Press Release

Brigade Group Recognized by Great Place to Work® as One Among India's Best Workplaces™ for Women 2021 (Top 100 – Large Companies)!

Bengaluru 13 October 2021: Brigade Group has been recognized by Great Place to Work® India among the Top 100 - India's Best Workplaces™ for Women 2021 (Large Companies Category)! Brigade Group were recognized from among 712 organizations across India.

"It is an honour to be recognized in the top 100 – India's Best Workplaces for Women 2021 in the large companies category. Some of the most senior and key positions at Brigade are held by women who are experts in their respective fields, many of who command respect within the organization and within the industry. By empowering women, Brigade Group has established that they have inherent qualities that enable multi-tasking, seamless team collaboration and add value. At Brigade, we strongly believe that women will continue to break barriers in the construction industry" said Chidambar Sirdeshpande, Head – HR and Administration, Brigade Group.

As a global authority on workplace culture, Great Place to Work® has been studying employee experience and people practices across organizations for over three decades. Every year, more than 10,000 organizations from over 60 countries partner with Great Place to Work® Institute for assessment, benchmarking and planning of actions to strengthen their workplace culture.

In India, the research conducted by Great Place to Work® has focused on the state of trust in workplaces, what drives employee experience, and its impact on the business outcomes. The research reveals that there is a clear and direct relationship between employee engagement and financial performance, and that best workplaces consistently outperform major stock indices in India.

"One thing the Best Workplaces™ for Women have taught us is that irrespective of the challenges posed by the pandemic or even the industry they operate in – they are intentional about building a diverse, equitable and inclusive environment. Voices of their women employees, the quality of inclusive practices and actions taken towards equitable distribution of power within the organization is a testimony to that," said Sandhya Ramesh, Head of the Diversity, Equity, and Inclusion Practice at Great Place to Work® India.

As an outcome of their study on India's Best Workplaces™ for Women 2021, Great Place to Work® India has released their research report that identifies what sets the Best Workplaces™ apart from the rest. In India, the Institute partners with more than 1100 organizations annually, across over 22 industries, to help them build High-Trust, High-Performance Cultures™ designed to deliver sustained business results. Hundreds of CEOs and CXOs from India Inc. are part of the great place community that is committed to the vision of making India a great place to work FOR ALL™.
