9 dead...

"Despite all precautions, an accidental blast occurred last night, resulting in the tragic loss of nine lives and 29 others injured," he said, adding that the investigation that led to the recovery of the explosives is still underway.

Over 360 kilograms of explosive materials were seized in Faridabad's Dhauj village that led to the unravelling of a white collar terror module. It is unclear when or how such a large quantity of explosive materials were transported to Nowgam and whether it is the standard practice to do so. Also unclear is what triggered the accidental explosion.

The DGP said the nine deceased included one State Investigating Agency official, three FSCL personnel, two crime photographers, two revenue officials and one tailor.

He added that 27 others, including civilians and police personnel, were injured, and many of them are undergoing treatment.

A master tailor Mohammad Shafi, who was also killed in the blast, had been engaged by the police to make bags where the material was supposed to be stored, according to the family members. The blast caused severe damage to the police station building and nearby structures.

Birsa Munda fought against the British government's plan to do religious conversion. The previous governments tried to suppress the contribution of the tribal leaders who fought for the country's freedom struggle.

The British government made the fake social reformers great and suppressed the contributions of the real freedom fighters.

Birsa Munda wanted to study, but only missionary schools run by the British imparted education those days. In the name of educating people, the British used to do religious conversion. Leaving the classroom, Munda swung into action against the British. It was Birsa Munda who first fought against religious conversion and tried to save the tribal people.

Roy fought against social evils: Raja Ram Mohan Roy played an important role in stopping Sati Pratha, child marriage, casteism, religious dogmas, and Purdah system. He also founded Brahma Samaj.

PM hails...

He said that his government has built Tribal Museums and is developing the jail where Birsa Munda was once held into a grand museum.

He also said that tribal communities possess ancient knowledge and scientific traditions. Modi said that Congress, which ruled the country for six decades, left tribal regions underdeveloped and neglected. The Prime Minister said his government is committed to tribal development and linked tribal history with the legacy of Lord Ram.

Chief Minister Mohan Yadav, Deputy Chief Minister Jagdish Devda, Governor Mangubhai Patel, local MLAs, MPs and several senior leaders attended the event. A large number of people from tribal communities participated, visited exhibitions and enjoyed cultural perform-

Deputy CM Devda praised BJP-led NDA's victory in Bihar elections and hailed Prime Minister Modi's leadership for defeating the opposition's grand alliance.

CM Yadav announced that all hostels and ashrams run by Tribal Affairs Department will be renamed after revered tribal freedom fighters, including Rani Durgavati and father-son duo, Raja Shankar Shah and Raghunath Shah. He also announced a major recruitment drive to hire over 5.000 new superintendents for these hostels within the next year.

'NDA won...

The mandate, he said, was the people's direct rejection of this politics of fragmentation. Without naming Rahul Gandhi or Tejashwi Yadav, he referred to "bail-bound leaders" whose vision, he claimed, extended no further than narrow social engineering. The public, he insisted, had seen

The Prime Minister also sharpened his critique by coining a new label for the opposition — the "Muslim-Maoist-Congress (MMC) alliance" — and asserted that the people of India would "never accept such a grouping." He claimed young Congress MPs privately confess they have no space to speak within their party and fear their political careers are stagnating

Framing the NDA's victory as part of a larger national shift, Modi argued that the Congress's collapse was now visible across states. He pointed out that the party's MLA count in several states combined barely matched the NDA's strength in Bihar alone, calling it proof of changing political currents.

Trump...

Trump dismissed the "affordability" issue as a "complete con job" by the Democrats, pointing to the lower petrol and energy prices and the higher inflation rate under former President Joe Biden, when it hit 19.7 per cent at one

Although the galloping inflation during Biden's tenure has been wrangled, it is still trotting along, recording 3 per cent in September. But some food products have recorded higher prices fueled by tariffs.

Actor Ajaz...

