excluding amounts included in net interest on the net defined benefit liability) are recognised in Other Comprehensive Income which are not reclassified to profit or loss in subsequent periods. All other expenses related to defined benefit plan are recognised in employee benefits expense in the Statement of profit and loss.

C. Property, plant and equipment

Property, plant and equipment are stated at cost or deemed cost applied on transition to Ind AS, less accumulated depreciation and impairment loss, if any. The cost directly attributable to acquisition are capitalised until the property plant and equipment are ready for use as intended by the management.

The cost of an item of Property, plant and equipment comprises of: (i) Purchase price including import duties and non-refundable purchase taxes after deducting trade discounts and rebates. (ii) Any expenditure directly attributable for bringing an asset to the location and the working condition for its intended use and (iii) The initial estimate of the costs of dismantling and removing the item and restoring the site on which it is located, the obligation for which an entity incurs either when the item is acquired or as a consequence of having used the item during a particular period for purposes other than to produce inventories during that period.

Subsequent expenditures relating to property, plant and equipment is capitalized only when it is probable that future economic benefits associated with these will flow to the Company and the cost of the item can be measured reliably. Repairs and maintenance costs are recognized in net profit in the statement of profit and loss when incurred.

Property, Plant and Equipment which are significant to the total cost of that item of Property, Plant and Equipment and having different useful life are accounted separately.

Property, plant and equipment which are not ready for intended use at each balance sheet date are disclosed as "Capital work-in-progress" and advances paid towards the acquisition of Property, plant and equipment outstanding at each balance sheet date are classified as Capital advances under "Other non-current assets".

On transition to Ind AS, the Company has elected to continue with the carrying value of its property, plant and equipment recognised as at April 1, 2021 (transition date) measured as per the previous GAAP and use that carrying value as the deemed cost of the property, plant and equipment.

An item of property, plant and equipment is derecognised upon disposal or when no future economic benefits are expected to arise from the continued use of the asset. The cost/deemed cost and the related accumulated depreciation are eliminated from the financial statements upon disposal or retirement of the asset and any gain or loss arising thereon is determined as the difference between sale proceeds and the carrying amount of the asset and is recognised in the statement of profit and loss.

D. Intangible Assets

Intangible assets are stated at cost or deemed cost applied on transition to Ind AS, less accumulated amortization and impairment, if any. The cost of intangible asset comprises of its purchase price, net of recoverable taxes and any directly attributable cost of preparing the asset for its intended use.

Subsequent expenditure is capitalised only when it increases the future economic benefits embodied in the specific asset to which it relates. All other expenditure is recognised in statement of profit and loss as and when incurred.

On transition to Ind AS, the Company has elected to continue with the carrying value of its intangible assets recognised as at April 1, 2021 (transition date) measured as per the previous GAAP and use that carrying value as deemed cost of intangible assets.

An intangible asset is derecognised upon disposal or retirement of the asset. The cost/deemed cost and the related accumulated amortization are eliminated from the financial statements upon disposal or retirement of the asset and resultant gains or losses are recognized in the statement of Profit and Loss when the asset is derecognized.

E. Depreciation and amortization

Depreciation is provided on Property, plant and equipment on written down value method on the basis of useful lives of such assets specified in Schedule II to the Act.

Depreciation method, useful lives and residual values are reviewed periodically, including at each financial year end with the effect of any changes in estimate accounted for on a prospective basis.

Amortization

Intangible assets are amortized on straight line method over the estimated useful life. The amortization method, useful life and residual value are reviewed at each financial year end. The estimated useful life is based on number of factors including effect of obsolescence and other economic factors and is as under:

Assets description	Useful Life
Computer Software	5 Years

F. Inventories

Inventories are valued at cost or net realizable value, whichever is lower except production waste/scrap which is valued at net realizable value. The raw materials and other supplies held for use in the production are valued at net realisable value only if the finished products in which they are to be incorporated are expected to be sold below cost.

Net Realisable Value is the estimated selling price in ordinary course of business less estimated cost necessary to make the sales.

G. Borrowing Costs

Borrowing costs directly attributable to the acquisition or construction of qualifying assets i.e. the assets that necessarily takes a substantial period of time to get ready for its intended use are capitalized as part of the cost of the asset. All other borrowing costs are expensed in the period in which they occur. Borrowing costs consist of interest and other costs that the Company incurs in connection with the borrowing of funds.

