Net FDI flows turn negative in May

- Capital account deficit stands at $2.4 billion

SHUBHAM RANA
New Delhi, July 15

NET FOREIGN DIRECT investment (FDI) inflows turned negative again in May, after being in the positive territory for four straight months. Net FDI outflows in May were $0.1 billion, against net inflows of $0.9 billion a year ago, data released by the Reserve Bank of India (RBI) said on Wednesday.

Net FDI inflows had risen to a near-five-year high of $6.6 billion in April. For the April-May period, net FDI inflows were still 160% higher year-on-year at $6.5 billion.

Net FDI remained negative for five consecutive months from August to December last year due to a rise in repatriation and outward FDI.

While gross FDI inflows have remained resilient in recent months, the rise in net FDI outflows in the second half of 2025 had raised alarm bells for the economy.

The sharp decline in foreign direct investment along with a rise in foreign portfolio investment outflows pushed India's balance of payments (BoP) into a deficit of $4.4 billion in May from a $4.4 billion surplus a year ago. The country recorded a BoP deficit of $6.6 billion in April.

Youth joblessness touches series high of 16.2%

INDIA'S UNEMPLOYMENT RATE for people aged 15 years and above remained unchanged at 5.5% in June despite a jump in joblessness among the youth, data released by the Ministry of Statistics and Programme Implementation (MoSPI) on Wednesday showed.

Youth unemployment—for those aged between 15 and 29 years—jumped to a 16.2% in June, the highest in the current Periodic Labour Force Survey series, which has data from April 2025. Youth unemployment was 15.9% in May and 15.3% in June 2025.

Joblessness among the youth primarily rose in urban areas—increasing to 18.2% in June from 17.5% in May. It remained steady at 15.1% in rural areas.

Rural and urban unemployment trends diverged in June. The overall unemployment rate picked up in urban India to 6.6% in June from 6.4% in the previous month. —FE BUREAU

Instamart to sell HPCL's composite LPG cylinders

HINDUSTAN PETROLEUM CORPORATION Limited (HPCL) on Tuesday said it would sell cooking gas cylinders on Swiggy's Instamart, marking the first time a state-run oil marketing company has put LPG onto a quick commerce platform. The service will be piloted in Bengaluru before a wider city rollout.

Customers will be able to order HPCL's newly branded HP Navya 10 kg composite cylinder, as well as a 5 kg metal cylinder, through the Instamart app. But unlike a typical quick commerce order, the cylinders will not be delivered by Instamart's own fleet. Orders will be fulfilled through HPCL's authorised distributor network and delivered by trained distributor personnel under existing safety and regulatory protocols, the companies said. First-time buyers must complete identity verification to receive a new cylinder, while subsequent refills will require returning the empty cylinder at the point of delivery, with proof-of-delivery documentation built into the process, it added.

During the pilot, cylinders will be delivered within 45 minutes, a person aware of the matter said, adding that fulfilment would move closer to Instamart's standard delivery speeds as the service expands. Expansion to all major metro cities is being targeted by the festive season, the sources added.

The tie-up is the latest attempt by Instamart to push beyond groceries into higher-value, essential categories as it works to lift order values and move towards contribution-margin breakeven, which Swiggy has guided for Q1FY27. Instamart, present in over 131 cities and listing more than 50,000 items, has been widening its assortment as platform order frequency has stayed under pressure, despite rising average order value.

New website for train ticket booking launched

PRESS TRUST OF INDIA
New Delhi, July 15

THE RAILWAY MINISTRY on Wednesday announced the launch of a new beta version of IRCTC website to make train ticket booking simpler and more user-friendly.

Officials said the website of the Indian Railway Catering and Tourism Corporation (IRCTC) is accessible from 9 pm on July 15, 2026, and urged users to provide feedback on its simplified features.

"The IRCTC has made four major improvements in this new beta version. First, it does not have unnecessary captchas, pop-ups, flashing graphics, or other distracting elements. Second, passengers can view seat availability across all classes," the Railway Ministry said in a statement.

"Third, it offers a faster checkout process, significantly reducing the number of steps required to book tickets. And last but not least, the website will now save passengers' details, making repeat bookings easier," it added.