Police said they had been searching for Lala and an accomplice in a criminal case. After tracking their location to Sehore, police arrested the accomplice. Lala then fled and reportedly jumped into a pond to evade arrest, where he drowned

After his death, Khan was booked for his video remarks. Lala was a local historysheeter from the MIG area. In the video, Khan alleged that Lala could not have drowned as he was an experienced swimmer and claimed he was targeted because of his religion—allegations denied by

According to officials, the viral video had the potential to incite hatred and disturb public peace. After reviewing the complaint, video evidence, and screenshots, police concluded that Khan had violated the law. A case has been registered against him under Sections 223, 196, and 353(1)(b)(g) of the BNS.

Lalu's...

While Sanjay Yadav is RJD MP and close confidant of Lalu's vounger son Tejashwi Prasad Yadav, Rameez is Tejashwi's friend from neighbouring Uttar Pradesh and he belongs to a political family.

Neither Sanjay nor Rameez have commented, deepening the mystery and fuelling speculation about pressures within the party and family

Rohini Acharva hit the headlines after she donated one of her kidneys to her ailing father Lalu Prasad. In December 2024, the kidney transplant was carried out successfully in Singapore where Rohini, an MBBS degree holder, lives with her family Rohini's husband Samresh Singh is a software engineer. Rohini's father in-law Rai Ranvijay Singh, a retired Income Tax Commissioner, happened to be Lalu's friend and the two decided to marry their son and daughter. The friends later become relatives.

Rohini's decision to quit politics and distance herself from Lalu family assumed significance in the wake of expulsion of her elder brother Tej Pratap Yadav from RJD and also the family. Tej Pratap lost the election from Mahua from where he had started his political career in 2015.

Bihar verdict exposes repeated polling errors, underestimated voter shifts, and complexities of caste coalitions and silent voters

Why Exit Polls Failed

BHATNAGAR

NEW DELHI

In both the 2015 and 2020 Bihar Assembly elections a majority of the exit polls had either failed to gauge the magnitude of the wave in one direction correctly or the direction of the results correctly and this time too the pollsters failed miserably in reading the mood of the voters as reflected in the final re-

While at least 10 exit polls had projected a win for the National Democratic Alliance, led by chief minister Nitish Kumar, their numbers ended up way off the mark. These exit polls had predicted that the NDA would win between 130 and 167 seats in the 243-member House, voting for which was held in two phases on November 6 and 11.

But the magnitude of the NDA win was far more than the exit polls foresaw. The NDA ended up winning 202 seats whereas the Mahagathbandhan which was projected to win 70 to 100 seats had to rest content with just 35 seats.

In terms of vote share, while the exit polls had stated that NDA would get around 45 per cent in comparison to MGB's 43 per cent, the final percentage showed NDA getting 46.7 per cent of the votes polled as against MGB's 37.5 per

This is not the first time that the exit polls have erred in their calculations. In 2015 too, most of the exit polls in Bihar had got the magnitude of MGB's win wrong. That year, the Janata Dal (United) had fought in alliance with the RashWill continue to work for poor: RJD

The Rashtriya Janata Dal (RJD) issued its first official response on Saturday after a significant loss in the Bihar Assembly elections, acknowledging the mandate and reaffirming its commitment to public service. In a post on its official X handle, the party wrote: "Public service is a continuous process, an endless journey. Ups and downs are inevitable. No sorrow in defeat, no arrogance in victory. The Rashtriya Janata Dal is the party of the poor and will continue to raise their voice." VIP chief and Grand Alliance partner Mukesh Sahani also addressed the media, saying he accepted the public mandate and congratulated NDA.

triya Janata Dal and the alliance had won 178 seats as against the nearly 123 it was predicted to win. On the other hand, the NDA managed to win in just 58 constituencies, nearly half of the 114 the pollsters were giving it.

In 2020, the pollsters got even the direction of the results wrong. This time at least 11 exit polls had given the Mahagathbandhan a majority with 125 seats but it ended up with just 108, while the NDA got 125 seats as against the projected 110.