H. Earnings per Share

Basic earnings per share are computed by dividing the profit for the period attributable to the equity shareholders of the company by the weighted average number of equity shares outstanding during the period.

For the purpose of calculating diluted earnings per share, the profit for the period attributable to the equity shareholders and the weighted average number of shares outstanding during the period is adjusted for the effects of all dilutive potential equity shares, if any.

I. Income Taxes

Income tax expense comprises current tax and deferred tax.

Current tax is the tax payable/receivable on the taxable profit/loss for the year using the tax rates and tax laws that have been enacted or substantively enacted by the end of the reporting period and any adjustment to taxes in respect of previous years. Interest expenses and penalties, if any, related to income tax are included in finance cost and other expenses respectively. Interest Income, if any, related to income tax is included in other income.

Current tax assets and current tax liabilities are offset when there is a legally enforceable right to set off the recognised amounts and there is an intention to settle the asset and the liability on a net basis.

Deferred tax is recognised in respect of temporary differences between the tax bases of assets and liabilities and their carrying amounts for financial reporting purpose at the reporting date using tax rates and tax laws that have been enacted or substantively enacted by the balance sheet date and are expected to apply to taxable income in the years in which those temporary differences are expected to be recovered or settled. The effect of changes in tax rates on deferred tax assets and liabilities is recognized as income or expense in the period that includes the enactment or the substantive enactment date.

A deferred tax asset is recognized to the extent, it is probable that future taxable profit will be available against where the deductible temporary differences and tax losses can be utilized. The carrying amount of deferred tax assets is reviewed at each reporting date and reduced to the extent that it is no longer probable that sufficient taxable profit will be available to allow all or part of the deferred tax asset to be utilized. Unrecognized deferred tax assets are re-assessed at each reporting date and are recognized to the extent that it has become probable that future taxable profits will allow the deferred tax asset to be recovered.

Deferred tax assets and deferred tax liabilities are offset when there is a legally enforceable right to set off current tax assets against current tax liabilities and the deferred tax assets and the deferred tax liabilities relate to income taxes levied by the same taxation authority.

Income tax expense is recognised in statement of Profit and Loss except to the extent that it relates to items recognised in other comprehensive income or directly in equity. In this case, the tax is also recognised in other comprehensive income or directly in equity, as the case may be.

J. Government Grants

Government grants are not recognized until there is reasonable assurance that all attached conditions will be complied with and the grant will be received.

When the grants relates to an expense item, it is recognised in the Statement of profit and loss by way of reduction from the related cost, which the grants are intended to compensate, except where the related expense is not directly identifiable. In such cases, the grant is presented in the 'Other Income'.

Government grants that becomes receivable as compensation for expenses or losses already incurred or for the purpose of giving financial support to the Company with no related costs is recognised in the Statement of profit or loss of the period in which it becomes receivable under 'Other operating income'/'Other income' based on the nature of grant.

Government grants relating to the purchase of property, plant and equipment are deducted from its gross value and are recognised in profit or loss on a systematic over the expected useful lives of the related assets by way of reduced depreciation.

K. Foreign Currency translations

Transactions in foreign currency are initially recorded in the functional currency i.e. Indian Rupees using the exchange rate prevailing at the date of transactions.

Monetary items denominated in foreign currency are reported using the exchange rate prevailing at the end of reporting period. The exchange difference arising on the settlement or reporting of monetary items at rates different from rates at which these were initially recorded / reported in previous financial statements, are recognised in the statement of profit and loss in the period in which it arise.

Non-monetary items denominated in foreign currency and measured at historical cost are recorded at the exchange rate prevalent at the date of transaction, Non-monetary items that are measured in term of historical cost in foreign currency are not reinstated.

L. Leases

Company as a lessee

The Company's lease asset classes primarily consist of leases for land and buildings. The Company assesses whether a contract contains a lease, at inception of a contract. A contract is, or contains, a lease if the contract conveys the right to control the use of an identified asset for a period of time in exchange for consideration. To assess whether a contract conveys the right to control the use of an identified asset, the Company assesses whether: (i) the contract involves the use of an identified asset (ii) the Company has substantially all of the economic benefits from use of the asset through the period of the lease and (iii) the Company has the right to direct the use of the asset.

