Dear Sir/Madam,

Sub: Disclosure under Regulation 30 of the SEBI(LODR) Regulation- Further intimation regarding assignment of debt of Burnpur Cement Limited in favour of CFM Asset Reconstruction Private Limited

This is in continuation of our earlier disclosure dated November 10, 2026, made pursuant to Regulation 30 of the SEBI (Listing Obligations and Disclosure Requirements) Regulations, 2015, regarding the assignment/transfer of the debts of the Company by UV Asset Reconstruction Company Limited (UVARC) in favour of CFM Asset Reconstruction Private Limited (CFMARC).

In this regard, we wish to inform you that the Company has received an intimation letter dated 19-11-2026 from CFM Asset Reconstruction Private Limited, being the assignee, confirming that pursuant to the agreement executed between UVARC and CFMARC, the entire outstanding debt pertaining to the Company, together with all underlying securities, rights, title and interest in respect thereof, has been assigned in favour of CFMARC under Section 5 of the Securitization and Reconstruction of Financial Assets and Enforcement of Security Interest Act, 2002.

CFMARC has further informed the Company that consequent upon the aforesaid assignment, it has stepped into the shoes of UVARC and is entitled to recover the outstanding dues and enforce the rights, powers and benefits under the relevant financial and security documents, including guarantee and security documents.

The aforesaid intimation received from CFMARC is in furtherance of and relates to the assignment of debt already intimated by the Company to the Stock Exchanges vide its earlier disclosure dated November 10, 2026.

The Company has taken note of the said intimation and shall make necessary consequential changes in its records, wherever applicable, in accordance with the terms of the assignment and applicable laws.