Psephologists insisted the complex nature of Bihar's polity makes it difficult to assess the results correctly. There are at least 10 major reasons why exit polls go wrong. These include the presence of highly fragmented social and caste coalitions in Bihar due to which even small shifts inside one subgroup can swing dozens of seats. Then there is the "silent or shy minister.

Ad-

to patronage networks, political intimidation, social bias impacting voting, as among women voters, that leads to systematic underestimation of whichever side they silently support.

voter effect" which is primarily due

Another reason for inaccurate predictions could be the small sample size of voters or the voters simply giving vague answers to queries on who they voted for. A higher voter turnout and especially among women is also being seen as a reason why the pollsters were not able to correctly estimate the victory margin of the NDA this time It is also said that since a large portion of Bihar's population lives in low-connectivity zones, pollsters often oversample easier-to-access semi-urban and urban booths leading to faulty estimates.

While all these factors remain constant in almost every election in Bihar, what also changed this time was the Special Intensive Revision of electoral rolls in the state just ahead of the polls. Due to the deletion and addition of a large number of votes, the traditional patterns no longer applied and the exit polls relied heavily on new estimates.

If the Congress and other Opposition parties are right in their accusation that votes of their supporters were cut and those of the NDA supporters were added at multiple places, then too the pollsters could have factored this aspect in their assessment. But either they overlooked it or were simply too hesitant to reveal what they were really seeing on the ground for the fear of being called biased.

With 87% strike rate in Bihar, Yogi gains edge over Akhilesh in UP

Biswajeet Banerjee

The BJP's emphatic sweep in the Bihar assembly election has sent ripples across Uttar Pradesh, sharpening political equations and giving Chief Minister Yogi Adityanath a decisive upper hand over his rivals. With the NDA leading in more than 200 seats in its best-ever performance in the state, Yogi has emerged as one of the most effective campaigners, a contrast that has rattled the opposition ahead of the 2027 UP assembly election.

Yogi addressed 31 rallies in Bihar and 27 of the candidates he backed went on to win. His strike rate of more than 87 per cent now stands out as the most successful among star campaigners from Uttar Pradesh. Political analysts say his performance reflects a mix of calibrated Hindutva messaging, combative political rhetoric and a well-coordinated booth-level push by the NDA.

Akhilesh Yadav, on the other hand, failed to convert his Bihar outreach into electoral gains. The Samajwadi Party chief campaigned in 22 constituencies but managed to secure victory in only two, recording a strike rate of just 9 per cent. Mayawati fared marginally better, with the BSP winning one of the five seats she canvassed for. Smaller UPbased outfits including the Azad Samaj Party, the SBSP led by Om Prakash Rajbhar and splinter groups associated with Swami Prasad Maurya were unable to retain their deposits.

Political analyst Manoi Bhadra says Yogi's USP lies in "delivering the BJP's core message with clarity while fusing Hindutva symbols with organisational discipline." Another analyst noted that his repeated references to Lord Ram, Lord Krishna and Goddess Sita during the Bihar campaign created an emotional connect with traditional BJP voters, helping the NDA consolidate its core base.

इस समय स्वार्थ अपनी पराकाष्ठा से आगे बड़ सकता है। विचित्र निर्णय इस समय हो सकते हैं। विश्व युद्ध को लेकर कुछ दिनों से चल रही अटकलों का कुछ निर्णय हो सकता है। वैसे कोई भी नहीं चाहता की इस प्रकार का वातावरण बने। लेकिन इसके रोकने के वैसे प्रयास भी उस तरह नहीं किए रहे हैं।

इस समय चर्चा है कि ट्रम्प साहस क्रोध में आकर कुछ विपरीत निर्णय न ले, अगर होता है तो परेशानियां बहुत ज्यादा बढ़ जाएगी। वहीं परमाणु युद्ध को लेकर तलवारें खींची हुई है। कब क्या हो जाए ? कर्क के गुरु किसी सकारात्मक निर्णय की ओर अग्रसर कर सकते हैं। थोड़ा थोड़ा त्याग करने की प्रवृत्ति बने तो मामला सुलझने की स्थिति बन सकती है।
