n case where the interest amount exceeds ₹ 5,000/- (or any such amount notified by the Government from ime to time) in a financial year, income tax will be deducted at source as per Section 194A of the Income Tax Act, 1961 at the rates in force. In case of the depositors, who are not liable to pay income-tax and the interest o be paid / credited in the financial year does not exceed the maximum amount exempt from tax, depositor nay submit a declaration in Form 15G in duplicate to Atlanta Corporate Services Private Limited, the Registrar to the Fixed Deposit Scheme, in the beginning of every financial year, so as to receive interest without deduction of tax at source, failing which tax will be deducted at source in accordance with Section 194A of the Income Tax Act, 1961. Senior citizens may submit a declaration in Form 15H. TAX DEDUCTED DUE TO NON-COMPLIANCE WITH THIS CONDITION WILL NOT BE REFUNDED.

Form15G/15H should be delivered to the office of the Registrar to the Fixed Deposit Scheme, along with the application form for the current financial year and by February 28 each year for the subsequent financial year(s). Form 15H/15G will be required for each financial year till the date of maturity.

Company will issue Tax Deduction Certificate, in the prescribed form, specifying the amount of tax deducted on the interest paid, within the stipulated period.

Depositors placing deposits should furnish their Permanent Account Number (PAN) allotted to them by the Income Tax Department.

Joint Deposits

Deposit will be accepted in joint names not exceeding three in number. Deposit will also be accepted in the name(s) of minor(s) through their natural guardians, who must sign the Application Form. In case of deposits in joint names, correspondence will be addressed to the person whose names appear first on Deposit Receipt. All cheques/ interest warrants/ ECS credit for payments of interest and principal amount will also be drawn in favour of the first named depositor irrespective of any contrary instructions received from any of the depositors. However any one of the joint depositors would be eligible to give discharge of the receipt on maturity/ repayment which shall be binding on all the joint depositors.

In the event of death of the first - named depositor, all payments on account of principal and/ or interest will be made to the person first in the order of the survivor(s) on production of the death certificate without reference to the heirs and / or legal representatives of the deceased. In a case where there are no joint holders or nominees as indicated below, payments will be made only on production of proper legal representation such as Probate of the Will, Succession Certificate or letter or Administration by a Court of Competent Jurisdiction duly notarised and having effect.

Nomination

If the deposit is held by more than one person, all the depositors may together nominate a person in the said manner, the nominee's right in the deposit shall vest in the event of death of all the joint depositors. The nominee must be a resident individual. In case a minor is appointed as a nominee, the depositor(s) should appoint a guardian other than himself /themselves.

The depositors are advised (optional) to provide specimen signature of the nominee to expedite the transmission of deposit to the nominee in the event of death of the depositors.

In the event of death of sole/ joint depositors, the Company will deal with the nominee (or the appointed guardian in case of minor till the minor attains majority) without any reference to legal heir and / or legal representatives of the deceased depositor(s).

Nomination shall stand rescinded upon repayment / renewal of the deposit.

The payment by the Company to the nominee shall constitute full discharge to the Company of its liability in respect of the deposit.

Fixed Deposit Receipts

Fixed Deposit Receipts shall be mailed by courier or Registered / Speed Post within 8 weeks of the date of realization of the cheque, at the address of the first applicant given in the Application Form. The Company shall not be responsible for any loss or delay in transit.

In case of loss or destruction or mutilation of the Deposit Receipt, the Company may at its sole discretion issue a duplicate receipt subject to compliance with its terms and conditions including any indemnity duly signed by all the joint depositors. All expenses in this connection will be borne by the depositor(s).

Fixed Deposit Receipts will not be transferable. The Company may however, at its discretion permit the addition of one name to the Deposit Receipt under certain circumstances and subject to such terms and conditions as it may deem fit. The Company will not accept or recognize any lien on or assignment of the Fixed Deposit Receipt for a loan taken from or by arrangement with the Company.

Premature Withdrawal

Premature withdrawal will be permissible at the sole discretion of the Company. All premature withdrawals shall be subject to such terms, including reduction in the rate of interest as prescribed in the Companies (Acceptance of Deposits) Rules 1975, as amended from time to time.