At the date of commencement of the lease, the Company recognizes a right-of-use asset ("ROU") and a corresponding lease liability for all lease arrangements in which it is a lessee, except for leases with a term of twelve months or less (short-term leases) and leases for which underlying asset is of low value. For these short-term and leases for which underlying asset is of low value, the Company recognizes the lease payments as an operating expense on a straight-line basis over the term of the lease.

The right-of-use assets are initially recognized at cost, which comprises the initial amount of the lease liability adjusted for any lease payments made at or prior to the commencement date of the lease plus any initial direct costs less any lease incentives. They are subsequently measured at cost less accumulated depreciation and impairment losses.

Right-of-use assets are depreciated from the commencement date on a straight-line basis over the shorter of the lease term and useful life of the underlying asset. Right of use assets is evaluated for recoverability whenever events or changes in circumstances indicate that their carrying amounts may not be recoverable. For the purpose of impairment testing, the recoverable amount (i.e. the higher of the fair value less cost to sell and the value-in-use) is determined on an individual asset basis unless the asset does not generate cash flows that are largely independent of those from other assets. In such cases, the recoverable amount is determined for the Cash Generating Unit (CGU) to which the asset belongs.

The lease liability is initially measured at amortized cost at the present value of the future lease payments. The lease payments are discounted using the interest rate implicit in the lease or, if not readily determinable, using the lessee's incremental borrowing rate. Lease liabilities are remeasured with a corresponding adjustment to the related right of use asset if the Company changes its assessment if whether it will exercise an extension or a termination option.

Lease liabilities and Right of Use assets have been separately presented in the financial statements. Lease Payments and interest thereon have been classified as cash flows from financing activities in the Statement of Cash flows.

M. Financial instruments

A financial instrument is any contract that gives rise to a financial asset of one entity and a financial liability or equity instrument of another entity.

(i) Initial Recognition and measurement

The company recognises the financial assets and financial liabilities when it becomes party to the contractual provision of the instruments. All financial assets and liabilities are recognised at fair value on initial recognition except for trade receivables which are initially measured at transaction price. Transaction costs that are directly attributable to the acquisition of financial assets and or issue of financial liabilities that are not recognized at fair value through profit or loss, are added to or reduced from the fair value of the financial assets or financial liabilities, as appropriate. Transaction cost directly attributable to the acquisition of financial assets and financial liabilities recognized at fair value through Profit or Loss

are recognised immediately in the Statement of Profit and Loss.

Transaction cost directly attributable to the acquisition of financial assets or financial liabilities at fair value through profit and loss are recognised immediately in the statement of profit and loss.

(ii) Subsequent measurement

For the purposes of subsequent measurement, financial instruments are classified as follows:

Non-derivative financial instruments

(a) Financial assets carried at amortised cost

A financial asset is subsequently measured at amortised cost if it is held within a business model whose objective is to hold the asset in order to collect contractual cash flows and the contractual terms of the financial asset give rise on specified dates to cash flows that are solely payments of principal and interest on the principal amount outstanding.

Interest income for such instruments is recognised in profit or loss using the effective interest rate (EIR) method, which is the rate that exactly discounts estimated future cash receipts through the expected life of the financial asset to that asset's gross carrying amount.

The carrying amounts of financial assets that are subsequently measured at amortised cost are determined based on the effective interest method less any impairment losses.

(b) Financial assets at fair value through other comprehensive income

A financial asset is subsequently measured at fair value through other comprehensive income if it is held within a business model whose objective is achieved by both collecting contractual cash flows and selling financial assets and the contractual terms of the financial asset give rise on specified dates to cash flows that are solely payments of principal and interest on the principal amount outstanding.

Interest income for such instruments is recognised in profit or loss using the effective interest rate (EIR) method, which is the rate that exactly discounts estimated future cash receipts through the expected life of the financial asset to that asset's gross carrying amount.

Fair value movements are recognised in the other comprehensive income (OCI) until the financial asset is derecognised. On de-recognition, cumulative gain or loss previously recognised in OCI is reclassified from the equity to the profit or loss.

