Preserve vitamin gardens : District Collector Pamela Satpathy

Karimnagar, November 15, TSIT : District Collector Pamela Satpathy directed bioscience teachers to focus on vitamin gardens in every government school.

Apart from setting up vitamin gardens in schools attractively she said that display boards should be set up so that the students know what kind of vitamins and minerals are in the vegetables and greens being grown.

She said that the main purpose of the vitamin garden is to inform the body about the types of vitamins that are available through the food items.

It was ordered that every school should have friendly boards and career chart of students. Collector along with District Medical Officer Venkataramana, Programme Officer Sana and Education Department Coordinator Ashok Reddy are present.

PM Modi Responds to Issues Raised by Tirumalagiri Villager

Tirumalagiri, November 15, TSIT : A representation submitted by a resident of Tirumalagiri village regarding local development issues has received an official response from the Prime Minister's Office (PMO). Villager (person shown in the photograph) had written to Prime Minister Narendra Modi highlighting the severe problems faced by the village, including lack of proper roads, drinking water scarcity, drainage issues, and delays in welfare schemes. In his letter dated September 17, the petitioner detailed how developmental works in Tirumalagiri Gram Panchayat have remained pending for years, causing daily hardships for the residents. He appealed to the Prime Minister to direct the concerned authorities to address the situation. Responding to the appeal, the Prime Minister's Office forwarded the representation to the relevant departments, instructing them to examine the issues and take necessary action. The letter from the PMO stated that the grievance has been registered and sent to the Telangana State Government for appropriate follow-up. The villager expressed satisfaction over the PMO's prompt response, stating that it has given hope to the people of Tirumalagiri that long-pending problems will finally be resolved. Locals also welcomed the development and appreciated the initiative taken in bringing their concerns to national attention.

The 56th birthday celebrations of senior Congress leader and Telangana State Fishermen Committee member Mandala Sammaiah were held in a heartfelt and meaningful manner at the Oasis Boys Hostel in waddepalli.
