Dear Sir/Madam,

Sub: Clarification on news item appearing in “Media/Publication”

We refer to your email/letter dated 1st February 2026 regarding clarification on news item appearing in the “<https://energy.economictimes.indiatimes.com>” dated 30th January 2026 captioned “BPCL, Trafigura ink crude oil supply agreement”. In this respect we would like to state that this is an agreement entered into in the normal course of business and we do not consider this as the cause of the price movement in BPCL shares. Further, we submit our pointwise reply as under:

1. Whether such negotiations/events were taking place? If so, you are advised to provide the said information along with the sequence of events in chronological order from the start of negotiations/events till date.

BPCL signed crude oil supply agreement with Trafigura on 27th January 2026, which is in the normal course of business as per the company’s internal process.

2. Whether you/company are aware of any information that has not been announced to the Exchanges which could explain the movement in the trading, if any? Further, you are advised to provide the said information and the reasons for not disclosing the same to the Exchange earlier as required under regulation 30 of the SEBI (LODR) Regulations, 2015.

As the above agreement is in the normal course of business, there was no requirement to inform about the same to the stock exchanges.

3. The material impact of this article on the Company
None

This is for your information.

Thanking You,

Yours faithfully,

For Bharat Petroleum Corporation Limited