(c) Financial assets at fair value through profit or loss

A financial asset is subsequently measured at fair value through profit or loss unless it is measured at amortised cost or at fair value through other comprehensive income. Such financial assets are measured at fair value with all changes in fair value recognised in the statement of profit and loss.

Dividend and interest income from such instruments is recognized in the statement of profit and loss, when the right to receive the payment is established.

Fair value changes on such assets are recognised in the statement of profit and loss.

(d) Financial liabilities

Financial liabilities are classified as at fair value through profit or loss when the financial liability is either contingent consideration recognised by the Company as an acquirer in a business combination to which Ind AS 103 applies or is held for trading or it is designated as at FVTPL.

All other financial liabilities are subsequently measured at amortized cost using the effective interest method unless at initial recognition, they are classified as measured at fair value through profit and loss.

Financial liabilities carried at fair value through profit or loss, are measured at fair value with all changes in fair value recognised in the statement of profit and loss.

Interest expense for the financial liabilities subsequently measured at amortized cost is recognised in profit or loss using the effective interest rate (EIR) method.

(e) Equity Instruments

An equity instrument is any contract that evidences a residual interest in the assets of the Company after deducting all of its liabilities. Equity instruments are recorded at the proceeds received. Incremental costs directly attributable to the issuance of equity instruments and buy back of equity instruments are recognized as a deduction from equity, net of any tax effects.

(iii) De-recognition of financial instrument

- a) A financial asset (or, a part of a financial asset) is primarily derecognized when the contractual right to the cash flows from the financial asset expires, or the company transfers its right to receive cash flow from the financial assets and substantially all the risks and rewards of ownership of the asset to another party.

On de-recognition of a financial asset, the difference between the asset's carrying amount and the sum of the consideration received/receivable is recognised in the profit or loss.

- b) A financial liability (or a part of financial liability) is derecognized when obligation specified in the contract is discharged or cancelled or expires.

On de-recognition of a financial liability, the difference between the carrying amount of the financial liability de-recognised and the consideration paid/payable is recognised in profit or loss.

(iv) Offsetting financial instruments

Financial assets and financial liabilities are offset and the net amount is reported in the balance sheet, if there is a currently enforceable legal right to offset the recognised amounts and there is an intention to settle them on a net basis or to realise the assets and settle the liabilities simultaneously.

(v) Impairment of Financial Assets

Financial assets that are carried at amortised cost and fair value through other comprehensive income (FVOCI) are assessed for possible impairments basis expected credit losses taking into account the past history of recovery, risk of default of the counterparty, existing market conditions etc. The impairment methodology applied depends on whether there has been a significant increase in credit risk since initial recognition.

Expected Credit Losses are measured through a loss allowance at an amount equal to:

- The 12-months expected credit losses (expected credit losses that result from those default events on the financial instrument that are possible within 12 months after the reporting date); or
- Full lifetime expected credit losses (expected credit losses that result from all possible default events over the life of financial instruments).

For trade receivables or any contractual right to receive cash or another financial asset that result from transaction that are within the scope of Ind AS 115 and Ind AS 116, the Company measures the loss allowance at an amount equal to lifetime expected credit losses.

For other assets, the company uses 12 months ECL to provide for impairment loss where no significant increase in credit risk is. If there is significant increase in credit risk full lifetime ECL is used.

(vi) Write off

The gross carrying amount of a financial asset is written off when the Company has no reasonable expectations of recovering the financial asset in its entirety or a portion thereof.

N. Impairment of Non-financial assets

Property, plant and equipment, other intangible assets and other non-financial assets are tested for impairment whenever events or changes in circumstances indicate that their carrying amounts may not be recoverable. For the purpose of impairment testing, the recoverable amount (i.e. the higher of the fair value less cost to sell and the value-in-use) is determined on an individual asset basis unless the asset does not generate cash flows that are largely independent of those from other assets. In such cases, the recoverable amount is determined for the Cash Generating Unit (CGU) to which the asset belongs.

If such assets are considered to be impaired, the impairment to be recognized in the statement of profit and loss is measured by the amount by which the carrying value of the assets exceeds the estimated recoverable amount of the asset. The recoverable amount is the higher of an asset's fair value less costs of disposal and value in use.

