Beta Drugs Limited Gets the “INVIMA” Nod for injectable formulations along with oral formulations

Beta Drugs Limited, a leading oncology company, has received approval from INVIMA- Colombia, for its injectables (liquid and lyophilized) formulations along with its oral solids (tablets and capsules) formulations.

This accreditation opens new avenues for the company to enhance its presence in Colombia. It is the third-largest pharmaceutical market in Latin America, after Brazil and Mexico.

It will also help to strengthen company's position in rapidly growing Latin American Oncology market.

The company has already shortlisted partners and product registrations for injectables and oral formulations will follow in the coming months.

Along with ANVISA & PICS approval, the company has recently achieved accreditation from the Eurasian Economic Union (EAEU), further enhancing its ability to access and operate in key markets across the Eurasian region like Russia, Armenia , Belarus & Kazakhstan.

The company is committed to providing innovative and effective healthcare solutions to patients worldwide. These approvals demonstrate Beta's 'quality first' approach to work.

The oncology market is growing rapidly across the world, and Beta Drugs Ltd is well-positioned to meet the increasing demand for effective cancer treatments in India and international markets.
