		EIL  EIL is engaged in the business of manufacture and supply of automotive parts and components of two, three and four wheel vehicles to original equipment manufacturers ("OEM").
4.	Rationale for amalgamation/ merger	The reasons and rationale underlying the Scheme, which would make it beneficial for the Transferor Companies and the Transferee Company, and their respective shareholders are as follows: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Consolidation of complementary businesses  The Transferor Companies operates majorly as captive or predominantly group-focused manufacturing units supplying components to the transferee company. Consolidating these businesses into a single corporate entity will: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Integrate the entire value chain covering design, tooling, manufacturing, quality control, and delivery;</li> <li>Strengthen the unified operational platform for 2W/3W automotive component manufacturing; and</li> <li>Enable the combined entity to pursue large-scale orders, new OEM relationships, and wider geographies.</li> </ol> </li> <li>Enhanced Competitiveness in the Automotive Sector  The industry is undergoing rapid technological and regulatory shifts (EV transition, BS6 enhancements, precision engineering requirements). A larger integrated entity will allow in: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Better absorb compliance costs (quality, safety, environmental).</li> <li>Pursue technology partnerships and strategic alliances.</li> <li>Adopt digitalization, automation, and advanced manufacturing technologies more efficiently.</li> <li>Offer OEMs a more reliable and scale-capable supply partner.</li> </ol> </li> <li>Simplification of group structure &amp; elimination of multi-layered shareholding  The current group framework contains multiple entities, cross-holdings among the Companies, and related contractual arrangements. The merger enables: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Simplified corporate structure with direct ownership of the Transferee Company;</li> <li>Elimination of multiple tiers of shareholding and interposed promoter group entities;</li> <li>Enhanced investor protection and transparency due to simplified structure and stronger corporate governance.</li> </ol> </li> </ol>

	4. Reduction of related-party transactions (RPTs) &amp; improved governance The Transferor Companies currently undertake significant related-party sales, service arrangements, and brand/marketing agreements with the Transferee Company. The merger will: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>a) Eliminate recurring RPTs relating to procurement, sales, brand licensing, and services.</li> <li>b) Remove the need for periodic approvals under Regulation 23 of SEBI (LODR).</li> <li>c) Improve governance by integrating all key operating functions within the Transferee Company.</li> <li>d) Enhance transparency for minority shareholders and reduce compliance burden.</li> </ul> 5. Operational Synergies &amp; Process Integration The merger allows significant synergy capture, including: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>a) Supply chain optimization: consolidated vendor management, integrated procurement, centralized logistics.</li> <li>b) Manufacturing efficiency: optimized plant loading, standardization of processes and quality systems, reduction in excess capacity.</li> <li>c) R&amp;D and Product Development: combined engineering teams enabling faster prototyping and new model development.</li> <li>d) Shared common services: unified finance, HR, legal, tax, IT infrastructure decreasing overhead costs.</li> <li>e) Other Compliances: Reduction in multiplicity of filings under Companies Act, GST, income tax, and factory laws.</li> <li>f) Increased vertical integration, driving stronger operational efficiencies across manufacturing and supply chain processes.</li> <li>g) Increased content per vehicle through expanded offerings in engineered plastic components and migrating from a Tier 1 component supplier to Tier-0.5 system supplier, enhancing value capture.</li> </ul> 6. Financial Synergies &amp; Strengthened Capital Structure The merger is expected to: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>a) Consolidate net worth and financial strength of Transferee Company, improving debt capacity and funding flexibility.</li> <li>b) Allow better allocation and utilization of capital expenditure across manufacturing locations.</li> <li>c) Reduce duplicated costs from separate statutory audits, compliance systems, and administrative expenses.</li> <li>d) Improve profitability through economies of scale and better cost absorption</li> <li>e) Enhancing customer wallet share through an expanded product offering and stronger cross-selling opportunities, resulting in improved customer stickiness.</li> </ul>
