aurionPro SENA, a business unit of Aurionpro Solutions Limited, announces the appointment of Mark Tepsic as Senior Sales Manager, Western Region.

EDISON, NJ, USA - (Marketwire - Feb 9, 2012) - aurionPro SENA, a leading global software and consulting firm, today announced the appointment of Mark Tepsic as Senior Sales Manager, Western Region, in order to continue the strategy to aggressively expand its WebCenter practices and global delivery operations.

Prior to joining aurionPro SENA, Tepsic held the position of Sales Consulting Manager at Oracle. In this role he helped establish the WebCenter business unit and sales playbook, led a team of pre-sales resources who collectively increased revenues year-over-year, and managed all WebCenter account activity for the Western U.S. and Western Canada. Tepsic's career in Content Management and Portal technologies began at Optika, where he provided technical sales consulting for what is now Oracle's WebCenter Imaging solution, followed by a Sales Consulting Management role at Stellent, which was acquired by Oracle to round out their WebCenter Content product suite.

"Organizations are continuing to make significant investments in portal and content management technology and are expecting a high return on investment, accelerated time-to-value, and dedicated post-implementation support," said Tepsic. "This can only be delivered by an organization that strives for the highest level of customer satisfaction, fosters the top implementation resources in the industry, and maintains the focus and expertise of a boutique firm while providing global scale and pricing. I'm excited to join the SENA team and look forward to helping continue their tradition of quality service."

In his position with aurionPro SENA, Tepsic will be responsible for business development, relationship management, client satisfaction, and supporting the expansion of the WebCenter practice.

"Based on his leadership, business development, and account management expertise, Mark is a powerful addition to our organization and we anticipate that he will have a significant impact on all of our practices as they continue on their aggressive growth paths," said Robert Levine, President and CEO of aurionPro SENA. "Mark's addition to the team will open new opportunities in the Western U.S., as well as provide the world class service that our
