SCUFFLE BREAKS OUT: Protests were held outside the West Bengal Education Department headquarters, Bikash Bhavan

Clash between police, protesting sacke teachers

PTI
KOLKATA

The area around Bikash Bhavan, the headquarters of the West Bengal Education Department in Salt Lake, turned into a virtual battlefield on Thursday evening after a series of violent clashes broke out between protesting school teachers and police.

School teachers, who have been rendered jobless by a Supreme Court order, being stopped by police personnel during their protest demanding restoration of their jobs, in front of the office of the state education minister in Kolkata

Police allegedly resorted to lathi-charge to remove the agitators, who laid siege before the government building. Many teachers, both men and women, were injured following the police action, which persisted for over an hour and in repeated phases, with some protesters seen bleeding from various body parts including from their heads. A number of police personnel were also injured in the violence and some of them had to be carried out of the area by their colleagues. The teachers, who lost their jobs following a court order last month that cancelled thousands of appointments in government-aided schools due to irregularities in the recruitment process, had been staging a sit-in demonstration since afternoon, demanding reinstatement. Tensions escalated around 8 pm when additional police forces were deployed, and an attempt was made to disperse the demonstrators using lathi-charge, a police officer said. The police action reportedly followed after a few hundred education department employees, who remained stuck inside the Bikash Bhavan premises in protest, failed to get past the

Pak ran like a scared dog with tail b/w its legs: Ex-Pentagon official

WASHINGTON

A former Pentagon official, Michael Rubin has said that India targeted terror infrastructure with precision, and it was able to blunt Pakistan's response following the recent strikes. He said that "Pakistan was running to try to achieve a ceasefire like a scared dog with its tail between its legs" after India put their airstrikes out of commission. In an interview with ANI, Rubin who is currently a senior fellow at the American Enterprise Institute stated that the Pakistani military cannot shield itself from the full reality of the fact that it "lost very, very badly." He said India has emerged victorious both diplomatically and militarily and mentioned that all attention is now on Pakistan's terrorist sponsorship.

On how he sees strikes conducted by India on May 7 and whether India was able to achieve what it wanted to convey, Rubin said, "India won this both diplomatically and militarily. The reason why India won diplomatically is all attention is now on Pakistan's terrorist sponsorship." The fact that Pakistani officers in uniform attended the funeral of terrorists shows that there is no differentiation between a terrorist and a member of the ISI or the Pakistani armed forces.

Jamia Millia Islamia also cuts ties with Turkish Institutions

NEW DELHI

Jamia Millia Islamia has suspended all Memorandum of Understanding (MoUs) with Turkish educational institutions, amid escalating calls across the country to boycott Turkey over its vocal support for Pakistan during the recent conflict.

Professor Saima Saad, PRO of Jamia Millia Islamia, said, "We have suspended all MoUs with institutions affiliated with the nation, Jamia stands with the Turkey and the Government of India." The development follows Jawaharlal Nehru University's (JNU) suspension of its academic agreement with Inonu University in Malaysia, Turkey, citing national security concerns.

JNU Vice Chancellor Santoshree Dhulipandi also called out Turkey for supporting Pakistan, saying, "Turkey has openly backed Pakistan, and that cannot be ignored." The MoU, signed on February 3, 2025, with Inonu University in Malaysia, Turkey, was meant to run till 2028.

"JNU is fully subsidised by Indian citizens. If the Indian state is being undermined, how can we continue ties with a country like Turkey? As an academic and citizen, my security is at risk—and that of every Indian," JNU VC has said.

India's higher education institutions are not the only ones reacting. The wider public has also launched an informal boycott campaign against Turkey and Azerbaijan, both of which have been accused of supporting Pakistan diplomatically and militarily.

Leading Indian travel platforms like MakeMyTrip and EaseMyTrip have reported a surge in cancellations of travel bookings to both countries. Many users cited the nations' "anti-India stance" and their support for Pakistan during the ongoing conflict as the reason.

FIVE BURN TO DEATHS BUS CATCHES FIRE IN LUCKNOW

LUCKNOW

Five people, including two children, were killed when a private bus caught fire in the Mohanlalganj area here early Thursday, police said.

They said the incident occurred around 5 am on Kisan Path, a major roadway on the outskirts of Lucknow. According to sources, the bus was carrying 80 passengers.

Assistant Commissioner of Police (Mohanlalganj) Rajnesh Verma said the bus was en route to Delhi from Begusarai in Bihar when it suddenly caught fire. "Initial investigation suggests that the fire may have started due to a short circuit in the bus's gearbox," Verma told PTI.

Most of the passengers were asleep when the fire started. It spread rapidly and five passengers -- two women, two children and a man -- were unable to get out in time and died. Several other passengers sustained injuries and have been taken to a hospital for treatment, police said.

According to eyewitnesses, the flames were visible from almost a kilometre away. The bus did not come to a halt immediately after the fire broke out, the eyewitnesses said. Firefighters reached the spot promptly and managed to control the blaze within half an hour.

Police found that the engine exit door of the bus failed to open, which led to passengers sitting in the rear getting trapped inside. According to authorities, a probe to determine the exact cause of the fire is underway.
