Bob Metzger appointed to manage aurionPro SENA's rapidly expanding WebCenter India Operations

EDISON, NJ, April 2012 – aurionPro SENA, a business unit of parent company aurionPro, today announced the appointment of Bob Metzger as the manager of aurionPro SENA's growing WebCenter India operations.

Bob has been an integral part of forming and expanding aurionPro SENA's WebCenter practice in North America, and has a 30-year background in software development and consulting, covering roles ranging from technical consultant to team management and operations. Bob will be using his experience and expertise to expand aurionPro SENA's WebCenter operations in Pune, India, where he will be responsible for talent acquisition, training, team management, and delivery of value to project teams globally.

"Being competitive in the WebCenter market means having an organization that has a vested interest in customer satisfaction, fosters the top implementation resources in the industry, and maintains the focus and expertise of a boutique firm while providing global scale and pricing," said Bob. "The combination of world-class and global delivery presents an exciting opportunity to our customers, to me personally, and to aurionPro SENA."

"We are extremely pleased that Bob was open to taking on this challenge and we expect great things for the WebCenter Practice and ultimately for our customers," said Robert Levine, President of aurionPro North America. "This move will ensure we have a solid global delivery capability with expert level talent, which will in turn bring value to our customers."

Bob will continue to be based in Minnesota, and will be traveling frequently to the Pune, India location.