In the event of death of a depositor, the deposit may be repaid prematurely to the surviving depositor/s in the case of joint holding with survivor clause, or to the legal heir/s with interest at the rate that would have ordinarily been paid, had such deposit been accepted for the period for which such deposit had run up to the date of repayment. Further any brokerage paid by the Company at the time of acceptance/renewal, will also be deducted on any premature repayment. In case of premature withdrawal of high value deposits the benefit of better terms, including interest and brokerage, would be withdrawn retrospectively.

Renewal / Repayment of Deposits

The Fixed Deposit Receipt duly discharged on revenue stamp should be sent to the Registrar to the Fixed Deposit Scheme at least 4 weeks before the date of maturity to enable the Company to repay the deposit.

The Fixed Deposit will be repaid only on maturity and not on demand or notice except at the discretion of the Company.

Repayment of the Deposit will be made to the first named depositor by account payee cheque/demand draft on the Company's banker's payable at par/Electronic Clearing Service (ECS) facility as the case may be at the depositor's risk.

When the due date of any payment falls on a Saturday, Sunday, Bank Holiday or any other day on which the Company's office remains closed, the payment will be made on the next working day.

Deposits will not be renewed automatically upon maturity unless expressly asked for by filling in new prescribed application form at least 7 days before the date of maturity along with the discharge receipt. It is not obligatory on the part of the Company to give notice or advance intimation about the due date of maturity.

The application form can be obtained from the Company's Registered Office, Office of the Registrar to the Fixed Deposit Scheme, Office of the Advisors to the Fixed Deposit Scheme and website of the Company www.atlantaintra.co.in) as per the addresses given herein.

Where the Deposit Receipt is not presented for renewal on or before the due date the depositor will not be entitled to interest after the date of maturity.

No change in the first name of the depositor is permitted at the time of renewal.

General

The Company reserves the right:

- To alter or amend without notice any or all terms and stipulated above.
- To vary the terms and conditions of deposits.
- To discontinue acceptance of deposits at anytime at its discretion.
- To repay the existing deposits prematurely before the due date.
- To reject any application for fresh deposits or for renewal, without assigning any reason.

These terms and conditions form an integral part of the Application form.

Application may be rejected on technical grounds. In such cases, the same would be returned alongwith the Company's cheque for the principal amount to the first named depositor within 30 days of acceptance.

Acceptance, renewal and repayment of Fixed Deposits shall be subject to the Companies (Acceptance of Deposits) Rules, 1975 as amended from time to time.

Any disputes arising out of the acceptance of deposits shall be subject to the jurisdiction of Mumbai.

In the case of applications from employees/shareholders, the sole/first applicant should be an employee/ shareholder at the time of placement/renewal of deposit. In the case of applications from senior citizens, the first applicant should be an individual who has completed 60 years of age and should attach any one of the following as proof of age along with the application(s):- self-attested copy of Passport, Voter ID Card, PAN Card, Driving License, Secondary School Leaving Certificate, Life Insurance Policy, Birth Certificate issued by the competent authority, or any other document acceptable to the Company. Deposits will be accepted in the name(s) of minor(s) through the natural guardian who must sign the application form.

In case the investor makes a multiple selection of tenure under a scheme, the Company will as a default assume the deposit for the highest tenure from the selection made under the scheme. Where an investor makes a multiple selection of scheme, the Company will as a default assume the deposit for Cumulative Scheme for the highest tenure from the selection made under that scheme.

If an investor under a Non Cumulative Scheme submits wrong/incomplete information for enabling ECS payments for the interest, the Company reserves the right to reject the application and refund the amount without any interest for the period and also recover any bank charges and / or postage charges incurred in this regard.

Intimation regarding change of name, address, Bank Mandate, Bank Particulars etc., should be lodged at the Registered Office of the Company or offices of the Registrar to the Fixed Deposit Scheme, at least 30 days before the next date of interest payment for effecting changes thereof.

The Company will not recognize any lien or assignment of the deposit and/or interest thereon. The Company will not be responsible for delays or loss in postal transit of Deposit Receipts and cheques sent to depositors. In the event of loss of cheque, duplicate will be issued on such reasonable terms as to indemnity & otherwise as the Company may think fit.
