UK FTA: Indian firms to face no discrimination

PRESS TRUST OF INDIA
New Delhi, May 22

THE UK, FOR the first time, has agreed to accord non-discriminatory treatment to Indian companies in its public procurement system under the free trade agreement (FTA) between the two countries, an official said.

On May 6, the two countries announced conclusion of negotiations for the FTA. It will be implemented next year.

“For the first time, the UK agreed to take binding commitment to provide non-discriminatory treatment to our suppliers under UK’s Social Value regime in their public procurement system,” the official said.

Under the UK’s Social Value law, the British government departments require public authorities to have regard to economic, social and environmental well-being in connection with public services contracts.

According to the UK government, the trade pact will give UK businesses “unique and unprecedented” access to

WHAT DOES IT MEAN?

■ For first time, Indian firms will get non-discriminatory treatment under UK’s Social Value regime

■ British Social Value law mandates govt departments factor in economic, social, environmental well-being for public service contracts

■ UK firms, however, will not be allowed to participate in procurements by state govt entities, local bodies

India’s public procurement market, comprising about 40,000 tenders with a value of at least 38 billion pounds a year. On the other hand, India has agreed to allow British companies to participate in public procurements only in the non-sensitive sectors.

The UK firms, however, will not be allowed to participate in procurements by state government entities and local bodies.

“UK-based suppliers will be allowed to bid for domestic tenders above the agreed thresholds (above ₹ 200 crore) as deemed Class II local suppliers under public procurement.

Carve out is also provided for India’s ‘Make in India policy’ as well as medium and small enterprises.

Earlier, India opened the government procurement segment in the comprehensive trade pact with the UAE. Under that pact, UAE firms are allowed to participate in procurement tenders worth over ₹ 200 crore.

In 2020, the government modified public procurement norms to give maximum preference to companies whose goods and services have 50% or more local content to promote ‘Make in India’.
