We have got very good response from the industry due to increase focus by Government of India to housing for all. There is a huge demand due to multiple uses by household as well as corporate sectors and product can be sold anywhere in India. We are right now selling through wholesalers at present. We are presently selling under the brand names of Plastking and Litewood. These products are expected to generate improved revenues in the coming years.

So we are trying to divide the revenues into two segment as described above

1. Industry to industry (B2B)
2. Industry to consumer (B2C)

Financial results of the year ended 31st march 2022 already shared with NSE in which approx. B2B is 75% and B2C is 24%.

Kindly update this information in your records.