The assets that suffered impairment are reviewed for possible reversal of the impairment at the end of each reporting period. When an impairment loss subsequently reverses, the carrying amount of the asset is increased to the revised estimate of its recoverable amount, however that the increased carrying amount does not exceed the carrying amount that would have been determined (net of any accumulated amortization or depreciation) had no impairment loss been recognised for the asset in prior years. The reversal of an impairment loss is recognised in the statement of profit and loss.

Impairment is reviewed periodically including at the end of each financial year.

O. Provisions, Contingent Liabilities and Contingent Assets

Provisions are recognized when the Company has a present obligation (legal or constructive) as a result of a past event, it is probable that an outflow of resources embodying economic benefits will be required to settle the obligation and a reliable estimate can be made of the amount of the obligation.

If the effect of the time value of money is material, provisions are discounted using a current pre-tax rate that reflects current market assessments of the time value of money and the risks specific to the liability. When discounting is used, the increase in the provision due to the passage of time is recognized as a finance cost.

A contingent liability is not recognised in the financial statements, however, is disclosed, unless the possibility of an outflow of resources embodying economic benefits is remote. If it becomes probable that an outflow of future economic benefits will be required for an item dealt with as a contingent liability, a provision is recognised in the financial statements of the period (except in the extremely rare circumstances where no reliable estimate can be made).

A contingent asset is not recognised in the financial statements, however, is disclosed, where an inflow of economic benefits is probable. When the realisation of income is virtually certain, then the asset is no longer a contingent asset, and is recognised as an asset.

Provisions, contingent liabilities and contingent assets are reviewed at each balance sheet date.

P. Dividends

Final dividends on equity shares are recorded as a liability on the date of approval by the shareholders and interim dividends are recorded as a liability on the date of declaration by the Board of Directors of the Company.

Q. Cash and cash equivalents

The Cash and cash equivalent in the balance sheet comprise cash at banks, cash on hand, demand deposits and short-term highly liquid investments that are readily convertible to known amounts of cash and which are subject to an insignificant risk of changes in value

R. Statement of Cash flows

The statement of cash flows is prepared in accordance with the Indian Accounting Standard (Ind AS) - 7 "Statement of Cash flows" using the indirect method for operating activities whereby profit for the period is adjusted for the effects of transaction of a non-cash nature, and item of income or expenses associated with investing or financing cash flows. The cash flows from operating, investing and financing activities of the company are segregated.

II. Current – Non-Current Classification

All assets and liabilities have been classified as current and non-current on the basis of the following criteria:

Assets

An asset is classified as current when it satisfies any of the following criteria:

- a) it is expected to be realised in, or is intended for sale or consumption in, the company's normal operating cycle;
- b) it is held primarily for the purpose of being traded;
- c) it is expected to be realised within twelve months after the reporting date; or
- d) it is cash or cash equivalent unless it is restricted from being exchanged or use to settle a liability for at least twelve months after the reporting date.

Current assets include the current portion of non-current financial assets.

All other assets are classified as non-current.

Liabilities

A liability is classified as current when it satisfies any of the following criteria:

- a) it is expected to be settled in the company's normal operating cycle;
- b) it is held primarily for the purpose of being traded;
- c) it is due to be settled within twelve months after the reporting date; or
- d) there is no unconditional right to defer settlement of the liability for at least twelve months after the reporting date. Terms of a liability that could, at the option of the counterpart, result in its settlement by the issue of equity instruments do not affect its classification.

Current liabilities include current portion of non-current financial liabilities.

All other liabilities are classified as non-current.

Operating cycle

Operating cycle is the time between the acquisition of assets for processing/servicing and their realisation in

cash or cash equivalents. Based on the nature of products and the time between acquisition of assets for processing and their realisation in cash and cash equivalents, the Company has ascertained its operating cycle as twelve months for the purpose of current or non-current classification of assets and liabilities.

III. Significant Accounting Estimates, Judgements and Assumptions

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with Indian Accounting Standards (Ind AS) require management to make judgements, estimates and assumptions in the application of accounting policies that affect the reported amount of income, expenses, assets and liabilities and disclosure of contingent liabilities.

The estimates and associated assumptions are based on historical experience and other factors that are considered to be relevant. Actual results may differ from these estimates. The estimates and underlying assumptions are reviewed on an ongoing basis and the effect of revision to accounting estimates is recognized prospectively from the period in which the estimate is revised.

