Sub: Clarification on the News Item

Ref. Clarification on a news item appearing in the Times of India captioned “UIDAI orders probe against Bharti Airtel”

Dear Sir / Madam,

We confirm that the Company is dealing with the notices received from the authority and is in the process of providing the response thereto. We can however assure all concerned that as a responsible corporate we are fully compliant with the requirements of UIDAI and are taking steps to satisfy the UIDAI of this position. Bharti Airtel Limited provides telecommunication services and uses the Aadhaar data base for the purposes of mobile services KYC. Bharti Airtel is an authorised AUA, KUA and ASA of UIDAI having signed the License Agreements.

Furthermore, as a Company that follows the highest standards of corporate governance, we are fully conscious of our disclosure obligations and can assure you that we will always act in consonance with these obligations and more.

We also wish to clarify that the re-verification for mobile phones and the opening of Airtel Payment Bank Account are separate transactions and not linked.

We hope the above clarifies.

Thanking you,

Yours faithfully,

For Bharti Airtel Limited