Critical accounting estimates, Judgements and assumptions

i. Income taxes

Significant judgement is required in determination of provision for current tax and deferred tax

e.g. determination of taxability of certain incomes and deductibility of certain expenses etc. The carrying amount of income tax assets/liabilities is reviewed at each reporting date. The factors used in estimates may differ from actual outcome which could lead to signification adjustment to the amounts reported in financial statements

ii. Defined Benefit Plans

The cost of the defined benefit plan and the present value of such obligation are determined using actuarial valuations. An actuarial valuation involves making various assumptions that may differ from actual developments in the future. These include the determination of the discount rate, future, salary increases, mortality rates etc. Due to the complexities involved in the valuation and its long-term nature, the obligation is highly sensitive to changes in these assumptions. All assumptions are reviewed at each reporting date.

iii. Inventories

Management has estimated the net realizable values of inventories, taking into account the most reliable evidence available at each reporting date. The future realization of these inventories may be affected by market driven changes.

iv. Fair value measurement

Some of the company's assets and liabilities are measured at fair value for financial reporting process. In estimating the fair value of an asset or liability, the company uses market-observable data to the extent is available.

v. Provisions / Contingencies

Significant judgement is required for estimating the possible outflow of resources, if any, in respect of contingencies/claims/litigations against the Company which involves judgements around estimating the ultimate outcome of such past events and measurement of the obligation amount etc. The Company assesses such claims and monitors the legal environment on an ongoing basis, with the assistance of external legal counsel, wherever necessary.

vi. Useful lives of property plant and equipment and Intangible assets

The estimated useful lives of property plant and equipment and intangible assets are based on a number of factors including the effects of obsolescence, internal assessment of user experience and other economic factors (such as the known technological advancements, commercial obsolescence of the asset etc.). The useful life of property plant and equipment and intangible assets is reviewed on an ongoing basis.

vii. Recoverable amount of property, plant and equipment

The recoverable amount of property plant and equipment is based on estimates and assumptions regarding the expected market outlook and expected future cash flows. Any changes in these assumptions may have a material impact on the measurement of the recoverable amount and could result in impairment.

IV. Applicability of New and Revised Ind AS

Ministry of Corporate Affairs ("MCA") notifies new accounting standards or amendments to the existing accounting standards from time to time. There is no such notification which would be applicable w.e.f. April 1, 2024.

Disclosures as per Ind AS 19 “Employee Benefits”

(a) Defined Contribution Plan

The employer contribution to Provident Fund is ₹22.19 Lakhs for the year ended March 31, 2023 (Previous Year ₹19.75 Lakhs). The contributions during the year have been recognized as expense under the head ‘Contribution to Provident Fund and other funds’ above.

(b) Defined Benefit Plan

The Company has an obligation towards gratuity, a defined benefit retirement plan covering eligible employees and this is a non-funded plan. The Company accounts for the liability for gratuity benefits payable in the future based on actuarial valuation using projected unit credit method.

The defined benefit plans typically expose the Company to actuarial risks such as interest rate risk, longevity risk and salary risk.

Salary Risk

The present value of defined benefit plan is calculated with the assumption of salary increase rate of plan participants in future. Deviation in rate of increase in salary in future for plan participants from the rate of increase in salary used to determine the present value of obligation will have a bearing on the plan’s liability.

Interest Risk

The plan exposes the Company to the risk of fall in interest rates. A fall in interest rates will result in an increase in the ultimate cost of providing the above benefit and will thus result in an increase in value of the liability.

Longevity Risk

The present value of defined benefit plan liability is calculated by reference to the best estimate of the mortality of plan participants both during and after employment. An increase in the life expectancy of the plan participants will increase the plans liability.

(i) Fair Value Hierarchy

This section explains the judgements and estimates made in determining the fair values of the financial instruments that are measured, subsequent to initial recognition, at fair value. The below is the fair value measurement hierarchy used by the Company to determine the fair value of financial instruments, grouped into Level 1 to Level 3. The hierarchy gives the highest priority to quoted prices in active markets for identical assets or liabilities (Level 1 measurements) and lowest priority to unobservable inputs (Level 3 measurements).
